What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit C.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Kansas. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Kansas than in your own state.

2. Spousal liability: Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

3. Limited operating history: The franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history."

4. Financial risk factor: The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

You must complete the training program to our satisfaction. If you do not complete the training program to our satisfaction, we can terminate your franchise agreement. We encourage you to begin training before incurring any costs or expenses related to the planned opening of the Franchise Business. We will not be liable to return any franchise fee or pay any costs or expenses you incur if we terminate your franchise agreement because you do not pass the training program. Conduct the Franchised Business According to System Standards. You must conduct the Franchised Business offering only such services as we authorize from time to time. In the development and operation of the Franchised Business you must follow our specifications, standards, methods and operating procedures (the "System Standards"). You must develop and operate the Franchised Business in accordance with each and every System Standard, as periodically modified or supplemented by us, including without limitation the Bee Organized Manual, if any. System Standards may govern all aspects of the development and operation of the Franchised Business, including without limitation, the following: (1) performance, quality and other relevant characteristics of the services offered by the Franchised Business; (2) use of the Marks and protection of confidential information; (3) types of authorized services; (4) qualifications, training, appearance and attitude of the Franchised Business' employees; (5) use and retention of standard forms; (6) use of standard formats; (7) use of computer software; (8) adoption of technological developments or advances; (9) call back/warranty work for customers; and (10) the addition or deletion of new services. You must conform to such amendments, and make all reasonable expenditures necessitated by the amendments, within the time periods reasonably established by us. The Company Operating Guidelines are intended to further the purposes of the Franchise Agreement and is specifically incorporated into the Franchise Agreement such that they shall constitute provisions of the Franchise Agreement as if fully set forth therein. You shall not copy any part of the Company Operating Guidelines, permit any part of it to be copied, allow any portion to be used by anyone other than you, or disclose it or allow access to anyone not having a need to know the contents for purposes of operating the Franchised Business without our permission. You shall refrain from conducting any business or selling any services (and also any products) other than those approved by us. You must use your best efforts to promote and enhance the business of the Franchised Business for the full term of the Franchise Agreement. We may operate for the benefit of franchisees that are in compliance with the franchise system a system of fines, which you would pay for violations of some policies of the Company Operating Guidelines. For example, if your employees do not wear the proper attire, then you would pay a fine. There is currently no system of fines and if one is adopted, it would be described and updated in the Company Operating Guidelines to be developed. We reserve the right to utilize the electronic funds transfer system to implement the operations fine system when implemented.

The Table of Contents to the Bee Organized Operating Guidelines is attached as Exhibit "F".

Item 12. TERRITORY

You receive a franchise for a specific Territory, as defined in Appendix "1" to your Franchise Agreement and which shall be designated, measured and defined by either zip codes, population size, radius, actual legal boundaries and/or a map attached as an additional Exhibit to your Agreement, which would be in effect at the time you sign and during the term of your Franchise Agreement. The form of measurement we shall utilize for your Territory will depend upon each particular geographic location and its population, demographics and proximity to existing franchises, Franchisor company outlets or customers. You are prohibited from selling services by website, or Internet or any other similar electronic medium. So long as the Franchise Agreement is in force and effect and you are not in default under any of the terms, we will not franchise or operate any other BEE ORGANIZED® business within the Territory. However, we may sell services and other franchises to others outside of your Territory without your permission at any time. We may also franchise or operate any other BEE ORGANIZED® location anywhere else, outside your Territory without offering you a right of first refusal. We are allowed to operate and enfranchise anywhere (including within your Territory) any business (not in competition with Bee Organized) under different trademarks and shall be allowed to conduct anywhere (outside your Territory) any business using the marks or System on the Internet or by any other channel of distribution.

Subject to the terms in the above paragraph, we grant you the exclusive right as specifically described above and in Appendix "1" to your Franchise Agreement within the Territory which shall be exclusive, subject to the conditions that you: achieve the Gross Annual revenue Requirements specified in Appendix "1"; and break-even (have positive cash flow) during any consecutive six (6) month period after your first year of operation; and otherwise comply with your Franchise Agreement. If you fail to satisfy any term or provision of your Franchise Agreement during any year, we have the right but not the obligation to (i) terminate your Franchise Agreement or (ii) eliminate the exclusivity of your right to operate BEE ORGANIZED® within the Territory during the Franchise Agreement's remaining term, in which case we or our affiliates may operate, or allow one or more franchisees to operate, a BEE ORGANIZED® business within the Territory.

Except as described above, your Territorial exclusivity will not depend on achievement of market penetration or other contingency.

Infringements. Because you are not authorized to utilize any copyrighted and/or proprietary materials publicly or disclose any of our copyrighted and/or proprietary materials to any other party, we have no obligation to defend you for claims arising from your use of our copyrighted and/or proprietary materials. However, you must immediately notify us of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any copyrighted materials or proprietary information, or claim by any person of any rights in any of our copyrighted and/or proprietary materials, and you may not communicate with any person other than us and our counsel in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. Such transfers, including without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance or trust provisions, shall be subject to the same conditions for transfers contained in this Agreement. Franchisee shall be deemed to have a "permanent disability" if Franchisee's ability to operate or oversee the operation of the Franchised Business on a regular basis is for any reason curtailed for a continuous period of six (6) months. In addition to the foregoing, in order to prevent any interruption of the Franchised Business and to protect the goodwill associated with the BEE ORGANIZED® Marks and System, if Franchisee dies or becomes disabled so that Franchisee is not able to operate or oversee the operation of the Franchised Business on a regular basis, the Franchisor may at its option operate the Franchised Business on Franchisee's behalf for a period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days at which time, Franchisor shall assist the Franchised Business's legal owner in choosing a Franchised Business manager who will be an employee of the Franchised Business, and the Franchisor will periodically discuss the status with the Franchisee or its heirs.

A. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns and successors in interest. All notices, requests, demands, and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when tendered for delivery if delivered by hand, or one day after the date of deposit if deposited with a commercial delivery service which guarantees next day delivery, or two (2) days after deposit if mailed certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the appropriate party at their respective addresses above or at such other place as the party entitled to notice may designate by notice given in the same manner to the other. Time is of the essence of this Agreement and all provisions shall be so interpreted. If any applicable law or rule requires a greater prior notice of the termination of or election not to renew this Agreement, or the taking of some other action than is required under this Agreement, the prior notice or other requirements required by this law or rule shall be substituted for the requirements of this Agreement. The obligations and authorizations hereunder shall be joint and several. Anywhere in this Agreement Franchisee's shareholders (in the case of a corporation) or partners (in the case of a partnership) or owners of any other type of legal entity are referred to, this provision shall also apply fully and personally to any member of any limited liability company or any other legal entity. The invalidity of any provision of this Agreement shall not impair the validity of any other provision. If any provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, that provision will be deemed severable and this Agreement may be enforced with that provision severed or as modified by the court. In the case of any questions of ambiguity relating to any provisions contained herein, there shall not be any construction against the drafter of the document. The preamble and recitals set forth above are hereby incorporated into and made a contractual part of the covenants of this Agreement. The exhibits and Appendix "1" referred to in this Agreement are attached hereto, made a part hereof, and are incorporated herein by reference.

B. The headings and captions in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and shall not constitute a part hereof or affect the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. Whenever required by context, the masculine pronouns shall include the feminine and neuter genders and the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. No waiver of or failure to enforce any of the provisions, terms, conditions, or obligations herein by any party shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of such provision, term, condition, or obligation of this Agreement or of any other provision, term, condition, or obligation hereunder, whether the same or different nature. Subsequent acceptance by the Franchisor of the payments due it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by the Franchisor of a preceding breach by Franchisee. If there develops a custom or practice which is at variance with the terms of this Agreement, the Franchisor will not be deemed to have waived its right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement at a later time. Franchisee acknowledges that the Franchisor has and will in the future enter into license or franchise agreements with third parties pursuant to which such third parties are licensed to use the Marks and otherwise receive the benefits of the System (the "Other Agreements"). Franchisee acknowledges that the provisions of the Other Agreements have or may vary substantially from those contained in this Agreement. No action taken by Franchisor with respect to any one or more of the Other Agreements or any party thereto shall create a course of conduct which may be relied upon or asserted by Franchisee under this Agreement as a modification to this Agreement or otherwise. Franchisor shall not bear any liability whatsoever to Franchisee under this Agreement by reason of Franchisor's failure to waive any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to give a consent or approval hereunder even though Franchisor may have waived such provisions or similar provisions or given similar consents or approvals under any one or more of the Other Agreements. The rights of the Franchisor and Franchisee hereunder are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by the Franchisor or Franchisee of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by the Franchisor or Franchisee of any other right or remedy hereunder or which the Franchisor or Franchisee are entitled by law to enforce. No implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing shall be used to alter the express terms of this Agreement. The parties agree to do or cause to be done all acts or things necessary to implement and carry into effect this Agreement to its full extent.

C. If by virtue of the community property laws of any state, Franchisee's spouse is deemed to have any property interest in this Agreement, Franchisee's ownership interest, or the Franchised Business, the Franchisor will require Franchisee's spouse to consent and join in all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, any related agreements and any amendments thereto.

D. This Agreement contains the sole and only agreement between the parties as to the matters, privileges, rights, titles, interests, duties, obligations, and performances herein set forth; all prior negotiations, verbal or written, being integrated herein and hereby, and same shall only be changed, altered, modified, amended, supplemented or novated by a writing signed by all the parties hereto. This Agreement may be executed in more than one counterpart, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

12. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Franchisee hereby acknowledges the following: Franchisee has conducted their own independent investigation of the Franchised Business and had the time and opportunity to obtain the advice and assistance of independent attorneys, accountants and other professional advisors; and Franchisee understands and accepts the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain Franchisor's high standards of quality and the uniformity of those standards at all Franchised Businesses in order to protect and preserve the goodwill of the Marks; and the covenants not to compete in this Agreement are fair, reasonable and will not impose any undue hardship on Franchisee; and this investment involves business risks and the success of the venture is largely dependent upon Franchisee's business abilities and efforts; and neither Franchisor nor any of its agents, has made any oral, written or visual representations or projections of actual or potential sales, costs, earnings, income, gross or net profits or success of the Franchised Business, except as disclosed in the Franchise Disclosure Document; and Franchisee has not received or relied on any representations about the franchise by Franchisor, or its officers, directors, employees or agents, that are contrary to the terms herein; and the officers, directors, employees and agents of Franchisor act only in a representative capacity, not in an individual capacity; and all information provided by Franchisee to Franchisor is true, complete and accurate in all respects.

Info@BeeOrganized.com

Hi, Honey!

Thank you for your interest in Bee Organized! We are excited to connect with you to explore the benefits of Bee Organized Franchising and how we can help you become your own Queen Bee!

After years of experiencing, first hand, the many benefits that simplicity and organization brought to our own homes and families, we became passionate about sharing our knowledge, thoughts, tips and tricks with other people.

We launched Bee Organized in 2015 with the sole desire and purpose of helping people Bee Organized and teaching them how to "Simplify their Hives" and lives.

Back then, our goals and dreams for Bee Organized were smaller. As we opened, we could only cross our fingers and hope for the immediate success we eventually experienced. We have been blessed, worked hard and are excited about the explosive and relentless growth we've experienced. We certainly never envisioned that we would be where we are today with the business systems and organizing principles that have become the foundation for Bee Organized's national franchise expansion and success.

Even back then, when all we wanted to do was successfully launch a small, local business, simplifying lives one Hive at a time, Bee Organized became much more than just organizing.

We've been best friends since junior high. We are the yin and the yang, Mutt and Jeff, Thelma and Louise... you get the picture. We founded Bee Organized on the shoulders of this friendship, trust and support. We are proud that a family culture has organically developed throughout Bee Organized, not unlike that of a bee hive - everyone buzzing together with the same goal.

Since our launch, there has been an explosion in the industry of professional organizing. It is an exciting time to be a professional organizer – even more exciting to be a Queen Bee helping us pollinate the USA helping people Bee Organized and Simplify their Hives across the globe! If you are interested in building a mission-driven organizing business that is about more than just organizing and joining a family or, hive, to help you do it, then you are in the right place!

We are buzzing with excitement to talk "shop" with you soon.

Lisa Foley & Kristen Christian

Beyond the Buzzin'

Here at Bee Organized, we believe that being Compassionate, Confidential and Judgement Free are way more important than one's ability to organize. When we hire people who reflect the traits of our three main values, we have no doubt we will all be successful! We will teach the Bee Organized way of organizing, but these three core values, when genuine, are what makes Bee Organized stand out and separates us from our competition.

The Bee Organized process of organizing comes from patiently listening to our clients and fully understanding their wants, needs, and struggles. From there, we work alongside our clients to provide proven, customized and sustainable organizing solutions that make sense for their home, family, season of life and current needs.

Our Bee-liefs

Fall in Love with Bee Organized

Who doesn't need a little more organization in their lives, right? Although everyone could use our services, we find our target audience to be busy homeowners who are between the ages of 35–70 years old.

Our Clients Think We're the Bee's Knees

> "I tell my husband, you need golf and I need The Bees!"
> Kate J.

> "Bee Organized has been a lifesaver on three different occasions now. I can't imagine ever getting through all the transitions I've experienced without the help of such professional, kind, and compassionate people."
> Karen B.

> "I actually miss you ladies! It was such fun working with you and I continue to enjoy the finished product. It is so satisfying to go into the basement and easily find what I need. I feel like I lost 30 pounds... put THAT in your testimonial!"
>
> Lesley H.

Our Antennae are Up!

While professional organizing companies weren't unheard of when we launched Bee Organized, the idea of a "next level" professional organizing solution for local homes and businesses was still a radical idea.

Although the industry of professional organizing did not emerge until 1984, Americans have always had a propensity to collect, gather and consume things, stuff, at a rapid pace. This love affair with stuff has added up to crammed basements, forgotten storage units and closet doors that won't close from east to west. In its wake, are frayed nerves and high stress levels in American families.

> "12 % of the world's population lives in North America and Western Europe and accounts for 60% of private consumption spending. Whereas a third of humanity lives in Asia and Africa and accounts for only 3.2% of private consumption spending."
> –The WorldWatch Institute

We are a nation of consumers and we are paying for it in many more ways than just dollars.

When you couple Americans love of consuming, the aging population and the fact that most of us are all running a million miles a minute and spending time we don't have looking for keys, soccer balls and the colander under piles of stuff, it is clear that the organizing industry is here to stay... and help.

- Nationally, the average homeowner who hires a professional organizer spends between $40 and $100 per hour.
- The average organizing project takes six to eight hours.
- Many first time organizing customers become ongoing, repeat maintenance and concierge customers.

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

Item 3- LITIGATION: Neither we nor any person listed in Item 2 above is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in that association or exchange.

Item 5-INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE: For franchises in California, the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement and the franchisee opens for business.

Item 17-RENEWAL, TERMINATION, TRANSFER AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION: California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the franchise agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The franchise agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (II U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).

The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at the city in which the franchisor's headquarters are located when the proceedings are conducted with the costs being borne by the non-prevailing party. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 200405, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The franchise agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Kansas. This provision may not be enforceable under California laws.

The Franchise Agreement requires you to execute a general release of claims on renewal or transfer of the Franchise Agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order under this Agreement is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000-31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000-20043).
