What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit C.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Georgia. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Georgia than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payment: You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Spousal Liability: Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

NOTICE REQUIRED BY STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchised business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

THIS MICHIGAN NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO FRANCHISEES WHO ARE RESIDENTS OF MICHIGAN OR LOCATE THEIR FRANCHISES IN MICHIGAN.

- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.

- (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
- (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Department of Attorney General, State of Michigan, G. Mennen Williams Building, 525 West Ottawa, Lansing, Michigan 48933, telephone (517) 373-7117.

The Franchise Offering

We sell a furniture and wood restoration, repair and refinishing franchise service business (the “Franchised Business”) that performs residential and commercial furniture repair, restoration, and refinishing; wood repair, restoration and refinishing; millwork cabinet re-facing and refinishing, re-upholstery, hardwood floor repair and other related services (the “Franchised Services”). These Franchised Services may be marketed to hotels, homeowners, moving companies, antique dealers, furniture rental companies, insurance companies and others whose responsibilities include residential and commercial property management and maintenance.

If we grant you the right to operate a Franchised Business, you will sign a franchise agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) which gives you the right to use (i) our trade name, trademarks, service marks, insignias, and logos that we specify from time to time (the “Marks”) and (ii) business methods (the “System”) in a nonexclusive territory (the “Territory”). A sample of the Franchise Agreement is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit A.

Our System, including our guidelines, standards and specifications, are set forth on our intranet (“MedicConnection”), which includes our confidential operations manuals (the “Operations Manual”). You will be provided an initial training program in marketing, sales, advertising, operational procedures, and financial administration (“Initial Training”). You are encouraged to use your home as a base of operation for your Franchised Business until your business will support an outside office and warehouse space. As the owner of the Franchised Business, you will operate service vehicle(s), painted bright white, that display the Furniture Medic® logo, your phone number, and the URL address of your website.

We have entered into agreements with several national customers who have access to consumers wanting furniture and cabinet restoration, repair and refinishing services (the “National Accounts Program”). Through this National Accounts Program, these consumers are referred to us; we allocate these sales leads to our franchisees in our sole discretion. You have no right to receive leads from the National Accounts Program. We do not guarantee or represent that you will receive any leads through this program. Lead flow varies widely depending on the territory. Some territories receive no leads. All leads are owned by us and assigned solely at our discretion.

If you participate in the National Accounts Program, you must adhere to the terms and conditions set out in the National Account agreements when you supply services for a National Account customer. You have the option of declining a sales lead from the National Accounts Program, but you must refer the lead back to us.

Some of our National Accounts Programs require you to participate in our Quality Furniture Restoration Program (“QFR Program”), which is a voluntary program in which you may choose to participate. Under the QFR Program, we certify Franchised Businesses that have met the QFR standards as set forth in the QFR Program Certification Application (attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit J) as published from time to time on MedicConnection. This certification allows QFR franchises to receive leads for furniture and cabinet repair and restoration through ServiceMaster’s in-house RESPOND/RECOVER Claim Capture Unit (the “Claim Capture Unit”). Some insurance carriers which utilize the QFR network may have individual performance guidelines which the QFR franchise must agree to meet in order to be eligible for their referrals. There is no guarantee that you will receive any leads through the QFR Program. Lead flow in the QFR Program varies widely depending on the territory. Some territories receive no leads. You have no right to receive leads from the QFR program. All leads are assigned solely at our discretion.

We currently offer business owners the opportunity to convert their existing business to a Franchised Business (“Conversion Franchises”). To qualify, a conversion franchisee must have an existing revenue level of at least $250,000.

Competition

As a franchisee, generally you will compete with independent furniture refinishing businesses and other national franchise organizations. The market for furniture refinishing businesses is mature.

Industry Specific Regulations

We do not know of any general industry specific regulations that would govern the operation of your Franchised Business. You should be knowledgeable about OSHA (Occupational Safety and Hazardous Administration) and the EPA (Environmental Protection Act) federal regulations as well as state and local environmental and occupational safety and hazardous regulations which are applicable to your business. Some laws reference guidelines developed by NESHAP (National Emissions Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants) and NIOSH (National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health) which may be applicable to your Franchised Business. Local contractor laws may require FM franchises to obtain special licenses. You may also be required to maintain an upholsterer's license. In the State of California, a C-6 Cabinet and Millwork license is required to work on permanent wood fixtures. There may be a similar requirement in your state. Because services are often performed in the home, your local agencies may require additional licensing. You will be responsible for contacting your local and state government agencies regarding restrictions and the proper licensing of the operation of the Franchised Business.

Referrals

We pay existing Furniture Medic® franchisees a referral fee for referred candidates who acquire a Franchised Business within 12 months of the referral, but we can change this policy at any time. Franchisees who receive financial incentives for such referrals may be required to register as franchise brokers under applicable state laws. (See State-Specific Addenda attached as Exhibit F to this Disclosure Document).

Item 3: Litigation

Disclosures Regarding Affiliated Programs

The following affiliates who offer franchises resolved actions brought against them with settlements that involved their becoming subject to currently effective injunctive or restrictive orders or decrees. None of these actions have any impact on us or our brand nor allege any unlawful conduct by us.

The People of the State of California v. Arby’s Restaurant Group, Inc. (California Superior Court, Los Angeles County, Case No. 19STCV09397, filed March 19, 2019). On March 11, 2019, our affiliate, Arby's Restaurant Group, Inc. ("ARG"), entered into a settlement agreement with the states of California, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Oregon and Pennsylvania. The Attorneys General in these states sought information from ARG on its use of franchise agreement provisions prohibiting the franchisor and franchisees from soliciting or employing each other's employees. The states alleged that the use of these provisions violated the states' antitrust, unfair competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, consumer protection and other state laws. ARG expressly denies these conclusions but decided to enter into the settlement agreement to avoid litigation with the states. Under the settlement agreement ARG paid no money but agreed (a) to remove the disputed provision from its franchise agreements (which it had already done); (b) not to enforce the disputed provision in existing agreements or to intervene in any action by the Attorneys General if a franchisee seeks to enforce the provision; (c) to seek amendments of the existing franchise agreements in the applicable states to remove the disputed provision from the agreements; and (d) to post a notice and ask franchisees to post a notice to employees about the disputed provision. The applicable states instituted actions in their courts to enforce the settlement agreement through Final Judgments and Orders, Assurances of Discontinuance, Assurances of Voluntary Compliance, and similar methods.

The People of the State of California v. Dunkin' Brands, Inc. (California Superior Court, Los Angeles County, Case No. E25636618, filed on March 19, 2019). On March 14, 2019, our affiliate, Dunkin Brands, Inc. ("DBI"), entered into a settlement agreement with the Attorneys General of 13 states and jurisdictions concerning the inclusion of "no-poaching" provisions in Dunkin' restaurant franchise agreements. The settling states and jurisdictions included California, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and the District of Columbia. A small number of franchise agreements in the Dunkin' system prohibit Dunkin' franchisees from hiring the employees of other Dunkin' franchisees and/or DBI's employees. A larger number of franchise agreements in the Dunkin' system contain a no-poaching provision that prevents Dunkin' franchisees and DBI from hiring each other's employees. Under the terms of the settlement, DBI agreed not to enforce either version of the no-poaching provision or assist Dunkin's franchisees in enforcing that provision. In addition, DBI agreed to seek the amendment of 128 franchise agreements that contain a no-poaching provision that bars a franchisee from hiring the employees of another Dunkin' franchisee. The effect of the amendment would be to remove the no-poaching provision. DBI expressly denied in the settlement agreement that it had engaged in any conduct that had violated state or federal law and, furthermore, that the settlement agreement should not be construed as an admission of law, fact, liability, misconduct, or wrongdoing on the part of DBI. The Attorney General of the State of California filed the above-reference lawsuit in order to place the settlement agreement in the public record, and the action was closed after the court approved the parties' stipulation of judgment.

New York v. Dunkin' Brands, Inc. (N.Y. Supreme Court for New York County, Case No. 451787/2019, filed September 26, 2019). In this matter, the N.Y. Attorney General ("NYAG") filed a lawsuit against our affiliate, DBI, related to credential-stuffing cyberattacks during 2015 and 2018. The NYAG alleged that the cyber attackers used individuals' credentials obtained from elsewhere on the Internet to gain access to certain information for DD Perks customers and others who had registered a Dunkin' gift card. The NYAG further alleged that DBI failed to adequately notify customers and to adequately investigate and disclose the security breaches, which the NYAG alleged violated the New York laws concerning data privacy as well as unfair trade practices. On September 21, 2020, without admitting or denying the NYAG's allegations, DBI and the NYAG entered into a consent agreement to resolve the State's complaint. Under consent order, DBI agreed to pay $650,000 in penalties and costs, issue certain notices and other types of communications to New York customers, and maintain a comprehensive information security program through September 2026, including precautions and response measures for credential-stuffing attacks.

Other than these actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Item 4: Bankruptcy

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

The Basic Operating System, which costs $90 per month, and GoFormz Inspection software, which costs $10 per month, are both required and must be obtained prior to attending Initial Training. Renewing franchisees must subscribe to this software and pay the monthly fee upon entering into a new Franchise Agreement. Some National Accounts require use of the Corrigo Software, which requires a $45 monthly payment to the vendor and a $4.50 ordering fee that is payable to us. The fees and required software may change from time to time.
7. Internet Connection. You must obtain a high-speed Internet connection from a third-party vendor. The estimate is for the first month of services.

The required insurance policies include commercial vehicle and commercial general liability in the amount of $1,000,000 each with respect to the Franchised Business and with us and our affiliates named as additional insureds. You must also maintain workers' compensation insurance with a minimum of $500,000 employer's liability coverage for all employees, irrespective of your state requirements to do so, for the term of your agreement, but those rates will vary significantly based on your local laws and have not been included in this estimate. If you are a corporation or a limited liability company, you are required to have Workers' Compensation coverage for all officers or all members. Your personal history, your previous experience, or the state where you live may vary the amount of premiums. Insurance coverage quoted is not available in Alaska or Hawaii and is based on one van and no more than two employees. Details of the plan offered by our suggested source will be supplied.
9. Service Vehicle. All service vehicles must be bright white with the required Furniture Medic® logos and markings. We do not require approval of any specific vendor for the purchase of a service vehicle. The service vehicle price quoted is a down payment, exclusive of tax, tags, title and extra options. 11. Real Estate and Improvements. We do not require you to buy or lease space for your Franchised Business. You may operate your Franchised Business from your home. If you decide to set up a location outside your home, your initial investment would increase. Your Franchised Business office location must be within your Territory.

Actual costs will be determined at your discretion for the amount of marketing you elect to perform in the first 90 days of operations of start-up of your business. We have based these figures on our and our Predecessor's experience franchising Franchised Businesses.
14. Total Initial Investment. Your actual investment and expenditures and initial cash outlay may vary from the amounts shown depending on the choices you make, your local market, and the size of your Territory. If you choose to purchase additional equipment, products, supplies, and vehicles, your expenses may be higher.

Item 8: Restrictions on Sources of Products and Services

You must purchase the products, equipment, and supplies that you use in your Franchised Business from us, vendors that we approve, or vendors that meet our specifications. Our specifications include standards for customer satisfaction and performance. Our specifications are subject to change, are general in nature, and are designed to assure that you meet our standards of customer satisfaction. We impose these restrictions to safeguard the integrity of the System and the Marks. Specifications and standards are not issued to either franchisees or suppliers.

You are required to purchase at least one service vehicle to operate your Franchised Business and because all sales calls must be made in a service vehicle, as your business grows, you may need more than one van or approved service vehicle. Each van or approved service vehicle must be painted bright white and display the Marks in a manner that we prescribe. The required vehicle decals must be purchased from our approved vendor, but you may use a vendor of your choosing to apply them.

You are required to purchase the Opening Package from us when you purchase your Franchised Business, unless you are an existing Furniture Medic® owner purchasing an additional Franchised Business. If you are a Conversion Franchise, you are required to purchase the Opening Package, except for any items that duplicate items that you already own that already meet our standards. RWL provides financing services to franchisees, you may use the lender of your choice. Besides the items in the Opening Package and RWL's financing program, we and our affiliates are not approved suppliers for any other items that you may purchase for use in your Franchised Business.

Insurance. You must, at your expense, procure and maintain insurance policies with the coverage, types, and amounts that we specify on MedicConnection or otherwise in writing. You cannot begin offering services to the public unless you are adequately insured. Our present insurance requirements are:

1. Workers' compensation and occupational disease insurance with $500,000 employer liability limit as well as such other insurance as may be required by any applicable statute or rule;
2. Commercial general liability insurance, including product liability coverage, with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence;
3. Business automobile liability coverage for both owned and non-owned vehicles, with minimum limits of $1,000,000 bodily injury and property damage; Crime/employee theft (not a bond) with a $25,000 limit;
4. Such additional coverage and higher policy limits as may reasonably be specified for all franchisees from time to time by us; and
5. All other insurance required by applicable state or federal law.

You are also strongly encouraged to have property coverage for damage to customer property caused by your work or in your Care, Custody, and Control with no exclusion for property of others, which can be provided through General Liability or Property Coverage.

All insurance policies procured and maintained by you must (i) be written by an insurance company satisfactory to us, (ii) name us, our affiliates, and our officers, directors, employees, agents, and partners, as an additional insured (except Workers' compensation policy), (iii) contain endorsements by the insurance companies waiving all rights of subrogation against us for workers' compensation insurance, commercial general liability insurance, and business automobile liability insurance, and (iv) stipulate that we will receive copies of all notices of cancellation, non-renewal or coverage reduction or elimination at least 30 days prior to such event.

If you fail or refuse to maintain any required insurance coverage required or fail to furnish satisfactory evidence of coverage, FM, at its option and in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, may obtain such insurance coverage on behalf of the Franchisee, and any costs of premiums incurred by FM in connection therewith shall be paid by the Franchisee on demand.

Officer Interests. One of our officers owns an indirect ownership interest in us, and we are an approved supplier. Other than this interest, our officers do not have any ownership in any approved suppliers.

Approval Process. If you would like to use a supply or equipment source that we have not approved, you must first submit to us information including product specifications, product components, product performance history, product samples, and any other relevant information. We will evaluate the proposed product considering the technical, wear, and performance properties of the item. We may also consider other factors including design, appearance, product reliability, durability, the manufacturer's warranties, quality control methods and financial ability to stand behind its products. We do not publish our criteria for approving items or suppliers. Our review is generally completed in three weeks, but we have up to 60 days to advise you in writing of our decision.

Revenue Earned from Required Purchases. We and our affiliates may derive revenue from your purchases from us, our affiliates, or our approved vendors. Currently, we do not derive revenue from the detail package.

In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020, our Predecessor, the franchisor of the Furniture Medic system during the period between January 1, 2020 and December 8, 2020, earned revenues of $77,691 from required purchases by franchisees, including revenue from the sale of supplies and equipment and Opening Packages to franchisees, which was 1.9% of its total revenue of $4,147,272.

In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020, we, the franchisor of the Furniture Medic system during the period between December 9, 2020, and December 31, 2020, did not earn any revenues from required purchases by franchisees, but we expect to do so in 2021.

These revenue figures have been sourced from unaudited financial statements for each entity.

Percentage Subject to Specifications. The purchase of products from us will represent 15% to 25% of your overall purchases in operating a Franchised Business.

Purchasing or Distribution Cooperatives. As of the Issuance Date of this Disclosure Document, we do not have any purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

Purchase Arrangements. We have negotiated special franchise pricing with some vendors. We currently do not receive rebates from any suppliers, but we may receive rebates in the future.

Material Benefits or Incentives. We do not provide any material benefits or incentives to you for your purchases of certain products or services or your use of certain suppliers. You may derive some benefit from dealing with our designated suppliers since, because of the volume of business they do with our franchisees, they may offer better prices than other suppliers but, except for this, you suffer no monetary disadvantage if you choose not to deal with our designated suppliers.

If you are a Conversion Franchise and have approved credit, RWL will finance up to 100% of the Initial Franchise Fee and Opening Package for up to a seven-year period. An application for financing must be completed and signed by all applicants. Upon approval, a Business Note and Security Agreement (“Note”) with Personal Guaranties, and, in some cases, Secured or Corporate Guaranties (Exhibit K), must be signed along with a pledge of all assets of the Franchised Business (UCC-1 Financing Statement). Copies of drivers’ licenses of all signatories must be provided to RWL.

We do not receive payment for the placement of your financing with RWL. We and our employees, salespersons, and agents do not have any express or implied authority to act as an agent of RWL. The rates and terms offered are authorized solely by RWL. We do not arrange financing from sources other than RWL.

² RWL charges a 1% origination fee and an annual interest on the outstanding principal balance at 6.25%. RWL retains the right to change the rate of interest charged and, at any given time, may offer financing arrangements that differ from those disclosed here for the purchase of the Franchised Business, subject to restrictions. RWL may sell the Note to a third party.

³ Your first payment is due three months after the date of the Note. Interest begins to accrue in the first month and your first payment is due in the third month. Your first payment may be higher than payments two through twelve due to interest accruals; payments two through twelve will be an amount slightly above the accrued interest. These payment amounts are estimated in the charts above. Beginning with your thirteenth payment, your payment amount will increase and will represent payment of both principal and interest. Monthly payments will be automatically transferred from your bank account. Should RWL agree to accept payments in any form other than by automatic transfer, a fee may be charged to the borrower. If any payment is returned for any reason, a maximum fee of $35 will be charged. Any payment not received by the tenth day after its due date is subject to a late charge in the amount of 7% of the payment or $35 (whichever is greater). These fees are subject to change without notice.

⁴ RWL requires a Personal Guaranty of the Note by all applicants and all outstanding owners of the Franchised Business and may request additional Personal, Corporate, or Secured Guarantees as deemed appropriate. RWL requires a pledge of all assets of the Franchised Business (UCC-1 Financing Statement) and any and all other collateral required by RWL. You may prepay the Note at any time without penalty.

⁵ If you do not make payments when due, RWL may demand immediate payment of the full outstanding balance of this loan and any other outstanding loans you may have with RWL. We also have the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement and any other Franchise Agreement(s) you may have with us if you do not make your Note payments on time. In the case of default, interest will accrue at the fixed rate of 18%.

⁷The RWL financing table for a Conversion Franchise does not include any Initial Franchise Fee discounts that may be available from us.

Most of our franchisees have completed Initial Training and are operating the Franchised Business within 90 to 120 days of signing their Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Article V.R.)

Operations Manual

MedicConnection contains the Operations Manual with a total of 1,035 pages of specifications, standards, and procedures. Exhibit H to this Disclosure Document lists the Tables of Contents of the Operations Manual.

Site Selection

Your Franchised Business must operate from one office location within the Territory. We do not assist you in finding an office location or negotiate the purchase or leases for you. Your office location must be within the Territory and allow operation of the business for many crews, teams, sales forces and vehicles that may be coming and going from this location. You may locate your office in your home if such activity in your home is allowed by local ordinances and neighborhood covenants. It is your responsibility to investigate local ordinances and neighborhood covenants for the operation of your business from your selected office location.

You may not open a retail service location nor expand operations to more than one location within the Territory without our prior written consent. If you wish to relocate to another office location, you must obtain our written consent, which will not be unreasonably denied, prior to relocating.

We do not conform your office location to local ordinances and building codes and obtain any required permits. We do not construct, remodel, or decorate your office location; however, we provide standards for use of the Marks, which includes signage guidelines. We do not provide for necessary office equipment, signs, fixtures, and office supplies.

Advertising

National Advertising Fund. We will maintain and administer the National Advertising Fund (the “NAF”). You will contribute the National Advertising Fund Contribution, which is, with some exceptions detailed in Item 6, the greater of $150 or 2% of Gross Sales, to the NAF.

We will determine and budget the specific use of the NAF as we deem necessary. The NAF may be spent by us, at our sole discretion, for (i) national, regional or local media or other marketing techniques or programs designed to advertise and promote the Franchised Services and/or the Marks to consumers, (ii) market research and development, (iii) monitoring and managing social media, (iv) test or target marketing, (v) the conducting of surveys, (vi) creative and production costs, (vii) employee salaries directly or indirectly related to advertising and marketing, (viii) repayment to us or our affiliates for reasonable accounting, administrative and legal expenses associated with the NAF, or (ix) on other expenses related to enhancing and promoting the general recognition of the System and the Marks. None of the NAF is spent on advertising the sale of franchise licenses.

The NAF is administered by SM Manager's accounting and marketing departments on our behalf. We do not have a franchisee advertising council. We are not obligated to ensure that any individual franchisee (including you) benefits directly, on a pro rata basis or at all, from the placement, if any, of such advertising in its local market.

In 2020, the NAF was spent on: website (37%); digital media (5%); customer sales support (5%); cooperative advertising (1%); and administration expenses (24%). All funds not allocated at the end of a year will remain in the NAF and will be used for the various purposes described above.

A financial review of the NAF will be prepared annually by an independent certified public accountant selected by us and will be made available to you upon request. We are not required to audit the NAF.

Local Marketing. You must not use any advertising or promotional materials unless we approve them. If you want to use advertising materials that you develop in accordance with our brand standards guide, you must submit them to us for approval prior to use. We will respond within five business days with our decision as to whether the materials are approved. (Franchise Agreement, Articles IV.E and V.F).

We do not have any local or regional advertising cooperatives. (Franchise Agreement, Article V.W.)

Our Marketing. We are not required to conduct any advertising anywhere, including in your Territory. However, we will make available marketing materials including marketing literature, brochures, and other media proofs and direct sales aids to assist you in your Franchised Business. These materials are our property. We will update and modify information as needed. (Franchise Agreement, Article IV.B.1)

If you have an advertising and/or marketing concept that you would like us to create and the concept will be useful for the entire franchise network, then we will review it and determine within five business days if it would be advantageous to develop the concept for use by the entire franchise network.

Computer Requirements

You must install and use a computer in the operation of your Franchised Business. If this is the purchase of a new Franchised Business, this cost is included in the Opening Package and listed on Exhibit G to this Disclosure Document.

We currently require you to purchase and use (i) a computer with an Intel Core Processor (minimum i5 series), 4GB RAM (8GB or more recommended), 350GB or larger Hard Drive (5400 RPM minimum, 7200 optimal performance), 14" or larger screen, Wireless Network Card (N adapter or higher), (ii) Windows 8 or newer Professional Operating System, (iii) Microsoft Office Home & Business, (iv) antivirus protection, (v) high-speed Internet access with minimum 5Mbps download and 2Mbps up load dedicated to data (not shared with VoIP or other services), (vi) QuickBooks, (vii) our operating system software, (ix) laser printer, and (x) GoFormz.

We recommend using a tablet or smart phone for servicing National Account customers. The cost of such equipment ranges from $400 to $1,000. In addition, some National Accounts may require the use of an estimating software for uploading claims for services you provide to the accounts. If you accept work from these accounts, you will be required to use the required software.

You are not required, during the term of the Franchise Agreement to upgrade your computer system. However, in the future, software may be developed that may not run on older equipment and you may choose to upgrade your equipment to use the software.

We do not have independent access to the information that will be generated or stored in any computer system in your business. We do have a right to audit the records of your business. Some of the records which are reviewed in an audit are in the software on your computer system, and we do have a right to examine those records.

Training

Initial Training. Our Initial Training consists of (i) a pre-training program that can be completed at your home online in approximately 50 hours (the “Pre-Training Program”) and (ii) a two-week training program that is typically held five times per year at our training center in Memphis, Tennessee, but may be held virtually when travel or in-person meetings are restricted. You are encouraged to attend Initial Training as quickly as possible after you have completed your Pre-Initial Training, which includes the submission of certain forms and materials to us. If fewer than four people are signed up for your scheduled training, we reserve the right to delay training until the next available session of four or more attendees but within six months of the purchase of your Franchised Business.

We provide Initial Training for one person and will, at your request, train others you need to have trained on a "space-available" basis. The cost of this Initial Training for one person is included in the Initial Franchise Fee. You must pay an additional training fee of $450 for each additional trainee attending our in-person training. Prior to attending Initial Training, any trainees must have a medical respirator exam fitting and bring the respirator to training, and you must have purchased a tablet and subscribed to GoFormz. You must complete our Initial Training to our satisfaction or re-attend the Initial Training within six months at your own expense. We recommend all employees, partners, or agents who will provide Franchised Services complete the Initial Training program also.

Within six months after successfully completing Initial Training, you must return for one week of post-training (“Post-Training”) and complete our five-day mentorship program that pairs you with an existing franchise owner in their territory (the “Mentorship Program”). The cost for Post-Training for one person is included in the Initial Franchise Fee. You must pay an additional training fee of $450 for each additional trainee attending Post-Training. You must complete Post-Training and the Mentorship Program to our satisfaction within six months after the purchase of your Franchised Business if this is a new franchise.

We will provide our training programs to any replacement officer or manager at a cost to be determined from time to time by us.

Our current training program is as follows:

The total hours for Initial Training will vary based on the number of people in each session. Initial Training is conducted in a classroom environment, in a "hands-on" laboratory environment in our Training Center in Memphis, Tennessee. Each technical subject includes hands-on guided application and practice time. Our Operations Manual is provided as instructional material.

Our Initial Training classes are conducted by Gina Moss, our Manager of Technical Training. Ms. Moss has been on our or our Predecessor's staff since January 2012. She has over 25 years of experience, including twenty years with her own business specializing in color and finish repair restoration for wood cabinetry, furniture and kitchen cabinet refacing. Additional members of our executive team may participate in portions of Initial Training, but Ms. Moss will be the primary trainer. We do not specify a minimum level of experience for other individuals who may participate in portions of Initial Training.

Additional Training. We will, in our sole discretion, make available additional training in furniture, wood repair and restoration techniques and business operations for Franchised Businesses. If you request such training in writing, we will provide it at mutually agreeable times. Otherwise, such training will be at a location and time designated by us or by other reasonable medium.

We may require you, your employees, and your agents who provide Franchised Services to complete certain additional training programs. All individuals providing Franchised Services must either attend our national convention or successfully complete a training course for each authorized Franchised Service at least once per calendar year. We may charge a reasonable fee for all additional training to offset our costs.

We usually have an annual convention of franchisees, and there is a fee charged to attend. You are not required to attend the annual convention unless you are QFR certified and you receive $7,500 or more of annual work through the Claims Capture Unit.

If you participate in our QFR Program, you must complete our certification class, which consists of a webinar on QFR procedures. There is no fee for this class.

Travel and Living Expenses. You are responsible for paying the travel, living expenses, and wages of you and your trainees during any training programs or conventions, including, without limitation, Initial Training, Post-Training, and the Mentorship Program.

Additional Assistance. Even though the Franchise Agreement does not require us to, as of the effective date of this Disclosure Document, it is our current habit to provide a telephone inquiry line for technical advice, business development, product information, marketing assistance and other information related to the day-to-day operation of the Franchised Business. In addition, we currently provide you with access to MedicConnection and a monthly newsletter that contains helpful information about your Franchised Business, new developments and other topical items.

Item 12: Territory

We will designate the Territory within which you will perform services. We will determine the Territory based on population, population density, affluence, geographical terrain and market potential. The Territory is to be mutually agreed upon. We use the current United States Census Bureau figures when considering population estimates.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. We have the absolute right to establish, or license others to establish, additional Franchised Businesses inside or outside the Territory in our sole discretion. The number of Franchised Businesses licensed to operate in the same Territory may vary from time to time and may not remain constant.

You may not advertise or solicit for Franchised Services outside your Territory or through the internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing. You may not provide Franchised Services outside your Territory, except as allowed under the terms of the National Accounts Program or if requested by a customer.

You are not required to participate in the National Accounts Program. You may accept business from a National Accounts lead that we provide you even if it comes from outside your Territory. We reserve the right to determine the appropriateness of any allocation of any prospective leads. You are required to honor our obligations to any such National Account customer. There may be a modification or reduction of your rights to your Territory because the National Accounts Program allows us to award leads from the program at our sole discretion. We do not pay any compensation for leads within your Territory.

Your territorial rights are based solely on compliance with the Franchise Agreement. There are no sales quotas, but you must not abandon the Franchised Business and must continue to operate it in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.

You must operate or conduct your Franchised Business from only one location within your Territory, unless otherwise approved in writing. You may operate as many crews, teams, sales forces and vans as you want, but all phones must be located at and answered from this one location. You may not transfer your Franchised Business from one territory to another.

There is nothing in the Franchise Agreement that prevents us from providing the Franchised Services or any other services under the Marks or any other name in your territory. As of the effective date of this Disclosure Document, we have no company-owned operations and have no plans for operating a business under a different trademark for similar services as those you will provide. We market and solicit customers through alternate channels of distribution such as the internet using the Marks. A consumer visiting our web site can search for a Franchised Business within their locale and the consumer can contact the Franchised Business directly via e-mail or a telephone call.

There is nothing in the Franchise Agreement that gives you a right of first refusal or any other right to buy additional Franchised Businesses in any area.

If you are a QFR Franchise, we will designate an area (usually using zip codes) in which you will be permitted, as long as you are in compliance with the QFR Program Standards, to perform QFR services. You do not have any exclusive right, however, to receive leads for jobs to be performed in these designated zip codes. Rather, we have the absolute right to designate an area and distribute leads or not distribute leads according to its judgment. It is possible that you may receive no leads under this program or under any of our National Accounts programs. You must pay a Job Fee on all revenue producing leads including inspections.

Further, if you are not a QFR Franchise: (1) you will not qualify to receive consideration for QFR job leads for services to be provided within your Territory; and (2) you will have no option or other similar right of refusal with respect to any QFR leads.

Except as described in Item 1, we do not operate or franchise, or currently plan to operate or franchise, any business under a different trademark that sells or will sell goods or services similar to those that our franchisees sell. However, our affiliates, including the Affiliated Programs described in Item 1 and other portfolio companies that currently are or in the future may be owned by private equity funds managed by Roark Capital Management, LLC, may operate and/or franchise businesses that sell similar goods or services to those that our franchisees sell.

Item 1 describes our current Affiliated Programs that offer franchises, their principal business addresses, the goods and services they sell, whether their businesses are franchised and/or company-owned, and their trademarks. All of these other brands (with limited exceptions) maintain offices and training facilities that are physically separate from the offices and training facilities of our franchise network. Most of the Affiliated Programs are not direct competitors of our franchise network given the products or services they sell, although some are, as described in Item 1. All of the businesses that our affiliates and their franchisees operate may solicit and accept orders from customers near your business. Because they are separate companies, we do not expect any conflicts between our franchisees and our affiliates' franchisees regarding territory, customers and support, and we have no obligation to resolve any perceived conflicts that might arise.

Item 13: Trademarks

If we grant you a franchise, we will grant you the right to operate such franchise under the Marks that we specify in your Franchise Agreement or otherwise in writing from time to time. We may add to, change, or remove Marks from time to time.

In the Securitization Transaction, ServiceMaster acquired the Marks from SM IP, which had acquired them from Predecessor, Former Parent, or other former affiliates of Predecessor in the Acquisition. Predecessor, Former Parent, or our Predecessor's other former affiliates have registered the Marks listed below on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "USPTO") and filed all necessary affidavits and renewals for such Marks. ServiceMaster is in the process of recording its ownership of the Marks with the USPTO.

Mark	Registration No.	Date of Registration
FURNITURE MEDIC	1,712,243	September 1, 1992
 RX (design mark)	1,882,533	March 7, 1995
FURNITURE MEDIC	4,048,505	November 1, 2011

ServiceMaster has licensed the Marks and other intellectual property related to the operation of Franchised Businesses (collectively, the "Licensed IP") to us and authorized us to use the Licensed IP in connection with the offer, sale, and support of franchises. The license agreement does not contain any significant limitation on our right to use or license the Licensed IP to you. The license agreement has a 99-year term and may be terminated unilaterally by either party only upon a material breach of such agreement. Upon termination of the license agreement, we and our franchisees must immediately discontinue the use of the Licensed IP.

There are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit our right to use or license franchisees to use the Marks.

There is currently no litigation involving our Marks or any effective determinations by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or any state.

The Franchise Agreement grants you the license to do business under the Marks in your Territory only and outside your Territory as outlined in Item 12 and the Franchise Agreement. You must follow all rules stated in the Franchise Agreement regarding the use of our Marks. You may only use the Marks when operating your Franchised Business. You may only use the Marks that we license you to use. You cannot sell any service in your Franchised Business that is not under the Marks.

If you learn of any infringement of the Marks or if any challenge to your use of any Marks is made, you must notify us immediately and you must assist us in prosecution or defense of a legal action. We will take whatever action we deem appropriate for infringement on any of our Marks but will defend you if you are named as infringing on someone else's trademark because of your use of any of our Marks.

If we modify any of our Marks, you must make the same modification at your own cost. If we stop using any of our Marks, you must also stop using that Mark. You must not contest our ownership, title, right or interest in the Marks, trade secrets methods and procedures or contest our sole right to register, use or license others to use our Marks, trade secrets, methods and procedures.

We are unaware of any infringing uses of the Marks that could materially affect your use of the Marks in your business.

Item 14: Patents, Copyrights and Proprietary Information

There are no patents material to the purchase of the franchise, and we do not have any pending patent applications material to the franchise. We or our affiliates claim proprietary rights in the information on MedicConnection and in our Operations Manual, advertising and promotional materials, forms and related materials that we or our affiliates produce, although these materials may not have been registered with the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress. The materials are proprietary and confidential and are considered our or our affiliates' property. You may use them only as long as you are a franchisee, and only as provided in the Franchise Agreement.

In the Securitization Transaction, ServiceMaster acquired from SM IP ownership of the following copyrights that had been registered by our Predecessor's former affiliates with the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress, which you may use as long as you are a franchisee:

Title of Copyright	Registration No.	Date Registered	Expiration Date
ServiceMaster Corporate Objectives	TX0006993613	April 7, 2009	April 7, 2103
The ServiceMaster Commitment and Core Objectives	TX0007385324	April 5, 2011	March 15, 2105

ServiceMaster licenses the copyrights, as part of the Licensed IP, to us through the license agreement described in Item 13.

There are currently no effective determinations of the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress or any court regarding any of our copyrighted materials. There are no agreements in effect that significantly limit our right to use or license the copyrighted materials. We are not aware of any infringing uses of these materials that could materially affect your use of these materials. We are not required by any agreement to protect or defend our or our affiliates' copyrights.

We will be disclosing to you certain information we believe to be confidential or proprietary information and trade secrets. This will include information contained in our Operations Manual, and in materials separately provided to you. You may use these materials, in the manner we approve, in the operation of your business during the term of the Franchise Agreement. However, you may not use these materials in any other way for your own benefit, or communicate or disclose them to, or use them for the benefit of any other person or entity. These materials include any trade secrets, knowledge or know-how, confidential information, advertising, marketing, designs, plans, or methods of operation. This includes information about our sources of supply, and our recommendations on pricing. You may disclose this information to your employees, but only to the extent necessary to operate your business, and then only while the Franchise Agreement is in effect.

Item 15: Obligation To Participate in the Actual Operation of the Franchise Business

You and your officers, managers and employees must devote their full time, energy and best efforts to the management and operation of the Franchised Business, except as otherwise approved in writing by us.

If we allow you not to personally supervise the business, you must employ a manager who will be responsible for direct, on-premises supervision of the business. The manager must have successfully completed our Initial Training, Post-Training, and Mentorship Program, but need not have an ownership interest if you are a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company. The manager must sign a written agreement to maintain confidentiality of the proprietary information described in Item 14 and to comply with a covenant not to compete, similar to that described in Item 17(r).

If you are a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, we will require all officers, shareholders, partners, or members, and their spouses, to sign the Guaranty of Franchisee's Obligations attached to the Franchise Agreement. In addition to providing a personal guaranty, each officer, shareholder, partner, or member, and their spouses, will be required to sign the Item 23 Receipt attached to this Disclosure Document prior to signing a Franchise Agreement.

Item 16: Restrictions On What the Franchisee May Sell

You must offer and provide the Franchised Services we require. We have the right to change the Franchised Services without limitation. These Franchised Services include furniture and wood repair and restoration services. We must approve in writing any additional service you may want to offer. If you purchase supplies, products or equipment for use in your Franchised Business from anyone other than us, each must be approved by us.

Further, we have the right to put limitations on QFR leads that we may develop for our QFR Franchisees. We assign leads in our sole discretion and it is possible that you may receive no leads even if you participate in our QFR and National Accounts programs. Procedures, policies and other terms and conditions regarding the QFR Program are provided in the QFR portion as published from time to time on MedicConnection.

We have the right to add additional services that you may be required to offer. You must successfully complete training to our satisfaction for any additional products and services. There are no limits on our right to add additional services, and you may incur additional costs to offer these expanded services and products. See Items 8, 9, and 12 for further details.

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any financial performance representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Sherry Campbell, Furniture Medic SPE LLC, One Glenlake Parkway, 14th Floor, Atlanta, Georgia 30328, (901) 597-8600, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

Item 20: Outlets and Franchisee Information

As noted in Item 1, Predecessor was the franchisor of the Furniture Medic® system prior to the closing of the Securitization Transaction in December 2020.

An outlet as used in these Item 20 Tables is defined as a franchise territory.

The name, business address, and business telephone number of each current franchisee as of December 31, 2020, is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit D. The name, last known home address, and telephone number of every franchisee who has had a franchise terminated, cancelled, not renewed, or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily ceased to do business under the Franchise Agreement during the most recent fiscal year or has not communicated with us or our affiliates within 10 weeks of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document is attached as Exhibit E. Please note, if you buy this franchise, your contact information may be disclosed to other buyers when you leave the franchise system.

We are not offering any existing franchised outlets to prospective franchisees, including those that are still being operated by current franchisees pending a transfer. In the event that we begin to offer any such outlet, specific information about the outlet will be provided to you in a separate Addendum to this Disclosure Document.

We or Predecessor have entered into confidentiality clauses with former franchisees during the past three years. In some instances, current and former franchisees have signed during the last three years provisions restricting their ability to speak openly about their experiences with us. You may wish to speak with current and former franchisees, but be aware that not all of those franchisees will be able to communicate with you.

We have not created, sponsored or endorsed any trademark-specific franchisee organization associated with our franchise system. No independent franchise organization has requested to be included in our disclosure document.

Item 21: Financial Statements

As we began offering franchises in March 2021, we have attached the following financial statements in accordance with the FTC Rule requirements for financial statements for a franchisor's first partial fiscal year selling franchises:

Attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B are (i) the audited financial statements of our direct parent, Guarantor, as of December 31, 2020, and (ii) Guarantor's Guaranty of our obligations to you under the Franchise Agreement. Because Guarantor was organized on October 14, 2020 and began operating on December 9, 2020, it does not have available, and we cannot yet include, three full years of audited financial statements for Guarantor.

As reflected in Item 1, SM Manager will be providing required support and services to franchisees under a management agreement with us. Also attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B are the audited financial statements of our indirect parent, SM Manager, as of December 31, 2020. Because SM Manager was organized on September 15, 2020 and began operating October 1, 2020, it does not have available, and we cannot yet include, three full years of audited financial statements for SM Manager. These financial statements are being provided for disclosure purposes only. SM Manager is not a party to the Franchise Agreement or other agreement we sign with franchisees nor does it guarantee our obligations under the Franchise Agreement or other agreements we sign with franchisees.

RECITALS:

WHEREAS FM has developed a system (hereinafter referred to as the "System") for the marketing of furniture, wood repair products and other furniture, wood repair and restoration and cabinet refacing services (hereinafter referred to as the "Franchised Services"); and

WHEREAS FM has created substantial goodwill associated with its trade name, trademarks, service marks, insignias, and logos, both as presently existing and as FM may hereafter designate (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Marks"); and

WHEREAS Franchisee desires to obtain the right to use the Marks in conjunction with the operation of a mobile and/or fixed location furniture repair, restoration, and refinishing business (the "Franchised Business") and desires to obtain experience and know-how with respect to the sale of the Franchised Services and the System; and

WHEREAS Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has fully reviewed this Agreement and obtained advice and counsel from its own advisors prior to executing this Agreement; and

WHEREAS Franchisee acknowledges the importance of the Marks and the need to maintain the uniform high standards of quality, appearance and service associated therewith and recognizes the necessity of operating the Franchised Business in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and all of the standards and specifications of the System.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I: GRANT OF RIGHT

A. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, FM hereby grants to Franchisee and the Franchisee undertakes the obligation, upon the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the non-exclusive right (hereinafter referred to as the "License") to use the Marks and solely in connection with the Franchised Business, FM's System, as it may be changed, improved and further developed from time to time in conjunction with the sale of Franchised Services in the territory described in the attached as Exhibit A-1 (hereinafter referred to as the "Territory"). The term "Territory" shall refer specifically to the Territory granted to the Franchisee by this Agreement. The Franchisee expressly acknowledges and agrees that this license relates solely to the license specified herein and does not grant the Franchisee any rights not specifically contained in this Agreement. The Franchisee understands and agrees that other franchisees have been and will be licensed to operate similar businesses that utilize the FM System within the Territory and elsewhere. Franchisee understands that other franchisees may be parties to agreements containing more or different rights than contained in this Agreement.

The Franchisee will operate the Franchised Business within the Territory at the office location set forth in the introductory portion of this Agreement. The Franchisee may relocate to another office location within the Territory if the Franchisee notifies FM in writing of any change in the location of the Franchised Business within ten (10) days prior to any such relocation.

The license includes the right to conduct a furniture, wood repair, restoration and refinishing business including, but not limited to, services for moving claims, residential services, commercial services and water and fire restoration service.

B. FM hereby grants Franchisee the non-exclusive License to operate the Franchised Business within the Territory, subject to the terms of Article V and the following provisions:

1. The Franchisee shall use its own judgment in determining which promotion, marketing and/or advertising methods it desires to utilize in the solicitation of customers in the Territory subject to Article V, Paragraph H of this Agreement;
2. The Territory will be determined by FM. The number of Licenses authorized within the Territory as the designated territory may vary from time to time and may not remain constant. Other pre-existing franchisees may have greater rights or restrict Franchisee's rights to perform the Franchised Services. FM shall have the exclusive right to locate Licenses within the Territory and unrestricted right to engage directly or indirectly in the Territory or elsewhere in the distribution of services under the Trade Mark or other marks licensed herein.
3. The Franchisee may not market the Franchised Business or solicit an account or business outside the Territory. The Franchisee may perform services for a customer outside the Territory if a customer initiates the request or if referred to by FM.
4. FM reserves (for itself and its affiliates, including without limitation its Parent) any and all rights to acquire businesses that are the same as or similar to the Franchised Business regardless of whether such businesses are located within or outside the Territory.

C. FM hereby grants Franchisee the non-exclusive right to service sales calls (hereinafter referred to as "National Account Sales Calls") from those National Accounts either inside or outside Franchisee's Territory under terms and conditions of the agreement between FM and each National Account, the number of which may be added to from time to time. Such non-exclusive right shall be governed by the terms and conditions as set forth throughout this Agreement. Franchisee understands that FM will establish the rules under which Franchisee will participate and be compensated for participation in the National Account Sales Calls and FM may terminate or modify the National Account Sales Calls consistent with the terms of the National Account Participation Guidelines.

D. FM may service accounts for the benefit of FM in areas available per Article I, Paragraph B. 2.

E. As used in Article I, Paragraph C, the term "National Account Sales Calls" shall be defined as all customer service calls generated through or as a result of any National Account.

ARTICLE II: TERM AND RENEWAL

A. Initial Term. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the term of this Agreement and the License granted hereunder shall be for a period of five (5) years from the effective date hereof ("Initial Term").

B. Renewal/Extensions. The Franchisee must provide FM written notice of its election not to renew not less than six (6) months, nor more than twelve (12) months, prior to the end of the Term of this Agreement. In the event that Franchisee does not provide timely notice, Franchisee shall be deemed to have consented and agreed to an Extension of up to five (5) years in one (1) or more extensions of time that FM chooses in its discretion. FM will notify Franchisee of the Extension term(s) chosen.

The parties shall also have the option to renew the License to operate the Franchised Business for an additional consecutive five (5) year term, provided that by the end of the Term of this Agreement:

1. Franchisee shall have delivered to FM written notice, at least three (3) months, but not more than six (6) months, before the expiration of this Agreement, of Franchisee's election to renew this Agreement;
2. Franchisee executes the then-current form of franchise agreement. The then-current form of franchise agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and terms, and may contain commitments which differ from the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, an increased monthly Royalty Fee;
3. Franchisee and each owner/affiliate of Franchisee must have executed a general release, except for any claims exclusively related to the successor franchisee (where expressly so required by applicable law);
4. Franchisee has not received four (4) or more written notices, signed by an officer of FM, of a material breach of this Agreement from FM during the Term of this Agreement, whether the breaches were corrected within the prescribed cure period after receipt of written notice of the breach;
5. All monetary obligations then due and owing by the Franchisee or its affiliates related to the Franchised Business have been satisfied prior to renewal; and
6. Franchisee has agreed, in writing to operate the Franchised Business in accordance with FM's then-current standards and specifications.
7. Franchisee has paid FM a renewal fee of $2,000 for the first franchise agreement and $1,500 for each additional franchise agreement renewed at the same time. For those franchised territories that were originally purchased prior to January 1, 2015, and if the ownership conditions remain as they were on the later of the date of original signature or January 1, 2015, the following exemption from renewal fees will apply:

7.1 Notwithstanding this Article II, Paragraph B, so long as the persons bound by this Agreement or their adult qualified immediate family members by succession or transfer, remain the only persons bound by this Agreement at the time of renewal of this Agreement or any successor Agreement, any renewal agreement at that time will have no fee payable upon renewal. Any other change in ownership will nullify the exemption from paying renewal fees contained in this section.

7.2 Notwithstanding this Article II, Paragraph B, for those franchised territories owned by a corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity, so long as those persons (or their adult qualified immediate family members by succession or transfer) owning 66 percent or more of the voting and 66 percent or more of the non-voting interest in the corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity constituting the Franchisee, or their heirs by succession or transfer, remain the owners of the franchised entity at the time of renewal of this agreement or any successor agreement, any renewal agreement at that time will have no fee payable upon renewal. In the event that a transfer or series of transfers results in the current owners (or their adult qualified immediate family by succession or transfer) having less than 66 percent of the voting or less than 66 percent of the non-voting interest in the corporation, limited liability company, or other legal entity constituting the Franchisee, than the exemption from paying a renewal fee in this section will be null and void and the Franchisee will be required to pay a renewal fee in accordance with Article II, Paragraph B.7.

7.3 For purposes of this Article II, Paragraph B.7., immediate family members include the following: spouse, child, step child (if adopted), grandchildren (but only if the grandchildren are from a child or adopted step child), daughter-in-law, or son-in law. Immediate family member includes siblings, but only if the sibling was originally an owner of the business or if they obtained ownership in a qualified transfer under this section.

7.4 For purposes of clarification, all franchised territories that were originally purchased after December 31, 2014, and all franchised territories that have changed ownership conditions on or after December 31, 2014 (except as permitted in Article II, Paragraph B.7.1 and Article II, Paragraph B.7.2) will be required to pay the then-current renewal fee on all franchised territories.

ARTICLE III: INITIAL AND CONTINUING FEES

A. Initial Franchise Fee. Upon submission of this Agreement for execution by FM, the Franchisee shall pay to FM the Initial Franchise Fee of Thirty-Three Thousand and xx/00 Dollars ($33,000) unless this is a Renewal Franchise agreement, a Conversion Franchise agreement, or a license otherwise subject to an applicable discount.

B. Training Fee. In the event Franchisee requires more than one individual to attend training, Franchisee agrees to pay the then-current Training Fee per additional trainee(s) upon execution of this Agreement by Franchisee which covers the various training materials provided to the additional persons attending training and other expenses for two weeks. The Initial Franchise Fee and Training Fee are fully earned and nonrefundable upon execution of this Agreement by FM.

C. Payment Methods. The Franchise will report Gross Sales and monthly Royalty Fees including the Software Fees and National Ad Fund ("NAF") Contributions (together, the "Monthly Fees") due via on line reporting, or in any other manner as designated by FM. If Franchisee fails to have sufficient funds available to pay any Monthly Fees, interest and delinquency fees will be applied to Franchisee's account as outlined in Paragraph F below. In addition, Franchisee agrees to pay any expense incurred by FM, including costs and attorneys' fees, for the collection of such Monthly Fees.

D. Royalty Fees.

1. The Franchisee shall pay FM a continuing monthly Royalty Fee during the Term of this Agreement in an amount of seven percent (7%) of Gross Sales on Core Services and in an amount of two percent (2%) of Gross Sales on certain Identified Services or no less than $250 (the "minimum monthly" Royalty Fee) on all types of services sold under the Proprietary Marks by the Franchisee or its employees as defined in FM's current royalty policy. Royalty Fees shall be paid by the tenth (10th) day of the month following the month in which the Gross Sales are made.
2. During the first ninety (90) days after completion of Initial Training (the "Grace Period"), the Franchisee shall pay a Royalty Fee based only on actual Gross Sales. This initial minimum fee waiver shall not apply to transfer, renewal, or amended agreements. Moreover, the initial minimum Royalty Fee waiver does not affect or in any way alter the Franchisee's obligation to pay all monthly Royalty Fees for services performed by the Franchisee during the Grace Period or before the completion of training.
3. "Gross Sales," as used in this Agreement, shall be defined as the total of sales invoices or other items billed to the customer, less any bad debt, sales tax or credits allowed to the customer. Any bad debt adjustment or other restatement of Gross Sales must be taken within twelve (12) months of the invoice date and documented to FM's satisfaction.
4. Except as prohibited by applicable local, state or federal laws, FM reserves the right to apply any amount FM receives from or on behalf of Franchisee to Royalty Fees and/or supply account amounts then due and owing.

E. National Advertising Fund Contribution.

1. In addition to other fees and charges provided for herein, Franchisee shall pay to FM a National Advertising Fund Contribution ("NAF Contribution") of the larger of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150) or two percent (2%) of Gross Sales as defined above. Should the minimum monthly NAF Contribution be the larger of the two fee amounts due during the first ninety (90) days after completion of training, (the "Grace Period"), the Franchisee shall pay a NAF Contribution based only on actual Gross Sales. This initial minimum fee waiver shall not apply to transfer, renewal, or amended agreements. The 2% NAF Contribution on National Accounts sales will be deducted from the payment you receive from FM. This rate is applicable only to new Franchisees through new sales or transfers.
Existing Franchisees who have a Franchise Agreement effective prior to April 1, 2013, shall be allowed to continue to pay a NAF Contribution equal to the greater of $50 or 1% of Gross Sales until their second Franchise Agreement renewal after April 1, 2013. At the second renewal, these Franchisees will be required to begin paying at the then-current NAF Fee contained in the then-current Franchise Agreement.
2. FM shall spend contributions accumulated in the NAF on national, regional or local media and other market techniques or programs designed to communicate the Franchised Services to the public, including advertising support for the National Accounts Program whether or not Franchisee participates in the National Accounts

Program. In addition, these funds may also be expended by FM in its discretion for market research and development, monitor and/or manage social media relating to the System, test or target marketing, the conducting of surveys, creative and production costs, employee salaries related to advertising and marketing, reimbursement to FM for reasonable accounting, administrative and legal expenses associated with the NAF, or for other purposes deemed appropriate to enhance and promote the general recognition of the System and Marks.

3. The specific use of the NAF for the purposes set forth herein shall be determined and budgeted by FM as deemed necessary. The parties hereby acknowledge and understand that funds in the NAF may be expended in any territory (national, regional or local) without any requirement that expenditures of the NAF be apportioned on the amount of contributions by Franchisee, or by other formula or system.

F. Date Due: Interest. All Monthly Fees required by this Article III shall be paid to FM by the 10th day of each month for the preceding calendar month, and shall be submitted to FM. Any payment or report not actually received by FM on or before such date shall be deemed overdue if not postmarked at least one (1) day prior to the due date. If any payment owed to FM for any outstanding amount is overdue, the Franchisee shall pay FM, in addition to the overdue amount, interest on such amount from the date it was due until paid at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If any fee report is overdue, the Franchisee shall pay to FM a delinquency fee of $50 per delinquent fee report. Entitlement to such interest and/or the delinquency fee shall be in addition to any other remedies FM may have. The Franchisee understands that FM may, at FM's discretion, assign the payment of such fees and the submission of the monthly reports to a third party.

G. Opening Package. The Franchisee shall acquire an Opening Package as designated by FM needed to make the Franchised Business operational. The Franchisee must purchase such Opening Package from FM at the then-current price, plus any applicable sales tax, shipping and handling charges. Neither a Franchisee renewing his license nor an existing Franchisee adding an additional license is required to purchase another Opening Package. A Conversion Franchise may have products and equipment that meet product and equipment standards of FM, and with FM approval may not be required to purchase the entire Opening Package. If a product or equipment item is not available, FM reserves the right to substitute a comparable item in the Opening Package with an item equal or greater in quality and value.

H. Service Vehicle Detail Package. The Franchisee shall purchase and install a logo package ("Detail Package") on the service vehicle which meets FM's standards and specifications unless this is a Franchisee renewing his license. A renewing Franchisee will have already properly identified its service vehicle.

I. National Account Fees. Each National Account agreement governs the amount charged for work done by the Franchisee under the specific National Account, and Franchisee agrees to be bound by such terms and conditions.

J. Franchisee May Not Withhold Payments. The Franchisee shall not withhold any payments whatsoever due to FM. No endorsement or statement on any check or payment of any sum less than the full sum due to FM shall be construed as an acknowledgment of payment in full or an accord and satisfaction, and FM may accept and cash such check or payment without prejudice to its right to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy provided herein or by law. FM may apply any payments made by the Franchisee against any past due indebtedness of the Franchisee as FM may see fit. FM may set off against any sums payable to the Franchisee hereunder any unpaid amounts due from the Franchisee to FM.

Additional individuals may be trained but will be accepted on a "space available" basis at Franchisee's expense. At the end of this initial training, Franchisee will be tested. If Franchisee fails the test, Franchisee must re-attend training within six (6) months at his or her own expense. Those Franchisees who successfully pass the test will be required to attend a third week of training within 6 months, the cost of which is included in the Initial Franchise Fee for the first attendee.
3. Any further additional training shall be available at the request of Franchisee, in which personnel of FM for the then-current rate per day, plus expenses to include travel, lodging and meals, will train at the sole discretion of FM.

Upon the written request of a Franchisee and approval by FM, a Franchisee's Manager (non-owner) may attend the training academy and other training as set forth above. The Franchisee will be responsible for all training fees for this (non-owner) Manager to attend.

FM shall at its sole discretion make available to Franchisee additional training in furniture, wood repair and restoration techniques and business operations for the Franchised Business granted to Franchisee after business operations have begun and at mutually agreeable times when requested by Franchisee in writing. Such training will be at a location and time designated by FM or by other reasonable medium.
2. FM shall provide at its sole discretion periodic training and communications to upgrade the skills of Franchisee, including training at conventions and seminars, at locations to be determined by FM. Franchisee shall pay for travel and daily living expenses incurred to attend the training and seminars.
3. FM may charge a reasonable fee for these additional training sessions to offset costs.

D. National Account Sales Calls Allocation.

1. All National Account Sales Calls shall be allocated to FM, who, in turn, shall allocate such National Account Sales Calls to its franchisees or other vendors at its sole unrestricted discretion.

5. FM may apply National Account revenue to any delinquency in Franchisee's fees.
6. FM may remove access to National Accounts when a franchisee is in default under the Franchise Agreement.

E. Advertising Approval. FM shall review all advertising materials submitted by Franchisee and shall approve or deny use of such advertising materials at FM's sole discretion. If Franchisee has an advertising and/or marketing concept that Franchisee would like FM Home Office to create and the concept will be useful for the entire franchise network, then FM's Home Office will review it and determine within 48 hours if it would be advantageous to develop the concept for use by the entire franchise network. If Franchisee has created an ad or other promotional material that Franchisee plans to distribute to its customers, Franchisee shall submit such material, in accordance with the brand standard guide, to FM's Marketing Brand Manager for review. The Marketing Brand Manager will respond within five (5) business days whether Franchisee's material is approved. All Franchisees are required to use the brand guidelines as a guide for the correct verbiage and the most current logo for the Franchisee's external communication.

F. Approved Suppliers. FM shall provide supplies and equipment needed to operate the Franchised Business or shall provide approved suppliers from which Franchisee may purchase supplies and equipment needed to operate the Franchised Business.

G. Violations By Other Franchisees. In connection with FM's duties under this Agreement, the Franchisee understands and agrees that FM shall not be responsible to the Franchisee for violations by another franchisee of FM of any agreement between FM and such other franchisee.

H. Franchise Council. FM shall convene the Franchise Council ("FC") no less than two times per year. The FC members shall be made up of Franchisees in good standing under their Franchise Agreements, with members elected by the FM network of franchise owners, as the term of each existing member expires. FM may only reject such FC appointments for lack of good standing under their Franchise Agreement. The FM Home Office will appoint one at-large Franchisee as approved by the FC President.

ARTICLE V: FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS

In consideration of the License granted herein, Franchisee agrees and covenants as follows:

A. Approved Products and Services. All purchases from FM are shipped F.O.B. from FM's location and invoices for such products are payable on the 20th of the month after order is shipped. Purchases from approved vendors are drop shipped from vendor's location. If a service vehicle is taken out of service or sold to someone other than another FM franchisee, Franchisee must de-identify the vehicle.

C. Performance Responsibility. The Franchisee covenants that during the Term of this Agreement except as otherwise approved in writing by FM, the Franchisee and its officers, managers and employees shall devote their full time, energy and best efforts to the management and operation of the Franchised Business. Unless otherwise specified the term "Franchisee" as used in this Article V shall include, collectively and individually, all managers, employees, officers, directors, shareholders and/or members of the Franchisee, and of any corporation or other entity directly or indirectly controlling the Franchisee, if the Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company or other similar legal entity, the general partners and any limited partner (including any corporation and the officers, directors and shareholders of a corporation which controls, directly or indirectly, any general or limited partner), if the Franchisee is a partnership. The Franchisee makes this commitment with the understanding that the application of the Franchisee's best efforts is required for the benefit of the Franchisee as well as the entire FM franchise network. At a minimum:

laws relating to employees and all applicable state and federal environmental laws. The Franchisee will, at its expense, be absolutely and exclusively responsible for determining the licenses and permits required by law for the Franchised Business, for obtaining and qualifying for all such licenses and permits, and for complying with all applicable laws;

9. The Franchisee shall check, on a daily basis, Franchisee's e-mail mailbox assigned by FM and FM's proprietary websites such as MedicConnection for communications from Franchisee. Franchisee shall keep the password issued to Franchisee for access to FM's website confidential at all times; and
10. The Franchisee shall comply with all reasonable requirements of FM to measure Franchisee's customer satisfaction with the services provided by Franchisee under this Agreement, and to participate in all programs of FM designed to review and improve the process of operating the Franchised Business.

7. Not to have displays, advertising, literature, business cards, signs or any other promotional or identifying literature or business name portraying the Marks or trademark or service mark developed by FM or its affiliates for use in the Franchised Business, alone without an immediately adjacent identifier as to product, business name or service. The Franchisee agrees to provide and advertise its services only under the d/b/a name listed on page 1 of this agreement, except for identification of the Furniture Medic van as set forth on MedicConnection and published by FM. The Franchise d/b/a name shall comply with the guidelines as published by FM and on MedicConnection;

13. That FM retains the right to pre-approval of Franchisee's use of linking and framing between Franchisee's Web pages and all other Web sites and to dismantle any frames and links between Franchisee's Web page and any other Web sites within five (5) days, if and as requested by FM.

E. Software Requirements. Franchisee will purchase and use software as required by FM, as set forth on MedicConnection website or as may be reasonably required by FM in writing from time to time. Franchisee agrees that FM shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to change the monthly rate of the software service fee from time to time. During the term of this Agreement, another operating system may be introduced and recommended for Franchisee to use in the Franchised Business. FM reserves the right to require Franchisee to adopt a new operating system. The new operating system, however, will not obviate Franchisee's requirement to use certain software as a condition to receive National Account leads, work orders from FM, or for purposes of Monthly Fee reporting and payment.

F. MedicConnection

1. In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of FM and to maintain uniform standards of operation under the Marks, the Franchisee shall conduct the Franchised Business in accordance with the guidelines, standards and specifications as set forth on MedicConnection. 4. Franchise Website. The preferred template for a franchise website is the local templates that the FM Home Office provides. The support for these templates ranges from SEO optimization to approval and rejection based off the customization that is needed to have an effective website. Franchisees have the option of creating their own website, but the Home Office support will not apply to these sites because such custom sites will be hosted by another platform and the Home Office will have no insight on the back end.

H. Customer Survey System. Franchisee will utilize "Tell Furniture Medic" surveys (or the then-current customer survey system) with its customers to measure Franchisee's customer satisfaction with the services provided by Franchisee under this Agreement, and to participate in all programs of FM designed to review and improve the process of operating the Franchised Business including www.tellfurnituremedic.com.

If the Franchisee, at any time, fails or refuses to maintain any insurance coverage required by FM or fails to furnish satisfactory evidence thereof, FM, at its option and in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, may obtain such insurance coverage on behalf of the Franchisee, and any costs of premiums incurred by FM in connection therewith shall be paid by the Franchisee on demand.

M. Resale. Franchisee agrees to comply with the resale procedure established by FM prior to any sale of the License to another party as provided for in the provisions of Article VII of this Agreement.

N. Core Services. Franchisee agrees to offer and perform only authorized Franchised Services for which Franchisee is certified by FM unless otherwise approved by FM in writing. Core Services as defined in FM's royalty policy may not be subcontracted to non-FM branded subcontractors without the prior express written consent of FM, which consent must be given by a Director level employee of FM or above.

O. Location. Franchisee agrees to operate or conduct its Franchised Business from a single location from which it may operate as many crews, teams, sales forces and vehicles as desired. Franchisee shall be required to successfully complete the FM Pre-Initial Training study program as well as the two-week Initial Training program provided by FM no later than six (6) months from the date of execution by Franchisee of this Agreement as set forth in Article XIII, Paragraph R 4. FM reserves the right to cancel the scheduled Initial Training if less than four (4) people are scheduled to attend until the next scheduled Initial Training, but still within the six (6) month period after the execution by Franchisee of this Agreement. Further, FM recommends any employees, partners or agents who render services in the Franchised Business complete the training program. If the officer or manager so trained is replaced by another officer or manager, the Franchisee agrees to have the replacement officer or manager attend and complete the FM Initial Training, at the Franchisee's cost and expense, within three (3) months after replacement. The Franchisee, its managers or other employees, as designated by FM, shall attend and complete, to FM's satisfaction, such other training programs as FM may require on MedicConnection or otherwise in writing. Franchisee hereby agrees to cooperate and execute all documents necessary to perfect such rights in FM.

If the parties cannot agree upon a fee for exclusivity, then Franchisee may market such invention generally. Upon receipt of a bona fide offer for such invention, Franchisee will provide the financial terms of such offer to FM, and FM may, at its sole option, pay the amount specified in the bona fide offer to obtain full ownership and exclusivity for such invention. Franchisee hereby agrees to cooperate and execute all documents necessary to perfect such ownership and exclusivity rights of FM.

1. As long as this Agreement is in force, Franchisee and its principals, employees, partner(s), officers and agent(s) and their spouses agree not to engage in or have any financial interest in, either as officer, agent, employee, director, stockholder, owner or partner, or in any other capacity, any business which performs any

2. For a period of two (2) years following the later of expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, or from the date of Franchisee's last use of FM trademarks, trade names, trade dress or systems in any manner, Franchisee and its principals, employees, partner(s) officers, agent(s) and their spouses agree not to engage in or have any financial interest in, either as officer, agent, employee, director, stockholder, owner or partner, or in any other capacity, any business which performs any wood restoration, refinishing, upholstery repair, wood or wood laminate flooring, cabinet manufacturing, installation or repair service conducted by FM or its franchisees under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, within an area extending 75 miles from the outer perimeter of an area to include the county or counties in which the Franchised Business is conducted. Franchisee may hold for investment purposes, up to five percent (5%) of the outstanding stock of any competitive corporation whose stock or securities are publicly held or traded.

U. Sources of Supplies.

1. To safeguard the integrity of the System and Marks, the Franchisee shall purchase from FM or from sources approved by FM all supplies which the Franchisee proposes to use in the operation of the Franchised Business. As a material part of the consideration for this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that, if a customer does not specify use of or provide for use of a different brand for any service, Franchisee shall use only approved products for such service. To further eliminate public confusion, Franchisee shall not openly advertise approved products by displaying products or by any other means.
2. If the Franchisee wishes to utilize sources of supplies which have not been approved by FM, the Franchisee shall first submit to FM documentation as follows:
 - a. product specifications,
 - b. product components,
 - c. product performance history,
 - d. product samples, and
 - e. any other relevant factors which the Franchisee deems appropriate.
3. FM will then evaluate the usage of the proposed product. Consideration will be given to the technical, wear, and performance properties of any such proposed item. FM shall be free to consider various additional factors to evaluate the suitability of products offered by alternative suppliers. FM may weigh such considerations as design, appearance, product reliability, durability, the manufacturer's warranties, quality control methods, and financial ability to stand behind its products, and other relevant information which FM deems important to the welfare of the FM franchise network. FM will notify the Franchisee in writing of its decision regarding the proposed product within sixty (60) days of receipt of the request from Franchisee.

V. Standardized Dress. The Franchisee and all employees shall, when making sales presentations or providing the Franchised Services, wear the proper FM image attire, including a FM shirt with logo.

W. Use of Franchisee Information. The Franchisee agrees to give FM and those acting under its authority the right to reasonably and fairly use the Franchisee's (or, if applicable, the Franchisee's officers' and directors') name, photograph or biographical material in any publication, circular or advertisement related to the business of FM or the Franchisee in any place for an unlimited period without compensation.

X. Personnel Management. Franchisee shall:

1. properly train its employees; and
2. comply with all federal, state, and local laws regulating its work force. The Franchisee shall pay all contributions, taxes, and assessments on payrolls or other charges under all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including withholding from wages from its employees where required. The Franchisee shall comply with all federal, state, local laws and regulations regarding compensation, hours of work or other conditions of employment including, but not limited to, all laws and regulations regarding minimum compensation, overtime pay, Title VII, equal employment opportunities and any other similar requirement.

Y. National Account Program Obligations. Payments for National Account work may be paid to Franchisee through an electronic funds transfer system requiring Franchisee to establish an automated clearing house (ACH) account with Home Office.

1. Franchisee agrees to service National Account Sales Calls under terms and conditions agreed to between FM and each National Account.
2. Franchisee acknowledges that National Account Agreements shall be entered into or terminated between FM and any given National Account at the sole discretion of FM.
3. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that FM may allocate National Account Sales Calls in Franchisee's Territory to other franchisees.
4. Franchisee agrees to have high-speed internet service on a separate telephone line with e-mail capability.
5. Franchisee agrees that FM may deduct NAF Contribution fees equal to two percent (2%) of National Account Gross Sales, prior to payment being transferred to Franchisee.
6. Franchisee agrees that Franchisee is not required to participate in the National Accounts Programs.
7. Franchisee agrees that if Franchisee participates in the National Accounts Program that Franchisee must work for all National Accounts.
8. Franchisee agrees that Franchisee may "opt in" or "opt out" of the National Accounts Program on a monthly basis, at FM's discretion.

Z. Corporate Franchisee. The Franchisee agrees that its authorization to operate as a corporation shall be conditioned on the following requirements:

1. Its principal officers and shareholders and their spouses shall at all times be personally bound by the terms of this Agreement.
2. Each stock certificate of the Franchisee shall have conspicuously endorsed upon its face a statement in a form satisfactory to FM that it is held subject to this Agreement, and that any assignment or transfer of the stock certificate is subject to all restrictions imposed upon assignments by this Agreement;
3. Certified copies of the Franchisee's Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, and other governing documents, including the resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, shall be promptly furnished to FM.

AA. Stock Ownership. If the Franchisee is a corporation, then the individuals named in Article XIII, Paragraph T shall remain the owners of not less than sixty-six percent (66%) of the total voting capital stock of the corporate Franchisee during the entire Term of this Agreement, with the effective unencumbered right to vote the capital stock. The loss or surrender of the ownership or effective unencumbered right to vote the capital stock, by any means whatever, shall constitute a breach of the terms of this Agreement. Ownership of the corporation, limited liability company, or other entity, by a private equity group, an ESOP trust, or any similarly structured entity, is not permitted without the prior express written permission of FM.

ARTICLE VI: ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS

A. Record Maintenance and Reporting.

1. Franchisee shall record income and expenses, calculate taxes and determine profitability in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP").
2. Franchisee shall submit to FM on a monthly basis, in conjunction with the submission of monthly payments due FM, standard reports as may be required by FM including, but not limited to:
 - a. Invoices from all Franchised Services performed including National Account Sales Call sales invoices; and invoices for subcontracted work;
 - b. A monthly summary of National Account Sales Calls that have been contracted or a statement that no National Account Sales Calls have occurred during the month.FM shall have the right to distribute and/or publish the monthly sales reports for the Franchised Business without compensation to or the prior consent of the Franchisee.
3. Franchisee shall, at its expense, submit to FM, upon request, within thirty (30) days after request, a complete income statement and balance sheet or copies of the annual and interim financial statements prepared by the auditors or accountants of the Franchisee. Each shall be signed by the Franchisee attesting that it is true and correct.
4. Franchisee must submit to FM's audit department by December 1st of each year, all federal, state or other business tax returns for the prior year, together with such other information as FM may reasonably require, at Franchisee's expense.
5. Franchisee shall, at its expense, submit to FM upon request, within ninety (90) days after request, a complete financial statement for the preceding calendar year, including both a profit and loss statement and a balance sheet certified by an independent public accountant, together with such other information in such form as FM may reasonably require.

- B. Customer Information. Franchisee must also keep accurate lists of all customers and supplies.
- C. Retention of Records.
 - 1. Franchisee agrees to keep all such records available for a period of seven (7) years following the year for which they were kept.
 - 2. Termination of this Agreement shall not alter Franchisee's obligation to retain records for said seven (7) year period.
- D. Right To Audit Franchisee's Records.
 - 1. FM or its designated agents shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine, at its expense, the books, records, and tax returns of the Franchisee and any other business in which the Franchisee or its principal owners have a financial interest. In connection with any such examination, the Franchisee will execute IRS Form 4506, or other similar form, authorizing FM to obtain the applicable tax returns of the Franchisee, at the request of FM. Franchisee and any personal guarantors, by signing this Agreement, hereby explicitly consent to provide copies of all personal and business tax returns specified above by FM and hereby waive any right to refuse to provide tax returns or any privilege afforded by state or federal laws, rules or regulations.
 - 2. If Franchisee fails to fully cooperate with any reasonable request by FM for an audit or inspection, Franchisee shall reimburse FM for any and all costs and expenses of conducting an audit or inspection including, without limitation, travel, lodging, wage expense and any reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees. FM shall also have the right, at any time, to have an independent audit made at its cost of the books of the Franchisee. If an audit or inspection is caused by Franchisee's failure to prepare or forward required reports or if an audit or inspection should reveal that payments have been understated in any report to FM, then the Franchisee shall immediately pay to FM the amount understated and interest from the date such amount was due until paid, at one and one-half percent (1-1/2%) per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If an audit or inspection discloses an understatement of five percent (5%) or more, the Franchisee shall, in addition to payment of any understated amounts, reimburse FM for any and all costs and expenses connected with the audit or inspection including, without limitation travel, lodging, wage expense and reasonable accounting and attorneys' fees. The remedies set forth in this Article shall be in addition to any other remedies FM may have and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII: TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

- A. Franchisee's Right To Transfer. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to Franchisee (or, in the case of a corporate or partnership Franchisee, to the Franchisee's principal[s]), and that FM has entered into this Agreement with Franchisee in reliance upon individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity of Franchisee. Accordingly, the Franchisee shall not sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber any interest in this Agreement without the prior written consent of FM. Any purported assignment or transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of FM, shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. Franchisee's transfer of 5% interest or more in this Agreement will require an amendment to add such 5% owner as a personal guarantor. If, as a result of any transfer to a person in a single transaction or series of transactions, the original Franchisee's ownership interest in this Agreement falls below 66%, then the Franchisee must sign the then-current form of franchise agreement and all of the then-current terms of that agreement will apply thereafter.
- B. Approval Procedure. FM shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to a transfer of any interest in this Agreement or the Franchised Business; provided, however, that prior to the time of transfer, the Franchisee has fulfilled the terms of the transfer policy of FM then in effect. FM may, in its sole discretion, as part of the transfer policy require that:
 - 1. All of the Franchisee's accrued monetary obligation to FM and all other outstanding obligations related to the Franchised Business have been satisfied;
 - 2. Franchisee shall have executed a general release, in a form satisfactory to FM, of any and all claims against FM, its affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, partners, their officers, directors, shareholders, agents and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities including, without limitation, claims arising under any federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances;

3. The transferee does not, and does not intend to, own, operate or be involved in any business that competes directly or indirectly with or is similar to the Franchised Business;
4. The transferee shall demonstrate to FM's satisfaction that it meets FM's managerial and business standards, possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the Franchised Business (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise); and has adequate financial resources and capital to operate the Franchised Business;
5. The transferee shall execute (and/or, upon FM's request, cause all interested parties to execute) the then-current standard Franchise Agreement, a general release and such other ancillary agreements as FM may require for transfer of the Franchised Business. At the transferee's expense and upon such other terms and conditions as FM may reasonably require, the transferee (or if the transferee is a corporation, the transferee's officer or manager) or managerial employees of transferee acceptable to FM must have successfully completed FM's training program then in effect for new franchisees. Except as set forth in Article VII, Paragraph C, Franchisee or the transferee must pay FM the then-current transfer, training, and processing fees to complete the transfer.
6. If this is transfer of an existing business, transferee agrees to purchase the then-current Opening Package of those items therein not included in the sale of the business. The transferee must upgrade equipment and products consistent with those set forth in the Opening Package and must have acquired a service vehicle pursuant to Article V, Paragraph B of this Agreement.
7. The Franchisee agrees that for a period of not less than two (2) years, commencing on the effective date of the transfer, neither Franchisee nor any member of Franchisee's immediate family nor any partner(s) or shareholder(s) of Franchisee shall have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial partner, shareholder or franchisee in any mobile or fixed location furniture or wood care business within an area extending 75 miles from the outer perimeter of an area to include the county or counties in which the Franchised Business is conducted.
8. Franchisee must enter into an agreement with FM providing that all obligations of the transferee to make installment payments of the purchase price or interest thereon to Franchisee shall be subordinate to the obligations of the transferee to pay Royalty Fees, Advertising Fund Contributions, and obligations for purchases from FM and approved suppliers authorized to furnish supplies and products to FM franchisees.
9. Franchisee and transferee will be responsible for the transfer of material assets; any missing assets will be replaced at transferee's expense.
10. The Franchisee must make provision for the continued operations of the business in the interim period between transfer of the business and the transferee's successful completion of the transfer.
11. FM must approve the material terms and conditions of such transfer, including without limitation, that the price and terms of payment are not so burdensome as to affect adversely the continuation of the Franchised Business.
12. All obligations imposed on Franchisee by this Agreement must be assumed by the transferee.

C. Transfer to a Spouse or Child. In the event of a transfer of a controlling interest in the Franchised Business or License governed by the terms of Article VII, Paragraph B.1 of this Agreement where the transferee is the Franchisee's spouse or the Franchisee's adult child who is at least 18 years of age, the transfer fee, set forth in Article VII, Paragraph B.1.f, shall be assessed at no fee for the spouse and 50% of the then-current transfer fee if to the Franchisee's adult child who is at least 18 years of age.

D. Transfer Upon Death or Disability. Upon Franchisee's death or permanent disability as defined under the Social Security Act, the executor, administrator, conservator, or other personal representative of such person shall assign Franchisee's interest in the Franchised Business or License to a third party only upon approval of FM. Such disposition shall be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or permanent disability, and shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to assignments contained in Article VII, Paragraph B of this Agreement. If the interest is not disposed of within a reasonable time, FM may terminate this Agreement.

E. Transfer to Competitor Prohibited. The Franchisee will not sell, assign or transfer this Agreement, any interest in the Franchisee or the Franchised Business, or any assets or accounts of the Franchisee or the Franchised Business, to any person, partnership, corporation or entity that owns, operates, franchises, develops, consults with, manages, is involved in, or controls any business that is in any way competitive with FM or the Franchised Business. If FM refuses to permit a transfer or assignment based upon this provision, the Franchisee's only remedy will be to have a court of competent jurisdiction determine whether the proposed transferee is a competitor of FM.

F. Transfer to Franchisee's Corporation or Limited Liability Company. Franchisee acknowledges that FM entered into this Agreement in reliance upon and in consideration of the personal qualifications and representations of Franchisee if Franchisee is an individual, or those individuals who will actively and substantially participate in the operations of the Franchised Business if Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company or a partnership. If, with the consent of FM, the rights of Franchisee hereunder are assigned to a corporation or limited liability company, and the individual or individuals executing this Agreement remain the owner(s) of not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total voting capital shares thereof with the effective unencumbered right to vote said shares, there will be no processing fee levied if transferred to a corporation, limited liability company, or a partnership within one (1) year after the date of the initial Agreement. A processing fee will be charged if transfer to such entity occurs after the first year after the date of the initial Agreement. FM's consent to such transfer to the corporation or limited liability company shall not be unreasonably withheld if:

1. The corporation or limited liability company is closely held;
2. The corporation or limited liability company conducts only such business as is authorized by this Agreement;
3. The front of each share certificate clearly indicates that the shares represented by the certificate are subject to the terms of this Agreement;
4. The bylaws reflect that the shares are so restricted; and
5. Each officer, director, and holder of five percent (5%) or more of the issued and outstanding shares and their spouse executes the attached Guaranty.
6. The corporation or limited liability company and its shareholders or members and officers execute the then-current Franchise Agreement and any such other ancillary agreements as FM may require.

The Franchisee acknowledges that the purpose of the foregoing restrictions is to protect the FM System, Marks, trade secrets, and operating procedures, as well as FM's reputation and image, for the mutual benefit of FM, the Franchisee, and the entire FM franchise network.

Further, the individuals, including all shareholders or members and officers executing this Agreement on behalf of the corporation or limited liability company shall be jointly and severally liable for the faithful and timely performance of all covenants of this Agreement. The loss or surrender of said ownership or effective unencumbered right to vote said shares, by any means whatever, shall constitute a breach of the terms of this Agreement. Such transfer to a Franchisee's corporation or limited liability company does not preclude subsequent transfers.

G. FM as Broker. Franchisee may enlist FM to act as a broker to facilitate the sale of the franchise. If FM is enlisted as a broker, FM will: process telephone calls, leads and documents for the Franchisee, and make reasonable efforts to make inquiries into Franchisee's Territory available to the Franchisee. If FM is successful in selling the franchise, a brokerage fee of 10% of the total sales price will be charged to Franchisee for FM's assistance.

H. FM's Right To Transfer. This Agreement and all rights hereunder may be assigned and transferred by FM without Franchisee's consent and, if so, shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of FM's respective assignee(s).

I. Non-Waiver of Claims. FM's consent to a transfer of any interest in the Franchised Business shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the Franchisee, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of FM's rights to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

J. Transfer of Assets. The transfer fee paid to FM does not include any equipment, products or marketing material to transferee. Further, FM makes no warranty as to the viability of any assets purchased from the Franchisee.

K. Survival of Transfer Obligations. The terms of this Article VII shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement for a period of twenty-four (24) months. The parties agree and acknowledge that such extended obligation is necessary to fulfill the intent of Franchisee and FM and is a material term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII: VIOLATION AND TERMINATION

A. Automatic Termination. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement and all rights granted to Franchisee hereunder shall terminate automatically without notice to Franchisee upon the occurrence of the following:

1. Franchisee or a Guarantor becomes insolvent, makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or is adjudicated bankrupt, unless otherwise restricted by the relevant bankruptcy laws; or

2. A petition in bankruptcy for liquidation, reorganization, or other proceeding is filed by or against Franchisee; a receiver is appointed; a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's Franchised Business or assets is allowed; or the real or personal property of Franchisee is attached or levied upon by any sheriff, marshal, or constable.

B. Termination For Incurable Defaults. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement and FM may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

1. Franchisee voluntarily abandons or ceases to actively operate the Franchised Business, which is defined as:
 - a. two (2) consecutive months without sales, unless prior approval is obtained in writing from FM; or
 - b. disconnecting the Franchised Business telephone;
 - c. not having a service vehicle.
2. Franchisee or any of its officers or directors is or has been convicted, pleads guilty, or pleads no contest to a felony or other crime or offense that FM believes is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or FM's interest therein;
3. Franchisee fails on three (3) or more occasions to comply with any material provisions of this Agreement or any other FM Franchise Agreement, whether or not such failures to comply are cured after written notice thereof to Franchisee;
4. Franchisee (including its shareholders, guarantors or agents) engages in activities in an unethical manner which cause harm to the goodwill associated with the Marks and the System;
5. Franchisee discloses FM's trade secrets or other confidential information to persons unauthorized by this Agreement to receive such information or misuses FM's trade secrets or other confidential information;
6. Franchisee breaches without cure any other FM Franchise Agreement which is then terminated; or
7. Franchisee fails or refuses to execute a renewal agreement.

C. If this Agreement is terminated by FM pursuant to Paragraph B above, then this Agreement will automatically terminate upon the receipt of the written notice of immediate termination.

D. Curable Defaults. Except as otherwise provided in this Article VIII, Franchisee shall have thirty (30) days from the date of the written notice of breach from FM within which to remedy any default hereunder and to provide evidence thereof to FM. If any such default is not cured within that time or such longer period as applicable law may require, this Agreement may terminate without further notice to Franchisee effective immediately upon expiration of the thirty (30) day period or such longer period as applicable law may require. Franchisee shall be in default hereunder for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, as it may reasonably be supplemented by the Operations Manual and other rules and regulations of the System or to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith. Such defaults shall include, without limitation, the occurrence of any of the following events:

1. Franchisee fails, refuses, or neglects to pay amounts due FM for the Initial Franchise Fee, Royalty Fees, NAF Contributions, purchases made, or services provided;
2. Franchisee fails to submit or accurately report Gross Sales or annual Gross Sales or any other report required under this Agreement;
3. Franchisee fails to obtain a business license and keep it in force;
4. Franchisee fails to abide by or perform any provision, standard, specification or requirement in the text of this Agreement or in one or more manuals of franchise operations;
5. Franchisee defaults in the observance of performance of any requirement or obligation contained in any Promissory Note payable to FM or any of its affiliates or in any contract with FM;
6. Franchisee makes a material misrepresentation or omission relating to the acquisition of the License or Franchisee knowingly maintains false books or records, submits any false reports to FM or fails to submit standard reports as provided under Article VI;
7. Franchisee (including its shareholders, guarantors or agents) engages in any solicitation of sales or marketing of the Franchise Business outside the Territory, contrary to Article I;
8. Franchisee fails to provide FM notice and receive approval of products as provided for in Article V, Paragraph U, Sources of Supplies;
9. Franchisee or any other person(s) required to complete training fails to complete training in a manner satisfactory to FM;
10. Franchisee attempts or completes an unauthorized transfer, assignment, sale or encumbrance of its rights, title or interest to this Agreement or of the Franchised Business in any respect;
11. Franchisee does not comply with all of the provision of Article V, Paragraph L, Insurance; or

12. Franchisee is in default of any provision of this Agreement, or any other agreement between Franchisee and FM or its affiliates and subsidiaries.

E. Correction of Breach. For purposes of this Agreement, an alleged breach of this Agreement by the Franchisee will be deemed to be cured if both FM and the Franchisee agree in writing that the alleged breach has been corrected.

F. Other Remedies. Nothing in this Article VIII precludes FM from seeking other remedies or damages under state or federal laws, common law, or under this Agreement including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, damages and equitable relief.

G. Upon receipt by Franchisee of Notice of Termination all MedicConnection privileges shall be revoked.

ARTICLE IX: RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARTIES UPON EXPIRATION, TERMINATION OR NON-RENEWAL

A. Franchisee's Obligations. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the License granted hereunder for any reason, and regardless of any dispute which may exist between the parties, Franchisee shall:

1. Immediately cease using and thereafter abstain from using all Marks, as well as all signs, structures, vehicles, and forms of advertising indicative of FM or the Franchised Business or products thereof, and make or cause to be made such changes in signs, buildings, vehicles and structures as FM shall reasonably direct to effectively distinguish them from their former appearance and from any other aspect of the Franchised Business;
2. Relinquish all interest in and rights to use all telephone and facsimile numbers, all listings, email addresses and all social media accounts whether or not bearing the Marks (collectively "listings and accounts") used by the Franchisee in any manner related to the operation of, or applicable to, the Franchised Business and shall be transfer to or vest in FM and FM shall thereupon have the full and exclusive right to use such listings and accounts or to authorize the use thereof by another franchisee of FM. The Franchisee hereby appoints FM as its attorney in fact to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer such listings and accounts to FM or as it may in writing direct. Any amounts owing by the Franchisee on account of such listings and accounts shall be paid immediately by the Franchisee. Further, Franchisee will execute a telephone supersedure form which can be submitted to the telephone company upon the termination of this Agreement to effectuate the assignment of the telephone number(s) and listing(s). (Exhibit A-2) If Franchisee shall fail or omit to take such actions or cause them to be taken, then FM shall have the right but not the obligation to enter upon the Franchised Business premises without being deemed guilty of trespass or any other tort, and shall have the right to make such changes or cause them to be made at the expense of Franchisee, which expense Franchisee shall pay on demand. This right includes authority to communicate directly with the companies which furnish telephone lines service or directory publishing (printed and electronic) to enforce this provision. Franchisee agrees to reimburse FM for all costs, expenses and legal fees incurred by FM to require Franchisee to cease using such Marks, telephone numbers, signs, stationery, advertising, or other means of identification;
3. Within ten (10) days, ship all printed forms, advertising pieces and manuals bearing the Marks, (all of which are acknowledged to be FM's property) as well as all supplies, chemicals and equipment and photographic proof of service vehicle de-stripping of all automotive logo markings, freight prepaid, in good condition, to an address designated by FM;
4. Within ten (10) days, ship all van logo markings, printed forms, advertising pieces and manuals bearing FM Marks, supplies and equipment (all of which are acknowledged to be FM's property), freight prepaid, in good condition, to an address designated by FM;
5. Pay to FM, as directed, within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration, such Initial Franchise Fee, Royalty Fees, NAF Contribution, amounts owed for purchases by Franchisee, interest and fees due on any of the foregoing, and all other amounts which are then due and unpaid including the minimum fees due for the remainder of the Term of this Agreement; and

6. The Franchisee shall immediately turn over to FM all manuals, records, files, instructions, computer software and any and all other materials relating to the operation of the Franchised Business in the Franchisee's possession, except for the Franchisee's copy of this Agreement, any correspondence between the parties, and any other documents which the Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

- B. Post Term Competition. Franchisee shall comply with the terms and conditions set forth in Article V, Paragraph T.2, set forth above.

ARTICLE X. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

It is expressly understood and agreed by and between FM and Franchisee that Franchisee will, at all times, act as and shall be an Independent Contractor. Franchisee agrees that it will not, at any time, directly or indirectly, hold itself out as an agent or employee of FM or make any commitment or incur any liability on behalf of FM without FM's expressed written consent. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to create a joint employer relationship between the parties, it being expressly understood that any personnel policies or procedures, forms, guidance or other employment related materials or information offered by FM is provided solely for Franchisee's convenience. Franchisee's use of such information is completely optional and should not be construed as an intent or right to control Franchisee's operations, personnel decisions or relationship with its employees. Franchisee is expressly advised to consult its own independent counsel for labor and employment advice.

ARTICLE XI: INDEMNIFICATION

Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee is solely responsible for all loss, damage or other claims arising out of the Franchised Business and the conduct of Franchisee's affairs and shall hold FM and its present and future officers, directors, employees, agents, shareholders, parents, affiliates, subsidiaries and representatives harmless from all costs, expenses, legal fees and liabilities with respect to all claims from any loss or damage arising either directly or indirectly therefrom.

FRANCHISEE AND THE GUARANTORS, BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, INDEMNIFY AND AGREE TO DEFEND AND HOLD HARMLESS FM AND ITS RELATED PARTIES AGAINST ALL LOSSES, CLAIMS, DAMAGES, PENALTIES, JUDGMENTS, LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ALL EXPENSES OF LITIGATION OR PREPARATION FOR LITIGATION WHETHER OR NOT FM IS A PARTY TO THE LITIGATION) THAT FM OR ANY OF ITS RELATED PARTIES MAY PAY OR INCUR ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR TO THE OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS EVEN IF CAUSED IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY THE NEGLIGENCE (WHETHER SOLE, JOINT OR CONCURRENT), GROSS NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER LEGAL FAULT OF FM.

ARTICLE XII: ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- A. Mediation and Arbitration.

Franchisee and FM believe that it is important to resolve any disputes amicably, quickly, cost effectively and professionally and to return to business as soon as possible. The parties have agreed that the provisions of this Article XII support these mutual objectives and, therefore, agree as follows:

1. Claim Process. Any litigation, claim, dispute, suit, action, controversy, or proceeding of any type whatsoever including any claim for equitable relief and/or where you are acting as a "private attorney general," suing pursuant to a statutory claim or otherwise, between the parties on whatever theory and/or facts based, and whether or not arising out of this Agreement, ("Claim") will be processed in the following manner, the parties each expressly waiving all rights to any court proceeding except as expressly provided below at Section 5.

- a) First, discussed in a face-to-face meeting or, upon agreement of the parties, in a video or telephone conference call held within thirty (30) days after either Franchisee or FM give written notice to the other proposing such a meeting. The party alleging the dispute must provide the other party with written notice setting forth the alleged dispute in detail. The party who receives written notice alleging the dispute will have thirty (30) days after receipt of the written notice to attempt to informally resolve the dispute specified in the written notice. If the written notice alleges that the Franchisee is delinquent in the payment of any fees or other payments payable to FM, the Franchisee will have ten (10) days to make full payment, including interest as provided for herein, to FM.

b) Second, if not resolved, submitted to non-binding mediation for a minimum of four (4) hours before a mediator approved by all parties. FM will pay the costs of the first four (4) hours of any mediation, and no mediation is required to extend beyond such 4-hour period. Any mediation/arbitration (and any appeal of arbitration) will be conducted by a mediator/arbitrator experienced in franchising. Any party may be represented by counsel and may, with permission of the mediator, bring persons appropriate to the proceeding.

2. Disputes Subject to Arbitration. Unless precluded by state law or explicitly exempted otherwise herein, any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or with regard to its interpretation, formation or breach, including allegations of fraud, misrepresentation and violation of any state or federal laws or regulations which have not been resolved by mediation as provided herein within thirty (30) days after appointment of a mediator, will be subject to and resolved exclusively by one arbitrator through binding arbitration conducted in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") including the AAA appellate rules that are in effect at the time the claim is filed ("AAA Rules"). This clause is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act. FM, the Franchisee and their officers, directors and shareholders, if any, do hereby agree that all arbitration hearings will take place exclusively in the metropolitan area of FM's then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia).

3. Demand for Arbitration. The AAA will provide each party with a written list of proposed arbitrators. The parties will have fourteen (14) days from the date of mailing by the American Arbitration Association of the written list of proposed arbitrators within which to choose a single arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on a single arbitrator, each party may choose an arbitrator and together those two arbitrators will choose an arbitrator. The parties further consent to the jurisdiction of any appropriate court to enforce the provisions of this Paragraph and/or to confirm any award rendered by the arbitrator.

4. Powers of Arbitrator. The authority of the arbitrator will be limited to making a decision and award relating to the interpretation of or adherence to the written provisions of this Agreement. The Federal Rules of Evidence will apply to all arbitration hearings and the introduction of all evidence, testimony, records, affidavits, documents and memoranda in any arbitration hearing. The arbitrator will have no authority to add to, delete or modify in any manner the terms or provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator will not have the right or authority to award punitive damages to either FM or the Franchisee or their officers, directors, shareholders, if any, and the parties expressly waive their right to plead or seek punitive damages. The arbitrator will decide all issues of arbitrability.

5. Disputes Not Subject to Arbitration. The following disputes between FM and the Franchisee will not be subject to arbitration:

- a. Any dispute involving the Marks or which arises under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1051, et seq.;
- b. Any dispute involving FM's right to immediately terminate this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII of this Agreement;
- c. Any dispute involving enforcement of covenants contained in Article V, Paragraph R of this Agreement;
- d. Any dispute involving the sale, transfer, assignment or renewal of this Agreement; and
- e. Any dispute for the collection of an amount within the jurisdiction of the small claims court in the jurisdiction where the Franchisee's office relating to such amount is located, provided that such action is in fact brought in small claims court in that jurisdiction.

6. No Collateral Estoppels or Class Actions. No arbitration finding, conclusion or award may be used to collaterally estop either FM or the Franchisee from raising any like or similar issue or defense in any subsequent arbitration, litigation, court hearing or other proceeding involving third parties, including other franchisees. It is the intent of the parties that any arbitration proceeding between FM and the Franchisee will be of their individual claim and that no claims subject to arbitration will be arbitrated on a class-wide basis. The Franchisee waives its right to a jury trial of any claims it may have against FM arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship between the parties, including claims of fraud and the inducement.

7. Confidentiality. All evidence, testimony, records, documents and information disclosed in any arbitration hearing between FM and the Franchisee will be secret and confidential in all respects. Neither party will disclose any evidence, testimony, records, documents or information from the arbitration hearing to any other person or entity except as required by law.

8. Performance During Arbitration. FM and the Franchisee will fully comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and will fully perform their respective obligations under this Agreement during the entire time of the arbitration process. This arbitration provision shall be deemed to be self-executing and shall remain in full force and effect after expiration or termination and/or rescission of this Agreement.

9. No Recourse. The Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that except as provided under an express statutory liability for such conduct, none of FM's past, present or future directors, officers, employees, incorporators, members, partners, stockholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, controlling parties, entities under common control, ownership or management, vendors, service providers, agents, attorneys or representatives will have any liability for (i) any of FM's obligations or liabilities relating to or arising from this Agreement, (ii) any claim against FM based on, in respect of, or by reason of, the relationship between the Franchisee and FM, or (iii) any claim against FM based on any of FM's alleged unlawful act or omission. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision constitutes an express waiver of any claims based on a theory of vicarious liability, unless such vicarious claims are authorized by a guarantee of performance or statutory obligation. It is not meant to bar any direct contractual, statutory, or common law claim that would otherwise exist.

ARTICLE XIII: MISCELLANEOUS

A. Construction. In this Agreement, the neuter pronoun "it" and the masculine pronouns "he" or "his" have been used to refer to the Franchisee. Where appropriate, this terminology is considered to also include both masculine and feminine genders.

B. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid, both parties agree that all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

C. Effect of Waivers. No failure of FM to exercise any power reserved to it by this Agreement, or to insist on strict compliance by Franchisee with any obligation or condition hereunder and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall constitute a waiver of FM's right to demand exact compliance with any terms herein. A waiver by FM of any particular default by Franchisee shall not affect or impair FM's rights with respect to any default of the same, similar or different nature, nor shall any delay, forbearance or omission of FM to exercise any power or right arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee of any of the terms, provisions or covenants hereof affect or impair FM's rights hereunder or the right to declare any subsequent breach or default and to terminate this Agreement prior to the expiration of its term. Subsequent acceptance by FM of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by FM of any terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement.

D. Costs of Enforcement. If either party to this Agreement (an "Initiating Party") brings any action under or in connection with this Agreement (whether an arbitration or court action) and does not prevail in such action, it shall pay, as part of any judgment or arbitrator's decision rendered against it, the attorneys' fees, arbitration filing fees, court costs, travel and living expenses, witness and deposition fees, costs of investigation and other costs related to the action (collectively "Litigation Costs") incurred by the other (prevailing) party in such action. If an Initiating Party does prevail in any such action, and the amount of its recovery or award exceeds the last settlement offer made by the Initiating Party to the other (non-prevailing) party, then the other (non-prevailing) party shall also pay, as part of any judgment or arbitration's decision rendered against it, the Litigation Costs incurred by the prevailing Initiating Party.

E. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be in writing and may be given by personal service or by forwarding a copy thereof by facsimile, U.S. Postal Service mail or Federal Express or similar carrier and in the case of U.S. Postal Service mail or such carrier, shall be fully prepaid, in a sealed envelope, addressed to FM or the Franchisee, at the address that appears on page 1 of this Agreement. The addresses hereby given for the service of notice may be changed at any time by any party through written notice given to the other as herein provided. Notices will be deemed to have been received on the next business day following the day of receipt in the case of telex or facsimile and when ten (10) working days from dispatch have elapsed, or when signature information is available from the carrier used to send the notice.

F. Successors. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the successors and assignees of FM and to the heirs, administrators and executors and permitted successors and assignees of Franchisee.

G. Law.

1. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Georgia and any dispute between the parties shall be governed by and determined in accordance with the substantive law of the State of Georgia, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law.

2. Franchisee acknowledges that he has and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with FM at its principal offices where FM's decision-making authority is vested and franchise operations are conducted and supervised. Therefore, any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be commenced in federal or state courts located in the metropolitan area of FM's then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia). Franchisee irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such court and waives any objection he may have to either jurisdiction or venue of such court.

3. Franchisee, its employee(s), partner(s) and agent(s) and FM waive right to a jury trial.

H. Independent Covenants. If any provision of this Agreement is found invalid, both parties agree that all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

I. Modifications. The Franchisee recognizes and agrees that from time to time FM may reasonably change the System presently identified with the Marks under any conditions and to any extent which FM in its sole and absolute discretion may deem advisable to meet the demands of the industry, to protect its Marks, to improve the quality of the System, or for other valid business purpose. Accordingly, FM may adopt and use new or modified Marks, copyrighted materials, products, equipment or techniques, without liability to Franchisee and Franchisee agrees to comply with such modifications. In the event of a contract change, modification of an obligation, extension of time to pay or perform any other obligation, Franchisee and each owner and/or affiliate of Franchisee shall execute a general release.

J. Quality Control. Because the reputation and commercial success of FM's and Franchisee's Franchised Business operations under this Agreement depend greatly upon Franchisee's proper use and application of designated supplies and the image created by Franchisee in promoting and carrying out the Franchised Services, Franchisee agrees to use only equipment, supplies and promotional materials which have either been obtained from or approved in writing by FM. Franchisee also agrees that FM may inspect and investigate the quality of work done by Franchisee. Failure to use authorized equipment, supplies and promotional materials or failure to comply with then-current operating standards and quality control standards or not to allow inspections or investigations shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement and may be cause for loss of the Franchised Business through termination of this Agreement. If, upon inspection or investigation, FM finds that the quality of work done by Franchisee is substandard, FM may, as an alternative to termination, require Franchisee, at its own expense, to take additional training and to correct the quality of its work and services. Failure of Franchisee to take additional training or to correct the quality of its work and services will also be a material breach of this Agreement which can be cause for loss of the Franchised Business through termination of this Agreement.

In order to obtain maximum results from promotional materials and to maintain the integrity of FM's Marks, Franchisee shall not use promotional materials of any kinds that have not been approved in writing by FM. If Franchisee develops or obtains any promotional materials from a source other than FM, such materials shall first be submitted to FM for written approval. If approved, FM shall have the right to duplicate and distribute such materials to all franchisees.

K. Right of First Refusal. The Franchisee may not sell, transfer, assign, or otherwise convey any interest in the Franchised Business without first offering it to FM in writing at a stated dollar price exclusive of broker fees and upon stated terms which FM may accept in writing at any time within sixty (60) days from the receipt of the written offer by the Franchisee. If FM shall decline or not accept the offer within the said time period the Franchisee may thereafter sell or dispose of the Franchised Business to a third party, but not at a lower price or on more favorable terms than had been offered to FM, and subject to the prior written permission of FM, as provided in Article VII of this Agreement. If the Franchised Business is not then sold by the Franchisee within six (6) months from the date it is offered to FM, then the Franchisee must re-offer to sell to FM prior to the sale to any third party.

L. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and attachments hereto contain the entire understanding of the parties hereto and it is acknowledged by both parties that, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, there are no representations, warranties or other agreements expressed or implied in any way relating to the provisions hereof. Nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations contained in the Furniture Medic Franchise Disclosure Document. Franchisee agrees that no claims of success or failure have been made to him prior to signing this Agreement. This Agreement when fully executed shall supersede all prior and existing agreements between the parties having to do with the subject matter of this Agreement. In the event of a breach of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred in enforcing the provisions of this Agreement or securing damages for its breach, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

M. Financing. FM does not represent that the Franchisee will qualify for service vehicle or any other type of financing. FM does not warrant that the Franchisee or its customers will qualify under standards set by credit granting financial institutions. FM does not represent that any supplier will grant a line of credit to the Franchisee or the Franchisee's customers. Any failure of the Franchisee or its customers to secure such financing or financing arrangements shall not subject this Agreement to rescission or subject FM to any costs, refunds, or penalties. The Franchisee acknowledges that decisions of credit-granting firms are beyond the control of the parties to this Agreement and holds FM harmless for the results of such decisions.

N. Pricing. Franchisee shall be free to set and determine its own pricing structure for Franchised Services sold and rendered under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee may request suggested pricing from FM but all prices charged shall be solely at the discretion of Franchisee. Franchisee who chooses to participate in National Accounts Programs may have to abide by the negotiated pricing of the program.

O. Headings. Headings of sections or order of specific articles are deemed by the parties to be merely descriptive in nature and not intended to limit or preclude information contained therein.

P. Binding Agreement. Franchisee and its signatories to this Agreement agree to abide by all terms and conditions contained herein as individuals as well as officers or principals if incorporated.

Q. Acknowledgments. By signing this Agreement, Franchisee certifies that it has received and reviewed the Franchise Disclosure Document and its exhibits and this Agreement fourteen (14) calendar days, or ten (10) business days as may be required by Franchisee's state, prior to signing this Agreement or prior to paying any monies.

The Franchisee acknowledges that:

1. Franchisee has received, read and understands this Agreement and the attachments hereto; FM has fully and adequately explained the provisions hereof to Franchisee's satisfaction; and Franchisee has been accorded sufficient time and opportunity (as may be required by state and federal law) to consider this Agreement and to consult with advisors of Franchisee's own choosing concerning the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.
2. FM expressly disclaims, and Franchisee acknowledges that it has not received any warranty, promise, or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, profits, or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement.
3. The success of the Franchised Business contemplated to be undertaken by the Franchisee depends to a large extent upon the ability of the Franchisee or its principal(s) as independent business person(s) and upon the Franchisee's efforts, skill, business background and sales.

R. Significant Dates: The Franchisee hereby certifies that the following information and dates are true and correct and the undersigned understands that FM is relying on these statements in consideration of entering into this Agreement:

6. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Franchised Business may be impacted by many risks, including those outside Franchisor's or Franchisor's control such as economic, political or social disruption, including COVID-19. In addition, Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the COVID-19 outbreak and any preventative or protective actions that federal, state, and local governments may take in response to this pandemic may result in a period of business disruption, reduced customer demand, and reduced operations for the Franchised Business, and that the extent to which the COVID-19 outbreak impacts the Franchised Business will depend on future developments which are highly uncertain and which Franchisor cannot predict.

www.deloitte.comINDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Managers of RW Parent LLC and
The Management of RW Purchaser LLC
Memphis, Tennessee

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of ServiceMaster Systems, LLC and its subsidiaries (the "Company") (an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of RW Purchaser LLC), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2020, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, member's equity, and cash flows for the period from December 9, 2020 (inception) to December 31, 2020, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of ServiceMaster Systems, LLC and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2020, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the period from December 9, 2020 (inception) to December 31, 2020 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

SERVICEMASTER SYSTEMS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY-OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM DECEMBER 9, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Note 1. Description of Business

On October 1, 2020, RW Purchaser LLC (“RW Purchaser”) entered into a transaction (the “Transaction”) to acquire the following brands and businesses: ServiceMaster Restore, ServiceMaster Clean, Merry Maids, Furniture Medic and AmeriSpec (collectively, the “ServiceMaster Brands”) from Terminix Global Holdings, Inc. which included substantially all assets and liabilities associated with the ServiceMaster Brands. The total purchase price of the Transaction was allocated to the underlying assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values at the date of Transaction. The allocation of the purchase price is preliminary and may change in future periods, perhaps materially, as fair value estimates of the assets acquired, and liabilities assumed are refined and finalized during the allowable one-year measurement period.

On December 9, 2020 (the “Securitization Date”), a series of agreements (collectively, the “Securitization”) were effectuated and gave rise to a revised legal entity structure of RW Purchaser’s subsidiaries as well as the issuance of approximately $750,000,000 of Notes (as defined below) by RW Purchaser’s indirect subsidiaries, ServiceMaster Funding LLC (the “Issuer” or “Member”) and ServiceMaster of Canada Limited (collectively, the “Co-Issuers”), which have been guaranteed by commonly controlled RW Purchaser subsidiaries, ServiceMaster SPE Holdco LLC (“Holdco”) and RW Canada Intermediate Ltd., as well as all of the subsidiaries of the Issuer (collectively, the “Guarantors”), including ServiceMaster Systems, LLC (the “Company”).

Organizational Structure

Pursuant to the Securitization, a subset of the agreements resulted in the transfer of net assets comprising substantially all of the assets of the ServiceMaster Brands (the “Pre-Contribution Assets”) between certain related parties under the common control of RW Purchaser. As relevant parties involved with the transfer of net assets in connection with the Securitization were under the common control of RW Purchaser, all of the assets and liabilities were contributed at their respective carrying cost as of the Securitization Date. As these assets are a subset of the assets acquired as part of the Transaction on October 1, 2020, they are subject to a measurement period of one year from the date of the Transaction, October 1, 2020.

As part of the transfers, ServiceMaster Opco Holdings, LLC (“Opco”), a wholly owned subsidiary of RW Purchaser, entered into a contribution agreement with its 100% wholly owned subsidiary, Holdco; pursuant to which Opco contributed all of its right, title and interest in and to the Pre-Contribution Assets to Holdco. Subsequently, Holdco entered into a contribution agreement with its 100% wholly owned subsidiary, the Issuer, pursuant to which Holdco contributed all of its right, title and interest in and to the Pre-Contribution Assets to the Issuer. The Issuer then entered into a subsequent contribution agreement pursuant to which the Issuer contributed assets, net of liabilities, in the amount of $1,517.1 million of the US portion of the ServiceMaster Brands to the Company, which were subsequently contributed by the Company to its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Securitized Notes

In connection with the Securitization, on December 9, 2020 the Co-Issuers entered into an agreement (the “Indenture”) pursuant to which the Co-Issuers issued $250,000,000 of Series 2020-1 2.841% Fixed Rate Senior Secured Notes, Class A-2-I (the “Class A-2-I Notes”), $450,000,000 of Series 2020-1, 3.337% Fixed Rate Senior Secured Notes, Class A-2-II (the “Class A-2-II Notes”), and $50,000,000 of variable funding notes, Class A-1 (the “Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes” and, collectively with the Class A-2-I Notes and the Class A-2-II Notes, the “Notes”). Interest will accrue on the Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes at a variable rate depending on the outstanding amount drawn by the Co-Issuers from time to time thereunder, if any. The legal final maturity date of the Notes is in January 2051. Unless earlier prepaid to the extent permitted, the Indenture provides for an anticipated repayment date of January 2028 for the Class A-2-I Notes and an anticipated repayment date of January 2031 for the Class A-2-II Notes (as applicable, the “Anticipated Repayment Date”). The lending commitment under the Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes will expire in January 2026, subject to two automatic annual renewals at the election of the Co-Issuers if certain conditions are met.

The Notes are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Co-Issuers and the Guarantors. The Notes are subject to a series of covenants and restrictions customary for transactions of this type, including (i) debt service coverage ratios and senior leverage ratios, (ii) maintenance of specified reserve accounts to be used to make required payments in respect of the Notes, and (iii) provisions relating to optional and mandatory prepayments, including certain make-whole payments. The Notes are also subject to customary rapid amortization events provided for in the Indenture and customary events of default. The Indenture also provides for quarterly principal amortization in respect of the Class A-2-I Notes and the Class A-2-II Notes equal to 0.25% of their original principal amount through their respective Anticipated Repayment Date, subject to a fall-away provision if the senior leverage ratio is less than a specified threshold on any quarterly test date.

ServiceMaster Systems, LLC

The Company is a single-member limited liability company subsidiary of the Issuer and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of RW Purchaser. Through its subsidiaries, the Company franchises and operates restoration, cleaning, furniture repair and property inspection services to both residential and commercial customers through the ServiceMaster Brands.

As the Company was formed in connection with the Securitization, the information presented within represents the period from December 9, 2020 (“Inception”) through December 31, 2020.

References to “we,” “us,” “our” and “Company” in the accompanying financial statements (“financial statements”) are to the Company’s business unless the context otherwise requires.

COVID-19

The outbreak of COVID-19 during mid-January 2020 and the related pandemic government response mitigation efforts has disrupted the global economic markets. The Company did not experience any material operational or supply chain disruptions related to various efforts to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. However, there remains uncertainty around the breadth and duration of business disruptions related to COVID-19, as well as its impact on the U.S. and international economies. As such, the Company is unable to determine if it will have a material impact to its operations.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies described below, together with the other notes that follow, are an integral part of the financial statements.

Basis of Preparation

The historical results of our operations, financial position and cash flows have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions required under US GAAP that may differ from actual results. The more significant areas requiring the use of management estimates relate to revenue recognition; the allowance for uncollectible receivables; the possible outcome of outstanding legal matters; the deferral and amortization of customer acquisition costs; useful lives for depreciation and amortization expense; and the valuation of tangible and intangible assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

As part of the organizational design, all cash generated from the Company’s operations are to be transferred to a concentration account in the name of the Issuer. The Issuer utilizes a portion of the cash from operations to repay the Notes and related fees. Any residual or excess funds that remain with the Issuer after fulfilling scheduled payments associated with the Notes are further transferred to OpCo. Accordingly, all cash on-hand with the Company are transferred upstream within the organizational structure.

Accounts Receivable

SERVICEMASTER SYSTEMS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY-OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
PERIOD FROM DECEMBER 9, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Accounts receivable consist primarily of national account revenue due from customers, royalties and franchise fees due from franchisees. Accounts receivable are carried at their net realizable value. The Company accounts for credit losses using the Current Expected Credit Loss (CECL) model detailed in the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326). The Company’s expected loss allowance methodology for accounts receivable is developed using historical collection experience, current and future economic and market conditions and a review of the current status of customers’ trade accounts receivable. Due to the short-term nature of such receivables, the estimate of accounts receivable that may not be collected is based on aging of the accounts receivable balances and consideration of customers’ financial and macroeconomic conditions. Balances are written off when determined to be uncollectible. The Company considered the current and expected future economic and market conditions surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic and determined that the estimate of credit losses was not significantly impacted.

Estimates are used to determine the allowance. It is based on an assessment of anticipated payment and all other historical, current and future information that is reasonably available.

(in millions)	As of December 31, 2020
Accounts receivable	$ 35.1
Less: Allowance for credit losses	–
Accounts receivable, net of allowance	$ 35.1

Deferred Customer Acquisition Costs

Customer acquisition costs, which are incremental and direct costs of obtaining a customer, are deferred and amortized over the expected customer relationship period.

Inventory

Inventories are recorded at the lower of cost (primarily on a weighted-average cost basis) or net realizable value. Our inventory primarily consists of finished goods to be used on the customers’ premises or sold to franchisees.

Property and Equipment and Intangible Assets

Property and equipment consist of the following:

(in millions)	As of December 31, 2020	Estimated Useful Lives (Years)
Technology and communications	$ 5.3	3 – 7
Machinery and equipment	1.0	3 – 9
Office equipment, furniture and fixtures	0.5	3 – 7
Less: Accumulated depreciation	(0.8)
Property and equipment, net	$ 6.0

Depreciation of property and equipment was $0.2 million for the period from December 9, 2020 (Inception) to December 31, 2020.

Property and equipment and intangible assets with finite lives are depreciated and amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. These lives are based on our previous experience for similar assets, potential market obsolescence and other industry and business data. As required by accounting standards for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets, property and equipment and finite-lived intangible assets are tested for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If the carrying value is no longer recoverable based upon the undiscounted future cash flows of the asset, an impairment loss would be recognized equal to the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of the asset. Indefinite-lived intangible assets are tested annually for impairment by applying a fair-value based test. Changes in the estimated useful lives or in the asset values could cause us to adjust its book value or future expense accordingly.

PERIOD FROM DECEMBER 9, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Indefinite-lived intangible assets, primarily trade names, are assessed annually for impairment during the fourth quarter or earlier upon the occurrence of certain events or substantive changes in circumstances. The Company performed an annual impairment analyses as of December 9, 2020 which did not result in any trade name impairments to continuing operations. See Note 4 to the financial statements for our intangible assets balances.

Member's Equity

Our equity on the statement of financial position represents the Issuer's net investment in us and is presented as Member's Equity. Member's Equity includes the value of the property transferred to the Company on the Securitization Date and the Issuer's share of our net income since Inception.

Revenue

Royalty fees

The Company has franchise agreements in the ServiceMaster Restore, ServiceMaster Clean, Merry Maids, Furniture Medic and AmeriSpec businesses. Royalty fee revenue consists principally of sales-based royalties received as part of the consideration for the franchise right and is calculated as a percentage of customer-level revenue. Revenue is recognized by us at the agreed-upon contractual rates over time as the customer-level revenue is generated by the franchisees. A receivable is recognized for an estimate of the unreported royalty fees, which are reported and remitted to us in arrears.

Franchise Fees

Initial franchise fees result from the sale of a franchise license, which includes the use of the name, trademarks and proprietary methods. The franchise license is considered symbolic intellectual property and revenue related to the sale of this right is recognized at the agreed-upon contractual amount over the term of the initial franchise agreement.

We have contractual arrangements with several national insurance companies to maintain a call center which receives and provides nonrecurring recovery and restoration referrals from the insurers to qualifying franchisees. We receive and recognize referral fees from franchisees at the agreed-upon contractual amount as revenue in the month the referral is issued.

We recognize revenue from Company owned locations at the point in time when services are provided to the customer.

Commercial cleaning national accounts

National account revenues are recognized at the agreed-upon contractual amounts over time as services are completed based on contractual arrangements to provide services at the customers' locations. The Company engages either a franchisee or non-franchisee business to perform the services. Under these agreements, the Company is directly responsible for providing the services and receive payment directly from the customer. A receivable is recorded related to this revenue as the Company has an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment. Payments are typically received shortly after services have been rendered.

Sales of products

Revenues are generated from selling products to franchisees. Revenues from product sales are generally recognized once control of the products transfers to the customer. A receivable is recorded related to these sales as the Company has an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment. Payments are typically received shortly after a customer is invoiced.

National advertising fund

Franchisees contribute a percentage of customer-level revenue into a national advertising fund managed by us. In cases where we have ultimate control of the marketing and advertising, we recognize both revenue and expense for the amount earned.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM DECEMBER 9, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed when the advertising occurs. Advertising costs for the period from Inception to December 31, 2020 was $1.1 million and are included in selling and administrative expenses. Advertising costs include national advertising fund expenses of $0.7 million for the period from December 9, 2020 (Inception) to December 31, 2020, for which there is an equal amount recorded in revenue for the period from December 9, 2020 (Inception) to December 31, 2020.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member, limited liability corporation which has elected not to be taxed as a corporation, and consequently is not subject to U.S. federal or state income taxes. As such, for income tax purposes, the Company's earnings flow through directly to the Member.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income represents net income for the period plus the results of certain other changes in Member's equity. The Company's comprehensive income is equal to its net income.

Newly Issued Accounting Standards

Accounting Standards Issued But Not Yet Effective

In January 2021, the FASB issued ASU No. 2021-02, Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606). The amendments in this ASU introduce a new practical expedient that simplifies the application of the guidance about identifying performance obligations. The practical expedient permits franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchisee as distinct from the franchise license if the services are consistent with those included in a predefined list within the guidance. The new standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this ASU will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

We have reviewed all other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and do not expect the future adoption of any such pronouncements will have a material impact on our financial condition or the results of our operations.

Note 3. Revenue

The following table presents our revenues, disaggregated by revenue source. We disaggregate revenue from contracts with customers into major customer acquisition channels. We determined that disaggregating revenue into these categories achieves the disclosure objective to depict how the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Costs to Obtain a Contract with a Customer

customer relationship period. As of December 31, 2020, there was an immaterial amount of activity related to capitalizable cost to obtain a contract.

Contract Balances

We record a receivable related to revenue recognized on services once we have an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment in the future related to the services provided. All accounts receivables are recorded within accounts receivables, less allowances, on the statement of financial position.

Deferred revenue from initial franchise fees represents a contract liability and is recognized when cash payments are received in advance of the performance of services, including when the amounts are refundable. Amounts are recognized as revenue in proportion to the costs expected to be incurred in performing services under our contracts.

Revenue is recognized net of any taxes collected from customers, which are subsequently remitted to taxing authorities.

Note 4. Intangible Assets

The table below summarizes the other intangible asset balances:

As of December 31, 2020
(in millions)	Gross		Accumulated Amortization	Net
Trade names ⁽¹⁾	$	1,335.0	$	–
Customer relationships		46.0		1.0
Other		132.0		2.7
Total	$	1,513.0	$	3.7
				$ 1,509.3

(1) Not subject to amortization

Amortization expense of $0.9 million was recorded in the period from Inception to December 31, 2020. For the existing intangible assets, we anticipate amortization expense of $14.8 million per year for the years ending December 31, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025.

Note 5. Commitments and Contingencies

We lease certain property and equipment under various operating lease arrangements. Most of the property leases provide that we pay taxes, insurance and maintenance applicable to the leased premises. As leases for existing locations expire, we expect to renew the leases or substitute another location and lease. Please refer to Note 8, Leases, for further details.

In the ordinary course of conducting business activities, we are and may in the future become involved in judicial, administrative and regulatory proceedings involving both private parties and governmental authorities. These proceedings include insured and uninsured matters that are brought on an individual, collective, representative and class action basis, or other proceedings involving regulatory, employment, general and commercial liability, automobile liability, wage and hour, data privacy and other matters. Although it is not possible to predict with certainty the outcome or cost of these matters, we believe they will not have a material adverse effect on the financial statements.

Note 6. Employee Benefit Plans

The Company did not have employee benefit plans in place as of December 31, 2020. However, employees received compensation in lieu of a 401(k) employer match in the amount of, and recognized as an expense of $150 thousand, for the period from Inception through December 31, 2020 which was recorded in selling and administrative expenses on the statement of comprehensive income.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM DECEMBER 9, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Note 7. Long-term Debt

Long-term Debt

The Company has notes payable with various parties. The interest rate on notes payable is 5% per annum. At December 31, 2020 the amount owed under the notes payable was $1.3 million, of which $1.2 million is payable within the following 12 months and classified as the current portion of long-term debt.

Securitization

See Note 1 for a description of long-term debt incurred under the Securitization.

Note 8. Leases

The Company accounts for leases under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 842, Leases. We determine if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use assets (“ROU”), net; current portion of lease liability; and long-term lease liability on the statement of financial position. Finance leases are included in property and equipment, net; current portion of finance lease liability and long-term finance lease liability and long-term debt on the statement of financial position.

We participate in a fleet agreement which allows us to obtain fleet vehicles through a leasing program. Vehicle leases have remaining lease terms of less than one year to eight years. For vehicle leases, we account for the lease and non-lease components separately.

Operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments, including fixed non-lease components, over the lease term at commencement date. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that we will exercise that option. Leases, including subleases, with a lease term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the statement of financial position. Lease expense for minimum lease payments and fixed non-lease components is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

As of December 31, 2020, assets recorded under finance leases were $0.7 million and accumulated depreciation associated with finance leases was $0.1 million. The operating lease cost component of lease expense was $0.1 million. The finance lease cost, depreciation of finance lease ROU assets, short-term lease cost and variable lease cost components of lease expense were immaterial.

As the rates implicit in our leases are not readily determinable, we use a collateralized incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the lease commencement date in determining the present value of future payments. We use the portfolio approach and group leases into categories by lease term length, applying the corresponding incremental borrowing rates to these categories of leases.

Supplemental cash flow information and other information for leases was as follows:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Managers of RW Parent LLC and
The Management of RW Purchaser LLC
Memphis, Tennessee

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of ServiceMaster OpCo Holdings, LLC and its subsidiaries (the "Company") (an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of RW Purchaser LLC), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2020, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, member's equity, and cash flows for the period from October 1, 2020 (inception) to December 31, 2020, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

SERVICEMASTER OPCO HOLDINGS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Note 1. Description of Business

ServiceMaster Opco Holdings, LLC

ServiceMaster Opco Holdings, LLC (the “Company”) is a newly formed limited liability company and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of RW Purchaser LLC (“RW Purchaser” or “Member”). ServiceMaster Funding LLC (the “Issuer”), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, will guarantee the Notes (as defined in Note 7, Long-term Debt), together with the other Guarantors (as defined below), pursuant to the Guarantee and Collateral Agreement. Through its direct wholly owned subsidiary ServiceMaster Holdco, LLC (“Holdco”), the Company acts as the manager of the securitization of restoration, cleaning, furniture repair and property inspection services to both residential and commercial customers through the ServiceMaster Brands (as defined below). Through its indirect wholly owned subsidiary ServiceMaster Systems, LLC (“Systems”), the Company franchises and operates restoration, cleaning, furniture repair and property inspection services to both residential and commercial customers through the ServiceMaster Brands: ServiceMaster Restore, ServiceMaster Clean, Merry Maids, Furniture Medic and AmeriSpec (collectively, the “ServiceMaster Brands.”)

As the Company was formed in connection with the Transaction (as defined below), the information presented within represents the period from October 1, 2020 (Inception) through December 31, 2020 (the “three months ended December 31, 2020”).

References to “we,” “us,” “our” and “Company” in the accompanying consolidated financial statements (the “financial statements”) are to the Company’s business unless the context otherwise requires.

Organizational Structure

On October 1, 2020, RW Purchaser entered into a transaction (the “Transaction”) to acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities associated with the following brands and businesses: ServiceMaster Restore, ServiceMaster Clean, Merry Maids, Furniture Medic and AmeriSpec (collectively, the “ServiceMaster Brands”) from Terminix Global Holdings, Inc. The total purchase price of the Transaction was allocated to the underlying assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values at the date of Transaction. The allocation of the purchase price is preliminary and may change in future periods, perhaps materially, as fair value estimates of the assets acquired, and liabilities assumed are refined and finalized during the allowable one-year measurement period.

On December 9, 2020 (the “Securitization Date”), a series of agreements (collectively, the “Securitization”) were effectuated and gave rise to a revised legal entity structure of RW Purchaser’s subsidiaries as well as the issuance of approximately $750,000,000 of Notes (as defined in Note 7, Long-term Debt) by RW Purchaser’s indirect subsidiaries, Issuer and ServiceMaster of Canada Limited (“Canada Limited” and collectively, the “Co-Issuers”), which have been guaranteed by commonly controlled RW Purchaser subsidiaries, Holdco and RW Canada Intermediate Ltd., as well as all of the subsidiaries of the Issuer (collectively, the “Guarantors”).

Pursuant to the Securitization, a subset of the agreements resulted in the transfer of net assets comprising substantially all of the net assets of the ServiceMaster Brands between certain related parties under the common control of RW Purchaser. As relevant parties involved with the transfer of net assets in connection with the Securitization were under the common control of RW Purchaser, all of the assets and liabilities were contributed at their respective carrying cost as of the Securitization Date. As these assets are a subset of the assets acquired as part of the Transaction on October 1, 2020, they are subject to a measurement period of one year from the date of the Transaction, October 1, 2020.

At the Securitization Date the Member then entered into a contribution agreement pursuant to which the Member contributed assets, net of liabilities, in the amount of $1,433.5 million of the US portion of the ServiceMaster Brands to the Company, which were subsequently contributed by the Company to its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

COVID-19

SERVICEMASTER OPCO HOLDINGS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

The outbreak of COVID-19 during mid-January 2020 and the related pandemic government response mitigation efforts has disrupted the global economic markets. The Company did not experience any material operational or supply chain disruptions related to various efforts to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. However, there remains uncertainty around the breadth and duration of business disruptions related to COVID-19, as well as its impact on the U.S. and international economies. As such, the Company is unable to determine if it will have a material impact to its operations.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies described below, together with the other notes that follow, are an integral part of the financial statements.

Basis of Preparation

The historical results of our operations, financial position and cash flows have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions required under US GAAP that may differ from actual results. The more significant areas requiring the use of management estimates relate to revenue recognition; the allowance for uncollectible receivables; the possible outcome of outstanding legal matters; the deferral and amortization of customer acquisition costs; useful lives for depreciation and amortization expense; and the valuation of tangible and intangible assets.

Cash, Cash Equivalents and Restricted Cash

Cash and cash equivalents include highly liquid investments with maturity dates of three months or less from the date of purchase and are recorded at cost.

Restricted cash is held by Issuer and relates to the Securitization. As part of the transaction, Issuer established certain cash and money market mutual fund accounts in the name of a financial institution (the "Trustee") for the benefit of the Trustee and the noteholders and are restricted in their use. Restricted cash held by Issuer is comprised of cash collections and reserves held by the Trustee to be used for payments of principal, interest, commitment fees and other permissible operating expenses required for the notes of Issuer.

Accounts and Notes Receivable

Accounts receivable and notes receivable consist primarily of national account revenue due from customers, royalties and franchise fees due from franchisees and amounts financed for franchisees through our financing entity. Accounts receivable are carried at their net realizable value. The Company accounts for credit losses using the Current Expected Credit Loss (CECL) model detailed in the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326). The Company's expected loss allowance methodology for accounts receivable is developed using historical collection experience, current and future economic and market conditions and a review of the current status of customers' trade accounts receivable. Due to the short-term nature of such receivables, the estimate of accounts receivable that may not be collected is based on aging of the accounts receivable balances and consideration of customers' financial and macroeconomic conditions. Balances are written off when determined to be uncollectible. The Company considered the current and expected future economic and market conditions surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic and determined that the estimate of credit losses was not significantly impacted.

Estimates are used to determine the allowance. It is based on an assessment of anticipated payment and all other historical, current and future information that is reasonably available.

(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Less: Allowance for credit losses	(0.4)	(0.3)	(0.7)
Receivables, net of allowance	$ 38.4	$ 9.7	$ 48.1

Deferred Customer Acquisition Costs

Customer acquisition costs, which are incremental and direct costs of obtaining a customer, are deferred and amortized over the expected customer relationship period.

Inventories

Inventories are recorded at the lower of cost (primarily on a weighted-average cost basis) or net realizable value. Our inventories primarily consists of finished goods to be used on the customers' premises or sold to franchisees.

Property and Equipment and Intangible Assets

Property and equipment consist of the following:

(in millions)	As of December 31, 2020	Estimated Useful Lives (Years)
Leasehold improvements	$ 1.8	5 – 15
Technology and communications	5.8	3 – 7
Machinery and equipment	1.0	3 – 9
Office equipment, furniture and fixtures	0.5	3 – 7
Less: Accumulated depreciation	(0.9)
Property and equipment, net	$ 8.2

Depreciation of property and equipment was $0.9 million for the three months ended December 31, 2020.

Property and equipment and intangible assets with finite lives are depreciated and amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. These lives are based on our previous experience for similar assets, potential market obsolescence and other industry and business data. As required by accounting standards for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets, property and equipment and finite-lived intangible assets are tested for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If the carrying value is no longer recoverable based upon the undiscounted future cash flows of the asset, an impairment loss would be recognized equal to the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of the asset. Changes in the estimated useful lives or in the asset values could cause us to adjust its book value or future expense accordingly.

Indefinite-lived intangible assets, primarily trade names, are assessed annually for impairment during the fourth quarter or earlier upon the occurrence of certain events or substantive changes in circumstances. The Company performed an annual impairment analyses as of October 1, 2020 which did not result in any trade name impairments to continuing operations. See Note 4, Intangible Assets, for our intangible asset balances.

Member's Equity

Our equity on the consolidated statement of financial position represents RW Purchaser's net investment in us and is presented as Member's equity. Member's equity includes net cash transfers and other net asset transfers to and from RW Purchaser and us.

Revenue

(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND FOR THE
PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

Royalty fees

The Company has franchise agreements in the ServiceMaster Restore, ServiceMaster Clean, Merry Maids, Furniture Medic and AmeriSpec businesses. Royalty fee revenue consists principally of sales-based royalties received as part of the consideration for the franchise right and is calculated as a percentage of customer-level revenue. Royalty Fees are recognized at the agreed-upon contractual rates over time as the customer-level revenue is generated by the franchisees. A receivable is recognized for an estimate of the unreported royalty fees, which are reported and remitted to us in arrears.

Franchise Fees

Initial franchise fees result from the sale of a franchise license, which includes the use of the name, trademarks and proprietary methods. The franchise license is considered symbolic intellectual property and revenue related to the sale of this right is recognized at the agreed-upon contractual amount over the term of the initial franchise agreement.

We have contractual arrangements with several national insurance companies to maintain a call center which receives and provides nonrecurring recovery and restoration referrals from the insurers to qualifying franchisees. We receive and recognize referral fees from franchisees at the agreed-upon contractual amount as revenue in the month the referral is issued. The Company also collects a renewal fee from Franchisees based on the terms of the initial franchise agreement entered into between the Company and franchisees.

We recognize revenue from Company owned locations at the point in time when services are provided to the customer.

Commercial cleaning national accounts

National account revenues are recognized at the agreed-upon contractual amounts over time as services are completed based on contractual arrangements to provide services at the customers' locations. The Company engages either a franchisee or third-party business to perform the services. Under these agreements, the Company is directly responsible for providing the services and receive payment directly from the customer. A receivable is recorded related to this revenue as the Company has an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment. Payments are typically received shortly after services have been rendered.

Sales of products

Revenues are generated from selling products to franchisees. Revenues from product sales are generally recognized once control of the products transfers to the customer. A receivable is recorded related to these sales as the Company has an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment. Payments are typically received shortly after a customer is invoiced.

National advertising fund

Franchisees contribute a percentage of customer-level revenue into a national advertising fund managed by us. In cases where we have ultimate control of the marketing and advertising, we recognize both revenue and expense for the amount earned.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed when the advertising occurs. Advertising costs for the three months ended December 31, 2020 were $4.4 million and are included in selling and administrative expenses. Advertising costs include national advertising fund expenses of $2.8 million for the three months ended December 31, 2020, for which there is an equal amount recorded in revenue for the three months ended December 31, 2020.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single-member, limited liability corporation which has elected not to be taxed as a corporation, and consequently is not subject to U.S. federal or state income taxes. As such, for income tax purposes, the Company's earnings flow through directly to the Member.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income represents net income for the period plus the results of certain other changes in Member's equity. The Company's comprehensive income is equal to its net income.

Newly Issued Accounting Standards

Accounting Standards Issued But Not Yet Effective

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848) – Facilitation of the Effects of Reference Rate Reform on Financial Reporting. The amendments in this ASU provide guidance aimed at easing the potential burden in accounting for or recognizing the effects of reference rate reform on financial reporting. In response to concerns about structural risks of interbank offered rates (IBORs), and, particularly, the risk of cessation of the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR), regulators in several jurisdictions around the world have undertaken reference rate reform initiatives to identify alternative reference rates that are more observable or transaction based and less susceptible to manipulation. The amendments in this ASU are effective for all entities as of March 12, 2020 through December 31, 2022. The Company's debt agreements utilize LIBOR and have not yet discontinued its use. We plan to apply the amendments in this ASU to account for contract modifications due to changes in reference rates when applicable. We do not expect these amendments to have a material impact on our financial statements and related disclosures.

In January 2021, the FASB issued ASU No. 2021-02, Franchisors – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606). The amendments in this ASU introduce a new practical expedient that simplifies the application of the guidance about identifying performance obligations. The practical expedient permits franchisors that are not public business entities to account for pre-opening services provided to a franchisee as distinct from the franchise license if the services are consistent with those included in a predefined list within the guidance. The new standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this ASU will have on its financial statements and related disclosures.

We have reviewed all other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and do not expect the future adoption of any such pronouncements will have a material impact on our financial condition or the results of our operations.

Note 3. Revenue

The following table presents our revenues, disaggregated by revenue source. We disaggregate revenue from contracts with customers into major customer acquisition channels. We determined that disaggregating revenue into these categories achieves the disclosure objective to depict how the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Costs to Obtain a Contract with a Customer

SERVICEMASTER OPCO HOLDINGS, LLC AND SUBSIDIARIES
(AN INDIRECT, WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF RW PURCHASER, LLC)
PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2020 (INCEPTION) TO DECEMBER 31, 2020

The Company capitalizes the incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer, primarily commissions, and recognizes the expense on a straight-line basis, as adjusted to match the timing of revenue recognition, over the expected customer relationship period. As of December 31, 2020, there was an immaterial amount of activity related to capitalizable cost to obtain a contract.

Contract Balances

We record a receivable related to revenue recognized on services once we have an unconditional right to invoice and receive payment in the future related to the services provided. All accounts receivables are recorded within accounts receivables, less allowances, on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Deferred revenue from initial franchise fees represents a contract liability and is recognized when cash payments are received in advance of the performance of services, including when the amounts are refundable. Amounts are recognized as revenue in proportion to the costs expected to be incurred in performing services under our contracts.

Revenue is recognized net of any taxes collected from customers, which are subsequently remitted to taxing authorities.

Note 4. Intangible Assets

The table below summarizes the other intangible asset balances:

As of December 31, 2020
(in millions)	Gross		Accumulated Amortization	Net

Customer relationships		43.4		0.9
Other		125.6		2.6
Total	$	1,410.5	$	3.5
				$ 1,407.0

(1) Not subject to amortization

Amortization expense of $3.5 million was recorded in the three months ended December 31, 2020. For the existing intangible assets, we anticipate amortization expense of $14.0 million per year for the years ending December 31, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025.

Note 5. Commitments and Contingencies

We lease certain property and equipment under various operating lease arrangements. Most of the property leases provide that we pay taxes, insurance and maintenance applicable to the leased premises. As leases for existing locations expire, we expect to renew the leases or substitute another location and lease. Please refer to Note 8, Leases, for further details.

In the ordinary course of conducting business activities, we are and may in the future become involved in various litigation and claims incidental to our business. Although the outcome of these matters cannot be predicted with certainty and some of these matters may be resolved unfavorably to the Company, based on currently available information, including legal defenses available to the Company and its legal reserves and insurance coverages, the Company does not believe that the outcome of these legal matters will have a material adverse effect on its consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

Interest Reserve Letter of Credit

In connection with the Securitization, a commercial bank issued an interest reserve letter of credit in an amount up to $8.9 million in favor of Citibank N.A. (the “Trustee”) for the benefit of the senior noteholders and/or the servicer of the Securitization (each, a “Beneficiary”). The $8.9 million funds will be made available to either Beneficiary in order for the Company to comply with the required interest reserve amounts pursuant to the Indenture (as defined in Note 7, Long-term Debt). The terms of the letter of credit automatically renew without an amendment on each anniversary of the date of issuance for a one-year period with a final expiry date of January 15, 2027. The Company intends to renew the letter of credit for as long as the Company holds the Notes (as defined in Note 7, Long-term Debt). No amounts have been drawn under the letter of credit as of December 31, 2020.

Note 6. Employee Benefit Plans

The Company did not have employee benefit plans in place as of December 31, 2020. However, employees received compensation in lieu of a 401(k)-employer match in the amount of, and recognized as an expense of $0.2 million, for the three months ended December 31, 2020 which was recorded in selling and administrative expenses on the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive income.

Note 7. Long-term Debt

Securitized Notes

In connection with the Securitization, on December 9, 2020 the Co-Issuers entered into an agreement (the “Indenture”) pursuant to which the Co-Issuers issued $250,000,000 of Series 2020-1 2.841% Fixed Rate Senior Secured Notes, Class A-2-I (the “Class A-2-I Notes”), $450,000,000 of Series 2020-1, 3.337% Fixed Rate Senior Secured Notes, Class A-2-II (the “Class A-2-II Notes”), and $50,000,000 of variable funding notes, Class A-1 (the “Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes” and, collectively with the Class A-2-I Notes and the Class A-2-II Notes, the “Notes”). Interest will accrue on the Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes at a variable rate depending on the outstanding amount drawn by the Co-Issuers from time to time thereunder, if any. The legal final maturity date of the Notes is in January 2051. As of December 31, 2020, no amounts were outstanding under the Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes. Unless earlier prepaid to the extent permitted, the Indenture provides for an anticipated repayment date of January 2028 for the Class A-2-I Notes and an anticipated repayment date of January 2031 for the Class A-2-II Notes (as applicable, the “Anticipated Repayment Date”). The lending commitment under the Series 2020-1 Class A-1 Notes will expire in January 2026, subject to two automatic annual renewals at the election of the Co-Issuers if certain conditions are met. The Class A-2-I Notes were allocated to the Issuer and Canada Limited in the amount of $226,750,000 and $23,250,000, respectively. The Class A-2-II Notes were allocated to the Issuer and Canada Limited in the amount of $408,150,000 and $41,850,000, respectively.

The Company incurred $18.1 million of debt issuances costs directly attributable to the Notes. The debt issuance costs were capitalized and are shown net of the long-term debt on the consolidated statement of financial position. The debt issuance costs are amortized straight-line over the term of the Notes. For the Three Months Ended December 31, 2020, the Company recognized $0.2 million of amortization expense of debt issuance costs related to the Notes.

The Notes are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Co-Issuers and the Guarantors. The Notes are subject to a series of covenants and restrictions customary for transactions of this type, including (i) debt service coverage ratios and senior leverage ratios, (ii) maintenance of specified reserve accounts to be used to make required payments in respect of the Notes, and (iii) provisions relating to optional and mandatory prepayments, including certain make-whole payments. The Notes are also subject to customary rapid amortization events provided for in the Indenture and customary events of default. The Indenture also provides for quarterly principal amortization in respect of the Class A-2-I Notes and the Class A-2-II Notes equal to 0.25% of their original principal amount through their respective Anticipated Repayment Date, subject to a fall-away provision if the senior leverage ratio is less than a specified threshold on any quarterly test date.

Outstanding debt as of December 31, 2020 consists of the following:

Finance leases are included in property and equipment, net; current portion of finance lease liability and long-term finance lease liability and long-term debt on the consolidated statement of financial position.

We participate in a fleet agreement which allows us to obtain fleet vehicles through a leasing program. Vehicle leases have remaining lease terms of less than one year to eight years. For vehicle leases, we account for the lease and non-lease components separately.

Operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments, including fixed non-lease components, over the lease term at commencement date. Lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that we will exercise that option. Leases, including subleases, with a lease term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the consolidated statement of financial position. Lease expense for minimum lease payments and fixed non-lease components is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

As of December 31, 2020, assets recorded under finance leases were $0.7 million and accumulated depreciation associated with finance leases was $0.1 million. The operating lease cost component of lease expense was $0.3 million. The finance lease cost, depreciation of finance lease ROU assets, short-term lease cost and variable lease cost components of lease expense were immaterial.

As the rates implicit in our leases are not readily determinable, we use a collateralized incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the lease commencement date in determining the present value of future payments. We use

State Addenda to FDD and Franchise Agreement (where applicable)

ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The following information applies to franchises and Franchisees subject to the California Franchise Investment Act. Item numbers correspond to those in the main body:

1. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. Item 1. Item 1 is amended to state the following:

“Commencing in December 2019 and continuing throughout the first quarter of 2020, the COVID-19 virus began spreading throughout the world including the first outbreak in the US in February. COVID-19 has significantly disrupted, and continues to significantly disrupt, local, regional, and global economies and businesses. Franchised Businesses were impacted by COVID-19 and local shelter-in-place orders, but, due to the nature of their business, Franchised Businesses did not have to significantly change their operations. During the pandemic, most Franchised Businesses have focused on picking up furniture from customer locations to provide the services at the Franchised Business’ workshop and on servicing jobs on-site where customers would not be present.”

3. Item 3. Item 3 is amended to provide that neither Furniture Medic nor any other person identified in Item 2 is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

4. Item 6. Item 6 is amended to note that the highest interest rate permitted by law in California is 10%.

5. Item 10. Item 10 is amended to note that before offering financing in California, RWL will obtain any licenses required under the California Financing Law, if any.

6. Item 11. Item 11 is amended to note that as a result of COVID-19, we have begun to offer an online version of our initial training program and have been able to accommodate all franchisees who elect to attend the program. We may discontinue this online training program once it is safe to do so. The pandemic has not impacted the time it takes to open a Franchised Business.

7. Item 17. The following disclosures are added to Item 17:

A. The Franchise Agreement may contain a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

B. California Business & Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

C. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires Furniture Medic to give the Franchisee a disclosure document, in a form and containing such information as the Commissioner may by rule or order require, prior to a solicitation of a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.

D. The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec.101 et seq.)

E. The Franchise Agreement requires you to sign a general release if you transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).

F. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Georgia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

G. The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

H. The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration to be conducted in the metropolitan area of our then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia). You are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Franchise Agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

I. OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF OUR WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

This Addendum relates to franchises sold in the state of California and is intended to comply with California statutes and regulations. In consideration of the execution of the Franchise Agreement (“Agreement”), the parties agree to amend the Agreement as follows:

Article V: FRANCHISEE’S OBLIGATIONS, Section T.2., is amended by the addition of the following language at the end of the paragraph:

“The Franchisee’s obligations stated in this Section T.2. shall apply only where the fulfillment of such obligations would inherently call upon the Franchisee to disclose and/or use any portion of the Franchisor’s trade secrets or other confidential information. All other provisions of this agreement apply and will be fully enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law whether or not California law applies.

Article VIII: VIOLATION AND TERMINATION shall be supplemented by the following paragraphs:

“The Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).”

Article IX: RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARTIES UPON EXPIRATION, TERMINATION OR NON-RENEWAL is amended by the addition of the following language that appears therein:

“Sections 20000 through 20043 of the California Business and Professions Code provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law still controls.

“The Agreement contains a covenant not to compete, which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.”

Article XII: ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION is amended by the addition of the following language that appears therein:

“The Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in the metropolitan area of the Franchisor’s then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia) with the costs being borne by the non-prevailing party to the arbitration. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.”

Article XIII: MISCELLANEOUS, is amended by the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

“The Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Georgia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.”

[Signature page follows.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed, sealed, and delivered this Addendum to the Agreement on the same day and year that the Agreement has been executed.

2. Item 1. Item 1 is amended by the addition of the following language to the original language that appears therein:

If you intend to restore, repair or provide rejuvenation services for cabinetry, wood paneling or other similar fixtures, you may be required to obtain a contractor's license. The State of Hawaii has enacted a statute which requires persons providing certain services, the value of which exceeds $1,000, who are defined as contractors, to obtain a license from the state prior to providing such services. This statute is not specifically applicable to persons who restore or rejuvenate furniture or other similar surfaces. Rather, it is generally applicable to all persons who fall within the state's definition of contractor. ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
FOR THE STATE OF VIRGINIA

The following information applies to franchises and Franchisees subject to Virginia statutes and regulations. Item numbers correspond to those in the main body.

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

This Addendum relates to franchises sold in the state of Washington and is intended to comply with Washington statutes and regulations. In consideration of the execution of the Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”), Furniture Medic SPE LLC (the “Franchisor”) and Franchisee agree to amend the Agreement as follows:

The state of Washington has a statute, RCW 19.100.180 which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.

RCW 19.100.010(7), (12) and Franchise Act Policy Statement 6 may require franchisees who receive financial incentives to refer franchise prospects to the Franchisor to register as franchise brokers in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee shall not include rights under the Washington Franchise Protection Act except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Article III.A. of the Franchise Agreement is revised to add the following:

The Washington Department of Financial Institutions Securities Division requires the franchisor to defer collection of the Initial Franchise Fee until the franchisor has fulfilled its initial pre-opening obligations under this Agreement and the franchisee is open for business.

Article XIII.S.6 of the Franchise Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety.

- 4.01 Exercise all the rights, powers and privileges reserved or granted to Borrower as an owner of the Collateral to take possession, manage, control, direct and otherwise deal with the Collateral, including without limitation, the right to collect and receive all funds, issues, proceeds, or any part thereof, and to apply the same to the payment of the Indebtedness (whether or not due and in any order of priority as may be selected by Company, in its sole discretion); and/or

4.2 APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS OF COLLATERAL. All proceeds of sale of any of the Collateral by Company as herein provided shall be applied in the following order of priority:

- 5.03 Applicable Law, Jurisdiction and Venue. The laws of the State of Georgia shall govern this Security Agreement. In all legal proceedings or actions brought under this Security Agreement, the Borrower submits to the exclusive personal jurisdiction and venue of the federal or state courts located in the metropolitan area of Company's then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia) and waives all defenses to lack of personal jurisdiction, forum non conveniens, or other inconvenient forum defense.
- 5.04 Signature. For the sake of expediency in providing financing and funding to the Borrower under the Note, the Borrower (as well as any other guarantor or obligor hereof) agree, as an express inducement to Company to provide such financing, that: (a) the Company may elect to rely upon any e-signature, fax or electronically transmitted signature to this Note (as well as any Agreement, guaranty, security instruments or other documents pertaining hereto) as if the same were an original signature hereto or thereto; and (b) upon any such e-signature, fax or electronic transmission of a signature hereto or to any such other instrument, the Borrower (and/or guarantor or other respective signatory[ies]) covenants, represents and warrants to Company that the original of such executed Agreement, Note, guaranty, security instrument or other such documents exist and have been validly executed and are the property of the Company and that such original(s) instrument(s) are possessed and held "in trust" by such Borrower or signatory for the express benefit of Company and will promptly be delivered to the Company as the Company.

- 5.05 Attorney Fees and Costs. - 5.06 Severability. If any provision of this Security Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the term hereof, such provision shall be fully severable, and this Security Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof; and the remaining provisions of the Security Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision or by its severance from this Security Agreement.

THE UNDERSIGNED Borrower individually or through its principal(s) has read the foregoing Security Agreement, understands the terms contained therein, and agrees to be bound as of «NOTE DATE».

1. In consideration of the Business Note and Security Agreement dated «NOTE DATE» and any other credit or other financial accommodation heretofore or hereafter extended by RW LOANCO II LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, or its successors or assigns (“Company”) to «CUSTOMER NAME» (“Borrower”), the undersigned (“Guarantor”) hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees prompt payment when due and at all times thereafter of any and all existing and future Indebtedness and liabilities of every nature and kind, including all renewals, extensions and modifications thereof, now or hereafter owing from Borrower to Company, however and whenever created, arising, evidenced or acquired, and all interest accrued thereon (collectively the “Indebtedness”). The Indebtedness includes any and all Indebtedness and obligations now or hereafter owing to company by Borrower, regardless of whether any such indebtedness or obligation is (a) not presently intended or contemplated by Borrower, Company or Guarantor, (b) indirect, contingent or secondary, or (c) unrelated to, or of a different kind of class from, any indebtedness or obligations of Borrower or Company that are now owing or are committed or contemplated.
2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the liability of Guarantor to Company under paragraph 1 shall not exceed an amount equal to the sum of (a) $Unlimited (“Base Amount”) and (b) Guarantor’s Pro Rata Share of unpaid interest accrued from time to time upon the Indebtedness. Guarantor’s Pro Rata Share as of any given date shall be determined by applying to all unpaid accrued interest as of such date a percentage that shall be the lesser of (i) 100% or (ii) the percentage obtained by dividing the Base Amount by the aggregate unpaid principal balance of the Indebtedness outstanding immediately after the last principal advance made by Company to Borrower prior to such date. The granting of credit from time to time to Borrower by Company in excess of the Base Amount shall not affect or impair the liability of Guarantor hereunder. Any maximum amount of Guarantor’s liability provided for under this paragraph 2 shall not be reduced by any payments or collections upon the Indebtedness received by Company from Borrower or any Source other than Guarantor.
3. Guarantor shall reimburse Company for all costs, attorneys’ fees and other expenses at any time expended or incurred by Company in the collection or attempted collection of the Indebtedness or in the enforcement of this Guaranty or the realization upon any security for this Guaranty.
4. The effectiveness of this Guaranty is not subject to the satisfaction of any conditions, including, without limitation, execution of this or another Guaranty, or the granting of any other security, by any other person, firm or corporation. Company may grant or continue credit to Borrower from time to time without giving notice to, or obtaining consent from, Guarantor. Company shall not be obligated at any time, whether in connection with the granting of credit to Borrower or otherwise, to make any factual disclosure to Guarantor, including without limitation, any disclosure concerning Borrower’s financial condition, assets, liabilities, activities or operations or the status of the Indebtedness or of any other security for the Indebtedness. The execution of this Guaranty by Guarantor does not create any obligation or duty of Company to grant or continue credit to Borrower.
5. Company in its sole discretion may, without affecting, impairing or reducing this Guaranty, (a) apply payments or collections received from any source to the payment of indebtedness other than the Indebtedness, even though Company could have applied those payments to the Indebtedness and (b) apply payments or collections received from

Guarantor or from any present or future security for this Guaranty to the liability of Guarantor under this Guaranty or to any liability of Guarantor for payment to Company of any other Indebtedness. Any payments or collection that Company applies to the liability of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be applied to costs or expenses described in paragraph 3, to the interest on or principal of the Indebtedness or to other components of the Indebtedness all in such manner as Company in its sole discretion shall determine.

6. Guarantor will not exercise or enforce, and hereby waives, any right of contribution, reimbursement, recourse or subrogation available to Guarantor against Borrower or any other person liable for payment of all or part of the Indebtedness, or as to any security therefore, unless and until all of the Indebtedness is paid in full and discharged.
7. Guarantor warrants and represents to Company that all financial statements and other information concerning Guarantor furnished to Company are true and correct in all material respects; that execution, delivery and performance of this Guaranty by Guarantor will not violate any law, rule, judgment, order, agreement or instrument binding upon Guarantor, nor require the approval of any public authority or other third party; and that this Guaranty constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable in accordance with its terms. If Guarantor is a corporation, partnership, association, trust or other entity, Guarantor further represents and warrants to Company that Guarantor is duly organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state indicated next to its name below; that Guarantor has full power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Guaranty; that the execution, delivery, and performance hereof by Guarantor have been duly authorized by all necessary action of Guarantor's board of directors, partners, trustees or other governing body and will not violate Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation, bylaws, partnership agreement, articles of association, trust agreement or other governing instrument, nor require the approval of its shareholders or members or of any of its partners, other than those whose signatures appear below.
8. Guarantor waives (a) notice of the acceptance of this Guaranty and of the extension or continuation of all or any part of the Indebtedness, (b) presentment, protest, notice, demand or action with respect to any default in payment of all or any part of the Indebtedness and with respect to any default by Guarantor in Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty, and (c) any right to require Company to sue Borrower, any other guarantor or any other person obligated with respect to all or any part of the Indebtedness or to foreclose or realize upon any security for all or any part of the Indebtedness.
9. If this Guaranty is terminated or revoked, it shall continue in effect as to all Indebtedness incurred, arising or committed for before the termination or revocation, including any extensions, renewals or modification of such Indebtedness made after the termination or revocation. A notice of revocation must be in writing and shall not be effective until it is received by Company. If more than one person has executed this Guaranty, a notice of revocation shall be effective only as to the person or entity giving the notice, and this Guaranty shall continue in effect to each person or entity not giving the notice.
10. The validity and enforceability of this Guaranty shall not be impaired or affected by any act or omission by Company (whether occurring before or after receipt by Company of notice of termination of this Guaranty) with respect to all or part of the Indebtedness or any agreement relating thereto or with respect to any present or future guaranty or other security for all or part of the Indebtedness, including, but not limited to, (a) any extension, modification, renewal, indulgence, or substitution; (b) any failure or omission to enforce any right, power or remedy; (c) any waiver of any right, power or remedy or of any default; (d) any release, surrender, compromise, settlement, subordination or modification, with or without consideration; (e) the unenforceability or invalidity thereof; (f) any failure by Company to perfect or secure any priority of its rights with respect to any security; or (g) any consent by Company to any sale or transfer of any security, all whether or not the undersigned shall have had notice or knowledge of any act, omission or circumstance referred to in this paragraph.
11. The liability of Guarantor hereunder is joint and several and independent of any other guaranties or obligations at any time in effect with respect to all or any part of the Indebtedness and may be enforced regardless of the existence, validity, enforcement or non-enforcement of any such other guaranties or other obligations. If more than one person or entity has executed this Guaranty, Company is authorized to release or modify the obligations of or surrender any security given by or waive any rights against any of those who have executed this Guaranty, without in any manner affecting or impairing the liability of the other persons or entities.

12. Guarantor waives any and all defenses, claims and discharges of Borrower or any other obligor with respect to the Indebtedness, except the defense of discharge by payment. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor will not assert, plead or enforce against Company any defense of waiver, release, discharge in bankruptcy, statute of limitations, res judicata, statute of frauds, anti-deficiency statute, fraud, incapacity, minority, usury, ultra vires, lack of authorization, illegality or unenforceability that may be available to Borrower or any other person liable in respect of any Indebtedness or any setoff available against Company to Borrower or any such other person, whether or not on account of a related transaction. Guarantor shall be liable for any deficiency remaining after foreclosure of or realization upon any security for all or part of the Indebtedness, whether or not the liability of Borrower or any other obligor for the deficiency is discharged pursuant to statute or judicial decision.
13. If any payment applied by Company to the Indebtedness is set aside, recovered, rescinded or required to be returned for any reason (including, without limitation, the bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of Borrower or any other obligor), the Indebtedness to which the payment was applied shall for the purposes of this Guaranty be deemed to have continued in existence, notwithstanding the application, and this Guaranty shall be enforceable as to such Indebtedness as fully as if Company had not made the application.
14. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty are secured by any and all security agreements, guaranties, mortgages, pledge agreements, assignments and all other security documents and instruments heretofore or hereafter given by Guarantor or any third party to Company ("Security Documents"), including, but not limited to, Security Documents given in connection with or referred to in any prior guaranty or other document evidencing any liability of Guarantor to Company. Any requirement of reasonable notice with respect to any sale or other disposition of collateral shall be met if Company sends the notice at least five days before the sale or other disposition.
15. This Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state of Georgia, without giving effect to principles of conflict of laws. Guarantor irrevocably agrees and consents that any action against Guarantor for collection or enforcement of this Guaranty may be brought in any state or federal court that is located in, or whose district includes, the metropolitan area of Company's then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia) and that any such court shall have personal jurisdiction over Guarantor for purposes of that action.

GUARANTOR KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING THIS GUARANTY IT HAS GIVEN UP ITS RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

16. This Guaranty embodies the entire agreement between Guarantor and Company with respect to the subject matter hereof. There are no promises, terms, conditions, or obligations other than those contained herein. This Guaranty may not be modified except by writing signed by the party to be charged. In this Guaranty, "Guarantor" means each, all and any of those who have executed this Guaranty.
17. This Guaranty shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Company and Guarantor, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns.
18. For the sake of expediency in providing financing and funding to the Borrower, Guarantor agrees as an express inducement to Company to provide such financing that: (a) Company may elect to rely upon any fax or electronically transmitted signature to this Guaranty as if the same were an original signature hereto; and (b) upon any such fax or electronic transmission of a signature hereto, Guarantor has covenanted, represented and warranted to Company that the original of such executed document exists and has been validly executed and is the property of Company, and that such original instrument(s) are possessed and held "in trust" by such Guarantor for the express benefit of Company and will promptly be delivered to the Company as the Company may further direct.

GUARANTOR ACKNOWLEDGES HAVING READ ALL OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS GUARANTY, INCLUDING THOSE APPEARING ON THE OTHER PAGES.

If Guarantor is a corporation, partnership, association, trust or other entity, Guarantor further represents and warrants to Company that Guarantor is duly organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state indicated next to its name below; that Guarantor has full power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Guaranty; that the execution, delivery, and performance hereof by Guarantor have been duly authorized by all necessary action of Guarantor's board of directors, partners, trustees or other governing body and will not violate Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation, bylaws, partnership agreement, articles of association, trust agreement or other governing instrument, nor require the approval of its shareholders or members or of any of its partners, other than those whose signatures appear below.
8. Guarantor waives (a) notice of the acceptance of this Guaranty and of the extension or continuation of all or any part of the Indebtedness, (b) presentment, protest, notice, demand or action with respect to any default in payment of all or any part of the Indebtedness and with respect to any default by Guarantor in Guarantor's obligations under this Guaranty, and (c) any right to require Company to sue Borrower, any other guarantor or any other person obligated with respect to all or any part of the Indebtedness or to foreclose or realize upon any security for all or any part of the Indebtedness.
9. If this Guaranty is terminated or revoked, it shall continue in effect as to all Indebtedness incurred, arising or committed for before the termination or revocation, including any extensions, renewals or modification of such Indebtedness made after the termination or revocation. A notice of revocation must be in writing and shall not be effective until it is received by Company. If more than one person has executed this Guaranty, a notice of revocation shall be effective only as to the person or entity giving the notice, and this Guaranty shall continue in effect to each person or entity not giving the notice.
10. The validity and enforceability of this Guaranty shall not be impaired or affected by any act or omission by Company (whether occurring before or after receipt by Company of notice of termination of this Guaranty) with respect to all or part of the Indebtedness or any agreement relating thereto or with respect to any present or future guaranty or other security for all or part of the Indebtedness, including, but not limited to, (a) any extension, modification, renewal, indulgence, or substitution; (b) any failure or omission to enforce any right, power or remedy; (c) any waiver of any right, power or remedy or of any default; (d) any release, surrender, compromise, settlement, subordination or modification, with or without consideration; (e) the unenforceability or invalidity thereof; (f) any failure by Company to perfect or secure any priority of its rights with respect to any security; or (g) any consent by Company to any sale or transfer of any security, all whether or not the undersigned shall have had notice or knowledge of any act, omission or circumstance referred to in this paragraph.

11. The liability of Guarantor hereunder is joint and several and independent of any other guaranties or obligations at any time in effect with respect to all or any part of the Indebtedness and may be enforced regardless of the existence, validity, enforcement or non-enforcement of any such other guaranties or other obligations. If more than one person or entity has executed this Guaranty, Company is authorized to release or modify the obligations of or surrender any security given by or waive any rights against any of those who have executed this Guaranty, without in any manner affecting or impairing the liability of the other persons or entities.
12. Guarantor waives any and all defenses, claims and discharges of Borrower or any other obligor with respect to the Indebtedness, except the defense of discharge by payment. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Guarantor will not assert, plead or enforce against Company any defense of waiver, release, discharge in bankruptcy, statute of limitations, res judicata, statute of frauds, anti-deficiency statute, fraud, incapacity, minority, usury, ultra vires, lack of authorization, illegality or unenforceability that may be available to Borrower or any other person liable in respect of any Indebtedness or any setoff available against Company to Borrower or any such other person, whether or not on account of a related transaction. Guarantor shall be liable for any deficiency remaining after foreclosure of or realization upon any security for all or part of the Indebtedness, whether or not the liability of Borrower or any other obligor for the deficiency is discharged pursuant to statute or judicial decision.
13. If any payment applied by Company to the Indebtedness is set aside, recovered, rescinded or required to be returned for any reason (including, without limitation, the bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of Borrower or any other obligor), the Indebtedness to which the payment was applied shall for the purposes of this Guaranty be deemed to have continued in existence, notwithstanding the application, and this Guaranty shall be enforceable as to such Indebtedness as fully as if Company had not made the application.
14. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty are secured by any and all security agreements, guaranties, mortgages, pledge agreements, assignments and all other security documents and instruments heretofore or hereafter given by Guarantor or any third party to Company ("Security Documents"), including, but not limited to, Security Documents given in connection with or referred to in any prior guaranty or other document evidencing any liability of Guarantor to Company. Any requirement of reasonable notice with respect to any sale or other disposition of collateral shall be met if Company sends the notice at least five days before the sale or other disposition. This Guaranty is secured by a security interest in certain collateral described in a security agreement or mortgage or other document of security to be executed concurrently herewith by the undersigned. The specific security given by Guarantor to secure this Guaranty is: real property located in the County of «COUNTY, PROPERTY PHYSICAL ADDRESS». Guarantor agrees promptly upon the execution of this Guaranty to execute and deliver such papers and forms as shall be deemed by Company to be necessary or advisable to create a perfected security interest in such collateral. The collateral may include any property and/or securities delivered to Company and by any substitutions therefore or additions thereto which may be hereafter made, and by any and all monies, securities or property of Guarantor that may have been or may be hereafter pledged to or come into possession of Company. Proceeds will be applied first to attorneys' fees and costs, then to interest, and then to the principal indebtedness.
15. This Guaranty shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state of Georgia, without giving effect to principles of conflict of laws. Guarantor irrevocably agrees and consents that any action against Guarantor for collection or enforcement of this Guaranty may be brought in any state or federal court that is located in, or whose district includes, the metropolitan area of Company's then-current principal place of business (currently, Atlanta, Georgia) and that any such court shall have personal jurisdiction over Guarantor for purposes of that action.

GUARANTOR KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THAT BY SIGNING THIS GUARANTY IT HAS GIVEN UP ITS RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

16. This Guaranty embodies the entire agreement between Guarantor and Company with respect to the subject matter hereof. There are no promises, terms, conditions, or obligations other than those contained herein. This Guaranty may not be modified except by writing signed by the party to be charged. In this Guaranty, "Guarantor" means each, all and any of those who have executed this Guaranty.
17. This Guaranty shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Company and Guarantor, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns.
18. For the sake of expediency in providing financing and funding to the Borrower, Guarantor agrees as an express inducement to Company to provide such financing that: (a) Company may elect to rely upon any fax or electronically transmitted signature to this Guaranty as if the same were an original signature hereto; and (b) upon any such fax or electronic transmission of a signature hereto, Guarantor has covenanted, represented and warranted to Company that the original of such executed document exists and has been validly executed and is the property of Company, and that such original instrument(s) are possessed and held "in trust" by such Guarantor for the express benefit of Company and will promptly be delivered to the Company as the Company may further direct.
