What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends that franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit F.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out of State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and area development agreement require you to resolve disputes with us by mediation or litigation only in Ohio. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost you more to mediate or litigate with us in Ohio than in your own state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
3. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliate, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices that the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchised business.
4. Unopened Franchises. The franchisor has signed a significant number of franchise agreements with franchisees who have not yet opened their outlets. If other franchisees are experiencing delays in opening their outlets, you also may experience delays in opening your own outlet.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

Handel's Enterprises, LLC is referred to in this Disclosure Document as "Franchisor," "we," "us," or "our." "You," "your," or "Franchisee" means the person who buys the franchise and includes your owners and principals if you are a corporation, limited liability company, or other business entity.

The Franchisor

We are a Delaware limited liability company. We were originally organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Ohio on March 1, 1998, and we converted to a Delaware limited liability company on October 10, 2019, in connection with the ClearLight Transaction discussed below. We maintain our principal place of business at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406. We conduct all general business under our corporate name and registered trade name "Handel's."

We grant qualified individuals and entities the right to establish and operate a business that establishes and operates one ice cream parlor that sells homemade ice cream, sherbet, ices, and other ice cream products under the Handel's trademark (the "Handel's Franchise") and any other proprietary marks and names we use now or may designate in the future (collectively, the "Proprietary Marks"), as well as the proprietary business system that is described more fully below in this Item (the "System"). We have offered Handel's Franchises since 1989. We do not operate businesses of the type being franchised. You must use our trademarks, service marks, trade names, and other commercial symbols for your franchises, which we have designated in Schedule A to the Franchise Agreement. Our agents for service of process are listed in Exhibit E to this Disclosure Document. Other than the aforementioned services, we do not engage in any other business activities and have not offered franchises in any other line of business.

Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

Our ultimate parent is Handel's Holdco, LLC ("Holdco"). On October 24, 2019, Holdco, through its subsidiary Handel's Intermediate Holdco, LLC ("Intermediate"), and through Intermediate's subsidiary, Handel's Group, LLC ("H Group"), acquired all of the ownership interests in Handel's Enterprises, LLC. Holdco's majority owner is ClearLight Partners III, LLC ("CLP"), a Delaware limited liability company. This transaction is referred to as the "ClearLight Transaction." Holdco, Intermediate, and H Group, are all Delaware limited liability companies, and were formed as a part of the ClearLight Transaction to facilitate the purchase of the ownership interests in Handel's Enterprises, LLC. The principal business address of Holdco, Intermediate, H Group, and CLP is 100 Bayview Circle, Suite 5000, Newport Beach, California 92660. Neither Holdco, Intermediate, H Group nor CLP offer or sell franchises, provide goods or services to any of the Handel's Franchises or franchisees, or own or operate any Handel's Parlors. One of CLP's investment companies owns a majority stake in Austin Fitness Group, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, which is a multiple unit franchisee and area representative of OrangeTheory Fitness studios in multiple states.

Our affiliate, Handel's Incorporated of Youngstown, LLC ("Handel's of Youngstown"), is a Delaware limited liability company. Handel's of Youngstown was originally formed as an Ohio corporation on January 6, 2005, and as part of the ClearLight Transaction, Handel's of Youngstown converted to a Delaware limited liability company. Its principal place of business is located at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406. Since 2005, Handel's of Youngstown has operated businesses under the "Handel's" mark that are similar to the Handel's Franchises offered under this Disclosure Document at various locations in Ohio. As of December 31, 2025, Handel's of Youngstown operated one Handel's Parlor.

Our affiliate, Handel's Bub, LLC ("Bub"), is a Delaware limited liability company. Bub, Inc. was originally formed as an Ohio corporation on June 19, 1995, and as part of the ClearLight Transaction, Bub, Inc. was converted to a Delaware limited liability company under the new entity name of Handel's Bub, LLC. Bub's principal place of business is located at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406. Since 1995, Bub has operated businesses under the Handel's mark that are similar to the Handel's Franchises offered under this Disclosure Document at various locations in Ohio. As of December 31, 2025, Bub operated four Handel's Parlors.

Our affiliates, Buckhead I, LLC and Midtown I, LLC, are Delaware limited liability companies formed on September 22, 2023, with an address at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406. Since 2024, each has operated a business under the "Handel's" mark that are similar to the Handel's Franchises offered under this Disclosure Document in Georgia.

Our affiliate, Handel's GiftCo ("GiftCo"), LLC, is an Ohio limited liability company. GiftCo administers the Handel's gift card redemption program. GiftCo was formed on February 8, 2023, and its principal place of business is located at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406.

Our affiliates have not offered franchises in other lines of business.

Except for those stated in this section, we do not have any other parents, predecessors, or affiliates that offer or operate franchises in any line of business or otherwise are involved in any other business activity.

The Franchise Offered

We offer to individuals and entities a franchise agreement (the "Franchise Agreement"), attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B, which grants you the right to establish and operate a Handel's ice cream parlor ("Parlor"). The Parlor is operated from a free standing, end-cap, or in-line structure designed and constructed to our specifications and our unique trade dress. Some Parlor's have drive-thru lanes, but this is not required. Adequate parking facilities are important to the success of the Parlor. The distinguishing characteristics of a Parlor include distinctive exterior and interior design, color scheme, fixtures and furnishings, menus, recipes, methods, uniform standards, procedures for management control, training and assistance, and advertising and promotional programs, all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by us.

You may acquire franchise rights to operate one Parlor upon the company's approval by executing our then-current franchise agreement and paying our then-current franchise fee.

If you operate an existing Parlor and you meet our then-current criteria, we may grant you the right to enter into a Mobile Unit Addendum in order to operate a mobile "Mobile Unit" pursuant to the terms of the Mobile Unit Addendum (the "Mobile Business"). The distinguishing characteristics of a Mobile Business include proprietary standards and specifications for food preparation and service; the vehicle that will serve as the Mobile Unit (the "Approved Vehicle"); interior and exterior designs and color schemes; standard specifications for equipment, designs and displays; sales techniques, merchandising, marketing, advertising, and inventory management systems; and procedures for operating and managing a Mobile Unit, all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by us.

The ice cream and frozen dessert industry is highly competitive, with national and regional chains, including other franchised brands. There are also many individually-owned ice cream parlors which would be similar to and competitive with us. In addition, there are other frozen dessert brands that are not ice cream, such as frozen yogurt. You will also face competition from ice cream and frozen desserts sold in grocery stores and other retail locations. Ice cream and frozen dessert products are somewhat seasonal and may sell better in warm weather.

Multi-Unit Offering

We also offer qualified individuals and entities the right to open and operate multiple Parlors within a designated geographical area (the “Development Area”) under our current form of area development agreement that is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit C (the “Development Agreement”), which will also outline a schedule or defined period of time in which you must open and commence operating each Parlor (a “Development Schedule”). Failure to comply with the Development Schedule is grounds for immediate termination of the Development Agreement.

At our option, you will be required to sign a Franchise Agreement for your initial Parlor at the same time you sign your Development Agreement, and you will eventually need to sign our then-current form of franchise agreement for each of the Parlors you open under the Development Schedule that may be different from the form of franchise agreement in this offering.

Industry-Specific Regulations

Your Parlor will be subject to federal, state, county, and municipality laws and regulations. You must investigate all applicable laws and regulations, and your cost to comply with such laws and regulations, and you should do so before purchasing a franchise from us.

Most locations require a “Food Service License” and a “Vendor’s License” in order to operate the Parlor. Most states require a food service license and other licenses for the preparation and sale of food and drink to the public, and these licenses must be maintained in good standing.

OSHA and health regulations as well as other state and local specific safety and workplace regulations may affect the types of safety devices and equipment you must make available to or be required to offer to your employees. These can vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction and specific inquiry should be made with your state and local authorities.

We are not presently aware of any other regulations or special permits required for you to operate your Handel’s Franchise. Applicable laws and regulations are subject to change. Specific inquiry should be made with your state and local authorities.

ITEM 3 LITIGATION

Chelsi Hendrix, as class representative, v. Handel's Enterprises, LLC, No. 2:25-cv-01428-SCR, United States District Court for the Eastern District of California. On May 21, 2025, a lawsuit was filed by Chelsi Hendrix, a consumer, on her behalf and on behalf of a proposed class of California consumers, against Handel's Enterprises, LLC ("Handel's"). It is alleged that Handel's violated the California Consumers Legal Remedies Act, the California False Advertising Law, the California Unfair Competition Law, and that Handel's purportedly breached an express and implied warranty and otherwise engaged in unfair and fraudulent conduct by marketing the ice cream sold at its locations as "homemade ice cream since 1945" and as containing only "the best" or "finest" "ingredients available," as the Plaintiff claims certain ingredients in some ice cream products have been altered since 1945 and contended that the ice cream is therefore not a healthy product as she understood it to be. The parties settled the dispute with a payment to plaintiff and her attorneys, and Handel's agreed to update the nutritional information it makes available to consumers.

Commissioner of Business Oversight v. Handel's Enterprises, Inc. and Leonard J. Fisher, Fil. Org. ID 160301, dated December 3, 2018. As part of a larger dispute with a Handel's franchisee in Encinitas, that franchisee sought to rescind his agreement based on the provision to him of a previously approved franchise disclosure document while approval of an amended disclosure was pending with the California Department of Business Oversight ("DBO"). Specifically, the Encinitas franchisee had been given, and made a partial deposit based on, a disclosure document approved by the DBO in 2015. Months later, Handel's made certain changes to the provisions of the disclosure to allow franchisee to apply for Small Business Administration loans. As required, Handel's submitted those changes to the DBO in January 2016. During the pendency of the DBO's review, the Encinitas franchisee executed the earlier-approved disclosure. The DBO denied the request to rescind the franchise agreement and ordered Handel's to not sell franchises in violation of the California Franchise Laws, and that Handel's and Leonard Fisher pay an administrative penalty of $5,000 per violation to the State of California to pay attorneys' fees and administrative expenses to the DBO in the amount of $13,200 as reimbursement for the costs associated with the investigation into this matter. The terms of the DBO Order were satisfied by Handel's in February of 2019.

Other than these two actions, no other litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4 BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 5

INITIAL FEES

Franchise Agreement

Initial Franchise Fee

Upon execution of the Franchise Agreement, in order to obtain or commence the Franchise operation, you must pay us a lump sum of $50,000 (the “Initial Franchise Fee”). The Initial Franchise Fee is fully earned and non-refundable in consideration of administrative and other expenses incurred by us in entering into the Franchise Agreement, and for our lost or deferred opportunity to enter into the Franchise Agreement with others. We offer no financing, direct or indirect, for the Initial Franchise Fee. During our past fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, the Initial Franchise Fee was uniform and in the amount of $50,000.00.

Opening Equipment and Flavorings

Before you open the Business, you must order certain equipment and liquid flavorings from us and/or our affiliates. The estimated range of the initial purchases is between $187,000 and $255,000 for the Handel’s dipping and holding cabinets, your opening inventory of ice cream and liquid flavorings, and other required equipment and opening inventory you must purchase from us to open your Business.

Mobile Unit Addendum

Mobile Unit Fee

If you are an existing Handel’s franchisee and you meet our then-current criteria, we may grant you the right to enter into a Mobile Unit Addendum in order to operate a Mobile Unit from an Approved Vehicle pursuant to the terms of the Mobile Unit Addendum (the “Mobile Business”). The initial fee to operate a Mobile Business is $2,500 for a single Mobile Unit. We may grant you the right to add additional Mobile Units to your Mobile Business for an additional fee of $2,500 per vehicle.

Point of Sale System

Before you open the Mobile Business, you must purchase and install a full mobile unit point of sale package from us, which includes a tablet, printer, cash drawer, firewall, and terminal device. The estimated cost range for this package is $4,350 to $5,000.

Development Agreement

If we grant you the right to open multiple Parlors under a Development Agreement, you must pay us a development fee that is based on the number of franchises we grant you the right to open within your Development Area (the “Development Fee”).

Development Fee for Three or More Parlors

The initial portion of the Development Fee (which we refer to as your “Initial Development Fee”) is due upon execution of your Development Agreement and is equal to $25,000 for each Parlor that you are granted the right to open under the Development Agreement.

Thereafter, you will be required to pay a subsequent portion of the Development Fee amounting to $25,000 in connection with each Parlor we grant you the right to open within your Development Area (the “Subsequent Development Payment”) when you sign a Franchise Agreement in connection with that Parlor, which in no event will be later than the date you sign a lease for the approved site of the Parlor. In the event the initial franchise agreement for the right to open and operate the first Parlor under your Development Agreement is executed contemporaneously with the Development Agreement, you will be required to pay the full $50,000 Development Fee for that Parlor at the time you execute the Development Agreement.

The Development Fee and Initial Development Fee are paid as consideration for the territorial rights you are granted within your Development Area and are not tied to any pre-opening obligations that we must otherwise perform. You will be required to enter into our then-current form of franchise agreement for each Parlor you wish to open under your Development Agreement. You will not be required, however, to pay an Initial Franchise Fee in connection with any Parlor we grant you the right to open as part of your Development Agreement, but the Development Fee must be timely paid as described in this Item. The Development Fee is deemed fully earned and non-refundable upon execution of your Development Agreement.

Notes:

1. Except where otherwise noted, all fees are payable to us, are non-refundable, and are uniformly imposed on franchisees entering into our current form of Franchise Agreement.
2. "Gross Revenue" means the total revenue generated by your Parlor, including all revenue generated from the sale and provision of any and all products and services offered at your Parlor which shall include, without limitation, all take-out, dine-in, delivery and catering orders, all payments in cash, credit or other payment method, as well as all proceeds from any business interruption insurance you receive with respect to the Business, but excluding the face-value of all Handel's approved promotional discount coupons accepted by you from your customers and all sales and use tax you properly collect and pay to the appropriate government authority. Each installment or credit sale that is made, regardless of when you receive payment, will be treated as a sale at the full sales price. Notes:

1. Amount. Except where otherwise noted, all fees that you pay to us are non-refundable. Third party lessors, contractors and suppliers will decide if payments to them are refundable. We do not offer direct or indirect financing.
2. Initial Fee. You pay us the Initial Franchise Fee as more fully described in Item 5.
3. Real Property and Construction Costs. Our estimate of your initial investment assumes that you are leasing a location and that you are not capitalizing your lease. That is, you are not adding your lease or rent payments to your initial investment. If you purchase land that we approve, and build to our specifications, your initial investment will increase by the land cost and at least an additional $300,000.00 for land improvements and building costs. The low-end estimate includes tenant improvement allowances or other contributions by the landlord. You must use our approved local real estate broker. The high-end estimate is based on a 1,900 to 2,300 square foot walk-in facility. The standard size of a walk-up facility is 1,500 to 1,800 square feet. If you require a larger facility, your cost may increase accordingly. Local zoning may restrict your ability to operate a business from certain locations. You should make a specific inquiry. The cost will vary depending on the condition of the location for the Parlor. You will also need to install indoor and outdoor signage, but that cost is not included in this item (see Note 4 below). You must use an approved, licensed general contractor to oversee the construction of the Parlor. The design of your parlor is important to us, and we have the right to review and accept all plans and specifications and to confirm that the construction is completed in conformance with our architectural and design standards and specifications.

4. Signage and Outdoor Fixtures. You will need to install indoor and outdoor signage. At a minimum, this will include at least one illuminated sign on the exterior of your Parlor (subject to local law). Signage requirements will vary depending on whether your location has any interior space accessible to customers. If your location has an outdoor patio/seating area, you will need to install outdoor fixtures, which might include benches, tables, and umbrellas. You must use our approved signage vendor for purchase, permitting and installation.
5. Equipment. You must lease or purchase the furniture, fixtures and equipment, including the point-of-sale system, as we may require in the Manuals (See Item 8). The cost to purchase the furniture, fixtures and equipment depends on the make, model, and whether new or used equipment is required and the range above does not include any applicable sales tax. The size, age and layout of your building is also a significant factor in your cost analysis. If you chose to include a drive-thru feature, you will incur additional equipment costs. You will need to install fixtures, furnishings and items which comply with our specifications. You must purchase or lease certain items of equipment, including specific batch freezers, holding and dipping cabinets, sinks and cooler space. The estimated equipment cost also includes the cost of ice cream flavorings, gift cards, and stickers which you must purchase directly from us.
6. Opening Advertising. We will determine your required Opening Advertising spend based on the specific requirements of your territory and market (up to a maximum of $10,000). You must expend the required amount during a period beginning 30 days prior to opening your Parlor, until the date 60 days thereafter. This expenditure will be used for media buys and promotional items, as well as social media and other online marketing programs. We will provide you with a personalized Opening Advertising schedule setting forth your required expenditure and any other requirements for how such expenditures must be made at least 60 days prior to the scheduled opening of your Parlor.
7. Pre-Opening Salaries and Travel Expenses. You will incur salary, travel and lodging expenses for your attendance at our initial training program. Training consists of 10-14 days at a location designated by Handel's Ice Cream, which will include the franchisee (or your principal) and at least one other person for each parlor - who are persons (including the franchisee, if applicable) that will be employed full time at the parlor. The cost will depend on the distance you must travel and the type of accommodations you choose.
8. Start Up Supplies. We estimate that the range given will be sufficient to cover supplies of certain ice cream mixes and products, and cleaning, office and general supplies for a ten-day period following the opening of your Parlor. Except as described below, we will not offer, directly or indirectly, any arrangements for financing your initial investment or the operation of your business. The estimated cost of Start Up Supplies does not include the cost of ice cream flavorings, gift cards, and stickers which you must purchase directly from us. These costs are included under the "Equipment" heading.

9. Insurance. The figures in the chart are annual expenses of $1,200 to $8,000. In rare cases, you will be required to pay the entire annual premium initially.
10. Utility Deposits. You will need to provide deposits for utilities. The amount of such deposits will vary depending upon the practices of the utility companies.
11. Architect Designs. You must use one of our pre-approved, licensed architects. The approved architect must provide us with a test fit for a location that is under consideration to ensure the potential site will meet our brand standards and is operationally viable. Once your test fit is approved the architect must prepare preliminary and final architectural and engineering drawings for the Parlor, for our approval, in accordance with our standard plans.
12. Professional Fees. You may desire to employ an attorney, accountant and other consultants.
13. Drive Thru Loops, Timer and Signage. If you choose to include a drive-thru feature, you will incur expenses to design and install drive-thru loops, timers and signage.
14. Additional Fees. You will need capital to support ongoing expenses, such as payroll and utilities, to the extent that these costs are not covered by sales revenues. We estimate that the amount given will be sufficient to cover ongoing expenses for the start-up phase of the business, which we calculate to be three months. This is only an estimate, however, and there is no assurance that additional working capital will not be necessary during this start-up phase or after.
15. Total. In preparing the figures in Item 7, we relied upon our thirty years' experience in the industry, including information we gathered from current franchisees that have opened a Handel's ice cream parlor in the past three years.

2. Initial Fee. You pay us the Mobile Unit Fee as more fully described in Item 5.
3. Mobile Unit Purchase Price. Our estimate of your initial investment assumes that you are purchasing or leasing a mobile unit. The minimum size requirement for the mobile unit is 8 x 10. The cost will vary depending on the condition of the mobile unit you purchase.
4. Outfitting and Equipment Cost. Includes design and layout and all labor to complete the outfitting of the mobile unit. In addition, the purchase of fixtures, furnishings and equipment are included in the outfitting cost. You must lease or purchase the fixtures, furnishings and equipment, as we require in the Manuals (See Item 8). The cost to purchase the fixtures, furnishings and equipment depends on the make, model, and whether new or used equipment is required. The size and layout of your mobile unit is also a significant factor in your cost analysis. You will need to install fixtures, furnishings and items which comply with our specifications. You must purchase or lease certain items of equipment, including freezers, holding and/or dipping cabinet, sinks and generator.
5. Vehicle Wrap. You must install a branded vehicle wrap on your mobile unit to comply with our branding standards. The wrap must be purchased from an approved vendor. The cost of the wrap typically ranges from $2,500 to $8,000, depending on vehicle size and location. This cost includes design, printing, and professional installation.
6. Point of Sale System. You must purchase and install a full mobile unit POS package from us. This package includes a tablet, printer, cash drawer, firewall, and terminal device.
7. Licenses Bonds and Permits. You are responsible for obtaining all licenses, permits, and bonds required to operate the mobile unit in compliance with local, state, and federal laws. These may include business licenses, mobile vendor permits, vehicle operating permits, parking or health department approvals (if applicable), and bonding requirements. Costs vary depending on your location, the type of services offered, and local regulations.

8. Insurance. The figures in the chart are annual expenses of $500 to $3,500. In rare cases, you will be required to pay the entire annual premium initially.
9. Additional Funds. You will need capital to support ongoing expenses to the extent that these costs are not covered by sales revenues. We estimate that the amount given will be sufficient to cover ongoing expenses for the start-up phase of the mobile unit, which we calculate to be three months. This is only an estimate, however, and there is no assurance that additional working capital will not be necessary during this start-up phase or after.
10. Total. In preparing the figures in Item 7, we relied upon our over thirty years' experience in the industry, including information we gathered from current franchisees that we have permitted to operate mobile units similar to this offer in the past three years.

C. Development Agreement

YOUR ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT¹

Type of Expenditure	Amount	Method of Payment	When Due	To Whom Payment Is to be Made
Development Fee ²	$100,000	Lump Sum	Upon execution of Development Agreement	Franchisor
Initial Investment to Open Initial Parlor ³	$354,500 to $993,700	See Chart A of this Item 7.
TOTALS	$454,500 to $1,093,700	This is the total estimated initial investment to enter into a Development Agreement for the right to own a total of three (3) Parlors, as well as the costs to open and commence operating your initial Parlor for the first three (3) months (as described more fully in Chart A of this Item 7).

Notes:

1. General Note. All fees and payments are non-refundable, unless otherwise stated or permitted by the payee. This Chart details the estimated initial investment associated with executing a Development Agreement for the right to own and operate three (3) Parlors, as well as the initial investment to open your first Parlor under your Development Schedule.
2. Development Fee. The Development Fee is described in greater detail in Item 5 of this Disclosure Document, and this Initial Development Fee is for the right to open and operate a total of three (3) Parlors (provided you comply with your development obligations under the Development Agreement), as well as the Subsequent Development Fee for your first Parlor. You will also be required to pay a Subsequent Development Fee equal to another $25,000 for each remaining Parlor when you sign a Franchise Agreement in connection with each Parlor, which in no event will be more than seven days from the date we accept a proposed site for each Parlor.

3. Initial Investment to Open Initial Parlor. This figure represents the total estimated initial investment required to open the initial Parlor you agreed to open and operate under the Development Agreement. You will be required to enter into our then-current form of franchise agreement for the initial Parlor you open under your Development Agreement, either at the time you execute the Development Agreement or once you have found a Premises for the business that we approve. The range includes all the items outlined in Chart 7.A. of this Item, except for the Initial Franchise Fee (because you are not required to pay any Initial Franchise Fee for those Parlors you open under the Development Agreement). It does not include any of the costs or Subsequent Development Fees you will incur in opening any additional Parlor(s) that you are granted the right to open and operate under your Development Agreement.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

To ensure that the highest degree of quality and service is maintained, you must operate all aspects of your Parlor in strict conformance with the methods, standards and specifications of our System. Our methods, standards, and specifications will be communicated to you in writing through our confidential Manuals and other proprietary guidelines and writings that we prepare for your use in connection with the Parlor and System. We may periodically change our System standards and specifications from time to time as we deem appropriate, including without limitation, to reflect the changing market and/or to meet new and changing consumer demands, and to preserve and enhance the image of the System and the operations of Handel's Parlors.

We negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers of some equipment and supplies for the benefit of franchisees.

Approved Products and Services

You must purchase and install, at your expense, our trade dress, all service mark decals, and equipment (including food service equipment, an 8 X 14 walk in cooler, Handel's batch freezers, Handel's dipping and holding cabinets, ice cream scoops, buckets, containers, Point of Sale system with kitchen display system integration, interior signage, menu boards, uniforms) as we may reasonably direct periodically. You must not install or permit to be installed on any of the public areas of your business, letterhead or advertising, without our prior written consent, any signs, or other items not previously approved as meeting our standards and specifications.

Except as provided in the Franchise Agreement, all products sold or offered for sale at the Business must meet our then-current standards and specifications, as established in our Confidential Operations Manual and Parlor Manual (the "Manuals") or otherwise in writing. You must purchase all products solely from suppliers who demonstrate to our continuing reasonable satisfaction the ability to meet our standards and specifications, who possess adequate quality controls and capacity to supply your needs promptly and reliably, and who have been approved by us in the Manuals or otherwise in writing ("Approved Suppliers"). We will provide you with a list of our then-current Approved Products, along with their corresponding proprietary recipes and standards and specifications for storage/preparation/presentation, as part of the Manuals or otherwise in writing prior to the opening of your Parlor. We may update or modify this list in writing at any time.

At different times of the year, suppliers may or may not offer a rebate program to us or you. You will purchase products from the same Approved Suppliers we and the system use, thus benefiting from our volume buying. Subject to our approval of alternative suppliers, all purchases are made through our distribution channel. The products or services we require you to purchase or lease from an Approved Supplier, or purchase or lease in accordance with our standards and specifications, are referred to collectively as your “Required Purchases.” We estimate that your Required Purchases will account for approximately 75% of all purchases you will make in establishing the Business and 95% of all purchases in operating the Business.

We may, but are not obligated to, grant your request to offer any products or services in connection with your Parlor that are not Approved Products and Services, or purchase any item or service we require you to purchase from an Approved Supplier from an alternative supplier. If you desire to purchase products from other than Approved Suppliers, you must submit to us a written request to approve the proposed supplier. You must provide us with any additional documentation we require to determine if the alternative product or supplier conforms with our specifications. Specifications and standards of our supplies and equipment are not issued to you, but they are issued to our suppliers. You must pay our then-current supplier or non-approved product evaluation fee when submitting your request. If you make such a proposal, we reserve the right to charge you the greater of the costs/expenses we incur in evaluating/testing your proposal, or $3,000 per proposal. We may ask you to submit samples or information so that we can make an informed decision whether the goods, equipment, supplies or supplier meet our specifications and quality standards. In evaluating a supplier that you propose to us, we consider not only the quality of the particular product at issue, but also the supplier’s production and delivery capability, overall business reputation and financial condition. We will have the right to require that our representatives be permitted to inspect the supplier’s facilities, and that samples from the supplier be delivered for evaluation and testing either to us or to an independent testing facility designated by us. A charge not to exceed the reasonable cost of the evaluation and testing must be paid by you. We will, within 30 days after our receipt of the completed request and completion of the evaluation and testing (if required by us), notify you in writing of our approval or disapproval of the proposed supplier.

You must not sell or offer for sale any products of the proposed supplier until our written approval of the proposed supplier is received. We may periodically revoke our approval of particular products or suppliers when we determine, in our sole discretion, that the products or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Upon receipt of written notice of this revocation, you must cease to sell any disapproved products and cease to purchase from any disapproved supplier. You must use products purchased from approved suppliers solely for the purpose of operating your Parlor and not for any other purpose.

Currently, you must purchase the following items from us or our affiliates: our Handel’s dipping and holding cabinets, batch freezers, our opening and ongoing inventory of ice cream and liquid flavorings, gift cards, signs and stickers for the Parlor, the point-of-sale system, and other miscellaneous items. You must purchase from Approved Suppliers certain ice cream and topping ingredients, small wares, other required equipment, paper goods, cleaning supplies and other products. You are also required to engage certain professional service providers who we have designated as Approved Suppliers, including architect, engineers, general contractor, and real estate broker.

You must use a real estate broker for site selection in your market that we have designated and approved. You must also engage an architect that we have designated and approved. In addition, your Parlor must be constructed by a general contractor we have designated and approved. We reserve the right to designate or approve alternative brokers, architects, and contractors in the area where your Parlor is located. You must also purchase fresh fruit and other food ingredients from local suppliers in accordance with our requirements and as detailed in the Manuals.

We receive revenue from our sale of required items from you. In addition, some suppliers will pay us a commission based on sales of products or other items to franchisees. These commissions may be calculated as a percentage of sales or may be a fixed amount per order. Currently, we receive a percentage rebate on certain franchisee purchases, or alternatively, a rebate per unit of certain products purchased by our franchisees. Also, some suppliers may pay a rebate directly to franchisees based on franchisee sales. As of our fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, Handel's Enterprises, LLC derived $8,747,668, or 43%, of its total revenue of $20,565,082 as a result of required franchisee purchases and leases.

There are no provisions made on income for any lease agreements. We or our affiliates have not received any other consideration from any purchase agreements.

We do not provide material benefits to a franchisee based on a franchisee's use of designated or approved sources.

We are an approved supplier of liquid flavorings for flavors of ice cream. We reserve the right to derive a profit from the sale of all such products. There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives for any of the items described above. No officer of the Franchisor owns an interest in any supplier.

Insurance

You must purchase and maintain the types and amounts of insurance as set forth in the Operations Manual, which currently requires comprehensive public liability and property damage insurance including personal and bodily injury liability, contractual liability, hired and non-owned automobile liability, owned automobile liability (if applicable), employers' liability, and owners and contractors protective insurance coverage with respect to the business and anyone performing services on its behalf, for at least two million ($2,000,000) dollars per occurrence. You must obtain the requisite insurance from an insurance company with a Best's Insurance Guide minimum rating of A- or better. If you choose to lease office space, you must maintain any additional insurance required by your landlord or under applicable law. You must furnish us with certificates of insurance (or, at our request, copies of all insurance policies), evidencing the existence and continuation of the insurance coverage required by the Franchise Agreement upon the opening of your Franchised Business.

If you have a Mobile Business, in addition to the required above, you will also be required to obtain a commercial automobile policy with $1,000,000 liability coverage per occurrence, as well as comprehensive collision coverage, including uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage. Title to the vehicle must be held by the same entity which operates your Parlor.

All policies must contain a waiver of subrogation in our favor, and must name us, our affiliates, and any additional parties that we designate as additional insured (except with regards to workers' compensation insurance). You or your insurance carrier must notify us of any reductions in coverage or cancellation 30 days before such reduction or cancellation will be in effect.

We will provide to you periodically, as we deem appropriate, advice and written materials concerning techniques of managing and operating your Parlor, including required and suggested recipes, serving methods, portion control, sales methods, new developments and improvements in equipment, services and marketing techniques. Refer to Franchise Agreement Sections 4.09, 4.10, 5.05, and 10.01–10.04.
2. We will conduct, as we deem advisable, inspections of your Parlor. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 12.01.
3. We will make available to you, for sale on such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate, equipment, supplies, forms, and signs and decals. We provide these items directly, or through our affiliates. We or our affiliates will deliver these items. See Item 8 for a description of equipment and products for which we provide specifications. Refer to Franchise Agreement Sections 4.09–4.11, 5.02, 5.08, 5.10 and 10.01.
4. We will make available to you occasionally, at your expense, advertising plans and promotional materials, including newspaper, coupons, merchandising materials, sales aids, special promotions, direct mail materials, and similar advertising and promotional materials. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 10.01.
5. During the first week of operation, we will furnish to you, at your request and at our expense, one (1) of our representatives for the purpose of facilitating the opening of your Parlor. That representative will also assist you in establishing and standardizing procedures and techniques essential to the operation of your distinctive Parlor, and, if necessary and requested by you, will assist in hiring and training your personnel. Refer to Franchise Agreement Sections 4.05, 4.07–4.08.
6. We will also provide a continuing advisory service which will include, but not be limited to, in our discretion, consultation on technical, business or operational problems. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 4.09.
7. We will initially and occasionally when available, offer to you materials and bulletins on food preparation, marketing developments, products, and techniques either without charge or according to then-current price lists. Refer to Franchise Agreement Sections 4.09–4.10.
8. You will be required to purchase the point of sale (“POS”) system that we designate from time to time, as described in the Manuals. This will include the addition of a kitchen display system (“KDS”), and the current estimated cost to purchase the POS system, and KDS will range from $13,000 to $22,000.00. You will be responsible for the maintenance of both systems and must undertake and acquire such equipment or software as may be necessary to integrate the POS and third-party systems from time to time, and there is no limit on the costs you may incur to maintain them. We will have independent access to information and data that is electronically collected. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 11.02.
9. Conduct ongoing or additional training for your managers and your employees, at your expense. Refer to Franchise Agreement Sections 4.04 and 4.07.
10. Lend you a sample advertising program, flyers, and other promotional materials relating to the programs as we deem appropriate. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 10.01.

11. We reserve the right to establish pricing of products offered by your Parlor to the fullest extent permitted by then-applicable law to enhance the competitive position and consumer acceptance of such products consistent with the long-term interest of the System. Refer to Franchise Agreement Section 5.06.

We are not obligated to provide any other supervision, assistance, or services in connection with the ongoing operation of your Parlor. Any duty or obligation imposed on us by the Franchise Agreement may be performed by us or any of our designees, employees, or agents.

Computer Hardware and Software

Before opening your parlor, you must obtain the then-current computer hardware and software we require all franchisees to have and use in their Business. Generally, we require you to have a POS system for use in the Business, one desktop or laptop computer for general business use, and certain computer software, as we determine and describe in the Manuals. We may change the computer hardware and software that you are required to use in your Business from time to time (including, without limitation, the required POS and KDS system), and there is no limit to the costs you will incur in any calendar year for these expenses. You must employ a qualified bookkeeper we approve or use QuickBooks or any other accounting/bookkeeping software we designate from time to time, and provide all reports generated by such software or bookkeeper in the standardized format and with such data as we require.

You are also required to participate in any System-wide area computer network, intranet system, or extranet system that we implement, and may be required to use such networks or system to, among other things, submit your reports due under the Franchise Agreement to us online, view and print portions of the Manuals, download approved local advertising materials, communicate with us and other System franchisees, and complete certain components of any ongoing training we designate.

We reserve the right to formulate and modify our standards and specifications for operating a Business. This includes requiring that you take all steps, including but not limited to those related to visibility and management of your Business that are necessary to ensure that your business is compliant with all data privacy and security laws and Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI DSS) requirements, as such standards may be revised and modified by the PCI Security Standards Council (see pcisecuritystandards.org), or such successor organization or standards that we may reasonably specify. Our standards and specifications are described in the Franchise Agreement, the Operations Manual, and other written documents. We have the right, under the Franchise Agreement, to change the standards and specifications applicable to operation of the franchise, including standards and specifications for Approved Services and Products, equipment, signs, furnishings, supplies, fixtures, inventory, computer systems (hardware, software, applications, data network and internet connection minimum bandwidth capacities), privacy policies, encryption requirements, data and IT security policies - including implementation of phishing and other security awareness programs and training, cyber incident notification requirements, and Artificial Intelligence policies by written notice to you or through changes in the Operations Manual. We may issue our standards or specifications for goods and services, and changes to those standards and specifications, in writing directly to you or our approved supplier. You may incur an increased cost to comply with these changes at your own expense.

Training Programs

Approximately 45 days prior to the opening of your Parlor, we will provide training for the people who will be involved in operating your business. The cost of this training for two individuals is included in your Initial Franchise Fee, and we will train others for an additional fee (see Item 6). You must pay for travel, lodging, meals and expenses you incur in attending training. If the franchisee is an entity, an owner who owns at least 5% of the equity interests in the entity must attend and successfully complete training and personally participate in the direct management operation of the Franchised Business on a full-time basis. The second individual must also have an active management role in the Parlor and be over the age of 18. Any persons subsequently employed by you in any such management or supervisory position must also attend and complete our training program, to our satisfaction. You and your manager must also attend such additional courses, seminars, and other training programs as we may reasonably require periodically.

All training programs will be at such times and places as may be designated by us. You will be required to pay our then-current Training Fee for all additional training courses, as well as all costs and expenses for our instructors and/or your attendees to attend additional training. You or your employees will be responsible for all other expenses incurred by you or them in connection with any such courses, seminars, and programs, including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages. At our option, you must also reimburse us for any expenses incurred by our employees in providing training at your location.

The initial training program will be approximately 10-14 days in duration, consisting of both personal instruction and on-the-job training, and is conducted on an as-needed basis. The initial training program will be conducted at our headquarters (or another training Parlor we designate) and in your Designated Territory (as defined in Item 12) during the initial opening of your business. The instructional materials include the Manuals, handouts, and written presentations.

The initial training program will be conducted by (1) Leslie Christiansen, who has been with us for 23 years; (2) Tiffany Dugan, who has been with us for 15 years; (3) Hunter Silveus who has been with us for 7 years; and (5) Kaylee Davis, who has been with us for 8 years.

We may use third-party resources or suppliers for any of the training so that we may provide you with relevant and timely training.

In addition to our initial training program, if you are opening your first Parlor, we will provide on-site assistance immediately prior to or during your grand opening period for no additional fee. We will be responsible for travel, lodging, meals and all related expenses of the training personnel we send to provide this on-site assistance. Typically, we will provide support staff for seven to ten days, depending on the independent judgment of our staff on site. This time is not included in the total time disclosed in the chart below, which describes the subjects covered in the initial training program:

TRAINING PROGRAM

Subject	Hours of Class Room Training	Hours of On the Job Training	Location
Personnel Management	0	2	Canfield, OH or other training facility we designate (which may include your Parlor).

Upon your reasonable request, we will attempt to provide additional training or other assistance as needed in order to help you handle unanticipated problems as they arise. You must pay our then-current Training Fee (currently, $500 per day, plus costs and expenses) and reimburse us for our expenses in providing this assistance.

Advertising and Promotion

You must spend up to $10,000 on advertising of the opening of your Parlor during the 30 days immediately before and 60 days immediately following the opening of your Parlor. We will notify you of your required opening advertising expenditure at least 60 days prior to your opening date in a personalized opening advertising schedule, which may also set forth additional guidelines or requirements in connection with this expenditure. All opening advertising expenditures must be approved by us. Recognizing the importance of promoting your Franchised Business within your Designated Territory and surrounding area, you must expend no less than one percent (1%) of the Gross Revenue of your Parlor each calendar month (based on the Gross Revenue of the Parlor during the preceding calendar month) on local advertising and marketing (the “Local Advertising Requirement”). You must use only those materials that we have previously approved or designated, and we may require that you provide us with reports and other evidence of your local advertising expenditure each month.

All advertising and promotion by you must be in such media and of such type and format as we may approve, must be conducted in a dignified manner, and must conform to such standards and requirements as we may specify. You may not use any advertising or promotional plans or materials unless and until you have received written approval from us, pursuant to the procedures and terms set forth in the Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual, including but not limited to advertising, social media, promotional plans, marketing materials, and in-store signage and graphics. We are not required to spend any amount on advertising in your Designated Territory.

You must submit samples of all advertising and promotional plans and materials to us, for our prior approval (except with respect to prices to be charged) if such plans and materials have not been prepared or previously approved by us. You must not use the plans or materials until they have been approved in writing by us.

We will have the right, in our discretion, to designate any geographic area for purposes of establishing a “Cooperative” for advertising purposes, and to determine whether a Cooperative is applicable to the Parlor. We also have the power to require a Cooperative to be changed, dissolved, or merged. If a Cooperative has been established applicable to your Parlor at the time you commence operations under the Franchise Agreement, you must immediately become a member of the Cooperative. If a Cooperative applicable to your Parlor is established at any later time during the term of the Franchise Agreement, you must become a member of the Cooperative no later than 30 days after the date on which the Cooperative commences operation. If your Parlor is within the territory of more than one Cooperative, you are required to be a member of only one Cooperative. Any contributions you are required to make as part of a Cooperative will be credited against your required Local Advertising Requirement. All businesses owned and controlled by us and our affiliates, and located within the geographic area of the Cooperative, will also become a member of the Cooperative and will contribute to the Cooperative on the same basis as other members.

We have established a System-wide Brand Fund (the “Fund”) for the benefit of the entire System and will begin requiring franchisee contributions to the Fund beginning later in 2026. We intend to use the Fund to meet certain costs related to maintaining, administering, directing, conducting and preparing advertising, marketing, public relations, and/or promotional programs and materials, and any other activities which we believe will enhance the image of the System. Currently, you must contribute one percent (1%) of Gross Revenue to the Fund, but you may be required to contribute up to two percent (2%) of Gross Revenue (the “Fund Contribution”). Certain existing franchisees, based on the specific terms of their current franchise agreement, are not presently required to contribute to the Fund. Affiliate-owned Parlors may contribute to the Fund in the same manner that each franchised Parlor is required to contribute, however not all Affiliate-owned Parlors will be required to contribute to the Fund. The Fund may be used for any and all costs of maintaining, administering, directing, preparing advertising materials/campaigns, public relations, and promotional content (both local/regional and national in content), including but not limited to cause marketing initiatives, employing advertising agencies to assist the Fund, paying the costs of salaries, benefits, and overhead expenses of our employees and independent contractors who provide services which are related to the Fund or to the planning and execution of promotional advertising and public relations activities, paying the cost of meetings of franchisee groups that advise us on advertising and promotional issues, fund the cost of any customer relations programs (either internally or externally administered), and creating or providing printed materials, branded promotional items, direct mail and outdoor billboard advertising, in-store sales materials, radio or television for local, regional or national circulation, cost of hosting, updating, and maintaining websites, social media accounts and other digital regional or national advertising, local marketing, brand and parlor design, and any other activities which we believe will enhance the goodwill and image of the System as we deem appropriate in our sole and absolute discretion. We may use the fund to develop or implement training programs, outreach, or technologies that will enhance the reputation and strengthen the goodwill of the Handel’s brand. We and/or a regional or national advertising agency may be used to produce all advertising and marketing.

We are not required to spend any of your Fund Contributions in the Territory you are granted under your Franchise Agreement nor are we required to make expenditures for you that are equivalent or proportionate to your Fund Contribution or to ensure that any particular franchisee or any particular geographic region benefits directly or pro rata from the placement of advertising or marketing efforts by the Fund. Except for a portion of the Fund spent on website development and maintenance (a portion of which may include soliciting the sale of franchises using the website), we do not presently intend to use the Fund primarily to solicit new franchise sales but reserve the right to include “Franchises Available” or similar language with our contact information on any advertising paid for or created with Fund contributions. If we do not spend all Fund Contributions in a given year, any excess funds will roll over into the Fund for use during the following year. Upon your written request, we may provide you with an unaudited annual financial statement accounting for the operation of the Fund. We are not required to have the Fund audited, but we may do so and use the Fund Contributions to pay for such an audit. We will have the right to modify or discontinue the Fund, as we deem appropriate in our sole discretion. In the past fiscal year, we did not collect any Fund Contributions because we have not yet established a Fund and, as a result, we cannot provide a breakdown of how such Fund Contributions were spent.

Except as approved in advance in writing by us, you must not establish or maintain a separate website, splash page, profile or other presence on the Internet, or otherwise advertise on the Internet or any other public computer network in connection with the Parlor, including any profile on Facebook, TikTok, LinkedIn, Instagram, Pinterest, Twitter, YouTube or any other social media and/or networking site. You must have your social media handle approved by us no later than 30 days from the date you sign a lease for the approved site of your Parlor. If we grant you the right to maintain a social media profile for your Parlor, you must provide us with administrative access, including all user names and passwords, which are associated with the controlling account. We have the unlimited right to change, remove, add or make any other modification to the social media page(s) we deem appropriate or necessary in our sole discretion. We may revoke your right to maintain a social media account at any time and will have full authority to shut down the relevant web pages. Any such Internet website or presence is considered “advertising” and must be approved by us prior to use, as described in this Item. If we do permit you to establish one or more of the above presences on the Internet, you must establish and operate your Internet site in accordance with System standards and any other policies we designate in the Manuals or otherwise in writing from time to time, and utilize any templates that we provide to you to create and/or modify such site(s). You must monitor, and respond within 48 hours, to any critical online reviews of your Parlor.

We have the right to establish and maintain a website, that may, without limitation, promote the Proprietary Marks and/or the System (the “Website”), including the contact information of your Parlor. We agree to display the Premises and contact information associated with the Parlor for so long as the Parlor is open and actively operating, and the Franchise Agreement governing that Parlor is not subject to termination. We have sole control over all aspects of the Website, including without limitation its design, content, functionality, links to other websites, legal notices, and policies and terms of usage. We also have the right to discontinue operation of the Website at any time without notice to you. We have the right to modify our policies regarding your use of social media and Internet websites in connection with your Parlor as we deem necessary or appropriate in the best interest of the System. We (or our affiliate) are the sole registrant of the Internet domain name www.handelsicecream.com, as well as any other Internet domain names that we or our affiliates register in the future. You must not register any Internet domain name that contains words used in or similar to any brand name owned by us or our affiliates or any abbreviation, acronym, phonetic variation or visual variation of those words.

Site Selection

We will provide you with specifications and a list of approved suppliers of furnishings, fixtures and equipment. You must use our approved real estate broker to assist you in locating a site for your Parlor. You must use one of our pre-approved, licensed architects. The architect must provide us with a test fit for a location that is under consideration to ensure the potential site will meet our brand standards and is operationally viable. If your proposed location is a second-generation location (a location what was previously used by another tenant for another purpose), the approved architect must also prepare a site survey. Once we have your test fit and site survey, if necessary, you must use the pre-approved, licensed architect and engineer to prepare preliminary and final architectural and engineering drawings for the Parlor in accordance with our standard plans. We must approve the architectural and engineering drawings prior to you starting construction. You must buy all inventory, furnishings, equipment and supplies only from suppliers we approve in writing. We have the right to designate one supplier for any given item, product, good or service, and we have the right to approve, disapprove or change suppliers at any time in our sole discretion. We may inspect your Parlor both during and after construction. When your Parlor is completed, you must deliver to us a layout drawing and ten (10) standard size color print photographs of the interior and exterior. If we notify you of any construction, design or appearance deficiencies, you will have thirty (30) days to cure such deficiencies. If you fail to cure the deficiencies, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

You must assume all costs, liabilities, expenses and responsibility for locating, obtaining and developing a Premises for your Parlor, and constructing, equipping, remodeling and/or building out the Premises for use as a Parlor, all in accordance with our System standards and specifications. We may provide you with our current written site selection guidelines, to the extent such guidelines are in place, and any other site selection counseling and assistance we believe is advisable. Our guidelines for site selection may require that you conduct, at your expense, an evaluation of the demographics of the market area for the location. We may then use these factors in determining the suitability of your proposed site for the Premises of your Parlor.

We require a high profile, easily accessible location with ample parking slots, including appropriate handicapped slots. Site costs may vary widely from $20,000 to greater than $100,000 depending on whether you are operating a free standing, end-cap, or in-line structure; local market prices; whether you are leasing and remodeling a location; or building a new facility or leasing a facility built to our specifications. In deciding whether to approve a site, we may also consider, among other things, the demographic characteristics, traffic patterns, allowed design and building, parking, visibility, allowed signage, and the predominant character of the neighborhood surrounding the proposed site. We may also consider competition from other businesses selling similar products and services within the area and the proximity of the site to these businesses, as well as the nature of all other businesses in proximity to the site, zoning restrictions, soil and environmental issues, and other commercial characteristics, as well as the size, appearance, and other physical characteristics of the proposed site. We will assist you in evaluating your location and make suggestions concerning your location; however, the final decision of any location is solely yours, and our approval of a location only indicates minimum compliance with our site selection criteria.

We must also have the opportunity to review and approve/reject any lease or purchase agreement for a proposed Premises before you enter into such an agreement. We may condition our approval on a number of conditions, including an agreement by you and the landlord of the Premises to enter into our prescribed form of Lease Assignment and our then-current form of lease addendum (if any), and receiving a written representation from the landlord of the Premises that you will have the right to operate the Parlor throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement. If the Parlor is being developed under a Development Agreement, you must sign a franchise agreement for such Parlor prior to entering into a Lease. Under the Lease Assignment, we will have the option, but not the obligation, to assume or renew the Lease for all or part of the remaining term of the Lease only if your Franchise Agreement or Lease is terminated, or subject to termination, for cause, or either your Franchise Agreement or Lease expires (and you do not renew in accordance with the respective terms of those agreements). The Lease Assignment is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Schedule C.

We will use reasonable efforts to approve or reject any proposed location (and corresponding lease/purchase agreement) within thirty (30) days of the date you provide us with all requested materials. If we determine that an on-site evaluation is necessary, then you must submit to us in the form we specify a description of the site prior to our representative conducting its on-site evaluation, including evidence that the site satisfies our site selection guidelines and any other information and materials that we may reasonably require, including a letter of intent or other evidence that confirms your favorable prospects for obtaining the site. If we do not provide our specific approval of a proposed location within this 30-day period, the proposed location will be deemed rejected. Our approval only means that the site meets our minimum requirements for a Parlor. We reserve the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement if we do not agree on a site and you fail to open your Parlor within the time frame set out below.

Deadline to Begin Operations

Franchise Agreement

You must submit a proposed site for your Parlor and receive our approval within 180 days of signing the Franchise Agreement. You must complete the development of your Parlor and open for business within 365 days of signing the Franchise Agreement. In the event that you have a site identified and approved at the signing of the Franchise Agreement, you must complete the development of your Parlor and open for business within 180 days of signing the Franchise Agreement.

We estimate that it will take between two (2) to four (4) months for site selection and between four (4) and (6) months for construction. Your total timeframe may be shorter or longer depending on the time necessary to obtain an acceptable Premises, to obtain financing, to obtain the permits and licenses for the construction and operation of the Parlor, to complete construction or remodeling as it may be affected by weather conditions, shortages, delivery schedules and other similar factors, to complete the interior and exterior of the Parlor, including decorating, purchasing and installing fixtures, equipment and signs, and to complete preparation for operating the parlor, including purchasing any inventory or supplies needed prior to opening. If you do not open or operate your Parlor within the time period described above, then we may terminate your Franchise Agreement upon written notice.

Development Agreement

If you have entered into a Development Agreement to open and operate multiple Parlors, your Development Agreement will include a Development Schedule containing a deadline by which you must have each of your Parlors open and operating. Your Development Schedule may depend on the number of Parlors you are granted the right to open and operate. (Development Agreement, Section 4).

If you fail to open any Parlor within the appropriate time period outlined in the Development Agreement, we may terminate your Development Agreement. You will not have any further development rights within the Development Area upon termination of your Development Agreement, except to continue operating the Parlor(s) that were already open and operating as of the termination date.

You must enter into our then current form of Franchise Agreement for each additional Parlor that you are required to open under the Development Agreement and enter into such Franchise Agreements at such times that are required for Developer to timely meet, and strictly adhere to, its obligations under the agreed upon Development Schedule. We must approve the Premises you choose for each Parlor you are required to open under the Development Agreement.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Premises and Relocation

You may only operate your Parlor from the Premises we approve. Once we agree on the Premises, we will designate it in Schedule A attached to your Franchise Agreement. If you do not have a Premises for your Parlor at the time of signing the Franchise Agreement, Schedule A to the Franchise Agreement will specify a geographic area in which the location of the Parlor will be established (“Site Selection Area”). Schedule A will then be completed after the Premises have been selected and approved.

You may not relocate your Parlor without our written consent, which we will not unreasonably withhold provided the new location is located within your Designated Territory and meets our then-current criteria for a Premises, and you pay our then-current relocation fee. When considering a request for relocation, we may take into account the desirability of the proposed new location, its distance from other and future-planned franchised locations, the traffic patterns, security, cost, and the demographics of the area, as well as any other related factors we deem appropriate. We will not unreasonably withhold our approval of your relocation request, provided the location meets our site selection criteria.

Designated Territory

Once you have secured the Premises of your Parlor, we will define the Designated Territory in Schedule A attached to your Franchise Agreement. While for some franchisees, this area will correspond to an entire population center or city, we retain the option to divide a population center or city into two or more Designated Territories. We will determine the Designated Territory based upon our belief as to the area’s sales potential, including current and projected market demand, demographics and population based on our research and experience, median household income, presence of other businesses, location of competitors, traffic patterns, access and visibility, location of other Parlors, our future development and other market conditions.

The specific size of the Designated Territory will vary based on the location and demographics surrounding the Premises, with boundaries determined by zip codes, streets, landmarks, and/or county, state and major highway lines, or as otherwise delineated on a map attached to Schedule A of the Franchise Agreement. We may, but are not required to, consider demographic criteria when determining your Designated Territory, and if applicable the sources we use to determine the population within your Designated Territory will be publicly available population information (such as data published by the U.S. Census Bureau or other governmental agencies and commercial sources). We may restrict your right to solicit orders from consumers outside of the Designated Territory without our prior written consent. Depending on the demographic, commercial and geographic characteristics of the area surrounding your Parlor, the size of your Designated Territory may vary significantly from designated territories we grant elsewhere.

Except as set forth below and otherwise provided in the Franchise Agreement, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, we will not establish, nor license any other person to establish any other Parlor utilizing the Proprietary Marks and System within your Designated Territory, provided that you are in substantial compliance with your Franchise Agreement. Your Designated Territory cannot be modified except by mutual written agreement signed by both parties. We retain the right, among others, on any terms and conditions we deem advisable, and without granting you any rights to establish and operate, and license others to establish and operate, a Handel's business at any location outside the Designated Territory.

There are no territorial restrictions from accepting business from individuals or entities that reside/work or are otherwise based outside of your Designated Territory if these persons or entities contact you and are not located within another franchisee's designated territory, and we do not typically restrict our other franchisees or Affiliate-owned parlors in this manner. Currently, if you are contacted by an individual or entity located within another franchisee's designated territory, we require that you must first refer the business to the franchisee whose territory the delivery or catering services are requested. If this franchisee declines the business, you may service this customer yourself and are not required to pay any consideration to the affected franchisee. We reserve the right to change this policy from time to time and will provide you with advance notice of any such change via an update to the Manuals or otherwise. Currently, other parlors may accept delivery and catering orders from persons located within your Designated Territory, but (a) may not solicit customers inside your territory and (b) must give you a right of first refusal to accept any business to be transacted within your territory. These restrictions are subject to change, and accordingly you may face competition from other franchisees soliciting and accepting catering or delivery orders within your Designated Territory. With that said, you may not use alternative channels of distribution, such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, to make any sales of Approved Products or Services outside of your Designated Territory. As of the Issue Date of this Disclosure Document, we have approved DoorDash, Uber Eats and Postmates as third-party delivery services for use by System franchisees, but reserve the right to add or remove any other delivery service at our discretion. If we approve or require any third-party delivery service(s), any deliveries thereby may not be subject to any territorial restrictions set forth in this Item, and Affiliate-owned parlors and/or other franchised parlors may accept orders via third party delivery platforms within your Designated Territory.

The Franchise Agreement does not provide you with any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises within the Designated Territory or areas contiguous to the Designated Territory. The Designated Territory you are granted under the Franchise Agreement is not "exclusive" because we have the right to open and operate Parlors at Non-Traditional Sites within your Designated Territory.

We may authorize or require you to provide off-Premises catering and/or delivery services within your Designated Territory (defined below), provided you have operated your Parlor without material default for a period of time we designate, attend any additional training we require in connection with providing such services, and comply with the System standards and specifications we develop regarding the provision of such services.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Mobile Unit Addendum

If you sign a Mobile Unit Addendum, you are permitted to operate the Mobile Unit only within the Designated Territory for your Parlor, or as may be permitted by Handel's subject to your compliance with Handel's then-current restrictions, policies, and procedures with respect to out of territory sales and the provision of catering services outside of the Designated Territory.

Development Agreement: Development Area

If you are granted the right to open multiple Parlors under our form of Development Agreement, then we will provide you with a Development Area upon execution of this agreement. The size of your Development Area will substantially vary from other System developers based on the number of Parlors we grant you the right to open and operate and the location and demographics of the general area where we mutually agree you will be opening these locations. The boundaries of your Development Area may be described in terms of zip codes, streets, landmarks (both natural and man-made) or county lines, or otherwise delineated on a map attached to the Data Sheet.

You must enter into our then-current form of Franchise Agreement for each additional Parlor that you are required to open under the Development Agreement and enter into such Franchise Agreements at such times that are required for Developer to timely meet, and strictly adhere to, its obligations under the agreed upon Development Schedule as set forth in the Development Agreement. We must approve the Premises you choose for each Parlor you are required to open under the Development Agreement.

Each Parlor you timely open and commence operating under our then-current form of franchise agreement will be operated from a distinct Premises located within the Development Area and within its own Designated Territory that we will define once the Premises for that Parlor has been approved.

We will not own or operate, or license a third party the right to own or operate, a Parlor utilizing the Proprietary Marks and System within the Development Area until the earlier of the date we define the Designated Territory of the final Parlor you were granted the right to operate under the Development Agreement, or the expiration or termination of the Development Agreement for any reason. Your Development Area will be exclusive during this time period.

Upon the occurrence of any one of the events described in the preceding paragraph, your territorial rights within the Development Area will terminate, except that each Parlor that you have opened and are continuously operating as of the date of such occurrence will continue to enjoy the territorial rights within their respective Designated Territories that were granted under the Franchise Agreement(s) you entered into for those Parlor(s).

You must comply with your development obligations under the Development Agreement, including your Development Schedule, in order to maintain your exclusive rights within the Development Area. If you do not comply with your Development Schedule, we may terminate your Development Agreement and any further development rights you have under that agreement. Otherwise, we will not modify the size of your Development Area except by mutual written agreement signed by both parties.

We own the copyright to the Handel's Ice Cream Recipe Manual, which is provided to Handel's franchisees in the operations of the Parlor. The effective date of the registration was January 21, 1993, by Mer Len, Inc. at registration number TX0003467330. This registration was assigned to us on November 13, 2019. There are no determinations by the United States Copyright Office respecting this copyright.

Operation Manuals

You must operate your Parlor in accordance with the standards, methods, policies, and procedures specified in the Manuals, one copy of which will be made available to you for the term of the Franchise Agreement upon completion by you and your manager of our initial training program to our satisfaction.

You must treat the Manuals, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Parlor, and the information contained in them, as confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain this information as secret and confidential. You must not copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce these materials, in whole or in part, or otherwise make them available to any unauthorized person. The Manuals will remain our sole property and access to the Manuals must be kept in a secure place in the Parlor.

We may periodically revise the contents of the Manuals, and you must comply with each new or changed standard. You must ensure that the Manuals are kept current at all times. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manuals, the terms of the master copies maintained by us at our home office will be controlling.

Confidential Information

You must not, during and after the term of the Agreement, communicate, divulge, use, or otherwise disseminate any: confidential information; customer information, which includes all data collected from former, existing, and/or potential customers including customer names and addresses, discounts and credit extensions to customers, customer contracts, designs, and status information (collectively, "Customer Information"); knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of your Parlor which may be communicated to you or of which you may be apprised by virtue of your operation under the terms of the Franchise Agreement (including information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the sale of food and beverages) (collectively, the "Confidential Information"). The Confidential Information, including Customer Information, are our trade secrets. You may divulge this Confidential Information only to those of your employees must have access to it in order to operate the Parlor. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, techniques, and other data which we designate as confidential will be deemed confidential for purposes of the Franchise Agreement.

You are prohibited from disclosing Customer Information and our other proprietary information, trade secrets, and Confidential Information to third parties, including entering such information into public/open AI models or any other AI model that uses such information to train the AI unless specifically authorized by us, and you must adhere to any privacy policies we may now, or in the future, establish with respect to Customer Information.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

You are not required to personally participate in the direct operation of the Parlor. However, we recommend that you participate. If the franchisee is an entity, you will designate an owner of at least 10% of the equity interest in the franchisee as your “Operating Principal.” Your Operating Principal is the individual with primary responsibility for the Parlor and who will have decision-making authority about the Parlor. We must approve your Operating Principal, and the Operating Principal must attend and successfully complete our initial training program. You must designate a qualified replacement from among your owners if your Operating Principal can no longer fulfill his or her responsibilities. You also must hire a Designated Manager that we approve in writing to manage the day-to-day operations of the Parlor when you are not present. Both you and your Designated Manager will be required to complete the Initial Training Program to our satisfaction (prior to undertaking any management responsibilities). We will not unreasonably withhold our approval of any Designated Manager you propose, provided the Designated Manager is over the age of 18 and has (a) relevant industry experience, (b) attended and successfully completed our Initial Training Program to our satisfaction, and (c) otherwise demonstrated that he or she has a good handle on our System standards and specifications for daily operations of a Parlor (the “Management Criteria”). We may revoke our approval of a Designated Manager at any time if, in our sole discretion, we determine the Designated Manager no longer satisfies the Management Criteria.

We do not require your Designated Manager to own any interest in the Parlor or Franchisee (if Franchisee is a business entity), but any and all Designated Manager(s) must sign our prescribed form of Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement. If and when a Designated Manager leaves his or her employment at your Parlor, you must recruit a new Designated Manager within thirty (30) days and submit the replacement’s qualifications to us for our review and approval (which may be conditioned on completion of all Management Criteria) before substituting a new Designated Manager.

Your Parlor must, at all times, be managed and staffed with at least one (1) individual who either (a) has successfully completed our Initial Training Program, or (b) has completed a shift manager training program provided by you or your Designated Manager (a “Shift Manager”). In the event that you operate more than one Parlor, you must have a properly trained Designated Manager at each Parlor you own and operate.

You and your managers and employees must comply with the confidentiality provisions described in Item 14. You must execute a personal guaranty concurrently with the signing of the Franchise Agreement. If you are a legal entity, having more than one owner, all owners, shareholders, partners, joint venturers, and any other person who directly or indirectly owns an interest in the franchised business must execute a personal guaranty. Note that spouses of interest holders in the franchised business are required to execute a personal guaranty.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must operate your Parlor in strict conformity with such methods, standards, and specifications as we may from time to time require in the Manuals or otherwise in writing. You must refrain from deviating from such standards, specifications, and procedures without our prior written consent.

We have the right to change the types of authorized goods and services, and there are no limits on our right to make changes.

You must offer our gift cards and participate in our designated gift card program in your Parlor, and you must purchase your cards from us or an approved supplier. You are also required to honor any gift cards for payment of services at your Parlor, even if the gift card was purchased at another Handel's location. We reserve the right to change this policy from time-to-time. If we discontinue any Approved Product offered by the Parlor, then you must cease offering or selling such product/service within a reasonable time, unless such product/service represents a health or safety hazard (in which case you must immediately comply upon receipt of notice from us).

You must operate the Parlor in strict conformity with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and regulations. Such laws, ordinances, and regulations vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction and are amendable or may be implemented or interpreted in a different manner from time to time. It is your sole responsibility to apprise yourself of the existence and requirements of all laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the Parlor, and to adhere to them and to the then-current implementation or interpretation of them. You may not use the Premises of your Parlor for any other business purpose other than the operation of your Parlor.

As a service to you and our other franchisees, we may, but are not obligated to, utilize our experience and the data obtained from our affiliates and franchisees to establish and maintain a suggested schedule of prices for products sold at your Parlor and, subject to applicable law, we may designate certain pricing and pricing policies with respect to the products offered, provided and sold at your Parlor, which prices and policies with which you will be required to comply (subject to applicable law). In addition, we may establish, or have established, required minimum and/or maximum prices for products at your Parlor and, if so established, you will be required to comply with those minimum and/or maximum prices (subject to applicable law). We will be entitled to exercise the maximum level of control over resale prices and practices permitted by applicable law and, to the extent that we exercise this right, you will be required to comply with those controls.

All of our business methods and Proprietary Marks may be supplemented, improved, and otherwise modified from time to time by us. You must comply with all of our reasonable requirements in that regard, including offering and selling new or different products or services as specified by us.

PART I: FRANCHISE-OWNED HANDEL'S PARLORS

We sent surveys to 145 Parlors that were open and operating as of the end of the 2024 calendar year seeking information as to their revenue and certain costs and expenses. We received responses from 115 of the franchised Parlors surveyed. Of those responses, 91 were open and operating for the full 2024 calendar year (the "Responding Parlors"). The table below presents the average of certain revenues, costs, and expenses in dollar amounts and as a percentage of Net Revenue as reported by the Responding Parlors for the 2024 calendar year (the "Measurement Period"). It excludes franchised Parlors that were not open for the full Measurement Period or did not submit results. The table below divides the Responding Parlors into thirds, based on Net Revenues, with the "Top 1/3" reflecting the results of those Responding Parlors with the highest average Net Revenues for the Measurement Period and the "Bottom 1/3" reflecting the results of those Responding Parlors with the lowest average Net Revenues for the Measurement Period. The "Middle 1/3" reflects the results of those 30 Responding Parlors with average Net Revenues for Measurement Period between the Top 1/3 and Bottom 1/3.

The following tables provide historical sales information for the 144 Handel's franchised Parlors that were open at least one full year as of December 31, 2025. As of December 31, 2025, there were a total of 165 franchised Parlors open and operating. 20 franchised Parlors commenced operating during calendar year 2025 and therefore were not operating for one full year as of December 31, 2025. One Parlor that did not disclose sales information to us has been excluded. Of these 144 Handel's franchised Parlors, 77 were Walk-Up Parlors and 67 were Walk-In Parlors. The information presented is not a forecast of future potential performance. The gross revenue figures are based on the same computation for computing royalties such as required under the Franchise Agreement.

The tables provide the average gross revenues for the top, middle, and bottom third of revenue producing Parlors (meaning the average gross revenue for the number of stores that were in the top, middle, or bottom third of gross revenues for that year). We represent the average gross revenue for the year in each category, the average gross median for the year in each category, as well as the number and percentage achieving or surpassing the average gross revenue for the year in each category.

Notes to Part II:

The lowest revenue location of the disclosed franchised Parlors was $169,640, and the highest revenue Parlor was $2,586,251. The Average Gross Revenue for all disclosed Parlors was $1,115,650, and the Median Gross Revenue was $1,036,792.

The lowest revenue location of the disclosed franchised Walk-Up Parlors was $169,640, and the highest revenue Parlor was $2,586,251. The Average Gross Revenue for all disclosed Walk-Up Parlors was $1,201,894, and the Median Gross Revenue was $1,076,432.

The lowest revenue location of the disclosed franchised Walk-In Parlors was $295,118, and the highest revenue Parlor was $2,083,876. The Average Gross Revenue for all disclosed Walk-In Parlors was $1,016,533, and the Median Gross Revenue was $967,707.

The term “Gross Revenue” means all revenues generated by the Parlor conducted upon, from or with respect to the Parlor, whether such sales are evidenced by cash, credit, or check. “Average Gross Revenue” is defined as the Total Gross Revenue generated by Parlors in a category divided by the total number of Parlors in that category. “Median Gross Revenue” is defined as the Gross Revenue of the Parlor that falls exactly in the middle (center point) of a specific category.

The financial performance representations above do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses, or other costs of expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figure to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your Parlor. Current and former franchisees may be one source of this information, and their contact information is listed in Exhibits D and E.

Examples of a wide variety of expenses that will reduce the store’s income from the revenue levels shown include, without limitation, rent and occupancy expenses, food and beverage product and supply costs; salaries, wages and other personnel-related expenses; federal, state and local taxes and fees; utilities; financing costs (including on loans and leases); royalties and other amounts due us. See also Items 5, 6 and 7.

We obtained these historical financial results from the information gathered based on the data collected through the franchisee’s POS system.

PART III: HANDEL’S PARLORS AVERAGE GROSS REVENUE OVER TIME

The following chart covers the ten-year period from 2015 through 2025 and includes both franchise-owned and affiliate-owned Parlors. For each year presented, average Gross Revenue is calculated by dividing total annual Gross Revenue by the number of qualifying Parlors open for a full calendar year. Year-over-year changes in average Gross Revenue may reflect same-store sales performance, changes in the size and composition of the system, and general economic conditions. Included in the analysis are Parlors that were open for each full year presented.

Notes to Parts I, II, and III:

All Handel's Parlors offer substantially the same products and services to the public.

Neither we nor an independent certified public accountant has independently audited or verified the information.

Some stores have sold these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you'll earn as much.

Written substantiation will be made available to you on reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any financial performance representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of our future income, you should report it to our management by contacting Franchise Relations at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio and (888) 292-2552, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Member and Board of Directors of Handel's Enterprises, LLC

We have audited the financial statements of Handel's Enterprises, LLC (the Company), which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2025, and the related statements of income and changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying 2025 financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter - Prior Year Financial Statements

The Company's financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were audited by other auditors, whose report dated April 25, 2025, expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements. As described in Note 3, the Company has restated its 2024 and 2023 financial statements to correct misstatements related to sales tax and the improper accounting for a prior business combination. We audited the adjustments described in Note 3 that were applied to restate the 2024 and 2023 financial statements. In our opinion, such adjustments are appropriate and have been properly applied. We were not engaged to audit, review, or apply any procedures to the 2024 and 2023 financial statements other than with respect to such adjustments, and accordingly, we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the 2024 and 2023 financial statements taken as a whole.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the 2025 financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2025 Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2025 Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Handel's Enterprises, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023

1. Nature of Operations

Handel's Enterprises, LLC (the Company) is a franchisor of retail ice cream parlors, offering franchises primarily in the United States. The Company's offices are located in Canfield, Ohio. The Company had a total of 166, 146, and 119 franchises at December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively, located in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Utah.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the prior year's financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on previously reported net income, total assets, or total liabilities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with multiple major financial institutions located in the United States of America, which it believes to be credit worthy. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures balances up to $250,000. At times, the Company may maintain balances in excess of the federally insured limits.

Concentrations of credit with respect to trade receivables are limited due to the large number of customers comprising the Company's franchise base. Credit terms are granted to customers of the Company based upon terms and conditions at management's discretion. The Company evaluates contract terms and conditions and may require prepayment to mitigate risk of loss. Generally, management requires no collateral prior to the extension of credit.

The Company does not believe that it is exposed to any significant credit risk in connection with cash and cash equivalents or the extension of credit to its franchisees.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash consists of cash in banks and bank deposits. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company held cash equivalents totaling $8,349,980, $8,019,138, and $6,390,571, respectively, which consist of U.S. Treasury bills and money market funds. The Company maintains cash in bank deposit accounts, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Handel's Enterprises, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses

Accounts receivable consist of amounts due from franchisees for royalties, equipment sales, and other franchise-related revenues, as well as amounts due from vendors for rebates.

The beginning and ending balances of accounts receivable were as follows:

	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024	December 31, 2023	January 1, 2023
Accounts receivable	$ 1,221,879	$ 1,533,942	$ 1,563,522	$ 2,347,153

The Company utilizes the loss rate method in determining its expected credit losses on its receivables. This method is used for calculating an estimate of losses based primarily on the Company's historical loss experience. In determining its loss rates, the Company evaluates information related to its historical losses, adjusted for current conditions and further adjusted for period of time that can be reasonably forecasted. Qualitative and quantitative adjustments related to current conditions and the reasonable and supportable forecast period consider all the following: past external forces such as competition, and legal and regulatory requirements on the level of estimated credit losses in the existing receivables. The Company has no receivables that are not expected to be collected within the normal business cycle. As of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, no allowance for credit losses was deemed necessary by the Company.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value determined by the first-in, first-out method. Inventories consist of proprietary flavorings and operational supplies.

Opening Order Equipment

Opening order equipment consists of equipment packages for new franchise locations including ice cream machines, dipping and holding cabinets, walk-in coolers, smallwares, point-of-sale systems, and other miscellaneous items that have not yet been delivered to the franchisees. Opening order equipment is recorded at cost.

Property and Equipment, Net

Property and equipment are stated at cost. The Company provides for depreciation using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the various classes of assets as follows:

	Years
Leasehold improvements	Lesser of lease term or 15
Office equipment	5 - 7
Vehicles	5
Software	3

The Company capitalizes expenditures that materially increase asset lives and expenses ordinary repairs and maintenance to operations in the period incurred. When assets are sold or otherwise disposed of, the costs and related reserves are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is included in the statements of income and changes in member's equity in the period of disposal.

Goodwill

Goodwill is the result of the application of push-down accounting. Goodwill represents the amount by which the cost to acquire the Company exceeded the fair value of individual acquired assets less liabilities of the business at acquisition. Goodwill was generated primarily based on the growth potential of the Company due to the existing franchise branding at acquisition. Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 805-50-50 allows the controlling company to push down the acquisition adjustments to the acquired companies' separate financial statements.

The Company evaluates goodwill for impairment on an annual basis. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, no impairment loss was recorded. The Company has elected to not amortize goodwill for financial statement purposes.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of franchise agreements and trademarks acquired in connection with a business combination and are recorded at fair value at the acquisition date. Franchise agreements are considered finite-lived intangible assets and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 20 years. Trademarks are considered indefinite-lived intangible assets and are not amortized. Intangible assets are reviewed annually, or more frequently when indicators of impairment exist. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, no impairment loss was recorded.

Fair-Value Measurements

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. To determine fair value, the Company primarily utilizes reported market transactions and discounted cash flow analyses. The Company utilizes the FASB fair-value model that establishes a fair-value hierarchy that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs.

Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity.

Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The fair-value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques into three broad levels whereby, the highest priority is given to Level 1 inputs and the lowest to Level 3 inputs.

The three broad categories are:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Handel's Enterprises, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023

Where available, the Company utilizes quoted market prices or observable inputs rather than unobservable inputs to determine fair value. The Company classifies assets in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair-value measurement. The Company did not have any assets or liabilities that were measured at fair value on a recurring or nonrecurring basis during the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023.

The carrying values of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, inventories, opening order equipment, prepaid expenses, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, and customer deposits, approximate fair value because of their short-term nature.

Revenue Recognition

Under Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) and related amendments, revenue is recognized when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services.

Franchise Fees and Royalty Fees

The Company receives an initial nonrecurring franchise fee from new franchisees for the right to use the Handel's name, products, trade secrets and proprietary processes in a specific geographic area for a ten-year period. The franchise agreements typically require the franchisee to pay initial nonrefundable franchise fees prior to opening the respective store and continuing fees or royalty income, on a monthly basis, based upon a percentage of franchisee gross sales. Prior to the end of the franchise term, or as otherwise provided by the Company, a franchisee may elect to renew the term of a franchise agreement and, if approved, will typically pay a renewal fee upon execution of the renewal term.

The Company has elected the private company alternative under ASU No. 2021-02 to account for pre-opening services as a single performance obligation. Therefore, initial franchise fees for each individual store are recognized as these pre-opening services are satisfied, based on the achievement of certain milestones: 1) execution of the franchise agreement or area development agreement, 2) execution of the lease, and 3) store opening. Franchise fees for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, was $1,930,000, $1,400,000, and $1,280,000, respectively. The beginning and ending balances of deferred franchise fees were as follows:

Deferred franchise fees	$ 2,772,500	$ 2,287,500	$ 1,932,500	$ 1,912,500

The Company receives a monthly royalty from operating franchisees, excluding stores owned and operated by related parties, calculated at 6% of gross sales of the franchisee. Royalty income is recognized over the term of the respective franchise agreement based on the royalties earned each period as the underlying sales occur. Royalty income for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, were $9,862,179, $8,111,392, and $5,727,921, respectively.

Under the terms of its franchise agreements, the Company is entitled to charge franchisees advertising fees to support a system-wide advertising and marketing fund, with required contributions not to exceed 2% of franchisees' gross sales. The Company did not collect any such fees during the years ended 2025, 2024, and 2023.

Handel's Enterprises, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023

Other Revenue

The Company distributes ice cream flavors and other products, including opening order equipment, to franchisees. Revenue from the sale of ice cream flavors and other products is recognized when title and risk of loss transfers to the buyer, which is generally upon delivery. Payment for ice cream flavors and other products is generally due within a relatively short period of time subsequent to delivery. Accordingly, the Company recognizes revenue at a point in time in an amount that reflects the consideration which the Company expects to receive in exchange for those products. Opening order equipment sales and other franchise sales for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, were, $4,775,298, $6,457,093, and $7,190,616, respectively, and are included in other revenue on the accompanying statements of income and changes in member's equity.

The beginning and ending balances of customer deposits were as follows:

	December 31, 2025	December 31, 2024	December 31, 2023	January 1, 2023
Customer deposits	$ 736,772	$ 1,033,406	$ 1,785,669	$ 3,747,256

The Company earns rebates from distributors and key suppliers based on purchase volumes. Rebates are recognized as revenue at a point in time when the underlying qualifying purchases are made. Rebates for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, were $3,997,605, $2,336,095, and $1,249,862, respectively, and are included in other revenue on the accompanying statements of income and changes in member's equity.

Various economic factors affect revenues and cash flows. The Company has no significant financing components because its payment terms generally range from 30 to 90 days after the invoice is billed to the franchisee. The Company does not offer extended payment terms. Shipping and other transportation costs charged to customers are reported within revenue.

Federal Income Taxes

No provision for federal income taxes has been made in the financial statements because the Company is a single member LLC, which is a disregarded entity for federal tax purposes. The parent company, also an LLC, has elected to be treated as a U.S. Small Business Corporation, whereby the Company's income, in general, is taxable only at the member's level.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

FASB ASC 740-10-05 allows the Company to record benefits resulting from tax positions taken only if an evaluation of the technical merits of these tax positions results in a more likely-than-not determination. The Company's evaluation on December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, revealed no tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements. All open tax years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Company does not believe that any reasonably possible changes will occur within the next 12 months that will have a material impact on the financial statements.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, were $915,917, $745,737, and $657,818, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses on the accompanying statements of income and changes in member's equity.

Leases

The Company assesses whether an arrangement qualifies as a lease at inception and only reassesses its determination if the terms and conditions of the arrangement are changed.

Operating leases are included in other assets, current liabilities and long-term liabilities on the balance sheet. Right-of-use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The Company recognizes operating lease ROU assets and lease liabilities at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. In determining the discount rate to measure the ROU assets and lease liabilities, the Company uses the rates implicit in the lease or, if not readily available, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on information available at commencement date in determining the present value of the lease payments. The Company's lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain it will exercise that option. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Company has lease agreements with lease and nonlease components, which are generally accounted for separately. The nonlease components are primarily comprised of common area maintenance and real estate taxes that are passed on from the lessor in proportion to the space leased and are recognized in operating expenses in the period in which the obligation for those payments was incurred.

The Company has elected to apply the short-term lease recognition exemption for all applicable classes of underlying assets. Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the balance sheet. Lease expense is recognized for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

3. Restatement of the Previously Issued Financial Statements

Following the original issuance of the Company's 2024 and 2023 audited financial statements, errors were identified related to the accounting for business combination in connection with a 2019 acquisition, including the failure to recognize separately identifiable intangible assets and record the related amortization, and the accrual of sales tax liabilities on certain transactions. As a result, the Company's 2024 and 2023 financial statements have been restated to correct these errors.

We may revoke our approval of a Designated Manager if we determine, in our sole discretion, that the individual no longer satisfies our management criteria. You must always have two individuals active in the management of the Parlor who successfully completed initial training as described below. If the Operating Principal no longer qualifies to act as such, or if the individual designated as the Designated Manager is no longer active in the management of the Parlor, you must, within 30 days, designate another Operating Principal or Designated Manager, subject to the same qualifications listed above, and such replacement Operating Principal, or replacement Designated Manager, must complete our initial training program, in-person, at a location we designate, at your expense, including our then-current training fee.

- 4.06 Hiring of Employees You will hire all employees of the Parlor, and you will be exclusively responsible for the terms of their hiring, firing, compensation, scheduling, benefits, discipline, and all other personnel decisions without any influence or advice from us. You will communicate to all employees that you, not we or us, are their employer; and you will ensure that no payroll checks or other employment-related documents contain any reference to the Marks or our name.
- 4.07 Training of Employees To ensure your customers enjoy a consistent experience at each Handel’s location, each of your employees must successfully complete training courses that meet our standards and specifications at your expense. We reserve the right to update or revise the criteria and specifications for employee training contained in the Operations Manual.
- 4.08 Opening Assistance If you are opening your first Parlor, we will provide one (1) of our field representatives to assist you in the opening of your business during the period before, during and/or shortly after the initial opening. The length of time we will provide this assistance is within our discretion and the independent judgment of our staff member on site.
- 4.09 Operating Assistance At no additional cost, we will provide you with guidance in operating your Parlor as is reasonably required in our opinion, including but not limited to the following:
- (a) The selection, stocking, display, use and sale of products and equipment we have approved for your use;
 - (b) Ongoing training for employees to maintain System standards;
 - (c) The use of advertising material prepared for or developed by us;
 - (d) The establishment and maintenance of administrative, bookkeeping, accounting and general operating procedures of your Parlor.
- We provide ongoing operating assistance to help you comply with the System, promote the goodwill of the Marks, and provide a consistent experience at each Handel’s location for our and your customers.
- 4.10 Additional Assistance If you reasonably request, we may help you with problems beyond those contemplated by Section 4.09.
- 4.11 Operations Manuals We have prepared and will provide access to our electronic copy of our operating manual containing specifications, standards, policies, and procedures (“Operations Manual”), all of which may be periodically revised. The Operations Manual will contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, and operating policies and procedures that we develop for and information relating to your other obligations. Any required specifications, standards and operating procedures exist to protect our interests in the System and the Marks, to create a uniform customer experience, and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to you. You must keep the Operations Manual currently updated, and you agree to keep the contents confidential. You must promptly return any hard copies of the Operations Manual, or components thereof, to us when this Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason. We will maintain the master copy of the Operations Manual at our principal office or on our intranet site, and will control if there is a dispute involving the contents of the Operations Manual.

- 4.12 Hours of Operation To ensure your customers enjoy a consistent experience at each Handel's location, your Parlor must be open twelve (12) months a year. The minimum hours of operation from March 1 to October 31 are 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven (7) days a week, subject to state and local laws and ordinances and your lease requirements. The minimum hours of operation from November 1 to February 28 (or 29) are 12 p.m. to 9 p.m., seven (7) days a week, subject to state and local laws and ordinances and your lease requirements. Failure to operate under these guidelines does not prohibit Handel's from collecting royalties for mandated hours of operation. Royalties for any period during which you fail to operate the Parlor for the minimum hours of operation may, at our option, be based on past year sales or sales from like volume store(s).

Article Five IMAGE AND OPERATING STANDARDS

- 5.01 Condition and Appearance of the Parlor You agree to maintain the condition and appearance of the Parlor consistent with our standards as communicated to you through the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. You agree to do any remodeling, repair or redecorating we may require including replacing furniture, fixtures, equipment and signs. If we so notify you in writing, you must make a bona-fide, diligent effort to comply. If you do not, Handel's has the right, but not the obligation, to enter the Premises and effect such improvements, and you must pay the entire cost to us on demand.
- 5.02 Authorized Products and Services You must use, sell or display only those items, and offer only those services, we specify to you in writing as approved, immediately drop any item for which we withdraw approval, and add any new products we approve within a reasonable time. Certain products used or sold at the Parlor must be purchased from Handel's or our approved suppliers under the provisions of Section 3.02. We will provide advance notice of any change to the approved products or suppliers, and you must comply with such changes in a commercially reasonable period of time not to exceed 30 days. You must offer our gift cards and participate in our designated gift card program in your Parlor, and you must purchase your cards from us or an approved supplier. You are also required to honor any gift cards for payment of services at your Parlor, even if the gift card was purchased at another Handel's location. We reserve the right to change this policy from time-to-time. You are solely responsible for obtaining all required licenses and permits to operate the business.
- 5.03 Terms of Purchase for Goods The following provisions apply to your purchases from us:
- (a) If you are not in default under this Agreement, we will use our reasonable efforts to fill all orders placed as promptly as possible. However, in no event will we be liable for loss or damage due to delay in delivery resulting from any cause whatsoever beyond our reasonable control. We will never be liable for your financial losses due to any delay for any reason.
 - (b) You understand that if you use your own form of purchase order, it will still impose only the obligations on us as seller, or rights to you as buyer, that would be imposed by this Agreement.
 - (c) You are not allowed to return any products to us until we grant you written approval, which we agree not to unreasonably withhold in the case of defective products. Handel's sole responsibility in such instance is to replace such product or credit your account for the amount paid for such product.

- (d) We reserve the right to periodically adjust prices without prior notice. You must pay in full on delivery, unless the invoice provides otherwise. To not make you pay on delivery is not a waiver of our right to do so. If we do not require you to pay in full on delivery, title of the goods remains with Handel's until fully paid. Receipt of your check does not constitute payment until the full amount is received in cash.
- 5.04 Minimum Inventory You must maintain an adequate inventory representative of all products as detailed in the Operations Manual in sufficient quantity to cover your customer's needs, and always equal to or greater than the minimum quantity we require you to carry, which may vary depending on characteristics of the particular market you serve.
- 5.05 Standards of Service To ensure your customers enjoy a consistent experience at each Handel's location, you and your employees must give prompt, courteous service and abide by the highest standards of ethics, honesty, and integrity at all times when dealing with customers. You must ensure that you and your employees always follow the required policies and procedures for operating your Parlor, including but not limited to:
- (a) procedures for buying, displaying, storing and selling approved products and providing approved services;
 - (b) the safety, maintenance, cleanliness, function and appearance of the Parlor.
 - (c) apparel to be worn by, and appearance of, your employees.
 - (d) your hours of business having regard to local laws;
 - (e) keeping adequate working capital on hand; and
 - (f) method of displaying signs, posters and similar items.
- 5.06 Prices to be Charged by the Franchisee We reserve the right to establish pricing of products offered by your Parlor and the Business to the fullest extent permitted by then-applicable law to enhance the competitive position and consumer acceptance of such products consistent with the long term interest of the System, which may include without limitation, any or all of the following: prescribing the maximum and/or minimum retail prices which you may charge customers for the products offered and sold at your Parlor; recommending retail prices; advertising specific retail prices for some or all products or services sold at your Parlor, which prices you will be required to observe; engaging in marketing, promotional and related campaigns which you must participate in and which may directly or indirectly establish your retail prices for products and services offered at your Parlor; and, otherwise mandating, directly or indirectly the maximum and/or minimum retail prices which you may charge the public for the products and services offered by you. All rights and obligations created by this Section 5.06 shall be subject to and limited by applicable state, local and federal law.
- 5.07 Management and Conflicting, Competing Interests You covenant and agree that you will always faithfully and diligently perform your obligations under this Agreement and continuously exert your best efforts to promote and enhance the Business. You and your Operating Principal understand and agree to be bound by the provisions in Section 14.01.
- 5.08 System Modification You acknowledge and agree that from time to time, we may change or modify the System as we deem appropriate, including without limitation to reflect the changing market and/or to meet new and changing consumer demands, and that variations and additions to the System may be required from time to time to preserve and enhance the public image of the System and operations of Handel's ice cream parlors. Our changes to the System may include, without limitation, the adoption and use of new or modified products, services, equipment and furnishings and new techniques and methodologies relating to the preparation, sale, promotion and marketing of food and beverage products and services, and new trademarks, service marks and copyrighted materials, merchant processing providers and point-of-sale policies and procedures, and gift card and loyalty programs. You must undertake and acquire such equipment or software as may be necessary to integrate these system changes, including the POS and third-party systems and programs, as may be necessary from time to time. You will, upon reasonable notice, accept, implement, use, and display in the operation of the Parlor any such changes in the System, as if they were part of this Agreement at the time of execution hereof, at your sole expense. Additionally, we reserve the right, in our sole discretion, to modify the standards throughout the System, and the services and assistance that we may provide to some franchisees based upon the peculiarities of a particular site or circumstance, existing business practices, or other factors that we deem to be important to the operation of any Handel's ice cream parlor or the System. You shall have no recourse against us because of any variation to any individual franchisee and you are not entitled to require us to provide you with similar variation hereunder.

- 5.09 Health and Sanitation You must comply with all applicable governmental health and sanitary standards in operating and maintaining your Parlor. You also must comply with any higher standards that we prescribe. In addition to complying with such standards, if the Parlor will be subject to any governmental sanitary or health inspection under which it may be rated in one or more than one classification, the Parlor will be maintained and operated so as to be rated in the highest available health and sanitary classification respecting each such inspection. If you fail to be rated in the highest classification or receive any notice that you are not in compliance with all applicable health and sanitary standards, you will immediately notify us of such failure or noncompliance.
- 5.10 Alternative Supplier Approval If you wish to purchase any unapproved item, including inventory, and/or acquire approved items from an unapproved supplier, you must provide us the name, address and telephone number of the proposed supplier, a description of the item you wish to purchase, and the purchase price of the item, to the extent known. You must then follow our then-current procedure for evaluating and approving such request and pay our then-current product/supplier evaluation fee (the "Evaluation Fee"). At our request, you must also provide us, for testing purposes, a sample of the item you wish to purchase. If we incur any costs in connection with testing a particular product or evaluating an unapproved supplier at your request, you must reimburse us for our reasonable testing costs, regardless of whether we subsequently approve the item or supplier. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify you in writing whether or not your request is approved or denied within thirty (30) days of: (i) our receipt of all supporting information from you regarding your request under this Section; and (ii) if applicable, our completion of any inspection or testing associated with your request. If we do not provide written approval within this time period, then your request will be deemed denied. We may, but are not obligated to, provide your proposed supplier with its specifications for the item that you wish the third-party to supply, provided that third-party executes our prescribed form of non-disclosure agreement. Each supplier that we approve must comply with our usual and customary requirements regarding insurance, indemnification and non-disclosure. If we approve any supplier, you may enter into supply contracts with such third party, but under no circumstances will we guarantee your performance of any supply contract. We may re-inspect and revoke our approval of particular products or suppliers when we determine, in our sole discretion, that such products or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to require us to approve any particular supplier. We may base our approval of any such proposed item or supplier on considerations relating not only directly to the item or supplier itself, but also indirectly to the uniformity, efficiency, and quality of operation we deem necessary or desirable in the System as a whole. We have the right to receive payments from suppliers on account of their dealings with you and other franchisees and to use all amounts we receive without restriction (unless instructed otherwise by the supplier) for any purposes we deem appropriate.
- 5.11 Compliance with Applicable Laws You are solely responsible for ensuring compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations or ruling of every nature whatsoever which in any way regulate or affect the operation of your Parlor. You must also comply with federal, state, and local health and consumer protection laws and regulations governing the food service industry and concerning food preparation, handling, storage, truth in menu laws concerning menu item names and product labeling, food handler's permits, nutritional claims, tax laws and regulations, including state and local sales tax requirements, and local labor regulations, including minimum age and minimum wage laws. You also agree to comply with all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy of the customer, employee, and transactional information (“Privacy Laws”) and other applicable data protection laws that are applicable to the System as a whole. You will have sole authority and control over the day-to-day operations of your Parlor and your employees and/or independent contractors. You agree to be solely responsible for all employment decisions and to comply with all state, federal, and local hiring laws, including without limitation, those related to hiring, firing, training, wage and hour requirements, compensation, promotion, record-keeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, paid or unpaid, full or part-time. At no time will you or your employees be deemed to be employees of us or our affiliates.

ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION

- 10.01 Advertising and Sales Promotion Programs Handel's may from time to time develop and create advertising and sales promotion programs designed to promote and enhance the collective success of all or some of the Handel's Parlors operating under the System. You must participate in all such advertising and sales promotion programs in accordance with the terms and conditions established by Handel's for each program. You must submit unapproved plans and materials to us, and we will have thirty (30) days to notify you of its approval or disapproval of such materials. If we do not provide specific approval of the proposed materials within this thirty (30) day period, the proposed materials will be deemed rejected. Any plans and materials that you submit to us for our review will become our property and there will be no restriction on our use or dissemination of such materials. We may revoke our approval of any previously-approved advertising materials and promotional plans upon notice to you. We reserve the right to require you to include certain language on all advertising to be used locally by you or to be used by a Cooperative, including, but not limited to, the phrase "Franchises Available" and references to our telephone number and/or website.

You must spend the Initial Advertising on marketing and promotional materials approved by us. We will provide you with an Opening Advertising schedule setting forth your required expenditure and any other requirements or limitations on how these funds must be expended.
- 10.04 Local Advertising Requirement In addition to Initial Opening Advertising, you must expend a minimum percentage of Gross Revenue each month the Franchised Business is open and operating on advertising and marketing the Franchised Business within the Territory (the "Local Advertising Requirement"). The Local Advertising Requirement will be a minimum of one percent (1%) of Gross Revenue per month. We will provide written notice of any changes to the Local Advertising Requirement, and any such changes will go into effect the following calendar month. Upon our request, you must provide us with invoices or other proof of your monthly expenditures on local advertising and marketing. You must ensure that: (i) the Franchised Business has a dedicated phone line for use in connection with the Parlor only (and no other business, including any other Handel's franchise); and (ii) the Parlor is listed in the appropriate Internet-based directories that we designate. You may not advertise and promote the parlor outside of the Territory, unless (a) the geographic area wherein you wish to advertise is contiguous to the Territory and that area has not been granted to any other Handel's location or Handel's franchisee/developer, or (b) we otherwise provide prior written consent in writing.

We may use the Fund to develop or implement training programs, outreach, or technologies that will enhance the reputation and strengthen the goodwill of the Handel's brand. We and/or a regional or national advertising agency may be used to produce all advertising and marketing.

We are not required to spend any of your Fund contributions in your Territory nor are we required to make expenditures for you that are equivalent or proportionate to your Fund contribution or to ensure that any particular franchisee or any particular geographic region benefits directly or pro rata from the placement of advertising or marketing efforts by the Fund. If we do not spend all Fund contributions in a given year, any excess funds will roll over into the Fund for use during the following year. Upon your written request, we may provide you with an unaudited annual financial statement accounting for the operation of the Fund. We are not required to have the Fund audited, but we may do so and use the Fund contributions to pay for such an audit. If approved to establish a separate website, you shall comply with Franchisor's policies, standards and specifications with respect to the creation, maintenance and content of any such website. You specifically acknowledge and agree that any website owned or maintained by or for the benefit of you shall be deemed "advertising" under this Agreement and will be subject to (among other things) our approval as described in this Section 10. You may not promote or otherwise list the Parlor, or the Marks or System, on any social media or networking site, including without limitation, Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Pinterest, Twitter or YouTube, without our prior written consent. You must have your social media handle approved by us, not later than 30 days from the date you sign a lease for the approved site of your Parlor. You must provide us with administrative access, including all usernames and passwords, which are associated with any online presence we permit you to establish. We have the unlimited right to change, remove, add or make any other modification to any social media or networking account or profile which we deem appropriate or necessary in our sole discretion. We shall have the right to modify the provisions of this Section relating to your use of separate websites and social media as we determine necessary or appropriate. You must monitor, and respond within 48 hours, to any critical online reviews of your Parlor.

- 10.07 Cooperatives We may establish regional advertising cooperatives that are comprised of multiple Handel's franchisees located within a geographical region that we designate (each, a "Cooperative"). If we establish a Cooperative and designate you as a member thereof, you may be required to contribute to the Cooperative in an amount that exceeds the minimum required Local Advertising Requirement each month. All amounts paid to a Cooperative will be credited towards your required Local Advertising Requirement. We shall have the right to specify the governing rules, terms and operating procedures of any Cooperative.

Article Eleven RECORDS AND REPORTING

- 11.01 Bookkeeping, Accounting and Records You must employ a qualified bookkeeper we approve to maintain accounting, inventory control and record keeping functions for your Business, which must conform to our standardized format and all other requirements. You must use the bookkeeping or other accounting software we designate. You must strictly follow our then current accounting manual (the "Accounting Manual"), which is part of the Operations Manual, in the preparation of the statements and reports required by this Agreement, the Operations Manual, and the Accounting Manual. We reserve the right to change or modify the Accounting Manual at any time in our sole and absolute discretion, and you must comply with any new terms, conditions, or instructions of the Accounting Manual upon notification of the changes from Handel's or on any other date designated by us. You must keep all original accounting documents pertaining to your Business during, and at least six (6) years after the term of this Agreement, at a location of which you must keep us advised. All sales must be recorded at time of sale in the presence of the customers on a cash register or point of sales system we have approved.  - (e) other forms, reports and records we may then-require from you.
 - (f) at the end of each day we will have independent access to information and data that will be electronically collected on your point of sales system, which may determine from time to time in the Operations Manual.
- 11.03 Audited Statements If we have reasonable grounds to believe that any information you have furnished to us contains a material misstatement or omission, or if our audit under Section 12.02 discloses a Gross Revenue understatement for any period, we reserve the right, at our option, to require you to provide financial statements audited by an independent CPA we approve, for the current, and all future periods.

- 11.04 Maintenance of Records You must, in a manner satisfactory to us and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, maintain original, full, and complete register tapes, computer files, back-up files, other records, accounts, books, data, licenses, contracts, and product vendor invoices which shall accurately reflect all particulars relating to the Parlor, as well as other statistical and financial information and records we may require. All of this information must be kept for at least three (3) years, even if this Agreement is no longer in effect. Upon our request, you must furnish us with copies of any or all product or equipment supply invoices reflecting purchases by or on behalf of the Parlor. In addition, you shall compile and provide to us any statistical or financial information regarding the operation of the Parlor, the products and services sold by it, or data of a similar nature, including without limitation, any financial data that we believe that we need to compile or disclose in connection with the sale of franchises or that we may elect to disclose in connection with the sale of franchises. All data provided to us under this Section 11 shall belong to us and may be used and published by us in connection with the System (including in our disclosure documents).
- 11.05 Computer System for Records You shall record all transactions and Gross Revenue of the Parlor on a computer system that is approved by us, which must contain software that allows you to record accumulated sales without turning back, resetting or erasing such sales. We will, at all times and without notice to you, have the right to independently and remotely access and view your computer system. You agree that we have the right to require you to update or upgrade computer hardware components, software, and/or cloud-based subscriptions as we deem necessary from time to time, with no limitations as to the number or cost of such updates or upgrades. You must take all steps, including but not limited to those related to visibility and management of your Business network, that are necessary to ensure that your Business is compliant with all data privacy and security laws and Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI DSS) requirements, as such standards may be revised and modified by the PCI Security Standards Council (see pcisecuritystandards.org), or such successor organization or standards that we may reasonably specify. You agree to use any computer network, intranet system, extranet system, email, and handheld devices required or authorized for use in connection with the Business in strict compliance with our standards, protocols, and restrictions that we include in the Operations Manual or in our other written policies, which include but are not limited to Brand's privacy policies, encryption requirements, data and IT security policies - including the implementation of phishing and other security awareness programs and training, cyber incident notification requirements, and Artificial Intelligence policies. You further agree not to violate our privacy policies or user terms on our website.
- 11.06 Computer System Files and Passwords You will not install or load any computer software on the hard disks of the computer system used in connection with the parlor without our prior written consent. All computer and file passwords associated with the computer system must be supplied as a list to us, along with any modifications or changes to that list. The passwords to access the computer system located at the Premises or used by the Parlor, as well as all computer files and records related to the Parlor, are the exclusive property of us and you must provide us with these files and information upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement.
- 11.07 Current Contracts, Listings and Projects At any time and upon our request, you shall provide us with a copy or summary listing, at our discretion, of all current contracts, listings, agreements, and projects that you are involved in or working with.

INSPECTION AND AUDITS

- 12.01 The Right to Inspect To determine whether you are complying with this Agreement, we have the right anytime during normal business hours, and without prior notice, to conduct a physical inspection of all your Parlor equipment, inventory, materials and supplies. You must cooperate fully with our representatives during such inspection. If we notify you that any inspected item did not meet our requirements, or your Parlor did not meet Handel's System image, you must immediately correct such deficiencies. We have the right to observe the service you provide customers at any time without prior notice.

- 12.02 The Right to Audit Handel's, or its agent, without prior notice, has the right to audit any and all business records, receipts, statements, returns, forms, reports and supporting documentation of the Business, and the books and records of the Principal or any corporation or partnership that has a direct or indirect interest in the Business. If we determine an audit is necessary when this Agreement terminates, you will deliver upon notice, all required records and documents, failing which we may enter the Premises and conduct any such audit. You must cooperate fully during such audit.

If the audit finds an understatement of Gross Revenue you must pay us, 5 days after receipt of the audit report, the amount of the understatement plus interest at the rate specified under Section 20.10. In addition to our right of termination provided for in Article 16, if such audit is necessitated by your failure to furnish required information and documents, or if the understatement is found to be more than 3% for any period, or if you fail to cooperate during such audit, then you must promptly reimburse us for the cost of the audit, including any and all charges of independent accountants and the travel expenses, room, board and compensation of Handel's audit representatives.

- 12.03 Information from Others You hereby authorize Handel's to make reasonable inquiries of your bank, suppliers and trade creditors concerning the business, and hereby direct such persons to provide Handel's with such information as Handel's requests.

MARKS

- 13.01 Ownership and Goodwill of Marks You acknowledge that you have no interest in or to the Marks and that your right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to the conduct of business in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable specifications, standards and operating procedures that we require during the term of the Franchise. You agree that the use of the Marks and any goodwill established exclusively benefits us and our affiliates, and that you receive no interest in any goodwill related to your use of the Marks or the System. You must not, at any time during the term of this Agreement or after your termination or expiration, contest or assist any other person in contesting the validity or ownership of any of the Marks.
- 13.02 Limitations on Your Use of Marks You agree to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Parlor, but you must identify yourself as the independent owner in the manner we direct. You must not use any Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or in any modified form, nor may you use any Mark in selling any unauthorized product or service or in any other manner we do not expressly authorize in writing. You agree to display the Marks prominently and in the manner we direct on all signs and forms. Subject to our rights described in this Agreement, you agree to obtain fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law.
- 13.03 Notification of Infringements and Claims You must notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any Mark, or any claim by any person of any rights in any Mark or any similar trade name, trademark or service mark of which you become aware. You must not communicate with any person other than us and our counsel regarding any infringement, challenge or claim. We may take any action we deem appropriate and have the right to exclusively control any litigation or other proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim relating to any Mark. You will sign all documents, provide assistance and take all action as we may reasonably request to protect and maintain our interests in any litigation or other proceeding or to otherwise protect and maintain our interests in the Marks.
- 13.04 Litigation You will have no obligation to and will not, without our prior written consent, defend or enforce any of the Marks in any court or other proceedings for or against imitation, infringement, any claim of prior use, or for any other allegation. You will, however, immediately notify us of any claims or complaints made against you respecting the Marks and will, at your expense, cooperate in all respects with us in any court or other proceedings involving the Marks. We will pay the cost and expense of all litigation we incur, including attorneys' fees, specifically relating to the Marks. We and our legal counsel will have the right to control and conduct any litigation relating to the Marks.

- 13.05 Changes You cannot make any changes or substitutions to the Marks unless we so direct in writing. We reserve the right to modify or discontinue use of any Mark, or to use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks. In such event, you will, at your expense, comply with such modification or substitution within a reasonable time after notice by us.

COVENANTS

- 14.01 In-Term Covenant Not to Compete You (and each Owner, including the Operating Principal) will not, during the term of this Agreement, directly or as an employee, agent, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other person, firm, entity, partnership or corporation: (a) divert or attempt to divert any business or customers of the Parlor to any competitor or perform any act that would damage the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System; or (b) own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in, or assist any person or entity engaged in any business (including any e-commerce or Internet-based business) that distributes, sells or otherwise deals in, at wholesale or retail, ice cream, sherbet, ices, sorbet, frozen yogurt and other related food and beverage products, or any other related business that is competitive with or similar to a Handel's ice cream parlor (a "Competing Business"), except: (1) with our prior written consent; (2) the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent two percent (2%) or less of that class of securities; or (3) under a separate agreement between you and us.
- 14.02 Post-Term Covenant Not to Compete You (and each Owner, including the Operating Principal) will not, for a period of two (2) years after this Agreement expires or is terminated or the date on which you cease to operate the Parlor, whichever is later, directly or as an employee, agent, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other person, firm, entity, partnership or corporation: (a) divert or attempt to divert any business or customers of the Parlor to any competitor or perform any act that would damage the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System; or (b) own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in, or assist any Competing Business within a thirty (30) mile radius of the former Territory of the Parlor or any other then existing Handel's ice cream parlor; provided, however, that this Section 14.02 will not apply to: (i) other Handel's ice cream parlors that you operate under separate Handel's franchise agreements; or (ii) the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent two percent (2%) or less of that class of securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the scope of the non-compete described in this Section with respect to your ownership or operation of a Competing Business that offers or grants franchises or licenses for the ownership or operation of a Competing Business shall be the geographical area where we can demonstrate that we have offered and sold franchises as of the date this Agreement is terminated or expires (or, if applicable, as of the date you assign/transfer this Agreement). For purposes of this Section, any form of e-commerce business or website that offers ice cream, sherbet, ices, sorbet, frozen yogurt, other ice cream products, and related food and beverage products that are offered at a Handel's ice cream parlor will be in violation of this provision if such e-commerce business or website offers, sells or otherwise makes its products or services available to individuals residing within or businesses located within a thirty (30) mile radius of the former site of the Parlor or any other then-existing Handel's ice cream parlor. You agree that the length of time in this Section 14.02 will be tolled for any period during which you are in breach of the covenants or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement.
- 14.03 Injunctive Relief You agree that damages alone cannot adequately compensate us if there is a violation of any covenant in this Section in that injunctive relief is essential for our protection. You therefore agree that we may seek injunctive relief without posting any bond or security, in addition to the remedies that may be available to us at equity or law, if you or anyone acting on your behalf violates any covenant in this Section. The covenants stated in this Section will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- (n) If you receive three (3) or more notices of any default, whether or not cured, in any consecutive twelve (12) month period.

Article Seventeen

YOUR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

- 17.01 Payment of Amounts Owed to Us and other Creditors You must pay all amounts owed to Handel's or our affiliates and any trade creditors of your Business fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration. Periodic payments will be deemed to accrue daily and will be adjusted accordingly.
- 17.02 Return of Manuals and Retention of Records You agree that you will return all Handel's Manuals, instructional and advertising materials provided to you in five (5) days after termination or expiration. Also, for any and all printed matter bearing the Marks, unless they bear your name, we will credit you with your cost of such items less fifteen percent (15%). You must keep all financial records of the Business for at least six (6) years after this Agreement ends, and you must keep us advised of such location. You will allow us to inspect such records at any time during normal business hours.
- 17.03 Cancellation of Assumed Names, Transfer of Phone Numbers You agree that immediately upon termination or expiration, you will cancel all style and assumed name registrations relating to the Business, and cease any use of the Marks or any colorable imitation, and not identify yourself as a franchisee, or that you are otherwise associated with Handel's. You agree to notify the telephone company and all other listing agencies, and to transfer such numbers to Handel's or its designee. You agree to assign Handel's any websites, social media or internet sites associated with the Business and to provide all account log-in information and administrative codes. You will take all steps necessary to effectuate your obligations under this provision. You acknowledge that Handel's has the sole right to, and interest in, all telephone numbers, directory listings, websites, social media and internet accounts associated with the Business.
- 17.04 Appearance of the Franchisee's Parlor If you maintain possession of the Parlor Premises after the Franchise terminates or expires, you agree that you will, immediately on notice from Handel's, alter the appearance of the Premises as Handel's may reasonably require to distinguish itself from Handel's System image.

- 17.05 Our Right to Purchase If this Agreement expires or terminates for any reason, we have the right, but not the obligation, to notify you in writing up to thirty (30) days after the effective date the Franchise ends, to buy all or any part of the equipment, fixtures, furnishings, signs, and other physical assets you own and use in the Business, other than personal items, for a price equal to fair market value as determined by agreement between you and us. Failing agreement ten (10) days after we decide to purchase, we will designate an independent appraiser, and you will designate an independent appraiser, and the two appraisers so chosen will select a third appraiser. The decision of the majority of the appraisers so chosen will be conclusive. The cost of the third appraiser shall be shared equally by you and us. For purposes of this Section 17.05, fair market value means the lower of cost (determined on a first-in, first-out basis), or net realizable wholesale value, with no increment for goodwill. We will choose the time and place of closing, acting reasonably, and it must be completed according to all applicable bulk sales legislation. On closing, you must deliver to us a Bill of Sale for the assets in a form acceptable to us. We can offset any amounts you then owe to us against the purchase price, and we can pay out of the purchase price any and all of your unpaid trade creditors.
- 17.06 Right of Entry On termination of this Agreement for any reason, we may, before exercising our rights under Section 17.05, enter and use all or any part of the Premises, and property located in, on, or about the Premises and used in connection with the Parlor Business. We will not be liable for trespass or neglect in so doing or in respect to any depreciation or damage to the property. We will pay you a reasonable rental for the property. All revenues, profits and benefits of any kind from the management and operation of the Parlor throughout such period will be for our exclusive account provided we pay all debts and liabilities we incur during Business operation. Also, we may pay all claims you owe to business creditors, and you must pay all such amounts to us on demand. We have no obligation to retain, or honor any contractual commitment you made, to any employee of the Business, and all liability with respect to this will be borne by you. If we decide to keep any such employee, it will be under a new employment agreement between us and the employee which will begin the first day we carry on Business from the Premises. Any employee claim from unpaid salary, vacation pay or other benefits from his employment with you, are your exclusive responsibility. We retain the right to occupy the Premises and conduct the Business until the option period of Section 17.05 expires, provided that if we exercise such option, our right of Premises occupation will continue throughout the period preceding and including the transaction closing.
- 17.07 Continuing Obligations All obligations of the parties which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement, will be given full force and effect after this Agreement ends.

Article Eighteen

ASSIGNMENT, TRANSFER AND ENCUMBRANCES

- 18.01 By Us We retain the right to transfer or assign this Agreement and all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, or any interests in the assets of us, or any ownership or equity interests in us, to any person or legal entity, and any assignee of ours shall become solely responsible for all obligations of us under this Agreement from the date of assignment.
- 18.02 By You Without our prior written consent, which may not be arbitrarily withheld, you must not mortgage, charge, pledge, grant a security interest in or otherwise encumber, all or any part of your interest in this Agreement, the Franchise, the franchisee, including the transfer of ownership of capital stock, membership interest/units, or partnership interests, or the assets used in the Business. The Franchise is personal to you and this Agreement, your rights hereunder, the lease of the Premises and assets used in connection with the Business, may not be sold, assigned or otherwise transferred, in whole or in part, in any manner whatever without our prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld. However, before we will grant our consent, we require that:
- (a) You pay us all outstanding amounts under this, and all, Agreements between you and Handel's, plus a Transfer Fee equal to $15,000 (unless the proposed transferee is an Owner's spouse or child);

- (b) The transferee and all other persons named as parties, execute our then-current form of franchise agreement and, if we require, sublease of the Premises, and all other documents we require;
- (c) The transferee buys all of your physical assets used in the Business, in accordance with all applicable bulk sales legislation;
- (d) You execute a general release of all your respective claims against us and our affiliates;
- (e) The transferee shall demonstrate to our satisfaction that he or she meets our educational, managerial and business standards; possesses a good moral character, business reputation and credit rating; has the aptitude and ability to conduct the business to be transferred; and has adequate financial resources and capital to meet the performance obligations under this Agreement; however, transferee must not be deemed in our sole discretion to have any disqualifying conflict of interest or otherwise be in the same business as us either as licensor, franchisor, independent operator or licensee of any other business or chain which is similar in nature or in competition with us, except that the transferee may be an existing franchisee of ours; and
- (f) The transferee must successfully complete our training program, and otherwise be capable of operating the Parlor.

18.03 Restrictions on Share/Membership/Partnership Interest Transfers

- (a) The shareholders/members/partners represent to Handel's that he/she owns, beneficially and of record, all of the issued and outstanding stock, membership interests/units, partnership interests of franchisee.
- (b) The Owners agree that he/she will not directly or indirectly, by operation of law or otherwise, sell, assign or otherwise transfer or encumber ("transfer"), any of franchisee's capital stock or membership interests/units now or partnership interests or hereafter controlled by him/her, nor permit franchisee to transfer any of its treasury stock/units/interests or issue additional stock/units/interests or undergo any merger, or other reorganization, without Handel's prior written consent.
- (c) After signing this Agreement, and afterward on the issue of any of your capital stock or membership units, all persons who directly or indirectly beneficially own or acquire any of your stock or membership interests/units, must execute a written agreement with Handel's under seal, agreeing to be bound by the restrictions on assignment, and the non-competition and secrecy covenants in this Agreement. Also, your Operating Principal, and any person who owns, even indirectly, 10% or more of franchisee's outstanding capital stock/units/interests, must execute a written agreement with, and in a form approved by, Handel's, personally guaranteeing full payment and performance of franchisee's obligations to Handel's under this Agreement, and agreeing to be bound jointly and severally by all of the covenants and obligations of the principal under this Agreement. Immediately on election or appointment of an officer or director, you must cause such person to enter a written agreement, in a form Handel's determines, agreeing to be bound by the non-competition and secrecy covenants in this Agreement.
- (d) When you sign this Agreement, and afterward on the transfer or issuance of your capital stock, you must provide us with a complete list of all stockholders/members/partners having an interest, and the percentage ownership of each. Also, you must furnish us within 5 days after such transfer or issuance of shares or the election or appointment of any officer or director of franchisee, the documents referred to in subsection (c), duly executed by all required persons.

- (e) Your charter documents must explicitly refer to the foregoing restrictions on stock transfer or issuance. You must maintain stop transfer instructions on your records, against the transfer of stock, subject to the foregoing restrictions, and must have all outstanding stock certificates endorsed with the following legend printed conspicuously on the face of each certificate:

“The transfer of stock represented by this certificate is subject to the terms of a Unit Franchise Agreement made among Handel's and dated the _____ day of _____, 20____.”

18.04 Death or Permanent Incapacity On your death or permanent incapacity, the Operating Principal or the Owner's estate, as the case may be, must, after having obtained Handel's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld (but will be subject to the following conditions), either:

- (a) Assign all of the Owner's right, title and interest in and to the Owner's shares in the capital stock of franchisee to another person whom Handel's, in its discretion, determines to be acceptable and will not unreasonably withhold; or
- (b) Cause the franchisee to assign all of its right, title and interest in, this Agreement, the Franchise, the Premises and Parlor, and the Business and all its assets, to another person whom Handel's, in its sole subjective discretion, deems acceptable.

As a condition to granting its consent, Handel's is entitled to require that:

- (i) You pay Handel's all outstanding amounts due under this or any other Agreement, to which you are a party, plus a transfer fee equal to $15,000. Handel's will waive the transfer fee, if the proposed transferee is the deceased Owner's spouse or child, or a trust created, and controlled by the Owner for estate planning purposes;
- (ii) In a transfer under 18.04(b), all applicable bulk sales legislation must be complied with, and transferee and all others proposed as parties must execute Handel's then-current franchise agreement, including all exhibits and schedules, and if Handel's requires, sublease of the Parlor;
- (iii) The transferee and all others proposed as parties must execute all other documents Handel's uses then in granting franchises.
- (iv) The Owner or his estate, Franchisee and its directors, officers and shareholders, execute a general release of all their respective claims against Handel's and its affiliates;
- (v) If required by Handel's, transferee must be an individual having adequate financial resources, who must complete Handel's training program and be otherwise capable of operating the Parlor.

18.05 Option to Terminate If a disposition under Section 18.04 to an acceptable person has not taken place in one hundred twenty (120) days after the death or permanent disability of the Operating Principal, Handel's will have the continuing option, exercisable on 10 days written notice to you, of terminating this Agreement and the Franchise. If Handel's elects to terminate, the provisions of Article 16 will apply to you.

18.06 Deemed Permanent Incapacity of the Operating Principal For purposes of Section 18.04, the Operating Principal will be deemed to be permanently incapacitated if his normal participation in the Business is curtailed by reason of mental or physical disability for a cumulative period of three (3) months during any twelve (12) month period of the agreement.

18.07 Our Right of First Refusal We (or any Third-Party Assignee of us) may elect to exercise our Right of First Refusal if you or any Owner decides to sell any interest(s) in the business.

- (a) If you or any Owner desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party to purchase you, any material assets of you, or any direct or indirect interest in you, you or such Owner shall promptly notify us of such offer and shall provide such information and documentation relating to the offer as we may require. We shall have the right and option, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of all such information, to send written notice to the seller that we intend to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party. If we elect to purchase the seller's interest, the closing on such purchase shall occur within sixty (60) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by us.
- (b) Any material change in the terms of the bona fide offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by us as in the case of the third party's initial offer. Our failure to exercise the option afforded by this Section 18.07 shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Article 18, with respect to a proposed transfer, or a waiver of any subsequent offer.
- (c) In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a third party are such that we may not reasonably be required to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then we may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash. If the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time on the reasonable equivalent in cash of the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by the third party, they must attempt to appoint a mutually acceptable independent appraiser to make a binding determination. If the parties are unable to agree upon one (1) independent appraiser, then an independent appraiser shall be promptly designated by Franchisor and another independent appraiser shall be promptly designated by Franchisee, which two (2) appraisers shall, in turn, promptly designate a third appraiser; all three (3) appraisers shall promptly confer and reach a single determination, which determination shall be binding upon the parties. The cost of any such appraisal shall be shared equally by you and us. If we elect to exercise our right under this Section 18.07, we shall have the right to set off all amounts due from you, and one-half (½) of the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment to the seller.

Article Nineteen

INDEMNITY AND GUARANTEE

19.01 Indemnity You will, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, indemnify and hold us and our affiliates, and our and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents harmless against any and all claims, obligations, and damages arising directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with this Agreement, the Parlor, your operation of the Parlor, the business conducted under this Agreement, you and your employees' actions and inactions, or your breach of this Agreement, including, without limitation, those alleged to be caused by our negligence, as well as the costs, including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses), of defending against them, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations, and damages are determined to be caused solely by our gross negligence or willful misconduct according to a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction. In the event we incur any costs or expenses, including, without limitation, legal fees (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest on such fees, costs, and expenses)), travel expenses, and other charges, in connection with any proceeding involving Franchisee in which we are not a party, you will reimburse us for all such costs and expenses promptly upon presentation of invoices. You acknowledge and agrees that your indemnification and hold harmless obligations under this Section 19.01 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- 19.02 Guarantee Each present and future (a) shareholder if you are a corporation, (b) member if you are a limited liability company, and (c) partner if you are a partnership or limited liability partnership, shall jointly and severally guarantee your performance of each and every provision of this Agreement by executing the Personal Guarantee attached to this Agreement as Schedule E. In addition, we require that the spouse (or domestic partner or other immediate family member) of an Owner of you sign the Personal Guarantee.
- 19.03 Survival The indemnities and assumptions of liabilities and obligations continue in full force and effect after the expiration or termination of this Agreement and apply to all claims even if they exceed the limits of your insurance coverage.

Article Twenty

GENERAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

- 20.01 Enforcement You acknowledge that your failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement would cause Handel's irreparable harm which may not be compensable by damages; Handel's will therefore be entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint itself or another person as receiver and/or manager of your Business and to obtain, without bond, declarations, temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Agreement. If Handel's secures any such injunction, declaration or order of specific performance, you agree to pay to Handel's the total of all of its cost of obtaining such relief, including legal costs and expert witness fees without limitation, travel and living expenses, and any damages awarded as a result of such breach.
- 20.02 Severability All provisions of this Agreement are severable; it will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid and unenforceable provisions were omitted; all partially valid and enforceable provisions must be enforced to the extent they are intelligible, valid and enforceable, and no covenant or provision will be deemed dependent on any other covenant or provision unless expressly stated in the Agreement.

Each of us and you irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive all rights to challenge personal jurisdiction and venue. The provisions of this Section 20.03 will survive the termination of this Agreement.
- 20.04 Compliance with Local Law If any applicable law or rule of the state in which the Parlor is located requires a longer notice period to you than is required under this Agreement, the longer period will be substituted herein.
- 20.05 Waiver of Obligations and Amendments No acceptance by us of any payment by you and no failure by us to exercise any right or demand strict compliance with any obligation or procedure, will constitute a waiver of any provision to this Agreement. Any waiver granted by us will be without prejudice to any other rights it might have and may be revoked, at any time, by written notice. Our waiver of any breach by you, or our delay or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement, will not be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or be deemed an estoppel to enforce our rights respecting that or any other breach.
- 20.06 You May Not Withhold Payments You agree you will not, on grounds of alleged non-performance by Handel's, or for any other reason, withhold payment of any amount due whatsoever. No endorsement on any check, or payment of any sum less than the full amount due to Handel's, will be construed as payment in full or in accord and satisfaction, and Handel's may cash any such check without prejudice to its right to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy. Handel's may apply any payment you make to any past due indebtedness of yours that it sees fit. Handel's may apply any payments it owes you directly to your unpaid trade creditors.

We have the right to operate, administer, develop and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by the provisions of this Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that Handel's will be entitled to the benefit of any and all discounts, volume rebates or other concession Handel's may obtain from any person by reason of its supplying goods to you or other franchisees. Handel's may, at its option and in its sole discretion, pass on all or part of these benefits derived, to you and other franchisees in any manner it determines.

(b) Our Reasonable Business Judgment Whenever we reserve discretion in a particular area or where we agree or are required to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations whenever we exercise "reasonable business judgment" in making our decision or exercising our rights. A decision or action by us will be deemed to be the result of "reasonable business judgment," even if other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternatives are available, if our decision or action is intended to promote or benefit the System generally even if the decision or action also promotes a financial or other individual interest of ours. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include enhancing the value of the Marks, improving customer service and satisfaction, improving product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization, and improving the competitive position of the Business System. Neither you nor any third party (including a trier of fact), will substitute their judgment for our reasonable business judgment.

(c) Other Franchises. You acknowledge that other Handel's ice cream parlors have or will be granted franchises at different times and in different situations, and further acknowledge that the provisions of such franchises may vary substantially from those contained in this Agreement.

20.22 Limitation of Actions Franchisee further agrees that no cause of action arising out of or under this Agreement may be maintained by Franchisee against Franchisor unless Franchisee brings an action/suit against Franchisor before the expiration of one (1) year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one year after the Franchisee becomes aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that Franchisee may have a claim against Franchisor hereunder, whichever occurs sooner. Any action/suit that Franchisee does not bring within this period shall be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off. Franchisee hereby waives the right to obtain any remedy based on alleged fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit by Franchisor, including, without limitation, rescission of this Agreement, in any mediation, judicial, or other adjudicatory proceeding arising hereunder, except upon a ground expressly provided in this Agreement.

HANDEL'S ICE CREAM EMPLOYEES' NON-DISCLOSURE AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made the _____ day of _____, 20____, by and between _____/D.B.A. Handel's Ice Cream ("Employer"), and _____ ("Employee"), an individual residing at _____, and HANDEL'S ENTERPRISES, LLC, A Delaware limited liability company ("Handel's").

In consideration of Employee's employment by Employer, or if Employee is an existing employee, the receipt and sufficiency of which Employee acknowledges, Employee, Employer and Handel's, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree:

1. Employee acknowledges that certain confidential, proprietary and trade secret information, materials and business concepts ("proprietary information") with respect to Handel's and Employer's business will be disclosed to Employee to enable Employee to perform his/her employment duties. Employee further acknowledges that he/she will learn of and have access to proprietary information in a variety of written and verbal forms, including electronic and graphic media. Employee acknowledges that Handel's has invested considerable money, time and other resources in the research, development and expansion of the proprietary information, and that it is the main source of Handel's and Employer's competitive advantage in the ice cream and yogurt business.

2. Employee acknowledges that the proprietary information includes the Operations Manual, business concepts, financial information, marketing plans, key suppliers and sources, inventory concepts, accounting and operating methods, recipes, ice cream and yogurt making techniques, shop practices, customer information, pricing policies, strategic plans and all related intellectual property.

3. During the term of Employee's employment with Employer, and at all times after termination of employment for any reason, Employee agrees:

- (a) not to publish, copy, disclose, allow to be disclosed, or use for his benefit or that of any other person or entity, the proprietary information without the prior written consent of Handel's and
- (b) to maintain strictly the confidentiality of the proprietary information at all times.

Employee agrees to take all necessary precautions to protect the proprietary information from unauthorized disclosure or use. Employee acknowledges that unauthorized disclosure or use of the proprietary information will cause harm to his Employer and Handel's, and they will be entitled to an immediate injunction from a court of competent jurisdiction in addition to all other legal and equitable remedies.

4. In any judicial proceedings the parties agree that it will be presumed that the proprietary information constitutes protectable trade secrets, and that Employee will bear the burden of proving that any portions of the proprietary information was publicly or rightfully known and disclosed by Employee.

5. During the term of Employee's employment, and for two (2) years following the termination of Employee's employment for any reason, Employee will not:

- (a) directly or indirectly contact or do business with any supplier of Employer's or its affiliates, for the purpose of soliciting such customer to buy ice cream or other products that would be in competition with those products made and sold by Employer, Handel's or its affiliates;
- (b) directly or indirectly contact or do business with any supplier of Employer's, for the purpose of buying ice cream, and related products from such supplier; or
- (c) directly or indirectly engage, within a five (5) mile radius of any ice cream shop owned or operated by Employer, or any other ice cream shop operated under the trademark and service mark "Handel's", whether as an employee, partner, owner, agent, franchisor, franchisees stockholders officer, director, or other representative, in any business which sells ice cream or yogurt or which markets, offers, sells, or licenses the products or services of Handel's; provided, however, that Employee will be allowed to own up to 5% of a publicly-traded corporation and such restriction shall not apply to Employee's employment with or at another Handel's Parlor.

6. Employee agrees that the geographic scope of the above covenant not to compete is reasonable and required because Employer's and Handel's business is consumer-oriented. Employee agrees that his education enables Employee to obtain employment in many different areas of endeavor other than the ice cream business and to work for different types of employers so that it will not be necessary for Employee to violate the provisions of section 5 in order to remain economically viable. The covenant on the part of the Employee will be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision of this Agreement. The existence of any claim, dispute or cause of action against Employee, Employer, or Handel's, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, will not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Employer of this covenant.

7. If Employee violates any of the provisions of section 5, the periods described therein will be extended by that number of days equal to the aggregate number of days during which, at any time, Employee committed any such violation.

8. The covenants, provisions, and paragraphs of this Agreement will be severable, and if any portion of this Agreement is held unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining terms and conditions or portions thereof, will remain in full force and effect. This Agreement will be construed in such case as if the unlawful or unenforceable portion had never been contained in the Agreement.

9. The failure to object to any conduct or violation of any of the covenants made by Employee under this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of any rights or remedies under the Agreement.

10. This Agreement will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Ohio without regard to its conflicts of laws provision.

11. Employee agrees that all proprietary information, in whatever form, and all copies or imitations of the proprietary information, will be returned to Employer immediately on termination of Employee's employment. Employee agrees to execute an affidavit as to the complete return of all proprietary information if Employer or Handel's so requests.

12. Employee agrees that this Agreement has been made in the State of _____, and that it is fair and reasonable that any actions under this Agreement will be brought only in the state or federal courts located in Youngstown, Ohio, and Employee submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and venue therein, Employer has the right to bring an action under this Agreement in the courts of other jurisdictions.

13. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties as to the subject matter and supersedes all prior oral or written communications, proposals, representations, warranties, covenants, understandings or agreements between them relating thereto.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE HAS CAREFULLY READ AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS ALL OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, THAT HE (OR SHE) HAS BEEN GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH AN ADVISOR, AND THAT EMPLOYEE IS VOLUNTARILY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Employee, Employer and Handel's have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

ARTICLE III

NON-COMPETITION

You acknowledge that as a participant in the Franchisor's System, you will receive proprietary and confidential information and materials, trade secrets, and the unique methods, procedures and techniques which Franchisor has developed. Therefore, to protect Franchisor and all Franchisor's franchisees, you agree as follows:

1. During the Term of the Franchise Agreement and this Guaranty. During the term of the Franchise Agreement and this Personal Guaranty, each of the undersigned may not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation:

1.1. Own, maintain, engage in, be employed or serve as an officer, director, or principal of, lease space to, lend money or extend credit to, or have any other interest in or involvement with: (i) any other ice-cream, frozen yogurt or other frozen dessert restaurant or business (each, a "Competing Business"); or (ii) offers or grants licenses or franchises, or establishes joint ventures, for the ownership or operation of a Competing Business; provided, however, that this Section does not apply to your operation of a HANDEL'S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM franchise pursuant to a valid franchise agreement with Franchisor, or your ownership of less than two percent (2%) of the interests in a publicly traded company.

1.2. Divert or attempt to divert business or customers of any Franchisee-owned Franchised Businesses to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks or the System.

2. After the Term of This Agreement.

2.1. For a period of two (2) years after the expiration and nonrenewal, transfer or termination of the Franchise Agreement, regardless of the cause, the undersigned may not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation enter into any business competing in whole or in part with Franchisor in offering or granting franchises or licenses, or establishing joint ventures, for the ownership or operation of a Competing Business. The scope of the non-compete described in this Section shall be the geographical area where Franchisor can demonstrate that it has offered and sold franchises as of the date the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires (or, if applicable, as of the date Franchisee assigns/transfers the Franchise Agreement).

2.2. For a period of two (2) years after the expiration, transfer or termination of the Franchise Agreement, regardless of the cause, the undersigned may not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, partnership or corporation:

2.2.1. Own, maintain, engage in, be employed or serve as an officer, director, or principal of, lease space to, lend money or extend credit to, or have any other interest in or involvement with, any Competing Business that is located within a thirty (30) mile radius of: (i) the perimeter of the Territory granted under the Franchise Agreement; or (ii) any other Parlor that exists as of the date the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires (or, if applicable, as of the date Franchisee assigns/transfers the Franchise Agreement);

2.2.2. Contact any of Franchisor's suppliers or vendors for any competitive business purpose; or

2.2.3. Solicit any of Franchisor's employees, or the employees of Franchisor's affiliates, or any other System franchisee to discontinue employment.

3. Intent and Enforcement. It is the parties' intent that the provisions of this Article III be judicially enforced to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law. Accordingly, the parties agree that any reduction in scope or modification of any part of the noncompetition provisions contained herein shall not render any other part unenforceable. In the event of the actual or threatened breach of this Article III by you, any of your owners, or any members of their immediate family, Franchisor shall be entitled to an injunction restraining such person from any such actual or threatened breach. You agree that in the event of the actual or threatened breach of this Article III, Franchisor's harm will be irreparable and that Franchisor has no adequate remedy at law to prevent such harm. You acknowledge and agree that each of you has previously worked or been gainfully employed in other careers and that the provisions of this Article III in no way prevents you from earning a living. You further acknowledge and agree that the time limitation of this Article III shall be tolled during any default under this Guaranty.

ARTICLE IV DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. Acknowledgment. You acknowledge that this Guaranty is not a franchise agreement and does not confer upon you any rights to use the Franchisor's proprietary marks or its system.

2. Governing Law. This Guaranty shall be deemed to have been made in and governed by the laws of the State of Ohio.

3. Internal Dispute Resolution. You must first bring any claim or dispute arising out of or relating to the Franchise Agreement or this Personal Guaranty to Franchisor's Chief Executive Officer and/or President. You agree to exhaust this internal dispute resolution procedure before bringing any dispute before a third party. This agreement to engage in internal dispute resolution first shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

4. Mediation. At Franchisor's option, all claims or disputes between you and Franchisor or its affiliates arising out of, or in any way relating to, the Franchise Agreement, this Guaranty or any other agreement by and between the parties or their respective affiliates, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising from such agreements, which are not first resolved through the internal dispute resolution procedure set forth above, must be submitted first to mediation, in Canfield, Ohio under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. Before commencing any legal action against Franchisor or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, you must submit a notice to Franchisor that specifies, in detail, the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute. Franchisor will have a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice within which to notify you as to whether Franchisor or its affiliates elect to exercise our option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation. You may not commence any arbitration proceeding or other action against Franchisor or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute in any court unless Franchisor fails to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation, or such mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by Franchisor. Franchisor may specifically enforce our mediation rights under this Section. Each party shall bear its own cost of mediation, except that you and Franchisor shall share the mediator's fees and costs equally. This agreement to mediate at Franchisor's option shall survive any termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement and this Guaranty.

4.1. Excepted Claims. The parties agree that mediation shall not be required with respect to any claim or dispute involving: (i) any of your payment obligations that are past due; (ii) the actual or threatened disclosure or misuse of Franchisor's Confidential Information; (iii) the actual or threatened violation of Franchisor's rights in, or misuse of, the Proprietary Marks, System or other trade secrets; (iv) any of the restrictive covenants contained in the Franchise Agreement or this Guaranty; or (v) any claims arising out of or related to fraud or misrepresentation by you, or your insolvency (collectively, the "Excepted Claims").

5. Jurisdiction and Venue. Subject to the other dispute resolution provisions in this Personal Guaranty, the parties agree that any action at law or in equity instituted against either party to this Agreement must be commenced and litigated to conclusion (unless settled) only in any court of competent jurisdiction located closest to Canfield, Ohio or, if appropriate, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. The undersigned hereby irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of these courts.

6. Third Party Beneficiaries. Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, agents and/or employees are express third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement and the mediation and other dispute resolution provisions contained herein, each having authority to specifically enforce the right to mediate and litigate claims asserted against such person(s) by you.

7. Right to Injunctive Relief. Nothing contained in this Guaranty shall prevent Franchisor from applying to or obtaining from any court having jurisdiction a writ of attachment, temporary injunction, preliminary injunction and/or other emergency relief available to safeguard and protect Franchisor's interest prior to the filing of any mediation or arbitration proceeding, or pending the trial or handing down of a decision or award pursuant to any mediation or arbitration proceeding conducted hereunder. If injunctive relief is granted, your only remedy will be the court's dissolution of the injunctive relief. If the injunctive relief was wrongfully issued, you expressly waive all claims for damages you incurred as a result of the wrongful issuance.

8. JURY TRIAL AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR EQUITY, REGARDLESS OF WHICH PARTY BRINGS SUIT. THIS WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY MATTER WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO WHICH ARISES OUT OF OR IS RELATED IN ANY WAY TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE PERFORMANCE OF EITHER PARTY, AND/OR FRANCHISEE'S PURCHASE FROM FRANCHISOR OF THE FRANCHISE AND/OR ANY GOODS OR SERVICES. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT ALL PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS, WILL BE CONDUCTED ON AN INDIVIDUAL, NOT A CLASS-WIDE BASIS, AND THAT ANY PROCEEDING BETWEEN FRANCHISEE, FRANCHISEE'S GUARANTORS AND FRANCHISOR OR ITS AFFILIATES/OFFICERS/EMPLOYEES MAY NOT BE CONSOLIDATED WITH ANY OTHER PROCEEDING BETWEEN FRANCHISOR AND ANY OTHER THIRD PARTY.

9. Limitation of Action. You further agree that no cause of action arising out of or under this Guaranty may be maintained by you unless brought before the expiration of one year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one year after you become aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that you may have a claim against us, whichever occurs sooner, and that any action not brought within this period shall be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense or set-off.

10. Punitive Damages. You hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to or claim for any punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages (including, without limitation, lost profits) which you may have against us, arising out of any cause whatsoever (whether such cause be based in contract, negligence, strict liability, other tort or otherwise) and agrees that in the event of a dispute, that your recovery shall be limited to actual damages. If any other term of this Guaranty is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable for any reason, the foregoing provisions shall continue in full force and effect, including, without limitation, the waiver of any right to claim any consequential damages.

11. Costs and Attorneys' Fees. Whether or not formal legal proceedings are initiated, in the event Franchisor incurs any legal fees or other costs associated with enforcing the terms of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement against you, then Franchisor will be entitled to recover from you all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in enforcing the terms of this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement.

12. Nonwaiver. Franchisor's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Guaranty shall not be a waiver of our right to do so, any law, custom, usage or rule to the contrary notwithstanding. Delay or omission by us respecting any breach or default shall not affect Franchisor's rights respecting any subsequent breaches or defaults. All rights and remedies granted in this Guaranty shall be cumulative. Your election to exercise any remedy available by law or contract shall not be deemed a waiver or preclude exercise of any other remedy.

13. No Personal Liability. You agree that fulfillment of any and all of Franchisor's obligations written in the Franchise Agreement or this Guaranty, or based on any oral communications which may be ruled to be binding in a court of law, shall be Franchisor's sole responsibility and none of our owners, officers, agents, representatives, nor any individuals associated with Franchisor shall be personally liable to you for any reason. This is an important part of this Guaranty. You agree that nothing that you believe you have been told by us or our representatives shall be binding unless it is written in the Franchise Agreement or this Guaranty. Do not sign this Agreement if there is any question concerning its contents or any representations made.

14. Severability. The parties agree that if any provisions of this Guaranty may be construed in two ways, one of which would render the provision illegal or otherwise voidable or unenforceable and the other which would render it valid and enforceable, such provision shall have the meaning, which renders it valid and enforceable. The language of all provisions of this Guaranty shall be construed according to fair meaning and not strictly construed against either party. The provisions of this Guaranty are severable, and this Guaranty shall be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein, and partially valid and enforceable provisions shall be enforced to the extent that they are valid and enforceable. If any material provision of this Guaranty shall be stricken or declared invalid, the parties agree to negotiate mutually acceptable substitute provisions. In the event that the parties are unable to agree upon such provisions, Franchisor reserves the right to terminate this Guaranty.

15. Construction of Language. Any term defined in the Franchise Agreement which is not defined in this Guaranty will be ascribed the meaning given to it in the Franchise Agreement. The language of this Guaranty will be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Guaranty refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as you, their obligations and liabilities must be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

16. Successors. References to “Franchisor” or “the undersigned,” or “you” include the respective parties' heirs, successors, assigns or transferees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Guaranty on the date stated on the first page hereof.

EXHIBIT C
AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This Development Agreement (“Agreement”) entered into this ____ day of _____, 20____ (“Effective Date”), between: (i) Handel’s Enterprises, LLC, an Ohio limited liability company, with its principal business address at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406 (hereafter “Franchisor”); and (ii) _____, a/an _____ with an address at _____ (hereinafter “Developer”).

BACKGROUND

A. Franchisor and its affiliate/principals, as a result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort, and money, have developed and own a unique system (the “System”) related to the development and operation of ice cream parlors that sell homemade ice cream, sherbet, ices, sorbet, frozen yogurt and other ice cream products (collectively, the “Approved Products”), utilizing the System and proprietary marks (each, a “Parlor”).

B. Franchisor’s System is comprised of various proprietary and, in some cases, distinguishing elements, including without limitation: proprietary methodology and procedures for the establishment and operation of a Parlor; site selection guidance and criteria; specifications for the design, layout and construction of the interior of the Parlor; standards and specifications for the furniture, fixtures and equipment located within a Parlor; established relationships with approved or designated suppliers for certain products and services; and standards and specifications for advertising, bookkeeping, sales and other aspects of operating a Parlor. The parties agree and acknowledge that Franchisor may change, improve, further develop, or otherwise modify the System from time to time as it deems appropriate in its discretion. Developer hereby acknowledges and agrees that: (i) while the System and Franchisor’s related materials contain information that, in isolated form, could be construed as being in the public domain, they also contain significant proprietary and confidential information which makes the System unique as a whole; and (ii) the combined methods, information, procedures, and theories that make up the total System or are contained in the relevant manuals that are proprietary and confidential.

C. The System and Parlors are identified by the mark HANDEL’S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM, as well as certain other trade names, trademarks, service marks and trade dress that Franchisor designates for use in connection with each Parlor (collectively, the “Proprietary Marks”), all of which Franchisor may modify, update, supplement or substitute in the future as Franchisor deems appropriate. The parties agree and acknowledge that Franchisor has established substantial goodwill and business value in its Proprietary Marks, expertise, and System.

D. Franchisor grants qualified third parties the right to develop multiple HANDEL’S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM Parlors within a defined geographical area (the “Development Area”) in accordance with a development schedule that must be strictly adhered to, with each Parlor within the Development Area being opened and operating utilizing the Marks and System pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in a separate form of Franchisor’s then-current franchise agreement (each, a “Franchise Agreement”).

E. Developer recognizes the benefits from receiving the right to operate a HANDEL’S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM Parlor and desires to: (i) become a multi-unit Parlor operator subject to the terms of this Agreement; and (ii) receive the benefits provided by Franchisor under this Agreement.

F. Developer has applied for the right to open and operate multiple HANDEL’S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM Parlors within the Development Area as set forth in this Agreement, and Franchisor has approved such application in reliance on Developer’s representations made therein.

G. Developer hereby acknowledges that adherence to the terms of this Agreement, including Franchisor's operations manual and other System standards and specifications, are essential to the operation of all HANDEL'S HOMEMADE ICE CREAM Parlors and our System as a whole.

NOW, THEREFORE, for valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Development Area. Franchisor grants Developer the right, and Developer undertakes the obligation, to develop and establish _____ Parlors within the Development Area defined in Exhibit "A" hereto, provided Developer opens and commences operations of such Parlors in strict accordance with the mandatory development schedule also set forth in Exhibit "A" (the "Development Schedule") and otherwise subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein. During the term of this Agreement and except as provided herein, Franchisor will not open or operate, or license any third party the right to open or operate, any Parlors within the Development Area.

2. Development Fee. Developer shall pay Franchisor a Development Fee equal to $_____ (the "Development Fee") for the right to develop the foregoing Parlors within the Development Area under this Agreement, which is: (i) deemed fully earned upon payment and is not refundable under any circumstances; and (ii) payable as follows:

The initial portion of the Development Fee (the "Initial Development Fee") is due upon execution of this Agreement and is equal to $25,000 for each Parlor that Developer is granted the right to open under the Development Agreement.

Thereafter, Developer is required to pay a subsequent portion of the Development Fee amounting to $25,000 in connection with each Parlor Franchisor grants Developer the right to open within the Development Area (each, a "Subsequent Development Payment") when Developer executes a Franchise Agreement in connection with that Parlor, which may be no later than the signing of the lease for the approved location of the Parlor, but in no event will be more than seven days from the date Franchisor accepts a proposed site for that Parlor. In the event the initial Franchise Agreement for the right to open and operate the first Parlor under this Agreement is executed contemporaneously with this Agreement, Developer shall be required to pay the full $50,000 Development Fee for that Parlor (comprised of the $25,000 Initial Development Fee payment for the initial Parlor, and the $25,000 Subsequent Development Payment for the initial Parlor) at the time Developer executes this Agreement.

Initials: _____

3. Initial Franchise Agreement. Contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Developer must enter into Franchisor's current form of Franchise Agreement for the first Parlor that Developer is required to open within the Development Area. Alternatively, Franchisor may permit Developer to delay execution of the initial Franchise Agreement until Developer has found a Premises for the initial Parlor that Franchisor has approved. In the event Developer is a business entity of any kind, then Developer's principals/owners must each execute the form of personal guaranty attached to the foregoing Franchise Agreement, as well as any additional Franchise Agreements described in Section 4 of this Agreement.

4. Additional Franchise Agreements. Developer agrees and acknowledges that it must: (i) enter into Franchisor's then-current form of Franchise Agreement for each additional Parlor that Developer is required to open under this Agreement; and (ii) enter into such Franchise Agreements no later than the signing of the lease for the approved location of the Parlor, but in no event less than 180 days prior to the time to open such additional parlor under the agreed upon Development Schedule.

5. Development Obligations. Developer must ensure that, at a minimum, Developer: (i) opens and commences operations of the initial new Parlor during each development period set forth in the Development Schedule (each, a “Development Period”); and (ii) has the minimum cumulative number of Parlors open and operating at the expiration of each Development Period. The parties agree and acknowledge that time is of the essence with respect to the foregoing development obligations, and that Developer’s failure to comply with the Development Schedule is grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement (and any future development rights granted hereunder).

6. Term and Termination.

6.1 This Agreement will commence as of the date it is fully executed and, unless earlier terminated by Franchisor, will end on the earlier of (a) the last day of the calendar month that the final Parlor is required to be opened and operating under the Development Schedule or (b) the day the final Parlor is open. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, Developer will not have any rights within the Development Area other than the territorial rights granted in connection with any Parlors that Developer has opened and commenced operating as of the date this Agreement is terminated or expires (under the respective Franchise Agreement(s) that Developer entered into for such Parlors).

6.2 Franchisor will have the right, at its option, to terminate this Agreement and all rights granted to Developer hereunder, without affording Developer any opportunity to cure such default, effective upon written notice to Developer, upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) if Developer ceases to actively engage in development activities in the Development Area or otherwise abandons its development business for three (3) consecutive months, or any shorter period that indicates an intent by Developer to discontinue development of the Parlors within the Development Area; (ii) if Developer becomes insolvent or is adjudicated bankrupt, or if any action is taken by Developer, or by others against the Developer, under any insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization act, or if Developer makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or a receiver is appointed by the Developer; (iii) if Developer fails to timely execute any additional Franchise Agreement or meet its development obligations under the Development Schedule for any single Development Period, including any failure to pay any portion of the Development Fee, and fails to cure such default within 30 days of receiving notice thereof; and (iv) if any Franchise Agreement that is entered into in order to fulfill Developer’s development obligations under this Agreement is terminated or subject to termination by Franchisor, pursuant to the terms of that Franchise Agreement.

7. Reservation of Rights. Except as provided in Section 1 of this Agreement, the parties agree and acknowledge that the rights granted in this Agreement are non-exclusive and that Franchisor and its affiliates reserve all other rights not expressly granted to Developer herein.

8. Sale or Assignment.

8.1 Developer’s rights under this Agreement are personal and Developer may not sell, transfer, or assign any right granted herein without Franchisor’s prior written consent, which may be withheld in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding, if Developer is an individual or a partnership, Developer has the right to assign its rights under this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company that is wholly owned by Developer according to the same terms and conditions as provided in Developer’s initial Franchise Agreement. Franchisor has the right to assign this Agreement in whole or in part in its sole discretion.

8.2 If Developer proposes to transfer this Agreement or any interest in Developer to any third party (other than a corporation or limited liability company as set forth in Section 8.1 hereof or in the event of Developer’s death/disability), Developer shall first offer to sell such interest to Franchisor on the same terms and conditions as offered by such third party. Developer shall obtain from the third party and provide Franchisor a statement in writing, signed by the third party and Developer, of the terms of the offer (“Letter of Intent”). If Franchisor elects not to accept the offer within a thirty (30) day period, Developer shall have a period not to exceed sixty (60) days to complete the transfer described in the Letter of Intent subject to any conditions for approval Franchisor requires pursuant to Section 8.1. Developer shall effect no other sale or transfer as contemplated under the Letter of Intent without first complying with this Section. Any material change in the terms of the offer will be deemed a new proposal subject to Franchisor’s right of first refusal. So long as Developer has obtained Franchisor’s prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, a transfer to an existing partner or shareholder, or a transfer as a result of the death, disability or incapacitation of a shareholder or partner, in accordance with the provisions set forth herein, is not subject to Franchisor’s first right of refusal. Nothing herein shall modify Franchisor’s absolute discretion to approve or deny any potential transfer pursuant to Section 8.1, and Developer acknowledges that it has no right to transfer any interest in this Agreement without Franchisor’s prior written consent which may be withheld for any reason.

9. Acknowledgment. Developer acknowledges that this Agreement is not a Franchise Agreement and does not confer upon Developer any rights to use the Franchisor’s Marks or System.

10. Notices. All notices, requests and reports to be given under this Agreement are to be in writing, and delivered by either hand, overnight mail, or certified mail, return receipt requested, prepaid, to the addresses set forth above (which may be changed by written notice).

11. Choice of Law. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of Ohio (without reference to its conflict of laws principals).

12. Internal Dispute Resolution. Developer must first bring any claim or dispute between Developer and Franchisor to Franchisor’s President, after providing Franchisor with notice of and a reasonable opportunity to cure an alleged breach hereunder. Developer must exhaust this internal dispute resolution procedure before bringing a dispute before a third party. This agreement to first attempt resolution of disputes internally will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

13. Mediation. At Franchisor’s option, all claims or disputes between Franchisor and Developer or its affiliates arising out of, or in any way relating to, this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Franchisor and Developer or its affiliates, or any of the parties’ respective rights and obligations arising from such agreement, which are not first resolved through the internal dispute resolution procedure sent forth in Section 12 above, must be submitted first to mediation, in Canfield, Ohio under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”), in accordance with AAA’s Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. Before commencing any legal action against Franchisor or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, Developer must submit a notice to Franchisor, which specifies, in detail, the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute. Franchisor will have a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice within which to notify Developer as to whether Franchisor or its affiliates elects to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation. Developer may not commence any action against Franchisor or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute in any court unless Franchisor fails to exercise its option to submit such claim or dispute to mediation, or such mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by Franchisor. Franchisor’s rights to mediation, as set forth herein, may be specifically enforced by Franchisor. This agreement to mediate will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. The parties agree that there will be no class action mediation.

14. Injunctive Relief. Nothing contained in this Agreement herein will prevent Franchisor from applying to or obtaining from any court having jurisdiction, without bond, a writ of attachment, temporary injunction, preliminary injunction and/or other emergency relief available to safeguard and protect Franchisor's interests prior to the filing of any mediation proceeding or pending the trial or handing down of a decision or award pursuant to any mediation proceeding conducted hereunder.

15. Jurisdiction and Venue. Subject to Sections 13 and 14 above, the parties expressly agree to the jurisdiction and venue of any state court of general jurisdiction closest to Canfield, Ohio and the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. Developer acknowledge that this Agreement has been entered into in the State of Ohio, and that Developer will receive valuable and continuing services emanating from Franchisor's headquarters in Ohio, including but not limited to training, assistance, support and the development of the System. In recognition of such services and their origin, Developer hereby irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Ohio set forth above.

16. Third Party Beneficiaries. Franchisor's officers, directors, shareholders, agents and/or employees are express third party beneficiaries of this Agreement and the dispute resolution procedures contained herein, each having authority to specifically enforce the right to mediate claims asserted against such person(s) by Developer.

17. Jury Trial Waiver. With respect to any proceeding not subject to mediation, the parties hereby agree to waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or equity, regardless of which party brings suit. This waiver will apply to any matter whatsoever between the parties hereto which arises out of or is related in any way to this Agreement, the performance of either party, and/or Developer's purchase from Franchisor of the development rights described herein.

18. Limitation of Actions. Developer agrees that no cause of action arising out of or related to this Agreement may be maintained by Developer against Franchisor unless Developer brings an action/suit against Franchisor before the expiration of one (1) year after the act, transaction or occurrence upon which such action is based or the expiration of one year after the Developer becomes aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that Developer may have a claim against Franchisor hereunder, whichever occurs sooner. Any action/suit that Developer does not bring within this period shall be barred as a claim, counterclaim, defense, or set-off. Developer hereby waives the right to obtain any remedy based on alleged fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit by Franchisor, including, without limitation, rescission of this Agreement, in any mediation, judicial, or other adjudicatory proceeding arising hereunder, except upon a ground expressly provided in this Agreement.

19. Waiver of Punitive Damages. Developer waives to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to or claim for any punitive, exemplary, incidental, indirect, special or consequential damages (including, without limitation, lost profits) which Developer may have against Franchisor arising out of any cause whatsoever (whether such cause be based in contract, negligence, strict liability, other tort or otherwise) and agree that in the event of a dispute, Developer's recovery will be limited to actual damages. If any other term of this Agreement is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable for any reason, the foregoing provisions will continue in full force and effect, including, without limitation, the waiver of any right to claim any consequential damages.

20. Attorneys' Fees. If either party institutes any judicial or mediation proceeding to enforce any monetary or nonmonetary obligation or interpret the terms of this Agreement and Franchisor prevails in the action or proceeding, Developer will be liable to Franchisor for all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such proceeding.

21. Nonwaiver. Franchisor's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement will not be a waiver of Franchisor's right to do so, any law, custom, usage or rule to the contrary notwithstanding. Delay or omission by Franchisor respecting any breach or default will not affect Franchisor's rights respecting any subsequent breaches or defaults. All rights and remedies granted in this Agreement will be cumulative. Franchisor's election to exercise any remedy available by law or contract will not be deemed a waiver or preclude exercise of any other remedy.

22. Severability. The parties agree that if any provisions of this Agreement may be construed in two ways, one of which would render the provision illegal or otherwise voidable or unenforceable and the other which would render it valid and enforceable, such provision will have the meaning, which renders it valid and enforceable. The provisions of this Agreement are severable, and this Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein, and partially valid and enforceable provisions will be enforced to the extent that they are valid and enforceable. If any material provision of this Agreement will be stricken or declared invalid, the parties agree to negotiate mutually acceptable substitute provisions. In the event that the parties are unable to agree upon such provisions, Franchisor reserves the right to terminate this Agreement.

23. Construction of Language. The language of this Agreement will be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. All words in this Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as Developer, their obligations and liabilities must be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

24. Successors. References to "Franchisor" or "Developer" include the respective parties' successors, assigns or transferees, subject to the limitations of Section 8 of this Agreement.

25. Additional Documentation. You must from time to time, subsequent to the date first set forth above, at Franchisor's request and without further consideration, execute and deliver such other documentation or agreements and take such other action as Franchisor may reasonably require in order to effectuate the transactions contemplated in this Agreement. In the event that Developer fails to comply with the provisions of this Section, Developer hereby appoints Franchisor as Developer's attorney-in-fact to execute any and all documents on Developer's behalf, as reasonably necessary to effectuate the transactions contemplated herein.

26. No Right to Offset. Developer may not withhold all or any part of any payment to Franchisor or any of its affiliates on the grounds of the alleged nonperformance of Franchisor or any of its affiliates or as an offset against any amount Franchisor or any of its affiliates may owe or allegedly owe Developer under this Agreement or any related agreements.

27. State Law Applies. If any provision of this Agreement, including but not limited to its provisions for transfer, renewal, termination, notice of termination, or cure rights, is inconsistent with any valid law or regulation of the state in which Developer's initial Parlor is located, then the valid law or regulation of that state applicable to the franchised business will supersede any provision of this Agreement that is less favorable to Developer.

28. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties concerning Developers' development rights within the Development Area; no promises, inducements or representations (other than those in the Franchise Disclosure Document) not contained in this Agreement have been made, nor will any be of any force or effect, or binding on the parties. Modifications of this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties. Franchisor reserves the right to change Franchisor's policies, procedures, standards, specifications or manuals at Franchisor's discretion. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and any Franchise Agreement(s), the terms, conditions and intent of this Agreement will control. Nothing in this Agreement, or any related agreement, is intended to disclaim any of the representations Franchisor made to Developer in the Franchise Disclosure Document that Franchisor provided to Developer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, AND INTENDING TO BE LEGALLY BOUND HEREBY, THE PARTIES HERETO HAVE CAUSED THIS AGREEMENT TO BE EXECUTED EFFECTIVE THE DATE FIRST SET FORTH ABOVE.

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT A OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR RESOURCES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. IF YOU LEARN ANYTHING IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IS UNTRUE, CONTACT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE APPROPRIATE STATE OR PROVINCIAL AUTHORITY. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS THAT ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is to be added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, the following applies to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal, or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions other than routine litigation incidental to the business that is significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature, or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the ten years immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation, or trade practice law resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(c), title "Requirements for a franchisee to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; this proviso intends that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by a franchisee”:

“You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.”

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum,” and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgements -- No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
7. Receipts -- Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. - (1) Under §13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause," as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.
- (2) Under subsection D of §13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- (3) Under subdivision A 4 of §13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.
- (4) No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.

9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

MOBILE UNIT ADDENDUM

MOBILE UNIT ADDENDUM

This Mobile Unit Addendum to the Handel's Franchise Agreement (the "Addendum"), dated and effective as of _____, 20__ (the "Effective Date") is made between (a) Handel's Enterprises, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with a principal business address at 3830 Starr Centre Drive, Canfield, Ohio 44406 ("Franchisor"), (b) _____, with a principal business address at _____ ("Franchisee"), and (c) _____ individuals all with a principal business address at _____ ("Guarantors").

BACKGROUND

A. Franchisor and its principals have developed a proprietary system (the "System") for the operation of an ice cream parlor under the "Handel's" name and mark (the "Marks").

B. On _____, Franchisor and Franchisee executed a franchise agreement ("Franchise Agreement"), wherein Franchisee obtained the right and undertook the obligation to operate a single brick-and-mortar Handel's franchised business (the "Parlor") at a location approved within a defined geographical area (the "Approved Location"), as described more fully in the Franchise Agreement (the "Territory").

C. Franchisee has requested, and Franchisor wishes to permit, the ability to operate a mobile unit (the "Mobile Unit") using the Marks and System but applied to the non-traditional model, the characteristics of which include: Franchisor's proprietary standards and specifications for food preparation and service; the vehicle that will serve as the Mobile Unit (the "Approved Vehicle"); interior and exterior Mobile Unit designs and color schemes; standard specifications for equipment, designs and displays; sales techniques, merchandising, marketing, advertising, and inventory management systems; and procedures for operating and managing a Mobile Unit in the manner set forth in the Franchise Agreement, this Mobile Unit Addendum, and/or Franchisor's Operations Manual, as modified from time to time.

Accordingly, in consideration of the mutual promises stated in this Mobile Unit Addendum, intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Conditional Right to Operate the Mobile Unit.

a. Grant and Acceptance of Right. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee, upon the express terms and conditions contained in this Mobile Unit Addendum, and Franchisee hereby accepts, the conditional right to establish and operate one Mobile Unit, under the System and Proprietary Marks, and the right to use the System and Proprietary Marks in the operation of the Mobile Unit only within the Territory. Franchisor has the right to supplement, improve or otherwise modify the System concerning the operation of the Mobile Unit from time to time in Franchisor's discretion, and Franchisee agrees to comply with all changes, which may include, without limitation, the offer and sale of new or different products as Franchisor may specify.

b. Acknowledgment. Franchisee acknowledges that its operation of the Mobile Unit is subject to remaining in full compliance with the Franchise Agreement and that Franchisor may: (i) terminate this Mobile Unit Addendum if Franchisee is in default under the Franchise Agreement; or (ii) suspend Franchisee's right to operate the Mobile Unit during periods in which Franchisee is not in full compliance with the Franchise Agreement.

c. Protected Mobile Unit Territory. For so long as Franchisee complies with the terms and conditions of this Mobile Unit Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, during the term of this Mobile Unit Addendum, Franchisor will not establish and operate, nor license any party other than Franchisee to establish and operate, a Mobile Unit under the System and the Marks operating within the Territory. The parties acknowledge that Franchisor and its affiliates retain all other rights, including, without limitation, the right to adjust the scope and nature of these restrictions at any time as described in Article 1.02 of the Franchise Agreement.

d. Approved Location and Operation. Franchisee will be permitted to operate the Mobile Unit only within the Territory; provided, however, Franchisee may solicit customers and/or provide services outside of the Territory subject to Franchisee's full compliance with Handel's then current restrictions, policies, and procedures with respect to solicitation of such customers, and the provision of delivering or catering services outside of the Territory. Furthermore, Franchisee is only permitted to use the Mobile Unit for mobile catering and temporary events and thus Franchisee will only be allowed to park the Mobile Unit at a given location within the Territory for no more than three consecutive days and/or five days in a given month. Any deviation of this Section 1(d) requires the Franchisor's prior written consent.

2. Fees.

a. Mobile Unit Fee. Franchisee will pay Franchisor a Mobile Unit fee of $2,500 upon execution of this Agreement for the right to operate a single Mobile Unit. In the event Franchisor consents to Franchisee's operation of more than one Mobile Unit, Franchisee shall pay Mobile Unit fee of a $2,500 per unit prior to such Mobile Unit being placed in operation.

b. Royalty. There are no minimum royalties on the operation of the Mobile Unit, but all of Franchisee's gross sales earned through the operation of the Mobile Unit shall be deemed "Gross Sales" as that term is defined in the Franchise Agreement and Franchisee agrees to pay a royalty equal to 6% of Franchisee's monthly Gross Sales for each Mobile Unit in accordance with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

c. Advertising. In the event Franchisor creates a national brand fund in connection with the System, Franchisee agrees to pay such Brand Fund as noted in the Franchise Agreement in an amount up to 2% of Franchisee's Gross Sales generated through each Mobile Unit.

3. Term and Renewal.

a. Term. The initial term of the Mobile Unit Business will run concurrently with the initial term set forth in Section 1.01 of the Franchise Agreement, and any amendments thereto.

b. Renewal. Franchisee has the right to renew this Mobile Unit Addendum in conjunction with Franchisee's renewal of the Franchise Agreement, provided that Franchisee has met the conditions set forth in Article 1.03 of the Franchise Agreement. Franchisor may also require Franchisee to remodel or replace the Remote Unit to currently effective standards upon a renewal. Otherwise, the license conveyed by this Addendum will expire upon renewal of the Franchise Agreement.

4. Franchisee Rights and Obligations.

a. The Approved Vehicle. The Mobile Unit must meet Franchisor's then-current specifications and requirements for the vehicle and the equipment (and updates for such required equipment). Franchisee is solely responsible for obtaining, via purchase or lease, out-fitting and maintaining the Mobile Vehicle. The Approved Vehicle must be titled to the same entity that owns and operates the Parlor.

b. Maintenance and Modification of the Approved Vehicle. Franchisor may require Franchisee to make material renovations, refurbishments, or changes to the Approved Vehicle. Franchisee shall implement any of Franchisor's requirements within a commercially reasonable period of time not to exceed 30 days at Franchisee's sole expense.

c. Operation of the Mobile Unit. Franchisee will:

- i. Operate the Mobile Unit in compliance with all standards and specifications that Franchisor prescribes to protect the image and goodwill of the System;
- ii. purchase any components of, or equipment for, the Mobile Unit from a supplier that Franchisor designates;
- iii. begin operating the Mobile Unit only after Franchisor has notified Franchisee in writing that it meets Franchisor's standards and specifications;
- iv. ensure at all times the Approved Vehicle conforms to Franchisor's standards and specifications for appearance and design, including operating in a clean and orderly manner;
- v. supply the Approved Vehicle with all its inventory of products and deliver fresh products as frequently as Franchisor requires;
- vi. garage the Approved Vehicle at a location Franchisor approves that meets its standards and specifications;
- vii. conduct and operate the Mobile Unit at all times in accordance with all federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable thereto;
- viii. obtain the relevant and necessary permits, licenses and certifications required by federal, state or local law for operating the Mobile Unit within the Territory;
- ix. ensure that the driver of the Approved Vehicle maintains a valid driver's license and complies with all traffic laws at all times;
- x. permit Franchisor to inspect the Approved Vehicle to ensure compliance with this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement, and the Operations Manual;
- xi. meet and maintain the highest health, safety and sanitation standards and ratings applicable to the operation of the Mobile Unit; and
- xii. furnish to Franchisor within two (2) days of its receipt thereof, a copy of all health inspection reports and any violation or citation that indicates Franchisee's failure to maintain federal, state, or local health or safety standards.

- d. Additional Training. To assist Franchisee in the operation of Franchisee's Mobile Unit, Franchisor may offer additional training programs and/or refresher courses to Franchisee, Franchisee's manager, and/or Franchisee's employees. Franchisor may require Franchisee's attendance at these programs and/or courses. Franchisee is responsible for the expenses of Franchisee and Franchisee's employees attending such additional training, including transportation to and from the training site and lodging, meals, and salaries during such training. The additional training programs and refresher courses will be at Franchisor's then-current tuition rate for such training.
- e. Required Software and Hardware. Franchisor may develop or designate for the Mobile Unit: (i) computer software programs Franchisee must use in connection with any component of the Computer System (the "Required Software"), which Franchisee shall install at Franchisee's expense; (ii) updates, supplements, modifications, or enhancements to the Required Software, which Franchisee shall install at Franchisee's expense; (iii) the tangible media upon which Franchisee records data, as well as the other hardware components of the Computer System (the "Required Hardware"); and (iv) the database file structure of the Computer System. Franchisee shall be responsible for the payment of all fees associated with the Required Software, Computer System and Franchisee's point-of-sale system. Franchisee shall implement any of Franchisor's requirements pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, this Section, or in the Operations Manual as may be modified by Franchisor from time-to-time.

5. Insurance. Franchisee shall, at its own expense and no later than the earlier of (a) the date on which Franchisee uses any of the Proprietary Marks on the Mobile Unit, or (b) the date Franchisee begins equipping the Mobile Vehicle, in addition to the insurance requirements for the Parlor, procure and maintain in full force and effect throughout the term of this Addendum, and name Franchisor as an additional insured, the following insurance policies: (1) commercial automobile insurance in the amount of $1,000,000 per incident; (2) collision and uninsured/underinsured motorist liability coverage; and (3) any additional insurance enumerated in Franchisor's Operations Manual, or otherwise in writing (whether the Mobile Unit is open or not). This insurance will be in such amounts Franchisor, or the lessor of the Approved Vehicle designates from time to time.

6. Default and Termination. Franchisee's default under this Mobile Unit Addendum constitutes a default both under this Mobile Unit Addendum and under the Franchise Agreement and vice versa. If a default occurs under either the Franchise Agreement or this Mobile Unit Addendum with respect to the operation of the Parlor or Mobile Unit, Franchisor may, at its election and without notice or demand of any kind, declare this Mobile Unit Addendum and any and all other rights granted under this Mobile Unit Addendum to be immediately terminated and, except as otherwise provided herein, of no further notice or effect, regardless of whether Franchisor has also terminated the Franchise Agreement. This Addendum will automatically terminate if the Franchise Agreement is terminated or expires.

7. Transferability. Franchisee's rights under this Mobile Unit Addendum are personal, and Franchisee shall not sell, transfer, assign or encumber Franchisee's interest in the franchise business without Franchisor's prior written consent. Any sale, transfer, assignment or encumbrance made without Franchisor's prior written consent shall be voidable at Franchisor's option and shall subject this Mobile Unit Addendum to termination as specified herein. This Addendum and the Mobile Unit may only be transferred in connection with a transfer of the entire Franchised Business pursuant to Article 18 of the Franchise Agreement.

8. Obligations upon Termination. Upon Termination of the Franchise Agreement, or this Mobile Unit Addendum, Franchisee will provide Photographic proof of the Approved Vehicle de-identification, or evidence of a sale of the Approved Vehicle to another Handel's franchisee. Franchisee agrees that the Approved Vehicle will remain in a garage hidden from public view until it is either sold to another franchisee or de-identified.

9. Personal Guaranty of Franchisee's Obligation. Each Guarantor agrees to be firmly bound by all of the terms, provisions and conditions of this Mobile Unit Addendum and any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor and/or its affiliates, and do hereby unconditionally guarantee the full and timely performance by Franchisee of each and every obligation of Franchisee under this Mobile Unit Addendum or other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee. Such guaranty is material consideration for Franchisor agreeing to the grant of the Mobile Unit contemplated herein.

10. Inspection of Records. Franchisee must maintain accurate business records, reports, accounts, books and data relating to the operation of the Mobile Unit. Franchisor and Franchisor's designees have the right to inspect and/or audit Franchisee's business records at any time during normal business hours, to determine whether Franchisee is current with suppliers and is otherwise operating in compliance with the terms of this Mobile Unit Addendum, the Franchise Agreement and the Franchisor's Operations Manual.

11. Entire Agreement. This Mobile Unit Addendum and the Franchise Agreement contain the entire agreement of the parties. There are no representations either oral or written, except those contained in this Mobile Unit Addendum and the Franchise Agreement. This written Mobile Unit Addendum and the Franchise Agreement include all representations between the parties. This Mobile Unit Addendum and the Franchise Agreement may not be modified except by a written document signed by both parties. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Franchise Agreement and the terms of this Mobile Unit Addendum, the terms of this Mobile Unit Addendum will govern. Any term defined in the Franchise Agreement and not defined herein will have the meaning set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

12. Severability. In case any covenant, condition, term or provision contained in this Mobile Unit Addendum is held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, in whole or in part, by judgment, order or decree of any court or other judicial tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the validity of the remaining covenants, conditions, terms and provisions contained in this Mobile Unit Addendum, and the validity of the remaining part of any term or provision held to be partially invalid, illegal or unenforceable, will in no way be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.

13. Drafting Party. The provisions of this Mobile Unit Addendum, and the documents and instruments referred to herein, have been examined, negotiated, drafted and revised by counsel for each party hereto and no implication should be drawn nor made against any party hereto by virtue of drafting this Mobile Unit Addendum.

14. Binding Effect. This Mobile Unit Addendum will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

15. Ratification of Franchise Agreement. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that adherence to the terms of this Mobile Unit Addendum, the Franchise Agreement, and the standards and specifications of Franchisor are essential to the operation of the Mobile Unit and to the operations of the System. Accordingly, Franchisee hereby ratifies and affirms the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and agrees that its terms are incorporated by reference into the terms of this Addendum.
