What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by arbitration and/or litigation only in the city of its corporate headquarters (currently Delaware, Ohio). Out-of-state arbitration or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to arbitrate or litigate with the franchisor in the city of its corporate headquarters than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the Franchise Agreement, even if your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This Guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets (perhaps including your house) at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS APPLY ONLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

Pursuant to the provisions of the Michigan Franchise Investment Law, MCL 445.1501, et. seq., American Freight Franchisor, LLC provides the following notices and disclosures to potential franchisees in the State of Michigan:

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

- (a) A prohibition of the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchisee on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchisee for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Any questions regarding this Notice shall be directed to the Department of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Division, 670 Law Building, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913, (517) 335-7567.

Note: Despite paragraph (f) above, we intend, and we and you agree, to enforce fully the arbitration provisions of our Franchise Agreement. We believe that paragraph (f) is unconstitutional and cannot preclude us from enforcing these arbitration provisions.

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Disclosure Document, “we,” or “us” means American Freight Franchisor, LLC, the franchisor. “You” or “your” means the person or entity that buys the franchise. If the franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company or other entity, we may require certain of your owners to sign the Personal Guarantee attached as Exhibit D to the Franchise Agreement and, if applicable, the Payment and Performance Guarantee attached as Appendix C to the Development Agreement, which means that all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and, as applicable, the Development Agreement also will apply to them.

The Franchisor

We are a Delaware limited liability company formed on October 13, 2020. We do business under our corporate name and the name “AMERICAN FREIGHT.” Our principal business address is 680 Sunbury Road, Delaware, Ohio 43015. Our agents for service of process are listed in Exhibit A to this Disclosure Document.

We were established to offer franchises for specialty retail businesses engaged in selling furniture, appliances and mattresses (“American Freight Retail Businesses”) that (i) operate under the trade name “AMERICAN FREIGHT” and other trademarks, service marks, trade names and commercial symbols we designate (collectively, the “Trademarks”), and (ii) operate under a distinct system (the “System”). We have not operated an American Freight Retail Business or similar business. Except as described in this Item 1, we currently do not conduct any other business activities. We have not previously offered franchises or operated businesses in any other line of business.

Parents and Predecessors

We have no predecessors.

We are directly owned by Franchise Group Newco S, LLC (“FG Newco S”), a Delaware limited liability company. In addition to us, FG Newco S directly owns American Freight Outlet Stores, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“AFOS”), which is described in more detail below in this Item 1.

In September 2019, our indirect parent, Liberty Tax, Inc. changed its name to Franchise Group, Inc. The principal business address of Franchise Group, Inc. (“FGI”) is 1716 Corporate Landing Parkway, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23454. FGI is the indirect parent company of Siempre Tax+ LLC (f/k/a Hispanic Tax, LLC) and JTH Tax LLC (f/k/a JTH Tax, Inc.), two companies that franchise businesses involved in providing retail federal and state income tax preparation services and related tax settlement products in Canada and the United States. Siempre Tax+ LLC and JTH Tax LLC both have the same principal address as FGI. Siempre Tax+ LLC and JTH Tax LLC have not operated American Freight Retail Businesses and, except as provided in this paragraph, have not offered franchises in any line of business.

On or about October 23, 2019, FGI completed its acquisition from Sears Hometown and Outlet Stores, Inc. (“SHOS”) of the Sears Outlet business and the eight Sears Outlet retail businesses then operated by Sears Outlet Stores, L.L.C., now known as AFOS. The Sears Outlet business was designed to provide customers with in-store and online access to new, one-of-a kind, out-of-carton, discontinued, reconditioned, overstocked, and scratched and dented products across a broad assortment of merchandise categories, including home appliances, lawn and garden equipment, mattresses and tools, at prices that are significantly lower than list prices. As of December 28, 2019, there were 127 Sears Outlet units in 35 states within the United States and 1 unit in Puerto Rico.

On or about February 14, 2020, FGI acquired American Freight Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation incorporated on August 7, 2014 and converted to a limited liability company, American Freight Group, LLC, on February 27, 2020, whose principal business address is located at 680 Sunbury Road, Delaware, Ohio 43015 (“American Freight”) and, as of February 14, 2020, its indirect subsidiary, American Freight, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, owned and operated (and it continues to own and operate) 172 American Freight outlets in 30 states within the United States. The principal business address of American Freight, LLC is also 680 Sunbury Road, Delaware, Ohio 43015. At the time of the acquisition, FGI announced its intention to combine American Freight with its Sears Outlet business to create a national brand under the name “American Freight Appliance, Furniture, Mattress.” Since February and prior to the date of this Disclosure Document, American Freight has combined the two brands under the American Freight name on a nationwide basis such that all Sears Outlet businesses have been converted to the American Freight brand. Prior to the issuance of this Disclosure Document, neither American Freight nor American Freight, LLC has offered franchises in any line of business.

Affiliates

Our affiliates that may offer products or services to our franchisees include:

FG Newco S is owned by Franchise Group Intermediate S, LLC, (“FGI S”), a Delaware limited liability company, which, in turn is owned by Franchise Group Intermediate Holdco (“FGI Holdco”), a Delaware limited liability company which, in turn is owned by Franchise Group New Holdco, LLC (“FGI New Holdco”), a Delaware limited liability company which, in turn, is owned by FGI. The principal business address of each of FGI S, FGI Holdco and FGI New Holdco is 1716 Corporate Landing Parkway, Virginia Beach, Virginia 23454.

AFOS owns and operates the company-owned former Sears locations under the American Freight brand and it also owns and operates distribution centers which are utilized for as fulfillment centers for the on-line business of the American Freight brand. AFOS may provide products and services to American Freight franchisees. AFOS has never offered franchises in any line of business. The principal business address for AFOS is 5500 Trillium Boulevard, Suite 510, Hoffman Estate, Illinois 60192.

As described above, American Freight, LLC owns and operates the company-owned American Freight locations throughout the United States (other than the former Sears locations which have been rebranded as American Freight locations). American Freight, LLC also holds the ownership of the trademarks and other intellectual property related to the American Freight brand, which we sublicense to you. American Freight, LLC is also a party to a number of vendor and service contracts pursuant to which our franchisees may be able to purchase products and services.

Our Other Affiliates Operating Retail Businesses

Our affiliate, Buddy’s Franchising and Licensing LLC, a Florida limited liability company, (“Buddy’s”), an indirect subsidiary of FGI, offers franchises for specialty retail businesses engaged in rent-to-own leasing (also referred to as “lease purchase”) and selling consumer electronics, residential furniture, appliances and household accessories that operate under the trade name “BUDDY’S HOME FURNISHINGS” and other trademarks, service marks, trade names and commercial symbols. Buddy’s does not operate any Buddy’s retail businesses and has not offered franchises or operated business in any other line of business. However, Buddy’s parent company, Buddy’s Newco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Buddy’s Newco”) owns and operates company-owned Buddy’s retail businesses. Buddy’s and Buddy’s Newco’s principal business addresses are 4705 S. Apopka Vineland Road, Suite 206, Orlando, Florida 32819. As of December 28, 2019, there were 96 company-owned Buddy’s retail businesses and 193 Buddy’s retail businesses operating under franchise agreements.

On December 16, 2019, FGI completed its acquisition of Vitamin Shoppe, Inc., the owner of The Vitamin Shoppe, an omni-channel specialty retailer and wellness lifestyle brand offering nutritional products, vitamins and supplements, natural beauty and skin care products as well as select foods, snacks and drinks. At the time of the acquisition, Vitamin Shoppe conducted business through more than 750 company-operated retail stores and through its website. FGI announced its intention to have The Vitamin Shoppe join the other franchise-centric specialty retail businesses within the FGI enterprise by commencing a program focusing on the offer and sale of franchises to operate Vitamin Shoppes businesses. No Vitamin Shoppe franchises have been offered or sold as of the date of this disclosure document.

The Franchise

We offer franchises to operate American Freight Retail Businesses to certain qualified individuals and entities. In this Disclosure Document, the term “Retail Business” will refer to the individual American Freight Retail Business you will operate under the terms of a franchise agreement, the current form of which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit C (the “Franchise Agreement”). The Franchise Agreement will grant you a territory (the “Territory”) for the Retail Business. The Retail Business will operate under the Trademark and offer for sale appliances, furniture and mattresses, along with ancillary product and services such as warranties, protection agreements, fabric protection, delivery, installation and haulaway services. American Freight Retail Businesses offer and sell (i) products and services that we designate as require to be offered in American Freight Retail Businesses (“Core Products and Services”) and (ii) products and services that we designate as optional in American Freight Retail Businesses (“Optional Products and Services”). American Freight Retail Businesses may only offer “Approved Products and Services” which means the range, types and brands of products and services associated with the System as set forth in the Operations Manual as Core Products and Services or Optional Products and Services, or otherwise approved by us for sale in a American Freight Retail Business.

We also offer to grant certain qualified individuals and entities the right to become a multi-unit developer (“Developer”) to open a certain number of American Freight Retail Businesses within a designated geographic territory (a “Development Area”) to meet a specified development schedule (a “Development Schedule”). You must commit to develop a minimum of two American Freight Retail Businesses under the Development Agreement. Developers will develop American Freight Retail Businesses under the terms of a development agreement, the current form of which is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit D (the “Development Agreement”). For each Retail Business developed under the Development Agreement, the applicable Developer must sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement, which will govern the operation of the Retail Business and which may include terms that are different from the form of Franchise Agreement included as Exhibit C to this Disclosure Document.

The Market and Competition

You will compete with other businesses, offering like products, merchandise and services, including online retailers. The market competition may vary from one geographic area to another. The Retail Business will offer the products to the general public.

Licenses and Permits

In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally, the Retail Business will be subject to various federal, state and local government regulations. You must comply with these laws and other laws that apply to businesses generally. It is your sole responsibility to obtain and keep in force all necessary licenses and permits required by public authorities.

LITIGATION

A.E. Hall and Sons Company v. Aaron's, Inc. and K. Todd Evans (Ontario Superior Court of Justice File No. 08-CL-007418). On February 22, 2008, W.E. Hall and Sons Company ("Hall") issued an action against Aaron's, Inc. and Evans, alleging that Aaron's and Evans had (1) made certain misrepresentations on operations infrastructure support for the "Aaron's" brand franchised system in Canada and (2) failed to comply with the disclosure obligations in the Arthur Wishart Act (Franchise Disclosure), 2000 with respect to projected operating costs, for 3 "Aaron's" brand franchises Aaron's sold to Hall in Cambridge, Kitchener and Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. Hall alternatively alleged that Aaron's fundamentally breached its obligations to Hall under the 3 franchise agreements. Aaron's filed a counterclaim against Hall and his related parties for breach of contract based on Hall's unilateral termination of his franchise agreements.

In a related matter, Aaron Rents, Inc. v. Willard Eugene Hall, Clay Taber and Anne Taber (Civil Action File No. 2008EV004822F), filed in the State Court of Fulton County, Georgia, Aaron's brought action against the named defendants as personal guarantors of a SunTrust Bank loan under which Hall defaulted and for which Aaron's also had been an original guarantor. Under a Consent Judgment dated April 1, 2009, judgment was entered for Aaron's and against the defendants for $506,382.94, pre-judgment interest of $42,610.02, attorneys' fees of $54,924.30 and post-judgment interest at 6.75% per annum. The parties engaged in mediation and entered into a confidential global settlement of the Canadian and U.S. actions in an agreement under which the parties agreed to a full and final mutual release from all claims, and Aaron's agreed to pay Hall CN$1,400,000 inclusive of interest, costs and taxes to avoid the costs and uncertainty of continued litigation. An order dismissing the action and the counterclaim on a without costs basis was issued and entered by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on March 9th, 2011 and the U.S. judgment was correspondingly marked as satisfied.

No other litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4
BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Notes:

Unless otherwise noted, you pay all fees to us, and all fees are uniformly imposed. All fees are non-refundable. You must sign a draft authorization for your business bank account. A current copy of the draft authorization is included as Exhibit C to the Franchise Agreement. The draft authorization permits us to draw from your account all amounts due and payable to us or our affiliates. You must maintain a sufficient balance to satisfy those account drafts and will be liable for any costs resulting from your failure to do so.

(1) “Gross Sales” means all revenue that you receive or otherwise derive from operating your Retail Business, whether from cash, check, credit or debit card, gift card or gift certificate, or other credit transactions, and regardless of collection or when you actually provide the products or services in exchange for the revenue. If you receive any proceeds from any business interruption insurance applicable to loss of revenue at your Retail Business, there will be added to Gross Sales an amount equal to the imputed gross revenue that the insurer used to calculate those proceeds. Gross Sales does not include (a) any bona fide returns and credits that are actually provided to customers or (b) any sales or other taxes that you collect from customers and pay directly to the appropriate taxing authority. You may not deduct payment provider fees (i.e., bank or credit card company fees and gift card vendor fees) from your Gross Sales calculation.

(2) The Marketing Fee is paid to us for deposit in a Marketing Fund. The Marketing Fee is payable for each Retail Business you own.

(3) You must pay us the Royalty Fee, Marketing Fee, Technology Fee and any other recurring payment under the Franchise Agreement weekly. Each Sunday, we will compute your Gross Sales for the period beginning at midnight on the preceding Sunday and ending at midnight on the Saturday after such preceding Sunday. Before 12:00 p.m. local time in Delaware, Ohio on the next business day after we make the computation of your weekly Gross Sales, we will notify you of the amount of Gross Sales computed by us. After 2:00 p.m. local time in Delaware, Ohio on the next business day after you are notified of the amount of our computation of your weekly Gross Sales, we will withdraw from your account all amounts due and payable to us or our affiliates. If we are unable to calculate any fees or other amounts due to us and our affiliates based on Gross Sales, whether as a result of your failure to make the necessary information available to us, communications failures, force majeure or otherwise, we may estimate the amount of fees due and may make a corresponding withdrawal from your account. If we overestimate the amount of fees due from you, then you will receive a credit for the overestimated amount against future fees when the amount has been determined. If we have underestimated the amount of fees due from you, then we will be authorized to withdraw the amount of the underpayment from your account immediately upon such determination.

(4) Audits and inspections generally will be at our expense. However, if an audit is made necessary by your failure to furnish reports, financial statements, tax returns or schedules as required under the Franchise Agreement, or if any audit or inspection reveals that you have understated or underreported Gross Sales, Royalty Fees, Marketing Fees, Local Marketing or other amounts owed to us by an amount greater than 2%, in addition to the amounts owed to us, you must reimburse us the cost and out-of-pocket expenses of the inspection or audit.

(5) The prevailing party in any action or proceeding under the Franchise Agreement, any lease or sublease, or otherwise relating to the Retail Business will be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. You (or your assignee) must also pay the attorneys' fees and costs we incur in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding pertaining to you. Further, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of the Franchise Agreement by either party, the aggrieved party will be entitled to an injunction or specific performance, as appropriate, plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

Development Agreement

Additional Funds (Note 12) (3-month period)	$75,000 to $170,000	As Incurred	As Incurred	3 rd party vendors, employees, landlord
TOTAL (Note 13)	$377,000 to $774,000

Notes:

* Except where otherwise noted, we do not offer direct or indirect financing to franchisees for any items. Except where otherwise noted, all amounts that you pay to us or our affiliates are nonrefundable. Third party suppliers will decide if payments to them are refundable.

(1) Initial Franchise Fee. The Initial Franchise Fee is $50,000. If you sign a Development Agreement, the Initial Franchise Fee for the second and each subsequent Retail Business that you open under the Development Agreement will be $35,000, with 50% payable on signing of the Development Agreement and 50% payable upon signing of each Franchise Agreement.

(2) Leasehold Improvements. The costs of construction and leasehold improvements depend upon the size and condition of the premises, whether the landlord will pay for some or all of the build-out, the nature and extent of leasehold improvements required, the local cost of contract work and the location of the Retail Business.

(3) Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment. We will provide you with a list of the furniture, trade fixtures and other equipment necessary for the operation of the Retail Business but this category includes fixtures to display merchandise, materials to build display fixtures, check-out counters and IT/POS/LP equipment. The initial investment required will depend on financing terms available and other factors.

(4) Delivery Truck. This category includes the cost to set up a delivery truck with supplies and equipment if you decide not to outsource delivery and installation services and assumes you will be leasing the delivery truck.

(5) Signage. This category includes American Freight signage for the exterior of the building (1 to 2 signs, depending on building size) and any pylon signs as allowed by landlord, as well as interior signage required in the Operations Manual.

(6) Lease. You typically will rent the premises for the Retail Business. We are unable to estimate with any precision the costs of leasing or purchasing real estate because of the wide variation from region to region and between urban and rural areas. A new lease will vary in rental amounts, lease terms, amount of space, tenant improvements, security deposit and advance rental required, and the cost of purchasing real estate is extremely site-dependent. Location is a major factor in the amount of rent needed, as are the age and quality of the building, the proximity to residential areas and other commercial areas of interest, local demographics, real estate related taxes in the jurisdiction, brokerage commissions, the length of the lease, and other factors. Your location will typically be 20,000 to 30,000 square feet. American Freight Retail Businesses are usually located in strip-type centers or free-standing buildings.

(7) Security Deposits. Landlords may require a security deposit. A typical lease deposit will be an amount equal to one month's rent.

(8) Opening Inventory and Supplies. Your initial inventory must be purchased from us or any approved suppliers. Initial inventory consists of various Approved Products and Services used in the operation of the Retail Business as well as other merchandise or products offered for sale by the Retail Business. The initial inventory expenditure will vary according to anticipated sales volume and current market prices for supplies and if you are selling home appliances (which would account for an additional $50,000 to $60,000 of inventory costs).

(9) Grand Opening Advertising. This amount is paid to us for advertising support for the grand opening of the Retail Business which could include flyers, newspaper ads, digital marketing, billboards and other forms of media.

(10) Training. You must make arrangements and pay the expenses for at least two people, including your General Manager and any additional people we may require, to attend our initial training program, including transportation, lodging, meals and wages. The amount expended will depend, in part, on the distance you must travel and the type of accommodations you choose.

(11) Miscellaneous Opening Costs. This category includes security deposits for utilities, permits and cash fund for the register, among other things.

(12) Additional Funds. This amount of working capital is projected as sufficient to cover initial operating expenses, including payroll, payroll taxes, employee benefits, utility costs, insurance, supplies, credit card interchange fees, local marketing, for a period of three months. This amount is based on our estimate of average costs and market conditions prevailing as of the date of this Disclosure Document. Your costs will depend on factors such as how closely you follow our recommended methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the local market for our product; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level reached during the initial period.

(13) Total. This total is an estimate of your initial investment and is based on our estimate of average costs and market conditions prevailing as of the date of this Disclosure Document and our affiliates' 26 years of experience. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise.

(DEVELOPMENT OF MULTIPLE RETAIL BUSINESSES UNDER DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT)
TYPE OF EXPENDITURE	AMOUNT	METHOD OF PAYMENT	WHEN DUE	TO WHOM PAYMENT IS TO BE MADE
Development Fee	Varies (Note 1)	Lump Sum	Upon Signing of Development Agreement	Us
TOTAL	Varies (Note 1) (excluding any costs associated with developing individual Retail Businesses)

Notes:

* We do not offer direct or indirect financing to developers for any items. Except where otherwise noted, all amounts that you pay to us or our affiliates are nonrefundable.

(1) Development Fee. Upon signing the Development Agreement, you must pay us the Development Fee. The Development Fee varies, and it will be an amount based on the number of Retail Businesses you commit to developing. You must commit to develop a minimum of two Retail Businesses under the Development Agreement.

(2) Credit of Portion of Development Fee. For each of the Retail Businesses opened under the Development Agreement, you must pay us an Initial Franchise Fee which will be due at the time you sign the Franchise Agreement for that Retail Business. When you open a Retail Business developed under a Development Agreement, we will credit the portion of the Development Fee that you paid for the Retail Business toward the payment of the Initial Franchise Fee for the Retail Business if you are in compliance with the Development Agreement and all of your Franchise Agreements.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

To help ensure a uniform image and uniform quality of products and services throughout the System, you must maintain and comply with our quality standards. Any required standards exist to protect our interest in the System and the Trademarks and not for the purpose of establishing any control, or the duty to take control, over those matters that clearly are reserved to you.

We must consent to the location of the Retail Business, and you will enter into a lease with the landlord for the location. You and the landlord must execute the standard form of lease addendum (attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit E).

You must construct and equip the Retail Business in accordance with our approved design, specifications and standards. In addition to meeting our design specifications and standards, it is your responsibility to ensure that your building plans comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act and all other federal, state and local laws.

Designated Sources

We will furnish you with lists of approved supplies and approved suppliers (including lists of Approved Products and Services). You must only use Approved Products and Services, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signs, advertising materials, trademarked items, novelties and other items in construction and operation of your Retail Business as set forth in the approved supplies/services and approved suppliers lists we establish. We may approve and change the manufacturer or supplier for approved supplies/services. Certain approved supplies/services may only be available (due to the availability or our restrictions on whom you must purchase from) from one source or select suppliers designated by us, and we and/or our affiliates may be the only source. You will pay the then-current price in effect for approved supplies/services you purchase from us or our affiliates, and we and our affiliates will make a profit on those sales to you. All products, equipment, supplies, services and other items used in the operation of your Retail Business that are not included in approved supplies/services or approved suppliers' lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish periodically.

We may establish a distribution center, or designate a distributor(s) for the System, for Approved Products and Services and require System franchisees to purchase Approved Products and Services from our distribution center, or a distributor(s) designated by us (no matter if there are alternate suppliers/distributors for the Approved Products and Services that are available to you).

We establish and modify specifications and standards for approved products based on our ongoing review of using quality products through our affiliates' operation of its businesses and our communications with manufacturers and suppliers. Based on those ongoing events, we may revise the list of approved suppliers. We give you the updated approved lists as we believe is advisable.

If we permit any items to be submitted for approval as Approved Products and Services or permit any Approved Product and Service to be a source from a supplier other than our designated single-source supplier or other select suppliers designated by us, you may propose the item and/or a supplier not on our approved list for our prior written approval. We may require you to submit sufficient information, specifications and samples concerning the item or supplier for us to determine whether the item or supplier meets our criteria. You must reimburse us for all costs and expenses that we incur in reviewing the alternative item or supplier. Our determination of approved suppliers, brands, manufacturers, distributors or supplies/services will be based on a variety of criteria, which may include quality, conformity with our specifications, reputation, delivery capability, design, price, insurance, distribution methods, supplier considerations and compatibility with the System. We generally will notify you of supplier approval or disapproval within 30 days of our receipt of all the information and samples we request but if you do not receive a response from us within 30 days, the supplier is deemed disapproved. The supplier also may be required to sign a supplier agreement. We may re-inspect the facilities and products of any supplier of an approved supplier or item and revoke our approval of any supplier or item that fails to continue to meet any of our criteria.

We will send written notice of any revocation of an approved supplier or item. We may require you to immediately withdraw from supply in your Retail Business any Approved Products and Services or any other product or service which in our reasonable opinion (i) does not conform or no longer conforms with the standards, quality controls and specifications for products or services to be supplied in an American Freight Retail Business; (ii) does not conform or no longer conforms with the range of products or services to be supplied in a American Freight Retail Business; or (iii) is, or may be, a health or safety risk.

There may be certain products or goods that require minimum orders from suppliers which would be greater than any individual American Freight Retail Business, in our experience, could reasonably make. In order to provide the opportunity for our franchisees to offer these certain products or goods, we or our affiliates may, periodically, purchase these products or goods in sufficient quantities to meet the supplier's minimum order requirements and then make these products or services available to our individual franchisees for sale at their American Freight Retail Businesses.

We and our affiliates reserve the right to receive rebates or other consideration from suppliers in connection with your purchase of these products or goods from us. The range and level of rebates are dictated by the suppliers or manufacturers, and often there are volume requirements that must be met or undertaken before these rebates are distributed to us and/or our affiliates. We and/or our affiliates will retain and use such payments as we deem appropriate or as required by the vendor. During our fiscal year ended December 28, 2019, we did not receive any money from vendors on account of franchisee purchases. There were no revenues from required purchases or leases by franchisees for the same period. These payment figures are unaudited and internally generated. There are no approved, recommended or required suppliers in which any of our officers own an interest.

We may negotiate prices for products or services for the benefit of the System but not on behalf of individual franchisees. This does not guarantee that the price for these products or services will be lower than other similar products on the market. We do not have purchasing or distribution cooperatives as of the date of this Disclosure Document. You may use only marketing and promotional materials that meet the standards described in Item 11 (see Items 6 and 11 for more information on marketing).

You must carry insurance policies protecting you, us, our affiliates and any other persons we designate by name. You must purchase insurance policies with the coverages we specify in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. Currently, you must have comprehensive general liability insurance with $1,000,000 minimum coverage per occurrence and $2,000,000 in the aggregate, automobile liability insurance with a combined single limit of $1,000,000 minimum coverage, personal injury coverage of $1,000,000 per occurrence, product liability coverage of at least $2,000,000, umbrella liability coverage of $2,000,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate, business property insurance that extends coverage on a replacement cost basis, workers compensation and employers' liability insurance as required by law, cyber insurance, and any other coverage required by law or your lease. All insurance policies must name us as an additional insured party. You must furnish us copies of all insurance policies.

We estimate that your payments to us and/or our affiliates and your purchase of products and services that meet our specifications and standards will represent approximately 80% of the cost to establish the Retail Business and approximately 80% of the cost to operate the Retail Business on an ongoing basis.

We consider a variety of factors when determining whether to renew or grant additional franchises. The factors we consider include compliance with the requirement described in this Item 8.

Advertising and Websites

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the System, we may require you to satisfy the Advertising Obligation. We will determine what proportion of the Advertising Obligation you must: (1) pay as a Marketing Fee to the Marketing Fund; (2) spend on local marketing, advertising and promotion; and (3) contribute to a Marketing Cooperative (if one is established for your region). No matter how we determine to split your advertising obligations, the total amount you must pay or spend will not exceed 7% of the Gross Sales of the Retail Business. (Franchise Agreement, Section 12). As of the date of this Disclosure Document, there are no franchisee advertising councils.

You (directly or through a Marketing Cooperative) may not use any marketing or promotional plans or materials until the materials have been submitted for our prior approval. The Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account, creates no fiduciary duties or obligations, and is our property. You have no property rights of any kind with respect to the monies in the Marketing Fund. As discussed above, you must submit your marketing materials to us for approval (including print, electronic or other forms of media). We may provide to you, in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing, information specifying the types of local marketing, advertising and promotional activities that qualify as local marketing, advertising and promotion under the Franchise Agreement.

Advertising Cooperatives

There are currently no local or regional advertising cooperatives. We have the right to designate local advertising markets (“Marketing Cooperatives”) and, if designated, you must direct some or all (as designated by us) of your local marketing expenditures to the Marketing Cooperative in your designated local advertising market. Each American Freight Retail Business within a designated local advertising area will be a member of the applicable Marketing Cooperative and each American Freight Retail Business will have one vote on all matters requiring a vote. We reserve the right to designate the bylaws that govern the operation of Marketing Cooperatives, although the bylaws cannot modify the voting structure set forth in the prior sentence. We may also designate the amount that you must contribute to the Marketing Cooperative. Any dispute which arises in any Marketing Cooperative regarding the amount or usage of such local marketing expenditures will be resolved by us in our sole discretion.

Websites

Any Website (as defined below) is deemed “advertising” under the Franchise Agreement, and is subject to (among other things) our review and prior written approval before it may be used. The term “Website” means an interactive electronic document, contained in a network of computers linked by communications software. The term Website includes, but is not limited to, Internet and World Wide Web home pages. In connection with any Website, you agree to the following:

1. We may establish a Website to promote the Trademarks, any or all of the Approved Products and Services, American Freight Retail Businesses and/or the System. We have the right to control all aspects of the Website, including its design, content, functionality, links to the Websites of third parties, and policies and terms of usage.

You must obtain from us our software package (“Software Package”) that includes a license for all necessary software to run your Retail Business and includes one license for Office 365 for your business-related e-mail. In addition to the Software Package, we reserve the right to designate a single source from whom you must purchase other portions of the Computer System and we may be the designated single source for such other portions of the Computer System or a designated supplier for certain aspects of the Computer System. You may not use any unapproved hardware or software or component of the Computer System that has not been obtained from the source(s) we designate. In addition, you agree to the following:

1. Site Selection and Build-Out

You must select the site for the Retail Business according to site selection guidelines we provide. Upon your submission of all required information, we will provide you with written notification within 30 days whether or not we have consented to the site you selected. You may not proceed to develop a Retail Business on the site unless we have consented to the site. Once you obtain our written consent, the site will become the Authorized Location designated on Exhibit A to the Franchise Agreement. The site selection factors considered by us in deciding whether or not to object to the location may include the following: (a) demographics; (b) traffic patterns; (c) visibility; (d) ability to reflect image to be portrayed by American Freight Retail Businesses; (e) adequacy of signs and image; and (f) locations of competitors' stores.

If the Retail Business is not ready to open for business within 180 days after the signing of the Franchise Agreement, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement or we may grant you, in our sole discretion, an extension for up to 12 months upon our receipt of your written request before the expiration of the 180-day deadline. If we determine, in our sole discretion, that you are in good faith using your best efforts to get the Retail Business open for business, then upon your written request and upon your execution of a withdrawal authorization form, we may permit you to extend, for a period of time to be determined by us, not to exceed 12 months, the date by which the Retail Business must be open and operational. If we grant you an extension, you must pay us monthly extension fees as follows: $4000 per month for each of the first 6 months of any extension, and $6,000 per month for months 7 through 12 of any extension. We shall have the right to withdraw the monthly extension fee from your bank account pursuant to the terms of the withdrawal authorization. The monthly extension fees that you pay us will not be refunded under any circumstances and will not be credited against any fee paid to us. There is no guarantee that we will grant you any extensions. If you fail to obtain an Authorized Location and begin operations of your Retail Business within the extended timeframe, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6(b)).

You are generally responsible for purchasing and installing the necessary equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory and supplies per our written specifications. You are also responsible for complying with all local ordinances and building codes and obtaining any required permits. We may require you to purchase some or all of these items from us, an affiliate of ours, or a designated third party.

Time Before You Open Your Business

We expect that you will open your Retail Business within 4 to 6 months after you sign the Franchise Agreement. However, you are required to open the Retail Business within 180 days from the signing of the Franchise Agreement. These deadlines may only be extended by prior written agreement with us. If you fail to begin operations within the required timeframe, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement (Franchise Agreement, Section 6(d)).

Factors that may impact this length of time may include whether you have a site selected upon execution of the Franchise Agreement, your ability to obtain a site, prepare a site survey, arrange leasing and financing, make leasehold improvements, install fixtures, equipment, and signs, decorate the Retail Business, meet local requirements, and obtain inventory and similar factors.

Operations Manual

We will provide you with access to a copy of our Operations Manual. Our Operations Manual contains proprietary information and you must keep such information confidential. A copy of the Table of Contents for the current Operations Manual is attached as Exhibit J. The Manual has a total of 689 pages.

Training

Before you open the Retail Business, at least two individuals, including you and your store manager and such other individuals as we designate must attend and successfully complete to our satisfaction our initial training program. Your failure to successfully complete training may result in termination of the Franchise Agreement. In this case, we will refund any fees paid by you to us, less our reasonable expenses. Training generally occurs at our training facilities in Delaware, Ohio, but we may schedule your training at a corporate location or other site located closer to you. In addition, in our sole discretion, all or any part of the training may be conducted virtually. We offer the training program as we determine necessary. You must pay for the salaries, fringe benefits, travel costs and expenses, and related costs for the individuals associated with you who attend the training program, but there is no separate fee for you and the other person to attend the initial training program which is included in the Initial Franchise Fee.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement

The following describes how the Territory and Development Area are determined, and the rights that you and we have under the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement.

Franchise Agreement

If the location for the Retail Business is known at the time that you sign the Franchise Agreement, (i) your Franchise Agreement will specify the location for Retail Business and (ii) the Territory will be determined by you and us before you sign the Franchise Agreement and described in the Franchise Agreement. The size and scope of the Territory will be contained in the Franchise Agreement. To determine the Territory, we use the density classes as defined by Forum Analytics. Once a Retail Business location is determined, we use the zip code of the Retail Business to determine to which class the trade area is assigned and the trade area radius, using the SIMMS Suggested Radius to define the Territory. If the location for the Retail Business is not known when you sign the Franchise Agreement, we will designate the Territory once we authorize a location for the Retail Business, and the location for the Retail Business and Territory will be documented in an addendum to the Franchise Agreement. The territories for American Freight Retail Businesses may have overlapping customer bases.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

During the term of the Franchise Agreement, we will not establish, nor franchise any other person to establish or operate a American Freight Retail Business in the Territory except as may be permitted under the Franchise Agreement and those exceptions are described in this Item 12. There are no circumstances under which the Territory may be altered prior to expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement. Your territorial protection is not dependent upon achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration or other factors, other than compliance with the Franchise Agreement. Except as described below, you will have no right of first refusal and, unless you sign the Development Agreement, you will not have any similar rights to acquire additional franchises or establish additional American Freight Retail Businesses. You do not have the right to relocate the Retail Business without our prior written authorization.

You may not solicit and sell products or services identified by the Trademarks to customers and prospective customers residing outside the Territory and Development Area through any other channels of distribution, including by catalog, telemarketing, the Internet or other direct marketing. You may only sell products and services from your Authorized Location.

Development Agreement

If you sign a Development Agreement, the Development Agreement will specify a Development Area, within which you may locate potential sites for Retail Businesses, subject to our approval and according to our then-current site selection guidelines. The size and scope of the Development Area will be contained in the Development Agreement and will be determined on a case-by-case basis. The factors that we consider in determining the size of a Development Area include current and projected market demand, demographics and population, traffic patterns, location of other American Freight Retail Businesses, the financial and other capabilities of the developer, and our development plans.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

During the term of the Development Agreement, if you are in full compliance with the obligations under the Development Agreement and Development Schedule and any other agreements between you and your affiliates and us and our affiliates, we will not operate, nor license any other person to establish or operate a American Freight Retail Business in the Development Area except as may be permitted under the Development Agreement and those exceptions are described in this Item 12. If you fail to pay any franchisee fees or execute any Franchise Agreement by any fee deadline; comply with the Development Schedule; an event occurs which gives us the right to terminate any Franchise Agreement; or you breach or otherwise fail to comply fully with any provision contained in the Development Agreement, we may terminate the Development Agreement, extend deadlines, or reduce the size of the Development Area to a lesser area that we determine. There are no other circumstances under which the Development Area may be altered prior to expiration or termination of the Development Agreement. Your territorial protection is not dependent upon achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other factors, other than compliance with the Development Agreement and Development Schedule.

Your rights in the Development Area will not apply to American Freight Retail Businesses (or their related territories) operating when you sign the Development Agreement, approved for development or under development in the Development Area when you sign the Development Agreement.

Our Reserved Rights (Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement)

Under the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement, we and our affiliates retain all the rights that we do not specifically grant to you. Among the rights that we and our affiliates retain are the following (the following list is only for purposes of illustration and is not meant to limit our and our affiliates' rights):

- (1) operate and grant to others the right to operate American Freight Retail Businesses at any location outside the Territory and Development Area regardless of the proximity of such American Freight Retail Businesses to the Territory and Development Area;
- (2) operate and grant to others the right to operate retail businesses or any other business, other than Competitive Businesses (defined below), at any location (including within the Territory and Development Area) that operate under any trademarks, service marks or trade dress (including the Trademarks) and under terms and conditions as we establish;
- (3) solicit and sell products or services to customers and prospective customers residing within the Territory and Development Area, including without limitation by catalog, direct advertising over the Internet or other electronic means. We are not required, nor will we, pay any compensation to you for soliciting or accepting orders from customers located in your Territory and/or Development Area;
- (4) merge with, acquire, establish or become associated with any businesses or locations of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses and locations may offer or sell items, products and services that are the same as or similar to the Approved Products and Services offered at or from the Retail Business(es) and which may be located anywhere within or outside the Territory and Development Area. Except as provided below under Conversion of Non-System Store in the Territory and Development Area, we may not grant a Competitive Business the right to use the Trademarks at a location in the Territory and Development Area; and
- (5) engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement, both within and outside the Territory and Development Area.

Operation or Franchising of Similar Businesses Under Different Trademarks by Us or Our Affiliates

Except as described in Item 1, we do not operate or franchise, or currently plan to operate or franchise, any business under a different trademark that sells or will sell goods or services similar to those that our America Freight franchisees sell. However, our affiliates, including Buddy's and Sears Outlet (described in Item 1) and other companies that currently are or in the future may become a part of FGI, may operate and/or franchise businesses under a different trademark that sell similar goods or services to those that our American Freight franchisees sell. Currently, Buddy's businesses maintain offices and training facilities that are physically separate from the offices and training facilities of our franchise network. All of the businesses that our affiliates and their franchisees operate may solicit and accept orders from customers near your business. Because they are separate companies, we do not expect any conflicts between our franchisees and our affiliates' franchisees regarding territory, customers or support, and we have no obligation to resolve any perceived conflicts that might arise.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

As mentioned in Item 1, American Freight, LLC licenses to us the right to use the Trademarks. The Franchise Agreement sublicenses you to use the Trademarks. The Development Agreement does not authorize you to use the Trademarks. American Freight, LLC has filed or intends to file all required affidavits and renewals for the Trademark listed below. American Freight, LLC also claims common law trademark rights for all of the Trademarks.

Trademark	Principal or Supplemental Register	Registration Date	Registration Number
AMERICAN FREIGHT	Principal	January 1, 2008	3362041

Your use of the Trademarks and any goodwill is to our exclusive benefit, and you retain no rights in the Trademarks upon expiration or termination of your Franchise Agreement. You are not permitted to make any changes or substitutions of any kind in or to the use of the Trademarks unless we direct in writing. We may also designate the Trademarks you are licensed to use in the Operations Manual. You must comply within a reasonable time if we notify you to discontinue or modify your use of any Trademark. We will have no liability or obligation as to your modification or discontinuance of any Trademark.

We have an exclusive license to use and sublicense others to use the Trademarks under a license agreement with American Freight, LLC (the "License Agreement"). The License Agreement has a term of 20 years. The parties may agree to renew or extend the License Agreement at the end of the term. The License Agreement may be terminated by either party upon written notice to the other of the default of the other under any of the provisions of the License Agreement or by written agreement signed by both parties. If we were ever to lose our rights under the License Agreement to the Trademarks, under the License Agreement with us, American Freight, LLC must allow our franchisees to maintain their rights to use the Trademarks in accordance with their franchise agreements. In this event, American Freight, LLC may also require us to assign all or some of our franchise agreements with our franchisees.

There are currently no effective material determinations by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state, or any court, or any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceeding, or any pending material litigation, involving the Trademarks. Other than the License Agreement with American Freight, LLC, there are no currently effective agreements that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of any Trademarks in any manner material to the franchise. There are no infringing uses actually known to us that could materially affect your use of the Trademarks.

We are not obligated to protect you against infringement or unfair competition claims arising out of your use of the Trademarks, or to participate in your defense or indemnify you. We reserve the right to control any litigation related to the Trademarks and we have the sole right to decide to pursue or settle any infringement actions related to the Trademarks. You must notify us promptly of any infringement or unauthorized use of the Trademarks of which you become aware. If we determine that a trademark infringement action requires changes or substitutions to the Trademarks, with limited exceptions described in the Franchise Agreement, you must make the changes or substitutions at your own expense except that we will reimburse you for the cost of any new signage.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

There are no patents, patents pending or copyrights that are material to the franchise. We or American Freight, LLC claim copyright ownership and protection for the Franchise Agreement, operation and training manuals, web site and for various sales, promotional and other materials published periodically. We have a non-exclusive license to use and sublicense others to use the System and other intellectual property relating to the operation of American Freight Retail Businesses under the License Agreement with American Freight, LLC described in Item 13.

There are no currently effective determinations of the Copyright Office (Library of Congress), United States Patent and Trademark Office, Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, or any court, or any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceeding or any pending material litigation involving any patents or copyrights. There are currently no agreements in effect that significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of any patents or copyrights in any manner material to the franchise. There are no infringing uses actually known to us that could materially affect your use of the patents or copyrights.

We are not obligated to protect you against infringement or unfair competition claims arising out of your use of any patents or copyrights, or to participate in your defense or indemnify you. We reserve the right to control any litigation related to any patents and copyrights, and we have the sole right to decide to pursue or settle any infringement actions related to the patents or copyrights. You must notify us promptly of any infringement or unauthorized use of the patents or copyrights of which you become aware.

You must keep confidential during and after the term of the Franchise Agreement all proprietary information, including the manuals. Upon termination of your Franchise Agreement, you must return to us all proprietary information, including but not limited to the manuals and all other copyright material. You must notify us immediately if you learn about an unauthorized use of proprietary information. We are not obligated to take any action, and we have the sole right to decide the appropriate response to any unauthorized use of proprietary information. You must comply with all changes to the manuals at your cost.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

During the term of the Franchise Agreement, you must devote full time and best efforts to the management of the Retail Business. You can hire a General Manager to perform your direct, on-premises operations and management obligations. Your General Manager is not required to hold any amount of equity interest in the Retail Business. Only with our express written permission may the General Manager not be one of your principal owners. You, your General Manager, and any other individuals we designate must complete our training course. The use of a General Manager in no way relieves you of your obligations to comply with the Agreement and to ensure that the Retail Business is properly operated.

All shareholders, officers, directors, partners, members and all managers and other employees having access to our proprietary information must execute non-disclosure agreements in a form we accept. If we so require, your managers and supervisory personnel and other employees receiving training from us must execute covenants not to compete in a form that we approve.

We will require all or some of your owners who have sufficient net worth, liquidity and management qualifications (as determined by us) to sign a Personal Guarantee which is attached as Exhibit D to the Franchise Agreement. If your owner(s) does not satisfy the qualifications to become a franchisee based on his/her/their qualifications, we may require the spouse(s) of the owner(s) to sign the Personal Guarantee in order to satisfy our qualifications. The above qualification requirements also apply to Development Agreements and the required individuals must sign a Personal Guarantee, which is attached as Exhibit C to the Development Agreement.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You also may not offer for sale any products or services through the internet or other online programming or advertising, mail order or other direct marketing channels. You are not otherwise limited in the customers to whom you may sell products or services.

ITEM 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in this disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

The company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses for which information is included in this Item 19 are substantially similar to your store in appearance, and in the products and services offered. Some of the company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses included in this Item 19 are located in metropolitan markets where expenses are frequently higher than non-metropolitan markets, and those stores generally have to achieve relatively higher revenues to cover higher expenses. The amount of revenues and expenses incurred will vary from American Freight Retail Business to American Freight Retail Business, whether located in a metropolitan market or a non-metropolitan market. In particular, the revenues and expenses of a franchisees business will be directly affected by many factors, such as: (a) geographic location; (b) competition from other firms in the market which offer similar products and services; (c) the presence of other businesses opened under the American Freight name; (d) the wage and benefit levels paid by you, and whether the you assumes the position of store manager or hire a store manager; (e) contractual arrangements with real estate lessors; (f) the extent to which you borrow working capital and the applicable interest rate on these borrowings; (g) potential price increases on inventory over time and if purchased from a supplier other than our affiliated suppliers; (h) the prices the you charge consumers; (i) the cost of any vehicles used in the business (if any); (j) the level of market acceptance, and market penetration of the products offered to consumers; (k) future technological developments; (l) other discretionary expenditures; (m) the quality of management and service at your business; (n) your legal, accounting and other professional fees; (o) federal, state and local income and other taxes; (p) State laws; and (q) accounting methods. Therefore, the information in this Item 19 should be used only as a reference in conducting your own analysis and preparing your own projected income statements, balance sheets and cash flow statements. American Freight strongly suggests that you consult your own financial advisor or personal accountant and conduct an independent investigation on any financial projections and federal, state, local income taxes or any other applicable taxes that you may incur in operating an American Freight Retail Business.

Some outlets have sold or earned these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you'll sell or earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representations in this Item 19 will be made available to you upon reasonable request.

1. Analysis of Average Gross Sales and Expenses for Company-Operated American Freight Retail Businesses

As of December 31, 2019, there were 173 company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses in operation. American Freight closed no businesses in 2016, six businesses in 2017, two businesses in 2018 and one business in 2019, thus those stores were not used in the calculations for this Item 19. American Freight reports all its financials on an accrual basis. Thus, the expenses reflected in each month may not have been the actual month the expenses were incurred. Also, the expenses listed in this financial performance representation (“FPR”) do not reflect any start-up expenses that you may incur (see Item 7 of the FDD for start-up cost).

This FPR contains four Tables. The Tables set forth certain historical information on Gross Sales and expenses for company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses. The Tables reflect the arithmetic mean (average) annual Gross Sales and expenses, and the highest, lowest, median and number and percent of the American Freight Retail Businesses higher than the mean, of the American Freight Retail Businesses included in the Tables.

The Tables reflect the payment of the Royalty, Marketing Fee (included in the marketing expenses), and Technology Fee that must be deducted from the Gross Sales to obtain your net income. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your American Freight Retail Business. Therefore, the financial results of your franchise are likely to differ, perhaps materially, from the results summarized below.

Description of Table 1-A and Table 2-A

Table 1-A reflects the historical average annualized Gross Sales, Cost of Goods Sold, Gross Profit, Royalty, Wages, Occupancy Expense, Advertising Expense, Miscellaneous Expense, Technology Fee, Total Expense and Net Income for the top, second, third and bottom quartile for 120 company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses for fiscal year 2019. The American Freight Retail Business had to be open for three full years as of December 31, 2019 to be included in this Table 1-A, thus they were mature stores. To determine which American Freight Retail Businesses fell in each quartile, we ranked these 120 businesses based on their annual Net Income and separated into quartiles, each containing 30 businesses.

Table 2-A reflects the historical average annualized Gross Sales, Cost of Goods Sold, Gross Profit, Royalty, Wages, Occupancy Expense, Advertising Expense, Miscellaneous Expense, Technology Fee, Total Expense and Net Income for company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses that were opened after January 1, 2016 and have been operating for one full year (51 American Freight Retail Businesses), two full years (38 American Freight Retail Businesses), three full years (27 American Freight Retail Businesses,) and four full years (8 American Freight Retail Businesses) respectively, as of December 31, 2019. The American Freight Retail Businesses had to be opened the entirety of the year to be included in the Table for that year. For example, an American Freight Retail Business that had been open for twenty-nine months would be included in Year 1 and Year 2, but not included in Year 3 because it was not opened the entirety of Year 3. The figures in Table 2-A represent the average Gross Sales and expenses for each included American Freight Retail Business during the indicated time period for that American Freight Business (e.g., for its first 12 months, second twelve months and third twelve months and fourth twelve months of operation). The particular monthly periods for each American Freight Retail Business that were used in calculating the averages occurred at different times during 2016 through 2019, depending on when each American Freight Retail Businesses opened. The American Freight Retail Businesses that were not included in this table were not opened for one full year as of December 31, 2019 (8 American Freight Retail Businesses) or were open prior to January 1, 2016 (120 American Freight Retail Businesses).

While the averages indicate a general increasing Gross Sales trend over the first four years, the Gross Sales of each specific American Freight Retail Business did not increase every year and not all American Freight Retail Businesses experienced the same pace or level of growth, or any growth from one benchmark year to the next – some experienced a year over year reduction of Gross Sales. The figures are not adjusted for inflation.

Description of Table 1-B and Table 2-B

Table 1-B are the derivation tables and reflect the historical highest, lowest, average, median and number and percent of American Freight Retail Businesses higher than the group average, on an average annualized basis for the 30 American Freight Retail Business in each quartile.

Table 2-B are the derivation tables and reflect the historical highest, lowest, average, median and number and percent of American Freight Retail Businesses higher than the group average, on an average annualized basis for the 51 American Freight Retail Businesses operating for one full year, the 38 American Freight Retail Businesses operating for two full years, the 27 American Freight Retail Businesses operating for three full years, and the 8 American Freight Retail Businesses open four full years, respectively.

This information is calculated for each category and does NOT represent a single store across all categories. They are the highest and lowest values for all American Freight Retail Businesses included in that category. Thus, the lowest and highest numbers may represent annualized results for different American Freight Retail Businesses.

Table Notes:

The following notes (i) generally define each line item category shown on the attached Tables, (ii) identify some of the reasons why your results may differ, (iii) you may categorize their expenses differently than the notes below, and (iv) highlight other factors you should be aware of. You should review the attached Tables only in conjunction with the following notes, which are an integral part of the numerical information.

Note 1: Gross Sales

DEFINED: Gross Sales means all revenue received or otherwise derived from operating the Retail Business, whether from cash, check, credit or debit card, gift card or gift certificate, or other credit transactions, and regardless of collection or when actually provide the products or services in exchange for the revenue. Gross Sales does not include (1) any bona fide returns and credits that are actually provided to customers or (2) any sales or other taxes that you collect from customers and pay directly to the appropriate taxing authority.

Note 2: Total Cost of Goods Sold (Total COGS)

DEFINED: Total COGS is the sum of all expenses associated with inventory, including: the purchase of accessories, parts and the cost of shipping inventory to the Retail Business. This value is the sum of all these costs less any credits given for merchandise returned for refurbishment and damaged or defective merchandise returned for return merchandise authorization (“RMA”). The COGS also include the cost associated with protection agreements paid to the approved supplier.

Note 3: Gross Profit

DEFINED: Gross Profit is calculated as Gross Sales less the Cost of Goods Sold.

Note 4: Royalty

DEFINED: Although the company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses do not pay a Royalty, the guidelines require we include the Royalty of five percent (5%) of your Gross Sales for the accounting period because that is an expense you will incur.

Note 5: Wages Expense

DEFINED: Wages Expense is the sum of all business personnel cost, including: commissions, salaries and hourly pay for both full-time and part-time employees, employee and employer contributions for F.I.C.A. taxes, federal unemployment taxes, state unemployment taxes, worker's compensation insurance, group health insurance (if any), and payroll processing fees.

Note 6: Occupancy Expense

DEFINED: Occupancy Expense is the sum of all business occupancy cost including rental space cost, common area maintenance (C.A.M), property taxes, real estate insurance, store maintenance, internet and telephone cost, electric, water and gas utilities.

Note 7: Advertising Expense

DEFINED: Advertising Expense is all advertising expenses, including online advertising, social media costs, billboards, radio ads, newspaper ads and inserts. Some American Freight Retail Businesses are near each other and may have combined advertising. Note that the Advertising Expense is higher than The Marketing Fee you will be required to pay, thus The Marketing Fee is included in this expense. Although the company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses do not pay a Marketing Fee, the guidelines require we include the expense because that is an expense you will incur.

Note 8: Miscellaneous Expenses

DEFINED: Miscellaneous Expenses are the sum of all general and administrative expenditures related to the day-to-day operations of a American Freight Retail Business not referenced in other expense categories, including: bank service charges, insurance expense, store supplies, third party credit card fees, accounting/professional fees, security cost and all other miscellaneous cost. This FPR does not reflect interest, income taxes, depreciation or amortization.

Note 9: Technology Fee

DEFINED: Although the company-operated American Freight Retail Businesses do not pay a Technology Fee, the guidelines require we include the Technology fee of fifteen hundred ($1,500) per month because that is an expense you will incur.

Note 10: Total Expense

DEFINED: Total Expense is the sum of Royalty Expense, Wages Expense, Occupancy Expense, Advertising Expense, Miscellaneous Expense and the Technology Fee Expense. This FPR does not reflect sales taxes, interest, income taxes, depreciation or amortization.

Note 11: Net Income

DEFINED: Net Income is Gross Profit less Total Expense.

Other than the above financial performance representation, American Freight does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Keshia Rodriguez, General Counsel for American Freight at keshia.rodriguez@americanfreight.us or (740) 368-0226; the Federal Trade Commission; and/or the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Member of American Freight Franchisor, LLC
Delaware, OH

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of American Freight Franchisor, LLC (the "Company") as of November 23, 2020, and the related notes (the "financial statement").

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Freight Franchisor, LLC as of November 23, 2020, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to Note 1, which contains disclosures about the business and operations of the Company and the nature and extent of transactions with the Parent. The accompanying financial statement has been prepared from the separate records maintained by the Company and is not necessarily indicative of the Company's financial position if the Parent did not provide certain assistance. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE

(a) Grant and Acceptance. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, we hereby grant to you the right and license to establish and operate one American Freight Retail Business (1) within the Site Selection Area, but only during the period from the Effective Date until we designate the Territory under Section 2(b) if you have not yet located an Authorized Location as of the Effective Date; or (2) at the Authorized Location, during the period beginning once you locate an Authorized Location and we designate the Territory (or on the Effective Date, if you have located an accepted Site as of the Effective Date) and continuing for the remainder of the Term (your “Retail Business”). You hereby accept said license and undertake the obligation to operate your Retail Business faithfully, honestly and diligently, using the System in compliance with the System Standards.

(b) Your Rights. During the term of this Agreement and provided that you are in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, we will not (i) modify the Territory without your written permission, or (ii) establish either a company-owned or franchised American Freight Retail Business location within the Territory under the Trademarks, except as may be permitted under Sections 2(e) or 2(f).

(c) Restrictions on Your Rights. The license granted herein is limited to the right to operate your Retail Business at the Authorized Location and you may not:

(i) sell products or services identified by the Trademarks through any other channels or methods of distribution (including the Internet or any other form of electronic commerce) or to any other person or entity for resale or further distribution;

(ii) subfranchise, sublicense, assign or transfer the rights under this Agreement, except as specifically provided in Section 13; or

(iii) use your Retail Business’ premises or any part of your Retail Business’ premises for any purpose other than your Retail Business established pursuant to this Agreement.

(d) Our Retention of Rights. You acknowledge and agree that we and our affiliates retain all rights not expressly granted to you under this Agreement and that we or our affiliates may, among other things, on any terms and conditions we deem advisable:

(i) establish and operate, and grant rights to others to establish and operate American Freight Retail Businesses at any location outside the Territory regardless of the proximity of such American Freight Retail Businesses to the Territory;

(ii) establish and operate, and grant rights to others to establish and operate, on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate, retail businesses, including Competitive Businesses, or any other similar or dissimilar businesses that are not primarily identified by the American Freight Trademarks at any locations, whether within or outside the Territory;

(iii) solicit and sell products or services to customers and prospective customers residing within the Territory, including without limitation, by any other methods of distribution, including but not limited to, point-of-sale lease and purchase programs directly to manufacturers and retailers; or by catalog, direct advertising over the Internet, or other electronic means;

(iv) merge with, acquire, establish or become associated with any businesses or locations of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses and locations may offer or sell items, products and services that are the same as or similar to the Approved Products and Services offered at or from your Retail Business and which may be located anywhere within or outside the Territory. Except as provided in Sections 2(e) and 2(f) below, we may not grant a Competitive Business the right to use the Trademarks at a location in the Territory; and

(v) engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by this Agreement, both within and outside the Territory.

(e) Conversion of Non-System Store. If we or any of our affiliates acquires any store operating under different trademarks that sells the same, similar or different products and services as those offered and sold by American Freight Retail Businesses (each a “Non-System Store”) within the Territory and we and/or our affiliates desire to convert such Non-System Store to an American Freight Retail Business operating under the Trademarks, we shall deliver to you a written notice of such intent to convert (each, a “Conversion Notice”). Provided that you are in compliance with all of the provisions of this Agreement and no default, or event which with the giving of notice or passage of time or both would become a default, exists under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, you shall have the option, exercisable within 30 days after receipt of such Conversion Notice, to purchase the Non-System Store and convert it to an American Freight Retail Business operating under the Trademarks by notifying us in writing. If you elect to purchase and convert the Non-System Store, you must consummate such purchase and execute our then-current franchise agreement and pay our then-current initial franchise fee (or, at our option, execute an amendment to this Agreement and pay our then-current initial franchise fee) within 30 days from the date of your notice to us of your election to purchase and convert. If we or our affiliate purchased the Non-System Store during the 180 days prior to our delivery of the Conversion Notice to you, the purchase price to be paid by you shall be the cash equivalent of the consideration paid by us or our affiliate for the Non-System Store (or, if we or our affiliate purchased the Non-System Store in a transaction which was for more than one Non-System Store, the cash equivalent of our or our affiliate’s proportionate per store cost, as determined by us or our affiliate in our or its sole discretion). In addition to the purchase price payable under this Section 2(e), you shall reimburse us or our affiliate for the costs and expenses incurred by us or our affiliate in connection with the acquisition of the Non-System Store (prorated if the Non-System Store was acquired as part of a multiple store purchase). You acknowledge that the value of the Non-System Store may diminish during the 180-day period after our or our affiliate’s acquisition of the Non-System Store. If we or our affiliate did not purchase the Non-System Store during the 180 days prior to delivery of the Conversion Notice, the purchase price, which shall be paid in cash, will be the fair market value of the Non-System Store. If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within a reasonable time, such fair market value shall be determined by two independent appraisers, one of whom shall be chosen by us or our affiliate and the other of whom shall be chosen by you. If such appraisers cannot agree on such fair market value, they shall jointly choose a third independent appraiser whose decision shall be final and binding. Each party shall bear the cost for its chosen appraiser, and the cost for a third appraiser, if any, shall be shared equally between you and us or our affiliate. If you do not elect to purchase and convert the Non-System Store, we may convert and operate, or license a third party to convert and operate, the Non-System Store as an American Freight Retail Business operating under the Trademarks, without incurring any liability to you.

(f) Business Entity Franchisee. If you are a business entity or association including, but not limited to, a corporation, limited liability company or general or limited partnership (collectively, an “Entity”), you agree and represent that:

(i) You have the authority to execute, deliver and perform your obligations under this Agreement and all related agreements, and you are duly organized or formed and are validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of your formation;

(ii) Your organizational documents (including, but not limited to, your bylaws, operating agreement or partnership agreement, as applicable) will recite that this Agreement restricts the issuance and transfer of any equity interests in you, and all certificates and other documents that represent equity interests in you will bear a legend referring to this Agreement’s restrictions;

(iii) Exhibit B to this Agreement completely and accurately describes all of your owners and their interests in you as of the Effective Date. Subject to our rights and your obligations under Section 13, you and your owners agree to update and deliver to us revised Exhibits B to reflect any permitted changes in the information that Exhibit B now contains; and

(iv) Your development and operation of American Freight Retail Businesses will be the only business you operate (although your owners may have other, non-competitive business interests).

3. TERM AND RENEWAL

(a) Term. The initial term of this Agreement is 10 years (the “Term”), commencing on the Effective Date. You agree to operate your American Freight Retail Business in compliance with this Agreement for the entire Term unless this Agreement is properly terminated under Section 14.

(b) Renewal. You will have the right to renew this Agreement, at the expiration of the Term, for one additional term of 10 years, commencing immediately upon the expiration of this Agreement, provided that:

(i) you provide us with written notice of your intent to renew at least 12 months, but no more than 18 months, prior to the expiration of the Term;

(ii) you are not in default of this Agreement and have substantially complied with all the provisions of this Agreement and any other agreement between us and you;

(iii) you have satisfied, prior to renewal, all monetary obligations owed by you to us, our affiliates or your suppliers or creditors, whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise;

(iv) you are able to maintain possession of the premises or obtain possession of mutually agreeable alternate premises for your Retail Business for the duration of the renewal term and have agreed, in writing, to make such capital expenditures necessary to refurbish, replace and modernize your Retail Business so that it will conform to our then-current standards for American Freight Retail Businesses;

(v) you pay us a renewal fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then-current initial franchise fee;

(vi) you execute our then-current form of Franchise Agreement, which may contain terms and conditions substantially different from those set forth in this Agreement;

(vii) you comply with our then-current qualification, accreditation and training requirements, undertaking any training, assessments or examinations (including training for all communications systems including the Computer System) and comply with all of our other requirements applying to new System franchisees; and

(viii) you and your Principal Owners and Personal Guarantors execute a general release of claims in the form we prescribe.

4. OUR OBLIGATIONS

(a) Subject to your continuing compliance with the terms of this Agreement, we will:

(i) grant you access to the Operations Manual;

(ii) provide the initial training program in accordance with Section 8(b);

(iii) provide site selection and build-out assistance in accordance with Section 6(a) or 6(d);

(iv) provide pre-grand opening advice and procedural assistance, upon your request, at a time and location of our choice, at least 30 days before opening;

(v) specify a list of products that are Approved Products and Services and approved supplies in accordance with Section 9(b);

(vi) establish and administer the Marketing Fund in accordance with Section 12(b); and

(vii) conduct from time to time such general advertising, marketing or promotion of the System as we consider appropriate.

(b) Solicited Assistance. We may make available to you, from time to time retail, management, technology, accounting and administrative services. These services will be provided on a fee for service or usage basis. You agree to pay us the designated price for any such optional services you select. You must execute any agreements we require in connection with optional services we provide.

(c) Visits. We or our representative, may make periodic visits to your Retail Business for the purposes of providing consultation, assistance, and guidance to you in all aspects of the operation and management of your Retail Business. We, or our representatives, who visit your Retail Business may prepare, for the benefit of both us and you, written reports with respect to such visits outlining any suggested changes or improvements in the operations of your Retail Business and detailing any defaults in such operations which become evident as a result of any such visit. Failure by you to implement the improvements and suggested changes detailed in such a report will be considered a default under Section 14(b)(i).

5. FEES, REPORTING AND AUDIT RIGHTS

(a) Initial Franchise Fee. In consideration for the grant of license under this Agreement, you must pay to us an initial franchise fee (the “Initial Franchise Fee”) as set forth on Exhibit A. The Initial Franchise Fee is due and payable in lump sum upon execution of this Agreement and is fully earned and non-refundable upon receipt.

(b) Royalty Fee. In addition to the Initial Franchise Fee and in consideration of the rights granted to you, you must pay to us a royalty fee (the “Royalty Fee”) in the amount of 5% of Gross Sales of your Retail Business. Royalty Fees must be paid weekly in accordance with the provisions of Sections 5(e) and 5(f) below.

(c) Marketing Fee. You must pay to us a marketing fund contribution in the amount we prescribe from time to time (the “Marketing Fee”) which is currently $7,100 per month, payable in accordance with the provisions of Sections 5(e) and 5(f) below. Throughout the Term, we have the right to increase the Marketing Fee from time to time provided that the Marketing Fee shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the Gross Sales of the Retail Business.

(d) Technology Fee. You must pay us a technology fee which is currently $1,500 per month which shall include all necessary software to run the Retail Business (the “Technology Fee”). This Technology Fee may increase if our costs increase. Technology Fees must be paid in accordance with the provisions of Sections 5(e) and 5(f) below.

(e) Computations and Remittances. You must pay the Royalty Fee, Marketing Fee, Technology Fee and any other recurring payment to us weekly as follows:

(i) For fees based on Gross Sales, each Sunday, we shall compute your Gross Sales for the period beginning at midnight on the preceding Sunday and ending at midnight on the Saturday after such preceding Sunday.

(ii) Before 12:00 p.m. local time in Delaware, Ohio on the next business day after we make the computation in Section 5(d)(i) above, we shall notify you of the amount of Gross Sales computed by us.

(iii) After 2:00 p.m. local time in Delaware, Ohio on the next business day after you are notified of the amount of our computation, we will withdraw pursuant to Section 5(e), from an account maintained by you and which permits direct withdrawals by us, all Royalty Fees, Marketing Fees, Technology Fees, and any other recurring payments due under this Agreement whether calculated as a flat fee or based on the Gross Sales computed by Franchisor and based on the agreements between you and us and/or our affiliates. You must maintain a sufficient amount of funds in such account to allow permitted withdrawals by us.

(iv) If we are unable to calculate any fees or other amounts due to us and our affiliates, as provided in this Section 5(e), whether as a result of your failure to make the necessary information available to us, communications failures, force majeure or otherwise, we may estimate the amount of fees due and may make a corresponding withdrawal from your account. If we overestimate the amount of fees due from you, then you shall receive a credit for the overestimated amount against future fees when such amount has been determined. If we have underestimated the amount of fees due from you, then we shall be authorized to withdraw the amount of the underpayment from your account immediately upon such determination.

If you give a cash refund or credit to any customer, which refund or credit is for an amount previously included in Gross Sales upon which we have withdrawn Royalty Fees and Marketing Fee (if Marketing Fees are based on a percentage of Gross Sales) from your account, you shall promptly enter the amount of such refund or credit into the Computer System. We will deduct the amount of each such refund or credit from our first computation of Gross Sales which occurs after you enter the amount of such refund or credit into the Computer System.

If any amount of Gross Sales upon which we have withdrawn fees from your account is subsequently uncollected by you, you shall promptly enter such uncollected amount into the Computer System. We shall deduct each such uncollected amount from our first computation of Gross Sales that occurs after you have entered such uncollected amount into the Computer System. If any amount entered into the Computer System by you as uncollected is subsequently collected by you, you shall promptly enter such amount into the Computer System, and we shall add such amount to our first computation of Gross Sales which occurs after you have entered such amount into the Computer System.

If any dispute arises as to the amount of any payment or fee withdrawn by us from your account, our books and records shall be treated as conclusive evidence of the correct amount, except to the extent that either we or you can show a clear error in our computation. The amounts set forth in our books and records with respect to each withdrawal shall be final and binding, unless either we or you notify the other in writing of any objection to the amount of such withdrawal no later than 30 days after such withdrawal. You and we shall promptly make all reasonable efforts to resolve any such dispute within a reasonable time after such notification.

(f) Electronic Transfer of Funds. You must sign an electronic transfer of funds authorization, the current form of which is attached as Exhibit C, and such other documents as we designate from time to time, to authorize and direct your bank or financial institution to transfer either electronically or through some other method of payment designated by us to transfer electronically directly to our account or our affiliates' and to charge to your account all amounts due to us or our affiliates. Your authorizations must permit us and our affiliates to designate the amount to be transferred from your account. You must maintain a balance in your account sufficient to allow us and our affiliates to collect the amounts owed when due. You are responsible for any penalties, fines, fees or other similar expenses associated with the transfer of funds described in this Section.

(g) Interest Charges; Late Fees. Any and all amounts that you owe to us or to our affiliates will bear interest at the rate of 18% per annum or the maximum contract rate of interest permitted by governing law, whichever is less, from and after the date of accrual. In addition to interest charges on late Royalty Fees, Technology Fees and Marketing Fee payments, you must pay to us a service charge of $100 for each delinquent report or payment that you owe to us under this Agreement. A payment is delinquent for any of the following reasons: (i) we do not receive the payment on or before the date due; or (ii) there are insufficient funds in your account to collect the total payment by a transfer of funds on or after the date due. The service charge is not interest or a penalty; it is only to compensate us for increased administrative and management costs due to late payment.

(h) No Subordination. You may not subordinate to any other obligation your obligation to pay us the royalties or any other fee or charge payable to us, whether under this Agreement or otherwise.

(i) Books and Records. You must maintain and preserve for the time period specified in the Operations Manual full, complete, and accurate books, records, and accounts in accordance with the standard accounting system prescribed by us in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. We have the right to require submission of any reports electronically via the Computer System and, as described in Section 9(n), we have the right at any time to retrieve and use any data and information from the Computer System that we deem necessary or desirable.

(j) Daily and Monthly Reporting Obligation. Each day you must enter into the Computer System all transactions related to your Retail Business, including the amount of Gross Sales and gross receipts of your Retail Business and the amount of sales tax. You must submit to us, on or before the 10th day of each calendar month, a monthly report in the form we periodically prescribe. The monthly report will include, but will not be limited to, the following information for the previous month: (i) an accurate list of names, addresses and contact details of all your suppliers, (ii) a report of all customer information collected in connection with customer loyalty programs, if any; and (iii) a detailed profit and loss statement within 60 days of the end of each month.

(k) Additional Reports. You also must, at your expense, submit to us within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year a detailed balance sheet, profit and loss statement and statement of cash flows for such fiscal year, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. We may require that the annual financial statements be reviewed by a certified public accountant. You must certify that all reports are true and correct. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to impose these requirements on you regardless of whether we impose the same requirement on our other System franchisees.

(k) Right to Inspect and Audit. We or our authorized representatives have the right at all times during the business day to enter the premises where your books and records relative to your Retail Business are kept and to evaluate, copy and audit such books and records. We also have the right to request information from your suppliers and vendors. In the event that any such evaluation or audit reveals any understatement of your Gross Sales, you must pay for the audit, and in addition to any other rights we may have, we have the right to conduct further periodic audits and evaluations of your books and records as we reasonably deem necessary for up to two years thereafter. Any such further audits and examinations will be at your sole expense, including any professional fees, travel and room and board expenses we incur related thereto. Furthermore, if you intentionally understate or underreport Gross Sales at any time or a subsequent audit or evaluation conducted within the two-year period reveals any understatement of your Gross Sales by 2% or more, in addition to any other remedies provided in this Agreement, we have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately. In order to verify the information that you supply, we have the right to reconstruct your sales through the inventory extension method or any other reasonable method of analyzing and reconstructing sales. You agree to accept any such reconstruction of sales unless you provide evidence in a form satisfactory to us of your sales within 14 days of the date of our notice of understatement or variance.

6. PREMISES STANDARDS AND MAINTENANCE

(a) Site Selection. If you have not yet located a Site that we have accepted as of the Effective Date, then promptly after the Effective Date, you must deliver to us for our review a complete site report and other materials and information we request for a suitable site within the “Site Selection Area” identified on Exhibit A. It is your responsibility to locate, evaluate and select the site for your Retail Business. We may, but have no obligation to, physically visit your proposed sites.

The Retail Business must be located at a Site that we have accepted. We will use our reasonable efforts to review and either accept or reject a site you propose within thirty (30) days after receiving the complete site report and other materials and information we request. If we have not delivered to you written notice of our acceptance of a proposed site within thirty (30) days after receiving the complete site report, that site will be deemed rejected. We will not unreasonably withhold our acceptance of a site that meets our then current criteria. We have the absolute right to reject any site that does not meet our criteria. We must consent to the site in writing and, upon obtaining our consent, the location will become the Authorized Location and included on Exhibit A.

Despite any assistance, information or recommendations that we provided or will provide (whether before or after the Effective Date) with respect to the Site, we have made and will make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, of the suitability of the Site for a Retail Business or any other purpose. Our recommendation indicates only that we believe that the Site meets or has the potential to meet, or that we have waived, the general criteria of Site acceptability that we have established as of that time. Applying criteria that have appeared effective for other sites might not accurately reflect the potential for all sites, and, after we recommend or accept a Site, demographic and/or other factors included in or excluded from our site criteria could change, thereby altering a site’s potential. The uncertainty and instability of these criteria are beyond our control, and we are not responsible if the Site fails to meet our or your expectations. Your acceptance of the rights under this Agreement is based on your own independent investigation of, or agreement in the future to investigate, the Site’s suitability.

(b) Opening. You may not open your Retail Business for business until we have notified you in writing that you have satisfied your pre-opening obligations as set forth in Sections 6(c) and 6(d) and we have approved your opening date. Your Retail Business must be open and operating within 180 days of the Effective Date and within 90 days after the date the Authorized Location is designated unless we authorize in writing an extension of time. We are not responsible or liable for any pre-opening obligations, losses or expenses you might incur for your failure to comply with these obligations or your failure to open by a particular date. If we determine, in our sole discretion, that you in good faith have used, and are continuing to use, your best efforts to open and commence operations of your Retail Business, then upon your written request, and execution of the withdrawal authorization form required by us, we may permit you to extend, for up to 12 months, the date by which you must open and commence operating your Retail Business. We are not obligated to extend the opening date. You must (i) make your written request for an extension no less than 90 days prior to the required opening date and (ii) have paid the entire Initial Franchise Fee. Only then will you be eligible for an extension which consists of monthly withdrawals by us from your account for the extension period (in accordance with Sections 5(e) and 5(f)) per the following schedule: $4,000 per month for each of the first 6 months of any extension and $6,000 per month for months 7-12 of any extension. The monthly extension fees due under this Section shall be drafted from the account specified in such withdrawal authorization form until your Retail Business opens. The monthly extension fees paid under this Section shall not be refunded under any circumstances and shall not be credited against any fee payable to us. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if we grant you any extension under this Section and we subsequently determine, in our sole reasonable discretion, that you are not using your best efforts to open and commence operations of your Retail Business within a reasonable period of time following the date of our grant of an extension, we may terminate the extension grant to you. The termination of any extension grant by us shall be deemed a default under Section 14(b) (ii) (C) of this Agreement.

(c) Lease from third-party. If a third-party will grant a lease or sublease for the premises of the Authorized Location, you must obtain our approval of the lease, and you and the landlord must execute a lease addendum in the form attached as Exhibit E.

(d) Pre-Opening Build Out. Subject to Section 6(e), you agree that, promptly after obtaining occupancy of the Authorized Location, you must meet the following build out requirements:

(i) you must construct, build out and equip your Retail Business in compliance with our current approved specifications and standards pertaining to equipment, inventory, signage, fixtures, furnishings, accessory features and design and layout as set forth in the Operations Manual;

(ii) you must have prepared and submitted for our approval a site survey and basic architectural plans and specifications consistent with our general atmosphere, image and color scheme requirements as set forth in the Operations Manual;

(iii) you may not commence build out and construction of your Retail Business until you have received our written consent to your construction plans;

(iv) you must obtain all required zoning permits, all required building, utility, health, sign permits and licenses, and any other required permits and licenses;

(v) you must comply with all applicable legal requirements relating to the building, signs, equipment and premises, including but not limited to, compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act;

(vi) you must use duly licensed and insured contractors for all construction, equipment installation and build out;

(vii) you must obtain all customary contractors' sworn statements and partial and final waivers of lien for construction, remodeling, decorating and installation services; and

(viii) if you fail to complete the requirements of all of the provisions of this Section 6(d) within the required timeframe for opening your Retail Business (unless extended pursuant to Section 6(b)), you will be in default pursuant to Section 14(b)(i).

(e) Future Alteration. Any change to the building plans or any replacement, reconstruction, addition or modification in the building, interior or exterior décor or image, equipment or signage of your Retail Business to be made after our consent is granted for initial plans, whether at the request of you, us or a third party may be made only with our prior written consent. You may not commence such replacement, reconstruction, addition or modification until you have received our written consent to your revised plans. In addition to your obligations under Section 6(d), during the Term, but not more frequently than once every five (5) years during the Term and as a condition to you exercising your right to renew this Agreement, we may require you, at your sole cost and expense, to refurbish, remodel and improve the Retail Business to conform your building design, trade dress, color schemes, and presentation of Trademarks to our then current specified public image as set forth in the Operating Manual. Such remodeling may include extensive structural changes to the Retail Business and replacement or modification of furnishings, fixtures and equipment as well as such other changes as we may direct, and you shall undertake such a program promptly upon notice from us, and shall complete any such remodeling as expeditiously as possible, but in any event within ninety (90) days of commencing same (and no later than the commencement of the renewal Term), unless we expressly agrees to a longer period of time.

(f) Maintenance. The building, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signage and trade dress (including the interior and exterior appearance) employed in the operation of your Retail Business must be maintained and refreshed in accordance with our requirements established periodically and any of our reasonable schedules prepared based upon our periodic evaluations of the premises. Within a period of 30 to 60 days (as we determine depending on the work needed) after the receipt of a report prepared following an evaluation, you must complete the items of maintenance we designate, including the repair of defective items and the replacement of irreparable or obsolete items of equipment and signage. If, however, any condition presents a threat to customers or public health or safety, you must complete the items of maintenance immediately, as further described in Section 9(k). If you fail to complete the require maintenance, we reserve the right to do so on your behalf and you must reimburse us for our costs and expenses.

(g) Relocation. You may not relocate your Retail Business without our prior written consent. Should it become necessary to relocate your Retail Business on account of condemnation, destruction or expiration or cancellation of your lease for reasons other than your breach, we will grant you authority to do so at a site acceptable to us that is within the Territory, is reasonably suited for an American Freight Retail Business, does not infringe on the rights of any other System franchisee, and is reasonably distant from other American Freight Retail Businesses provided that (i) your new Retail Business is open and operating within 120 days after your discontinuing operation of your Retail Business at the Authorized Location, all in accordance with our current standards at that time, and (ii) you reimburse us for our costs and expenses incurred in connection with the relocation (including legal fees and time spent by our employees).

(h) Modernization or Replacement. From time to time as we require, you must effect items of modernization or replacement of the building, premises, trade dress, trade fixtures, flooring, equipment and grounds as may be necessary for your Retail Business to conform to the standards for similarly situated new American Freight Retail Businesses. Furthermore, in addition to performing general, continued maintenance and refreshing of the premises when necessary in accordance with Section 6(f), you must affect any required expenditures for equipment or leasehold improvements necessary to prepare new product offerings. You acknowledge and agree that the requirements of this Section are both reasonable and necessary to ensure continued public acceptance and patronage of American Freight Retail Businesses and to avoid deterioration in connection with the operation of your Retail Business. If you fail to make any improvement or comply with our standards, we may, in addition to our other rights in this Agreement, effect such improvement or maintenance on your behalf and you must reimburse us for the costs we incur.

7. PERSONNEL AND SUPERVISION STANDARDS

(a) Supervision of the Business. You may operate your Retail Business with a General Manager who is not the Principal Owner only with our express written permission. Your Retail Business must at all times be under the direct supervision of the General Manager who is identified on Exhibit B. Any individual who will serve as your General Manager must satisfy any requirements or qualification we establish for general managers under the System and attend and complete any training program we require for general managers. You also must submit an updated Exhibit B. During any absence of your

General Manager, your Retail Business must be under the direct, on-premises supervision of a fully-trained manager who meets our qualifications for supervision of your Retail Business.

(b) Training. Prior to commencement of your Retail Business at least two individuals, including your General Manager and such other individuals we designate, must attend and successfully complete our training program at a place we designate (in our sole discretion, all or any portion of the training may be completed virtually). You are responsible for all room, board and travel expenses you incur during training. You understand that you may not open or operate your Retail Business until and unless you successfully complete the initial training program. Failure by you, your General Manager or any other individual designated under this Section to complete the training program to our satisfaction will constitute a default under Section 14(b).

(c) Ongoing Training. We may provide and require your Principal Owner, General Manager and your other employees as we designate to attend ongoing training not to exceed 10 days per year. If you designate a new General Manager after the initial training program, the General Manager must complete training to our satisfaction, and we will provide training to the new General Manager to the extent we can reasonably accommodate them in our regularly scheduled training course. You are responsible for all room, board and travel expenses during ongoing training. In addition, in the event that you are given notice of default as set forth in Section 14(a) and the default relates, in whole or in part, to your failure to meet any operational standards, we may require as a condition of curing the default that your General Manager and such other employees as we deem appropriate, at your expense, again attend and successfully complete our training program at a place we designate.

(d) Hiring and Staffing. You must at all times maintain a sufficient number of trained employees to properly and efficiently service your customers. You must conduct background checks on any prospective employees. You must hire and supervise efficient, competent, and courteous persons as your employees for the operation of your Retail Business and set and pay their wages, commissions and incentives with no liability on us. No employee of yours will be deemed to be an employee of ours for any purpose whatsoever. However, we reserve the right to prohibit you from employing individuals with criminal histories which, if such history became known to the public, could compromise or negatively impact the image of our brand. We do not share or codetermine the terms and conditions of employment of your employees nor do we affect matters relating to the employment relationship between you and your employees, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions. Employees at your Retail Business are your employees and will be under your control in implementing and maintaining operational standards at your Retail Business. As the franchisor of American Freight Retail Businesses, we do not engage in any employer-type activities for which you are responsible such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, work assigned, discipline and working conditions.

(e) Attendance at Meetings. Your Principal Owner, General Manager and such other employees as we designate must, at your expense, attend all conferences, conventions, seminars or meetings that we hold for System franchisees to set forth new methods and programs for operation, training, management, sales or marketing. If your Principal Owner and General Manager are unable to attend any such meeting, you must notify us prior to the meeting and have a substitute person from your business, acceptable to us, attend and represent you at such meeting.

8. YOUR OTHER OBLIGATIONS; NON-COMPETE COVENANTS; SECURITY INTEREST

(a) Payment of Debts. You agree to pay promptly when due (i) all payments, obligations, assessments and taxes due and payable to us and our affiliates, to vendors, suppliers, lessors, federal, state or local governments, or creditors in connection with your Retail Business; (ii) all liens and encumbrances of every kind and character created or placed upon or against any of the property used in connection with your Retail Business; and (iii) all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by you in the conduct of your Retail Business. In the event you default in making any such payment, we are authorized, but not required, to pay the same on your behalf, and you agree promptly to reimburse us on demand for any such payment.

(b) Taxes and Indebtedness. You must promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by you in the operation of your Retail Business. You must pay us or our affiliates within 10 days after demand: (i) all sales taxes, corporate taxes, trademark license taxes and any like taxes imposed on, required to be collected by or paid by us or our affiliates on account of products or services we or our affiliates furnish to you or arrange to furnish to you, or on account of our or our affiliates' collection of any fee related to this Agreement (including products and services you purchase in connection with your Retail Business); (ii) all franchise or like taxes, whether based on gross receipts, gross sales, royalty fees, contributions to the Marketing Fund, technology fees, or otherwise imposed on, required to be collected by or paid by us or our affiliates; and (iii) all other amounts we or our affiliates pay or must pay for you for any reason.

(c) Indemnification by You. Nothing in this Agreement authorizes you to make any contract, agreement, warranty or representation on our behalf or to incur any debt or other obligation in our name, and we will in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable under this Agreement as a result of, any such action; nor will we be liable by reason of any act or omission of yours in your operation of your Retail Business or for any claim or judgment arising against you or us from your operation of your Retail Business. You waive all claims against us for damages to property or injuries to persons arising out of the operation of your Retail Business. You must fully protect, defend, indemnify and hold us, our affiliates and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys and shareholders of ours and our affiliates (the "Indemnitees") harmless from and against any and all causes of action, claims, proceedings, losses, costs, expenses, liabilities, litigation, damages or other expenses (including settlement costs and attorneys' fees) of any nature whatsoever arising in any manner, directly or indirectly, out of or in connection with or incidental to the operation of your Retail Business (regardless of cause or any concurrent or contributing fault or negligence of us or our affiliates), your conduct under this Agreement, any breach by you, your failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or your noncompliance or alleged noncompliance with any law, ordinance, rule or regulation, including any allegation that we or another Indemnitee is a joint employer or otherwise responsible for your acts or omissions relating to your employees. You agree that with respect to any threatened or actual litigation, proceeding or dispute which could directly or indirectly affect any of the Indemnitees, the Indemnitees will have the right to: (i) choose counsel; (ii) direct, manage and/or control the handling of the matter; and (iii) settle on behalf of the Indemnitees, and/or you, any claim against the Indemnitees in their sole discretion. Indemnitees' exercise of these rights does not affect your obligation to indemnify and hold us harmless in accordance with this Section. All vouchers, canceled checks, receipts, receipted bills or other evidence of payments for any such losses, liabilities, costs, damages, charges or expenses of whatsoever nature incurred by any Indemnitee will be taken as evidence of your obligation under this Agreement. This Section will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and applies to such claims even if they exceed the limits of your insurance coverage.

(d) Insurance Coverage. You must purchase and maintain in full force and effect, at your expense, insurance that insures both you and us, our affiliates and any other persons we designate by name. The insurance policies must be issued by a reputable insurance company licensed to do business in the state in which the Retail Business is located and have a Policyholders Rating of “A” or better, as assigned by Alfred M. Best and Company, Inc., or comparable rating service and must include, at a minimum, the coverages we specify in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing.

(e) Alternate Insurance Coverage. If you can purchase insurance policies at better terms than that offered by any company we specify pursuant to Section 8(d), carrying at a minimum the same coverages and under the same terms and conditions as we specify pursuant to Section 8(d), then we may, at our sole option, authorize you to purchase such alternative insurance policies. If we authorize you to purchase such alternative insurance policies, you must purchase and maintain in full force and effect, at your expense, insurance that insures both you and us, our affiliates and any other persons we designate by name. The insurance policies must include, at a minimum, the coverages specified by us pursuant to Section 8(d) and contained in the Operations Manual or otherwise prescribed in writing.

(f) Insurance Commencement, Proof and Changes. The required insurance coverage must commence as of the date the building lease begins, you commence construction of your Retail Business or on the date you publicly disclose or identify the site as the site of your Retail Business, whichever occurs earlier. You must deliver to us at commencement of coverage and annually or at our request a proper certificate evidencing the existence of such insurance coverage and your compliance with the provisions of this Section. The insurance certificate must show our status as an additional insured and provide that we will be given 30 days’ prior written notice of material change in or termination or cancellation of the policy. We also may request copies of all policies. We may modify the required minimum limits from time to time and by written notice to you, as conditions require, to reflect changes in relevant circumstances, industry standards, experiences in the System, standards of liability and higher damage awards. If you do not procure and maintain the insurance coverage required by this Agreement, we have the right, but not the obligation, to procure insurance coverage and to charge the cost of same to you, together with a reasonable fee for the expenses we incur in doing so, payable by you immediately upon notice.

(g) Necessity of Covenants. You acknowledge and agree that (a) you and the other individuals and entities required to comply with Sections 8(h) and 8(i) have received an advantage through the specialized training provided under this Agreement, the knowledge of the day-to-day operations of an American Freight Retail Business and access to our standards, the Operations Manual, the System, the Confidential Information and our trade secrets, (b) are not designed to deprive you of a means of livelihood and will not do so and (c) the covenants and restrictions in Sections 8(h) and 8(i): (i) are reasonable, appropriate and necessary to protect our standards, the System, the Confidential Information, our trade secrets, other System franchisees, the goodwill of the System, relationships with our prospective and existing customers, and our legitimate interests and (ii) do not cause undue hardship on you or any of the other individuals and entities required by Sections 8(h) and 8(i) to comply with the covenants and restrictions. Unless otherwise specified, the term “you” as used in Sections 8(h) and 8(i) includes, collectively and individually, all Principal Owners, guarantors, officers, directors, members, managers, partners, as the case may be, and holders of any ownership interest in you.

(h) In Term Non-compete Covenants. You covenant that during the Term you will not, either directly or indirectly, for yourself or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any person or entity, own, manage, operate, maintain, engage in, consult with or have any interest in any Competitive Business other than one authorized by any other agreement between us and you.

(i) Post Term Non-compete Covenants. You covenant that you will not, for a period of two years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of termination, or within two years of the sale of your Retail Business or any interest in you, either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity, own, manage, operate, maintain, engage in, consult with or have any interest in a Competitive Business: (A) at the Authorized Location; (B) in the Territory; (C) within a 15 mile radius of the Territory; or (D) within a 15 mile radius of the location of any American Freight Retail Business, whether franchised or owned by us or our affiliates.

(j) Non-compete; Additional Terms. You agree that the length of time in Section 8(i) will be tolled for any period during which you are in breach of the covenants or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. Further, neither the in-term non-compete in Section 8(h) nor the post-term non-compete in Section 8(i) shall apply to any 5% or less ownership interest in a publicly traded company that operates a similar business. You understand and acknowledge that we have the right, in our sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any obligation imposed on you by Sections 8(h) and/or 8(i), and that such modified provision shall be effective upon your receipt of written notice thereof from us.

(k) Grant of Security Interest. For valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, you hereby grant to us a security interest in all of your right in your leasehold interest for your Retail Business and in all of your assets, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, used in connection with your Retail Business, including, without limitation, all goods, equipment (other than leasehold improvements which constitute fixtures), accounts, merchandise, inventory, investment property, general intangibles (including general intangibles that are classified otherwise under Revised Article 9 of the UCC), documents, instruments, chattel paper, balances, and books and records, and all products and proceeds of the foregoing and any other property, and any and all additions and accessions thereto, all substitutions and replacements therefore and all products and proceeds thereof or proceeds of insurance thereon, as security for the payment of all obligations owed by you to us or any of our affiliates including, without limitation, all obligations under this Agreement, all amounts due to us or our affiliates by virtue of the franchise relationship created under this Agreement, all purchases of the Approved Products and Services from us or our affiliates, the purchase price of any products and goods, and any and all other fees and amounts owed by you to us or our affiliates under this Agreement. You acknowledge that this Agreement shall constitute a security agreement under the UCC for purposes of establishing the respective rights of us and you in the above-described personal property and the enforcement of such security interest against you. You hereby authorize us simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement to file one or more financing statements pursuant to the UCC. We agree not to record any such financing statement until a mutually acceptable location for your Retail Business has been agreed upon by you and us. Upon the occurrence of any of the events described in Section 14 of this Agreement, we shall have the rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC.

9. PRODUCTS AND OPERATIONS STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS

(a) Products and Services. You may offer and sell only Approved Products and Services in connection with the Trademarks and your Retail Business and must offer for sale the complete range of Core Products and Services as set forth in the Operations Manual and such Optional Products and Services as will enable you to efficiently and profitably operate your Retail Business. You must maintain in stock an inventory of Approved Products and Services sufficient to meet customer demand and as set forth in the Operations Manual. You may not offer, sell or supply any products or services which are not Approved Products and Services (including products or services that we have withdrawn as described in Section 9(d)) without our prior written consent. You must also conform to all quality and customer service standards we prescribe in writing. You must offer home delivery and installation of all Approved Products and Services as prescribed by us, by either using your own delivery vehicles or an authorized third-party delivery/installation service to conduct such delivery and installation services. All delivery and installation providers, whether employed by you or retained as third parties, must meet all standards and specifications as set forth in the Operations Manual.

(b) Vendors and Suppliers. We will furnish you with lists of approved supplies and approved suppliers (including lists of Approved Products and Services). You must only use Approved Products and Services, equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signs, advertising materials, trademarked items, novelties and other items in your Retail Business as set forth in the approved supplies/services and approved suppliers lists, as we may amend from time to time. We reserve the right to approve and change the manufacturer or supplier for approved supplies/services. You acknowledge and agree that certain approved supplies/services may only be available (due to the availability or our restrictions on who you must purchase from) from one source or select suppliers designated by us, and we and/or our affiliates may be the only source. You will pay the then-current price in effect for approved supplies/services you purchase from us or our affiliates. All products, equipment, supplies, services and other items used in the operation of your Retail Business that are not included in approved supplies/services or approved suppliers lists must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time. We reserve the right to establish a distribution center, or designate a distributor(s) for the System, for Approved Products and Services and require System franchisees to purchase Approved Products and Services from our distribution center, or a distributor(s) designated by us (no matter if there are alternate suppliers/distributors for the Approved Products and Services that are available to you). We and/or our affiliates may derive revenue based on your purchases and leases, including, without limitation, from charging you (at prices exceeding our and their costs) for services and products we or our affiliates sell you and from promotional allowances, volume discounts, and other amounts paid to us and our affiliates by suppliers that we designate, approve, or recommend. We and our affiliates may use all amounts received from suppliers, whether or not based on your and other franchisees' prospective or actual dealings with them, without restriction for any purposes we and our affiliates deem appropriate. We are not required to give you an accounting of any amounts we or our affiliates receive from supplier or manufacturers, other than certain required disclosures (if applicable) included in the AMERICAN FREIGHT Franchise Disclosure Document provided to you in connection with your execution of this Agreement, or to share the benefit of such amounts with you or other System franchisees.

(c) NO WARRANTY. ALTHOUGH APPROVED BY US, WE MAKE NO WARRANTY AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO PRODUCTS, SERVICES, EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES, FIXTURES, FURNISHINGS OR OTHER APPROVED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES. WE, HOWEVER, WILL PASS THROUGH ANY APPLICABLE MANUFACTURER WARRANTIES ON PRODUCTS AND EQUIPMENT THAT YOU PURCHASE FROM US, SUBJECT TO ALL WARRANTY TERMS AND CONDITIONS IMPOSED BY THE MANUFACTURER.

(d) Withdrawal of Products. We may at any time require you to withdraw from supply in your Retail Business any Approved Products and Services or any other product or service which in our reasonable opinion (i) does not conform or no longer conforms with the standards, quality controls and specifications for products or services to be supplied in an American Freight Retail Business; (ii) does not conform or no longer conforms with the range of products or services to be supplied in an American Freight Retail Business; or (iii) is, or may be, a health or safety risk. You must immediately withdraw any products from sale when we require under this Section.

(e) Alternate Suppliers. The Approved Products and Services may have a single source supplier designated by us or other suppliers designated by us and you may not be able to use alternate suppliers. If we permit any items to be submitted for approval as Approved Products and Services or permit any Approved Product and Service to be a source from a supplier other than our designated single-source supplier or other select suppliers designated by us, you may propose the item and/or a supplier not on our approved list for our prior written approval. We may require you to submit sufficient information, specifications and samples concerning the item or supplier for us to determine whether the item or supplier meets our criteria. If we do not notify you within 30 days of receipt of your request, whether any proposed item or supplier is approved, the proposed item or supplier is deemed disapproved. We may from time to time prescribe procedures for the submission of requests for approved supplies or suppliers and obligations which approved suppliers must assume. Regardless of whether we approve your request, you must reimburse us for all costs and expenses that we incur in reviewing the alternative item or supplier, including our time spent on the review of the alternative supply or supplier. Our determination of approved suppliers, brands, manufacturers, distributors or supplies/services will be based on a variety of criteria which may include quality, design, price, insurance, distribution methods, supplier considerations and compatibility with the System.

(f) Pricing of Products and Services. We reserve the right, to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law, to establish maximum, minimum, or other pricing requirements with respect to the prices you may charge for Approved Products and Services.

(g) Operations Manual. To help protect our reputation and goodwill and to maintain uniform operating standards under the Trademarks and System, you must conduct your Retail Business in accordance with the required standards and procedures contained in the Operations Manual. You acknowledge that we are providing you with access to the Operations Manual during the Term and that the Operations Manual is at all times our sole property. You must at all times treat and maintain the Manuals and the information contained therein and any other proprietary information created for or approved for use in the operation of your Retail Business as secret and confidential. We may from time to time revise the contents of the Operations Manual and you expressly agree to comply with each new or changed standard. You must at all times insure that your copy of the Operations Manual is kept current and up to date. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Operations Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Operations Manual we maintain will be controlling. You acknowledge and agree that in the future the Operations Manual and other system communications may only be available on the Internet, our intranet system or other online or computer data transfer communications.

(h) Operating Procedures. The Operations Manual contains both requirements and recommendations for the operation of an American Freight Retail Business. You must adopt and use the required standards, procedures, techniques and systems described in the Operations Manual. We will revise the Operations Manual and their standards, procedures, techniques and systems periodically to meet changing conditions of operation in the best interest of all businesses operating under the Trademarks. Any required standards exist to protect our interest in the System and the Trademarks and not for the purpose of establishing any control, or the duty to take control, over those matters that clearly are reserved to you.

(i) Customer Experience Programs. As required by us, we may establish, or contract with third-parties to provide, customer service, shopper experience, or other service programs designed to audit, survey, or evaluate business operations for American Freight Retail Businesses (“Customer Experience Programs”). You must participate in all Customer Experience Programs we designate for the System and pay any fees associated with your Retail Business. We have the right to specify all aspects of Customer Experience Programs, the required level of participation for System franchisees, and the provider of the Customer Experience Programs (which may be us or an affiliate of ours).

(j) Evaluations. We or our authorized representative have the right to enter the Authorized Location at all reasonable times during the business day for the purpose of making periodic evaluations and to ascertain whether you are observing the provisions of this Agreement, to inspect and evaluate your premises used for your Retail Business, and to test, sample, inspect and evaluate your products and services provided to customers. If we determine that any condition at the premises of your Retail Business presents a threat to customers or public health or safety, we may take whatever measures we deem necessary, including requiring you to immediately close your Retail Business until the situation is remedied to our satisfaction. Our inspections and evaluations may include Customer Experience Programs. If you fail any inspection or evaluation, you must pay the costs and expenses of subsequent “mystery shopper” visits. Further, failure of an inspection or evaluation is a default under Section 14.

You acknowledge and agree that if your Retail Business is closed for a period of two consecutive days or five or more days in any 12-month period without our prior written consent, such closure constitutes your voluntary abandonment of the franchise and business and we have the right, in addition to other remedies provided in this Agreement to terminate this Agreement.

(l) Compliance with Law. You must at all times conduct your Retail Business in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, codes and ordinances and secure and maintain in force all required licenses, permits and certificates. In addition to the Software Package, we reserve the right to designate a single source from whom you must purchase other portions of the Computer System and we may be the designated single source for such other portions of the Computer System or a designated supplier for certain aspects of the Computer System. You may not use any unapproved hardware or software or component of the Computer System that has not been obtained from the source(s) we designate. You agree to the following:

(i) Your Computer System must have the capacity to electronically exchange information, messages and other data with other computers, by such means (including the Internet and the Intranet), and using such protocols (e.g. TCP/IP), required in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. We may specify in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing the information that you must collect and maintain on the Computer System installed at your Retail Business, and you must provide to us reports as we may request from the data collected and maintained, which must be in the form and format we designate;

(iii) You must keep your Computer System in good maintenance and repair and, at your expense, must promptly install such additions, changes, modifications, substitutions and/or replacements to the Computer System, telephone and power lines and other computer related facilities, as we direct. Subject to the requirements in this Agreement, you will have the sole and complete responsibility for: (a) acquiring, operating, maintaining and upgrading your Computer System; (b) the manner in which your Computer System interfaces with our computer systems and the computer systems of third parties; and (c) any and all consequences that may arise if your Computer System is not properly operated, maintained or upgraded;

(iv) We may develop or authorize others to develop software programs for use in the System, which you may be required to purchase and/or license and use in connection with your Retail Business and for which you may be required to execute a license, sublicense or maintenance agreement with us or the approved vendor. All right, title and interest in software programs will remain with the licensor of the software programs;

(v) If required by us, you must: (i) contract with us or any service providers designated by us to provide infrastructure, platforms and/or computing services and resources to be used in connection with or as part of the Computer System (e.g. web hosting services, cloud computing services) as required by us in the Operations Manual or otherwise; or (ii) obtain such services and resources under any contracts or arrangements we establish to obtain such services and resources for the System. You acknowledge that we will have no liability to you in connection with any Computer System problems, including any problems caused by any approved supplier or service provider providing products or services related to the Computer System; and

(vi) You may not use or download any software programs on your computer unless it has been authorized by us in writing. In the event that you use or download any unauthorized software programs, you are liable for all damages and problems caused by the unauthorized software program in addition to our other remedies provided under this Agreement.

(n) Participation in an Internet Website or Other Online Communications. You specifically acknowledge and agree that any Website shall be deemed advertising and marketing materials under this Agreement and will be subject to (among other things) our approval under the provisions of Section 12(c) below. In connection with any Website, you agree to the following:

(i) We will have the right, but not the obligation, to establish and maintain a Website, which may, without limitation, promote the Trademarks, any or all of the Approved Products and Services offered under the System, American Freight Retail Businesses, the franchising of American Freight Retail Businesses and/or the System ("System Website"). We will have the sole right to control all aspects of the System Website, including, without limitation, its design, content, functionality, links to the Websites of third parties, legal notices, and policies and terms of usage. We also have the right to require you to fulfill any e-commerce order placed on the System Website. We will also have the right to discontinue operation of the System Website;

(ii) You shall not establish a separate Website that displays or uses the Trademarks, or any marks confusingly similar thereto, or that refers to this Agreement, your Retail Business, the Approved Products and Services offered under the System, us, American Freight Retail Businesses or the System. If you register any domain name in violation of this Section, in addition to all other rights and remedies of ours under this Agreement, we will have the right to require you to transfer any such registration(s) to us or our designee, at your expense;

(iii) We will have the right, but not the obligation, to designate 1 or more webpage(s) to describe you and/or your Retail Business (“Webpage(s)”), with such WebPage(s) to be located within the System Website. You shall comply with our policies with respect to the creation, maintenance and content of any such WebPage(s); and we will have the right to refuse to post and/or discontinue posting any content and/or the operation of any WebPage(s). We may charge you a fee in connection with WebPage(s) used in connection with your Retail Business; and

Additionally, we may establish and require you, at your expense, to participate in a or multiple intranet/extranet systems or other online communication systems providing private and secure communications between us, you, System franchisees, and other persons and entities as determined by us, in our sole discretion (each, an “Intranet System”). We have the right to determine the content and use of any Intranet Systems and will establish the rules under which System franchisees may participate. We retain all rights relating to Intranet Systems and may alter or terminate any Intranet System without prior notice to you. Your general conduct on Intranet Systems and specifically your use of the Trademarks or any advertising on Intranet Systems is subject to the provisions of this Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that certain information obtained through your participation in Intranet Systems may be considered Confidential Information, including access codes and identification codes. Your right to participate in, and have access to, Intranet Systems will terminate when this Agreement expires or terminates.

(o) Social Media. You must comply with the System Standards developed by us for the System, in the manner directed by us in the Operations Manual or otherwise, with regard to our authorization to use, and use of, blogs, common social networks (including “Facebook” and “Myspace”), professional networks (including “LinkedIn”), live blogging tools (including “Twitter”), virtual worlds, file , audio and video sharing sites and other similar social networking media or tools (“Social Media”) that in any way references the Trademarks or involves the System or your Retail Business.

(p) Collection of Information; Privacy. We may, from time to time, specify in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing the information that you must collect and maintain on the Computer System installed at your Retail Business, and you must provide to us such reports as we may reasonably request from the data so collected and maintained. All data pertaining to or derived from your Retail Business (including without limitation data pertaining to or otherwise about your Retail Business’ customers) is and will be our exclusive property, and we hereby grant a royalty-free non-exclusive license to you to use said data during the Term. You must abide by all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy of consumer, employee, and transactional information (“Privacy Laws”). You must comply with our standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws. If there is a conflict between our standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws and actual applicable law, you must: (A) comply with the requirements of applicable law; (B) immediately give us written notice of said conflict; (C) promptly and fully cooperate with us and our counsel in determining the most effective way, if any, to meet our standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws within the bounds of applicable law. You must not publish, disseminate, implement, revise, or rescind a data privacy policy without our prior written consent.

(q) Customer Relations. You shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that your employees preserve good customer relations; render competent, prompt, courteous and knowledgeable service; and meet such minimum standards as we may establish from time to time in the Operations Manual. You and your employees shall handle all customer complaints, refunds, returns and other adjustments in a manner that will not detract from the name and goodwill of us and the System. You must: (i) comply with our customer complaint resolution; and (ii) reimbursing us promptly if we elect to resolve a customer complaint (through a credit or other means) because you fail to do so as or when we require. As part of your obligation to preserve good customer relations, you must comply with customer service policies and procedures (the “Customer Service Policies”) as detailed in the Operations Manual or otherwise. You acknowledge and agree that the Customer Service Policies may obligate you to provide services and support to customers that have purchased Approved Products and Services through an American Freight Retail Business and moved into the Territory. You acknowledge and agree that the Customer Service Policies may require you to incur additional or extra operational expenses, but the reputation and goodwill of the System necessitates the Customer Service Policies. We reserve the right to change or revise the Customer Service Policies.

10. TRADEMARKS

(a) Ownership of Trademarks. You acknowledge that you have no ownership interest whatsoever in the Trademarks and that your rights to use the Trademarks is limited to the conduct of your Retail Business pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement. Any unauthorized use of the Trademarks by you, your affiliates or any related entities constitutes an infringement of our and our affiliates’ rights in and to the Trademarks. You agree that all usage of the Trademarks by you and any goodwill established thereby will inure to our and our affiliates’ exclusive benefit. You acknowledge that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interest in the Trademarks upon you. Without limiting anything in this Section 10, you agree that you: (i) will not represent that you have acquired any ownership interest in any of the Trademarks; (ii) will not contest, or assist any other party to contest, our rights in the Trademarks; and (iii) will not otherwise take any actions in derogation of our use of or rights to the Trademarks.

(b) Use of Trademarks. You may not use, or permit the use of, any trademarks, trade names or service marks in connection with your Retail Business except the Trademarks or as we otherwise direct in writing. You must use the Trademarks only in connection with such products and services as we specify in writing and only in the form and manner we prescribe in writing.

(c) Business Identification. You must use the name “AMERICAN FREIGHT” as the trade name of your Retail Business and no other words may be used to identify your Retail Business without our prior written consent. You may not use any Trademarks as part of any corporate or business entity name or with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, or in any modified form without our written consent. You must post a sign in the form and location we designate at the Authorized Location putting your customers on notice that your Retail Business is independently owned and operated by you as our franchisee.

(d) Identification of Trademarks. You may use the Trademarks on various materials, such as business cards, receipts, stationary, purchase orders, invoices and checks, provided they: (i) accurately depict the Trademarks on the materials; (ii) include a statement on the materials, in immediate proximity to the Trademark, indicating that you independently own and operate your Retail Business; and (iii) do not use the Trademarks in connection with any other trademarks, trade names or service marks except when we specifically approve it in writing prior to the use.

(e) Infringements. In the event any person or entity improperly uses or infringes the Trademarks or challenges your use or our use or ownership of the Trademarks, we will control all litigation and we have the right to decide as to whether suit will be instituted, prosecuted or settled, the terms of settlement and whether any other action will be taken. You must promptly notify us of any such use or infringement of which you are aware. You must promptly inform us of any claim arising out of your use of any Trademark and must, without compensation, cooperate with us in any action we undertake. We or our affiliate will be responsible for our fees and expenses with any such action, unless the challenge or claim results from your misuse of the Trademarks in violation of this Agreement, in which case you must reimburse us for our fees and expenses.

(f) Modifications. You may not make any modifications or substitutions to the Trademarks unless directed by us in writing. We reserve the right to change the Trademarks at any time. Upon our notice to you, you must, at your expense, cease using the former Trademarks and commence using the changed Trademarks. In the limited circumstance that we require you to change the Trademarks in response to a third party claim that its rights to use the Trademarks are superior to our rights, you must make the change at your expense, except that we will reimburse you for any new signage that we determine is necessary, provided that you have cooperated with any action we undertook with regard to the third party claim. We will not reimburse you for any other costs, alleged losses or expenses associated with any Trademark change. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Trademarks apply to any additional trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols we hereafter authorize you to use pursuant to this Agreement.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, INNOVATIONS, COPYRIGHTS

(a) Confidential Information. You acknowledge that the Confidential Information is disclosed to you by us and that the Confidential Information is proprietary, confidential and our trade secret. You agree that you will maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information both during and after the term of this Agreement, disclosing the Confidential Information to your employees only to the extent necessary for compliance with this Agreement. You agree that you will not use Confidential Information in any business other than your Retail Business or in any manner not specifically approved in writing by us.

(b) Innovations. You must not implement any change to the System without our prior written consent. Without limiting any other provisions in this Agreement, we have the exclusive (i) right of ownership and use, and (ii) authority to license all ideas, plans, innovation, enhancement, improvements, invention, concepts, formulas, ideas, methods and techniques relating to the development or operation (including marketing, advertising and promotions) of an American Freight Retail Business or any similar business conceived, suggested or developed by you, any Principal Owner or your employees during the term of this Agreement (collectively, “Innovations”). You will disclose to us any Innovations. We will have all right, title and interest in any Innovations, and you will have no (1) right, title or interest in any and all Innovations or (2) right to copyright, register and/or protect any Innovations in your name. We and our affiliates own and have the right to authorize other American Freight Retail Businesses to use any Innovations without any compensation to you, any Principal Owner or your employees. If we, at our sole discretion and expense, elect to file a copyright, domain name registration or similar protection or registration relating to any such Innovations, you will execute such documents and provide us with such information as we may reasonably request in order to perfect such a filing. We will not be obligated to approve or accept any request to implement any Innovation. We may from time to time revoke our approval of any particular change or amendment to the System. Upon receipt of written notice of such revocation, you must modify your activities in the manner described by us. Nothing in this Section modifies your obligation to comply with System Standards and the Operations Manual.

(c) Copyrights. You hereby acknowledge and agree that the ownership of all printed, audio and visual material and any other material whatsoever (including all Confidential Information) being part of your Retail Business, American Freight Retail Businesses or the System (the “work”) belongs to us or our affiliates and any copyright in respect to the work belongs to us. In addition, You acknowledge that you have no right to manufacture any component of the work or duplicate the work and agree to purchase all components of (or rights of access to) the work exclusively from us. You have no right to claim any proprietary interest in any of the work. You must immediately notify us of any known infringement to the work or to our copyright interest therein. We have the right to control any litigation related to our copyrights or the work. You agree to assist us, as directed by us, in any claim or action against the infringer.

(d) Modification of System-Exercise of Judgment. You recognize and agree that from time to time hereafter we may change or modify the System as then-presently described in the Operations Manual and the Trademarks. You will accept and use for the purposes of this Agreement any such changes in the System as if they were part of this Agreement as of the Effective Date. You will make such expenditures as such changes or modifications in the System may reasonably require. You shall not change, modify, or alter the System in any way without our prior written consent. We have the right to operate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically prohibited by this Agreement. Whenever we have reserved in this Agreement a right to take or to withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant you a right to take or omit an action, we may, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, make our decision or exercise its rights based on information readily available to us and our judgment of what is in its and/or the System’s best interests at the time its decision is made, without regard to either whether we could have made other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternative decisions or whether its decision promotes its financial or other individual interest.

12. MARKETING

(a) Marketing Fund. You must pay us the Marketing Fee set forth in Section 5(c). All Marketing Fees will be placed in a Marketing Fund that we own and manage (the “Marketing Fund”). The Marketing Fund is not a trust or escrow account and we have no fiduciary obligation to System franchisees with respect to the Marketing Fund. We have the right to determine the expenditures of the amounts collected and the methods of marketing, advertising, media employed and contents, terms and conditions of marketing campaigns and promotional programs. We will direct all programs that the Marketing Fund finances, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials, and endorsements used and their geographic, market, and media placement and allocation. The Marketing Fund may pay for preparing and producing video, audio, and written materials and electronic media; developing, implementing, and maintaining an electronic commerce Website and/or related strategies; administering regional and multi-regional marketing and advertising programs including, but not limited to, purchasing trade journal, direct mail, and other media advertising and using advertising, promotion, and marketing agencies and other advisors to provide assistance; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, promotion, and marketing activities (including Social Media). Because of the methods used, we are not required to spend a prorated amount on each store or in each advertising market. We have the right to make disbursements from the Marketing Fund for expenses incurred in connection with the cost of formulating, developing and implementing marketing, advertising and promotional campaigns.

The disbursements may include payments to us for the expense of administering the Marketing Fund, including accounting expenses and salaries and benefits paid to our employees engaged in the advertising functions.

(b) Local Marketing Expenditures. You must use your best efforts to promote and advertise your Retail Business and participate in any local marketing and promotional programs we establish from time to time. In addition to the Marketing Fee, we may, in our sole discretion, from time to time, require you to spend at least 2% of your Gross Sales during the promotional period determined by us, on approved local marketing and promotion. Upon our request, you must provide us with itemization and proof of your local marketing expenditures and an accounting of the monies that you have spent for approved local marketing. If you fail to make the required expenditure, we have the right to collect and contribute the deficiency to the Marketing Fund. The total amount you must pay or spend for your contribution to the Marketing Fund, your local marketing expenditures and/or Marketing Cooperatives will not exceed 7% of the Gross Sales of the Retail Business.

(c) Approved Materials. You must use only such advertising and marketing materials as we furnish, approve or make available, and the materials must be used only in a manner that we prescribe. Further, any promotional activities you conduct at your Retail Business or on its premises are subject to our approval. We will not unreasonably withhold approval of any sales promotion materials and activities; provided that they are current, in good condition, in good taste, accurately depict the Marks and are used in a manner that we have prescribed. We will approve or decline proposed marketing materials within 14 days of receipt.

(d) Marketing Cooperatives. We have the right to designate local advertising markets (“Marketing Cooperatives”) and, if designated, you must direct some or all (as designated by us) of your local marketing expenditures to the Marketing Cooperative in your designated local advertising market. Each American Freight Retail Business within a designated local advertising area will be a member of the applicable Marketing Cooperative and each American Freight Retail Business will have one vote on all matters requiring a vote. We reserve the right to designate the bylaws that govern the operation of Marketing Cooperatives, although the bylaws cannot modify the voting structure set forth in the prior sentence. We may also designate the amount that you must contribute to the Marketing Cooperative. Any dispute which arises in any Marketing Cooperative regarding the amount or usage of such local marketing expenditures will be resolved by us in our sole discretion.

(e) Promotional Programs; Customer Loyalty Programs. You must participate fully in any promotional programs that we specify from time to time. You must also participate fully in any customer loyalty programs we establish from time to time, including (i) purchasing from us any cards, application forms and other materials for use in connection with any customer loyalty program; and (ii) honoring any customer loyalty points or rewards a customer has accrued whether from your Retail Business or elsewhere. You acknowledge and agree that (i) we may vary the terms or withdraw from supply of the cards, application forms and other materials used in connection with a customer loyalty program; and (ii) when a customer redeems customer loyalty points at your Retail Business, you are not entitled to reimbursement for the costs of goods provided to the customer in exchange for the redemption.

(f) Grand Opening Promotion. You must conduct certain advertising and public relations activities in connection with the opening of your Retail Business, as we specify in writing. You must pay to us the sum of $10,000 for these grand opening activities.

13. TRANSFER OF FRANCHISE

(a) Transfer by Us. We have the right to sell, transfer, subcontract or assign, in whole or in part, our interest in and our rights and obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Transfer by You - Definition. In this Agreement, transfer means any sale (including installment sale), transfer, merger, conveyance, lease, give away, pledge, mortgage, assignment, bequest, gift, or other encumbrance, either voluntarily or by operation of law (such as through divorce or bankruptcy proceedings) of: (i) any interest in this Agreement, (ii) any interest in your Retail Business, (iii) any interest in the Authorized Location, (iv) the lease, or any interest in the lease, for the Authorized Location, (v) if you are a business entity, any ownership interests in you, (vi) substantially all of the assets of your Retail Business, or (vii) all or part of the daily operation of your Retail Business to a person or entity who shares in the losses or profits of the business in a manner other than as an employee.

(c) No Transfer Without Our Consent. We have entered into this Agreement with specific reliance upon your financial qualifications, experience, skills and managerial qualifications as being essential to the satisfactory operation of your Retail Business. Consequently, neither you nor any of your owners may undertake any transfer or permit any transfer to occur without first tendering to us the right of first refusal in accordance with Section 13(h) and, if we do not exercise such right, obtaining our prior written consent, and complying with the transfer conditions described in Section 13(f). You must notify us immediately of any proposed transfer and must submit promptly to us the application for consent to transfer. Any attempted transfer by you without our prior written consent or otherwise not in compliance with the terms of this Agreement will be void.

(d) Insolvency. In the event of your insolvency or the filing of any petition by or against you under any provisions of any bankruptcy or insolvency law, if your legal representative, successor, receiver or trustee desires to succeed to your interest in this Agreement or the business conducted hereunder, such person first must notify us, tender the right of first refusal provided for in Section 13(h), and if we do not exercise such right, must apply for and obtain our consent to the transfer and satisfy the transfer conditions described in Section 13(f). In addition, you or the assignee must pay the attorneys' fees and costs that we incur in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding pertaining to you.

(e) No Publicity of Transfer. You may not place in, on or upon the location of your Retail Business, within the Territory, or in any communication media or any form of advertising, any information relating to the sale of your Retail Business or the rights under this Agreement, without our prior written consent.

(f) Conditions of Transfer. Application for our consent to a transfer and tender of the right of first refusal must be made by submission of our form of application for consent to transfer, which must be accompanied by the documents (including a copy of the proposed purchase or other transfer agreement) or other information that we require. Any agreement used in connection with a transfer will be subject to our prior written approval. We condition our consent to any proposed transfer upon the following:

(i) the assignee must meet all of our then-current requirements for new System franchisees, including, but not limited to, authorizing all background and credit checks, possessing sufficient net worth and sources of capital and being qualified to provide active supervision over the operation of your Retail Business;

(ii) the assignee must assume all of your obligations in connection with your Retail Business;

(iii) all of your ascertained and liquidated debts in connection with your Retail Business, including amounts owed to us or any of our affiliates or your suppliers must be paid in full;

(iv) you are not in default under any provision of this Agreement;

(v) the assignee executes our then-current form of franchise agreement and all other agreements, instruments and legal documents then customarily used by us with respect to new System franchisees for a new 10 year term, which agreement may vary materially from the agreements, legal instruments and documents currently in use by us, including the payment of higher fee and the payment of the then-current initial franchise fee;

(vi) if your Retail Business has not been modernized pursuant to Section 6(h) within 3 years of the proposed transfer, that the assignee must, at assignee's expense and in a manner satisfactory to us, modernize, refurbish, and/or renovate your Retail Business, and expend such funds as we require in doing so, to conform to the image and standards for similarly situated new American Freight Retail Businesses, including structural changes, remodeling, redecoration and modifications to existing improvements;

(vii) the assignee must complete the training program required of new System franchisees;

(viii) you have paid a transfer fee of $2,000;

(ix) in the case of an installment sale for which we have consented that you or any Principal Owner retain a security interest or other financial interest in this Agreement or the business operated thereunder, you or such Principal Owner, and the guarantors, are obligated to guarantee the performance under this Agreement until the final close of the installment sale or the termination of such interest, as the case may be;

(x) you, your Principal Owner and each guarantor must sign a general release of all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, your Retail Business, the Authorized Location or the parties' business relationship, in the form we designate, releasing us and our affiliates;

(xi) you, your Principal Owner and all guarantors, officers, directors and shareholders agree to comply with the post-term non-compete covenant set forth in Section 8(i); and

(xii) you and/or the assignee must have complied with any other conditions that we reasonably require from time to time as part of our transfer policies.

(g) Death, Disability or Incapacity. If any individual who is a Principal Owner dies or becomes disabled or incapacitated and the decedent's or disabled or incapacitated person's heir or successor-in-interest wishes to continue as a Principal Owner, such person or entity must apply for our consent under Section 13(c) and satisfy the transfer conditions as in any other case of a proposed transfer, all within 120 days of the death or event of disability or incapacity. During any transition period to an heir or successor-in-interest, your Retail Business still must be operated in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. During any transition period, in addition to collecting any other fees due to us under this Agreement, we retain the right, at our sole option, to assume management and control of the day to day operations of your Retail Business. If we assume management and control responsibilities during such transition period, we will be reimbursed from the revenues of your Retail Business for our reasonable expenses in conducting such activities. If the assignee of the decedent or disabled or incapacitated person is the spouse or child of such person, no transfer fee will be payable to us and we will waive the right of first refusal set forth in Section 13(h).

(h) Right of First Refusal. We have the right, exercisable within 30 days after receipt of your notice of your intent to transfer and such documentation and information that we require, to send written notice to you that we intend to purchase the interest proposed to be transferred. We may assign our right of first refusal to a third party either before or after we exercise it. If the transfer is proposed to be made pursuant to a sale, we or our assignee may purchase the interest proposed to be transferred on the same economic terms and conditions offered by the third-party. Closing on the purchase must occur within 60 days after the date of our notice to the seller electing to purchase the interest (or, if the parties cannot agree on the cash equivalent as provided in the following sentence, within 60 days after the appraisers' determination). If we cannot reasonably be expected to provide the same consideration as the third-party, we may substitute the reasonable equivalent in cash. If you and we cannot agree on the reasonable equivalent in cash within a reasonable time, the fair market value of the interest proposed to be transferred will be determined by two independent appraisers, one of whom will be chosen by us and the other of whom will be chosen by you. If such appraisers cannot agree on such fair market value, they will jointly choose a third independent appraiser, whose decision will be final and binding. Each party will bear the cost for its chosen appraiser, and the cost of the third appraiser, if applicable, will be shared equally between the parties. We may purchase the interest at the fair market value determined by the appraisers or may elect at that time to not exercise our rights. Any material change in the terms of the third party offer after we have elected not to purchase the seller's interest will constitute a new offer subject to the same right of first refusal as the third party's initial offer. In addition, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by us and you, the transaction documents, which we will prepare, will be those customary for this type of transaction and will include representations and warranties then customary for this type of transaction. If we and/or our designee decline to exercise the right of first refusal granted under this Section, that decision will not constitute our consent to the proposed transfer or waiver of any other provision of this Section 13 with respect to the proposed transfer.

14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

(a) Defaults. You are in default if we determine that you or any Principal Owner or guarantor has breached any of the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our affiliates, which without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes: (i) making any false report to us; (ii) failing to pay when due any amounts required to be paid to us or any of our affiliates, any vendor or any other third party for expenses related to your Retail Business; (iii) conviction of you, a Principal Owner, or a guarantor of (or pleading no contest to) (A) any felony or (B) any misdemeanor that brings or tends to bring any of the Trademarks into disrepute or impairs or tends to impair your or our reputation or the goodwill of any of the Trademarks, your Retail Business or the System; (iv) filing of tax or other liens that may affect this Agreement, voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy by or against you or any Principal Owner or guarantor, insolvency, making an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any similar voluntary or involuntary arrangement for the disposition of assets for the benefit of creditors.

(b) Termination by Us. We have the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Termination After Opportunity to Cure. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 14:

- (A) you will have 30 days from the date of our issuance of a written notice of default to cure any default under this Agreement, other than a failure to pay amounts due or submit required reports, in which case you will have 10 days to cure those defaults;
- (B) your failure to cure a default within the 30-day or 10-day period will provide us with good cause to terminate this Agreement;
- (C) the termination will be accomplished by mailing or delivering to you written notice of termination that will identify the grounds for the termination; and
- (D) the termination will be effective immediately upon our issuance of the written notice of termination.

(ii) Immediate Termination With No Opportunity to Cure. In the event any of the following defaults occurs, you will have no right or opportunity to cure the default and this Agreement will terminate effective immediately on our issuance of written notice of termination:

- (A) any material misrepresentation or omission in your franchise application or willful and material falsification of any report, statement or other written data furnished to us;
- (B) your voluntary abandonment of this Agreement, the Authorized Location or the Territory;
- (C) your failure to timely cure a default under your lease or the loss of your right of possession of the Authorized Location, your failure to open the Retail Business for business in accordance with this Agreement or failure to relocate in accordance with 6(h);
- (D) any unauthorized use of the Confidential Information;
- (E) insolvency of you, a Principal Owner or guarantor;
- (F) you, a Principal Owner or a guarantor making an assignment or entering into any similar arrangement for the benefit of creditors;
- (G) you, any Principal Owners or guarantors are convicted of (or pleading no contest to) (1) any misdemeanor that brings or tends to bring any of the Trademarks into disrepute or impairs or tends to impair your or our reputation or the goodwill of the Trademarks, your Retail Business or the System, or (2) any felony;
- (H) you, any Principal Owner, guarantor or an affiliate of any of you are listed by the United States or the United Nations as being a terrorist, financier of terrorism, or otherwise restricted from doing business in or with the United States;

- (I) you make any unauthorized transfer or assignment in violation of Section 13; or
- (J) any default by you that is the third same or similar default within any 12-month consecutive period.

(iii) Immediate Termination After No More than 24 Hours to Cure. In the event that a default under this Agreement occurs that materially impairs the goodwill associated with any of the Trademarks (other than as provide in 15(b)(ii)(H) above), violates any health safety law or regulation, or if the operation of your Retail Business presents a health or safety hazard to your customers or to the public:

- (A) you will have no more than 24 hours after we provide written notice of the default to cure the default; and
- (B) this Agreement will terminate effective immediately on our issuance of written notice of termination.

(iv) Effect of Other Laws. The provisions of any valid, applicable law or regulation prescribing permissible grounds, cure rights or minimum periods of notice for termination of this franchise supersede any provision of this Agreement that is less favorable to you.

(c) Termination by You. You may terminate this Agreement as a result of a breach by us of a material provision of this Agreement provided that: (i) you provide us with written notice of the breach that identifies the grounds for the breach; and (ii) we fail to cure the breach within 30 days after our receipt of the written notice. If we fail to cure the breach, the termination will be effective 60 days after our receipt of your written notice of breach. Your termination of this Agreement under this Section will not release or modify your post-term obligations under Section 15 of this Agreement.

15. POST-TERM OBLIGATIONS

The provisions of this Section 15 apply upon termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(a) Reversion of Rights; Discontinuation of Trademark Use. All of your rights to the use of the Trademarks and all other rights and licenses granted herein and the right and license to conduct business under the Trademarks will revert to us without further act or deed of any party. All of your right, title and interest in, to and under this Agreement will become our property. Upon our demand, you must assign to us or our assignee your remaining interest in any lease then in effect for the Authorized Location (although we will not assume any past due obligations). You must immediately comply with the post-term non-compete obligations under Section 8(i), cease all use and display of the Trademarks and of any proprietary material (including the Operations Manual and any related written materials) and of all or any portion of promotional materials and flyers furnished or approved by us, assign all right, title and interest in the telephone numbers, website and e-mail addresses for your Retail Business and cancel or assign, at our option, any assumed name rights or equivalent registrations filed with authorities. You must pay all sums due to us, our affiliates or designees and all sums you owe to third parties that have been guaranteed by us or any of our affiliates. You must immediately return to us, at your expense, all copies of the Operations Manual and other written materials then in your possession or control or previously disseminated to your employees and continue to comply with the confidentiality provisions of Section 4(a). Upon our demand, you must promptly at your expense remove or obliterate all vehicle signage, trade dress, displays or other materials in your possession in the Territory or elsewhere that bear any of the Trademarks. If, however, you refuse to comply with the provisions of the preceding sentence within 30 days, we have the right to enter the Authorized Location and remove all signage, displays or other materials in your possession (including vehicles) or elsewhere that bear any of the Trademarks or names or material confusingly similar to the Trademarks, and you must reimburse us for our costs incurred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of expiration or termination of this Agreement, you will remain liable for your obligations pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our affiliates that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

(b) Purchase Option. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, we will have the option to purchase from you some or all of your Business Assets. "Business Assets" mean all inventory, supplies, equipment and fixtures utilized by you in the operation of your Retail Business ("Location Assets"), excluding inventory, supplies, equipment and fixtures not customarily utilized in American Freight Retail Businesses operated by us and our affiliates and any factor or increment for any goodwill or "going concern." We may exercise our option by giving written notice to you at any time following expiration or termination up until 30 days after the later of: the effective date of expiration or termination; the date you cease operating your Retail Business; or our receipt of the schedules described in the following sentence. You and we shall arrange for a review to be made, at your expense, by an auditor appointed by us and an independent, licensed, certified public accountant appointed by you, of all Location Assets, and such auditor and such accountant shall jointly prepare a reasonably detailed schedule of all of such Location Assets upon the completion of such review. In connection with such purchase, we shall assume no liabilities of yours whatsoever, except for obligations expressly agreed to in writing by us.

(i) If we exercise our option to purchase the Business Assets, the purchase price for the Business Assets shall be their fair market value. If we and you are unable to agree upon the fair market value of any Business Asset(s) within 10 days after we notify you that we desire to exercise our option to purchase the Business Assets, such value shall be determined by two independent appraisers, one of whom shall be chosen by us and the other of whom shall be chosen by you. If such independent appraisers cannot agree upon such fair market value, they shall jointly choose a third appraiser, whose decision shall be final and binding. Each party shall bear the cost for its chosen appraiser, and the cost for a third appraiser, if any, shall be shared equally between you and us. The purchase price for the Business Assets shall be paid by us in cash at the closing of the purchase and sale of the Business Assets, which purchase price shall be reduced by any amounts then owed by you to us and/or any of our affiliates under this Agreement or otherwise. The closing of the purchase of the Business Assets shall take place not later than 90 days after all appraisals have been finalized; provided, however, we shall have the unilateral right to accelerate the date of closing for such transaction.

(ii) If we exercise our option to purchase the Business Assets, you shall also assign to us or our designee your interest in any lease or sublease for the premises of your Retail Business, and we agree to assume your obligations thereunder, subject to any consents that may be required from your landlord under such lease or sublease. Such assignment and assumption shall be self-operative and shall be deemed to have been made simultaneously with the closing of the purchase of the Business Assets. No further assignment or agreement, written or otherwise, need be executed by you or us to effect such assignment. You hereby authorize the landlord or sub-landlord under such lease or sublease to accept and recognize us as a substitute tenant or sub-tenant in the event of any such assignment, without requiring any further action on the part of you or us. You shall indemnify us and hold us harmless from, against and in respect of any claim, liability, damage, loss, cost or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs, suffered or incurred by us which arises out of or relates to the assignment to us of your lease or your failure to have performed any of your obligations under such lease prior to our assumption of such obligations. Any amount required to be paid to us pursuant to such indemnification obligation shall be paid by you within 15 days after our demand therefor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we or our designee may reassign such lease or sublease to you, and you shall upon such reassignment assume all of the duties and obligations thereunder, upon 60 days' written notice to you, provided that neither we nor our designee shall be permitted to notify you of any such reassignment before the date which is 120 days after the date of the closing of the purchase and sale of the Business Assets.

(iii) If we exercise our option to purchase the Business Assets, you shall execute such documents and do such other acts or things as may be necessary in our opinion to consummate the purchase and sale of the Business Assets, including but not limited to, a general release in a form prescribed by us, of any and all claims against us, our affiliates and the officers, directors, shareholders, agents and employees of ours and our affiliates' in their corporate and individual capacities, including without limitation claims arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations, the assignment by you of your interest in any lease or sublease, and the assumption by you of the obligations under such lease or sublease in the event of any reassignment by us to you. We shall also be entitled to all customary warranties and representations relating to the Business Assets purchased including, but not limited to, representations and warranties as to the accuracy of the information provided related to the Business Assets and your good title to the Business Assets (including, but not limited to, your ownership of the Business Assets free and clear of any liens and encumbrances).

(c) Claims. You and your Principal Owners and guarantors may not assert any claim or cause of action against us or our affiliates relating to this Agreement or your Retail Business after the shorter period of the applicable statute of limitations or one year following the effective date of termination of this Agreement; provided that where the one-year limitation of time is prohibited or invalid by or under any applicable law, then and in that event no suit or action may be commenced or maintained unless commenced within the applicable statute of limitations.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Arbitration. Except as qualified in Section 16(b), any dispute between you and us or any of our or your affiliates arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, any System Standard, any lease or sublease for your Retail Business, the parties' relationship, your Retail Business or the scope or validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us (including the validity and scope of the arbitration obligation under this Section 16(a), which you and we acknowledge is to be determined by an arbitrator and not by a court, must be submitted for binding arbitration, on demand of either party, to the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration proceedings must be conducted in accordance with the then-current commercial rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association. All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.).

(i) In connection with any arbitration proceeding, each party will submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by the then-current Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any such claim which is not submitted or filed in such proceeding will be barred.

(ii) Any arbitration must be on an individual basis and the parties and the arbitrator will have no authority or power to proceed with any claim as a class action or otherwise to join or consolidate any claim with any claim or any other proceeding involving third parties. If a court or arbitrator determines that this limitation on joinder of or class action certification of claims is unenforceable, then the agreement to arbitrate the dispute will be null and void and the parties must submit all claims to the jurisdiction of the courts.

(iii) The arbitration must take place in the city where our headquarters is located at the time of the dispute. The arbitrator has no authority or discretion to alter the terms of this provision.

(iv) The arbitrator must follow the law and not disregard the terms of this Agreement. The arbitrator must have at least five years of experience in franchise law. The arbitrator may not consider any settlement discussions or offers that might have been made by either you or us. The arbitrator will also have the right to make a determination as to any procedural matters as would a court of competent jurisdiction be permitted to make in the state in which our main office is located. The arbitrator will also decide any factual, procedural, or legal questions relating in any way to the dispute between the parties, including, but not limited to any decision as to whether forum and venue provisions are applicable and enforceable against the parties, subject matter, timeliness, scope, remedies, unconscionability, and any alleged fraud in the inducement.

(v) The arbitrator can issue summary orders disposing of all or part of a claim and provide for temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, injunctions, attachments, claim and delivery proceedings, temporary protective orders, receiverships, and other equitable and/or interim/final relief. Each party consents to the enforcement of such orders, injunctions, etc., by any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator has the right to award or include in his or her award any relief which he or she deems proper including, but not limited to, money damages (with interest on unpaid amounts from the date due), specific performance, injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs, provided that the arbitrator may not declare any Trademark generic or otherwise invalid or, except as expressly provided in Section 17(k) below, award any punitive or exemplary damages against either party (we and you hereby waiving to the fullest extent permitted by law, except as expressly provided in Section 17(k) below, any right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages against the other).

(vi) All other procedural matters will be determined by applying the statutory, common laws, and rules of procedure that control a court of competent jurisdiction in which our main office is then located. Other than as may be required by law, the entire arbitration proceedings (including, but not limited to, any rulings, decisions or orders of the arbitrator) will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to anyone other than the parties to this Agreement.

(vii) The judgment of the arbitrator on any preliminary or final arbitration award will be final and binding and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

(viii) We reserve the right, but have no obligation, to advance your share of the costs of any arbitration proceeding in order for such arbitration proceeding to take place and by doing so will not be deemed to have waived or relinquished our right to seek recovery of those costs.

(b) Exceptions to Arbitration. Notwithstanding Sections 16(a), the parties agree that the following claims will not be subject to arbitration:

(i) any action for equitable relief, including, without limitation, seeking preliminary or permanent injunctive relief, specific performance, other relief in the nature of equity to enjoin any harm or threat of harm to such party's tangible or intangible property, brought at any time, including without limitation, prior to or during the pendency of any arbitration proceedings initiated hereunder;

(ii) any action in ejectment or for possession of any interest in real or personal property; or

(iii) any action which by applicable law cannot be arbitrated.

(c) Costs and Attorneys' Fees. The prevailing party in any action or proceeding arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this Agreement will be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees, arbitrator's fees and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, and other arbitration or litigation expenses) incurred in connection with the claims on which it prevailed. For the purposes of this Agreement in general and this Section specifically, the "Prevailing Party" will be deemed to be that party which has obtained the greatest net judgment or award in terms of money or money equivalent. If money or money equivalent has not been awarded, then the Prevailing Party will be that party, as determined by the arbitrator, which has prevailed on a majority of the material issues decided. The "net judgment" is determined by subtracting the smallest award of money or money equivalent from the largest award. If there is a mixed decision involving an award of money or money equivalent and equitable relief, the arbitrator will award the above fees to the party that it deems has prevailed over the other party using reasonable business and arbitrator(s)'s judgment.

(d) Survival. The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

17. GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) Severability. Should one or more clauses of this Agreement be held void or unenforceable for any reason by any court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such clause or clauses will be deemed to be separable in such jurisdiction and the remainder of this Agreement is valid and in full force and effect and the terms of this Agreement must be equitably adjusted so as to compensate the appropriate party for any consideration lost because of the elimination of such clause or clauses. It is the intent and expectation of each of the parties that each provision of this Agreement will be honored, carried out and enforced as written. Consequently, each of the parties agrees that any provision of this Agreement sought to be enforced in any proceeding must, at the election of the party seeking enforcement and notwithstanding the availability of an adequate remedy at law, be enforced by specific performance or any other equitable remedy.

(b) Waiver/Integration. No waiver by either party of any breach by the other party, nor any delay or failure by either party to enforce any provision of this Agreement, will be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or be deemed an estoppel to enforce the non-breaching party's rights with respect to that or any other or subsequent breach. Subject to our rights to modify the System, System Standards, Operations Manual, Trademarks and Approved Products and Services, this Agreement may not be waived, altered or rescinded, in whole or in part, except by a writing signed by you and us.

This Agreement, together with any addenda and exhibits hereto, constitutes the sole agreement between you and us with respect to the entire subject matter of this Agreement and embodies all prior agreements and negotiations with respect to your Retail Business authorized hereunder. Nothing in this Agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations contained in the Franchise Disclosure Document we provided to you. You acknowledge and agree that you have not received any warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, profits or success of your Retail Business. There are no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, except as contained herein or in the Franchise Disclosure Document we provided to you in connection with this Agreement.

(c) Notices. All notices will be addressed to the parties at the addresses set forth below their signatures on the signature page hereto or to such other address as any party may notify the other parties of in a writing delivered in accordance with this Section. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement will be deemed given: (i) when delivered personally to the party to receive such notice, if a natural person, or to an officer of any party which is a corporation or limited liability company or to any member or partner as the case may be of any party which is a partnership; (ii) 5 days after mailing by express courier service, fully prepaid, addressed as herein provided, or upon actual receipt of such mailing, whichever will first occur; or (iii) upon receipt of confirmation from the addressee acknowledging receipt of such notice if by e-mail, facsimile or other electronic transmission service (provided that in the case of notice delivered in accordance with this clause (iii), a copy of the notice is also simultaneously sent in accordance with clause (ii) above).

(d) Authority. Any modification, consent, approval, authorization or waiver granted hereunder required to be effective by writing will only be valid if in writing executed by you or, if on behalf of us, in writing executed by our President or other duly authorized officers.

(e) References. If you are two or more persons, the persons are jointly and severally liable, and references to you in this Agreement includes all of the persons. Headings and captions contained herein are for convenience of reference and may not be taken into account in construing or interpreting this Agreement.

(f) Guarantee. All Principal Owners and any other person who owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the franchisee entity must execute the form of undertaking and guarantee at the end of this Agreement. We may also require spouses of the guarantors to execute the form of undertaking and guarantee at the end of this Agreement. Any person or entity that at any time after the Effective Date becomes a Principal Owner or direct or indirect 10% owner also must execute the form of undertaking and guarantee at the end of this Agreement.

(g) Successors/Assigns. Subject to the terms of Section 13 hereof, this Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the administrators, executors, heirs, successors and assigns of the parties.

(h) Interpretation of Rights and Obligations. The following provisions apply to and govern the interpretation of this Agreement, the parties' rights under this Agreement, and the relationship between the parties:

(i) Applicable Law and Waiver. All matters relating to arbitration will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq.). Except to the extent governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, the United States Trademark Act of 1964 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.), or other Federal Law, this Agreement, the franchise, and all claims arising from the relationship between us and you will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of law rules; provided, however, (1) any Delaware law regulating the sale of franchises or governing the relationship of a franchisor and its franchisee will not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this Section and (2) the laws of the state in which your Retail Business is located shall apply to the construction and enforcement of the obligations set forth in Sections 8(h) and 8(i) hereof, without regard to its conflict of law rules. You expressly waive any rights or protections you have or may have under any statute or law of any other state to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(ii) Our Rights. Whenever this Agreement provides that we have a certain right, that right is absolute and the parties intend that our exercise of that right will not be subject to any limitation or review. We have the right to operate, administrate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement.

(iii) Our Reasonable Business Judgment. Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise Reasonable Business Judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed to be the result of Reasonable Business Judgment, even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes our financial or other individual interest. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include, without limitation, enhancing the value of the Trademarks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

(i) Venue. Any cause of action, claim, suit or demand allegedly arising from or related to the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties that is not subject to arbitration under Section 16, must be brought in the state or federal district court located in the county or district where our headquarters are located. Both parties hereto irrevocably submit themselves to, and consent to, the jurisdiction of said courts. The provisions of this Section 17(i) will survive the termination of this Agreement. You are aware of the business purposes and needs underlying the language of this Section 17(i), and with a complete understanding thereof, agree to be bound in the manner set forth.

(j) JURY WAIVER. ALL PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN CONNECTION WITH THE ENFORCEMENT OR INTERPRETATION BY JUDICIAL PROCESS OF ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND IN CONNECTION WITH ALLEGATIONS OF STATE OR FEDERAL STATUTORY VIOLATIONS, FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION OR SIMILAR CAUSES OF ACTION OR ANY LEGAL ACTION INITIATED FOR THE RECOVERY OF DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(k) WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES. YOU AND WE (AND OUR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES, OWNERS AND GUARANTORS, AS APPLICABLE) AGREE TO WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, THE RIGHT TO OR CLAIM FOR ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREE THAT IN THE EVENT OF ANY DISPUTE BETWEEN US, EACH WILL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

(l) Relationship of the Parties. You and we are independent contractors. Neither party is the agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venturer or employee of the other. Neither party may obligate the other or represent any right to do so. This Agreement does not reflect or create a fiduciary relationship or a relationship of special trust or confidence.

(m) Force Majeure. If a party's default under this Agreement (other than your obligations with respect to insurance and indemnification and to pay all fees and other amounts due us and our affiliates under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our affiliates), is caused in whole or in part by a force majeure, such default and any right of the other party to terminate this Agreement for such default is suspended for as long as the default is reasonably caused by such force majeure. Any suspension is effective only from the delivery of a notice of the force majeure to the other party stating the party's intention to invoke the force majeure. However, if such suspension continues for longer than six months and such default still exists, either party has the right to terminate this Agreement upon 30 days' notice to the other party. Events of force majeure are those that cannot be prevented, avoided or removed by the party invoking the force majeure despite the exercise of reasonable diligence, including acts of God, actions of the elements, lockouts, strikes, wars, riots, acts of terrorism, civil commotion, and acts of governmental authorities, (not including a governmental authority's delaying or refusing to grant building permits, licenses and other permissions and approvals), and except as specifically provided for elsewhere in this Agreement.

(n) Adaptations and Variances. Complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not always be possible, practical, or in the best interest of the System. Accordingly, we have the right to vary the Approved Products and Services and other standards, specifications, and requirements for any American Freight Retail Business or System franchisee based upon the customs or circumstances of a particular franchise or operating agreement, site or location, population density, business potential, trade area population, existing business practice, competitive circumstance or any other condition that we deem to be of importance to the operation of such business or the System. We are not required to grant to you a like or other variation as a result of any variation from standard inventory items, specifications or requirements granted to any other System franchisee. You acknowledge that you are aware that other System franchisees operate under a number of different forms of agreement that were entered into at different times and that, consequently, the obligations and rights of the parties to other agreements may differ materially in certain instances from your rights and obligations under this Agreement.

(o) Compliance with Anti-terrorism Laws. You and your owners agree to comply, and to assist us to the fullest extent possible in our efforts to comply, with Anti-Terrorism Laws (defined below). In connection with that compliance, you and your owners certify, represent, and warrant that none of your property or interests are subject to being blocked under, and that you and your owners otherwise are not in violation of, any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws. "Anti-Terrorism Laws" means Executive Order 13224 issued by the President of the United States, the USA PATRIOT Act, and all other present and future federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists, and other requirements of any governmental authority addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and acts of war. Any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by you or your owners, or any blocking of your or your owners' assets under the Anti-Terrorism Laws, shall constitute good cause for immediate termination of this Agreement, as provided in Section 15(b)(ii)(H) above.

(p) Success Depends on Franchisee and No Warranties. You assume sole responsibility for the operation of your Retail Business and acknowledge that, while we may furnish advice and assistance to you from time to time during the Term, we have no legal or other obligation to do so except as specifically set forth in this Agreement. In addition, you acknowledge that we do not guarantee the success or profitability of your Retail Business in any manner whatsoever and shall not be liable therefor; in particular, you understand and acknowledge that the success and profitability of your Retail Business depend on many factors outside the control of either us or you (such as interest rates, unemployment rates, demographic trends and the general economic climate) and there are significant risks in any business venture, but principally depend on your efforts in the operation of your Retail Business and the primary factor in your success or failure in your Retail Business will be your own efforts. IN ADDITION, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT WE AND OUR REPRESENTATIVES HAVE MADE NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES TO YOU OTHER THAN OR INCONSISTENT WITH THE MATTERS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND THAT YOU HAVE UNDERTAKEN THIS VENTURE SOLELY IN RELIANCE UPON THE MATTERS SET FORTH HEREIN AND YOUR OWN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION OF THE MERITS OF THIS VENTURE.

(q) Control During Crisis Situation. If an event occurs at your Retail Business that has or reasonably may cause harm or injury to customers or employees (i.e., slip and fall injuries, natural disasters, robberies, shootings, etc.) or may damage the Trademarks, the System, or our reputation (collectively, “Crisis Situation”), you must: (1) immediately contact appropriate emergency care providers to assist you in curing the harm or injury; and (2) immediately inform us by telephone of the Crisis Situation. You must refrain from making any internal or external announcements (i.e., no communication with the news media) regarding the Crisis Situation (unless otherwise directed by us or public health officials).

To the extent we deem appropriate, in our sole and absolute discretion, we or our designee may control the manner in which the Crisis Situation is handled by the parties, including, without limitation, conducting all communication with the news media, providing care for injured persons and/or temporarily closing your Retail Center. The parties acknowledge that, in directing the management of any Crisis Situation, we or our designee may engage the services of attorneys, experts, doctors, testing laboratories, public relations firms, and those other professionals as we deem appropriate. You and your employees must cooperate fully with us or our designee in our efforts and activities in this regard and will be bound by all further Crisis Situation procedures developed by us from time to time hereafter. The indemnification in Section 8(c) will include all losses and expenses that may result from the exercise by us or our designee of the management rights granted in this subsection (q).

(r) Effective Date. We will designate the “Effective Date” of this Agreement in the space provided on the cover page. If no Effective Date is designated on the cover page, the Effective Date is the date when we sign this Agreement.

In consideration of the execution of the Franchise Agreement by and between American Freight Franchisor, LLC ("we," "us" or "our") and _____ ("Franchisee") dated _____ (the "Franchise Agreement") and for other good and valuable consideration, the undersigned, for themselves, their heirs, successors, and assigns, do jointly, individually and severally hereby become surety and guarantor for the payment of all amounts and the performance of the covenants, terms and conditions in the Franchise Agreement (including any amendments or modifications of the Agreement), to be paid, kept and performed by Franchisee, including without limitation the arbitration and other dispute resolution provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

Further, the undersigned, individually and jointly, hereby agree to be personally bound by each and every condition and term contained in the Franchise Agreement (including any amendments or modifications of the Agreement), including but not limited to the non-compete provisions in Sections 8(h) and 8(i) of the Franchise Agreement, and agree that this Personal Guarantee will be construed as though the undersigned and each of them executed a Franchise Agreement containing the identical terms and conditions of this Franchise Agreement.

If we are required to engage legal counsel in connection with any failure by the undersigned to comply with this Guarantee, the undersigned shall reimburse us for any of the above-listed costs and expenses we incur, even if we do not commence a judicial or arbitration proceeding.

It is further understood and agreed by the undersigned that the provisions, covenants and conditions of this Personal Guarantee will inure to the benefit of our successors and assigns.

Section 16 of the Franchise Agreement (Dispute Resolution) is incorporated by reference into this Guarantee and will be applicable to any disputes between Franchisor and any of the Guarantors, as though Guarantor was the "Franchisee" referred to in the Franchise Agreement.

EXHIBIT E
ADDENDUM TO LEASE

This Lease Addendum ("Addendum"), dated _____, 20__, is entered into between _____ ("Lessor"), and _____ ("Lessee").

RECITALS

- A. The parties have entered into a Lease Agreement, dated _____, 20__, (the "Lease") for the premises located at _____ (the "Premises").
- B. Lessee has agreed to use the Premises only for the operation of a rent-to-own (also referred to as "lease purchase") home furnishings, electronics and appliances business pursuant to a Franchise Agreement (the "Franchise Agreement") with American Freight Franchisor, LLC ("American Freight Franchisor") under the name AMERICAN FREIGHT or other name American Freight Franchisor designates (the "Business").
- C. The parties desire to amend the Lease in accordance with the terms and conditions contained in this Addendum.

AGREEMENT

Lessor and Lessee agree as follows:

- 1. Remodeling and Decor. Lessor agrees to allow Lessee to remodel, equip, paint and decorate the interior of the Premises and to display such proprietary marks and signs on the interior and exterior of the Premises pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and any successor Franchise Agreement.
- 2. Assignment. Lessee has the right to assign all of its right, title and interest in the Lease to American Freight Franchisor or American Freight Franchisor's affiliates or successors at any time during the term of the Lease, including any extensions or renewals, without first obtaining Lessor's consent. No assignment will be effective, however, until American Freight Franchisor or its designated affiliate or successor gives Lessor written notice of its acceptance of the assignment. If American Freight Franchisor elects to assume the lease under this paragraph or unilaterally assumes the lease as provided for in subparagraphs 3(c) or 4(a), Lessor and Lessee agree that (i) Lessee will remain liable for the responsibilities and obligations, including amounts owed to Lessor, prior to the date of assignment and assumption, and (ii) American Freight Franchisor will have the right to sublease the Premises to another licensee, provided the licensee agrees to operate the Business as an AMERICAN FREIGHT Business pursuant to a Franchise Agreement with American Freight Franchisor. American Freight Franchisor will be responsible for the lease obligations incurred after the effective date of the assignment.
- 3. Default and Notice.
 - (a) In the event there is a default or violation by Lessee under the terms of the Lease, Lessor agrees to give Lessee and American Freight Franchisor written notice of such default or violation within a reasonable time after Lessor knows of its occurrence. Lessor agrees to provide American Freight Franchisor the written notice of default as written and on the same day Lessor gives it to Lessee.

Although American Freight Franchisor is under no obligation to cure the default, American Freight Franchisor will notify Lessor if it intends to cure the default and unilaterally assume Lessee's interest in the lease as provided in Paragraph 3(c). American Freight Franchisor will have an additional 15 days from the expiration of Lessee's cure period in which to cure the default or violation.

- (b) All notices to American Freight Franchisor must be sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the following address:

American Freight Franchisor, LLC
680 Sunbury Road
Delaware, Ohio 43015
Attention: President

American Freight Franchisor may change its address for receiving notices by giving Lessor written notice of the new address. Lessor agrees to notify both Lessee and American Freight Franchisor of any change in Lessor's mailing address to which notices should be sent.

- (c) Upon Lessee's default and failure to cure a default under either the Lease or the Franchise Agreement, American Freight Franchisor has the right (but not the obligation) to unilaterally assume Lessee's interest in the Lease in accordance with Paragraph 2.

4. Termination or Expiration.

- (a) Upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, American Freight Franchisor has the right (but not the obligation) to unilaterally assume Lessee's interest in the Lease in accordance with Paragraph 2.
- (b) Upon the expiration or termination of the Lease, if American Freight Franchisor does not assume Lessee's interest in the Lease, Lessor agrees to cooperate and allow American Freight Franchisor to enter the Premises, without cost and without being guilty of trespass and without incurring any liability to Lessor, to remove all signs, awnings, and all other items identifying the Premises as an AMERICAN FREIGHT Business and to make such other modifications as are reasonably necessary to protect the marks and system, and to distinguish the Premises from AMERICAN FREIGHT Facilities. In the event American Freight Franchisor exercises its option to purchase assets of Lessee, Lessor agrees to permit American Freight Franchisor to remove all such assets being purchased by American Freight Franchisor.

5. Consideration; No Liability.

- (a) Lessor acknowledges that the provisions of this Addendum are required pursuant to the Franchise Agreement and that Lessee may not lease the Premises without this Addendum.
- (b) Lessor acknowledges that Lessee is not an agent or employee of American Freight Franchisor and Lessee has no authority or power to act for, or to create any liability on behalf of, or to in any way bind American Freight Franchisor or any affiliate of American Freight Franchisor and that Lessor has entered into this Addendum with full understanding that it creates no duties, obligations or liabilities of or against American Freight Franchisor or any affiliate of American Freight Franchisor.

- (c) Nothing contained in this Addendum makes American Freight Franchisor or its affiliates a party or guarantor to the Lease and does not create any liability or obligation of American Freight Franchisor or its affiliates.
- 6. Modification. No amendment or variation of the terms of this Addendum is valid unless made in writing and signed by the parties and the parties have obtained American Freight Franchisor's written consent.
- 7. Reaffirmation of Lease. Except as amended or modified in this Addendum, all of the terms, conditions and covenants of the Lease remain in full force and effect.
- 8. Miscellaneous.
 - (a) American Freight Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary of this Addendum.
 - (b) References to the Lease and to the Franchise Agreement include all amendments, addenda, extensions and renewals to the documents.
 - (c) References to Lessor, Lessee and American Freight Franchisor include the successors and assigns of each of the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Addendum as of the date written above.

EXHIBIT H
STATE ADDENDA

American Freight Franchisor, LLC
Addendum to Franchise Agreement
(California)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Franchise Agreement (the "Agreement") with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of California or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of California pursuant to the California Franchise Investment Law §§ 31000 through 31516, and the California Franchise Relations Act, California Business and Professions Code §§ 20000 through 20043, as follows:

1. If any of the provisions of the Agreement concerning termination and non-renewal of a franchise are inconsistent with either the California Franchise Relations Act or with the federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. §101, et seq.) (concerning termination of the Agreement on certain bankruptcy-related events), then such laws will apply.

2. The Agreement requires that it be governed by the laws of the state of Delaware. This requirement may be unenforceable under California law.

3. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).

4. The Agreement contains a covenant not to compete, which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

5. The Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur where our headquarters are located (currently, Delaware, Ohio) with the costs being borne equally by you and us. You are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

6. You and we agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier.

7. To the extent this Addendum is inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the Exhibits or Schedules thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

Addendum to Franchise Agreement
(Indiana)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of Indiana or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of Indiana pursuant to the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Law, Indiana Code §§ 23-2-2.7-1 through 23-2-2.7-10, and the Indiana Franchise Disclosure Law, Indiana Code §§ 23-2-2-2.5-1 through 23-2-2-2.5-51, as follows:

1. The Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under Indiana law.
2. Under Section 8(c) of the Agreement, you will not be required to indemnify us for any liability imposed on us as a result of your reliance on or use of procedures and materials which we required, if such procedures were utilized by you in the manner required by us.
3. Sections 3 and 13 of the Agreement each contain a provision requiring a general release as a condition of renewal and transfer of the franchise. Each provision is inapplicable under the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Law, IC § 23-2-2.7-1(5).
4. Section 17(h)(i) of the Agreement is amended to provide that in the event of a conflict of law, the Indiana Franchise Disclosure Law and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Law will prevail.

Addendum to Franchise Agreement
(Maryland)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of Maryland or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of Maryland pursuant to the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, Md. Code Bus. Reg. §§ 14-201 through 14-233, as follows:

1. The general release language required as a condition of renewal, sale and/or assignment or transfer shall apply except for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
2. You may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
3. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three years after the grant of the franchise.
4. Your acknowledgments or representations made in this Agreement, which disclaim the occurrence and/or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Franchise Law, are not intended to nor shall they act as release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.
5. This Agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.
6. Each provision of this Addendum will be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are met independently without reference to this Addendum.
7. To the extent this Addendum is inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the Exhibits or Attachments thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

3. Section 17(i) of the Agreement will be amended by the addition of the following, which will be considered an integral part of this Agreement:

§ 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that “a provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.”

4. You and we agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier.

5. Each provision of this Addendum will be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

6. To the extent this Addendum is inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the Exhibits or Schedules thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

American Freight Franchisor, LLC
Addendum to Franchise Agreement
(Washington)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of Washington or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of Washington pursuant to the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, as follows:

1. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

3. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

5. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

6. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

7. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the date set forth on Appendix A of this Agreement (the “Effective Date”) (Appendix A and all appendices and schedules attached to this Agreement are hereby incorporated by this reference) between American Freight Franchisor, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company having its principal place of business at 680 Sunbury Road, Delaware, Ohio 43105 (“Franchisor”), and the person or entity identified on Appendix A as the franchisee (“Franchisee”) with its principal place of business as set forth on Appendix A. In this Agreement, “we,” “us,” and “our” refers to Franchisor. “You” and “your” refers to Franchisee.

RECITALS

A. We and you have entered into a certain Franchise Agreement dated the same date as this Agreement (the “Initial Franchise Agreement”), in which we have granted you the right to establish and operate one AMERICAN FREIGHT RETAIL OUTLET business (a “Retail Business”).

B. We desire to grant to you the exclusive right to establish and operate a specified number of Retail Businesses within a specified geographical area in accordance with a development schedule.

C. You desire to establish and operate additional Retail Businesses upon the terms and conditions contained in our then-current standard franchise agreements (a “Franchise Agreement”).

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Development Rights and Development Area.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, we grant to you the right, and you undertake the obligation, to establish and operate in the area designated on Appendix A to this Agreement (the “Development Area”) the number of Retail Businesses specified in the development schedule in Appendix A (the “Schedule”). This Agreement does not grant you any right to use the Trademarks (as defined in your Initial Franchise Agreement) or the System (as defined in your Initial Franchise Agreement). Rights to use the Trademarks and the System are granted only by the Franchise Agreements.

2. Fees.

Upon execution of this Agreement, you must pay us a development fee, which shall be specified on Appendix A (the “Development Fee”), based on the initial franchise fee you must pay for each Retail Business that you agree to develop (the “Franchise Fee,” which is specified on Appendix A). The Development Fee shall be equal to 100% of the Franchise Fee due for the Retail Business that you agree to develop under the Initial Franchise Agreement and 50% of the Franchise Fee due for each additional Retail Business that you agree to develop under each additional Franchise Agreement. At the time you sign each Franchise Agreement, we will credit the portion of the Development Fee that you paid for such Retail Business toward the Franchise Fee that is due for such Retail Business, and you will pay the balance of the Franchise Fee that is due for such Retail Business. The Development Fee is fully earned by us when we and you sign this Agreement and is non-refundable, even if you do not comply with the Schedule and do not open or enter into Franchise Agreements for additional Retail Businesses.

3. Development Schedule.

3.1 Deadlines. You must enter into Franchise Agreements and open and operate Retail Businesses in accordance with the deadlines set forth in the Schedule. By each “Fee Deadline” specified in the Schedule, you must have fully paid the Franchise Fee (as defined in this Agreement rather than the then-current Franchise Agreement) and delivered a signed copy of our then-current standard form of Franchise Agreement for the number of Retail Businesses specified on the Schedule. By each “Opening Deadline” specified in the Schedule, you must have the specified number of Retail Businesses open and operating. You must locate the Retail Businesses only at sites that we have accepted in accordance with the terms of the applicable Franchise Agreement.

3.2 Damaged Retail Businesses. If a Retail Business is destroyed or damaged by any cause beyond your control such that it may no longer continue to be open for the operation of business, you must immediately give us notice of such destruction or damage (“Destruction Event”). You must diligently work to repair and restore the Retail Business to our approved plans and specifications as soon as possible at the same location or at a substitute site accepted by us within the Development Area. If a Retail Business is closed due to a Destruction Event, the Retail Business will continue to be deemed a “Retail Business in operation” for the purpose of this Agreement for up to 180 days after the Destruction Event occurs. If a Retail Business (i) is closed in a manner other than those described in this Section 3.2 or as otherwise agreed by us in writing or (ii) fails to reopen within 180 days after a Destruction Event, then we may exercise our rights under Section 6.2 (Our Remedies).

3.3 Extension of Development Schedule. You may request an extension of any Opening Deadline upon written notice to us, provided the written notice, setting for the additional time requested and the reasons for the extension are delivered to us no less than 90 days before any Opening Deadline (“Extension Request”). We have the right, in sole discretion, to grant or deny any Extension Request. If we grant the Extension Request, you shall be required to immediately pay us an extension fee equal to the number of months (up to 12 months) for which the Extension Request is granted multiplied by $4,000 for each of the first 6 months of the Extension Request and $6,000 for the 7th through 12th month, if applicable (“Extension Fee”). No Opening Deadline may be extended beyond 12 months. In addition, if we determine you are not using your best efforts to meet the new Opening Deadline, we can terminate our grant of the Extension Request at any time upon written notice to you and you will not be entitled to a refund of any portion of the Extension Fee. Accordingly, your failure to meet the Opening Deadline shall constitute an Event of Default under Section 6.1(b).

4. Development Area.

4.1 Development Area. Except as provided in this Section 4, while this Agreement is in effect, provided that (i) you sign the minimum number of Franchise Agreements and pay the related Franchise Fees in accordance with the Schedule and you have open and operating in the Development Area at any given time at least as many Retail Businesses as are required pursuant to the Schedule and (ii) you and your affiliates are in full compliance with this Agreement and any other agreements between you and your affiliates and us and our affiliates, we will not operate, or license any person other than you to operate, a Retail Business under the Trademarks (as defined in your Initial Franchise Agreement) and the System (as defined in your Initial Franchise Agreement) within the Development Area. Your rights in the previous sentence related to the Development Area will not apply to Retail Businesses (and their related territories) currently operating, approved for development or under development in the Development Area on the Effective Date.

4.2 No Other Restriction On Us. Except as expressly provided in Section 4.1 or any other agreement between the parties, we and our affiliates retain the right, in our sole discretion, to conduct any business activities, under any name, in any geographic area, and at any location, regardless of the proximity to or effect on your Retail Businesses. For example, we and our affiliates have the right to:

(a) Establish and operate and grant to others the right to establish and operate Retail Businesses at any location outside the Development Area regardless of the proximity of such Retail Businesses to the Development Area, or whether any such Retail Businesses are assigned a territory that overlaps a portion of the Development Area (if there is territory overlap, no other Retail Business will be physically located in the Development Area except pursuant to Sections 4.3 and 4.4);

(b) Establish and operate and grant to others the right to establish and operate on any terms and conditions we deem appropriate, retail businesses, including Competitive Businesses, or any other similar or dissimilar businesses that are not primarily identified by the American Freight Trademarks at any locations, whether within or outside the Development Area;

(c) Solicit and sell products or services to customers and prospective customers residing within the Development Area, including without limitation, by any other methods of distribution, including but not limited to, point-of-sale lease and purchase programs directly to manufacturers and retailers; or by catalog, direct advertising over the Internet, or other electronic means;

(d) Merge with, acquire, establish or become associated with any businesses or locations of any kind under other systems and/or other marks, which businesses and locations may offer or sell items, products and services that are the same as or similar to the approved products and services offered at or from your Retail Businesses, and which may be located anywhere within or outside the Development Area. Except as provided in Sections 4.3 and 4.4, we may not grant a Competitive Retail Business the right to use the Trademarks at a location in the Development Area; and

(e) engage in any other business activities not expressly prohibited by this Agreement, both within and outside the Development Area.

“Competitive Retail Business” means any other business, which sells or offers rent-to-own home furnishings, mattresses or appliances through any channel, including, without limitation, business conducted by means of retail outlets, internet or direct marketing.

4.3 Conversion Stores. If we acquire any store operating under different trademarks that sells or leases the same, similar or different products and services as those offered and sold by Retail Businesses (each a “Non-System Store”) within the Development Area and we desire to convert such Non-System Store to a Retail Business operating under the Trademarks, we shall deliver to you a written notice of such intent to convert (each, a "Conversion Notice"). We will not offer you, and you will have no rights to, the option under this Section 4.3 if the Non-System Store is in the Development Area but in the territory of another Retail Business that is not owned by you. Provided that you are in compliance with all of the provisions of this Agreement and no default, or event which with the giving of notice or passage of time or both, would become a default, exists under this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, you shall have the option, exercisable within 30 days after receipt of such Conversion Notice, to purchase the Non-System Store and convert it to a Retail Business operating under the Trademarks by notifying us in writing. If you elect to purchase and convert the Non-System Store, you must consummate such purchase and execute our then-current franchise agreement and pay our then-current initial franchise fee (or, at our option, execute an amendment to this Agreement and pay our then-current initial franchise fee) within 30 days from the date of your notice to us of your election to purchase and convert.

(a) If we purchased the Non-System Store during the 180 days prior to our delivery of the Conversion Notice to you, the purchase price to be paid by you shall be the cash equivalent of the consideration paid by us for the Non-System Store (or, if we purchased the Non-System Store in a transaction which was for more than one Non-System Store, the cash equivalent of our proportionate per-store cost, as determined by us in our sole discretion). In addition to the purchase price payable under this Section 4.3, you shall reimburse us for the costs and expenses we incurred in connection with our acquisition of the Non-System Store (pro-rated if the Non-System Store was acquired as part of a multiple store purchase by us). You acknowledge that the value of the Non-System Store may diminish during the 180 day period after our acquisition of the Non-System Store.

(b) If we did not purchase the Non-System Store during the 180 days prior to our delivery of the Conversion Notice, the purchase price, which shall be paid in cash, will be the fair market value of the Non-System Store. If we and you cannot agree on fair market value within a reasonable time, such fair market value shall be determined by two independent appraisers, one of whom shall be chosen by us and the other of whom shall be chosen by you. If such appraisers cannot agree on such fair market value, they shall jointly choose a third independent appraiser, whose decision shall be final and binding. Each party shall bear the cost for its chosen appraiser, and the cost for a third appraiser, if any, shall be shared equally between you and us. If you do not elect to purchase and convert the Non-System Store, we may convert the Non-System Store to a Retail Business operating under the Trademarks without incurring any liability to you.

5. Term.

This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and expires at midnight on the last Opening Deadline date listed on the Schedule (the "Term"), unless this Agreement is terminated sooner as provided in other sections of this Agreement.

6. Termination.

6.1 Events of Default. Any one or more of the following constitutes an "Event of Default" under this Agreement:

- (a) You fail to pay any Franchise Fee or execute any Franchise Agreement by any Fee Deadline specified in the Schedule;
- (b) You fail to have open and operating the minimum number of Retail Businesses specified in the Schedule by any Opening Deadline specified in the Schedule;
- (c) An event occurs which gives us the right under any Franchise Agreement to terminate such Franchise Agreement (regardless of whether we exercise such right); or
- (d) You breach or otherwise fail to comply fully with any other provision contained in this Agreement, including Section 8 (Franchisee's Covenant Not to Compete).

6.2 Our Remedies. If any Event of Default occurs under Section 6.1, we may, at our sole election, (i) declare this Agreement and any and all other rights granted to you under this Agreement to be immediately terminated and of no further force or effect, (ii) extend any deadlines for a single Retail Business or multiple Retail Businesses for any period that we determine and charge you an extension fee that we specify for such extension, or (iii) reduce the size of the Development Area to a lesser area that we determine. Upon termination of this Agreement for any other reason whatsoever, we will retain the Development Fee and you will not be relieved of any of your obligations, debts, or liabilities hereunder, including without limitation any debts, obligations, or liabilities which have accrued prior to such termination. Your failure to open and thereafter operate Retail Businesses in accordance with the Schedule will not, in itself, constitute cause for us to terminate any previously executed Franchise Agreement.

7. Assignment.

This Agreement and the rights granted to you under this Agreement are personal to you and neither this Agreement, nor any of the rights granted to you hereunder nor any controlling equity interest in you may be voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise, assigned or otherwise transferred, given away, or encumbered by you without our prior written approval, which we may grant or withhold for any or no reason. If you are a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other entity, all of your owners of a legal and/or beneficial interest in such entity (the “Owners”) are listed on Appendix A of this Agreement. If you or your Owners intend to transfer any interest in you or this Agreement, we shall have a right of first refusal in accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 13(j) (Right of First Refusal) of the Initial Franchise Agreement. We may assign this Agreement or any ownership interests in us without restriction.

8. Franchisee's Covenant Not to Compete.

8.1 In-Term Covenants. You acknowledge that you will receive valuable, specialized training and confidential information regarding the manufacturing, operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods of the AMERICAN FREIGHT RETAIL BUSINESS concept. During the Term, you, your Owners, and your Owners' spouses will not, without our prior written consent, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity:

- (a) own, manage, operate, maintain, engage in, consult with or have any interest in any Competitive Retail Business other than one authorized by any other agreement between us and you;
- (b) perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Trademarks and the System; or
- (c) directly or indirectly, appropriate, use or duplicate the System or any portion thereof, in any business in which you may have any interest of any kind (whether directly or indirectly) or in which you are otherwise employed, except Retail Businesses.

8.2 Post-Term Covenants. For one year after the expiration or termination of this Agreement or an approved transfer to a new franchisee (or the date on which all persons restricted by this Section 8.2 begin to comply with this Section), you and your Owners may not, without our prior written consent, directly or indirectly (e.g., through a spouse or other family member) own, manage, engage in, be employed in a managerial position by, advise, make loans to, or have any other interest in any Competitive Retail Business that is (or is intended to be) located within the Development Area, a 10-mile radius of the Development Area, or a 25-mile radius of any other Retail Business that is operating or under construction at the time of such expiration, termination, or transfer. With respect to the Owners, the time period in this Section 12.2 will run from the expiration, termination, or transfer of this Agreement or from the termination of the Owner's relationship with you, whichever occurs first.

8.3 Publicly Traded Corporations. Ownership of less than 5% of the outstanding voting stock of any class of stock of a publicly traded corporation will not, by itself, violate this Section 8.

8.4 Covenants of Others. The Owners personally bind themselves to this Section 8 by signing the Guarantee that is attached as Appendix B to this Agreement.

8.5 Enforcement of Covenants. You acknowledge and agree that (i) the time, territory and scope of the covenants provided in this Section 8 are reasonable and necessary for the protection of our legitimate business interests; (ii) you have received sufficient and valid consideration in exchange for those covenants; (iii) enforcement of the same would not impose undue hardship; and (iv) the period of protection provided by these covenants will not be reduced by any period of time during which you are in violation of the provisions of those covenants or any period of time required for enforcement of those covenants. To the extent that this Section 8 is judicially determined to be unenforceable by virtue of its scope or in terms of area or length of time, but may be made enforceable by reductions of any or all thereof, the same will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible. You agree that the existence of any claim you may have against us, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to our enforcement of the covenants contained in this Section 8. You acknowledge that any breach or threatened breach of this Section 8 will cause us irreparable injury for which no adequate remedy at law is available, and you consent to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct violating the terms of this Section 8. Such injunctive relief will be in addition to any other remedies that we may have.

9. Incorporation of Other Terms.

Section 11 (Confidential Information, Innovations, and Copyrights), Section 16 (Dispute Resolution), and Section 17 (General Provisions) of the Initial Franchise Agreement are incorporated by reference in this Agreement and will govern all aspects of our relationship and the construction of this Agreement as if fully restated within the text of this Agreement.

10. Miscellaneous.

Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in the Initial Franchise Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Initial Franchise Agreement, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, whether oral and written, among the parties relating to its subject matter, and there are no oral or other written understandings, representations, or agreements among the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. This Agreement may be signed in multiple counterparts, but all such counterparts together shall be considered one and the same instrument. The parties may provide additional terms by including the terms on Appendix A. To the extent that any provisions of Appendix A are in direct conflict with the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of Appendix A shall control. The provisions of this Agreement may be amended or modified only by written agreement signed by the party to be bound.

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE GUARANTEE

In order to induce American Freight Franchisor, LLC (“Franchisor”) to enter into an American Freight Development Agreement (the “Development Agreement”) by and between Franchisor and the Franchisee named in the Development Agreement dated _____ to which this Payment and Performance Guarantee (the “Guarantee”) is attached (“Franchisee”), the undersigned (collectively referred to as the “Guarantors” and individually referred to as a “Guarantor”) hereby covenant and agree as follows:

1. Guarantee of Payment and Performance. The Guarantors jointly and severally unconditionally guarantee to Franchisor and its affiliates the payment and performance when due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, of all obligations, indebtedness, and liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, of every kind and nature, whether now existing or incurred from time to time hereafter, whether incurred pursuant to the Development Agreement or otherwise, together with any extension, renewal, or modification thereof in whole or in part (the “Guaranteed Liabilities”). The Guarantors agree that if any of the Guaranteed Liabilities are not so paid or performed by Franchisee when due, the Guarantors will immediately do so. The Guarantors further agree to pay all expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) paid or incurred in endeavoring to enforce this Guarantee or the payment of any Guaranteed Liabilities. The Guarantors represent and agree that they have each reviewed a copy of the Development Agreement and have had the opportunity to consult with counsel to understand the meaning and import of the Development Agreement and this Guarantee.

2. Waivers by Guarantors. The Guarantors waive presentment, demand, notice of dishonor, protest, and all other notices whatsoever, including without limitation notices of acceptance hereof, of the existence or creation of any Guaranteed Liabilities, of the amounts and terms thereof, of all defaults, disputes, or controversies between Franchisor and Franchisee and of the settlement, compromise, or adjustment thereof. This Guarantee is primary and not secondary and will be enforceable without Franchisor having to proceed first against Franchisee or against any or all of the Guarantors or against any other security for the Guaranteed Liabilities. This Guarantee will be effective regardless of the insolvency of Franchisee by operation of law, any reorganization, merger, or consolidation of Franchisee, or any change in the ownership of Franchisee.

3. Term: No Waiver. This Guarantee will be irrevocable, absolute, and unconditional and will remain in full force and effect as to each of the Guarantors until such time as all Guaranteed Liabilities of Franchisee to Franchisor and its affiliates have been paid and satisfied in full. No delay or failure on the part of Franchisor in the exercise of any right or remedy will operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise by Franchisor of any right or remedy will preclude other further exercise of such right or any other right or remedy.

4. Other Covenants. Each of the Guarantors agrees to comply with the provisions of Section 8 of the Development Agreement as though each such Guarantor were the “Franchisee” named in the Development Agreement and agrees that he or she will take any and all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to cause Franchisee to comply with the Development Agreement and will not take any action that would cause Franchisee to be in breach of the Development Agreement.

5. Dispute Resolution. Section 16 (Dispute Resolution and Governing Law) of the Initial Franchise Agreement (as defined in the Development Agreement) is hereby incorporated herein by reference and will be applicable to any disputes between Franchisor and any of the Guarantors, as though Guarantor were the "Franchisee" referred to in the Development Agreement.

6. Miscellaneous. This Agreement will be binding upon the Guarantors and their respective heirs, executors, successors, and assigns, and will inure to the benefit of Franchisor and its successors and assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Guarantors have caused this Guarantee to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

APPENDIX C
TO THE

American Freight Franchisor, LLC
Addendum to Development Agreement
(California)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Development Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of California or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of California pursuant to the California Franchise Investment Law §§ 31000 through 31516, and the California Franchise Relations Act, California Business and Professions Code §§ 20000 through 20043, as follows:

1. If any of the provisions of the Agreement concerning termination and non-renewal of a franchise are inconsistent with either the California Franchise Relations Act or with the federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. §101, et seq.) (concerning termination of the Agreement on certain bankruptcy-related events), then such laws will apply.

2. The Agreement requires that it be governed by the laws of the state of Delaware. This requirement may be unenforceable under California law.

3. The Agreement contains a covenant not to compete, which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

4. The Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur where our headquarters are located (currently, Delaware, Ohio) with the costs being borne equally by you and us. You are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

5. You and we agree to be bound by the provisions of any limitation on the period of time in which claims must be brought under applicable law or this Agreement, whichever expires earlier.

6. To the extent this Addendum is inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the Exhibits or Schedules thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

Addendum to Development Agreement
(Maryland)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes American Freight Franchisor, LLC Development Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of Maryland or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of Maryland pursuant to the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, Md. Code Bus. Reg. §§ 14-201 through 14-233, as follows:

1. The general release language required as a condition of sale and/or assignment or transfer shall apply except for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

2. You may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

3. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three years after the grant of the franchise.

4. Your acknowledgments or representations made in this Agreement, which disclaim the occurrence and/or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Franchise Law, are not intended to nor shall they act as release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. This Agreement provides that disputes are resolved through arbitration. A Maryland franchise regulation states that it is unfair or deceptive practice to require a franchisee to waive its right to file a lawsuit in Maryland claiming a violation of the Maryland Franchise Law. In light of the Federal Arbitration Act, there is some dispute as to whether this forum selection requirement is legally enforceable.

6. Each provision of this Addendum will be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

7. To the extent this Addendum is inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the Exhibits or Schedules thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

American Freight Franchisor, LLC
Addendum to Development Agreement
(Washington)

The following Addendum modifies and supersedes the American Freight Franchisor, LLC Development Agreement (the “Agreement”) with respect to American Freight franchises offered or sold to either a resident of the State of Washington or a non-resident who will be operating an American Freight franchise in the State of Washington pursuant to the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010 through 19.100.940, as follows:

1. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

2. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

3. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the Agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

4. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

5. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

6. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the Agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

7. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the Agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

6. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Florida. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
7. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires us to give you a disclosure document, in a form containing the information that the commissioner may by rule or order require, before a solicitation of a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.
