What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit E.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation only in its then-current home state (which currently is New Jersey). Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in its then-current home state (which currently is New Jersey) than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sale levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Inventory/Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or sub-franchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Notwithstanding paragraph (f) above, MH intends to enforce fully the provisions of the arbitration section of its Franchise Agreement. MH believes that paragraph (f) is unconstitutional and cannot preclude it from enforcing its arbitration provision. If you acquire a franchise, you acknowledge that MH will seek to enforce that section as written, and that the terms of the Franchise Agreement will govern MH's relationship with you, including the specific requirements of the arbitration section.

Item 1
THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document (“Disclosure Document”), “MH” means Mosquito Hunters, LLC, the franchisor. “You” means the person to whom MH grants a franchise to operate a Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Business. You must sign the Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) attached as Exhibit A in your individual capacity. If you want an entity that you own to operate the franchise, you must sign the Assignment and Assumption Agreement (Exhibit C) under which all the provisions of the Agreement will apply to the entity and its owners (including you).

MH is a Delaware limited liability company and operates under its own name and the trademarks PEST HUNTERS, MOSQUITO HUNTERS, and HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING. MH’s principal business address is 142 State Route 34, Holmdel, New Jersey 07733. MH began offering franchises for Mosquitos Hunters Businesses under the MOSQUITO HUNTERS trademark in May 2018. MH added holiday lighting and décor services under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING trademark as a central part of this “combination” franchise opportunity in approximately April 2024, although existing franchisees received the opportunity to add the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING service line to their existing businesses beginning in December 2023. MH began using the additional trademark “PEST HUNTERS” to identify its franchised business beginning in March 2025. MH’s direct parent company is LD Parent, Inc., which has the same principal business address as MH. MH’s indirect parent company is CNL Strategic Capital, LLC, whose principal business address is 450 S. Orange Avenue, Suite 1400, Orlando, Florida 32801. If MH has an agent in your state for service of process, it discloses that agent in Exhibit E.

MH’s predecessor is MH Franchising, LLC, from which MH acquired the Mosquito Hunters franchise system in May 2018. MH Franchising, LLC’s principal business address was 751-C Kenmoor Avenue SE, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49546. MH Franchising, LLC began offering Mosquitos Hunters franchises under the MOSQUITO HUNTERS trademark in January 2015 and had sold 8 franchises as of May 2018 when MH acquired the franchise system. MH Franchising, LLC never operated a Mosquito Hunters Business (although its affiliate operated the concept beginning in November 2013) or offered franchises in another line of business.

MH uses the Agreement to grant franchises for Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Businesses to qualified persons (“Strategic-Partners”) who agree to adhere to the overall mission and core values underlying the Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Business system and understand that they are the means of delivering on the mission. A “Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Business” is identified by MH’s trademarks—including the “PEST HUNTERS” name and logo, the “MOSQUITO HUNTERS” name and logo, and the “HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING” name and logo appearing on the cover page of this Disclosure Document (the “Marks”)—and uses MH’s systems, standards, and know-how. In this Disclosure Document, we refer to the Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Business that you will operate as the “Business” and use the shortened term “Hunters-Humbug Businesses” to refer generally to Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting Businesses. MH has never operated a Hunters-

Humbug Business or offered franchises in another line of business. It has no business activities other than granting franchises for Hunters-Humbug Businesses.

A Hunters-Humbug Business offers, under the Marks, (1) outdoor pest control services specializing in the eradication of a wide range of pests, including mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, ants, spiders, rodents, cockroaches, and other pests, through a regular spraying system and maintenance program for residential and commercial application and (2) the design, installation, maintenance, removal, and storage of holiday lighting and décor. The Hunters-Humbug Business franchise will use MH's methods and techniques, together with its marketing programs, call center, and customer guaranties. MH and its predecessor have developed, and MH is making available to franchisees, comprehensive business methods and systems for developing and operating a Hunters-Humbug Business, including technical information and expertise relating to authorized products and services MH authorizes. MH's system also includes market selection, site selection criteria, sales, marketing and advertising programs, and management information and techniques. You will operate within a specific territory (the "Territory").

The market for the pest control services offered by your Business is highly developed and highly competitive. Your competitors include both independent and franchised pest control services (all of which may be part of local, regional, or national chains) and the sale of retail pest control products directly to the customer for self-application. Your Business will be mobile because you will offer your products and services directly to consumers at their residence or, with commercial customers, at their places of business. Your market will be members of the general population. Your sales of pest control services will be seasonal in certain markets (for example, those that have cold fall and winter seasons) and more year-round in other markets with warm or hot weather throughout the year.

The market for the holiday lighting and décor services offered by your Business also is highly developed and highly competitive. Your competitors include both independent and franchised businesses as well as homeowners or business owners who buy holiday lighting and décor materials directly in order to install themselves. As with the pest control services, your Business will be mobile because you will offer your products and services directly to consumers at their residence or, with commercial customers, at their places of business. Your market will be members of the general population. Your sales of lighting and décor services will be seasonal, typically focused only on the holiday season late in the calendar year.

In providing pest control services, your Business must comply with federal and state licensing and regulatory requirements for pesticide applicators, including the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act. Your Business also must comply with all local, state, and federal laws that apply generally to all businesses. You should investigate all of these laws.

LDI offers and grants franchises for LAWN DOCTOR Businesses, the primary activity of which is to establish, care for, and maintain lawns and other vegetation in an identified territory. LDI also may require its franchisees to provide other services, including mosquito control. LAWN DOCTOR Businesses analyze lawn problems and care requirements, formulate and apply lawn chemicals and seed, market and promote the Business, and operate and maintain necessary equipment. They may offer optional services, such as liming, fungus control, grub treatments, and tree and shrub feeding. LDI has offered franchises since 1967 and, as of December 31, 2024, had 653 franchised LAWN DOCTOR Businesses in operation. LDI has never operated or offered franchises for a Hunters-Humbug Business or offered franchises in another line of business.

Beginning in approximately February 2024, LDI began offering Lawn Doctor Businesses the right (but no obligation) to add the “HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES” holiday lighting and décor services line as an authorized service to be offered and sold by their LAWN DOCTOR Businesses (the “HLH Service Line”). The HLH Service Line is identical to “HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING” holiday lighting and décor services except for the trademark under which the HLH Service Line is offered and sold. As of April 2025, the HLH Service Line is a standard part of the LAWN DOCTOR Business franchise opportunity.

MH is affiliated (by virtue of the same parent company) with ecomaids LLC (“EM”), which has the same principal business address as MH. EM offers and grants franchises for “ECOMAIDS” businesses providing environmentally-friendly home cleaning services. EM has offered franchises since September 2019, although its predecessor began offering franchises in August 2012. If you operate an existing Hunters-Humbug Business, are in compliance with the terms of all agreements with MH, are in sound financial condition, and have demonstrated a desire and ability to make the commitment of time and capital necessary to operate an additional Hunters-Humbug Business, MH may offer you the right to operate an additional Hunters-Humbug Business under a separate franchise agreement for a reduced initial franchise fee. Type of Fee	Amount	Due Date	Remarks*
Local Advertising Obligation	Greater of $8,000 or 2% of Net Revenues (subject to combined annual spending cap, together with the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, of the greater of $37,500 or 10% of Net Revenues)	You will spend these dollars locally. MH will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which MH expects the Local Advertising Obligation to be used during the upcoming calendar year.	You must spend this amount each calendar year during the franchise term (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement). If you fail to do so, you must pay MH the unspent amount within 60 days after the end of the calendar year. To the extent MH does not spend any advertising amounts included in the initial franchise fee within the first operational year of your Business, MH will spend the balance in the subsequent calendar year and apply that balance toward your annual Marketing and Promotion Requirement in that year. (See Note 1)
Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions	Greater of $26,500 or 7% of Net Revenues (subject to combined annual spending cap, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, of the greater of $37,500 or 10% of Net Revenues)	Payable in 6 installments throughout the calendar year.	These funds will be managed by the MH Marketing Team and used specifically to drive leads within your territory. (See Note 1)
Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions	Greater of $3,000 or 1% of Net Revenues (subject to combined annual spending cap, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, of the greater of $37,500 or 10% of Net Revenues)	Payable in 52 equal weekly installments together with the Royalty and Service Fee.	These centrally managed funds will be used to provide solutions such as creative development, advertising production, lead tracking infrastructure, system-wide platforms, brand development tools, and programs. (See Note 1)

You have no obligation to participate in this optional program.
Call Center Fees	Currently $750 per month (monthly charge begins after your 1st year of operation)	Monthly	During the 1st year of operation, the fixed monthly fees are included in the initial franchise fee. Equipment, Product, and Service Purchases	Varies depending on products and services you buy from us or our affiliates	As incurred	During the franchise term, you might need to buy certain equipment, products, and services from us or our affiliates, from designated or approved distributors and suppliers, or according to our standards and specifications, as described in Item 8. If we or our affiliates sell equipment, products, or services to you during the franchise term, we or our affiliates will give you a price list identifying the applicable prices.
Transfer Fee	50% of the then-current initial license fee component of the initial franchise fee payable by a Strategic-Partner who is new to the Hunters-Humbug system	10% of the then-current initial license fee component of the initial franchise fee is payable when you declare your intent to sell your Business; the remaining amount is due before the transfer is completed	Due when you transfer the Business or a controlling ownership interest in the Business is transferred. The 10% amount is not refundable if you do not complete the transfer.

You must pay MH the convention / conference fee even if you do not attend (or plan to attend).

Interest on Late Payments	Highest legal rate for open account business credit, not to exceed 1.5% per month	As incurred	MH's current policy is to charge interest at the rate of 1% per month, but this policy is subject to change at any time. MH also will charge (i) a fee of 1% of the total amount due for each month that a Royalty and Service Fee report is late and (ii) $20 for each electronic funds transfer rejected by your bank.
Inspections and Audits	Cost of an audit (amount of which depends on circumstances and extent of your non-compliance)	Within 15 days after receipt of the inspection or audit report	Payable only if audit shows an understatement of at least 3% of Net Revenues, or if you fail to furnish reports and other information.
Indemnification	Actual liabilities and costs, which will vary under circumstances and depend on nature of third-party claim	As incurred	You must reimburse MH if MH is held liable for claims arising from your operation of the Business.

			you for any amounts it pays or refunds to your customers in order to reimburse itself.
Tax Reimbursement	Actual cost reimbursement	As incurred	You must reimburse MH for any taxes it must pay to any state taxing authority on account of either your operations or your payments to MH.

* Unless noted, the payments described in this chart are not refundable and are not collected in whole or in part on behalf of any party other than MH. The payments described above are MH's current offering and generally are uniformly imposed.

Footnote to Item 6 Chart

(1) Marketing and Promotion Requirement. You must spend each calendar year during the franchise term (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement) the greater of $37,500 or 10% of the Business' Net Revenues on marketing and promotion of your Business (the "Marketing and Promotion Requirement"). These expenditures will consist of the Local Advertising Obligation, the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, as described above in the chart.

MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Local Advertising Obligation at any time and from time to time—in the manner MH deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by your Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Mark and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by your Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Mark. MH's decision on such allocation will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels. MH will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which MH expects the Local Advertising Obligation to be used during the upcoming calendar year. MH has this right throughout the franchise term.

Similarly, MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions at any time and from time to time—in the manner MH deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by your Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Mark and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by your Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Mark. MH's decision on such allocation likewise will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels.

Before the end of the first full calendar year of, and before the end of each subsequent calendar year throughout, the franchise term (but in all cases at the time MH deems best), the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for the next calendar year will be established based on the Net Revenues of the Business as of the end of the prior (i.e., just completed) calendar year. The Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution is due in 6 installments during the calendar year, as follows:

- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of March;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of April;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of May;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of June;
- 50% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' holiday lighting and décor services is due on or about the second Friday of November; and
- 50% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' holiday lighting and décor services is due on or about the second Friday of December.

MH has the right to determine in its sole judgment the specific dollars to be spent each year on the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services and the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING holiday lighting and décor services, respectively. MH also will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which MH expects Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions to be used during the upcoming calendar year. As noted above, MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions at any time and from time to time in the manner MH deems best.

To the extent MH does not spend the full amount of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions during a calendar year, MH may spend that balance in the subsequent calendar year and will apply the balance toward your required Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for that subsequent calendar year and adjust your contribution schedule accordingly.

Footnotes to Item 7 Chart

- * Except for security deposits, all other amounts are nonrefundable.
- Item 5 contains information on the circumstances under which discounts and fee reductions are available to Strategic-Partners. Your initial franchise fee might be lower if you operate an existing Hunters-Humbug Business and are acquiring a franchise to operate an additional Hunters-Humbug Business.
 - This also is described in Item 5.
 - This estimate assumes you will lease the Service Vehicle used in the Business from MH's approved supplier. MH's vehicle leasing vendor offers both 60- and 72-month leases with a required minimum of 10% down on all leases. If a candidate does not during the leasing approval process meet the qualifications for a 10% down payment based on credit score, the vehicle leasing vendor can offer leases under a 20% down payment option. The monthly lease payment for the required vehicle depends on lease-term and down payment percentage. The down payment or first month's lease payment estimate includes the costs of wrapping and outfitting the Service Vehicle for the services to be performed by the Business.
 - You must purchase from the suppliers MH designates the computer software programs needed to operate both the outdoor pest control and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance portions of the Business. These computer software programs currently cost between $415 and $656 per month. Your initial cost depends on when you onboard because that determines which computer software you will begin using first.
 - You must have available or purchase computer hardware and software for the Business according to MH's standards and specifications, including a computer, monitor, printer, Microsoft Office, QuickBooks, and all consumables, including ink and paper. You must purchase peripheral devices such as telephones and connectivity (broadband, DSL, and cable). The low end of the estimate assumes you already have this required hardware and software.

6. In many instances, you may initially operate the Business from your home. If you do not have adequate storage space for equipment and materials, it should be available at a low rental given the limited space required (approximately 12' x 20'). We estimate monthly rental payments to be between $1,000 and $3,000 depending on the location. The low end of the range assumes you will operate the Business from your home with adequate storage space; the high end of the range assumes one month's rent for storage space at a cost of $3,000.
7. You may designate up to 2 persons to participate in MH's mandatory training program, but at least one person (the principal owner) is required to attend the initial training program. Depending on when you onboard, training for the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING holiday lighting and décor services typically will be held separately from the training for the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS pest control services. You might train on PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS pest control services first and then need to come back for separate HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING holiday lighting and décor services.
8. You must obtain and maintain the insurance coverage that MH periodically specifies, including general liability, workers compensation, and motor vehicle liability insurance. Insurance costs will vary considerably by state and depend on policy limits, types of policies, nature and value of physical assets, gross sales, number of employees, location, business contents, and other factors affecting risk exposure. These estimates contemplate monthly costs, although payment terms will vary by provider. We describe our current insurance requirements in Item 8.
9. This estimates the funds needed to cover your other pre-opening expenses as well as additional initial expenses for the first 3 months of operation. Additional funds are for opening expenses; labor costs/sales commissions (for part-time assistance in sales and/or servicing); Service Vehicle lease payments for second and third months of operation; computer software payments for second and third months of operation; rental space lease payments for second and third months of operation; Technology Fees paid to MH; state pesticide applicator licenses which may be required in some states; plus other miscellaneous expenses.
10. In compiling these amounts for the pest control services portion of your Business, MH has relied on its and its predecessor's experience in the pest control business since 2015 and on reports from Strategic-Partners who have recently begun operation. In compiling these amounts for the holiday lighting and décor services portion of your Business, MH has relied on the experience of several franchisees who offered holiday lighting and décor services for 2 years as part of a pilot program. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before deciding to acquire a franchise for the Business.

Item 8
RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Many of the items and services you will need for the Business must be purchased or leased from MH or from sources MH has designated or approved or must meet specifications set by MH. MH will provide you with a list of approved products and supplies, and a list of approved and designated suppliers, and will occasionally revise those lists. MH estimates that source-restricted purchases for a Hunters-Humbug Business will equal approximately 90 to 95% of your cost of establishing the Business and 50 to 60% of your ongoing costs. One or more of MH's officers have a financial interest in LDI, which is the sole source of the vehicle outfitting services for your Service Vehicle, as well as in MH. However, no officer of MH currently owns an interest in any other supplier to the Hunters-Humbug system. You must pay MH for certain equipment needed to commence business, certain Call Center fees, and fees for advertising and marketing services (as described in Items 5, 7, and 11). LDI is the exclusive source of the vehicle outfitting services for your Service Vehicle. MH and its affiliates currently are not the approved supplier or the only approved supplier of any other required goods or services.

You must purchase computer hardware and software for the Business according to MH's standards and specifications. The computer hardware and software must be functional with (1) the pest control business management computer software program provided by the supplier MH designates and (2) the software MH requires for the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance business. MH may require you to use designated and approved brands, types, makes and models of computer hardware (including printers) in connection with the computer software programs. MH also may require you to use designated accounting professionals to ensure your required reports and financial statements are prepared properly.

You must purchase or lease at least one vehicle (the "Service Vehicle") that is suitable for transporting various pest control supplies, holiday lighting and décor materials, application and installation equipment, and related materials needed to operate the Business and which meets MH's specifications. You must order the Service Vehicle from MH's approved supplier to ensure it complies with MH's standards and specifications. You also must: (1) take delivery of the Service Vehicle immediately following the completion of training school; (2) maintain the condition and appearance of the Service Vehicle and equipment consistent with the professional image of the Business; (3) display on the Service Vehicle and equipment only the Marks and MH-approved signs, emblems, lettering and logos; and (4) not sell or transfer the Service Vehicle (other than to MH) without first removing all of the Marks from the Service Vehicle. LDI will outfit your Service Vehicle for the Business and provide all related materials. The leasing company will pay LDI for those services and materials and roll those costs into your lease payments.

MH has the right, directly and/or through a designated source (including an affiliate), to develop, implement, operate, maintain, and improve a call center (the "Call Center") for the marketing, customer solicitation and engagement, transaction processing, and other purposes MH periodically specifies. You must use and allow the use of the Call Center in your Business and comply with MH's standards, specifications, and operating procedures for participation in and operation of the Call Center. MH or the other designated source will charge various Call Center fees.

You must maintain in force the insurance coverage that MH requires from time to time and meet the other insurance related obligations in the Agreement. Such insurance must include comprehensive general liability, products liability, completed operations liability, motor vehicle liability, and workers' compensation. All such policies must be with carriers acceptable to MH, must provide coverage on an occurrence basis, and must insure against claims for injury, death and property damage arising from the Business. Periodically, MH will specify the required amount of coverage. Currently, general liability insurance must be not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit for each occurrence and $2,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; products and completed operations liability must not be less than $1,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; motor vehicle liability must not be less than $1,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; and workers' compensation must be the greater of MH's then-current requirements or as required by state law. MH must be named an additional insured grantor. The types and amounts of coverage are subject to change by MH.

During the first year of operation, your Business must use bookkeeping services provided by MH's designated franchise accounting provider.

Except as described above, there are no goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items related to establishing or operating the Business that you currently must buy or lease from MH (or MH's affiliate), from designated or approved suppliers, or according to MH's standards and specifications.

If you wish to use any type or brand of product or supply item, or purchase products or supplies from a supplier, that is not currently approved by MH, you must notify MH of your desire to do so and submit to MH specifications, photographs, samples and other information requested by MH. You are not required to pay a fee to secure supplier approval. MH will, within 30 days, determine whether the products, supplies or the supplier meet its specifications and standards. MH develops its specifications and lists of approved suppliers through internal and field testing, consultations with Strategic-Partners and suppliers, review of industry and trade association information, and other means. MH may revoke supplier approval in a written notice, a copy of which will be provided to you. MH may limit the number of approved suppliers with whom you may deal, designate sources that you must use, and/or refuse any of your requests for any reason, including that MH has already designated an exclusive source (which might be MH or MH's affiliate) for a particular item or service. For example, if MH designates a buying marketplace (which may be developed and/or operated by MH or its affiliate), you must buy the products and services MH requires through that marketplace. To the extent that MH has developed criteria for suppliers, they are not available for review by Strategic-Partners.

MH has not established any purchasing or distribution cooperatives. MH has negotiated purchasing arrangements (including price terms) with suppliers who provide printed materials and Service Vehicles to Strategic-Partners (although there are no direct or indirect financing arrangements in place with the Service Vehicle lessor). MH and its affiliates may receive payments from designated and approved suppliers on account of Strategic-Partner purchases of required and approved items from those suppliers. MH and its affiliates have the right to receive payments from suppliers on account of their actual or prospective dealings with MH, you, and other Strategic-Partners and to use all amounts that MH and its affiliates receive without restriction for any purposes MH and its affiliates deem appropriate. MH does not provide you with any material benefits based on your purchase of approved items or services or your use of approved suppliers.

MH or its affiliates will derive revenue or other material consideration from their sale of equipment, supplies, and services to you (if applicable) and may accept payments from suppliers on account of their dealings with you and other MH franchisees. During the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, according to its internal records, MH received $13,589 from third-party suppliers on account of their business dealings with MH's franchisees. In that same fiscal year, according to its unaudited financial statements and internal records, MH's affiliate LDI received a total of $459,991 for both call center revenue from MH's franchisees and outfitting the vehicles of Hunters-Humbug Business franchisees.

Item 10
FINANCING

MH does not offer direct or indirect financing. MH does not guaranty your note, lease, or obligation.

Item 11
FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEM, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, MH is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open the Business, MH will:

(1) Provide you with specifications, standards, operating procedures and specialized equipment for a Hunters-Humbug Business to protect the quality of MH’s products and services. These include specifications and standards for signs, opening inventory, and supplies as well as a list of approved suppliers. MH does not directly deliver or install any items. (Agreement - Sections 7.A and 7.E)

(2) Provide you with reasonable guidance in the development of the Business. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(3) Train you in the Hunters-Humbug system. (Agreement - Section 2.A)

During your operation of the Business, MH will:

(1) Provide you with guidance for the operation of the Business. MH will provide guidance to you and supervisory employees through the Operating Manual (defined below) and, at its option, via telephonic conversations and consultation at MH's offices or your office. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(2) Provide you access to the Operating Manual and, at its option, additional presentation materials and content on MH's learning management system. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(3) Let you use the Marks. (Agreement - Section 3)

(4) Disclose confidential information to you relating to the operation of the Business. (Agreement - Section 4)

(5) Advise you of approved suppliers for a Service Vehicle and other items and required and authorized products and supplies. (Agreement - Section 7)

(6) Maintain and administer a Centrally Managed Media Fund to drive leads within your territory and a Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund to provide creative development, advertising production, lead tracking infrastructure, system-wide marketing platforms, brand development tools, and programs. (Agreement - Section 8.B)

(7) MH may assist you in establishing prices for authorized products and supplies.

Because Hunters-Humbug Businesses provide services at customer locations and generally do not maintain physical sites, MH does not have any site selection procedures or factors MH considers in approving sites. Therefore, MH does not have the right to terminate the Agreement if you and MH cannot agree on a site.

Operating Manual

MH will provide you with access to one copy of the operating manual, which may include one or more separate manuals as well as compact disks, computer software, information available on an Internet site, other electronic media and/or written materials (the "Operating Manual"). The Operating Manual contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed by MH for the operation of a Hunters-Humbug Business and information about your other obligations under the Agreement so that the quality of MH's brand, products, and services is maintained. MH may modify the Operating Manual, but this will not alter your fundamental status and rights under the Agreement. You must keep your copy of the Operating Manual current, but the master copy maintained by MH at its principal office will be controlling. The Operating Manual is confidential, and you may disclose its contents only to your employees who need to know its contents to perform their jobs. You may not copy any part of the Operating Manual. The table of contents to the Operating Manual is attached as Exhibit F. As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the Operating Manual contains approximately 171 total pages specific to pest control services and an additional 27 pages specific to holiday lighting and décor.

At MH's option, MH may post some or all of the Operating Manual on a restricted website or extranet to which you will have access. If MH does so, you must monitor and access the website or extranet for any updates to the Operating Manual or system standards.

Advertising

General Marketing and Promotion Requirement

You must spend each calendar year during the franchise term (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement) the Marketing and Promotion Requirement (currently an amount equal to the greater of $37,500 or 10% of your Net Revenues), which consists of the Local Advertising Obligation, the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution, and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution (all of which are defined below).

Local Advertising Obligation

You must spend each calendar year during the franchise term (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement) the greater of $8,000 or 2% of your Net Revenues for marketing and promotion in your Territory (the "Local Advertising Obligation"). The Local Advertising Obligation, together with the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution, will not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement. This is in addition to your Call Center obligations.

MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Local Advertising Obligation at any time and from time to time—in the manner MH deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by your Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Mark and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by your Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Mark. MH's decision on such allocation will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels. MH will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which MH expects the Local Advertising Obligation to be used during the upcoming calendar year, a right MH has throughout the franchise term.

You must (if MH requires) display the toll-free telephone number as the primary and dominant business phone number and display the number on all marketing materials and Service Vehicles. Within 60 days after the end of each year, you must submit to MH a report detailing your marketing and promotion expenditures in your Territory during that year. If you fail to spend the Local Advertising Obligation during any calendar year, you must pay MH the unspent amount within the same 60 days after the calendar-year end. MH may then use such monies for any marketing or promotional expense (whether national, regional, local, or otherwise) at any time. To the extent MH does not spend any advertising amounts included in the initial franchise fee within the first operational year of your Business, MH may spend the balance in the subsequent calendar year and apply that balance toward your annual Marketing and Promotion Requirement in that year.

You must submit for approval by MH samples of all advertising and promotional materials. If you use any unapproved materials, MH may assess a fine of $250 per item per occurrence. You must comply with MH's requirements, standards, and specifications concerning Strategic-Partners' use of websites or other computer-based advertising to promote Hunters-Humbug Businesses. You must submit proposed website information for MH's approval before you implement a website, and MH must approve any changes you make to a website. You may not in any event use the Marks in your domain name or electronic address.

There are currently no local or regional cooperatives.

Centrally Managed Media Fund / Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund

MH maintains and administers a centrally managed media fund (the "Centrally Managed Media Fund"), which will be managed by MH's marketing team and used specifically to drive leads within your territory. You must contribute to the Centrally Managed Media Fund (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement) the greater of $26,500 or 7% of your Net Revenues (the "Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution"), which, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution, will not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement.

In addition, MH maintains and administers a tools and programs fund (the "Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund"), which will be used to provide solutions such as creative development, advertising production, lead tracking infrastructure, system-wide platforms, brand development tools, and programs. You must contribute to the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund (beginning the first calendar year after you sign the Franchise Agreement) the greater of $3,000 or 1% of your Net Revenues (the "Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Funds Contribution"), which, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution, will not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement.

At the end of the first full calendar year, and at the end of each subsequent calendar year, of the franchise term, MH will establish the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution for the next calendar year based on the Net Revenues of the Business as of the end of the prior (i.e., just completed) calendar year; you will pay the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution in 52 equal weekly installments, together with the Royalty and Service Fee. Strategic-Partners may contribute to the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund at different rates because they operate under different forms of franchise agreement.

MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution at any time and from time to time—in the manner MH deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by your Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Mark and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by your Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY

LIGHTING Mark. MH's decision on such allocation will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels.

Before the end of the first full calendar year, and before the end of each subsequent calendar year, of the franchise term (but in all cases at the time MH deems best), the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for the next calendar year will be established based on the Net Revenues of the Business as of the end of the prior (i.e., just completed) calendar year. The Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution is due in 6 installments during the calendar year, as follows:

- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of March;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of April;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of May;
- 25% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of June;
- 50% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' holiday lighting and décor services is due on or about the second Friday of November; and
- 50% of the annual amount earmarked for your Business' holiday lighting and décor services is due on or about the second Friday of December.

MH has the right to determine in its sole judgment the specific dollars to be spent each year on the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services and the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING services, respectively. MH also will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which MH expects Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions to be used during the upcoming calendar year. As noted above, MH has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions at any time and from time to time in the manner MH deems best.

To the extent MH does not spend the full amount of your Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions during a calendar year, MH may spend that balance in the subsequent calendar year and will apply the balance toward your required Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for that subsequent calendar year and adjust your contribution schedule accordingly.

Strategic-Partners may contribute to the Centrally Managed Media Fund at different rates because they operate under different forms of franchise agreement.

MH will direct all advertising programs financed by the Centrally Managed Media Fund and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund (collectively, the "Centrally Managed Funds”) and will control creative concepts, materials, endorsements and offers. The Centrally Managed Funds may pay for preparing and producing advertising, marketing, and promotional content and related materials; administering, directing, and preparing regional and multi-regional advertising and marketing programs; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, marketing, and promotional activities. MH may also use the Centrally Managed Funds to pay for on-line Internet advertising and marketing, including Facebook, Twitter, and other social media, and to pay for click-through charges to search engines, banner advertising sources, and advertising host sites (“social media” includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook and Instagram, professional networks like LinkedIn, live-blogging tools like Twitter, virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools). If MH advances the costs to purchase advertising, marketing and promotion content on behalf of the Centrally Managed Funds, the Centrally Managed Funds will reimburse MH for the costs of purchasing the advertising, marketing and promotional content on a monthly basis. If the Centrally Managed Funds do not receive enough contributions to reimburse MH during the calendar year, then the balance will carry over to the following year.

The Centrally Managed Funds will be accounted for separately from all other funds of MH and will not be used to defray MH’s general operating expenses, except for salaries, administrative costs and overhead relating to the Centrally Managed Funds and their respective marketing and promotional programs. The Centrally Managed Funds are not MH’s assets or trusts. MH does not owe you fiduciary obligations because it maintains the Centrally Managed Funds.

MH may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contributions of Hunters-Humbug Businesses contributing to the Centrally Managed Funds in that year. MH may make loans to the Centrally Managed Funds (and the Centrally Managed Funds may borrow from MH or other lenders) bearing reasonable interest to cover any deficits of the Centrally Managed Funds or cause the Centrally Managed Funds to invest any surplus for future use. MH will prepare an annual unaudited report of monies collected and costs incurred by the Centrally Managed Funds and make the reports available for inspection by you upon your request (typically within 30 days). In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, the expenditures of the Marketing Funds were allocated as follows: more than 90% for media and less than 10% for creative, production, administrative, and other costs. Except for certain marketing materials that contain a statement regarding the availability of franchise opportunities, MH does not use contributions to the Centrally Managed Funds for soliciting the sale of franchises.

MH may incorporate the Centrally Managed Funds or operate them through a separate entity (or entities) whenever MH deems appropriate. The Centrally Managed Funds are intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of Hunters-Humbug Businesses and the Marks for the benefit of all Hunters-Humbug Businesses. MH undertakes no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund are proportionate or equivalent to contributions to it by Hunters-Humbug Businesses or that any Hunters-Humbug Business will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund from the conduct of marketing programs or the placement of advertising. (In other words, while MH has no obligation to spend any amount of the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution on advertising in your market area, MH must spend the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution specifically to drive leads within your territory.) Except as provided above, MH need not spend any amount on advertising in your market area.

MH has the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Centrally Managed Fund contributions at the Centrally Managed Funds' expense. MH also may forgive, waive, settle and compromise all claims by or against the Centrally Managed Funds.

MH may at any time defer or reduce the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution or Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution of a Hunters-Humbug Business and, upon 30 days' prior written notice to you, reduce or suspend Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions and Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, as well as operations of the Centrally Managed Funds, for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) either or both of the Centrally Managed Funds. If MH terminates either or both of the Centrally Managed Funds, MH will distribute all unspent monies to all Hunters-Humbug Businesses (whether franchised or operated by MH or its affiliates) in proportion to their respective Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions and/or Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions during the preceding 12-month period.

Centrally Managed Media Boost Program

If you begin operations after the optimal season starting point, you may elect to pay MH $5,000 to invest in the Centrally Managed Media Boost Program. You are not obligated to participate in this optional program.

There currently are no franchisee advertising councils that advise MH on advertising and marketing policies and programs.

Call Center

MH has the right, directly and/or through a designated source (including an affiliate), to develop, implement, operate, maintain, and improve the Call Center for the marketing, customer solicitation and engagement, transaction processing, and other purposes MH periodically specifies. You must use and allow the use of the Call Center in your Business and comply with MH's standards, specifications, and operating procedures for participation in and operation of the Call Center. MH or the other designated source will charge Call Center fees.

Computer System

You must purchase or have available computer hardware and software for the Business that meets MH's standards and specifications in order to operate the computer software programs described below. This includes a computer, monitor, printer, and third-party software, including Microsoft Office and QuickBooks.

You must sign an agreement with the suppliers MH designates to license for the Business computer software programs suited for use by pest control businesses and holiday lighting and décor businesses. The computer software programs are designed for your use in the overall management and operation of the Business and to collect and generate lists of customers and prospects, direct mail programs, accounting management information, data to track revenues from the Business, schedule of services, GPS directions, customer inquiries and similar information. These computer software programs currently cost between $415 and $656 per month.

Except as described above, neither MH nor the third parties whose products you buy have any contractual right or obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, or updates to the computer hardware and compatible software, unless you obtain a service contract or a warranty covers the product.

You may also be required to incur reasonable costs to purchase or lease new or modified computer hardware and software for use with the computer software programs described above. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this obligation. You will also sign the Extranet Agreement (Exhibit D). MH will have unlimited independent access to all information and data that your computer system generates and stores, including all data derived from the computer software programs. MH estimates the cost of any computer hardware and software, including peripheral devices and software in addition to the computer software programs, to be $2,000. Because of varying market conditions and types of maintenance and support contracts, MH is unable to estimate the annual cost of any optional maintenance, updating, upgrading, or support contracts.

Besides paying third-party suppliers the monthly license and support fees, you must pay MH monthly Technology Fees to fund the technology expenditures MH deems best for Hunters-Humbug Businesses. The Technology Fee currently is $150 per month until the cumulative Net Revenues of your Business reach $1,000,000, at which time the Technology Fee is currently scheduled to increase to $250 per month (provided, however, that MH has the right, in its sole judgment, to increase the monthly Technology Fee from time to time during the franchise term). The first Technology Fee payment is due in the calendar month in which your Business commences operations. Each subsequent Technology Fee payment is due no later than the tenth day of each subsequent calendar month. MH has the right to allocate and spend Technology Fees in its sole judgment, including for salaries, wages, and benefits, direct technology program costs, and overhead expenses for technology-related activities. The Technology Fee is in addition to any other costs you incur for the Software Programs or other computer hardware or additional software. MH has no obligation to account to you or other franchisees for its use of Technology Fees or to ensure that you or your Business benefits directly or pro rata based on your Technology Fee payments.

Business Opening

You select the Territory for your Business, subject to MH's approval. While there is generally an interval of 30 to 60 days between the execution of the Agreement and the opening of the Business, you must commence pre-opening marketing efforts for your Business to MH's satisfaction within 15 days after you complete MH's training program. Upon your request, MH may, at its sole option, grant you an extension of the 15-day period. MH has the right to terminate the Agreement if you do not comply with the opening deadline specified above.

Factors affecting the time period between execution of the Agreement and opening of the Hunters-Humbug Business include attendance at and satisfactory completion of MH's training program, arranging for any financing, and complying with all necessary licensing and regulatory requirements. MH does not expect you to begin offering holiday lighting and décor services until the holiday season approaches (typically in September).

Training

PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Pest Control Services

You may designate up to 2 persons (the principal owner is required to attend) to participate in MH's mandatory training program. The program will be conducted 5-6 times per year. You will be responsible for all travel and living expenses in connection with the training program. If you or your designee does not complete the training program to our satisfaction, you or your designee must attend the next initial training program at your expense. There is no specific timeframe after signing the Agreement or before opening the Business within which you must complete training. If you or your designee's performance in the additional training program is unsatisfactory, MH may terminate the Agreement effective upon delivery of notice of termination to you. MH may require that you and your supervisory personnel complete supplemental and refresher training programs, to be furnished without charge, at designated locations. You must pay any travel and living expenses for supplemental and refresher training programs. MH, at its discretion, may provide some or all training programs in a virtual environment via a restricted website or extranet to which you have access.

Currently, the initial training program is conducted at MH's headquarters (or at nearby facilities). The current training program is a 4-day training program which includes approximately 36 hours of actual classroom and on-site instruction. The instructional materials for MH's training program include handouts, its online learning management system, and quizzes that MH requires you to take. The officers of MH participate in and supervise all phases of the program based on their expertise with Hunters-Humbug Businesses. MH's Department of Operations administers the training program. Andy Fuller, Chief Executive Officer, has been an executive with the Hunters-Humbug system since January 2015 and has experience in all aspects of operations, having founded the original MOSQUITO HUNTERS business in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in November 2013. Mr. Fuller oversees the training program and the individual trainers, all of whom have been with MH an average of 5 years and have held a variety of positions with MH. MH's current initial training program for PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS pest control services is summarized in the following tabular chart:

In addition to the above training, you will have access to MH’s learning management system, which currently includes over 300 custom training courses on topics including financial acumen, software, business strategies, marketing tactics, technical skills, succession planning, and more.

In addition to the above training, the designated supplier of the computer software program will provide you with computer software training.

MH periodically may conduct conventions or conferences for some or all of its franchisees (“Conventions”). You must attend one or more of these Conventions (as MH specifies) and pay all expenses incurred in attending, including registration, transportation, and meals, lodging, and living expenses. MH will determine the duration and location of and curriculum for the Conventions. You must pay the applicable registration fee for each Convention when you register or as MH otherwise directs. This fee is not refundable. You must pay a registration fee even if you do not attend (or plan to attend) the particular Convention. If you own and operate more than one Hunters-Humbug Business franchise, you need only pay a single Convention registration fee for a particular Convention.

HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Holiday Lighting and Décor Services

You must attend and complete to MH's satisfaction the required HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING training program. MH plans to conduct this training program in the Holmdel, New Jersey area as often as training programs are necessary. MH expects that this training will occur separately and at a different time of year from the training program for the pest control and related services. The training program currently is scheduled to last for a total of approximately 2 to 3 days. While MH does not charge a separate fee for this training, you must pay all travel and living expenses incurred by your training attendees. If your attendees do not complete training to MH's satisfaction, MH has the right to terminate the Agreement.

The instructional materials for the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING training program include handouts and the Operating Manual. MH's Department of Operations administers the training program. Andy Fuller, MH's Chief Executive Officer, oversees the training program. He has supervised the development and implementation of the holiday lighting and décor program and administered the original pilot program.

MH's current initial training program for HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING holiday lighting and décor services is summarized in the following tabular chart:

Item 12 TERRITORY

A geographic territory (the “Territory”) will be identified in the Agreement in which you will initially conduct the Business. The Territory will contain no less than 25,000 single-family residences. After you have been operating the Business for 4 years, if your “Market Share” falls below the required level, MH may reduce the size of your Territory by redrawing its boundaries in MH’s sole discretion. Your “Market Share” means the percentage of single-family residences in the Territory using PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS pest control services out of the total single-family residences in the Territory. (This Market Share will apply only to single-family residences in the Territory under contract with you for outdoor pest control specializing in the eradication of a wide range of pests, including mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, ants, spiders, rodents, cockroaches, and other pests.) Your Market Share in the Territory may be no less than 70% of the average Market Share of all PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Businesses which have been in operation for 4 or more years. We intend to notify Strategic-Partners annually or on another recurring, regular basis of their Market Shares in their respective territories and of the average Market Share of all PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Businesses that have been in operation for 4 or more years. We expect to notify Strategic-Partners in writing, by email, or by sending out various metrics of system-wide performance and Market Share. Otherwise, MH may not alter your Territory or territorial rights during the franchise term (MH may change the Territory upon your acquisition of a successor franchise for the Business).

In order for you to acquire additional Territories, you must have a “Market Share” of at least 2% in all of the Territories in which you are operating at the time you notify MH of your interest in acquiring an additional Territory. Otherwise, you have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

(Again, despite the language above, this Market Share concept will apply only with respect to the portion of your Business for outdoor pest control services specializing in the eradication of a wide range of pests, including mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, ants, spiders, rodents, cockroaches, and other pests.)

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that MH owns, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that MH controls.

If you are in compliance with the Agreement, but except as provided in clauses (1) through (3) below, MH will not operate or grant a franchise for the operation of a Hunters-Humbug Business with a territory which overlaps in any material respect with your Territory. Except for this limitation, MH and its affiliates retain all rights with respect to Hunters-Humbug Businesses, the Marks, and other activities, including: (1) the right to provide, offer and sell, and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell, products similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold at Hunters-Humbug Businesses, whether identified by the Marks or other trademarks or service marks, through dissimilar distribution channels (including via catalog, the Internet or other media) both inside and outside your Territory; (2) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling dissimilar products and services under the Marks and other trademarks and service marks, both inside and outside your Territory; (3) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling mosquito control and other pest control services (and related products)—and/or businesses designing, installing, maintaining, and removing holiday lighting and décor—and identified by trademarks or service marks other than the Marks (including by the LAWN DOCTOR trademark/service mark, the HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES trademark/service mark, the SPARKLE SQUAD trademark/service mark, and any other trademarks or service marks) through similar and dissimilar distribution channels both inside and outside your Territory; (4) the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate Hunters-Humbug Businesses with territories which do not overlap in any material respects with your Territory regardless of proximity to the Business; (5) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided at a Hunters-Humbug Business, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to these businesses once acquired, wherever these businesses (or the Strategic-Partners or licensees of these businesses) are located or operating (including in your Territory); and (6) the right to be acquired by a business providing products and services similar to those provided at Hunters-Humbug Businesses, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in your Territory. MH may exercise any of the retained rights above without compensating you.

You must conduct the Business solely within your Territory, such that none of the Net Revenues of the Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside your Territory. If you have customers whose properties are located outside your Territory and MH grants to another Strategic-Partner a territory that encompasses such properties of your customers, then you must give such customers to such other Strategic-Partner at no charge. You must pay to MH a royalty of 15% of the Net Revenues for all business conducted outside your Territory. This 15% royalty is in addition to the required weekly royalty of 10% of the Net Revenues of the Business. In addition, this 15% royalty will apply if you acquire an existing Hunters-Humbug Business that has customers outside its designated territory. Therefore, you may not provide services to customers outside of your Territory without MH's prior written approval. If MH provides its approval, you may provide services only in the manner MH specifies, and MH has the right, but not the obligation, to allow you to engage in telemarketing or other direct marketing to provide services outside your Territory. Given the nature of Hunters-Humbug Businesses, MH does not expect you to engage in Internet or catalog sales.

Subject to MH's approval, you may (but have no obligation to) relinquish a portion of your Territory for inclusion in the territory of a Hunters-Humbug Business granted by MH to another person or entity. If you do so, you will be entitled to be paid any amount the new Strategic-Partner agrees to pay for this relinquishment over and above the initial franchise fee payable to MH.

Because Hunters-Humbug Businesses provide services at customer locations and generally do not maintain physical sites, relocation is not an issue that arises with Hunters-Humbug Businesses. The continuation of your territorial rights does not depend upon your achievement of any sales level or other contingency with the exception of your compliance with the Agreement as described above. MH does not operate or offer franchises for the operation of pest control service businesses, or holiday lighting and décor service businesses, under a different trade name or trademark besides PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS and HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING. MH does not intend to use the Marks or other trademarks in other channels of distribution for similar products or services, but has the right to do so.

MH's affiliate LDI (described in Item 1), whose principal business address is the same as MH's principal business address, currently offers franchises for LAWN DOCTOR Businesses, the primary activity of which is to care for and maintain lawns and other vegetation in an identified territory. LAWN DOCTOR Businesses also may provide other services, including mosquito control under the LAWN DOCTOR name. While LDI's and MH's offices are at the same location, LDI maintains training facilities that are physically separate from MH's training facilities. LAWN DOCTOR Businesses may solicit and accept orders from customers near your Business and in your Territory. Because MH and LDI want both of their franchise systems to succeed, they expect to resolve, in the best manner possible, any conflicts between their respective franchisees regarding territory, customers and support.

In addition, the franchise system operated by MH's affiliate SS (described in Item 1), whose principal business address is the same as MH's principal business address, as well as LAWN DOCTOR Businesses also currently offer (as part of their required services) the same holiday lighting and décor services as HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING. These types of services in the SPARKLE SQUAD franchise system are advertised and marketed by franchisees under the "SPARKLE SQUAD" trademark. These types of services in the LAWN DOCTOR franchise system are advertised and marketed by franchisees under the "HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES" trademark. These other franchise systems have the right—using these other trademarks—to solicit and accept orders from customers for holiday lighting and décor services near your Business and in your Territory. MH, SS, and LDI offer training for their branded holiday lighting and décor services lines from the same training facilities. Because these brands are all affiliated, MH, SS, and LDI intend to take whatever action is appropriate under the circumstances to resolve conflicts among the franchisees of each system regarding territory, customers, and support.

TRADEMARKS

MH will license to you the right to use the Marks in the operation of the Business and in providing the services and products associated with the Business. The following Marks are registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office on the Principal Register:

Mark	Registration / Serial Number	Registration / Application Date
“Mosquito Hunters” word mark	4843837	11/3/2015
	5016883	08/9/2016
	7685463	02/11/2025
PEST HUNTERS	7676750	02/04/2025
	6980455	2/14/2023
“Humbug Holiday Lighting” word mark	6903091	11/15/2022

MH currently owns the first 4 Marks. In August 2015, MH’s predecessor and/or its affiliate entered into a Coexistence Agreement with BEECON, Inc. that owned the trademark Bee Hunter. In that agreement, the parties stipulated that confusion between the trademarks MOSQUITO HUNTERS and Bee Hunter would not likely occur due to the differentiating use, style, and design of the trademarks and the separate customers, market, and services of the types or species of pests or insects to be controlled. As part of that agreement, both parties agreed not to interfere with the use of the respective trademarks and to ensure no likelihood of confusion between the 2 trademarks. As part of the Coexistence Agreement, Mosquito Hunters would not engage in the control, removal, extermination, or prevention of bees, hornets, wasps, and/or yellow jackets. In addition, in order to avoid any possible confusion of the 2 trademarks Mosquito Hunters and its affiliates agreed not to use, market, or promote the MOSQUITO HUNTERS Marks in geographically targeted or directed advertising, promotion, or sale of services in a geographic region comprised of Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Armstrong, Westmoreland, and Washington counties of Pennsylvania and Worcester, Franklin, Hampshire, Hampden, and Berkshire counties of Massachusetts.

The last 2 Marks in the table above are owned by LDI, MH's affiliate. LDI licenses MH to use the Marks and related intellectual property, and to authorize franchised Hunters-Humbug Businesses to use them, under a Trademarks, Copyrights, and Trade Secrets License Agreement effective January 1, 2024 (the "License Agreement"). The License Agreement's initial term is 20 years; MH has the right to renew the License Agreement for 2 successive 5-year terms. MH has the right to terminate the License Agreement at any time. LDI may terminate the License Agreement immediately if MH breaches the License Agreement and fails to cure the breach within 30 days after receiving written notice from LDI. When the License Agreement terminates or expires, MH must stop using and sublicensing the Marks and related intellectual property. However, any franchised Hunters-Humbug Business that has been authorized to use the Marks in its franchise may continue using the Marks until its franchise agreement, and any permitted successor franchise agreement, expires or is terminated, but only if the franchised Hunters-Humbug Business continues to comply with its obligations in the franchise agreement and any permitted successor franchise agreement during their remaining terms.

Other than as stated above, there are no other agreements that limit our right to use or license the use of the Marks.

MH and LDI have filed, or intend to file, all required affidavits of use and renewals for the Marks when they become due for as long as the Marks remain material to MH's franchise system.

There are currently no effective material determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or the trademark administrator of any state or any court, nor are there any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or any pending material federal or state court litigation, involving any of the Marks. Except as described above, MH does not actually know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks in any state.

You must follow MH's rules when you use the Marks, including MH's requirements and restrictions concerning use of the Marks on any website. Your right to use the Marks is limited to the conduct of the Business in compliance with the Agreement and all applicable standards, specifications and operating procedures prescribed by MH. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by you will constitute an infringement of the rights of MH. All provisions of the Agreement will apply to any additional trade and service marks and commercial symbols that MH authorizes for your use. You must use the Marks as the sole identification of the Business, but you must identify yourself as the independent owner, operator, and manager of the Business in the manner MH prescribes. You may not use any Mark or any variation thereof (1) as part of any corporate or legal business name, (2) with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols, (3) in connection with the performance or sale of any unauthorized services or products, (4) as part of any domain name, electronic address or search engine, or (5) in any other manner MH has not expressly authorized in writing. To the extent you use any Mark in employment-related materials, you must include a clear disclaimer that you (and only you) are the employer of employees and that MH, as the franchisor, is not the employer of your Business's employees and does not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

You must immediately notify MH of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Mark. MH will take action as it deems appropriate and control any litigation or proceeding. You must assist MH with any action it may take in connection with an infringement or challenge to any Mark. If MH decides to modify or discontinue use of any Mark or use one or more additional or substitute trade or service marks, no matter the circumstances, then you must comply with MH's directions to modify or discontinue the use of such Mark. MH is not required by the Agreement to defend you against any claim respecting your use of any Mark. MH also is not obligated to reimburse you for your direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of a Mark and substituting a different trademark or service mark, for any loss of goodwill associated with any modified or discontinued Mark, or for your expenditures to promote a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

Item 14

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Currently, no patents or patent applications are material to the franchise. MH claims a copyright in its Operating Manual, advertising and marketing materials, and similar items used in the franchise. MH has not registered these copyrights with the United States Copyright Office but need not do so to protect them. There are currently no effective material determinations of the United States Copyright Office or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials. MH is not obligated to protect or defend copyrights. There are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit the rights of MH to use or license the use of the copyrighted materials in any manner material to you. MH does not actually know of any infringing uses of its copyrights that could materially affect your use of copyrighted materials in any state. MH is not obligated to reimburse you for your direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of any copyright. Nor are you entitled to any other compensation in such circumstances.

Through the Operating Manual and other means, MH provides confidential information to Strategic-Partners. MH's confidential information includes methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, sales and marketing techniques and knowledge of and experience in the development, operation and franchising of Hunters-Humbug Businesses (some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law). You must keep this information completely confidential. You may not use the confidential information in any other business or make unauthorized copies of any confidential information. Your customer list is included in MH's confidential information, is the property of MH, and constitutes a trade secret of MH. You must implement the procedures that MH requires to prevent unauthorized disclosure of the confidential information. MH has the right to review and approve the form of confidentiality agreement you use and to be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. MH's right to review and approve the form of agreement is solely to ensure that you adequately protect confidential information. Under no circumstances will MH control the forms or terms of employment agreements you use with your Business's employees or otherwise be responsible for your labor relations or employment practices.

All ideas, concepts, techniques, or materials relating to a Hunters-Humbug Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to MH and will be deemed to be MH's sole and exclusive property, part of the franchise system, and works made-for-hire for MH. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for MH, you assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to MH and must sign whatever assignment or other documents MH requests to show MH's ownership or to help MH obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You (or, if you are an entity, your owners) must continuously use your best efforts to promote the Business and devote your full time, energies and attention to the operation of the Business. You must not engage in any business or activity that competes with MH, the Business or the Hunters-Humbug system. However, MH may permit you to engage in other non-competitive business activities if you obtain MH's written consent, which may be withheld in MH's sole discretion. If MH allows you to transfer your rights and obligations under the Agreement to a corporation or other entity that you own, you will remain bound personally by every contractual provision, whether containing monetary or non-monetary obligations, including the covenant not to compete. There are no limits on whom you may hire as an on-premises supervisor if you or your owners do not perform that function. However, any on-premises supervisor must have successfully completed MH's training program and must agree to maintain the confidentiality of MH's proprietary information. Franchise owners are subject to non-competition restrictions.

Item 16

You must conduct the Business within the Territory, such that none of the Net Revenues of the Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside your Territory. You may not offer or sell any other services or products or use any equipment of the Business in any other business or for any other purpose. MH may change the types of authorized services, and there are no limits on its right to do so.

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

MH does not use any public figure to promote MH or the Business.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in this Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

All financial performance representations in this Item 19 showing actual franchisee performance are based on internal unaudited historical data. Except as otherwise noted in Table A.7 at the end of this Item 19, these financial performance representations do not include any information related to HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING lighting and décor services.

Tables A.1 through A.5 reflect certain operating results of 63 Strategic-Partners owning 100 franchised territories during 2024. Tables A.1 through A.5 exclude a total of 22 Strategic-Partners (owning 35 franchised territories): (i) 9 Strategic-Partners who did not operate for a Full Season in 2024; (ii) 8 Strategic-Partners who failed to adhere to certain system standards by failing to invest or participate in MH-driven marketing programs to drive new customer inquiries; and (iii) 5 Strategic-Partners who did not operate for the full 2024 season after having been fully operational during 2023.

A Strategic-Partner who operated for a Full Season during 2024 means a franchisee who was trained, licensed, and in a position to start servicing customers before the beginning of the Spring sales window. A Full Season means the full amount of time during which a Strategic-Partner is able to perform treatments within a calendar year for a given market, which varies by geography and seasonality of mosquitoes and other pests. All Tables exclude 6 affiliate-owned territories.

MH compiled this information from direct reports and surveys from Strategic-Partners of actual quantities of mosquito and pest related treatments and services performed by Strategic-Partners during 2024. MH did not independently audit the figures in these reports and surveys.

Four Regions are reflected in Tables A.2 through A.5 below. The states appearing in each Region share type of climate and the general length of the mosquito/pest season:

Region 1 consists of Alaska, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New York, and Wisconsin and includes 11 Hunters-Humbug Businesses (owning 16 franchised territories) that operated for a Full Season during 2024 (out of a total of 16 Businesses owning 25 franchised territories that operated in the Region during 2024).

Region 2 consists of Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, and Virginia and includes 21 Hunters-Humbug Businesses (owning 32 franchised territories) that operated for a Full Season during 2024 (out of a total of 27 Businesses owning 40 franchised territories that operated in the Region during 2024).

Region 3 consists of Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and Tennessee and includes 12 Hunters-Humbug Businesses (owning 16 franchised territories) that operated for a Full Season during 2024 (out of a total of 17 Businesses owning 23 franchised territories that operated in the Region during 2024).

Region 4 consists of Florida, Louisiana, and Texas and includes 19 Hunters-Humbug Businesses (owning 36 franchised territories) that operated for a Full Season during 2024 (out of a total of 25 Businesses owning 47 franchised territories that operated in the Region during 2024).

Table A.1 includes certain 2024 customer counts of Strategic-Partners for all franchised Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed mosquito and other pest control related treatments for the Full Season in 2024. As used in this Item 19, a “customer” means a residential or commercial property that had at least one treatment during 2024. Table A.1 reflects all customers who received any amount of completed mosquito and/or non-mosquito pest control treatments during 2024 from Strategic-Partners, whether on a one-time or a recurring basis (and whether or not the services were bundled with each other). It includes all 2024 customers, even if they are no longer active in 2025 for any reason.

Table A.2 includes certain 2024 pricing per treatment (a “treatment” is an application performed on a customer’s property) for mosquito-only control services per Strategic-Partner for all Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed mosquito control treatments for the Full Season in 2024. Table A.2 excludes customer retreatments.

Table A.3 includes certain 2024 pricing per treatment for non-mosquito only pest control services per Strategic-Partner for all Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed pest control related treatments for the Full Season in 2024. Non-mosquito pest control services include additional services that are not mosquito services related, including general pest control, perimeter pest control, and flea and tick applications.

Table A.4 includes certain 2024 quantity and customer value of mosquito-only control services per Strategic-Partner for all Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed mosquito control treatments for the Full Season in 2024. Table A.4 reflects all customers who received completed mosquito control treatments (but not part of bundled programs with non-mosquito pest control services) on a recurring basis during 2024 as part of active recurring programs. Customers receiving one-time services are not included. Therefore, Table A.4 reflects a different base of customers than does Table A.1.

Table A.5 includes certain 2024 quantity and customer value of non-mosquito-only pest control services per Strategic-Partner for all Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed treatments for the Full Season in 2024. Non-mosquito pest control services include additional services that are not mosquito services related, including general pest control, perimeter pest control, and flea and tick applications. Table A.5 reflects all customers who received completed non-mosquito pest control treatments (but not part of bundled programs with mosquito pest control services) on a recurring basis during 2024 as part of active recurring programs. Customers receiving one-time services are not included. Therefore, Table A.5 reflects a different base of customers than does Table A.1.

Table A.6 includes certain 2024 customer value for mosquito Smart Repellent Systems installation related services per Strategic-Partner for all Hunters-Humbug Businesses that performed mosquito treatments for the Full Season in 2024. Smart Repellent Systems are devices installed on customer properties where people convene that diffuse proprietary repellent into the air, creating an invisible barrier around a specific radius that repel mosquitos within approximately 20 feet. These devices enhance the traditional barrier spray provided by Hunters-Humbug Businesses. Once installed, technicians refill the devices on a scheduled basis to ensure a full supply of the proprietary repellent.

Table A.7 includes certain 2024 quantity and customer value for HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING services for the Strategic-Partners who participated in HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING during 2024. The data includes customer count, total revenue, and total revenue per customer for the 26 Strategic-Partners who fully participated in the 2024 holiday lighting season.

It also excludes non-mosquito pest control services such as general pest control, perimeter pest control, and flea and tick applications.

 “Potential Treatments Per Program” means the potential average number of mosquito treatments that could have been performed for each customer within the particular Region for the Full Season during 2024 based on the markets in the Region in which MH’s franchisees operated during 2024 (the number of potential treatments depends on market-based factors, including geography and weather conditions in the Region, length of the season for applying mosquito treatments, and seasonality of mosquitoes). Part of MH’s proprietary system is assessing the length of a mosquito season in various states and regions (using these market-based factors) and, in turn, how many times the brand’s chemical treatments must be applied over the course of that season to combat mosquitos effectively. Therefore, this “Potential Treatments per Program” column in this Table A.4 is the maximum number of times during a full single “mosquito season” in the Region—based on its unique weather characteristics—that a franchisee typically would apply chemicals (i.e., treatments) on a single client’s property.

* “Potential Non-Mosquito Program Treatments Per Customer” means the potential average number of mosquito treatments that could have been performed for each customer within the particular Region for the Full Season during 2024 based on the markets in the Region in which MH’s franchisees operated during 2024 (the number of potential treatments depends on market-based factors, including geography and weather conditions in the Region, length of the season for applying treatments, and seasonality of pests). Part of MH’s proprietary system is assessing the length of the pest season in various states and regions (using these market-based factors) and, in turn, how many times the brand’s chemical treatments must be applied over the course of that season to combat pests effectively. Therefore, this “Potential Non-Mosquito Program Treatments Per Customer” column in this Table A.5 is the maximum number of times during a full single “non-mosquito pest season” in the Region—based on its unique weather characteristics—that a franchisee typically would apply chemicals (i.e., treatments) on a single client’s property.

Non-Mosquito Services include additional services that are not mosquito services related, including general pest control, perimeter pest control, and flea and tick applications.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that:

(1) The COMPANY’s officers, directors, employees and agents act only in a representative and not in a personal capacity in their dealings with STRATEGIC PARTNER.

(2) STRATEGIC-PARTNER understands and accepts the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain the quality of the COMPANY’s brand, products, and services.

(3) STRATEGIC-PARTNER made no misrepresentations in obtaining the Franchise.

The acknowledgements in clauses (4) though (6) below apply to all franchisees and franchises except not to any franchisees and franchises that are subject to the state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.

(4) STRATEGIC-PARTNER has conducted an independent investigation of the business contemplated by this Agreement and recognizes that it involves business risks and that the success of the venture is largely dependent upon the business abilities of STRATEGIC-PARTNER.

(5) The COMPANY’s grant of a franchise to STRATEGIC-PARTNER to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and STRATEGIC-PARTNER’s completion of the COMPANY’s training program are not representations or guarantees of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business’ success or profitability.

(6) STRATEGIC-PARTNER has not received or relied upon any warranty or guaranty, express or implied, as to the potential revenues, profits or success of the Franchise (defined below) or policies made by the COMPANY or its officers, directors, employees or agents that are contrary to the statements made in the COMPANY’s Disclosure Document.

C. GRANT OF FRANCHISE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER has applied for a franchise to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and such application has been approved by the COMPANY in reliance upon all of the representations made therein. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the COMPANY hereby grants to STRATEGIC-PARTNER a franchise (the “Franchise”) to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in the Territory (as further described herein) and to use the Marks in the operation thereof for a term of ten (10) years commencing on the Agreement Date. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall constitute a termination or expiration of the Franchise.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to commence the conduct of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business within fifteen (15) days after his completion of the COMPANY's training program. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER requests, the COMPANY may, at its sole option, grant STRATEGIC-PARTNER an extension of the fifteen (15)-day period.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to conduct his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business initially within the following territory:_____

(the "Territory"). The Territory shall contain approximately, but no less than, twenty-five thousand (25,000) single family residences. If this Agreement is being executed pursuant to a transfer, renewal or grant of a successor agreement, STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges and agrees that this Section 1.C. does not grant STRATEGIC-PARTNER any rights to expand the number of single family residences in his Territory notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein.

If, at any time after the fourth (4th) anniversary of the Agreement Date, STRATEGIC-PARTNER's "Market Share" falls below the level required in the next sentence, the COMPANY shall have the right to reduce the size of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory by redrawing its boundaries in the COMPANY's sole discretion. STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Market Share in the Territory shall be no less than seventy percent (70%) of the average market share of all HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses which have been in operation for four (4) or more years. In order for STRATEGIC-PARTNER to acquire additional Territories, STRATEGIC-PARTNER must have a Market Share of at least two percent (2%) in all of the Territories STRATEGIC-PARTNER is operating in at the time of notifying the COMPANY of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's interest in acquiring an additional Territory. However, despite the language above, this Market Share concept shall apply only with respect to the portion of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business for outdoor pest control specializing in the eradication of a wide range of pests, including mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, ants, spiders, rodents, cockroaches, and other pests.

So long as STRATEGIC-PARTNER is in compliance with this Agreement, but except as provided in clauses (1) through (3) below, the COMPANY will not operate or grant a franchise for the operation of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business with a territory which overlaps in any material respect with STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory during the term of this Agreement. Except for this limitation, the COMPANY and its affiliates retain all rights with respect to HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, the Marks, and any other activities the COMPANY and its affiliates deem appropriate, including, but not limited to:

(1) the right to provide, offer and sell, and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell, products similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold at HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, whether identified by the Marks or other trademarks or service marks, through dissimilar distribution channels (including, without limitation, via catalog, the internet or other media) both inside and outside STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY deems appropriate;

(2) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling dissimilar products and services under the Marks and other trademarks and service marks, both inside and outside STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY deems appropriate;

(3) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling mosquito control and other pest control services (and related products)—and/or businesses designing, installing, maintaining, and removing holiday lighting and décor—and identified by trademarks or service marks other than the Marks (including, without limitation, by the LAWN DOCTOR trademark/service mark, the HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES trademark/service mark, the SPARKLE SQUAD trademark/service mark, and any other trademarks or service marks) through similar and dissimilar distribution channels, both inside and outside STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY deems appropriate;

(4) the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses with territories which do not overlap in any material respect STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory under any terms and conditions the COMPANY deems appropriate and regardless of proximity to STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business;

(5) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided at a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to these businesses once acquired, wherever these businesses (or the strategic-partners or licensees of these businesses) are located or operating (including in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory); and

(6) the right to be acquired (whether through acquisition of assets, ownership interests or otherwise, regardless of the form of transaction) by a business providing products and services similar to those provided at HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that he will at all times faithfully, honestly and diligently perform his obligations hereunder and that he will continuously exert his best efforts to effectively promote and enhance his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and develop and service customers within the Territory. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to conduct his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business within the Territory, such that none of the Net Revenues (as defined herein) of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory.

If STRATEGIC-PARTNER has customers whose properties are located outside the Territory, and the COMPANY grants to another strategic-partner a territory that encompasses such properties of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's customers, then STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall transfer and assign such customers to such other strategic-partner at no charge. STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay to the COMPANY a royalty of fifteen percent (15%) of the Net Revenues for all business conducted outside the STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory. This fifteen percent (15%) royalty is in addition to the required weekly royalty of ten percent (10%) of the Net Revenues of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, as described in Section 6.B.

Subject to the COMPANY's approval, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall have the right to relinquish a portion of the Territory for inclusion in the territory of a Franchise granted by the COMPANY to another person or entity. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall be entitled to any consideration which such person agrees to pay for such relinquishment over and above the initial franchise fee payable to the COMPANY in connection with the grant of such franchise.

D. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY understand and agree that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY, that STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY are and will be independent contractors, and that nothing in this Agreement, including the term "strategic-partner," is intended to make either STRATEGIC-PARTNER or the COMPANY a general or special agent, joint venturer, partner or employee of the other for any purpose. Nor is the COMPANY the employer or joint employer of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to identify itself conspicuously in all dealings with clients, suppliers, distributors, public officials and others as the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business' owner, operator, and manager under a franchise the COMPANY has granted and to place notices of independent ownership on the forms, business cards, stationery, advertising and other materials the COMPANY requires from time to time. The COMPANY will not exercise direct or indirect control over the working conditions of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business personnel, except to the extent such indirect control is related to the COMPANY's legitimate interest in protecting the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, or services. The COMPANY does not share or codetermine the terms and conditions of employment of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees and does not affect matters relating to the employment relationship between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions. To that end, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to identify itself conspicuously in all dealings with its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business personnel as the employer of such personnel and to notify such personnel that the COMPANY, as the franchisor, is not their employer and does not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

2. TRAINING AND GUIDANCE.

A. TRAINING.

The COMPANY shall furnish a training program on the operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business at such time and place as the COMPANY designates. This training will not include training on matters relating to labor relations and employment practices. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall have the right to designate up to two (2) individuals to participate in the training program, provided that such individuals are supervisory personnel and attend the training program together. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall be responsible for all travel and living expenses which such individuals incur in connection with the training program. If, during the training program, the COMPANY determines, in its sole discretion, that STRATEGIC-PARTNER or his designee is not qualified to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business or has not satisfactorily completed the training program, the COMPANY shall have the right to require such individuals to attend the next initial training program at STRATEGIC-PARTNER's expense (including all travel and living expenses incurred by STRATEGIC-PARTNER and his designee(s) in connection therewith). If STRATEGIC-PARTNER's or a designee's performance in the additional training program is unsatisfactory, the COMPANY shall have the right to terminate this Agreement effective upon delivery of notice of termination to STRATEGIC-PARTNER. The COMPANY shall have the right to require that STRATEGIC-PARTNER and his supervisory personnel complete supplemental and refresher training programs, to be furnished without charge, at designated locations. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall pay all such travel and living expenses therefor. At its option, the COMPANY may provide some or all training programs in a virtual environment via a restricted website or extranet to which STRATEGIC-PARTNER will have access.

B. GUIDANCE.

The COMPANY shall furnish to STRATEGIC-PARTNER guidance in connection with the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. Such guidance shall, in the sole discretion of the COMPANY, be furnished in the Operating Manual. The COMPANY may, at its option, provide additional guidance to STRATEGIC PARTNER via presentation materials and content on the COMPANY's learning management program. The COMPANY may also provide guidance via telephonic conversations and/or consultation with supervisory personnel at the offices of the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER's office. Additional guidance and assistance shall be available to supervisory personnel, in the sole discretion of the COMPANY, at per diem fees and charges established from time to time by the COMPANY.

The COMPANY will during the term of the Franchise provide STRATEGIC-PARTNER with access to one (1) copy of the Operating Manual. The Operating Manual shall contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY for the operation of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and information relative to other obligations of STRATEGIC-PARTNER hereunder so that the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, and services is maintained. The COMPANY shall have the right to add to and to otherwise modify the Operating Manual from time to time to reflect changes in authorized products, services and equipment, standards of product and service quality and performance, and the operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, provided that no such addition or modification shall alter STRATEGIC-PARTNER's fundamental status and rights under this Agreement. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall keep his copy of the Operating Manual current; however, in the event of a dispute, the master copy maintained by the COMPANY at its principal office shall be controlling. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that the contents of the Operating Manual are confidential and that STRATEGIC-PARTNER will not disclose the Operating Manual to any person other than employees of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business who need to know its contents. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall not, at any time, copy or otherwise reproduce any part of the Operating Manual. As further described in Section 7.J., the COMPANY may post some or all of the Operating Manual on a website or extranet to which STRATEGIC-PARTNER has access.

C. CONVENTIONS/CONFERENCES.

The COMPANY periodically may conduct conventions or conferences for some or all of its strategic-partners ("Conventions"). STRATEGIC-PARTNER must attend one or more of these Conventions (as the COMPANY specifies) and pay all expenses incurred in attending, including registration, transportation, and meals, lodging, and living expenses. The COMPANY will determine the duration and location of and curriculum for the Conventions. STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay the applicable registration fee for each Convention when it registers or as otherwise directed by the COMPANY. This fee is not refundable. STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay a registration fee even if it does not attend (or plan to attend) the particular Convention. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER owns and operates more than one HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business franchise, STRATEGIC-PARTNER need only pay a single Convention registration fee for a particular Convention.

3. MARKS.

A. OWNERSHIP AND GOODWILL OF MARKS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that his right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to his conduct of business pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable standards, specifications and operating procedures prescribed by the COMPANY from time to time during the term of the Franchise, including, but not limited to, standards and procedures prescribed by the COMPANY with respect to STRATEGIC-PARTNER's use of any Mark in connection with a website. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by STRATEGIC-PARTNER, including, but not limited to, use by STRATEGIC-PARTNER of any Mark as part of a website domain name or electronic address, shall constitute an infringement of the rights of the COMPANY in and to the Marks. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that all usage of the Marks by STRATEGIC-PARTNER and any goodwill established thereby shall inure to the exclusive benefit of the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Marks upon STRATEGIC-PARTNER. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Marks shall apply to any additional proprietary trade and service marks and commercial symbols the COMPANY hereafter authorizes for use by STRATEGIC-PARTNER. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall immediately notify the COMPANY of any apparent infringement of or challenge to STRATEGIC-PARTNER's use of any Mark. The COMPANY shall have sole discretion to take such action as it deems appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation or proceeding arising out of any such infringement or challenge. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to render such assistance in connection therewith as the COMPANY deems necessary or advisable.

B. LIMITATIONS ON STRATEGIC-PARTNER'S USE OF MARKS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Franchise, provided that STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall identify himself as the independent owner, operator, and manager thereof in the manner prescribed by the COMPANY. STRATEGIC-PARTNER may not use any Mark or any variation thereof (1) as part of any corporate or legal business name, (2) with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols (other than logos licensed to STRATEGIC-PARTNER hereunder), (3) in connection with the performance or sale of any unauthorized services or products, (4) as part of any domain name, electronic address or search engine, or (5) in any other manner the COMPANY has not expressly authorized in writing. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to prominently display the Marks and only the Marks (as prescribed in Section 7.B. hereof) on the Service Vehicles, and on contracts, forms, equipment and other materials authorized by the COMPANY. To the extent STRATEGIC-PARTNER uses any Mark in employment-related materials, STRATEGIC-PARTNER must include a clear disclaimer that it (and only it) is the employer of employees and that the COMPANY, as the franchisor, is not the employer of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees and does not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees that STRATEGIC-PARTNER's telephone number shall be used exclusively for the operation of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and for no other purpose.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to give such notices of trade and service mark registrations as the COMPANY specifies and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law. If, in the COMPANY's sole discretion, it becomes advisable for the COMPANY and/or STRATEGIC-PARTNER to modify or discontinue use of any Mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute trade or service marks, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to comply with the COMPANY's directions to modify or otherwise discontinue the use of such Mark within a reasonable time after notice thereof. The COMPANY has no obligation to reimburse STRATEGIC-PARTNER's (1) direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of a Mark and substituting therefor a different trademark or service mark, (2) loss of goodwill associated with any modified or discontinued Mark, or (3) expenditures to promote a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION/EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP.

A. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

The COMPANY possesses, and will continue to develop and acquire, certain confidential information relating to the methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, sales and marketing techniques and knowledge of and experience in the development, operation and franchising of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses (the “Confidential Information”). The COMPANY will disclose the Confidential Information to STRATEGIC-PARTNER in the training program, the Operating Manual and in guidance furnished to STRATEGIC-PARTNER. STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that the Confidential Information is proprietary and involves trade secrets of the COMPANY and that he will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in the operation of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business during the term of this Agreement. The COMPANY will disclose the Confidential Information to STRATEGIC-PARTNER only on the condition that STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owners agree, and they hereby do agree, that STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owners:

(a) will not use any Confidential Information in any other business or capacity;

(b) will keep the Confidential Information absolutely confidential during and after this Agreement’s term;

(c) will not make unauthorized copies of any Confidential Information disclosed via electronic medium or in written or other tangible form; and

(d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures that the COMPANY periodically prescribes to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information, including, without limitation, restricting its disclosure to personnel of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and others needing to know such Confidential Information to operate the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and requiring all employees having access to Confidential Information to sign confidentiality and non-competition agreements in a form acceptable to the COMPANY. The COMPANY has the right to review and approve the form of agreement that STRATEGIC-PARTNER uses and to be a third party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. The COMPANY’s right to review and approve the form of agreement is solely to ensure that STRATEGIC-PARTNER adequately protects Confidential Information. Under no circumstances will the COMPANY control the forms or terms of employment agreements STRATEGIC-PARTNER uses with its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees or otherwise be responsible for STRATEGIC-PARTNER’s labor relations or employment practices.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that the list of the names, addresses and other information regarding STRATEGIC-PARTNER’s current clients, former clients, and those who have inquired about the service (the “Customer List”) shall be included in the Confidential Information, shall be the property of the COMPANY and shall constitute a trade secret of the COMPANY. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that STRATEGIC-PARTNER may not disclose the Customer List, or any portion thereof, to any person other than the COMPANY, either during the term of this Agreement or thereafter.

“Confidential Information” does not include information, knowledge or know-how which STRATEGIC-PARTNER knew from previous business experience before the COMPANY provided it to STRATEGIC-PARTNER (directly or indirectly) or before STRATEGIC-

PARTNER began training or operating his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. If the COMPANY includes any matter in Confidential Information, anyone who claims that it is not Confidential Information must prove that the exclusion in this paragraph is fulfilled.

All ideas, concepts, techniques or materials relating to a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for STRATEGIC-PARTNER or STRATEGIC-PARTNER's employees, must be promptly disclosed to the COMPANY and will be deemed to be the COMPANY's sole and exclusive property, part of the franchise system, and works made-for-hire for the COMPANY. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for the COMPANY, by this paragraph STRATEGIC-PARTNER assigns ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to the COMPANY and agrees to sign whatever assignment or other documents the COMPANY requests to evidence the COMPANY's ownership or to help the COMPANY obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

B. EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY would be unable to protect the Confidential Information against unauthorized use or disclosure if franchised strategic-partners of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses were permitted to hold interests in any Competitive Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER therefore agrees that during the term of this Agreement, neither STRATEGIC-PARTNER, its owner(s) nor any member of his or their immediate families shall perform services or have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, manager, consultant, representative or agent, or in any other capacity in any Competitive Business located or operating within (a) STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (b) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (c) the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, or (d) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business.

5. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES/INDEMNIFICATION.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall hire all employees of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and will be exclusively responsible for all terms relating to their employment, including employee selection, training, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall not employ any of the Marks in signing any contract or applying for any license or permit or in a manner that may result in the COMPANY's liability for any of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's indebtedness or obligations, nor may STRATEGIC-PARTNER use the Marks in any way not expressly authorized by the COMPANY, including, but not limited to, on a website. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall make no express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations, or incur any debt, in the name of or on behalf of the COMPANY and the COMPANY shall not be obligated by or be liable under any agreements or representations made by STRATEGIC-PARTNER that are not expressly authorized hereunder. In addition to any sales, use, excise, privilege or other transaction taxes that the COMPANY is required or permitted by law to collect from STRATEGIC-PARTNER for the sale, lease or other provision of goods or services under this Agreement, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall pay to the COMPANY an amount equal to all federal, state, local or foreign (i) sales, use, excise, privilege, occupation or any other transactional taxes, or (ii) any other taxes or similar exactions no matter how designated (excluding only taxes imposed on the COMPANY for the privilege of conducting business and calculated with respect to the COMPANY's net income, capital, net worth, gross receipts, or some other basis or combination thereof, but not excluding any gross receipts taxes imposed on the COMPANY for STRATEGIC-PARTNER payments intended to reimburse the COMPANY for expenditures incurred for the benefit and on behalf of STRATEGIC-PARTNER), that are imposed on the COMPANY or required to be withheld by STRATEGIC-PARTNER in connection with the receipt or accrual of service fees, royalties or any other amounts payable by STRATEGIC-PARTNER to the COMPANY under this Agreement. Any additional required payment pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be made in an amount necessary to provide the COMPANY with after tax receipts (taking into account any additional payments required hereunder), equal to the same amounts the COMPANY would have received under the provisions of this Agreement if such additional tax liability or withholding had not been imposed or required.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to indemnify and hold the COMPANY, its affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees harmless from and against any liability for any claims arising out of the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, including any allegation that the COMPANY or its affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assignees is a joint employer or otherwise responsible for STRATEGIC PARTNER's acts or omissions related to STRATEGIC PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees. For purposes of this indemnification, claims shall mean and include all obligations, actual and consequential damages, taxes and costs reasonably incurred in the defense of any claim, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants', attorneys' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses. The COMPANY shall have the right to defend any such claim in which it is named as a defendant. This indemnity shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

6. FEES.

A. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to pay to the COMPANY an initial franchise fee of _____ Dollars ($_____) (the "Initial Franchise Fee") comprised of the following components:

(1) An initial license fee of _____ Dollars ($_____) for the right to use the Marks during the term of this Agreement and any successor franchise granted hereunder;

(2) An initial training, supply and support fee of _____ Dollars ($_____);

The Initial Franchise Fee shall be payable as follows: (1) _____ Dollars ($_____) shall be due and payable on the Agreement Date; and (2) _____ Dollars ($_____) shall be payable _____

The Initial Franchise Fee shall be fully earned by the COMPANY when paid and is nonrefundable.

B. ROYALTY AND SERVICE FEE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to pay to the COMPANY by Thursday of each week during the term hereof a weekly royalty and service fee in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business for the immediately preceding week (Monday through Sunday).

C. TECHNOLOGY FEE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to pay the COMPANY a Technology Fee to fund the technology expenditures the COMPANY deems best for HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses. The Technology Fee currently is one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per month until the cumulative Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business reach One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), at which time the Technology Fee is currently scheduled to increase to Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) per month (provided, however, that the COMPANY reserves the right, in its sole judgment, to increase the monthly Technology Fee from time to time during this Agreement's term). The first Technology Fee payment is due and payable to the COMPANY in the calendar month in which STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business commences operations. Each subsequent Technology Fee payment is due and payable no later than the tenth day of each subsequent calendar month. The COMPANY has the right to allocate and spend Technology Fees in its sole judgment, including for salaries, wages, and benefits, direct technology program costs, and overhead expenses for technology-related activities. The Technology Fee is in addition to any other costs STRATEGIC-PARTNER incurs to purchase or license the Software Program or other computer hardware or additional software described in Section 7.I below. The COMPANY has no obligation to account to STRATEGIC-PARTNER or other franchisees for its use of Technology Fees or to ensure that STRATEGIC-PARTNER or STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business benefits directly or pro rata based on its Technology Fee payments.

D. INTEREST ON LATE PAYMENTS.

All royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, lease payments, amounts due for purchases by STRATEGIC-PARTNER from the COMPANY, and other amounts which STRATEGIC-PARTNER owes to the COMPANY shall bear interest after due date at the highest applicable legal rate for open account business credit in the state of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's domicile, not to exceed one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month. STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that this Section 6.D. shall not constitute the COMPANY's agreement to accept such payments after same are due or a commitment by the COMPANY to extend credit to, or otherwise finance STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. Further, STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that his failure to pay all amounts when due shall constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement.

E. APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS.

Notwithstanding any designation by STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the COMPANY shall have sole discretion to apply any payments by STRATEGIC-PARTNER to any of his past due indebtedness for royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, purchases from the COMPANY or its affiliates, interest or any other indebtedness.

F. METHOD OF PAYMENT - ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER.

At any time during the term of this Agreement on at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice from the COMPANY to STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the COMPANY may request that STRATEGIC-PARTNER agree to and shall timely remit royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, and any other amounts due to the COMPANY hereunder (including, without limitation, any outstanding portion of the Initial Franchise Fee) via electronic funds transfer or other means to a bank or financial institution designated by the COMPANY, and STRATEGIC-PARTNER hereby grants the COMPANY authorization for direct (automatic) debiting of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's bank or financial institution general operating account. In such event, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to supply any and all information necessary to provide for automatic electronic funds transfer and payment of such amounts due to the COMPANY and to comply with procedures specified by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual and in writing from time to time, and/or perform such acts and deliver and execute such documents, agreements and authorizations as may be necessary to assist in or accomplish payment by such method.

7. FRANCHISE IMAGE AND OPERATING PROCEDURES.

A. EQUIPMENT.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to use the mist blower and all other equipment meeting the COMPANY's specifications and standards as may be approved by the COMPANY from time to time. The COMPANY may modify and/or substitute any of the equipment STRATEGIC-PARTNER is required to use in his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, including any of the delivery devices used to apply outdoor pest control products. STRATEGIC-PARTNER may purchase or lease his original and replacement equipment from any source approved by the COMPANY. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER proposes to purchase or lease any equipment (other than computer hardware and software which is subject to the terms of Section 7.I. below) which is not then approved by the COMPANY, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall first notify the COMPANY and, upon request, furnish to the COMPANY specifications, photographs, drawings and/or other information sufficient to afford the COMPANY a reasonable opportunity to determine whether such equipment complies with its specifications and standards.

B. CONDITION AND APPEARANCE OF SERVICE VEHICLES AND EQUIPMENT.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to purchase or lease one or more Service Vehicles suitable for the purpose of transporting various pest control supplies, holiday lighting and décor materials, application and installation equipment, and related materials needed to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and which otherwise meets the COMPANY's specifications. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees: (1) to take delivery of the Service Vehicle immediately following the completion of training school; (2) to maintain the condition and appearance of his Service Vehicles and equipment consistent with the image of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business as a professionally operated outdoor pest control care and maintenance services business; (3) to place or display on the Service Vehicles and equipment only such signs, emblems, lettering and logos as are approved by the COMPANY, and no others; and (4) not to sell or otherwise transfer any of the Service Vehicles (other than to the COMPANY) without the prior written approval of the COMPANY and without first removing all of the Marks from the Service Vehicles.

C. AUTHORIZED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.

The reputation and goodwill of the COMPANY is based upon, and can be maintained and enhanced only by, the furnishing of high quality outdoor pest control products and services, holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services, and other related products and services. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees, therefore, that he will only offer such outdoor pest control products and services, holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services and products, and other products and services that the COMPANY shall authorize for the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and that he will offer all of the products and services that the COMPANY authorizes for the Territory. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees that he will not sell his customer list(s) or customer contracts, or otherwise use his customer list(s) for any purpose other than in connection with the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that he will not, without the prior written approval by the COMPANY, offer or sell any type of service or offer, sell or use any product that is not authorized by the COMPANY for the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees that any equipment used in HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses shall not be used for any purpose other than the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in compliance with this Agreement.

D. APPROVED PRODUCTS AND SUPPLIES.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that all products and supplies used in his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business shall comply with the COMPANY's specifications and quality standards. The COMPANY shall provide STRATEGIC-PARTNER with a list of approved products and supplies and shall from time to time issue revisions thereto. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER wishes to use any type or brand of product or supply item or wishes to purchase products or supplies from a supplier that is not currently approved by the COMPANY, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall notify the COMPANY of his desire to do so and submit to the COMPANY specifications, photographs, samples and/or other information requested by the COMPANY. The COMPANY shall, within a reasonable time, determine whether such products, supplies or such supplier meets its specifications and standards and notify STRATEGIC-PARTNER whether he is authorized to use such product or supply item or purchase from such supplier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the COMPANY may limit the number of approved suppliers with whom STRATEGIC-PARTNER may deal, designate sources that STRATEGIC-PARTNER must use, and/or refuse any of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's requests for any reason, including that the COMPANY has already designated an exclusive source (which might be the COMPANY or its affiliate) for a particular item or service.

E. SPECIFICATIONS, STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to cooperate with the COMPANY by maintaining high standards in the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER also agrees to comply with all mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures relating to the operation of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges and agrees that these mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures are integral to maintaining the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, and services. Mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual for the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, or otherwise communicated to STRATEGIC-PARTNER in writing, shall constitute provisions of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein. All references herein to this Agreement shall include all such mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures.

F. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND GOOD BUSINESS PRACTICES.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall secure and maintain in force in its name all required licenses, permits and certificates relating to the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall operate his Franchise in full compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, including, without limitation, all government regulations relating to environmental protection, labor, employment, occupational hazards and health, worker's compensation insurance, unemployment insurance and withholding and payment of federal and state income taxes, social security taxes and sales taxes. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall, in all dealings with his customers, suppliers, the COMPANY and the public, adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity, fair dealing and ethical conduct. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to refrain from any business or advertising practice which may be injurious to the business of the COMPANY and the goodwill associated with the Marks and other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses. However, nothing in this Section 7.F. or elsewhere in this Agreement restricts or is intended to restrict STRATEGIC-PARTNER's (or its owners') communications with any state or federal law regulator or enforcement authority about potential violations of law. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to comply with the COMPANY's standards, procedures, and requirements for responding to customer complaints, including reimbursing the COMPANY promptly if it resolves a customer complaint because STRATEGIC-PARTNER fails to do so as or when required.

G. INSURANCE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall at all times during the term of the Franchise maintain in force at his sole expense (1) comprehensive general liability insurance (including products, completed operations and motor vehicle liability) on an occurrence basis against claims for bodily and personal injury, death and property damage caused by or occurring in conjunction with the operation of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and (2) the worker's compensation insurance prescribed by the COMPANY or state law, whichever is greater. Coverage for application of outdoor pest control products must also be included under the general liability insurance. All insurance coverage shall be maintained under one or more policies of insurance containing minimum liability protection in such amounts as are specified by the COMPANY from time to time and issued by insurance carriers acceptable to the COMPANY. All liability insurance policies required hereunder shall name the COMPANY (its officers, directors, employees and designated affiliates) as additional insured grantor and shall provide that the COMPANY receives thirty (30) days' prior written notice of termination, expiration or cancellation of any such policy. Upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice to STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the COMPANY may increase the minimum liability protection requirements as of the renewal date of any policy, and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time, to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards, product or motor vehicle liability litigation or other relevant changes in circumstances. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall furnish annually to the COMPANY a copy of the certificate and other evidence the COMPANY may require of each such insurance policy in the form the COMPANY requires.

H. FULL TIME EFFORTS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to use his best efforts to promote his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and to devote his full time, energies and attention to the operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees that he will not engage in any Competitive Business; provided, however, the COMPANY may permit STRATEGIC-PARTNER to engage in other non-competitive business activities provided STRATEGIC-PARTNER obtains the prior written consent of the COMPANY.

I. COMPUTER AND PHONE SYSTEMS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that STRATEGIC-PARTNER must purchase customized computer software programs and related technology suited for use by both outdoor pest control businesses and holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance businesses (collectively, the "Software Program") from the suppliers the COMPANY designates at the then-current price and/or fees being charged by the designated supplier. STRATEGIC-PARTNER also must acquire computer hardware and certain additional software in accordance with the COMPANY's standards and specifications, including a computer, monitor, printer, and all consumables. Such computer software and hardware are an integral part of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and necessary to protect the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, and services. The COMPANY reserves the right to modify the specifications and components of such computer software and hardware from time to time. Some or all software may be website based. STRATEGIC-PARTNER grants the COMPANY (and the COMPANY's designees) unlimited, independent access to, and the right to download, all information and data in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's computer software and hardware (including all data derived from the Software Program but excluding employee or employment-related information and data) at any time. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall not take any action or enter into any agreement that prohibits, prevents or restricts the COMPANY's ability to access and download all such information and data. STRATEGIC-PARTNER also must, at STRATEGIC-PARTNER's expense, maintain the designated computer software and hardware so that the COMPANY (and each of the COMPANY's designees) has the ability to access and download all information and data (excluding employee or employment-related information and data) in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's computer software and hardware at any time in accordance with this Section. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY has the right to require STRATEGIC-PARTNER to incur reasonable costs to purchase or lease new or modified computer hardware and software for use with the Software Program. References to reasonable costs and fees in this Section shall refer to the COMPANY's reasonable costs for the selection of appropriate hardware and software.

J. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AND USE OF INTERNET.

At the COMPANY's option, the COMPANY may post the Operating Manual and other communications on a restricted intranet or other website to which STRATEGIC-PARTNER will have access. If the COMPANY does so, STRATEGIC-PARTNER must periodically monitor the site for any updates to the Operating Manual or other standards, specifications and procedures. Any passwords or other digital identifications necessary to access the Operating Manual on such a site will be deemed to be part of the Confidential Information (defined in Section 4.A.). Further, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that he will establish the channels of communication with the COMPANY and his customers as required by the COMPANY from time to time, including e-mail, internet and other electronic forms of communication, and that he will acquire and maintain any computer or other components necessary for the transmission of such communications.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to comply with the COMPANY's requirements, standards and specifications concerning STRATEGIC-PARTNER's use of a website to promote his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, including, but not limited to, the COMPANY's requirement that STRATEGIC-PARTNER receive the COMPANY's approval of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's proposed website information prior to implementation of the website and prior to changing an approved website. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees to comply with the COMPANY's requirements, standards and specifications concerning STRATEGIC-PARTNER's use of social media in connection with its operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, including prohibitions on STRATEGIC-PARTNER's posting or blogging comments about the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business or the franchise system other than on an authorized COMPANY website ("social media" includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook and Instagram, professional networks like LinkedIn, live-blogging tools like Twitter, virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools).

At the COMPANY's option, the COMPANY may establish one or more websites to advertise, market and promote HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, the services they offer and sell, and/or the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business franchise opportunity. If the COMPANY establishes such a website, the COMPANY may designate a web page within the website for each HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business. The COMPANY may implement and periodically modify standards for any such website and individual web pages. STRATEGIC-PARTNER will not establish a website for his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, other than the web page(s) designated to describe STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business which are located within the COMPANY's website.

K. REPRESENTATIONS AND COVENANT CONCERNING TERRORISM.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to comply and/or assist the COMPANY in its compliance efforts, as applicable, with any and all laws, regulations, Executive Orders or otherwise relating to anti-terrorist activities, including, without limitation, the U.S. Patriot Act, Executive Order 13224, and related U.S. Treasury and/or other regulations. In connection with such compliance efforts, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees not to enter into any prohibited transactions and to properly perform any currency reporting and other activities relating to his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business as may be required by the COMPANY or by law. STRATEGIC-PARTNER confirms that he is not listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224 (the Annex is available at <http://www.treasury.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sanctions/terrorism.html>). STRATEGIC-PARTNER is solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by STRATEGIC-PARTNER to comply with all such laws, orders and/or regulations, and specifically acknowledges and agrees that his indemnification responsibilities as provided in Section 5 pertain to his obligations hereunder.

8. MARKETING AND PROMOTION.

A. LOCAL ADVERTISING.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to participate in any toll-free telephone number program the COMPANY specifies, including by signing any agreements and paying any associated charges, whether to the COMPANY or a third party. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to display the toll-free telephone number as the primary and dominant business phone number. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that the toll-free telephone number will be displayed on all marketing materials and all of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Service Vehicles.

The COMPANY has the right, directly and/or through a designated source (including an affiliate), to develop, implement, operate, maintain, and improve a call center (the "Call Center") for the marketing, customer solicitation and engagement, transaction processing, and other purposes the COMPANY specifies from time to time. STRATEGIC-PARTNER must use and allow the use of the Call Center with respect to its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and comply with the COMPANY's standards, specifications, and operating procedures for participation in and operation of the Call Center. The COMPANY and/or the designated source will charge STRATEGIC-PARTNER a fixed fee, payable weekly, monthly, or otherwise as the COMPANY determines, for the Call Center's operation (the "Call Center Fees"). The COMPANY reserves the right, in its sole judgment, to increase the Call Center Fee from time to time during this Agreement's term. The Call Center Fees are separate from the royalty and service fee, technology fee, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, and other fees and charges due to the COMPANY or otherwise payable under this Agreement.

In addition to Call Center obligations, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to spend each calendar year during this Agreement's term (beginning the first calendar year after STRATEGIC-PARTNER signs this Agreement) the greater of Thirty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($37,500) or ten percent (10%) of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business on marketing and promotion of such HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business (the "Marketing and Promotion Requirement"), which consists of the Local Advertising Obligation, the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution, and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution (all of which are defined below).

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to spend each calendar year during this Agreement's term (beginning the first calendar year after STRATEGIC-PARTNER signs this Agreement) the greater of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) or two percent (2%) of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business to market and promote the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business within the Territory (the "Local Advertising Obligation"). The Local Advertising Obligation, together with the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution, shall not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall ensure that all advertising, marketing, and promotional programs and materials that STRATEGIC-PARTNER develops or implements relating to its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business are completely clear, factual, and not misleading, comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and conform to the highest ethical standards and the advertising and marketing policies that the COMPANY periodically specifies.

The COMPANY has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Local Advertising Obligation at any time and from time to time—in the manner the COMPANY deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Marks and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Mark. The COMPANY's decision on such allocation will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels. The COMPANY will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which the COMPANY expects the Local Advertising Obligation to be used during the upcoming calendar year, a right it reserves throughout the term of this Agreement.

Within sixty (60) days after each year end, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall submit to the COMPANY a report detailing STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Local Advertising Obligation expenditures in the Territory during that year. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER fails to spend the required amount during any calendar year, STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay the unspent amount to the COMPANY within the same sixty (60) days after the year end. The COMPANY then may use such monies for any marketing or promotional expense (whether national, regional, local or otherwise) at any time. To the extent the COMPANY does not spend any advertising amounts included in the Initial Franchise Fee within the first operational year of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, the COMPANY may spend that balance in the subsequent calendar year and shall apply the balance toward STRATEGIC-PARTNER's annual Marketing and Promotion Requirement in that calendar year.

Samples of all promotional materials not prepared or previously approved by the COMPANY shall be submitted to the COMPANY for approval prior to usage, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If written disapproval is not received by STRATEGIC-PARTNER within thirty (30) days of the date such materials are delivered to the COMPANY, such materials shall be deemed approved. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER uses any unapproved promotional materials, the COMPANY reserves the right to assess a fine in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) per item per occurrence.

B. MARKETING AND PROMOTION FUND.

Recognizing the value of marketing and promotion to the goodwill and public image of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, the COMPANY shall maintain and administer (1) a centrally managed media fund, which shall be managed by the COMPANY's marketing team and used specifically to drive leads within the Territory (the "Centrally Managed Media Fund"), and (2) a centrally managed tools and programs fund, which shall be used to provide solutions, including, but not limited to, creative development, advertising production, lead tracking infrastructure, system-wide platforms, brand development, tools, and programs (the "Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund").

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall contribute to the Centrally Managed Media Fund (beginning the first calendar year after STRATEGIC-PARTNER signs this Agreement) the greater of Twenty-Six Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($26,500) or seven percent (7%) of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business (the "Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution"), which, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution, shall not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement.

The COMPANY has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution at any time and from time to time—in the manner the COMPANY deems best—between the outdoor pest control services offered by STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business under the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS Marks and the holiday lighting and décor design, installation, and maintenance services offered by STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business under the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Mark. The COMPANY's decision on such allocation will be based on, among other things, performance metrics, future opportunities, and investment levels.

Before the end of the first full calendar year, and before the end of each subsequent calendar year throughout the term, of this Agreement (but in all cases at the time the COMPANY deems best), the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for the next calendar year will be established based on the Net Revenues as of the end of the prior calendar year. The Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution shall be payable in six (6) installments during the calendar year, as follows:

- twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's PEST-HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS

outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of March;

- twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's PEST-HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of April;
- twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's PEST-HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of May;
- twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's PEST-HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services is due on or about the second Friday of June;
- fifty percent (50%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING service line is due on or about the second Friday of November; and
- fifty percent (50%) of the annual amount earmarked for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING service line is due on or about the second Friday of December.

The COMPANY has the right to determine in its sole judgment the specific dollars to be spent each year on the PEST-HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS outdoor pest control services and the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING service line, respectively. The COMPANY also will identify before the end of each calendar year the items and tactics on, and the channels through, which the COMPANY expects Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions to be used during the upcoming calendar year. As noted above, the COMPANY has the right to allocate, and change the allocation of, the use of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution at any time and from time to time in the manner the COMPANY deems best.

To the extent the COMPANY does not spend the full amount of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution during a calendar year, the COMPANY may spend that balance in the subsequent calendar year and shall apply the balance toward STRATEGIC-PARTNER's required Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution for that subsequent calendar year and adjust STRATEGIC-PARTNER's contribution schedule accordingly.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall also contribute to the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund (beginning the first calendar year after STRATEGIC-PARTNER signs this Agreement) the greater of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) or one percent (1%) of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business (the "Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution"), which, together with the Local Advertising Obligation and the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution, shall not exceed the Marketing and Promotion Requirement.

At the end of the first full calendar year, and at the end of each subsequent calendar year throughout the term, of this Agreement, the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution for the next calendar year will be established based on the Net Revenues as of the end of the prior calendar year. The Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution shall be payable in fifty-two (52) equal weekly installments, together with the royalty and service fee due hereunder.

The COMPANY shall direct all marketing programs financed by the Centrally Managed Media Fund and the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund (collectively, the “Centrally Managed Funds”), with sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used therein and their geographic, market and media placement and allocation. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that the Centrally Managed Funds may be used to pay for preparing and producing advertising, marketing, and promotional content and related materials; administering, directing, and preparing regional and multi-regional advertising and marketing programs; and supporting public relations, market research, and other advertising, marketing, and promotional activities. The COMPANY may also use the Centrally Managed Funds to pay for on-line internet advertising and marketing, including Facebook, Twitter, and other social media, and to pay for click-through charges to search engines, banner advertising sources, and advertising host sites. The Centrally Managed Funds shall be accounted for separately from the other funds of the COMPANY, and shall not be used to defray any of the COMPANY’s general operating expenses, except for such reasonable salaries, administrative costs and overhead as the COMPANY may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Centrally Managed Funds and their respective marketing and promotional programs. The Centrally Managed Funds are not the COMPANY’s assets. The Centrally Managed Funds are not trusts, and the COMPANY does not owe STRATEGIC-PARTNER fiduciary obligations because of the COMPANY’s maintaining, directing or administering the Centrally Managed Funds or for any other reason. The COMPANY may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contribution of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses to the Centrally Managed Funds in that year and the COMPANY may make loans to the Centrally Managed Funds (and the Centrally Managed Funds may borrow from the COMPANY or other lenders) bearing reasonable interest to cover any deficits of the Centrally Managed Funds or cause the Centrally Managed Funds to invest any surplus for future use by the Centrally Managed Funds. A report of monies collected and costs incurred by the Centrally Managed Funds shall be prepared annually by the COMPANY and made available for inspection by STRATEGIC-PARTNER upon request. The COMPANY may incorporate the Centrally Managed Funds or operate them through a separate entity (or entities) whenever the COMPANY deems appropriate. The successor entity will have all of the rights and duties specified in this Subsection.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER understands and acknowledges that the Centrally Managed Funds are intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses and the Marks for the benefit of all HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses. The COMPANY undertakes no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund are proportionate or equivalent to contributions to it by HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses or that any HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund from the conduct of marketing programs or the placement of advertising. While the COMPANY shall have no obligation to spend any amount of the Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution on advertising in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's market area, it must spend the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution specifically to drive leads within the Territory.

The COMPANY has the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Centrally Managed Fund contributions at the Centrally Managed Funds' expense. The COMPANY also may forgive, waive, settle and compromise all claims by or against the Centrally Managed Funds. Except as expressly provided in this Subsection, the COMPANY assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to STRATEGIC-PARTNER for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing or administering the Centrally Managed Funds.

The COMPANY may at any time defer or reduce the Centrally Managed Media Fund Contribution or Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contribution of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to STRATEGIC-PARTNER, reduce or suspend Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions and Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, as well as operations of the Centrally Managed Funds, for one or more periods of any length and terminate (and, if terminated, reinstate) either or both of the Centrally Managed Funds. If the COMPANY terminates either or both of the Centrally Managed Funds, the COMPANY will distribute all unspent monies to all HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses (whether franchised or operated by the COMPANY or its affiliates) in proportion to their respective Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions and/or Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions during the preceding twelve (12)-month period.

If STRATEGIC-PARTNER begins operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business after the optimal season starting point, STRATEGIC-PARTNER may elect to pay the COMPANY Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) to invest in supplemental corporate-directed media programs to drive media-based leads (the "Centrally Managed Media Boost Program"). STRATEGIC-PARTNER is not obligated to participate in the optional Centrally Managed Media Boost Program.

9. RECORDS AND REPORTING.

A. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees, at his expense, to maintain and preserve for three (3) years from the date of their preparation, or such greater period as may be required by the Operating Manual or applicable law, full, complete and accurate books, records and accounts, including, without limitation, copies of all customer contracts and lists, sales, invoices, cash receipts, service records, purchase records, accounts payable, cash disbursement records, inventory records, general ledgers, itemized bank deposit slips and bank statements, copies of sales tax returns, and copies of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's state and federal income tax returns. These records will not include any records or information relating to STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees as STRATEGIC PARTNER controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees that such records shall be prepared and maintained on forms, and by the accounting professionals, prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY. During the first year of operation,

STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business is obligated to use bookkeeping services provided by the COMPANY's designated franchise accounting provider.

B. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall furnish the COMPANY on or before Thursday of each week, in the form from time to time prescribed by the COMPANY, a control report signed and verified by STRATEGIC-PARTNER accurately reflecting the gross and Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business for the preceding week (Monday through Sunday). STRATEGIC-PARTNER, at his expense, shall furnish to the COMPANY (and its agents), such forms, reports, records, financial statements and other information as the COMPANY may, from time to time, require, including the financial reports and statements as provided in this Subsection and other reports the COMPANY may request in the future. This information will not include any information relating to STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employees as STRATEGIC PARTNER controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall prepare and furnish to the COMPANY on such forms as are prescribed by the COMPANY from time to time: (1) by the tenth (10th) day of each month, a report of Net Revenues of the Franchise for the preceding calendar month and such other data, information and supporting records as the COMPANY from time to time requires; and (2) within one hundred five (105) days after the end of each fiscal year of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, an annual statement of profit and loss for STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business for the fiscal year, a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year and a cash flow projection for the following year. Each such report shall be signed and verified by STRATEGIC-PARTNER in the manner prescribed by the COMPANY. The COMPANY may, from time to time, revise the timing and content of required reports. At the COMPANY's request, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall provide some or all of its records and reports via electronic transmission or other means as specified by the COMPANY

10. INSPECTIONS AND AUDITS.

To determine whether STRATEGIC-PARTNER is complying with this Agreement and/or all applicable specifications and quality standards, the COMPANY shall have the right at any reasonable time and without prior notice to STRATEGIC-PARTNER to: (1) inspect STRATEGIC-PARTNER's equipment and the Service Vehicles; (2) inspect STRATEGIC-PARTNER's office and garage or warehouse; (3) observe STRATEGIC-PARTNER and all employees in the performance of services; (4) inspect any job performed by STRATEGIC-PARTNER; and (5) contact and interview customers of STRATEGIC-PARTNER. The COMPANY shall have the further right at any time during business hours, and with at least three (3) days' prior notice to STRATEGIC-PARTNER, to inspect and audit, or cause to be inspected and audited, the business records, bookkeeping and accounting records, sales and income tax records and returns and other records of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and the books and records of any corporation or partnership which holds the Franchise (other than those records over which the COMPANY has no authority to control and/or remedy, such as STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business employee records as STRATEGIC-PARTNER controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices). STRATEGIC-PARTNER further acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY shall have the right to make photocopies of all such books and records. STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall fully cooperate with representatives of the COMPANY and independent accountants hired by the COMPANY to conduct any such inspection or audit. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER fails to provide any such books, records and other materials requested at such inspection/audit in the format prescribed by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual or in writing, then STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall pay the COMPANY Five Hundred Dollars ($500) for each day any such requested books, records and other materials are not available to the COMPANY plus the COMPANY's reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such delay. In the event any such inspection or audit shall disclose an understatement of the Net Revenues of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall pay to the COMPANY, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the inspection or audit report, the royalty and service fee, any Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, and any Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions due on the amount of such understatement, plus interest (at the rate and on the terms provided in Section 6.D. hereof) from the date originally due until the date of payment. Further, in the event such inspection or audit is made necessary by the failure of STRATEGIC-PARTNER to furnish reports, supporting records or other information, as herein required, or to furnish such reports and information on a timely basis, or if an understatement of Net Revenues for the period of any inspection or audit (which shall not be for less than two (2) months) is determined by any such inspection or audit to be greater than three percent (3%), STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall reimburse the COMPANY for the cost of such inspection or audit, including, without limitation, the charges of any independent accountants and the travel expenses, room and board and compensation of employees of the COMPANY. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to all other remedies and rights of the COMPANY hereunder or under applicable law.

11. TRANSFER.

A. BY THE COMPANY.

This Agreement and the Franchise are fully transferable by the COMPANY and shall inure to the benefit of any transferee or other legal successor to the COMPANY's interest herein.

B. STRATEGIC-PARTNER MAY NOT TRANSFER WITHOUT COMPANY APPROVAL.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to STRATEGIC-PARTNER (or, if STRATEGIC-PARTNER is an entity, its owner(s)) and that the COMPANY has granted the Franchise in reliance upon the COMPANY's perceptions of the individual or collective character, business skill, aptitude and financial capacity of STRATEGIC-PARTNER (or, if STRATEGIC-PARTNER is an entity, its owner(s)). Therefore, neither this Agreement, the Business Assets (or any interest therein), the Franchise (or any interest therein), nor any part or all of the ownership of STRATEGIC-PARTNER may be transferred without the COMPANY's prior written approval, and any such transfer shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and convey no rights to or interests in this Agreement, STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, the Business Assets or STRATEGIC-PARTNER. If STRATEGIC-PARTNER desires to engage a consultant or broker to identify a potential transferee, then STRATEGIC PARTNER must provide the COMPANY with no less than ninety (90) days' prior notice of such engagement.

C. CONDITIONS FOR APPROVAL OF TRANSFER.

If STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) are in full compliance with this Agreement, the COMPANY shall not unreasonably withhold its approval of a transfer that meets all of the applicable requirements of this Section 11.C. The proposed transferee(s) or its owner(s) must be an individual of good moral character, have sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to operate a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, be able to personally devote full time and best efforts to a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business and to otherwise meet the COMPANY's then applicable standards for strategic-partners. If the transfer is of the Franchise, or of a controlling interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER, or if it is one of a series of transfers which in the aggregate constitutes the transfer of a controlling interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER, all of the following conditions must be met prior to, or concurrently with, the effective date of the transfer: (1) all obligations of STRATEGIC-PARTNER incurred in connection with this Agreement and the conduct of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, including, but not limited to, obligations to customers of STRATEGIC-PARTNER, must be assumed by the transferee(s); (2) STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay all amounts owed to the COMPANY which are then due, and shall have submitted to the COMPANY all required reports and statements; (3) the transferee(s) must satisfactorily complete the training program required of new strategic-partners; (4) the transferee(s) must execute and agree to be bound by the COMPANY's then current form of standard franchise agreement and such ancillary agreements as are then customarily used by the COMPANY in the transfer of HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, which may provide for different rights and obligations than are provided by this Agreement, but which franchise agreement does not provide for payment of an Initial Franchise Fee; (5) the transferee(s) must assume all obligations of STRATEGIC-PARTNER under STRATEGIC-PARTNER's agreement with the designated supplier for the Software Program, unless otherwise provided for under a separate agreement with the designated supplier; (6) STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay the COMPANY, upon STRATEGIC-PARTNER's declaration of an intent to sell its HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, a non-refundable fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the then current initial license fee component of the Initial Franchise Fee, payable by a strategic-partner who is new to the system for HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses, which amount will be applied toward the transfer fee due under clause (7) below; (7) STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay a transfer fee to the COMPANY in an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then current initial license fee component of the initial franchise fee payable by a strategic-partner who is new to the system for HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses; (8) if the COMPANY engages a third-party broker or consultant on STRATEGIC-PARTNER's behalf to assist STRATEGIC-PARTNER with the sale of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, then STRATEGIC-PARTNER must pay the COMPANY its then-current non-refundable broker fee, and the broker fee is payable even if the transferee is not a potential transferee identified by the consultant or broker (the broker fee is in addition to the transfer fee due under clause (7) above); (9) STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) must execute a general release, in form satisfactory to the COMPANY, of any and all claims against the COMPANY, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents; (10) the COMPANY must approve the material terms and conditions of such transfer, including, without limitation, that the price and terms of payment are not so burdensome as to adversely affect the future operations of the Franchise by such transferee(s) in compliance with the COMPANY's then standard franchise agreement and ancillary agreements; (11) the COMPANY has the right to inspect the equipment and the Service Vehicles to be transferred to transferee(s) and to require cleaning, repair or reconditioning thereof by STRATEGIC-PARTNER prior to transfer; (12) STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) must execute a noncompetition covenant in favor of the COMPANY and the transferee(s), agreeing that for a period of not less than eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of the transfer, he, they and the members of his and their immediate families will not have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (ii) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (iii) the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, or (iv) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business; (13) STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owners must provide transition services to the transferee for at least sixty (60) days after the transfer is complete; and (14) STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owners shall have entered into an agreement with the COMPANY agreeing to subordinate to the transferee's obligations to the COMPANY (including royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, and Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions), any obligations of such transferee to make installment payments of the purchase price to STRATEGIC-PARTNER. Subsection (7) shall not apply to transfers by gift, bequest or inheritance.

D. DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF STRATEGIC-PARTNER.

Upon the death or permanent incapacity of STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of such person must transfer his interest to a third party approved by the COMPANY within six (6) months from the date of death or permanent disability. Such transfer shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions for transfers contained in this Section 11. Failure to transfer in accordance with this Section upon such death or disability shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

E. THE COMPANY'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL.

If STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s) shall at any time determine to sell an interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, an ownership interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER, or the Business Assets, STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s) shall obtain a bona fide, executed written offer from a responsible and fully disclosed purchaser and shall submit an exact copy of such offer to the COMPANY. The COMPANY or its designee shall have the right, exercisable by written notice delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s) within thirty (30) days after the COMPANY receives an exact copy of such offer and all other information the COMPANY requests, to purchase such interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, such ownership interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER or the Business Assets, for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in such offer, provided that: (1) the COMPANY may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer; (2) the COMPANY's credit will be deemed equal to the credit of any proposed buyer; (3) the COMPANY shall have not less than thirty (30) days to prepare for closing after notifying STRATEGIC-PARTNER of the COMPANY's election to purchase; and (4) the COMPANY must receive, and STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to make, all customary representations and warranties given by the seller of the assets of a business, including, without limitation, representations and warranties regarding ownership and condition of, and title to, assets and validity of contracts and the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, relating to the assets being purchased. The COMPANY may assign or delegate its rights under this Section 11.E. If the COMPANY exercises its right of first refusal, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that, for eighteen (18) months beginning on the closing date, STRATEGIC-PARTNER, STRATEGIC-PARTNER's transferring owner(s), and members of his or their immediate families will be bound by the non-competition covenant contained in Section 14.D below. If the COMPANY does not exercise its right of first refusal, STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s) may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the terms of such offer, subject to the COMPANY's approval of the purchaser as provided in Section 11.C., provided that if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within one hundred twenty (120) days after delivery of such offer to the COMPANY, or there is a material change in the terms of the sale, the COMPANY shall again have the right of first refusal herein provided.

F. OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE.

If STRATEGIC-PARTNER is an entity, STRATEGIC-PARTNER represents and warrants that its ownership structure is as set forth on Exhibit A hereto and covenants that it will not vary from that ownership structure without the prior written approval of the COMPANY.

12. EXPIRATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

A. STRATEGIC-PARTNER'S RIGHT TO ACQUIRE A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

Subject to the provision of this Section 12, upon expiration of the initial term of this Agreement, if: (1) STRATEGIC-PARTNER has substantially complied with all of the provisions of this Agreement; and (2) STRATEGIC-PARTNER, if necessary, refurbishes and re-equips each of his Service Vehicles and commissions the COMPANY (or another party approved by the COMPANY), at his expense and on his behalf, to repair or replace the equipment utilized in the operation of the Franchise and is in compliance with specifications and standards then applicable for new HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business franchises; then STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall have the right to acquire a successor franchise for the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business for an additional term of ten (10) years.

B. GRANT OF A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER must give the COMPANY written notice of his election to acquire a successor franchise at least six (6) months, but not more than twelve (12) months, before the end of the initial term of this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of STRATEGIC-PARTNER'S notice, the COMPANY shall notify STRATEGIC-PARTNER in writing whether or not the COMPANY shall grant a successor franchise to STRATEGIC-PARTNER. If, at any time during the term of this Agreement, STRATEGIC-PARTNER fails to fully comply with this Agreement or any other agreement between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY, the COMPANY may refuse to grant a successor franchise by delivering a notice of the COMPANY's refusal to grant a successor franchise, stating the reasons for such refusal. If the COMPANY's notice indicates that the COMPANY will permit STRATEGIC-PARTNER to obtain a successor franchise, such right will be contingent upon STRATEGIC-PARTNER's continued full compliance with this Agreement and any other agreement between the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER.

C. AGREEMENTS/RELEASES.

If the COMPANY grants a successor franchise, the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the owner(s) of STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall execute the COMPANY's then current form of franchise agreement and such ancillary agreements as are used in offering franchises to operate HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses (with appropriate modifications to reflect the fact that the agreements relate to the grant of a successor franchise), and the COMPANY, STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) shall execute general releases, in form satisfactory to the COMPANY, of any and all claims against each other and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents. Failure by STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) to sign such agreement(s) and releases within ninety (90) days after delivery thereof to STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall be deemed an election by STRATEGIC-PARTNER not to acquire a successor franchise.

13. TERMINATION OF FRANCHISE BY THE COMPANY.

This Agreement shall terminate:

(1) effective upon delivery of notice of termination to STRATEGIC-PARTNER if STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s):

(a) abandons or fails to actively operate the Franchise or fails to commence operation of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business as required in Section 1.C. of this Agreement;

(b) surrenders or transfers control of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business without the COMPANY's prior written consent;

(f) abandons, surrenders or makes an unauthorized transfer of the Franchise, the Business Assets or an ownership interest in STRATEGIC-PARTNER;

(g) makes any unauthorized use, duplication or disclosure of any Confidential Information or the Operating Manual;

(h) fails on three (3) or more separate occasions during any one (1)-year period to submit when due reports or other data, information or supporting records, to pay when due the royalty and service fees, technology fees, lease payments, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, amounts due for products and services purchased from the COMPANY or other suppliers, or other payments due to the COMPANY, or otherwise fails to comply with this Agreement, whether or not such failures to comply are corrected after notice thereof is delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER;

(i) submits to the COMPANY on two (2) or more separate occasions at any time during the initial term of this Agreement information, reports or supporting records which understate by more than three percent (3%) the royalty and service fees due for any period of, or periods aggregating, two (2) or more months, and STRATEGIC-PARTNER is unable to demonstrate that such understatements resulted from inadvertent error;

(j) materially misuses or makes an unauthorized use of any Mark or commits any act which can reasonably be expected to materially impair the goodwill associated with any Mark, including, but not limited to, use of any Mark as part of a website domain name or electronic address in an unauthorized manner on STRATEGIC-PARTNER's website;

(k) violates any environmental, labor, employment, health, safety, sanitation or other regulatory law, ordinance or regulation or conducts his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in a manner that presents a health or safety hazard to his customers or the public;

(l) fails to maintain the insurance the COMPANY requires from time to time;

(m) interferes with the COMPANY's right to inspect the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business or observe its operation, as provided in Section 10 of this Agreement;

(n) engages in any dishonest or unethical conduct which, in the COMPANY's opinion, adversely affects his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business' reputation, the reputation of other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses or the goodwill associated with the Marks;

(o) permits any material licenses or permits necessary for his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business' proper operation to be suspended, revoked or not renewed;

(p) fails to pay when due any federal, state or local income, service, sales or other taxes due on his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business' operation, unless STRATEGIC-PARTNER is in good faith contesting STRATEGIC-PARTNER's liability for these taxes;

(q) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or admits in writing its insolvency or inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; consents to the appointment of a receiver, trustee or liquidator of all or the substantial part of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's property; the STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business is attached, seized, subjected to a writ or distress warrant, or levied upon, unless the attachment, seizure, writ, warrant or levy is vacated within thirty (30) days; or any order appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator of STRATEGIC-PARTNER or his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business is not vacated within thirty (30) days following the order's entry;

(r) violates the restrictions of Section 4.B (Exclusive Relationship) or any other non-compete agreement; or

(s) at any time during the term of this Agreement defaults or fails to cure (if cure is permitted) any default under the agreement between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the designated supplier for the Software Program, or the agreement between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the designated supplier for the Software Program expires or is terminated.

(2) without further action by the COMPANY or notice to STRATEGIC-PARTNER if STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its owner(s):

(a) fails to accurately report the Net Revenues of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business or fails to make payments of any amounts due the COMPANY for royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions or any other amounts due to the COMPANY or its affiliates hereunder, and does not correct such failure within ten (10) days after written notice of such failure is delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER; or

(b) fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement or any mandatory specification, standard or operating procedures prescribed by the COMPANY and does not: (1) correct such failure within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure to comply is delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER; or (2) provide proof acceptable to the COMPANY of efforts which are reasonably calculated to correct such failure if such failure cannot reasonably be corrected within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure to comply is delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER.

14. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMPANY AND STRATEGIC-PARTNER UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION OF FRANCHISE.

A. PAYMENT OF AMOUNTS OWED TO THE COMPANY OR CUSTOMERS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to pay to the COMPANY within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of the Franchise, or such later date that the amounts due to the COMPANY are determined, such royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, amounts owed to the COMPANY for purchases made by STRATEGIC-PARTNER, interest due on any of the foregoing, and all other amounts owed to the COMPANY which are then unpaid. STRATEGIC-PARTNER further agrees to return to his customers all amounts prepaid by such customers within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of the Franchise.

B. MARKS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that upon termination or expiration of the Franchise he will: (1) not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner, including, but not limited to, on a website, identify himself or any business as a current or former HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, or as a, strategic-partner, franchisee, licensee, owner or dealer of or as otherwise associated with the COMPANY, or use any Mark, any colorable imitation thereof or other indicia of a HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in any manner or for any purpose or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trade or service mark or other commercial symbol that suggests or indicates a connection or association with the COMPANY; (2) return to the COMPANY or destroy all signs, brochures, advertising materials, forms, invoices and other materials containing any Marks or otherwise identifying or relating to the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business; (3) take all such action as may be required to cancel all fictitious or assumed name or equivalent registrations relating to his use of any Mark; (4) remove all indicia of the Marks from all Service Vehicles not surrendered to or bought by the COMPANY; (5) notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's right to use any telephone number and any regular, classified or other telephone directory listings associated with any Mark, and to authorize transfer of same to or at the direction of the COMPANY (STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that as between the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the COMPANY has the sole rights to and interest in all telephone numbers and directory listings associated with any Mark. STRATEGIC-PARTNER authorizes the COMPANY, and hereby appoints the COMPANY and any officer of the COMPANY as his attorney in fact, to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer same to the COMPANY or at its direction, should STRATEGIC-PARTNER fail or refuse to do so, and the telephone company and all listing agencies may accept such direction or this Agreement as conclusive of the exclusive rights of the COMPANY in such telephone numbers and directory listings and its authority to direct their transfer); (6) return all materials and supplies identified by the Marks within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement; (7) return to the COMPANY all copies of his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business customer lists, including past customers, present customers and customer prospects; (8) cancel any electronic address, domain name or website which displays any Mark or that identifies STRATEGIC-PARTNER as associated with the COMPANY or the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business; (9) furnish to the COMPANY, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination or expiration, evidence satisfactory to the COMPANY of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's compliance with the foregoing obligations. STRATEGIC-PARTNER acknowledges that his HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business customer lists and contracts are derived from and a result of his operating the franchise governed by this Agreement. Therefore, STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that such customer lists and contracts may not be used in connection with any business other than the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, and may not be used by, or sold or otherwise transferred to, a third party except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

C. RETURN OF EQUIPMENT AND OPERATING MANUALS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that upon termination or expiration of the Franchise, he will immediately cease to use the Confidential Information of the COMPANY disclosed to STRATEGIC-PARTNER pursuant to this Agreement in any business or otherwise and return to the COMPANY all copies of the Operating Manual for the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business that have been loaned to him by the COMPANY and any other equipment which the COMPANY has loaned to STRATEGIC-PARTNER.

D. COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE.

Upon termination of this Agreement by either the COMPANY or STRATEGIC PARTNER in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, or upon expiration of this Agreement (if the COMPANY refuses to grant a successor franchise, as provided in Section 12, or STRATEGIC-PARTNER elects not to acquire a successor franchise), STRATEGIC-PARTNER and its owner(s) agree that for a period of eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which STRATEGIC-PARTNER ceases to conduct the business conducted pursuant to this Agreement, whichever is later, neither STRATEGIC-PARTNER, its owner(s) nor the members of his and their immediate families will have any interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (ii) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of STRATEGIC-PARTNER's Territory, (iii) the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection, or (iv) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection.

E. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS.

All obligations of the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

15. ENFORCEMENT.

A. SEVERABILITY AND SUBSTITUTION OF VALID PROVISIONS.

Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each section, paragraph, term and provision of this Agreement, and any portion thereof, shall be considered severable and if, for any reason, any such portion of this Agreement is held to be invalid, contrary to, or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency or tribunal with competent jurisdiction in a proceeding to which the COMPANY is a party, that ruling shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible, which shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto, although any portion held to be invalid shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement from the date the time for appeal expires, if STRATEGIC-PARTNER is a party thereto; otherwise upon STRATEGIC-PARTNER's receipt of written notice of non-enforcement thereof from the COMPANY. If any covenant herein which restricts competitive activity is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited and/or length of time, but would be enforceable by reducing any part or all thereof, STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY agree that same shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of or refusal to enter into a successor franchise agreement than is required hereunder, or the taking of some other action not required hereunder, or if under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by the COMPANY is invalid or unenforceable, the prior notice and/or other action required by such law or rule shall be substituted for the comparable provisions hereof, and the COMPANY shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to modify such invalid or unenforceable provision, specification, standard or operating procedure to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. Such modification(s) to this Agreement shall be effective only in such jurisdiction, unless the COMPANY elects to give it greater applicability, and shall be enforced as originally made and entered into in all other jurisdictions. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees to be bound by any such modification to this Agreement.

B. WAIVER OF OBLIGATIONS.

The COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER may by written instrument unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice thereof to the other. Any waiver granted by the COMPANY shall be without prejudice to any other rights the COMPANY may have, will be subject to continuing review by the COMPANY and may be revoked, in the COMPANY's sole discretion, at any time and for any reason, effective upon delivery to STRATEGIC-PARTNER of ten (10) days' prior written notice. The COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall not be deemed to have waived or impaired any right, power or option reserved by this Agreement by virtue of any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof; any failure, refusal or neglect of the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER to exercise any rights under this Agreement or to insist upon exact compliance by the other with its obligations hereunder; any waiver, forbearance, delay, failure or omission by the COMPANY to exercise any right, power or option, whether of the same, similar or different nature, with respect to other HUNTERS-HUMBUG Businesses; or the acceptance by the COMPANY of any payments due from STRATEGIC-PARTNER after any breach of this Agreement.

Neither the COMPANY nor STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall be liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement if its failure to perform its obligations results from: (1) transportation shortages, inadequate supply of equipment, merchandise, supplies, labor, material or energy, or the right to acquire or use any of the foregoing in order to accommodate or comply with the orders, requests, regulations, recommendations or instructions of any federal, state or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (2) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (3) acts of God; (4) fires, strikes, embargoes, war or riot; or (5) any other similar event or cause. Any delay resulting from any of said causes shall extend performance accordingly or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable, except that said causes shall not excuse payments of amounts owed at the time of such occurrence or payment of royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, and Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions.

C. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Subsection F of this Section, either party may institute in a court of competent jurisdiction an action or actions for temporary or preliminary injunctive relief; provided, however, that such party shall contemporaneously submit the dispute for arbitration on the merits in accordance with Subsection F(3) of this Section. STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that the COMPANY may have such temporary or preliminary injunctive relief without bond, but upon due notice, and STRATEGIC-PARTNER's sole remedy in the event of the entry of such injunctive relief shall be the dissolution of such injunctive relief, if warranted, upon hearing duly had (all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of any such injunction being expressly waived hereby).

D. RIGHTS OF PARTIES ARE CUMULATIVE.

The rights of the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER hereunder are cumulative and no exercises or enforcement by the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER of any other right or remedy hereunder or which the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER is entitled by law to enforce.

E. COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES.

If the COMPANY incurs expenses in connection with STRATEGIC-PARTNER's failure to pay when due amounts owing to the COMPANY, to submit when due any reports, information or supporting records or otherwise to comply with this Agreement, STRATEGIC-

PARTNER shall reimburse the COMPANY for any such costs and expenses which it incurs, including, but not limited to, reasonable legal, arbitrators', accounting and related fees.

F. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ARBITRATION.

(1) Meeting Between Principals. COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER will attempt to resolve any controversy, claim, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement and involving STRATEGIC-PARTNER and COMPANY or any of their respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (a "Dispute") promptly by a meeting between principals of the respective parties who have authority to settle the Dispute ("Principals"). Either party may give the other written notice ("Dispute Notice") of any Dispute that has not been resolved in the ordinary course of business. Within fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, the receiving party must give to the other a written response ("Response"). The Dispute Notice and the Response must include: (i) a statement describing the position of the party giving the Dispute Notice and the Response and a summary of arguments supporting such position; and (ii) the name of the Principal and any other persons who will accompany the Principal at the meeting at which the parties will attempt to resolve the Dispute. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, the Principals will meet at a mutually acceptable time and place, and then as often as they reasonably consider necessary, to attempt to resolve the Dispute. All reasonable requests for information made by one party to the other will be honored. If the Dispute has not been resolved within sixty (60) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, or if the Principals do not meet within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, either party may initiate mediation of the Dispute. All meetings, discussions, and other communications under this Subsection will be treated as compromise and settlement discussions and communications.

(2) Mediation. All claims or disputes between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and COMPANY or any of their respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this Agreement, the parties' relationship, STRATEGIC-PARTNER's HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising out of this Agreement must be submitted first to mediation prior to initiating an arbitration proceeding (except as noted in Section 15.C. above). Such mediation will take place in Holmdel, New Jersey (or COMPANY's then-current headquarters) under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with the AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. STRATEGIC-PARTNER is prohibited from commencing any formal legal action against COMPANY or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute unless mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by COMPANY. Each party will bear its own costs of mediation and share equally the filing fee imposed by AAA and the mediator's fees. COMPANY reserves the right to specifically enforce its right to mediation. Prior to mediation and before commencing any legal action against COMPANY or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, STRATEGIC-PARTNER must submit a notice to COMPANY specifying in detail the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute.

(3) Arbitration. Subject to Section 15.C. above (entitled “Injunctive Relief”), all controversies, disputes or claims between the COMPANY (its affiliates, and their respective shareholders, officers, directors, agents, employees, successors and assigns) and STRATEGIC-PARTNER (its owners, guarantors and their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, successors and assigns) arising out of or related to:

(a) STRATEGIC-PARTNER’s operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business;

(b) this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties or any provision of such agreements;

(c) the relationship of the parties hereto;

(d) the validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties or any provision of such agreements; or

(e) any specifications, standards or procedures relating to the establishment or operation of the HUNTERS-HUMBUG Business, which is not resolved through a meeting of Principals (as described in Subsection F(1) above) or mediation (as described in Subsection F(2) above), shall be submitted for binding arbitration before one arbitrator, and except as this Subsection F(3) otherwise provides, in accordance with the then current commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association. All matters within the scope of the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. Sections 1 et seq.) shall be governed by it.

Arbitration shall take place at a location specified by the arbitrator within ten (10) miles of the COMPANY’s then-current principal place of business. The arbitrator shall have no authority to select a hearing locale other than as described in the prior sentence. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The parties agree that, in connection with any such arbitration proceeding, each shall submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any such claim which is not submitted or filed in such proceeding shall be barred.

The COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER agree that arbitration shall be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide, basis and that an arbitration proceeding between the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER shall not be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding involving the COMPANY and any other natural person, association, corporation, partnership or other entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Subsection F(3) or Section 15.A, if any court or arbitrator determines that all or any part of the preceding sentence is unenforceable with respect to a dispute that otherwise would be subject to arbitration under this Subsection F(3), then all parties agree that this arbitration clause shall not apply to that dispute and that such dispute shall be resolved in a judicial proceeding in accordance with this Article 15 (excluding this Section 15.F(3)).

The COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER waive any right to or claim for punitive or exemplary damages, except punitive or exemplary damages allowed under federal statute.

The provisions of this Subsection F(3) shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

G. GOVERNING LAW.

All matters relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement, the Franchise and the relationship of the parties shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard for its conflicts of laws principles, except that any New Jersey law regulating the sale of franchises or governing the relationship of a franchisor and its franchisee will not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this Subsection G.

H. JURISDICTION.

With respect to actions described in Section 15.C. above and any other actions not subject to arbitration under Subsection F(3) above, STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY agree that any action arising under this Agreement or otherwise as a result of the relationship between STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY must be commenced in a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in the State of New Jersey. STRATEGIC-PARTNER irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection he may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of such court.

I. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

The parties waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages, except punitive or exemplary damages allowed under federal statute. The parties agree that, in the event of a dispute between them, the party making a claim shall be limited to recovery of any actual damages it sustains.

J. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

Each party irrevocably waives trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by either party.

K. STRATEGIC-PARTNER MAY NOT WITHHOLD PAYMENTS.

STRATEGIC-PARTNER agrees that he will not, on grounds of the alleged nonperformance by the COMPANY of any of its obligations hereunder, withhold payment of any royalty and service fees, technology fees, Centrally Managed Media Fund Contributions, Centrally Managed Tools and Programs Fund Contributions, amounts due to the COMPANY for purchases by STRATEGIC-PARTNER or any other amounts due to the COMPANY.

L. BINDING EFFECT.

This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns and successors in interest. Subject to the COMPANY's right to modify the Operating Manual, this Agreement shall not be modified except by written agreement signed by STRATEGIC-PARTNER and the COMPANY.

M. LIMITATIONS OF CLAIMS.

Any and all claims, except claims for monies due the COMPANY, arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship among the parties hereto shall be barred unless an action or legal or arbitration proceeding is commenced within one (1) year from the date STRATEGIC-PARTNER or the COMPANY knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to such claims.

N. CONSTRUCTION.

The preambles and exhibits are a part of this Agreement, which together with the Operating Manual, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between the COMPANY and STRATEGIC-PARTNER relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall disclaim or require STRATEGIC-PARTNER to waive reliance on any representation that the COMPANY made in the most recent disclosure document (including its exhibits and amendments) that the COMPANY delivered to STRATEGIC-PARTNER or its representative. The term "STRATEGIC-PARTNER" as used herein is applicable to one (1) or more persons, a corporation or a partnership, as the case may be, and the singular usage includes the plural and the masculine and neuter usages include the other and the feminine. If two (2) or more persons are at any time STRATEGIC-PARTNER hereunder, their obligations and liabilities to the COMPANY shall be joint and several. References to "STRATEGIC-PARTNER" and "transferee" which are applicable to an individual or individuals shall mean the principal owner(s) of the equity or operating control of STRATEGIC-PARTNER or the transferee, if STRATEGIC-PARTNER or the transferee is a corporation or partnership. The headings of the several sections and paragraphs hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such sections or paragraphs. The words "include" and "including" are meant to be illustrative and not exhaustive and are deemed to be read in all cases as "including, without limitation" and/or "including, but not limited to."

Except where this Agreement expressly obligates the COMPANY reasonably to approve or not unreasonably to withhold its approval of any action or request by STRATEGIC-PARTNER, the COMPANY has the absolute right to refuse any request by STRATEGIC-PARTNER or to withhold its approval of any action by STRATEGIC-PARTNER that requires the COMPANY's approval. Nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party hereto.

16. NOTICE AND PAYMENTS.

All written notices and reports permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement or of the Operating Manual shall be deemed so delivered at the time delivered by hand; one (1) business day after transmission by facsimiles, telecopy, telegraph or comparable electronic system; one (1) business day after being placed in the hands of a commercial carrier service for next business day delivery; or three (3) business days after placement in the mail by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth herein, or to such other address as designated in writing by the COMPANY or STRATEGIC-PARTNER. Any required payment or report which the COMPANY does not actually receive at the correct address during regular or business hours on the date due (or postmarked by postal authorities at least two (2) days before it is due) will be deemed delinquent.

17. NO WAIVER OR DISCLAIMER OF RELIANCE IN CERTAIN STATES.

The following provision applies only to franchisees and franchises that are subject to the state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

EXTRANET AGREEMENT

This Extranet Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made as of _____, 20__ by and between Mosquito Hunters, LLC (“Mosquito Hunters”) and _____ (“Strategic-Partner”).

Introduction

Mosquito Hunters is offering its strategic-partners an opportunity to access Mosquito Hunters’ official web site (the “Web site”). Mosquito Hunters has also developed a communication network that utilizes a password protected Internet web site (the “Extranet”) for the benefit of the Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting system and its strategic-partners. To have access privileges to use the Extranet, you must agree to the terms and conditions set forth herein and to the Terms of Use (“TOU”) attached as Exhibit A. This Agreement and the TOU establish the terms and conditions of the access privileges granted to you and anyone you so designate to use the Extranet.

The parties to this Agreement – Mosquito Hunters and Strategic-Partner – are also parties to a Franchise Agreement relating to the establishment and operation of a Pest Hunters-Mosquito Hunters-Humbug Holiday Lighting business at the address noted in the signature block of this Agreement.

In this Agreement, the words “you” and “your” mean Strategic-Partner, any other person or agent logging onto the Extranet on your behalf, any other person or agent otherwise using your account password and/or any sub-account that has been created. The words “we,” “us” and “our” mean Mosquito Hunters.

System Requirements

In order to use the Extranet, you will need a computer with an internet connection, current internet browser software, and other compatible software (collectively, your “computer system”). You are solely and completely responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of your computer system, and for all costs and expenses that you will incur in connection therewith, as well as telephone and/or cable charges incurred while connecting to the Web site, the Extranet, and for any charges by any internet provider you choose to use to gain access to the Internet and, ultimately, the Web site or the Extranet.

We are not responsible for any errors or failures caused by any malfunction of your computer, and we are not responsible for any computer virus or related problems that may be associated with your use of the Extranet, the Web site or of your computer.

Security

Mosquito Hunters is committed to helping to keep your information private and secure. However, we cannot guarantee that this will be the case. You play a critical role in maintaining the security of your system. By using this system, you agree to the following:

- To keep your password and user ID confidential, and not to post them on or in the proximity of your computer, nor to store your password or other sensitive data on your computer. You further agree not to disclose your password and/or user ID to anyone.
- That your password and user ID are your authorization for using the Extranet.
- To log out of the Extranet when you are finished using the service.

The Extranet permits you to create sub-accounts for franchise partners and/or employees. You alone are responsible for the access granted to these sub-accounts as well as for ensuring these sub-accounts do not post derogatory or defamatory statements or comments. Mosquito Hunters reserves the right to immediately disconnect any sub-accounts so created.

The Extranet permits you to electronically communicate with us, but at present, it does not permit you to transfer money, give notices or otherwise communicate with us so as to satisfy the obligations under your Franchise Agreement or any other agreements with Mosquito Hunters.

Limits On Our Responsibility

We agree to make reasonable efforts to ensure the performance of the Extranet and the Web site, but we are not responsible for any losses or delays in transmission arising out of the use of any Internet service provider providing connection to the Internet or caused by any browser software. We are not responsible for any direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising in any way out of your use of the Extranet or the Web site. Because some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for incidental or consequential damages, in such states our liability is limited to the extent permitted by law.

Mosquito Hunters makes no express or implied warranties concerning the Extranet service or the Web site, including, but not limited to, any warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement of third-party proprietary rights.

Franchise Agreement

This Agreement is part of your Franchise Agreement with Mosquito Hunters. If you are in default under this Agreement, that will also constitute a default under your Franchise Agreement. The provisions of the Franchise Agreement relating to matters such as confidential information, use of the system, use of the trademarks, and indemnity also apply to your use of the Extranet and the Web site.

Changes to the Extranet and Web site

We reserve the right to change, modify or discontinue the Web site, the Extranet and/or any of its components or features from time to time.

Property Rights

The Extranet, the Web site, and all rights in and to any information or data relating to the Extranet and the Web site, including the logs of "hits" by visitors, the Web pages they visited, and any personal or business data they voluntarily supply, will be owned solely by Mosquito Hunters.

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed, exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey (without regard to its conflicts of laws rules). If any provision of this Agreement shall be unlawful, void or for any reason unenforceable, then that provision shall be deemed severable from this Agreement and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any remaining provisions.

No Other Agreements

This Agreement and the exhibits hereto are the only agreements between us and you concerning the Extranet and the Web site, and supersede any and all prior communication on the subject matter hereof. Neither party is relying on anything other than the words of this Agreement and the exhibits hereto in deciding whether to enter into this Agreement.

Amendments

This Agreement may be amended but only with both parties' written consent; however, revisions to the TOU shall be deemed to have been consented to, in writing, if you receive notice of any such changes online, and then continue to use the Extranet and/or the Web site.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
LD Parent, Inc.
Holmdel, NJ

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of LD Parent, Inc. and its Subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows:

- Identify the contract with a customer
- Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied

The Company has identified the following revenue streams; initial franchise fees, operating revenues which consist of: service/royalty fees from franchises, sales of parts and equipment, revenues from sales type leases, advertising revenue, and interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivables. The Company's initial franchise fees are recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions relating to such contracts are recorded as a prepaid asset and amortized over the life of the contract.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company disaggregates its revenue from customers with contracts by revenue streams. The Company's revenue streams are presented in the following table:

Years Ended December 31,	2024	2023
Net Revenues:
Service/royalty fees	$ 25,368,940	$ 23,693,686
Part and equipment sales	5,146,603	4,450,670
Advertising revenue	9,053,646	8,297,789
Initial franchise fees	4,655,247	3,281,425
Interest, service charges, and other	1,039,616	1,272,651
Total Net Revenues	$ 45,264,052	$ 40,996,221

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Service/royalty fees derived from franchises (“Service Fees”) are recognized as revenue when revenues are earned by the franchisees. The franchisees agree to pay to the Company a weekly royalty and service fee based on a percentage of the net revenues derived by the respective franchisees from the Company’s business. Revenue from sales of parts and equipment are recognized, at the point in time which control is transferred, upon shipment. Interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivable is recorded as revenue when earned (and collection is reasonably assured) in accordance with the interest method.

Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions paid on initial franchise fees are deferred and charged to expense upon recognition of the initial fee.

Advertising funds are presented as a gross up of revenue and related cost. Advertising funds, such as the Company’s National Marketing Fund and Regional Marketing fund, promote the Company’s brand nationally and in the local markets.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company records gross revenue related to Advertising funds which includes amounts charged by the Company to franchisees based on established contracts. Revenue related to these amounts is based on a percentage of sales of the franchisee and is recognized as earned. The sales-based royalty exception applies, and amounts are recognized as the underlying sales are done by the respective franchisees. Advertising fund revenue is deferred and is recognized as advertising expense as incurred by the Company.

Interest income mainly represents interest on notes receivable from franchisees and is recognized using the effective interest method. Service charges represent call center income, which is recognized at a point in time which the control is transferred, upon completion of calls.

Contract balances

The timing of revenue recognition may not align with the right to invoice the customer under franchisee agreements. The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. If revenue has not yet been recognized, a contract liability (deferred revenue) is recorded. Deferred revenue represents franchisee fees received that have not been earned yet. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $8,687,188 and $7,510,379 which represent deferred revenues as of the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Costs to obtain a contract

Broker commissions paid to brokers, as well as commissions paid to internal sales personnel, that are incremental to the acquisition of franchisee contracts are capitalized as prepaid commissions on the Consolidated Balance Sheet when the period of benefit is determined to be greater than one year. The Company elected to apply the practical expedient to expense broker and sales commissions and associated costs as incurred when the expected amortization period is one year or less. The Company determines the period of benefit for broker and sales commissions paid for the acquisition of the franchisee contract by taking into consideration the term of the franchisee agreement. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over a period of approximately ten years, which is commensurate with the pattern of revenue recognition. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $5,778,198 and $4,212,852 which represent prepaid commissions as of the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Receivables from Franchisees, net

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (CECL). The amendments in this update introduce a new accounting model to measure credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost. The FASB has also issued additional ASUs to clarify the scope and provide additional guidance for ASU 2016-13. Credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost should be determined based on the total current expected credit losses over the life of the financial asset or group of financial assets. In effect, the financial asset or group of financial assets should be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. Credit losses will no longer be recorded under the current incurred loss model for financial assets measured at amortized cost.

The amendments were effective on January 1, 2023 for the Company, and have been applied using a modified retrospective approach with a cumulative-effect adjustment through retained earnings as of the beginning of the fiscal year upon adoption as required. While the standard modifies the measurement of the allowance for credit losses, it does not alter the credit risk of our trade or unbilled receivables.

The impact of applying the CECL methodology upon adoption was a decrease to opening retained earnings of $50,000, less tax effect of $13,500, primarily driven by additional reserves allocated to trade receivables aged greater than one year assumption used in the updated methodology.

Under the CECL impairment model, the Company develops and documents its allowance for credit losses service fee (trade) receivables, notes receivables, and sales type equipment leases. The determination of portfolio segments is based primarily on asset type consideration of the credit risks.

Our quantitative allowance for credit loss estimates under CECL was determined using the loss rate method, which is impacted by certain adjustments for the nature of the aged receivables. In addition to our quantitative allowance for credit losses, we also incorporated a qualitative adjustment that may relate to unique risks or other relevant factors to further inform our estimate of the allowance for credit losses.

Additionally, due to the expansion of the time horizon over which we are required to estimate future credit losses, we may experience increased volatility in our future provisions for credit losses. Factors that could contribute to such volatility include, but are not limited to, changes in the composition and credit quality of customer base, economic conditions and forecasts, the allowance for credit loss models that are used, the data that is included in the models, the associated qualitative allowance framework, and our estimation techniques.

Trade accounts receivable and unbilled receivables are recorded at invoiced amounts, net of allowance for credit losses, if applicable, and are unsecured and do not bear interest. Notes receivables reflect the outstanding balance, principal and interest, net of allowance for credit losses.

The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on the probability of future collection under the current expected credit losses impairment model. Under the CECL impairment model, the Company determines its allowance by applying a loss-rate method based on an aging schedule using the Company's historical loss rate. The Company also considers reasonable and supportable current information in determining its estimated loss rates, such as external forecasts, macroeconomic trends or other factors including customers' credit risk and historical loss experience. The adequacy of the allowance is evaluated on a regular basis. Account balances are written off after all means of collection are exhausted and the balance is deemed uncollectible. Subsequent recoveries are credited to the allowance. Changes in the allowance are recorded as adjustments to bad debt expense in the period incurred.

Prior to December 31, 2023, trade and unbilled receivables and notes receivables were presented net of allowance for doubtful accounts based on the credit risk of specific clients, past collection history, and management's evaluation of other risks.

The following table sets forth the activity in the Company's allowance for credit losses:

	Trade Receivables	Note Receivable	Sales Type Leases	Total Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company provides franchisees with an option to finance a portion of the initial franchise fee(s) over a period of up to 96 months with interest at 12% per annum. Additionally, the Company has converted accounts receivable from certain franchisees to notes receivable. These financing arrangements entered into during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were $369,450 and $467,550, respectively. These financing arrangements are recorded as notes receivable and included within receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, $1,064,238 and $2,008,382 was outstanding of which $501,967 and $1,080,621 was classified as a current asset, which represents the principal amounts due on the aggregate notes receivable, respectively.

The Company leases equipment to its franchisees with an option to pay in full upon execution of the lease or finance over 60, 72 or 84 months depending on the type of equipment. Interest is not to exceed 1.5% per month and the Company recognizes the imputed interest over the term of the lease. The Company records these leases as a sales-type lease in accordance with ASC 842 Leases (Note 8). Leased equipment is recorded in receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2024, $1,992,905 was outstanding of which $465,266 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2024, the Company recorded $503,338 as unearned interest of which $162,093 was classified within other current liabilities.

As of December 31, 2023, $1,898,166 was outstanding of which $434,170 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2023, the Company recorded $478,528 as unearned interest of which $153,466 was classified within other current liabilities.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Unearned interest beyond one year is recorded in long-term other liabilities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results, as determined at a later date, could differ from those estimates.

Shipping Costs

Costs to ship products to franchisees are expensed to manufacturing expenses as incurred. The Company recorded shipping costs of $161,727 and $141,866 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company maintains cash balances in various financial institutions located in the United States of America which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents balances in a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 each. At times, such balances may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management believes that the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk with respect to the Company's cash balances.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's sales or purchases for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's accounts receivable or payables at December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Inventories, net

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Parts and materials, included as inventory, are evaluated annually by management for net realizable value and obsolescence. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, the reserve for inventory was $50,772 and $109,576, respectively.

Property, Plant and Equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, which approximate 39 years for building, 5 to 7 years for furniture, fixtures and other equipment and 3 to 5 years for software and transportation equipment. Improvements to leasehold property are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the asset life and remaining lease term.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Goodwill

As required by ASC 350, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (“ASC350”), the Company tests goodwill for impairment and follows ASU 2017-04 which amended ASC 350 for testing goodwill for impairment. Under ASU 2017-04, a goodwill impairment loss must be measured as the excess of a reporting unit’s carrying amount (including goodwill) over its fair value. Impairment losses are limited to the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. Goodwill is not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at the reporting unit level at least annually and more frequently upon the occurrence of certain events. The Company has one reporting unit. A qualitative assessment is performed to assess the qualitative factors and to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the reporting unit does not pass the qualitative assessment, the carrying amount of the reporting unit, including goodwill, is compared to the fair value, and goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value. The fair value is estimated under a discounted cash flow approach, supplemented with a market multiple valuation approach.

Significant estimates used in the discounted cash flow models include assumptions regarding future growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. Any excess is recognized as an impairment loss. In conjunction with the management’s annual review of goodwill and based on the qualitative assessments performed in 2024 and 2023, the Company determined it is not more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount.

Indefinite and Finite Lived Intangibles

In accordance with ASC 350, indefinite lived intangible assets are recorded at cost and are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis and whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying values may not be recoverable. Impairment is recorded if the carrying amount exceeds fair value. Intangible assets which have finite useful lives are amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives and consist of franchisee and customer relationships, and a leasehold interest.

Future adverse changes in market conditions or poor operating results could result in losses or an inability to recover the carrying value of the goodwill and other intangible assets thereby possibly requiring an impairment charge in the future.

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for the impairment of long-lived assets in accordance with ASC 360, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. In accordance with ASC 360, the Company evaluates long-lived assets, including intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable based on expected undiscounted cash flows attributable to that asset or group of assets. The amount of any impairment is measured as the difference between the carrying value and the fair value of the impaired asset. The Company did not have any long-lived assets impairment indicators during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Debt Issuance Costs

Costs related to financing are being capitalized and amortized straight line, which approximates the effective interest method, over the term of the related debt facilities. Debt issuance costs were $1,832 and $23,821 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and are presented as a reduction to long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Amortization of deferred financing costs for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 was $21,989 and $58,736, respectively, and is recorded in interest expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Income Taxes

The asset and liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities.

The Company recognizes a tax benefit from an uncertain position only if it is more likely than not the position is sustainable, based solely on its technical merits and consideration of the relevant taxing authority's widely understood administrative practices and precedents. If this threshold is met, the Company measures the tax benefit as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, there was no impact to the consolidated financial statements relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is a market-based measurement, which is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Valuation techniques for fair value measurements include the market approach (comparable market prices), the income approach (present value of future income or cash flow) and the cost approach (cost to replace the service capacity of an asset or replacement cost), which are each based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's market assumptions. The Company utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to fair value measurement techniques into three broad levels:

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability, including quoted prices for similar asset or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for similar or identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; and mode-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions.

The Company's material financial instruments at December 31, 2024 and 2023, for which disclosure of estimated value is required by certain accounting standards, consisted primarily of cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and long-term debt. Cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, and accrued expenses are considered Level 1 due to their short-term nature and their market interest rates. The carrying value of long-term debt, which the Company does not record at fair value, approximates fair value due to the variable interest rate associated with this financial instrument which reflects market rates and is considered Level 2.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Business Acquisitions

The Company accounts for business combinations in accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations. ASC 805 requires business combinations to be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and includes specific criteria for recording intangible assets separate from goodwill. Results of operations of acquired businesses are included in the financial statements of the acquiring company from the date of acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed of the acquired company are recorded at their fair value at the date of acquisitions.

Leases

The Company engages in leasing activity as both a lessee and a lessor.

The Company accounts for leases pursuant to ASC Topic 842, Leases, which the Company adopted effective January 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective method of adoption. The Company elected the package of practical expedients, which, among other items, permits the Company not to reassess under the new standard its prior conclusions about lease identification and initial direct costs. The Company also elected the short-term lease recognition exemption for all leases that qualify. Under this election, the Company does not recognize right-of-use assets or lease liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. The Company also elected to not separate lease and non-lease components for all leases.

Lessee

The Company enters into operating leases and determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception of the arrangement. The Company accounts for a lease when it has the right to control the leased asset for a period of time while obtaining substantially all of the assets' economic benefits. Leases are classified as operating or finance leases at the lease commencement date. A lease is classified as a finance lease if any one of the following criteria are met:

1. The lease transfers ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term.
2. The lease contains an option to purchase the asset that is reasonably certain to be exercised.
3. The lease term is for a major part of the remaining useful life of the asset, or
4. The present value of the lease payments equals or exceeds substantially all of the fair value of the asset.

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not meet any one of these criteria. The Company currently only has operating leases as a lessee. The operating leases consist primarily of facility space, vehicles, and office equipment.

Lease liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the estimated present value of future minimum lease payments over the lease term, excluding lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred, if any. Lease liabilities represent the company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease and Right-of-Use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term. The discount rate used to determine the present value of the lease payments is the Company's incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease inception, as generally an implicit rate in the lease is not readily determinable. The Company's leases do not include residual value guarantees or covenants.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Lease expense for operating leases with original terms of less than 12 months is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

When determining the lease term at inception, options to extend or renew leases are included in the measurement and recognition of ROU asset and liability when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company considers various economic factors when making the determination, including, but not limited to, the significance of leasehold improvements incurred in the facility space, the difficulty in replacing the lease, underlying contractual obligations, or specific characteristics unique to a particular lease. Subsequent to entering a lease, if it becomes reasonably certain that the Company will exercise an option that was not included in the lease term, the Company accounts for the change in circumstances as a lease modification, which results in the remeasurement of the ROU asset and liability as of the modification date. The Company continually evaluates whether facts or circumstances indicate it is reasonably certain that it will exercise an option.

Lessor

The Company classifies leases as sales-type based on the results of the classification tests in accordance with ASC 842 and has elected, as an accounting policy, to present all funds collected from lessees for sales and other similar taxes net of the related sales tax expense for all lessor leases. The Company also excludes executory costs from lease accounting if the lessee's payments of those costs are made to a third party (e.g. taxing authority or insurer).

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses its advertising costs the first time the advertising takes place. All advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising expense recorded in selling, general, and administrative expense within the Consolidated Statements of Operations was $704,758 and $783,196 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The Company incurs regional advertising costs, which are repaid weekly by franchisees based upon their cash receipts. The balances are reported as prepaid or accrued expenses at year-end.

3. Acquisitions

2024 Formation of EM Corporate - Lexington Richmond LLC and Acquisition of Eco Clean KY LLC

On October 9, 2024 the Company formed a new limited liability company, EM Corporate - Lexington Richmond LLC, to operate a corporate location. Subsequently, on November 18, 2024, Ecomaid LLC entered into an agreement to acquire substantially all of the assets of Eco Clean KY, LLC, an Ecomaid franchisee operating out of Richmond KY.

Total consideration was a $50,000 cash payment by the Company. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations. In accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations, acquisition related costs must be accounted for separately from the business combination and are not part of the consideration transferred. In connection with the acquisition, the Company incurred $19,694 in acquisition related costs which is included in the selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The allocation of the total consideration paid of the Company's net tangible and identifiable intangible assets was based upon the estimated fair value, using available information at acquisition date, of those assets as of November 18, 2024. The Company allocated the excess of purchase price over the identifiable intangible and net tangible assets to goodwill and expected synergies with the Company's existing operations. To the extent the Company has a tax basis in goodwill and intangibles, it is deductible over 15 years.

The following table presents the breakdown between purchase consideration and the allocation of the total purchase price:

Acquired tangible assets and liabilities:

Property and equipment	$	41,685
Net tangible assets		41,685

Identifiable intangible assets:

Goodwill		8,315
Total purchase consideration	$	50,000

The Company estimated the fair value of property and equipment and intangible assets using the income, cost and market approaches to value the related assets. Fair values were determined by management. .

The consolidated financial statements include results of operations following the Lexington acquisition for the period from November 18, 2024 through December 31, 2024.

The Company follows Account Standards Update (ASU) 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805) – Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers. ASU 2021-08 requires that an entity (acquirer) recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities acquired in a business combination in accordance with Topic 606, as if it had originated the contracts.

Credit Agreements

The amendment also contains revisions to the restrictive covenants inclusive of senior debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, total debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, fixed charge ratio, and excess cash flow. The Revolving Loan Commitment remained unchanged. The Revolving Loan Commitment was payable upon maturity on December 11, 2019. This was later amended in March 2019 to extend the maturity date to February 7, 2023 and clarify certain definitions in the prior amendment.

Litigation

The Company is party to various legal proceedings that arise in the normal course of business. In the present opinion of management, none of these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, are likely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows of the Company. However, management cannot provide assurance that any adverse outcome would not be material to the Company's consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows.

13. Related Party Balances and Transactions

14. Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes result from timing differences in the recognition of income and expenses for income tax and financial reporting purposes.

Net deferred tax assets and liabilities are summarized as follows:

December 31,	2024	2023
Employee compensation	$ 453,171	$ 450,312

Deferred tax liabilities	(9,875,972)	(10,198,904)
Net deferred income tax liabilities	$ (6,395,342)	$ (7,202,482)

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities (including the impact of available carryback and carryforward periods), projected future taxable income, and tax-planning strategies in

15. Stock-Based Compensation

Share Options

Stock Options are issued by LD Parent pursuant to its 2018 Stock Incentive Plan (“the Plan”). The related stock-based compensation is pushed down to its subsidiary and recorded by the Company. The Company follows ASC 718, Share-Based Payment, for recording stock-based compensation. The fair value of each time-based and performance-based option award is estimated on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model. These options, along with performance-based options, will be expensed when such events are deemed probable. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index and other factors. The expected term of options with fixed exercise prices is derived by using the midpoint between vesting and expiration as the expected term of the option grant which is permitted under the guidance. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. No stock options were granted during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

A summary of assumptions is presented below in connection with 2018 grants:

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
LD Parent, Inc.
Holmdel, NJ

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of LD Parent, Inc. and its Subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows:

- Identify the contract with a customer
- Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied

The Company has identified the following revenue streams; initial franchise fees, operating revenues which consist of: service/royalty fees from franchises, sales of parts and equipment, revenues from sales type leases, advertising revenue, and interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivables. The Company's initial franchise fees are recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions relating to such contracts are recorded as a prepaid asset and amortized over the life of the contract.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company disaggregates its revenue from customers with contracts by revenue streams. The Company's revenue streams are presented in the following table:

Years Ended December 31,	2023	2022
Operating Revenues:
Service/royalty fees	$ 23,693,686	$ 22,296,751
Part and equipment sales	4,450,670	3,385,013
Advertising revenue	8,297,789	7,153,173
Initial franchise fees	3,281,425	4,713,057
Interest, service charges, and other	1,272,651	1,065,179
Net Revenues	$ 40,996,221	$ 38,613,173

Service/royalty fees derived from franchises ("Service Fees") are recognized as revenue when revenues are earned by the franchisees. The franchisees agree to pay to the Company a weekly royalty and service fee based on a percentage of the net revenues derived by the respective franchisees from the Company's business. Revenue from sales of parts and equipment are recognized, at the point in time which control is transferred, upon shipment. Interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivable is recorded as revenue when earned (and collection is reasonably assured) in accordance with the interest method.

Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions paid on initial franchise fees are deferred and charged to expense upon recognition of the initial fee.

Advertising funds are presented as a gross up of revenue and related cost. Advertising funds, such as the Company's National Marketing Fund and Regional Marketing fund, promote the Company's brand nationally and in the local markets.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company records gross revenue related to Advertising funds which includes amounts charged by the Company to franchisees based on established contracts. Revenue related to these amounts is based on a percentage of sales of the franchisee and is recognized as earned. The sales-based royalty exception applies, and amounts are recognized as the underlying sales are done by the respective franchisees. Advertising fund revenue is deferred and is recognized as advertising expense as incurred by the Company.

Interest income mainly represents interest on notes receivable from franchisees and is recognized using the effective interest method. Service charges represent call center income, which is recognized at a point in time which the control is transferred, upon completion of calls.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Contract balances

The timing of revenue recognition may not align with the right to invoice the customer under franchisee agreements. The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. If revenue has not yet been recognized, a contract liability (deferred revenue) is recorded. Deferred revenue represents franchisee fees received that have not been earned yet. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $7,510,378 and $8,122,921 which represent deferred revenues as of the year ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Costs to obtain a contract

Broker commissions paid to brokers, as well as commissions paid to internal sales personnel, that are incremental to the acquisition of franchisee contracts are capitalized as prepaid commissions on the Consolidated Balance Sheet when the period of benefit is determined to be greater than one year. The Company elected to apply the practical expedient to expense broker and sales commissions and associated costs as incurred when the expected amortization period is one year or less. The Company determines the period of benefit for broker and sales commissions paid for the acquisition of the franchisee contract by taking into consideration the term of the franchisee agreement. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over a period of approximately ten years, which commensurate with the pattern of revenue recognition. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $4,212,852 and $4,721,566 which represent prepaid commissions as of the year ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Receivables from Franchisees, net

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (CECL). The amendments in this update introduce a new accounting model to measure credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost. The FASB has also issued additional ASUs to clarify the scope and provide additional guidance for ASU 2016-13. Credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost should be determined based on the total current expected credit losses over the life of the financial asset or group of financial assets. In effect, the financial asset or group of financial assets should be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. Credit losses will no longer be recorded under the current incurred loss model for financial assets measured at amortized cost.

The amendments were effective on January 1, 2023 for the Company, and have been applied using a modified retrospective approach with a cumulative-effect adjustment through retained earnings as of the beginning of the fiscal year upon adoption as required. While the standard modifies the measurement of the allowance for credit losses, it does not alter the credit risk of our trade or unbilled receivables.

The impact of applying the CECL methodology upon adoption was a decrease to opening retained earnings of $50,000, less tax effect of $13,500, primarily driven by additional reserves allocated to trade receivables aged greater than one year assumption used in the updated methodology.

Under the CECL impairment model, the Company develops and documents its allowance for credit losses service fee (trade) receivables, notes receivables, and sales type equipment leases. The determination of portfolio segments is based primarily on asset type consideration of the credit risks.

Our quantitative allowance for credit loss estimates under CECL was determined using the loss rate method, which is impacted by certain adjustments for the nature of the aged receivables. In addition to our quantitative allowance for credit losses, we also incorporated a qualitative adjustment that may relate to unique risks or other relevant factors to further inform our estimate of the allowance for credit losses.

Additionally, due to the expansion of the time horizon over which we are required to estimate future credit losses, we may experience increased volatility in our future provisions for credit losses. Factors that could contribute to such volatility include, but are not limited to, changes in the composition and credit quality of customer base, economic conditions and forecasts, the allowance for credit loss models that are used, the data that is included in the models, the associated qualitative allowance framework, and our estimation techniques.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Trade accounts receivable and unbilled receivables are recorded at invoiced amounts, net of allowance for credit losses, if applicable, and are unsecured and do not bear interest. Notes receivables reflect the outstanding balance, principal and interest, net of allowance for credit losses.

The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on the probability of future collection under the current expected credit losses impairment model under. Under the CECL impairment model, the Company determines its allowance by applying a loss-rate method based on an aging schedule using the Company's historical loss rate. The Company also considers reasonable and supportable current information in determining its estimated loss rates, such as external forecasts, macroeconomic trends or other factors including customers' credit risk and historical loss experience. The adequacy of the allowance is evaluated on a regular basis. Account balances are written off after all means of collection are exhausted and the balance is deemed uncollectible. Subsequent recoveries are credited to the allowance. Changes in the allowance are recorded as adjustments to bad debt expense in the period incurred.

Prior to December 31, 2023, trade and unbilled receivables and notes receivables were presented net of allowance for doubtful accounts based on the credit risk of specific clients, past collection history, and management's evaluation of other risks.

The following table sets forth the activity in the Company's allowance for credit losses:

	Trade Receivables	Note Receivable	Sales Type Leases	Total Allowance for Credit Losses
Beginning balances at January 1, 2023	$ 234,955	$ 588,276	$ —	$ 823,231
Impact of CECL adoption	(3,650)	35,770	4,380	36,500
Current period adjustment to allowance for expected credit losses	157,353	69,612	—	226,965
Write-offs charged against allowance	(43,353)	(36,768)	—	(80,121)

The Company provides franchisees with an option to finance a portion of the initial franchise fee(s) over a period of up to 96 months with interest at 12% per annum. Additionally, the Company has converted accounts receivable from certain franchisees to notes receivable. These financing arrangements entered into during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 were $467,550 and $809,198, respectively. These financing arrangements are recorded as notes receivable and included within receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, $2,008,382 and $2,605,437 was outstanding of which $1,080,621 and $1,206,828 was classified as a current asset, which represents the principal amounts due on the aggregate notes receivable, respectively.

The Company leases equipment to its franchisees with an option to pay in full upon execution of the lease or finance over 60, 72 or 84 months depending on the type of equipment. Interest is not to exceed 1.5% per month and the Company recognizes the imputed interest over the term of the lease. The Company records these leases as a sales-type lease in accordance with ASC 842 Leases (Note 8). Leased equipment is recorded in receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2023, $1,898,166 was outstanding of which $434,170 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2023, the Company recorded $478,528 as unearned interest of which $153,466 was classified within other current liabilities.

As of December 31, 2022, $1,801,805 was outstanding of which $394,634 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2022, the Company recorded $458,813 as unearned interest of which $144,852 was classified within other current liabilities.

Unearned interest beyond one year is recorded in long-term other liabilities.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results, as determined at a later date, could differ from those estimates.

Shipping Costs

Costs to ship products to franchisees are expensed to manufacturing expenses as incurred. The Company recorded shipping costs of $141,866 and $168,209 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Cash

The Company maintains cash balances in various financial institutions located in the United States of America which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash balances in a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 each. At times, such balances may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's sales or purchases for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's accounts receivable or payables at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Inventories, net

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Parts and materials, included as inventory, are evaluated annually by management for net realizable value and obsolescence. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, the reserve for inventory was $109,576 and $73,824, respectively.

Property, Plant and Equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, which approximate 39 years for building, 5 to 7 years for furniture, fixtures and other equipment and 3 to 5 years for software and transportation equipment. Improvements to leasehold property are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the asset life and remaining lease term.

Goodwill

As required by ASC 350, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, the Company tests goodwill for impairment and follows ASU 2017-04 which amended ASC 350 for testing goodwill for impairment. Under ASU 2017-04, a goodwill impairment loss must be measured as the excess of a reporting unit's carrying amount (including goodwill) over its fair value. Impairment losses are limited to the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. Goodwill is not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at the reporting unit level at least annually and more frequently upon the occurrence of certain events. The Company has one reporting unit. A qualitative assessment is performed to assess the qualitative factors and to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the reporting unit does not pass the qualitative assessment, the carrying amount of the reporting unit, including goodwill, is compared to the fair value, and goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value. The fair value is estimated under a discounted cash flow approach, supplemented with a market multiple valuation approach. Significant estimates used in the discounted cash flow models include assumptions regarding future growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. Any excess is recognized as an impairment loss. In conjunction with the management's annual review of goodwill and based on the qualitative assessments performed in 2023 and 2022, the Company determined it is not more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Indefinite and Finite Lived Intangibles

In accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other (“ASC 350”), indefinite lived intangible assets are recorded at cost and are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis and whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying values may not be recoverable. Impairment is recorded if the carrying amount exceeds fair value. Intangible assets which have finite useful lives are amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives and consist of franchisee and customer relationships, and a leasehold interest. Finite lived intangible asset amortization expense was $2,387,578 and $2,334,166 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Future adverse changes in market conditions or poor operating results could result in losses or an inability to recover the carrying value of the goodwill and other intangible assets thereby possibly requiring an impairment charge in the future.

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for the impairment of long-lived assets in accordance with ASC 360, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. In accordance with ASC 360, the Company evaluates long-lived assets, including intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable based on expected undiscounted cash flows attributable to that asset or group of assets. The amount of any impairment is measured as the difference between the carrying value and the fair value of the impaired asset. The Company did not have any long-lived assets impairment indicators during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Debt Issuance Costs

Costs related to financing are being capitalized and amortized straight line, which approximates the effective interest method, over the term of the related debt facilities. Debt issuance costs were $23,821 and $198,924 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and are presented as a reduction to long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Amortization of deferred financing costs for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 was $58,736 and $104,343, respectively, and is recorded in interest expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Income Taxes

The asset and liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities.

The Company recognizes a tax benefit from an uncertain position only if it is more likely than not the position is sustainable, based solely on its technical merits and consideration of the relevant taxing authority’s widely understood administrative practices and precedents. If this threshold is met, the Company measures the tax benefit as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, there was no impact to the consolidated financial statements relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is a market-based measurement, which is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Valuation techniques for fair value measurements include the market approach (comparable market prices), the income approach (present value of future income or cash flow) and the cost approach (cost to replace the service capacity of an asset or replacement cost), which are each based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company’s market assumptions. The Company utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to fair value measurement techniques into three broad levels:

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability, including quoted prices for similar asset or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for similar or identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; and mode-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect the reporting entity’s own assumptions.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's material financial instruments at December 31, 2023 and 2022, for which disclosure of estimated value is required by certain accounting standards, consisted primarily of receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and debt. The carrying value of the term loan approximates fair value due to the variable interest rate associated with this financial instrument.

Business Acquisitions

The Company accounts for business combinations in accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations. ASC 805 requires business combinations to be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and includes specific criteria for recording intangible assets separate from goodwill. Results of operations of acquired businesses are included in the financial statements of the acquiring company from the date of acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed of the acquired company are recorded at their fair value at the date of acquisitions.

Leases

The company engages in leasing activity as both a lessee and a lessor.

The Company adopted ASC 842, effective January 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective method of adoption. The Company elected the package of practical expedients, which, among other items, permits the Company not to reassess under the new standard its prior conclusions about lease identification and initial direct costs. The Company also elected the short-term lease recognition exemption for all leases that qualify. Under this election, the Company does not recognize right-of-use assets or lease liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. The Company also elected to not separate lease and non-lease components for all leases. The Company did not elect the use-of hindsight practical expedient. As a result of the Company adopting ASC 842, the Company recognized right-of-use assets (ROUs) of $470,960 and lease obligations of $264,684 and $206,276, classified into current and non-current portion of liabilities, respectively.

See Note 9 – Leases for additional information.

Lessee

The company enters into operating leases and determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception of the arrangement. The company accounts for a lease when it has the right to control the leased asset for a period of time while obtaining substantially all of the assets' economic benefits. Leases are classified as operating or finance leases at the lease commencement date. A lease is classified as a finance lease if any one of the following criteria are met:

1. The lease transfers ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term.
2. The lease contains an option to purchase the asset that is reasonably certain to be exercised.
3. The lease term is for a major part of the remaining useful life of the asset, or
4. The present value of the lease payments equals or exceeds substantially all of the fair value of the asset.

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not meet any one of these criteria. The company currently only has operating leases as a lessee. The operating leases consist primarily of facility space, vehicles, and office equipment.

Lease liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the estimated present value of future minimum lease payments over the lease term, excluding lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred, if any. Lease liabilities represent the company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease and ROU assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term. The discount rate used to determine the present value of the lease payments is the Company's incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease inception, as generally an implicit rate in the lease is not readily determinable. The company's leases do not include residual value guarantees or covenants.

Lease expense for operating leases with original terms of less than 12 months is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

When determining the lease term at inception, options to extend or renew leases are included in the measurement and recognition of ROU asset and liability when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company considers various economic factors when making the determination, including, but not limited to, the significance of leasehold improvements incurred in the facility space, the difficulty in replacing the lease, underlying contractual obligations, or specific characteristics unique to a particular lease. Subsequent to entering a lease, if it becomes reasonably certain that the company will exercise an option that was not included in the lease term, the Company accounts for the change in circumstances as a lease modification, which results in the remeasurement of the ROU asset and liability as of the modification date. The Company continually evaluates whether facts or circumstances indicate it is reasonably certain that it will exercise an option.

Lessor

The Company classifies leases as sales-type based on the results of the classification tests in accordance with ASC 842 and has elected, as an accounting policy, to present all funds collected from lessees for sales and other similar taxes net of the related sales tax expense for all lessor leases. The Company also excludes executory costs from lease accounting if the lessee's payments of those costs are made to a third party (e.g. taxing authority or insurer).

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses its advertising costs the first time the advertising takes place. All advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising expense recorded in selling, general, and administrative expense within the Consolidated Statements of Operations was $783,196 and $754,707 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

The Company incurs regional advertising costs, which are repaid weekly by franchisees based upon their cash receipts. The balances are reported as prepaid or accrued expenses at year-end.

3. Acquisitions

2022 Acquisition of Elite Window Cleaning, Inc.

On October 7, 2022, Elite Franchising Corp., and certain members of Company's management, entered into an agreement with Elite and acquired substantially all of the assets of Elite. After the closing of the acquisition and the purchase of common equity in Elite by certain members of the Company's senior management team, LD Parent owns approximately 61.7% of the outstanding equity in Elite.

Total consideration was $2,368,483, which was comprised of $1,142,983 (gross of cash acquired) cash paid by the Company, $553,500 cash paid by Company's management, and Elite management rollover equity of $672,000. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations. In accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations, acquisition related costs must be accounted for separately from the business combination and are not part of the consideration transferred. In connection with the Elite Acquisition, the Company incurred $326,690 in acquisition related costs which is included in the selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The allocation of the total consideration paid of the Company's net tangible and identifiable intangible assets was based upon the estimated fair value, using available information at acquisition date, of those assets as of October 7, 2022. The Company allocated the excess of purchase price over the identifiable intangible and net tangible assets to goodwill and expected synergies with the Company's existing operations. To the extent the Company has a tax basis in goodwill and intangibles, it is deductible over 15 years.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The following table presents the breakdown between purchase consideration and the allocation of the total purchase price:

Acquired tangible assets and liabilities:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 90,290
Accounts receivable	223,516
Prepaid expenses	20,925
Property and equipment	81,000
Assumed liabilities	(63,685)
Deferred revenue	(188,350)
Deferred tax liability	(179,140)
Net tangible liabilities	(15,444)
Identifiable intangible assets:

Customer relationships	650,000
Franchisee relationship	190,000
Goodwill	1,363,927
Total purchase consideration	$ 2,368,483

The Company estimated the fair value of property and equipment and intangible assets using the income, cost and market approaches to value the related assets. Fair values were determined by management using assistance of third-party valuation specialists. The valuation methods used to determine the fair value of the intangible assets included the income approach – relief from royalty method for trade name, the income approach – excess earnings method for customer relationships and franchise relationships. Identifiable assets are amortized over their estimated useful life.

The fair value of the acquired accounts receivable and prepaid and other assets approximates the carrying value of accounts receivable, prepaid and other assets, due to the short-term nature of the expected timeframe to collect the amounts and economic benefits due to the Company and the contractual cash flows, which are expected to be collected related to these receivables.

The fair value of the assumed liabilities which include accounts payable and accrued expenses and other liabilities, and deferred revenue, approximate the carrying value of accounts payable and accrued expenses, other liabilities, and deferred revenue, due to the nature of the expected timeframe to disburse the amounts and incur economic impacts due to the Company and the contractual cash flows, which are expected to be disbursed related to these assumed liabilities.

The consolidated financial statements include results of operations following the Elite acquisition for the period from October 8, 2022 through December 31, 2023.

The Company follows Account Standards Update (ASU) 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805) – Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers. ASU 2021-08 requires that an entity (acquirer) recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities acquired in a business combination in accordance with Topic 606, as if it had originated the contracts.

Credit Agreements

On February 7, 2018, in conjunction with the acquisition by CNL Strategic Capital, LLC (“CNLSC”), the Company entered into an amendment to their Credit Agreement dated December 12, 2014. The amendment also contains revisions to the restrictive covenants inclusive of senior debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, total debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, fixed charge ratio, and excess cash flow. The Revolving Loan Commitment remained unchanged. The Revolving Loan Commitment was payable upon maturity on December 11, 2019. This was later amended in March 2019 to extend the maturity date to February 7, 2023 and clarify certain definitions in the prior amendment.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities (including the impact of available carryback and carryforward periods), projected future taxable income, and tax-planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on this analysis, the Company has determined that a valuation allowance on certain deferred tax assets related to Sparkle Squad, LLC were appropriate due to lack of predictable income. As of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, the Company maintained a valuation allowance in the amount of $327,094 and $108,928 respectively.

A summary of current and deferred income taxes included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations is as follows:

Generally, tax years open for examination include the year 2019 and forward.

15. Stock-Based Compensation

Share Options

Stock Options are issued by LD Parent pursuant to its 2018 Stock Incentive Plan (“the Plan”). The related stock-based compensation is pushed down to its subsidiary and recorded by the Company. The Company follows ASC 718, Share-Based Payment, for recording stock-based compensation. The fair value of each time-based and performance-based option award is estimated on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model. These options, along with performance-based options, will be expensed when such events are deemed probable. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index and other factors. The expected term of options with fixed exercise prices is derived by using the midpoint between vesting and expiration as the expected term of the option grant which is permitted under the guidance. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. No stock options were granted during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

A summary of assumptions is presented below in connection with 2018 grants:

STATE ADDENDA AND AGREEMENT RIDERS

NO WAIVER OR DISCLAIMER OF RELIANCE IN CERTAIN STATES

The following provision applies only to franchisees and franchises that are subject to the state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES FOR THE MULTI-STATE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT OF MOSQUITO HUNTERS, LLC

The following are additional disclosures for the Franchise Disclosure Document of MOSQUITO HUNTERS, LLC required by various state franchise laws. Each provision of these additional disclosures will not apply unless, with respect to that provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the applicable state franchise registration and disclosure law are met independently without reference to these additional disclosures.

CALIFORNIA

1. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT 14 DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION OF ANY AGREEMENT.

2. SECTION 31125 OF THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES US TO GIVE YOU A DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION BEFORE WE ASK YOU TO CONSIDER A MATERIAL MODIFICATION OF YOUR FRANCHISE AGREEMENT.

3. OUR WEBSITE, www.mosquitohuntersfranchise.com, HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

4. The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

5. The following risk factor is added to the Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise Page:

The franchise agreement contains provisions requiring you to agree to shorten the statute of limitations to bring claims and waive your right to punitive or exemplary damages against the franchisor or any of its representatives, limiting your recovery to actual damages. Under California Corporations Code section 31512, these provisions are not enforceable in California for any claims you may have under the California Franchise Investment Law.

6. The following is added to the end of Item 3:

Neither MH, nor any person in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document, is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15

U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such person from membership in that association or exchange.

7. The following sentence is added to the “Remarks” column of the line-item titled “Interest” in Item 6:

The highest interest rate allowed under California law is 10% annually.

8. The following sentence is added to the end of Item 10:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, MH will not require any franchisee to pay an interest rate higher than the interest rate permitted under California law.

9. The following paragraphs are added to the end of Item 17:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to franchisees concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, and the law applies, then the law will control.

The Agreement contains a covenant not to compete that extends beyond termination of the franchise. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Agreement provides for termination upon insolvency. This provision might not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).

The Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of New Jersey. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Agreement requires binding arbitration at a location specified by the arbitrator within 10 miles of MH’s principal place of business at the time the arbitration demand is filed. You will be required to travel to that location and pay the expenses you incur in any such arbitration proceeding. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 – 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

Section 31512.1 provides that any provision of a franchise agreement, franchise disclosure document, acknowledgement, questionnaire, or other writing, including any exhibit thereto, disclaiming or denying any of the following shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

- (a) Representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents to a prospective franchisee.
- (b) Reliance by a franchisee on any representations made by the franchisor or its personnel or agents.
- (c) Reliance by a franchisee on the franchise disclosure document, including any exhibit thereto.
- (d) Violations of any provision of this division.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ILLINOIS

1. The following statements are added to the end of Item 17:

Except for the Federal Arbitration Act that applies to arbitration, Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Franchisees' rights upon termination and non-renewal are set forth in Sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

MARYLAND

1. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend, and Item 17(m), titled Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer:

Any release required as a condition of renewal and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law. (The form of general release that MH currently intends to use in connection with franchise transfers and renewals is included in the Assignment and Assumption Agreement appearing at Exhibit C of this Disclosure Document.)

2. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” section of Item 17(h), titled “Cause” defined – non-curable defaults:

Termination upon insolvency might not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq.), but MH will enforce it to the extent enforceable.

3. The “Summary” section of Item 17(v), titled Choice of forum, is amended to read as follows:

Arbitration of most disputes within 10 miles of MH’s then current principal office (currently in New Jersey), except that, subject to your arbitration obligation, and to the extent required by the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, you may bring an action in Maryland.

4. The “Summary” section of Item 17(w), titled Choice of law, is amended to read as follows:

New Jersey law generally applies, except for Federal Arbitration Act, other federal law, and claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

5. The following paragraphs are added to the end of Item 17:

You must bring any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA

1. The following sentence is added to the “Remarks” column of the “Interest on Late Payments” line-item in Item 6:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, we will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges.

2. The following paragraph is added to the end of Item 13:

MH will indemnify you against and reimburse you for all damages for which you are held liable in any proceeding arising out of your use of any Mark pursuant to and in compliance with the Agreement, and for all costs you reasonably incur in defending any such claim brought against you or in any such proceeding in which you are named as a party, provided that you have timely notified MH of such claim or proceeding and have otherwise complied with the Agreement.

3. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend, and Item 17(m), titled Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer by franchisee:

Any release required as a condition of renewal and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to the extent prohibited by the Minnesota Franchises Law.

4. The following paragraphs are added to the end of Item 17:

For franchises governed by the Minnesota Franchises Law, MH will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4, and 5 which require, except in certain specified cases, that you be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days’ notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J) prohibit MH from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring you to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document or agreements can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction. However, MH and you will enforce these provisions in the Agreement to the extent the law allows.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.
