What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The regional development agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The regional development agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the regional development agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your regional development agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The regional development agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your regional development agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addend (if any).

See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risk(s) to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Regional Development Agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation at a location chosen by the mediator or litigation only in Minnesota. Out-of-state mediation and litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate at a location chosen by the mediator, or litigate with the franchisor in Minnesota than in your own state.
2. Short Operating History. This franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise with a longer operating history.
3. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your spouse and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
4. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected on its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support you.
5. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty, advertising, and other payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

NOTICE MANDATED BY SECTION 8 OF MICHIGAN'S FRANCHISE INVESTMENT ACT

The following is applicable to you if you are a Michigan resident or your franchise will be located in Michigan.

The state of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

- (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
 - (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.
- (h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).
- (i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

If the franchisee has any questions regarding this notice, those questions should be directed to the Michigan Department of Attorney General, Corporate Oversight Division, Attn.: Franchise, 525 West Ottawa Street, G. Mennen Williams Building, 5th Floor, Lansing, Michigan 48913, telephone: (517) 335-7567.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document “Pet Evolution,” “we,” “us,” “our” or the “Franchisor”, means Pet Evolution Franchising LLC. “You”, “your” or the “Developer or Regional Developer” means the person, corporation, partnership or other business entity that buys the franchise. If you are a corporation, partnership or other entity, these terms also include your owners who must sign a personal guaranty agreeing to comply with all provisions of the Regional Development Agreement.

The Franchisor

We are a Delaware limited liability company formed on January 4, 2021. Our principal business address is 330 Mill Bay South Suite 2101A, Afton, Minnesota 55001. We do business only under our company name, “Pet Evolution” and “Pet Evolution Franchising”. We have never operated a Pet Evolution regional development business. We have not and do not conduct business in any other line of business, nor have we offered nor do we offer franchises in any other line of business except for the unit franchises discussed below. We have no parent companies.

Our agents for service of process are disclosed on Exhibit B.

The Business

In January 2021 we began offering two types of franchises, unit franchises and regional development franchises. The unit franchise is offered under a separate disclosure document. Unit franchisees are granted the right to establish, develop and operate a pet supply store that offers high quality pet food and other pet products. These stores also offer pet grooming services, including in-store nail trimming services, delivery of products to customers, and mobile nail trimming, which is optional. These stores also provide in-store self-service dog washing stations for customers to wash their dogs. These stores are operated under the Pet Evolution® trademark and logo and other trademarks, trade names, service marks and commercial symbols we may authorize (the “Marks”). These stores are referred to in this Disclosure Document as “Stores” or as a “Store”. As of December 31, 2025, there were 20 franchised Stores open.

Regional development franchisees (also known as area representatives) are granted the right to refer prospective Pet Evolution unit franchise owners to us to determine their qualifications and suitability to become a Pet Evolution unit franchisee. The proposed unit franchisees’ Stores must be located in the territory that we grant to the regional development franchisee. We refer to this territory as the “Development Territory.” Sometimes we refer to these regional development franchisees as “regional developers”. A potential regional developer must meet all of our qualifications including that the prospect is opening at least one Pet Evolution Store or has other experience we deem appropriate. We sign all Franchise Agreements with Pet Evolution unit franchise owners. The regional developer must also provide certain support to our franchise owners within the Development Territory, including, to provide assistance with continuing training, supervision, advice and guidance with respect to operations, business procedures and compliance with any regulation, requirement standard or policy of the Pet Evolution unit franchise system. However, we do not grant regional developers any management responsibility relating to the training, sale or operation of franchises.

You must sign our standard regional development agreement if we grant you a Pet Evolution regional development franchise (“Regional Development Agreement”). When you sign that Regional Development Agreement we will negotiate with you the size of the Development Territory, the number of licenses to be granted for Stores to be opened in the Development Territory and the timeframe within which these Stores must be open and operating. At this time, you must also sign a Franchise Agreement for the operation of a Store. This Store must be located in your Development Territory. If it is owned by an entity, you must own at least 25% of that entity. We will waive the initial franchise fee for this Store but you must pay all other fees under that Franchise Agreement. This Store will count against the Store development requirements under your Regional Development Agreement. If you would like to open additional Stores you must sign a Franchise Agreement for each Store and pay the initial franchise fee and all other fees due and payable under the Franchise Agreement. If we are offering a multi-unit discount at the time you decide to purchase additional licenses for additional Stores we will provide you with the benefits of that discount for those additional Stores. These Stores will also count against the Store development requirements under your Regional Development Agreement.

We are looking for regional developers who have either owned a business, have experience in franchising or have prior management experience.

Predecessors and Affiliates

Recognizing a need for high quality pet foods the Pet Evolution co-founders teamed together to create the Pet Evolution concept in 2010. Working together over the next two years they opened their first location in February 2012 in Woodbury, Minnesota. This location was originally strictly a retail pet food store. In 2015 this location began providing pet grooming services along with self-service dog washing stations. Seeing a need in the market, the co-founders opened a second Pet Evolution in November 2018. This store is located in Arden Hills, Minnesota. Each of these locations are operated under the Pet Evolution name.

The Woodbury, Minnesota and Arden Hills, Minnesota locations are owned by Pet Evolution, LLC. Pet Evolution, LLC is owned in part by one of our owners, who is also a co-founder of the Pet Evolution concept. As Pet Evolution, LLC transferred all of its intellectual property to us, including the Pet Evolution trademark, in February 2021, it would be considered a predecessor of ours. Pet Evolution, LLC was incorporated in August 2011 as Tails & Pales, LLC and changed its name to Pet Evolution, LLC in October 2011. The principal business address of Pet Evolution, LLC is 429 Commerce Drive, Suite 500, Woodbury, Minnesota 55125. It has never offered franchises in any line of business.

Our affiliate Cloud Evo LLC, also operates a Pet Evolution store located in St. Cloud, Minnesota. Cloud Evo LLC purchased this Store from a franchisee in September, 2024. The principal business address of Cloud Evo LLC is the same as our address. It has never offered franchises in any line of business. Our affiliate, Fetchin Brands LLC, will sell dog treats, shampoo and conditioner, and other items to our unit franchisees. Its principal address is the same as our address. It has never operated a business of the type being franchised nor has it ever offered franchises in any line of business. Elevate Premium Dog Tubs, L.L.C. will sell dog washing tubs to you for use in the Stores of unit franchisees. This entity may be considered an affiliate of ours. Its principal business address is 429 Commerce Drive Suite 500, Woodbury, Minnesota 55125. It has never operated a business of the type being franchised nor has it ever offered franchises in any line of business.

Market and Competition

You will offer your services to those interested in purchasing a Pet Evolution unit franchise. The sales are not seasonal. As a regional developer looking for qualified unit franchisees, you will likely face competition from other franchisors attempting to sell franchises as well as brokers and other third parties brokering franchise sales. The franchise market is generally well developed.

Industry Specific Regulations

As you will be involved in the sale of franchises you will need to comply with all applicable franchise laws regulating the offer and sale of franchises along with those state laws that regulate the activities of franchise brokers and those that require registration. Your business will also be subject to national, state and local regulations that apply to all businesses, such as the Americans With Disabilities Act, wage and hour laws, occupational health and safety, equal employment opportunity, tax laws, and business licensing requirements.

ITEM 3 LITIGATION

Deepak Goyal (“Goyal”), Ameeta Raul Goyal, Fufu & Tommy, LLC et al (“Initial Plaintiffs”) v. Pet Evolution Franchising, LLC and DOES 1-50 (Superior Court of the State of California, Orange County), Case No. 30-2024-01437355-CU-BC-CJC, filed October 31, 2024 (“Initial Complaint”); AGDG Investments LLC and Fufu & Tommy LLC (“Plaintiffs”) v. Pet Evolution Franchising, LLC, Peter Carlson; Fred Macciocchi; Rian Thiele; and DOES 1-50 (“Defendants”) (Superior Court of the State of California, Orange County), Case No. 30-2024-01437355-CU-BC-CJC, filed March 26, 2025 (“First Amended Complaint”).

The Initial Complaint was filed on October 31, 2024. Initial Plaintiffs, however, never served the Initial Complaint on us, but Goyal instead engaged in a formal mediation with us on November 5, 2024, without disclosing to us the Initial Complaint. The First Amended Complaint, dated March 25, 2025, was served on certain Defendants on or about March 29, 2025. Plaintiffs, as former franchisees, allege that Defendants made certain misrepresentations and omissions in the offer and sale of a unit and regional development franchise regarding sales volume and earnings, the required investments, and other aspects of Pet Evolution’s business in violation of the California Franchise Investment Law and common law fraud, breach of contract and unfair competition. Plaintiffs are requesting damages, including punitive and exemplary damages, in an unspecified amount, rescission of the unit and regional development agreements and ancillary damages, including return of all amounts paid by Plaintiffs to us, attorneys fees and costs. Defendants have denied all of Plaintiffs’ allegations. On September 8, 2025, Defendants filed an Answer and Counterclaim responding to Plaintiffs’ allegations and asserting breach of the Unit Franchise Agreement and Personal Guaranty and breach of the Regional Development Agreement and Personal Guaranty against Plaintiffs. The parties are conducting discovery. The trial date is set for October 16, 2026.

Other than this action, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 4 BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

ITEM 5 INITIAL FEES

You must pay us an initial franchise fee determined by multiplying $13,000 by the number of franchise licenses that we agree will be granted in your Development Territory (the “Initial Fee”). This number will be at least 6 licenses ($78,000 Initial Fee) but the exact number will depend upon the size of your Development Territory. The maximum number of licenses purchased will not usually be more than 50 ($650,000 Initial Fee). You must pay this fee in a lump sum when you sign the Regional Development Agreement. This fee is fully earned when paid and is nonrefundable.

We did not sell a franchise for a Pet Evolution regional development business in 2025.

General Information

All fees are paid to us and are non-refundable. Other than the Initial Fee, the total amount of which will vary based upon the number of licenses in a Development Territory, all fees are uniform for all regional developers. You must pay fees and other amounts due to us or our affiliates via electronic funds transfer/direct debit or other similar means. You must comply with our procedures and perform all acts and deliver and sign all documents, including authorization (in the form attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit G or other form that we may require) for direct debits from your business bank operating account. Under this procedure you authorize us to initiate debit entries and/or credit correction entries to a designated checking or savings account for payments of fees and other amounts payable to us and any interest that may be owing. You will make the funds available to us for withdrawal by electronic transfer no later than the payment due date. If that day is not a business day, the payment due date will be the next immediate business day.

We can change any fees, charges or other amounts we or our affiliates charge to you on 30 days' notice to you. However, we will not raise the Technology Fee, Additional Attendee Fee, New Store Training

Fee, Operational Training Fee, Convention Fee or Item/Supplier Review Fee, more than once per calendar year, and we will not increase any of these fees or charges by more than 20% of the amount of the then-current fee or charge, except as disclosed below. Adjustments are compounded annually and cumulative including increases in any given year of greater than 20% to adjust for prior years when no increase, or an increase of less than 20%, was implemented. The limitations discussed above do not apply to any fee or other amount that is not specifically listed above. This would also include any “optional” fee (a fee or other amount charged by us or an affiliate for a service or product that you are not required to purchase under your Regional Development Agreement), fees, charges or other amounts that we or our affiliates are collecting on behalf of a third-party supplier or where we are passing through amounts charged to us by third party suppliers or where we are responsible for collecting amounts charged by suppliers to the franchisees, and situations where we have contracted with a third party supplier for a service that we are providing to our franchisees, and we are only passing along the costs charged to us by that third party supplier for the service. The limitations above only apply to Franchise Agreements signed in connection with this Disclosure Document. All limitations expire or otherwise terminate on the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement.

Notes:

- (1) If your state, or any governmental body in your state, charges a tax on any fee you owe to us or to our affiliates, then you must pay an additional amount equal to the amount of this tax. This does not apply to any federal or Minnesota income taxes we or our affiliates have to pay.
- (2) This fee partially covers our provision to you of an intranet you may access and use, an email address and electronic reporting. You do not begin to pay this Fee until the first Store opens in your Development Territory.

We will observe the third new Store training, which you will perform alone, and we will provide you feedback on your performance, at no additional charge.

For more information as to your initial investment, see Item 7.

Notes:

- (1) None of these payments are refundable.
- (2) The low estimate is for the purchase of 6 licenses and the high estimate is for the purchase of 50 licenses. The Initial Fee is determined by multiplying $13,000 by the number of licenses we agree to grant in your Development Territory. See Item 5 for more information.
- (3) The low estimate assumes you already own a vehicle that meets our specifications and will not incur additional debt for that vehicle. The high estimate assumes you purchase a vehicle meeting our specifications and pay for it in full at the time of purchase.
- (4) The low estimate assumes you will operate your regional development business out of your home office and make no improvements. The high estimate assumes you will operate it from leased space and make very limited capital improvements to that space. If you lease office space, we have assumed that you will not be leasing more than 500 square feet of space and you would incur the costs described above in the high range for a security deposit for that space.
- (5) You must purchase general office supplies including a computer and software, business cards and other typical office equipment. You will also need a smart phone. If you already have equipment that meets our standards, you will not have to purchase many of the items we require and the low range assumes that you have most of these items. The high range assumes you purchase these items along with a computer for use in your business.

- (6) The low estimate assumes the training is held virtually. The high estimate assumes it is held virtually but 3 people attend the training and none of those people incur any expenses to attend other than the payment of the training fee for one person.
- (7) You must spend at least $1,500 per month on marketing that we approve for franchise prospects in your Development Territory. These estimates assume 3 months of marketing at the $1,500 minimum. We have also included in these estimates the marketing collateral package you must purchase for use at the Stores in your Territory. The low estimate assumes one package and the high estimate assumes two packages.
- (8) You must carry the types and amounts of insurance we specify. We currently require you to carry commercial general liability insurance ($1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate), commercial automobile liability insurance ($1,000,000 per occurrence), professional liability (errors and omissions) ($1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate) and workers compensation and employer's liability insurance, in the amounts required by applicable law. This estimate is for the initial deposit for these insurance coverages.
- (9) This amount includes estimated operating expenses you should expect to incur during the first 3 months of operation, which includes utility costs, permits, and insurance premiums. The high amount includes rent for a 500 square foot office at $20 per square foot. The amounts exclude any revenue generated by your business, taxes, and compensation for your employees as compensation depends on the region of the country your Store is in as well as the location of your Store in that region. In determining these amounts we relied on the experience of certain of our owners in operating other regional development businesses. We have not opened or operated a Pet Evolution regional development business.
- (10) This is only an estimate of your initial investment and is based on our estimate of costs and market conditions prevailing as of the date of this Franchise Disclosure Document. You must bear any deviation or escalation in costs from the estimates that we have given. We do not offer financing for any part of the initial investment. The availability and terms of financing will depend on factors like the availability of financing generally, your credit worthiness, your relationship with local banks, your business experience, and any additional collateral you may offer to a lender to secure the loan. Our estimates do not include any finance charges, interest or debt service obligations nor any amounts for the opening of your initial Pet Evolution Store. Please see the Pet Evolution unit Franchise Disclosure Document for information related to the costs to develop and open a Pet Evolution Store.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

All computer hardware and software, vehicles, and insurance that you use in your regional development business must meet our standards and specifications. Our standards may regulate, among other things, the types, models and brands of business materials and operating assets. We will issue the specifications to you before you begin operating. We may include these specifications in the manual that we provide to you either hard copy or on-line, or we may issue them separately. We may modify these standards at any time and will provide you with notice of the modification. You must obtain our prior approval to the use of any advertising materials you wish to use, and before establishing or having established any website, web page, social media and/or social networking site, profile, account, or hashtag relating to or making reference to us, your regional development business, or the Pet Evolution franchise system.

Your insurance must meet our specifications, including type, amount, minimum deductibles, insurance carrier rating, additional insured designations and subrogation waivers. You must carry the types and amounts of insurance we specify. We currently require you to carry commercial general liability insurance ($1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate), commercial automobile liability insurance ($1,000,000 per occurrence), professional liability (errors and omissions) ($1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate) and workers compensation and employer's liability insurance, in the amounts required by applicable law. See Item 7 for additional information.

You can expect that the items you purchase to meet our specifications will represent approximately 10% of the total purchases you will make to begin operations. Once you begin operating, we expect the items you purchase that meet our specifications will represent between 5% and 10% of your total annual expenses.

You must purchase most of the equipment, office and otherwise, technology systems, and supplies, for your regional development business from suppliers we approve, in which case we will provide you with a list of approved suppliers. These suppliers may pay rebates to us. There are no caps or limitations on the amount of rebates we may receive from suppliers as a result of developer purchases. They may also provide us and our affiliates with credits on purchases we and our affiliates make from them based on the volume of purchases our regional development franchisees make from them. In 2025, we received $52,907 from required purchases or leases by our regional development franchisees which amount was approximately 1.4% of our total revenue of $3,736,256. This information was taken from our internal financial records and our audited financial statements.

If you want to purchase items for your business that differ from our specifications, or from an unapproved supplier, you must notify us in writing. We currently charge a fee of $500 for our consideration of each unapproved item or supplier you submit to us in writing for review. If we request, you must submit samples and other information we require for testing or to otherwise determine whether the product, material, or supply and supplier meets our specifications and quality standards.

Although we do not make available the criteria we review when approving unapproved items or suppliers, we consider various factors including whether the product or service is consistent with our concept and brand; how the supplier and/or their products or services would enhance our brand; if the product or service is already available through other sources, would approval of another vendor enhance competition or dilute our ability to maximize pricing benefits for our developers or unit franchisees; and is the product of a commercial quality with a proven record of durability. We will generally notify you and the supplier of our approval or disapproval within 60-days of our receipt of all the information and samples we request. If we revoke approval of any supplier or any item offered by a supplier, we will send you written notice of our revocation of an approved supplier or item.

We may require you to purchase items or services from a single supplier and that supplier may be us or our affiliates. For example, if we enter into a relationship with one or more brokers or other referral networks you must cooperate with that network and accept any prospect leads generated by that network and you may be prohibited from working with other broker or referral networks. You must purchase a marketing collateral package from our sole approved supplier of this item. Although we do not currently, we or our affiliates may in the future sell you products or services. If we or our affiliates do, we and our affiliates intend to make a profit on any products or services they or we sell to you.

We do not have any purchasing or distribution cooperatives as of the date of this Disclosure Document. We may negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers and distributors of approved products for the benefit of our developers. We do not provide material benefits, such as renewing or granting additional franchises to developers, based on their use of designated or approved suppliers and distributors.

Our officers do not own any interest in any of our suppliers to the regional development franchise system.

ITEM 11 FRANCHISOR’S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open your regional development business, we will:

- (1) Designate a territory which we refer to as your “Development Territory” in which you may refer us prospective unit franchise owners to open Stores in this territory for our determination of their qualifications and suitability to become a unit Pet Evolution franchisee. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 1(a)).
- (2) Provide the Initial Training Program to you in the promotion of Pet Evolution unit franchises. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(a)).
- (3) Loan you a copy of our manual that contains various information including mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and procedures. We may modify any manual periodically in our discretion. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(a)). As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the Regional Development Manual contains 189 pages. A copy of the table of contents of the Regional Development Manual is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit C.
- (4) Provide you with a list of the approved suppliers for certain equipment and supplies for your regional development business. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(a)). We have no obligation to provide any other assistance to you to obtain equipment, signs, fixtures, opening inventory, or supplies for your regional development business and we do not deliver or install any of these items for you.

During the term of the Regional Development Agreement, we will:

- (1) Pay you one-half of the initial franchise fee and any subsequent transfer fee we collect from unit Pet Evolution franchisees referred to us that we license to operate a Store within your Development Territory even if these franchisees are you or an affiliate. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 4(b)). We do not pay you these fees on fees paid by unit franchisees opening Stores not located in your Development Territory or by those unit franchisees with Stores in your Development Territory before you became a regional developer. These fees are calculated after the payment of any fees or other amounts paid by us to brokers or other referral sources in connection with the franchise sale and are only paid on amounts we actually collect and only after we actually collect them.
- (2) Pay you a monthly “Developer Fee” equal to 40% of the royalty amount collected by us in the prior month from each unit Pet Evolution franchisee referred to us that operates a Store that is located in your Development Territory. Royalties are paid by unit franchisees on “Gross Revenues” which are defined in the Franchise Agreement for the Store located in the Development Territory of the unit franchisee. We do not pay you a Developer Fee on the royalty paid by unit franchisees on Stores not located in your Development Territory or for those unit franchisees with Stores located in your Development Territory before you became a regional developer. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 4(c)). These fees are only paid on royalty amounts we actually collect and only after we actually collect them.
- (3) Be available during normal business hours to provide you with telephone support on operating issues you confront. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(b)).
- (4) Provide you with additional training as discussed below. (Regional Development Agreement – Sections 6(o) and (p)).
- (5) Provide you with certain technology services, such as use of an intranet, an email address, and electronic reporting. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(b)).
- (6) We provide the first new Store training for the first Store opening in your Development Territory, which you will observe. We will assist you in providing the second new Store training. We will attend, monitor, and provide you feedback on the third new Store training, which you will perform alone. We provide this training and feedback without additional charge. After these first three trainings, we may decide to provide new Store training that you must pay for. See Item 6. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 3(b) and 6(g)).
- (7) Maintain appropriate registrations or permits for the Pet Evolution franchise system as required by any applicable franchise investment law or regulation, regulating the offer and sale of franchises in the Development Territory. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(e)).

Because you do not sell products or services to customers (franchisees) we do not assist you in establishing prices, such as setting minimum and/or maximum prices at which you must sell products and services.

Training

Initial Training Program

You must successfully complete the Initial Training Program to our satisfaction. The Initial Training Program must be completed by you within 60 days of signing the Regional Development Agreement. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(c)). The Initial Training Program will usually be conducted via video conferencing. This training will be held on an as needed basis as we sell regional development franchises. There is no charge to you for this training. If you fail this training we can terminate the Regional Development Agreement. If you would like more than 2 people to attend this training, including yourself, we currently charge $750 per day per additional person.

Our Initial Training Program as of the date of this Disclosure Document consists of approximately 2 days of training as follows:

INITIAL TRAINING PROGRAM

Subject	Hours of Classroom Training	Hours Of On-The-Job Training	Location
Franchise Sales/Development	6	0	Via video conference
Franchise Onboarding	3	0	Via video conference
Franchise Training	6	0	Via video conference
Administration	2	0	Via video conference
Total Training Time	17	0

The officer in charge of our Initial Training Program is Peter Carlson. Peter is our President. He is also the primary instructor for this training. Peter has been with our company since our organization in January 2021. He has been involved in franchise sales for approximately 23 years and has operated various regional development businesses since 2005. Our Regional Development Manual serves as our primary instructional material during the Initial Training Program.

The Initial Training Program and the training discussed below are for the purpose of protecting the goodwill related to the system and the Marks and not to control the day-to-day operation of your regional development business.

Additional Training

Operational Training

If you do not meet our standards and we require additional training, or we require additional training to help maintain competitiveness in the industry, or you request training that we agree to provide. (Regional Development Agreement – Sections 6(o) and (p)). Cost of this training is currently $750 per trainer per day, plus travel and living expenses of our trainers if the training is not held at our offices or via videoconferencing. If we require this training you must complete it to our satisfaction.

Advertising

You must conduct your own local marketing of your regional development business. We have no obligation to conduct marketing for our regional development franchise system. We are not obligated to spend any specific amount on advertising in your Development Territory. You must spend at least $1,500 per month on marketing that we approve for franchise prospects in your Development Territory. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(e)).

You must obtain our prior approval of all local marketing you engage in for your business and for potential unit franchisees. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(a) and (h)). Use of the Marks and other materials identifying our brand must satisfy our standards. You may not use the Marks or other materials identifying our brand on items to be sold or services to be provided without our prior written approval. You must also obtain our approval before establishing, or having established, any websites, applications, online directory, hashtags, profiles or accounts relating to us, your business, or to the Pet Evolution franchise system. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(i)). You are ultimately responsible for ensuring that your advertising complies with all applicable laws before using it. We may also impose prohibitions on you posting or blogging comments on social media about Pet Evolution stores, our franchise system or your business. “Social media” includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, X (formerly known as Twitter), Snapchat and Pinterest; professional networks, business profiles or online review or opinion sites like LinkedIn, Google Business Profile or Yelp; live-blogging tools like Twitter and Snapchat; virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools).

We can photograph and make video or digital recordings of your unit franchisee’s Pet Evolution franchise premises in your Development Territory and your unit franchisee’s employees, customers, customer pets, and other parties. We will own all photographs, videos, or other depictions of your unit franchisee’s Pet Evolution franchise premises in your Development Territory, employees, customers, customer pets, and other parties taken by you or your unit franchisee’s employees or any third parties on your behalf (“Assets”). Upon request, you must provide us with all Assets including any advertising and promotional material created by you or your unit franchisee’s employees or any third parties on your behalf that contain the Assets. We can use the Assets for any purpose. To the extent the consent of any of your unit franchisee’s employees, customers, or others is required for our use of the Assets, you must obtain these consents. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(m)). We will own all photographs, audio or visual recordings, text, images, and all other materials and items we, you, or any unit franchisee’s employees create or have created that incorporates an Asset, together with all related intellectual property rights. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(n)).

There are no advertising councils comprised of regional developers that advise us on advertising policies for the regional development system. You are not required to participate in a local or regional advertising cooperative. As a regional developer you are not required to participate in any advertising or marketing fund as we have not instituted an advertising or marketing fund for regional developers. However, as a unit franchisee you must contribute to the Pet Evolution System Brand Fund as disclosed in the unit franchise disclosure document.

Site Selection and Opening

You must locate your office in your Development Territory. Because we anticipate that most developers will work from their home offices, we do not provide you with any site selection assistance or any assistance regarding the construction, remodeling, furnishing or decoration of your office or conforming the premises to local ordinances or building codes or obtaining any required permits. We do not negotiate the purchase or lease of a site for you, plus we do not own premises and lease them to you. The site you select must meet our criteria. Currently, our criteria includes that the site be located in your Development Territory. We have 30 days from the date of submission to approve or disapprove your site. We can terminate the Regional Development Agreement if we do not approve a site for your business within 30 days of the date you sign the Regional Development Agreement. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(b)).

You may not open your business for business until: (1) we approve the business as having been developed according to our specifications and standards; (2) pre-opening training has been completed to our satisfaction; (3) the Initial Fee, and all other amounts then due to us have been paid; and (4) we have been furnished with copies of all required insurance policies, or other evidence of insurance coverage and payment of premiums as we request. (Regional Development Agreement – Section 6(c)). You must open your business within 60 days of the date you sign the Regional Development Agreement. If you do not, we can terminate your Regional Development Agreement.

We estimate that the typical length of time between signing the Regional Development Agreement and opening of your business will be approximately 30 days. Some factors that may affect this timing are whether you will be operating from an existing office, and when you are able to complete the Initial Training Program.

Computer System

Computer Hardware and Software

If you do not already have a computer with Internet access and email capabilities, you must purchase a computer with this functionality. Your computer will be used in your business to correspond with us, unit franchisees in your Development Territory and for general word processing. You will store correspondence and other documents you create in your computer system. You must maintain on your computer the most current version of Microsoft Office. We estimate the cost to maintain the license is approximately $180 per year. We estimate the total cost for the computer hardware and software to be approximately $2,000. You must also pay us a Technology Fee, which is currently $750 per month. See Items 6 and 7 for more information.

Ongoing Maintenance and Use

We are not obligated to provide you with ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates to the computer hardware or software discussed above. Although most new computer hardware comes with a limited warranty, we are not aware of any third parties with an obligation to repair, update, upgrade or maintain these items. You must upgrade or update your technology during the term of the franchise, and there are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of the obligation.

You must have access to the Internet and maintain an email account that allows us to communicate with you on a regular basis. We cannot independently access your computer system for your regional development business. You must protect yourself from viruses, computer hackers, and other communications and computer-related problems.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other Pet Evolution franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive businesses that we control.

At the time you sign your Regional Development Agreement we will grant you a territory. We refer to this territory as the “Development Territory” and we describe it in an exhibit to your Regional Development Agreement. Your Development Territory will generally be an entire state or county. However, the exact size will depend upon the number of licenses for Stores to be granted in the area. Generally speaking, we will not grant a Development Territory that will have less than 6 licenses in it nor more than 50. We will allow you to relocate your office for your regional development business so long as it continues to be in your Development Territory and meets our other then-current requirements for an office location.

As long as you are in compliance with your Regional Development Agreement and you and your affiliates are in compliance with any other agreement with us or our affiliates, we will not grant anyone else the right to refer prospects to us for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise for the operation of a Store to be located in the Development Territory. Other than this limitation there are no other prohibitions on us in your Development Territory. For example, because Stores are not prohibited from providing delivery services or mobile nail trimming services outside of the territory granted to them under their Franchise Agreement, these Stores may provide these services in your Development Territory.

As a further example, we can operate or allow others to operate similar or identical businesses within the Development Territory even if such businesses operate under our Marks so long as the businesses do not have the right to refer prospects to us for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise for the operation of a Store to be located in the Development Territory. We can also operate or allow others to operate similar or identical business within your Development Territory if these businesses do not operate under the Pet Evolution name, or outside of your Development Territory under any trademarks, including the Marks, but if they are operated under the Pet Evolution name, then only so long as the businesses do not have the right to right to refer prospects to us for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise for the operation of a Store to be located in your Development Territory. We can also operate or allow others to operate businesses that are physically located inside the Development Territory under the Marks so long as the businesses are not competitive with your business. We can sell any products we or our affiliates provide to you or a Store to any person, whether in or outside your Development Territory. We can sell or grant third parties the right to sell goods or services competitive with those sold by your business under the Marks or otherwise through other distribution channels including the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, inside and out of your Development Territory. We can acquire businesses in the Development Territory that are similar to your business or sell our business whether through a sale of assets or stock to anyone, regardless whether they operate or franchise the operation of businesses similar to your business or a Store.

We cannot unilaterally change your Development Territory, and there are no minimum quotas required other than compliance with the development obligations in your Regional Development Agreement. If you are in compliance with your Regional Development Agreement, and any other agreements you or your affiliates may have with us or our affiliates, you will retain the rights described above. You will not receive any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. We will not pay you any compensation for soliciting or accepting orders in your Development Territory. You do not have the right to change your Development Territory.

We do not place any restrictions on you from soliciting prospects located outside of your Development Territory, except that all prospects must open Stores physically located in your Development Territory. In fact, aggressive regional developers may be soliciting prospects located in your Development Territory to open Stores to be located outside of your Development Territory.

Although you can solicit prospects outside of your Development Territory you cannot solicit these prospects via the Internet, telemarketing or other direct marketing efforts unless we approve of those efforts. In any event, all of your advertising must be approved by us, and you must obtain our written approval before you establish any website, web page, or social networking or social media site, profile, account or hashtag, or application, web-based or otherwise, relating to or making reference to us, any Store or any Pet Evolution franchise system.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

The Regional Development Agreement gives you the right to operate a regional development business under the trade names, trademarks and service marks that we establish. The following principal marks have been registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”):

Mark	Registration Date	Registration Number
	March 22, 2016	4,921,005
	September 5, 2023	7,154,680
	September 5, 2023	7,154,681

The Pet Evolution word mark along with the certain other intellectual property, was transferred to us in February 2021 by our predecessor Pet Evolution, LLC.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the trademark administrator of any state or any court, any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or any pending material litigation involving any of the Marks which are relevant to the use of these Marks. No currently effective litigation affects our use or rights in any of these Marks. No currently effective agreement limits our right to use or license the use of these Marks. All affidavits required to preserve and renew the principal mark disclosed above have been or will be filed. We do not know of any infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks.

You must follow our standards when you use the Marks. You may not use any of the Marks alone or with modifying words, designs or symbols as part of a corporate or business name or in any form on the Internet, including online directories, URLs, domain names, hash tags, e-mail addresses, locators, links, metatags or search techniques nor with any applications, web-based or otherwise. You may not use any of the Marks for the sale of any unauthorized product or service or in a manner we have not authorized in writing.

We will protect and maintain all rights to use the Marks against encroachment, misuse or unauthorized use and against all challenges to any rights of use, as we deem appropriate. You must notify us immediately when you learn about an infringement of or challenge to your use of these Marks. We may take the action necessary, in our sole discretion, to prevent the unauthorized use of the Marks, including bringing actions against third parties regarding the use of any of the Marks, but the Regional Development Agreement does not require us to take any specific affirmative action. We will control any administrative proceedings or litigation involving the Marks. You must cooperate with us and take all actions we require to carry out the defense or prosecution. We are not required to defend you against a claim based on your use of the Marks, we will either do so, or we will reimburse you for your liability as long as you properly use the Marks, including against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the Marks.

We may change the Marks and require you to adopt new marks as if they were part of the Regional Development Agreement at the time you sign it. You must comply with these changes immediately after we notify you that we have discontinued, modified or changed one or more of the Marks. We will have no liability or obligation because of the discontinuation, modification or change. You must not directly or indirectly contest the validity of the Marks or our right to use or license the Marks, trade secrets, confidential information or business techniques that are part of the Pet Evolution franchise system. You must use the designations of ®, ™, and SM in advertising and promotions using the Marks, as we designate.

EXHIBIT A

STATE SPECIFIC ADDENDA TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

STATE SPECIFIC ADDENDUM
AS
THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of California:

This California Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of California or if your business will be located in California.

1. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

3. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California developers until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and the regional development business opens.

4. Section 31125 of the California Corporations Code requires us to give you a disclosure document approved by the Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation before we ask you to consider a material modification of your Regional Development Agreement. We have or will comply with all of the requirements under California Corporations Code, Section 31109.1, with respect to negotiated sales.

5. Item 3 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is supplemented by the additional paragraph:

“Neither Pet Evolution Franchising LLC nor any person described in Item 2 of the FDD is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq. suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.”

6. Item 17 of the FDD is amended by the insertion of the following:

“The California Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Section 20000 through 20043), provides franchisees with additional rights concerning transfer, termination and non-renewal of the Regional Development Agreement and certain provisions of the Regional Development Agreement relating to transfer, termination and non-renewal may be superseded by the Act. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Regional Development Agreement and your relationship with us, including the areas of transfer, termination and renewal of your franchise. If the Regional Development Agreement is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Regional Development Agreement requires Regional Developer to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the Regional Development Agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).”

7. The Regional Development Agreement requires application of the laws and forum of Minnesota. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

8. The provision in the Regional Development Agreement which terminates the franchise upon the bankruptcy may not be enforceable under Title 11, United States Code, Section 101.

9. The highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by an franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

11. Any document or portion thereof that serves to disclaim the franchisor’s representations, have the effect of waiving the franchisee’s claims under the Franchise Investment Law, shall not be applicable to California residents.

12. The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

Each provision of this addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the California Franchise Investment Law are met independently without reference to this addendum.

AS
THE ILLINOIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE ACT OF 1987

Illinois law governs the Regional Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a regional development agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a regional development agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Payment of the Initial Fee will be deferred until Franchisor has satisfied its pre-opening obligations to Developer, and Developer has commenced doing business. The Illinois Attorney General's Office imposed this deferral requirement due to Franchisor's financial condition.

AS
THE MARYLAND FRANCHISE REGISTRATION AND DISCLOSURE LAW

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all Pet Evolution franchises sold to residents in the state of Maryland:

This Maryland Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Maryland or if your business will be located in Maryland.

1. Based upon the Franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required a financial assurance. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the Franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the Development Agreement and the regional development business opens.

2. Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is amended as follows:

"Termination for bankruptcy filing may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq.)."

3. Items 17(c) and 17(m) are revised to provide that, under COMAR 02.02.08.16L, the general release required as a condition to renewal, sale or consent to assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

4. Item 17(v) and (w) are modified by the insertion of the following:

"Any Franchisee may sue in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law."

5. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three years after the grant of the franchise.

6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Each provision of this Addendum to the FDD shall be effective only to the extent that, with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

AS
THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE LAW

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede any inconsistent provisions and apply to all Pet Evolution franchises offered and sold in the state of Minnesota:

This Minnesota Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Minnesota or if your business will be located in Minnesota.

1. THESE FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT. REGISTRATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE OF MINNESOTA OR A FINDING BY THE COMMISSIONER THAT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HEREIN IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING.

2. THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE ACT MAKES IT UNLAWFUL TO OFFER OR SELL ANY FRANCHISE IN THIS STATE WHICH IS SUBJECT TO REGISTRATION WITHOUT FIRST PROVIDING TO THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE, AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION BY THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE OF ANY BINDING FRANCHISE OR OTHER AGREEMENT, OR AT LEAST 7 DAYS PRIOR TO THE PAYMENT OF ANY CONSIDERATION, BY THE FRANCHISEE, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, A COPY OF THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT, TOGETHER WITH A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE FRANCHISE. THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT CONTAINS A SUMMARY ONLY OF CERTAIN MATERIAL PROVISIONS OF THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT. THE CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT SHOULD BE REFERRED TO FOR AN UNDERSTANDING OF ALL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF BOTH THE FRANCHISOR AND THE FRANCHISEE.

3. Based upon the Franchisor's financial condition, the Minnesota Department of Commerce has required a financial assurance. Therefore, the Initial Fee owed by Developer shall be deferred until the regional development business opens.

4. Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

5. We will comply with Minn. Stat. Section 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4 and 5, which require, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

6. Any limitations of claims must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5.

7. Item 13 is revised to include the following language:

"To the extent required by the Minnesota Franchise Act, we will protect your rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logo types or other commercial symbols related to the trademarks or indemnify you from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the trademarks, provided you are using the names and marks in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.”

8. Item 17(c) and 17(m) are revised to provide that we cannot require you to sign a release of claims under the Minnesota Franchise Act as a condition to renewal or assignment.

9. We are prohibited from requiring you to assent to a release, assignment, novation or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22, provided that the foregoing shall not bar the voluntary settlement of disputes.

10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

11. NSF checks are governed by Minnesota Statute Section 604.113, which puts a limit of $30 on service charges.

Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent that, with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

AS
THE NEW YORK GENERAL BUSINESS LAW

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede any inconsistent provisions and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of New York:

This New York Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of New York or if your business will be located in New York.

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

INFORMATION COMPARING FRANCHISORS IS AVAILABLE. CALL THE STATE ADMINISTRATORS LISTED IN EXHIBIT B OR YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY FOR SERVICES OR INFORMATION. REGISTRATION OF THIS FRANCHISE BY NEW YORK STATE DOES NOT MEAN THAT NEW YORK STATE RECOMMENDS IT OR HAS VERIFIED THE INFORMATION IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. IF YOU LEARN THAT ANYTHING IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT IS UNTRUE, CONTACT THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION AND THE APPROPRIATE STATE OR PROVINCIAL AUTHORITY. THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to the franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices, or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or, within the 10 year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State, or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of Item 5:

The Initial Fee constitutes part of our general operating funds and will be used as such in our discretion.

4. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled “Requirements for you to renew or extend,” and Item 17(m), entitled “Conditions for our approval of transfer”:

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

5. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by you”:

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

6. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

7. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

8. Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

Each provision of this addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York are met independently without reference to this addendum.

AS
THE VIRGINIA RETAIL FRANCHISING ACT

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the Franchise Disclosure Document for Pet Evolution Franchising LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia shall be amended as follows:

This Virginia Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Virginia or if your business will be located in Virginia.

1. The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires the Franchisor to defer payment of the Initial Fee owed by Developer to the Franchisor until the Franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the Regional Development Agreement.

2. Item H of the chart in Item 17 is hereby amended by the addition of the following disclosure:

“Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the regional development agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchise Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.”

3. Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, all Regional Development Agreements entered into on or after July 1, 2026 shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

4. Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all Regional Development Agreements entered into on or after July 1, 2026, it is unlawful to offer or enter into a regional development agreement that restricts the right of a developer to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the regional development agreement. However, under subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act if a developer sells its development business to a third party, including the franchisor at a mutually agreed price, the post-term non-competition provision in the Regional Development Agreement shall apply.

5. The page entitled “Special Risk(s) to Consider About *This Franchise” is amended by the addition of the following language:

Estimated Initial Investment. The Franchise will be required to make an estimated initial investment ranging from $142,500 to $896,000. This amount exceeds the franchisor's stockholders' equity as of December 31, 2025, which is ($2,870,793).

6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Each provision of this addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act are met independently without reference to this addendum.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Fee Deferral. In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the franchisee has (a) received all pre-opening and initial training obligations that it is entitled to under the franchise agreement or offering circular, and (b) is open for business.
20. The page entitled “Special Risk(s) to Consider About *This Franchise” is amended by the addition of the following language:

Special Risk(s) to Consider About This Franchise

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor uses the services of one or more franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor’s current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

21. Nothing set forth in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document shall waive any liability the Franchisor may have under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder.

AS
THE WISCONSIN FAIR DEALERSHIP LAW

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Pet Evolution Disclosure Document, the following provisions shall supersede any inconsistent provisions and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of Wisconsin.

This Wisconsin Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Wisconsin or if your business will be located in Wisconsin.

“The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law applies to most franchise agreements in the state and prohibits termination, cancellation, non-renewal or substantial change in competitive circumstances of a dealership agreement without good cause. The law further provides that 90 days prior written notice of the proposed termination, etc. must be given to the dealer. The dealer has 60 days to cure the deficiency and if the deficiency is so cured the notice is void. The Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement are hereby modified to state that the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, to the extent applicable, supersedes any provision of the Franchise Agreement that is inconsistent with Wis.Stat.Ch.135, the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, § 32.06(3), Wis. Code.”

Each provision of this addendum to the Disclosure Document shall be effective only to the extent that with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law are met independently without reference to this addendum.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Pet Evolution Franchising LLC, which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of operations, changes in members' deficit, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Pet Evolution Franchising LLC, as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Pet Evolution Franchising LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Pet Evolution Franchising LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Pet Evolution Franchising LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Pet Evolution Franchising LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

PET EVOLUTION FRANCHISING LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2025, 2024 AND 2023

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business Organization

Pet Evolution Franchising LLC (the Company) was formed on January 4, 2021, as a limited liability company in the state of Delaware. The Company operates as a franchisor, offering franchises for the operation of regional development businesses and retail pet supply stores focused on pet health and wellness under the Pet Evolution trademark. At December 31, 2025, the Company had 20 franchised stores in operation and 23 signed franchise agreements with stores not yet open. At December 31, 2025, the Company also had 12 regional development businesses.

Basis of Presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Accounting Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held at highly regarded financial institutions. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. At times, deposits held with financial institutions may exceed the limits of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) of $250,000, per depositor, per financial institution. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes that the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. At the beginning of 2023, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, as amended, which modifies the measurement of expected credit losses. The Company adopted this new guidance utilizing the modified retrospective transition method. The adoption of the Standard did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements but did change how the allowance for credit losses is determined. The Company extends credit terms to customers, primarily franchisees, in the normal course of business. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial conditions and generally requires no collateral. Accounts receivable are recorded at their estimated net realizable value.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's estimate of the allowance for credit losses is based upon historical experience, its evaluation of the current status of receivables, current economic conditions, certain forward-looking information and unusual circumstances, if any. Expected credit losses are recorded through a charge to earnings and a credit to the allowance for expected credit losses based on its assessments. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off. The Company determined no allowance was necessary at December 31, 2025 and 2024 and 2023.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consist of leasehold improvements, furniture and fixtures, and computer equipment and are stated at cost. Expenditures for major additions and betterments are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the shorter of economic life or lease term using the straight-line method. Furniture and fixtures and computer equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of five years. Upon sale or retirement of property and equipment, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is reflected in operations. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, was approximately $5,132, $3,513 and $1,009, respectively.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents franchise fees received that have not been fully earned and will be recognized in future periods.

Deferred Costs

Deferred franchise costs represent an agreement to provide a commission in exchange for obtaining franchisees. These costs are recognized upon the date of opening and recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the term of the franchise agreement. The franchise agreements typically have an initial term of ten years from the date a store opens.

Advertising and Marketing

Advertising and marketing costs, which are reflected on the statements of income, are expensed as incurred and totaled $14,545, $32,008, and $64,781 for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Income Taxes

The Company is treated as a partnership for income tax purposes and does not incur income taxes. Instead, members are taxed on their share of the Company's earnings. The Company's net income or loss is allocated to the members based on their respective profit and loss percentages.

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Revenue Recognition

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, requires the recognition of revenue when promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance also contains Subtopic 340-40, Other Assets and Deferred Costs - Contracts with Customers, to require the deferral of incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer.

Upon the initial sale of a franchise, the Company is obligated to provide franchisees access to certain proprietary programs, written materials, trademarks, tools, and support associated with their franchise business. Initial franchise fees are recognized as the Company satisfies the performance obligation over the franchise term on a straight-line basis, which is generally 10 years. The unrecognized portion of initial franchising fees is recorded as deferred franchise fees. Similarly, commissions are an incremental cost of obtaining a contract under ASC 606, which are capitalized as deferred franchise costs and amortized over the term of the franchise agreement.

The Company generates revenue primarily through royalties, regional developer and franchise fees, and marketing fees.

Regional Developer Fees and Franchise Fees

The Company requires the entire nonrefundable initial regional developer fee or franchise fee to be paid upon execution of a franchise agreement, which typically has an initial term of 10 years from the date of agreement. Revenues are recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the term of the franchise agreement. The Company's services under the franchise agreement include: training of franchisees and staff, site selection, the right to use trademarks and proprietary information, and ongoing operations support. The Company does not provide formal financing to regional developers or franchisees and offers no guarantees on their behalf. The services provided by the Company are highly interrelated with the franchise license and as such are considered to represent a single performance obligation.

Regional developers and franchisees have the option to renew the franchise agreement at the end of the initial franchise term. When a regional developer or franchisee chooses to renew their agreement, a nonrefundable renewal fee is charged similar to the initial franchise fee.

Royalties Revenue

The Company collects royalties, as stipulated in the franchise agreement, currently equal to 7% of gross sales, reduced to 5% during first year of operations. Royalties are calculated as a percentage of sales over the term of the franchise agreement. The franchise agreement royalties represent sales-based royalties that are related entirely to the Company's performance obligation under the franchise agreement and are recognized as franchisee store level sales occur. Royalties are collected weekly.

PET EVOLUTION REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made the ____ day of _____, 20__, (the “Agreement Date”) by and between PET EVOLUTION FRANCHISING LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and _____ (“Developer”).

INTRODUCTION

Franchisor owns certain trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, symbols and other indicia of origin, including but not limited to, the Pet Evolution logo and such other trade names, trademarks, service marks, associated logos, and symbols as are designated in writing by Franchisor either on or after the Agreement Date (collectively the “Marks”). Franchisor and its predecessor have developed certain policies, procedures and techniques for the operation of pet supply stores focused on pet health and wellness. These stores offer high quality pet food and other pet products along with pet grooming services, including in-store nail trimming, in-store self-service dog washing stations, customer product delivery, and optional mobile nail trimming services.

Franchisor grants to qualified persons franchises to use the concepts, programs and methods of promotion developed by Franchisor and its predecessor to develop and operate Pet Evolution stores (the “Stores”) pursuant to franchise agreements between franchisor and such individuals (the “Franchise Agreements”), which may be modified by Franchisor from time to time in Franchisor’s sole discretion. Developer desires, upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, to obtain the right and obligation to act as the Franchisor’s authorized developer in actively promoting the development of Stores by franchisees (“Unit Franchisees”) within the territory specified in Exhibit “A” hereto and in providing certain services with respect to the operation of such Stores (the “Regional Development Rights”).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promise of the parties hereto, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1.) GRANT OF TERRITORY

(a) Subject to all of the terms and conditions herein, Franchisor hereby grants to Developer the right to act as Franchisor’s authorized developer solely within the territory described on Exhibit “A” which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by reference (the “Development Territory”). In consideration of the rights granted in this Agreement, Developer shall promote the sale of licenses for Stores to be physically located in the Development Territory and refer prospective Unit Franchisees to Franchisor, who shall in its sole discretion determine the qualifications and suitability of each applicant, and who shall execute all Franchise Agreements with such prospective Unit Franchisees. In addition to its right and obligation to promote the sale of license for Stores to be located in the Development Territory, Developer shall provide certain services for the Unit Franchisees within the Development Territory as set forth herein.

(b) Subject to the provisions hereof, Franchisor agrees that it shall not, during the term of this Agreement or any renewals thereof, authorize any other party to promote the sale of licenses for Stores to be physically located within the Development Territory. Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may at any time designate others as developers of the Pet Evolution regional development franchise system (the "System") to promote the sale of licenses for Stores to be located in any area other than the Development Territory. Franchisor can also operate or allow others to operate similar or identical businesses within the Development Territory even if such businesses operate under the Marks so long as the businesses do not have the right to refer prospects to Franchisor for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise for the operation of a Store to be located in the Development Territory. Franchisor can also operate or allow others to operate similar or identical business within the Development Territory if these businesses do not operate under the Pet Evolution name, or outside of the Development Territory under any trademarks, including the Marks, but if they are operated under the Pet Evolution name, then only so long as the businesses do not have the right to refer prospects to Franchisor for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise for the operation of a Store to be located in the Development Territory. Franchisor can also operate or allow others to operate businesses that are physically located inside the Development Territory under the Marks so long as the businesses are not competitive with the Developer's regional development business. Franchisor can sell any products it or its affiliates provide to Developer or a Store to any person, whether in or outside the Development Territory. Franchisor can sell or grant third parties the right to sell goods or services competitive with those sold by the regional development business under the Marks or otherwise through other distribution channels including the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, inside and out of the Development Territory. Franchisor can acquire businesses in the Development Territory that are similar to the regional development business or a Store or sell its business whether through a sale of assets or stock to anyone, regardless whether they operate or franchise the operation of businesses similar to your business or a Store.

(c) Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's grant of the Regional Development Rights herein has been made based upon Developer's obligation to open and operate at least one Store within one (1) year of the date hereof, within the Development Territory pursuant to a Franchise Agreement with Franchisor. If this Store is owned by a Business Entity, Developer must own at least twenty five percent (25%) of the equity of that Business Entity. All Stores that Developer opens and operates that are located in the Development Territory shall count against the development requirements set forth in the Development Schedule. Developer recognizes and acknowledges that any Stores it opens in the future will involve a greater initial investment, including operating capital requirements, than those in the Franchise Disclosure Document provided to Developer in connection with the execution of this Agreement.

(d) Developer acknowledges and agrees that the continuation of this Agreement is subject to Developer's timely compliance with the Development Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and Developer and its affiliates compliance with all other agreements with Franchisor or its affiliates. If Developer fails to meet the Development Schedule set forth in Exhibit "A," and fails to cure such noncompliance within sixty (60) days after Franchisor's written notice thereof, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement. In such event, Developer shall forfeit its rights to receive any further fees as set forth herein.

2.) TERM

(a) This Agreement shall take effect upon its execution by all parties hereto and, unless previously terminated pursuant to Section 10 hereof, shall extend for ten (10) years from the Agreement Date.

(b) Provided Developer is not in default under this Agreement nor is Developer or any Affiliate in default under or any other agreement with Franchisor at any time during the last six (6) months from the Agreement Date, Developer may, at its option, without the payment of any initial franchise fee, renew the Regional Development Rights upon the expiration of the term for one additional term of ten (10) years in accordance with Franchisor's then current terms and conditions for granting renewal rights, which include payment of a renewal fee (as determined below) and execution of a general release and a new and modified agreement, with a revised form of development schedule and such additional terms as Franchisor may reasonably require. Developer shall exercise its option to renew by giving Franchisor written notice of Developer's election to renew not less than one hundred eighty (180) days before the expiration of this Agreement. The renewal fee referenced above is determined by multiplying One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) by the number of Stores open and operating in the Development Territory at the time of execution of the new development agreement referenced above, at which time the renewal fee shall be due and payable.

3.) ASSISTANCE PROVIDED BY FRANCHISOR

(a) Before Developer's commencement of business, Franchisor or its designee shall provide Developer with the following:

(i) An initial training program via video conference consisting of approximately two (2) days of training for Developer in the promotion of Pet Evolution unit franchises, including, without limitation, sales techniques and procedures and disclosure requirements (the "Initial Training Program"). The Initial Training Program will be provided without charge, for Developer and one other individual. If additional individuals would like to attend the Initial Training Program, Developer shall pay an "Additional Attendee Fee", which as of the Agreement Date is Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750) per person per day, but such amount may be modified upon notice by Franchisor as set forth in this Agreement. Developer shall attend and complete to Franchisor's satisfaction the Initial Training Program within sixty (60) days of the Agreement Date. If Developer fails to complete the Initial Training Program to Franchisor's satisfaction within such period, Franchisor may terminate the Franchise Agreement;

(ii) One (1) copy of the Regional Development Manual (as hereinafter defined), which may be amended from time to time by Franchisor in its sole discretion; and

(iii) A list of approved suppliers of various items used in the operation of the regional development business.

(b) During the term of this Agreement, Franchisor shall provide Developer with the following:

(i) Advice during normal business operating hours via telephone concerning operating problems, new techniques or operating methods, as Franchisor may deem appropriate;

(ii) Assistance as Franchisor may deem reasonably required, including advice and guidance with respect to new and improved methods of operation or business procedure developed by Franchisor, use of the Regional Development Manual, management materials, promotional materials, advertising formats and the Marks;

(iii) Subject to payment of the Technology Fee, Franchisor will provide Developer with use of an intranet, an email address and electronic reporting, provided, however, Franchisor may modify or terminate these technology services at any time. These are not the only technology or technology services Developer will need to operate its regional development business and Developer is responsible for obtaining such technology and services; and

(iv) The new Store training for the first Unit Franchisee in the Development Territory, which may be Developer or an affiliate, Franchisor will assist Developer in providing the new Store training for the second Store to be opened in the Development Territory, and Franchisor will attend, monitor, and provide Developer with feedback on the third new Store training, which Developer will perform alone, all without additional charge to Developer.

4.) FEES

(a) In addition to any other fees or amounts set forth in this Agreement, Developer shall pay Franchisor the following fees as set forth below:

(i) In consideration of the execution of this Agreement, an initial fee in an amount determined by multiplying Thirteen Thousand Dollars ($13,000) by the number of unit franchise licenses to be granted in the Development Territory (the "Initial Fee"). The Initial Fee shall be deemed fully earned and nonrefundable upon the execution hereof regardless of Developer's performance or failure to perform pursuant to the Development Schedule;

(ii) The then-current "Technology Fee" charged by Franchisor, which fee may be modified by Franchisor as set forth in this Agreement. As of the Agreement Date, the Technology Fee is Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750) per month but may be modified as set forth in this Agreement. The Technology Fee shall be due at the time and by the method specified by Franchisor.

(b) During the term of this Agreement, Franchisor shall pay Developer the following:

(i) Fifty percent (50%) of the initial franchise fee or any transfer fee paid to Franchisor by a Unit Franchisee and licensed by Franchisor to open and operate a Store physically located within Developer's Development Territory, less amounts paid by Franchisor to brokers or other referral sources in connection with the sale of each Unit Franchise. For the avoidance of any doubt, this fee is only paid on licenses for the operation of Stores physically located in the Development Territory. Further, it is not paid on licenses granted before the Agreement Date regardless of where the Store is located; and

(ii) A fee (the "Developer Fee") each month equal to forty percent (40%) of the royalty amount collected by Franchisor in the prior month from each Unit Franchisee referred to Franchisor by Developer and licensed by Franchisor to open and operate a Store physically located within Developer's Development Territory. For the avoidance of any doubt, this obligation shall only apply to royalty payments made by a Unit Franchisee based on the gross revenues of a Store located in the Development Territory. Further, it is not paid on licenses granted before the Agreement Date regardless of where the Store is located.

(c) The fees referenced in Section 4(b) above shall be based on the applicable amounts actually collected by Franchisor under the Franchise Agreement for the Store physically located in the Development Territory. Developer shall not solicit sales for any Store to be physically located outside of the Development Territory. Franchisor shall have the discretionary right to apply all payments from Unit Franchisees in such order and to such obligations of the Unit Franchisee as Franchisor may designate from time to time. Such fees shall be paid by Franchisor within fifteen (15) days following the month Franchisor collects the total amount due to it upon which the fee is based.

(d) Developer shall remit the Technology Fees, and any other fees or other amounts due to Franchisor or its affiliates via electronic-funds transfer/direct debit or other similar means. Developer shall comply with all procedures specified by Franchisor with respect to such transfers and deliver and execute such documents as may be necessary to facilitate or accomplish payment by the method described in this Section. Developer shall authorize Franchisor to initiate debit entries and/or credit correction entries to a designated checking or savings account, as specified by Franchisor, for payments of Technology Fees and any other fees or other amounts payable to Franchisor or its affiliates under this Agreement. Developer shall make the funds available to Franchisor for withdrawal by electronic transfer/direct debit no later than 10:00 a.m. central time on the day specified by Franchisor, or if that day is not a banking business day, then by 10:00 a.m. central time on the next banking business day.

(e) Franchisor may change any fees, charges or other amounts it or its affiliates charge to Developer on thirty (30) days' notice to Developer. However, Franchisor will not raise the Technology Fee, Additional Attendee Fee, New Store Training Fee, Operational Training Fee, Convention Fee or Item/Supplier Review Fee, more than once per calendar year, and Franchisor will not increase any of these fees or charges by more than twenty percent (20%) of the amount of the then-current fee or charge, except as disclosed below. Adjustments are compounded annually and cumulative including increases in any given year of greater than 20% to adjust for prior years when no increase, or an increase of less than 20%, was implemented.

The limitations discussed above do not apply to any fee or other amount that is not specifically listed above, including, but not limited to: (i) any “optional” fee (a fee or other amount charged by Franchisor or an affiliate for a service or product that Developer is not required to purchase under this Agreement); (ii) fees, charges or other amounts that Franchisor or its affiliates are collecting on behalf of a third-party supplier or where Franchisor is passing through amounts charged to Franchisor by third party suppliers or where Franchisor is collecting amounts charged by suppliers; and (iii) those situations where Franchisor is providing a service via a third party supplier and Franchisor is only passing along the costs charged to it by that third party supplier. All limitations expire or otherwise terminate on the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

5.) LICENSED MARKS

Developer covenants and agrees with Franchisor that:

(a) Developer shall not represent in any manner that it has acquired any ownership rights in the Marks by virtue of this Agreement or its use of the Marks.

(b) Developer shall not use any of the Marks or marks which are or may be confusingly similar in its own corporate, partnership or business name.

(c) Any and all goodwill associated with the System and the unit franchise system is Franchisor’s property and shall inure directly and exclusively to the benefit of Franchisor, and no monetary amount shall be assigned as attributable to any goodwill associated with Developer’s use of the Marks upon the termination of this Agreement.

(d) Any use of the Marks other than as expressly authorized by this Agreement, without Franchisor’s prior written consent, is an infringement of Franchisor’s rights therein. Developer’s right to use the Marks granted herein does not extend beyond the termination of this Agreement.

(e) Developer must notify Franchisor immediately, in writing, of any apparent infringement of any of the Marks, or any challenge to Developer’s use of any of the Marks, or of any claim by any person of any rights in any Marks. Developer agrees not to communicate with any person other than Franchisor, its attorneys and Developer’s attorneys in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. Franchisor has the sole right to take such action as it deems appropriate. Franchisor has the right to control exclusively any dispute, litigation, or any other proceeding arising out of any such infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any of the Marks, including the right to direct any settlement of such claim. Developer will sign any and all instruments and documents, or render such assistance and do such acts and things as, in the opinion of Franchisor, may be necessary or advisable to protect and maintain Franchisor’s interests in any dispute, litigation or administrative proceeding involving the Marks or otherwise to protect and maintain Franchisor’s interests in the Marks. Developer may not at any time during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, contest the validity or ownership of any of the Marks, or assist any person in contesting the validity of ownership of any of the Marks.

(f) If it becomes advisable at any time for Franchisor to modify or discontinue the use of any Mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute marks, Developer agrees to comply, at Developer’s sole cost, with Franchisor’s directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. If the modification or discontinuance is to “Pet Evolution”, or any replacement mark therefore, the new mark shall be deemed to replace all references to “Pet Evolution”, or such replacement mark (other than with respect to the Franchisor’s corporate name, unless otherwise changed).

6.) DEVELOPER’S OBLIGATIONS

Developer acknowledges that it is essential to the preservation of the integrity of the Marks, indicia and goodwill of Franchisor that Developer maintain and adhere to the standards, procedures and policies hereinafter described, and as may be altered or amended by Franchisor from time to time in Franchisor’s sole discretion. For the purpose of enhancing the public image and reputation of the businesses operating under the Marks, Franchisor and Developer agree as follows:

(a) Developer shall have sole and direct responsibility for, and be actively and personally involved in the operation of the regional development business hereunder. Developer agrees to comply with all System rules, regulations, policies and standards which are by their terms mandatory including, without limitation, those contained in the Regional Development Manual. Developer shall operate the business licensed under this Agreement solely in the manner and pursuant to the standards prescribed herein, in the Regional Development Manual or in other written materials provided by Franchisor to Developer. Developer may only use advertising and promotional materials and programs promoting its business and the sale and operation of Pet Evolution franchises that Franchisor provides to Developer or approves in writing prior to use.

(b) Developer shall have a site for its regional development business approved by Franchisor within thirty (30) days of the Agreement Date. This site may be a home office. In any event, it must be located in Developer’s Development Territory. Franchisor will either approve or disapprove this site within a reasonable time after the date Developer provides Franchisor with all information it requests about the site.

(c) Developer shall complete to Franchisor’s satisfaction the Initial Training Program within sixty (60) days of the Agreement Date. If Developer fails to complete the training within that time, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement. Developer shall open its business for business within sixty (60) days of the Agreement Date. If Developer fails to open its business within that time, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement. Developer may not open its business until Franchisor approves the business as being developed according to Franchisor’s specification and standards, that Developer has completed the Initial Training Program, Developer has paid all amounts due to Franchisor including the Initial Fee, and Franchisor has been furnished with copies of all required insurance policies, or such other evidence of insurance and payment of premiums as Franchisor requests.

(d) Developer shall attend all conventions held by Franchisor for Unit Franchisees and shall pay all convention registration fees related thereto upon receipt of an invoice therefore even if Developer fails to attend any such conventions. Franchisor refers to this as a “Convention Fee”, which as of the Agreement Date, is Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($750) per person, but may be modified as set forth in this Agreement. However, if Developer is also a Unit Franchisee, Developer will only be required to pay one Convention Fee for any convention that Unit Franchisees are also required to attend.

(e) Developer shall actively promote the sale of licenses for the operation of Stores to be physically located in the Development Territory by Unit Franchisees. Developer shall spend at least One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500) per month on marketing that Franchisor approves soliciting Unit Franchisees seeking to open Stores in the Development Territory. Developer shall promptly provide Franchisor with such documentation as Franchisor may request from time-to-time establishing Developer's satisfaction of the marketing requirement. Developer shall also purchase a marketing collateral package from Franchisor's approved supplier at the then-current prices charged by such supplier prior to the opening the first Store in the Development Territory and use such collateral for the opening of all Stores in the Development Territory. If the marketing collateral at anytime falls into disrepair or fails to meet Franchisor's standards, Developer shall promptly purchase a new marketing collateral package from Franchisor's approved supplier and use such package for all new Store openings thereafter.

The Development Territory shall be fully developed with operating Stores in accordance with the Development Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and Franchisor's policies, standards and guidelines as set forth from time to time in the Regional Development Manual. Franchisor agrees that it shall obtain and keep in force at its own expense appropriate registrations or permits as required by any applicable present or future franchise investment law or regulation, regulating the offer and sale of Franchise Agreements in the Development Territory. Developer shall provide such assistance and information as Franchisor may request in order to adequately disclose the relationship of Developer and Franchisor in accordance with all disclosure laws and regulations relating to the sale of Franchises and shall obtain all licenses and/or registrations necessary for the offer and sale of franchises. Developer agrees to maintain and provide to Franchisor accurate written records of any and all contacts or dealings with prospective franchise owners as may be required in the Regional Development Manual and by the terms of any state or federal law or regulation affecting franchise sales or the franchise relationship as Franchisor may request.

(f) Developer shall, in such form and manner as may be specified by Franchisor, notify the public that Developer is operating the regional development business licensed hereunder as an authorized developer of Franchisor and shall identify its business location in the manner specified by Franchisor.

(g) At Franchisor's option, Developer shall act as Franchisor's developer in the Development Territory in discharging one or more of Franchisor's obligations to its franchise owners pursuant to any Franchise Agreement, including, without limitation, to provide continuing training, supervision, advice and guidance with respect to operations, business procedures and compliance with any regulation, requirement, standard or policy of the Pet Evolution unit franchise system, as may be required from time to time in the then current form of Franchise Agreement applicable to any franchise owner. Developer shall promptly respond to inquiries or complaints of Unit Franchisees within the Development Territory and provide to all Unit Franchisees within the Development Territory any supervisory and management assistance, training and support deemed reasonably necessary by Franchisor in order to assist Unit

Franchisees within the Development Territory in complying with any rule, regulation, requirement or policy of Franchisor including, without limitation, the following:

(i) Developer shall monitor, promote and be responsible for training of all Unit Franchisees in the Development Territory which may be required by Franchisor pursuant to the terms of such Franchise Agreements. However: (i) Franchisor shall perform the first new Store training in the Development Territory, which Developer shall be required to attend; (ii) Franchisor shall assist Developer in performing the second new Store training in the Development Territory; and (iii) Developer shall perform the third and all other new Store trainings in the Development Territory, subject to the following sentence. If after the first three new Store trainings as discussed above, Franchisor determines, in its sole discretion, that Developer is not qualified to perform a new Store training for a Unit Franchisee, or Developer is unable to perform a new Store training in a timely manner, Franchisor may perform such training and Developer shall pay to Franchisor the then-current “New Store Training Fee”, which as of the Agreement Date, is Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750) per trainer per day, plus travel and living expenses for all trainers. This Fee may be modified as set forth in this Agreement. Developer shall pay this Fee to Franchisor prior to the training, by such method as specified by Franchisor;

(ii) Developer shall supervise and assist Unit Franchisees in connection with evaluating and selecting locations for their stores and the development of each Store in the Development Territory to assure that each Store and its operation conforms to Franchisor’s then current specifications for Stores. Developer shall make available to Unit Franchisees in the Development Territory such training and continuing education and support in the operation of Stores as Franchisor may require from time to time. All such training shall be conducted by Developer at a location approved by Franchisor. Before the opening of each such Store, Developer shall assist the Unit Franchisee in the marketing, promotion, advertising and grand opening of the Store in the manner prescribed by Franchisor;

(iii) Developer shall assure that all Unit Franchisees within the Development Territory sell all of the products and services as Franchisor may, from time to time, require and only those Franchisor may approve and not thereafter disapprove and that are in conformity with the standards and specifications of Franchisor for the Pet Evolution unit franchise system;

(iv) Developer shall monitor and cooperate in the enforcement by Franchisor of all Franchise Agreement obligations for Unit Franchisees;

(v) Franchisor may designate Developer as Franchisor’s designee in the formation of a Regional Franchise Owner Council in the Development Territory should Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determine to establish such a council, and, in such event, shall actively participate in its affairs. At Franchisor’s request, Developer shall be responsible for planning, organizing, conducting and chairing meetings of the Regional Franchise Owner Council to be attended by Unit Franchisees with Stores in the Development Territory as required from time to time by Franchisor. Developer shall bear all expenses incurred in connection with such regional meetings; provided that the Unit Franchisees shall bear their own expenses in connection with the sending of their designees to such meetings. Developer shall keep Franchisor advised of all activities of the Council.

(h) As set forth above, Developer shall use only advertising and promotional materials and programs promoting the sale and operation of Pet Evolution franchise licenses that are provided by Franchisor or approved in advance, in writing, by Franchisor, and registered, if required, with appropriate regulatory agencies. Developer agrees to cooperate with and assist Franchisor in the implementation of such advertising programs as Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, from time to time deem necessary or desirable. Franchisor's approval of any advertising or promotional materials or programs may be withdrawn at any time, and Developer shall immediately thereafter cease the use and/or display of any materials or programs for which approval has been withdrawn, and will, at its own expense, cause the cessation of use and removal of any such items or programs from the Stores in the Development Territory.

(i) Developer shall not establish or maintain, or have established or maintained on its behalf, either alone or in concert with others, any other digital or electronic medium or method of communication, including a website, home page, HTML document, Internet site, online directory, online business profile, web page, review and opinion page or site, or social media or social networking site, business networking site, hashtag, profile, avatar, account or username, or applications, whether web-based or otherwise, in any event relating to or making reference to Franchisor, Developer's or its regional development business of the Pet Evolution franchise system (each, a "Social Media Presence"), unless otherwise approved by Franchisor. Franchisor shall have independent access to all of Developer's computer systems and Developer shall provide Franchisor with any passwords or login ability to access all such computer systems, including any software, and any Social Media Presence.

(j) Developer may not use all or part of any of the Marks, or any similar name, word, symbol, or variant thereof, in a domain name, email address, account name, username, profile, or URL (each, an "Online Identifier"). Developer shall comply with all directives from Franchisor with respect to any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier approved by Franchisor, including those related to materials posted on any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier, links to and from any Social Media Presence, the use of the Marks on any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier, provision to Franchisor of passwords and any log-in credentials needed to access, remove, delete or modify any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier, and security for any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier. In addition, any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier approved by Franchisor must be operated and maintained by Developer in compliance with all provisions of this Agreement, including those regarding the use of Confidential Information, proper use of the Marks, as well as any and all operating procedures, policies, standards and requirements that Franchisor may specify from time to time. Developer must also maintain any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier approved by Franchisor in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, including those applicable to copyright and trademark, privacy, anti-defamation, and advertising and endorsements. Franchisor reserves the right at any time, in its sole discretion, to itself, or require Developer to, remove, delete or modify any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier, or any information, content or post thereon or made thereby. Franchisor will retain sole ownership of any Social Media Presence or Online Identifier, as well as any domain name related thereto and all content thereon or created therewith, which includes all or a portion of any of the Marks, or any word, phrase or symbol confusingly similar thereto or variant thereof, as part of the domain name, username, email address, account name, hashtag, profile or URL (a “Franchisor Identified Social Media Presence”). Developer must provide Franchisor with all passwords and access to any Social Media Presence.

(k) Developer is solely responsible for protecting itself from disruptions, Internet access failures, Internet content failures, and attacks by hackers and other unauthorized intruders and Developer waives any and all claims Developer may have against Franchisor or its affiliates as the direct or indirect result of such disruptions, failures or attacks. If Developer suspects or knows of a security breach, Developer shall immediately give notice of such security breach and promptly identify and remediate the source of any compromise of security breach at its expense. Developer assumes all responsibility for providing all notices of breach or compromise, unless otherwise directed by Franchisor. Developer shall comply with all standards, laws, rules, regulations, or any equivalent thereof relating to personal information, data privacy, and data protection, including but not limited to, as applicable, the California Consumer Privacy Act, Cal. Civ. Code Section 1798.100 et seq., and must comply with any privacy policies or data protection and breach response policies Franchisor periodically may establish.

(l) In addition to the prohibitions set forth above, Developer may not offer, promote or sell any products or services or make use of any of the Marks, via any Social Media Presence without Franchisor’s prior written approval. Developer shall not establish or maintain, or have established or maintained on its behalf, a mobile application making use of any of Franchisor’s Marks or otherwise related to the Developer’s development business or the System. Developer acknowledges that Franchisor may also impose prohibitions on Developer posting or blogging of comments about Franchisor or the Pet Evolution franchise system. The foregoing prohibition includes personal blogs, personal email addresses, common social networks like Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, X (formerly known as Twitter), Snapchat and Pinterest; professional networks, business profiles or online review or opinion sites like LinkedIn, Google Business Profile or Yelp; live-blogging tools like Twitter and Snapchat; virtual worlds, metaverses, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools. Developer shall not use of any of Franchisor’s Marks in any keyword advertising, pay-per-click advertising or other search engine marketing, unless otherwise approved by Franchisor.

(m) Franchisor will have the right to photograph and make video or digital recordings and electronic records of Developer’s Unit Franchisee’s Pet Evolution franchise premises in the Development Territory and Unit Franchisee’s employees, customers, customer pets, and other parties. Developer acknowledges that Franchisor will be the exclusive owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to any photographs, videos, or other depictions of Developer’s Unit Franchisee’s Pet Evolution franchise premises, employees, customers, customer pets, and other parties taken by Developer or Unit Franchisee’s employees or any third parties on Developer’s behalf (“Assets”). Upon request, Developer shall provide Franchisor with all Assets and any derivations of such materials including any advertising and promotional material created by Developer or Unit Franchisee's employees or any third parties for use by Franchisor, Franchisor's advertising agencies, or other Pet Evolution Stores for any use of such Assets.

(n) Franchisor may reproduce, distribute, modify, and use the Assets for any purpose including, but not limited to, marketing, communications, promotions, advertising and training, and in any form or medium now existing or later developed. Franchisor will be the exclusive owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to any photographs, audio or visual recordings, electronic records, text, images, and all other materials and items Franchisor, Developer, or Unit Franchisee's employees create or have created that incorporates an Asset, together with all related intellectual property rights. Developer irrevocably transfers, sells, and assigns to Franchisor all of Developer's worldwide rights, title, and interest, in and to any all materials incorporating an Asset, including, all rights of copyright and other intellectual property rights.

(o) All information Franchisor obtains from Developer or about or related to the Developer's development business (collectively, the "Information"), and all revenues Franchisor derives from such Information, shall be Franchisor's property. Developer may use information that it acquires from third parties in operating the development business, such as customer data, at any time during the term of this Agreement to the extent lawful and at its sole risk and responsibility, but only in connection with operating the development business for the purposes hereunder. The Information (except for information Developer provides to Franchisor with respect to it and its affiliates) shall become the Confidential Information of Franchisor, which Franchisor may use for any reason it deems necessary or appropriate. Developer shall comply with all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy and security of personal information, including, without limitation, local, regional and national requirements applicable to the development business. Further, Developer recognizes and agrees that between Developer and Franchisor, Franchisor owns all rights to and all interest in and to any data, whether customer data, click-stream data, user data, reviews or otherwise, hits or other information collected via any electronic medium or method of communication, including a website, home page, HTML document, Internet site, online directory, web page, or social media or social networking site, or application, whether web-based or otherwise, related to the System or the Marks. Such information is deemed by Franchisor to be and constitutes its Confidential Information.

(p) Upon Developer's request, at reasonable times determined by the parties, Franchisor will provide additional training to Developer on topics requested by Developer and agreed to by Franchisor. Such training shall be held at a location determined by Franchisor or may be provided electronically. Franchisor shall charge its then-current Operational Training Fee for this training and such Fee shall be paid prior to the time such training begins. This Fee is only payable if the training is not held at Franchisor's offices or electronically. The then-current "Operational Training Fee" as of the Agreement Date, is Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750) per trainer per day plus travel and living expenses of Franchisor's trainers if the training is not held at Franchisor's offices or via videoconference. This Fee may be adjusted as set forth in this Agreement and shall be paid to Franchisor prior to the training by the method specified by Franchisor.

(q) If Franchisor requires additional training to attempt to maintain competitiveness in the industry or Developer fails to provide services that meet Franchisor's standards, specifications or procedures, Franchisor shall have the right to assign such person or persons that it deems necessary to provide additional training to Developer. Franchisor will charge Developer its then-current Operational Training Fee if the training is not held at Franchisor's offices or via videoconference. This Fee be due and payable prior to the training, by the method specified by Franchisor. This Fee may be adjusted as set forth in this Agreement. This training may be a mix of in-person and on-line training.

(r) Developer shall ensure that all equipment and other items it uses in connection with its development business, including its insurance, vehicle, technology, and broker or referral sources meet Franchisor's specifications. Franchisor may designate a single source of supply for any individual item, which source may be Franchisor or an affiliate. Developer shall obtain Franchisor's approval before using any supplier or item not previously approved by Franchisor. Franchisor shall have sixty (60) days from its receipt of all information requested by it to approve such supplier. Developer shall pay Franchisor its then-current "Item/Supplier Review Fee" as a condition to Franchisor undertaking any review of a new supplier or item proposed by Developer, which as of the Agreement Date, is Five Hundred Dollars ($500) per item or supplier. This Fee may be adjusted as set forth in this Agreement. It shall be paid by the method required by Franchisor. Developer understands and acknowledges that Franchisor may have relationships with various broker or referral networks and Developer shall cooperate with such networks and accept all prospect leads generated by any such network. Developer also understands and acknowledges that Franchisor's relationships with these networks may be exclusive, and Developer may be prohibited by Franchisor from working with other brokers or referral networks.

7.) REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT MANUAL

(a) In order to protect the reputation and goodwill of the System and to maintain high standards of operation under the Marks, Developer shall conduct its business in accordance with the mandatory standards, specifications and requirements contained in written instructions and operating manuals, including such amendments thereto, as Franchisor may publish from time to time (hereinafter and previously referred to as the "Regional Development Manual"), all of which Developer acknowledges belong solely to Franchisor and shall be on loan from Franchisor during the term of this Agreement. When any provision in this Agreement requires that Developer comply with any standard, specification or requirement of Franchisor, unless otherwise indicated, such standard, specification or requirement shall be such as is set forth in this Agreement or as may, from time to time, be set forth by Franchisor in the Regional Development Manual.

(b) Developer shall keep the Regional Development Manual and any other manuals, materials, goods and information created or used by Franchisor and designated for confidential use within the System and the information contained therein as confidential (the "Confidential Information") and shall limit access to employees of Developer on a need-to-know basis. Developer acknowledges that the unauthorized use or disclosure of Franchisor's Confidential Information or trade secrets will cause irreparable injury to Franchisor and that damages are not an adequate remedy. Developer accordingly covenants that it shall not at any time, without Franchisor's prior written consent, disclose, use, permit the use thereof (except as may be required by applicable law or as authorized by this Agreement), copy, duplicate, record, transmit or otherwise reproduce such information, by any means, in whole or in part, or otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person or source. Any and all information, knowledge and know-how not generally known about the System or the Pet Evolution unit franchise system, including Franchisor's products and services, standards, procedures, techniques and such other information or material as Franchisor may designate as confidential shall be included in the definition of Confidential Information hereunder.

For the avoidance of doubt, Developer may not use any Confidential Information for the purpose of machine learning, augmented human intelligence development, training any artificial intelligence ("AI") model, algorithm improvement, or similar data aggregation activities without the express written consent of Franchisor. Such uses are expressly prohibited. Developer shall not, without prior written consent by Franchisor, input any Confidential Information into any generative AI platform, or disclose such information to any provider or source of generative AI services. Developer shall opt out of allowing any provider or source of generative AI to utilize Confidential Information for training of any AI model or for other purposes.

(c) Developer understands and acknowledges that Franchisor may, from time to time, revise the contents of the Regional Development Manual to implement new or different requirements for the operation of the Developer's business and that of Unit Franchisees operating under the Pet Evolution unit franchise system. Developer expressly agrees to comply with all such changed requirements which are by their terms mandatory. To that end, because the business franchised hereunder is new and evolving there may be significant changes to the Regional Development Manual, some of which may require Developer to incur expenses that were not contemplated as of the Agreement Date. Developer hereby agrees to incur all such expenses. Franchisor may provide Developer with electronic notice of any such changes or modifications by posting them at a website of which Developer has notice or sending them electronically to Developer.

(d) Developer understands and acknowledges that Franchisor may from time to time, in an effort to further develop the System, implement new ideas, methods or strategies in the marketing and operation of Stores that may be located outside of the Development Territory, for the purpose of evaluation or otherwise, and that such implementation shall not be deemed discriminatory.

(e) Developer shall at all times insure that its copy of the Regional Development Manual is kept current and up to date and, in the event of any dispute as to the contents thereof, the master copy thereof maintained by Franchisor at its principal place of business shall be controlling.

8.) COVENANTS

(a) During the term of this Agreement, Developer, its owners and any guarantor(s) covenant, as follows:

(i) To use their full time and best efforts in recommending and promoting the sale of Pet Evolution unit franchise licenses, in operating any Store owned by Developer or any affiliate as a franchise owner and in promoting the System as well as the Pet Evolution unit franchise system;

(ii) Not to engage in any capacity, whether as operator, owner, manager, employee, consultant or otherwise, in a Competitive Business (as defined below) nor divert a prospect or potential Unit Franchisee to a competitor;

(iii) Not to have any direct or indirect interest in any entity or otherwise granting franchises or licenses to others to operate a Competitive Business nor sell or assist in the offer or sale in any manner of any other franchises or business opportunities;

(iv) To comply with all laws and regulations affecting the offer or sale of franchises and persons engaged in the sale of Pet Evolution unit franchise licenses as franchise sales agents and/or brokers;

(v) Not to make any representations, financial or otherwise, not authorized by Franchisor;

(vi) Not to accept any funds from any Unit Franchisee or any prospect for the purchase of a Pet Evolution franchise license;

(vii) To conduct sales solicitation activities strictly in accordance with standards established by Franchisor;

(viii) To not publicly disparage Franchisor, nor any affiliates, officers, directors, or employees of Franchisor, except that this requirement shall not restrict the ability of Developer to communicate with the Federal Trade Commission or any other state or federal law enforcement or regulatory body, about potential violations of the law. For purposes of this Section, “disparage” shall mean any negative statement, whether written or oral. Franchisor and Developer each agree and acknowledge that the reputation of Franchisor and the Pet Evolution System are of a unique character and value and that any disparaging remarks would cause reputational harm to Franchisor and the Pet Evolution System; and

(ix) Not to interfere with Franchisor’s business activities, or any business activities of its affiliates, regional developers or Unit Franchisees.

(b) In the event of termination of this Agreement, Developer, its owners and guarantors agree that for a period of two (2) years after the date of termination, neither Developer nor any owner or guarantor of Developer, will, directly or indirectly:

(i) operate, own, manage, be employed by, consult with or otherwise provide services to, a Competitive Business, that is located in or does business within the Development Territory, including the location of Developer’s development business, or within a 10 mile radius of the Development Territory;

(ii) operate, own, manage, be employed by, consult with or otherwise provide services to any business or other venture that is located, or is granting franchises or licenses to others to operate a Competitive Business that is located, or will be located, in the Development Territory, or within a 10 miles radius of the Development Territory; or

(iii) solicit or attempt to persuade a prospect or Unit Franchisee to do business with a party other than Franchisor or otherwise interfere with Franchisor's business activities, or any business activities of its affiliates, regional developers or Unit Franchisees.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the ownership of licenses or Stores under agreements with Franchisor, and the aggregate ownership of 5% or less of the issued and outstanding shares of any class of stock of a publicly traded company that is a Competitive Business, is not prohibited by this Section. The time period of the post-term competitive restrictions will be extended by any length of time that Developer or any of its affiliates, successors or assigns or any other party described above is in breach of any term above. The terms of this Section will continue in full force and effect through the duration of the extended time period.

For purposes of this Agreement, a "Competitive Business" is defined as any business that offers or sells pet grooming services or that offers or sells primarily pet supplies including, a business that sells primarily pet food, toys, supplements or other items intended for animals, other than a Unit Franchise operated by Developer under a valid franchise agreement with Franchisor.

(c) Developer agrees to execute agreements with all management and sales personnel of Developer that restrict the disclosure of confidential information and competition with Developer and Franchisor to the same extent as Developer is restricted by this Agreement. Developer shall be responsible for ensuring the enforceability of such agreements in conformity with the respective jurisdiction(s) in the Development Territory; provided that any deviation from the terms enumerated herein to ensure such enforceability shall be subject to the prior written approval of Franchisor. Developer shall provide Franchisor with a copy of each agreement immediately upon execution by Developer and its personnel.

(d) The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. Franchisor may unilaterally, at any time, in its sole discretion, revise any of the covenants in this Section 8 so as to reduce the obligations of Developer hereunder and Developer shall immediately comply with any covenants as modified. Should any part of these restrictions be found to be unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited or length of time, and should such part be capable of being made enforceable by reduction of any or all thereof, Developer and Franchisor agree that the same shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the law. Developer further expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Section 8.

9.) TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT

(a) Franchisor shall have the right to transfer all or any part of its rights or obligations herein to any person or entity.

(b) Developer understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to Developer, and that Franchisor has granted the Regional Development Rights in reliance on many factors, including, without limitation, the individual or collective character, skill, aptitude and business and financial capacity of Developer and Developer's owners. Accordingly, neither Developer nor any person owning any direct or indirect equity interest therein, shall, without Franchisor's prior written consent, directly or indirectly sell, assign, transfer, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber any interest in this Agreement or any portion or aspect thereof, or any equity or voting interest in Developer. Any such purported assignment occurring by operation of law or otherwise, including any assignment by a trustee in bankruptcy, without Franchisor's prior written consent, shall be a material default of this Agreement.

(c) As used in this Agreement, the term "transfer" includes the voluntary, involuntary, direct or indirect assignment, sale, or other transfer by Developer of: (a) any interest in this Agreement, in Developer or in any entity that directly or indirectly owns an interest in Developer; (b) any part or all of the ownership of the franchise granted hereby; (c) Developer's Regional Development Rights or any interest therein; or (d) Franchisor's proprietary information or materials. An assignment, sale, or other transfer also includes: (i) the transfer of ownership of capital stock or partnership interests or any other form of ownership in the regional development business hereunder; (ii) merger or consolidation, or issuance of additional securities representing an ownership interest in such business; (iii) transfer of interest in Developer or Developer's regional development business hereunder in a divorce proceeding or otherwise by operation of law; or (iv) transfer by Developer or the regional development business hereunder in the event of the disability or death of any owner of such business by will, declaration of or transfer in trust, under the laws of intestate succession or otherwise.

(d) If Developer is a corporation, limited liability company or partnership (a "Business Entity"), the owners of that Business Entity and their spouses must not only personally guarantee Developer's obligations under this Agreement but must also agree to be personally bound by, and personally liable for the breach of, every provision of this Agreement. The form of "Personal Guaranty" is attached as Exhibit "C." Franchisor requires Developer to complete a "Statement of Ownership and Management" in the form attached as Exhibit "B," which describes all of Developer's owners and their interests in the Business Entity.

(e) Developer represents that as of the Agreement Date its equity and voting control is owned as shown in the Statement of Ownership and Management. If Developer, or any approved successor thereof, is a Business Entity, Developer shall submit to Franchisor prior to any proposed transfer of an equity or voting interest, and at any other time upon request, a list of all holders of direct or indirect equity or voting interests of record reflecting their respective present and/or proposed direct or indirect interests in Developer, in such form as Franchisor may require. Developer shall pay Franchisor for all costs incurred by Franchisor in connection with the issuance of a new Statement of Ownership based upon changes to the information contained in the last Statement of Ownership provided by Developer to Franchisor, regardless of whether such changes constitute a transfer hereunder.

(f) Developer understands and acknowledges the vital importance of the performance of Developer to the market position and overall image of Franchisor. Developer also recognizes the many subjective factors that comprise the process by which Franchisor selects a suitable developer. The consent of Franchisor to a transfer by Developer of any interest in these Regional Development Rights, or any equity or voting interest in Developer or in any entity that directly or indirectly owns Developer shall remain a subjective determination and shall include, but not be limited to, the following conditions:

(i) The proposed transferee is a person or entity which meets Franchisor's standards of qualification then applicable with respect to new area developer applicants for similar Regional Development Rights and in Franchisor's sole discretion has the ability to discharge Developer's obligations to Unit Franchisees with Stores physically located in the Development Territory;

(ii) The proposed transfer is at a price and upon such terms and conditions as Franchisor, in its sole judgment, shall deem reasonable;

(iii) As of the effective date of the proposed transfer, all obligations of Developer hereunder and under any other agreements between Developer and Franchisor are fully satisfied;

(iv) As of the effective date of the proposed transfer, all obligations of the proposed transferee to Franchisor (if any) are fully satisfied;

(v) As of the effective date of the proposed transfer, Franchisor shall have forwarded to Developer its approval, granted in its sole discretion, of the proposed transfer to the proposed transferee;

(vi) There shall have been paid to Franchisor, together with the application for consent to the transfer, a transfer fee of Twenty Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($24,500) prior to such transfer;

(vii) The transferor shall have executed a general release, in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, of any and all claims against Franchisor, its parent, subsidiaries, affiliates and their officers, directors, attorneys, shareholders, and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities as of the effective date of the proposed transfer;

(viii) The transferee, including all owners shall, jointly and severally, enter into a new regional development agreement with Franchisor, on the terms then offered to new developers, except that all pre-opening obligations of the parties, other than the transferee's obligation to complete the Franchisor's then-current initial training program to Franchisor's satisfaction, shall be waived, including the obligation of the transferee to pay a new initial franchise fee. However, the term of the new regional development agreement shall be adjusted based upon when the transfer occurs as follows: (a) if the transfer occurs during the initial term of Developer's initial regional development agreement the transferee shall receive a new regional development agreement with a term of ten (10) years plus one renewal term of ten (10) years; or (b) if the transfer occurs after the initial term of the Developer's initial regional development agreement the transferee shall receive a term equal to the remainder of the then-current term plus and additional ten (10) year term, but with no additional renewal rights;

(ix) The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's sole satisfaction that it meets all of Franchisor's requirements for becoming a developer, including, without limitation, that transferee has the experience Franchisor, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate; that transferee meets Franchisor's managerial and business standards then in effect for similarly situated developers, possesses a good moral character, business reputation, and satisfactory credit rating; will comply with all instruction and training requirements of Franchisor and has the aptitude and ability to operate the regional development business hereunder (as may be evidenced by prior related business experience or otherwise);

(x) The transferee shall have completed, to Franchisor's satisfaction, the training then required of similarly situated System developers; and

(xi) The transferee shall have obtained all licenses and/or registrations necessary to offer Pet Evolution unit franchises for the operation of Stores in the Development Territory.

(g) If the transfer is caused by the death or incapacity of Developer (or in the case of Developer is a Business Entity by the death or incapacity of an owner controlling fifty percent (50%) or more of the voting interest of Developer, directly or indirectly), the provisions of this Section 9 must be met with regard to the heir or personal representative of the party succeeding to Developer's interest hereunder within sixty (60) days after the death or incapacity of Developer; provided, however, if the heir or personal representative transfers or sells its interest in the franchise within such sixty (60) day period, the person to whom the interest is assigned, transferred or sold, and not Developer's heir or personal representative, must comply with the provisions of this Section 9.

(h) If Developer or any person or entity holding any direct or indirect interest in Developer or this Agreement desires to sell or transfer for value, either an interest in this Agreement or in Developer, Developer shall first notify Franchisor in writing of such intention and offer to sell or transfer such interest to Franchisor upon the terms and conditions set forth in such notice or the cash equivalent thereof, at Franchisor's option. If Franchisor and Developer cannot agree within thirty (30) days of such notice on the terms and conditions of such sale or transfer, or if Franchisor notifies Developer that it does not want to acquire such interest, Developer may sell or transfer such interest to a bona fide third party; provided that such sale or transfer is made within one hundred twenty (120) days after the expiration of any offer to Franchisor, that such sale or transfer is made at a net price and on terms no more favorable than those offered in writing to Franchisor, and that all applicable requirements of Section 9 hereof are met. Failure of Franchisor to exercise the option afforded by this Section 9(h) shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all requirements of this Section 9, with respect to a proposed transfer.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood that, so long as Developer is not in breach of this Agreement, Developer (if an individual) may assign and delegate this Agreement and Developer's rights and obligations hereunder on one occasion to a Business Entity organized by Developer for that purpose only if all of the issued and outstanding equity of the Business Entity are owned by Developer. Franchisor shall be given prior written notice of such assignment and delegation, and thereupon such Business Entity shall have all of said rights and obligations, and the term "Developer" as used herein shall refer to the Business Entity; provided, however, that such assignment shall in no way affect the obligations hereunder of the individual above designated "Developer," who shall remain fully bound by and responsible for the performance of all of said obligations, jointly and severally, with the Business Entity. The Business Entity shall not engage in any business or activities other than the exercise of the rights herein granted to the Developer and the performance of its obligations hereunder.

(j) Franchisor's consent to a transfer of any interest in Developer shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferee.

(k) Notwithstanding anything set forth herein to the contrary, Developer may not transfer a portion of its rights or obligations hereunder or a portion of the Regional Development Business, if such transfer would result in the division of the Regional Development Rights or the Developer's regional development business.

10.) DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

(a) In addition to its other termination rights hereunder, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement and all of Developer's rights hereunder effective immediately upon the date Franchisor gives written notice of termination, in any of the following circumstances:

(i) If Developer becomes insolvent or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Developer, or such a petition is filed against and consented to by Developer, or if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Developer or other custodian for Developer's business or assets is filed and consented to by Developer, or if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Developer's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed, or if a final judgment in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) remains unsatisfied or of record for sixty (60) days or longer (unless a bond is filed or other steps are taken to effectively stay entitlement of such judgment in the relevant jurisdiction);

(ii) If Developer makes, or has made, any materially false statement or report to Franchisor in connection with this Agreement or application therefore;

(iii) If there is any violation of any transfer and assignment provision contained in Section 9 of this Agreement;

(iv) If Developer receives from Franchisor two (2) or more notices to cure the same or similar defaults or violations of this Agreement during any twelve (12) month period;

(v) If Developer fails, for a period of five (5) days after notification of non-compliance, to comply with any law or regulation applicable to the operation of the regional development business hereunder or Developer or any owner is alleged to have committed animal cruelty or another law protecting animals;

(vi) If Developer violates any covenant contained in Section 8 of this Agreement or otherwise discloses, uses, permits the use of, copies, duplicates, records, transmits or otherwise reproduces any manuals, materials, goods or information created or used by Franchisor and designated for confidential use within the System without Franchisor's prior approval;

(vii) If Developer or any owner is convicted of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense relating to the operation of the regional development business hereunder;

(viii) If Developer fails to perform or breaches any other covenant, obligation, term, condition, warranty or certification herein or fails to operate the regional development business hereunder as specified by Franchisor in the Regional Development Manual, or otherwise, and fails to cure such non-compliance or deficiency within thirty (30) days after Franchisor's written notice thereof;

(ix) If Developer or any affiliate defaults on any other agreement with Franchisor and such default is not cured in accordance with the terms of such other agreement;

(x) If Developer fails to obtain or has revoked any license or registration necessary to solicit the sale of unit franchises; or

(xi) Abandons the franchise relationship or the regional development business

(b) Developer may not terminate this Agreement unless Franchisor commits a material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within sixty (60) days after Developer has delivered written notice to Franchisor describing the breach. In such event, Developer may terminate this Agreement effective ten (10) days after delivery of a written termination notice to Franchisor, provided Developer is in full compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 10, termination of this Agreement as a result of Developer's default or otherwise shall not operate to terminate any Franchise Agreement to which Developer is a party, if Developer is in full compliance with the terms and provisions of such agreement(s).

11.) POST TERM RIGHTS, OBLIGATIONS AND COVENANTS

(a) Upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason, Developer shall immediately:

(i) Cease to be the authorized developer of Franchisor in the Development Territory;

(ii) Pay all sums owing to Franchisor and its affiliates. Upon termination for any default by Developer, such sums shall include actual damages incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default;

(iii) Return to Franchisor the Regional Development Manual and all Confidential Information and other property owned by Franchisor. Developer shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing, provided, however, that Developer may retain its copy of this Agreement, any materials necessary to operate a Store under an existing Franchise Agreement, any correspondence between the parties and any other document which Developer reasonably needs for compliance with any applicable law;

(iv) Upon Franchisor's request, provide Franchisor a complete list of Developer's franchise prospects and contacts and their respective addresses and any outstanding obligations Developer may have to any third parties;

(v) Take such action as may be required to transfer all trade name and similar registrations and business licenses to Franchisor or its new developer in the Development Territory and to cancel any interest Developer may have in the same and notify the telephone company, any domain name registrar, any internet service provider, and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of Developer's right to use any domain names, profiles, accounts, user names, telephone numbers and classified and other directory listings associated with any Franchisor Identified Social Media Presence, or that include any portion of the Marks, and authorize the telephone company, domain name registrars, internet service providers, and listing agencies to transfer to Franchisor all such telephone numbers, registrations, profiles, accounts, and directory listings, along with access thereto;

(vi) Cease to use, in advertising or in any manner whatsoever, any methods, procedures or techniques associated with the System in which Franchisor has a proprietary right, title or interest; the Marks; and any other marks, names and indicia of operation associated with the System, to the extent not required to operate a Store under an existing Franchise Agreement;

(vii) Remove all Marks, trade dress and other indications of operation under the System from its place of business, to the extent that such items are not required to operate a Store under an existing Franchise Agreement; and

(viii) Comply with all other post-term obligations in this Agreement including, but not limited to, those set forth in Section 8.

(b) All rights to any compensation due Developer hereunder shall immediately terminate upon the effective date of any termination of this Agreement, and Developer shall have no further interest or rights in this Agreement nor any right to receive any fees unpaid at the time of termination, except such fees that have accrued to Developer prior to such date.

(c) Developer shall not, in any communication to any other developer or franchise owner, disparage Franchisor or its affiliates or interfere with any contract to which Franchisor or any affiliate is a party.

12.) INSURANCE

(a) Developer shall, at its expense and no later than upon commencement of the business contemplated by this Agreement, procure and maintain in full force and effect throughout the term of this Agreement the types of insurance specified by Franchisor, which shall be issued by insurers meeting Franchisor's requirements, shall be in such minimum amounts as may from time to time be required by Franchisor and which shall designate Franchisor as an additional named insured and provide for a waiver of subrogation on all policies other than workers compensation. Such policies shall include the following:

(i) Professional liability insurance (errors and omissions) covering claims arising out of the operation of the business contemplated by this Agreement;

(ii) Employer's liability and workers' compensation insurance as prescribed by law in the state(s) which include the Development Territory;

(iii) Comprehensive automobile liability insurance covering physical damage, personal injury and uninsured motorists; and

(iv) Comprehensive general liability insurance covering the operation of the business contemplated by this Agreement;

(b) Developer shall promptly deliver to Franchisor at placement and annually thereafter certificates of all required insurance. All such policies shall provide that Franchisor receive thirty (30) days' prior written notice of termination, expiration, reduction or cancellation of any such policy. If requested by Franchisor, Developer shall also promptly deliver to Franchisor the actual insurance policies in addition to the foregoing certificates.

(c) The procurement and maintenance of such insurance shall not relieve Developer of any liability to Franchisor under any indemnity requirement of this Agreement. If Developer at any time fails or refuses to maintain any insurance coverage required by Franchisor, or fails to furnish satisfactory evidence thereof, Franchisor, at its option and in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder, may obtain such insurance coverage on behalf of Developer, and any costs of premiums incurred by Franchisor in connection therewith shall be paid by Developer on demand.

13.) TAXES, PERMITS AND INDEBTEDNESS

(a) Developer shall promptly pay when due any and all federal, state and local taxes including, without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, levied or assessed with respect to any products or services furnished, used or licensed pursuant to this Agreement and all accounts or other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Developer in the operation of the business licensed hereunder.

(b) Developer shall comply with all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations and timely obtain any and all permits, certificates and licenses for the full and proper conduct of the business licensed hereunder.

(c) Developer hereby expressly covenants and agrees to accept full responsibility for any and all debts and obligations incurred in the operation of the regional development business hereunder.

14.) INDEMNIFICATION; INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR; AUDIT

(a) Developer agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold Franchisor, its directors, officers and shareholders harmless from and against all claims, actions, proceedings, damages, costs, expenses and other losses and liabilities, (including, without limitation, attorneys' and accountants' fees) directly or indirectly incurred as a result of, arising out of, or connected with the operation of the regional development business licensed hereunder.

(b) In all dealings with third parties including, without limitation, Unit Franchisees, employees, suppliers, clients and customers, Developer shall disclose in an appropriate manner acceptable to Franchisor that it is an independent party licensed by Franchisor. Nothing in this Agreement is intended by the parties hereto to create a fiduciary relationship between them nor to constitute Developer as a subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, or employee of Franchisor for any purpose whatsoever. It is understood and agreed that Developer is an independent contractor and is in no way authorized to make any warranty or representation on behalf of Franchisor other than those contained in any disclosure document prepared by Franchisor for use by Developer, nor is Developer authorized to create any obligation or enter into any contract binding on Franchisor.

(c) Franchisor shall have the right to audit or cause to be audited the books and records of Developer including any sales and income tax returns of Developer, and if Developer is a Business Entity, the owners of Developer. If any audit discloses that Developer has been paid any amounts by any Unit Franchisee, Developer or its owners fails to provide Franchisor with any financial information requested by Franchisor or any such financial information is materially inaccurate, Developer shall reimburse Franchisor for the cost of the audit, including, without limitation, the charges of any independent accountant and the travel expenses, room and board, and compensation of employees of Franchisor to make the audit. Franchisor may also immediately terminate this Agreement.

(d) Developer shall be solely responsible for determining who to hire, how to compensate those individuals, how much to compensate those individuals, the terms of their employment and working conditions, the supervision of the individuals, the setting of work schedules, the maintenance of employment records, when and how to discipline those individuals, and when and how to terminate the employment of those individuals. These individuals are not Franchisor's agents or employees and Franchisor is not a joint employer of these individuals. If required by Franchisor, Developer will obtain a written acknowledgement from each of its employees acknowledging that the employee is an employee of Developer not Franchisor. Developer is solely responsible for performing all administrative functions at its regional development business, including payroll, and providing workers' compensation insurance. Developer acknowledges that Franchisor does not provide facilities, equipment or house or transport Developer's employees or provide tools or materials to Developer's employees required for the employees to perform services for Developer.

15.) AMENDMENT

No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement shall be binding upon Franchisor or Developer except by mutual written agreement. However, Franchisor may unilaterally modify the Regional Development Manual.

16.) ENFORCEMENT

(a) In order to ensure compliance with this Agreement, Developer agrees that Franchisor and its designated agents shall be permitted full and complete access during business hours to inspect Developer's place of business and all records thereof. Developer shall cooperate fully with Franchisor and its designated agents requesting such access.

(b) Either party may apply for injunctive or other equitable relief to: (i) enforce its rights to terminate this Agreement; and (ii) prevent or remedy a breach of this Agreement if such breach could materially impair the goodwill of such party's business, including to enforce the obligations of a party to be performed following termination of this Agreement including, the confidentiality and non-competition provisions hereof. Each party shall be entitled to the entry of temporary restraining orders and temporary and permanent injunctions enforcing its aforementioned rights. If Franchisor secures any such injunction, or any other relief by arbitration of otherwise against Developer, or is successful in defending a claim brought against it by Developer, Developer shall pay Franchisor an amount equal to the aggregate of Franchisor's costs of obtaining such relief in defending such claim, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses.

(c) Except with respect to matters for which a party believes it necessary to seek injunctive or equitable relief, the parties shall be required to enter into mediation of all disputes involving this Agreement, or any other aspect of the development business relationship between them, for a minimum of four (4) hours, prior to the initiation of any action or proceeding against the other.

- (i) Upon written notice by either party to the other of the initiating party's desire to mediate, the party receiving the notice shall select an independent entity that regularly provides mediation services to franchisors and franchisees to serve as mediator in the proceeding. If the party receiving the notice of intent to mediate does not provide the name of such an organization within ten (10) business days from the date the notice of intention to mediate is received, then the other party may forego mediation of the issue(s) and commence legal action or, at its option, make the selection of the organization to provide mediation services. If one party selects an organization that is unwilling to serve as mediator or does not meet the requirements of this Section 16(c)(i), then the other party may select the organization. Once the organization is designated and agrees to accept appointment as mediator, the organization shall be directed to schedule a mediation proceeding at a time mutually convenient to Franchisor and Developer. The mediation shall be held within thirty (30) days following receipt by the mediation organization of notification that its services are requested. If the parties cannot agree on a date for mediation, then the mediation organization shall select a date it believes is reasonable for the parties, given all of the alleged conflicts in dates. The actual mediator shall either be a retired judge, or a person who has had at least ten (10) years of experience as either franchisee or franchisor (or as an officer of such an entity), or in franchise law.

(ii) The parties shall equally share the cost of the mediator. The mediator shall select the location for the mediation, giving due consideration to the location that will minimize the total expenses of the mediation; provided, however, that unless agreed to by both Franchisor and Developer, the mediation shall be held in a metropolitan area having a population of at least two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) persons that is not located within two hundred (200) miles of the Developer's office or the principal office of Franchisor.

(iii) Except with respect to matters for which a party is permitted to seek injunctive or equitable relief, if either party initiates litigation without complying with their obligation to mediate in accordance with this Section 16(c) (unless the other party has failed to respond on a timely basis or has indicated it will not engage in mediation in accordance with the provisions of this Section 16(c)), then upon petition of any party named as a defendant in such litigation, the court shall dismiss the action without prejudice, and award attorneys' fees and costs to the party seeking dismissal in an amount equal to such party's attorneys' fees and costs incurred in seeking dismissal. If the court refuses for any reason to dismiss the action, then regardless of the outcome of such action, or of any award given by the court in such action, the party initiating the action shall be responsible for all attorneys' fees and costs incurred throughout the action by the other party as damages for failing to comply with the provisions of this Section 16(c).

(d) Unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 10, during the pendency of any litigation, Developer and Franchisor shall each perform their obligations under this Agreement.

(e) Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act; 15 U.S.C. § 1050 et seq.), as amended, this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota. The parties agree, however, that if the Developer is not a resident of Minnesota, or if the Developer's office is not located in Minnesota, then they hereby waive the provisions of the Minnesota Franchise Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. If the Minnesota Franchise Act does not apply to the franchise relationship created hereby, but there is a statute in the state in which the Developer's office is located that specifically governs relationships between franchisees and franchisors and that law would otherwise apply, then that particular law shall apply in lieu of the foregoing.

(f) Franchisor and Developer (and Developer's owners and guarantors) each agree that if litigation is commenced, the sole forum for resolving disputes under this Agreement or any aspect of the relationship between the parties shall be the state and federal courts of Minnesota. Such actions shall be exclusively venued in the state or federal courts located in Hennepin County, Minnesota, and the parties waive any objections they may have to either the jurisdiction or the venue in such courts and hereby consent to personal jurisdiction and venue in such courts. The only exception to the foregoing shall be: (i) if the courts of Minnesota would have no jurisdiction over a named party in the litigation, and such party's involvement in the litigation is integral to the underlying claims and not principally for the purpose of circumventing the intent of the parties to name Minnesota as the exclusive venue for any actions, then the action may be venued in any court having jurisdiction over all the parties and a significant nexus to the parties; and (ii) to the extent that either party believes it is necessary to seek injunctive relief against the other, the party seeking relief may initiate that action in the county in which the other party has its principal office (which in the case of an action against Developer, shall be the county in which Developer is domiciled, or the county in which the Developer's office is located).

17.) NOTICES

All written notices permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed so delivered: (i) when delivered by hand; (ii) three (3) days after placed in the United States mail by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; or (iii) one (1) business day after placed in the hands of an overnight courier, for next day delivery, and in the case of delivery under clauses (ii) or (iii), addressed to the party to be notified at its most current principal business address of which the notifying party has been notified. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall not apply to notice of Franchisor's modifications to the Regional Development Manual, which notice may be provided as set forth in this Agreement.

18.) SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

(a) If any provision of this Agreement is for any reason held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed restricted in application to the extent required to render it valid; and the remainder of this Agreement shall in no way be affected and shall remain valid and enforceable for all purposes. If such total or partial invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement exists only with respect to the laws of a particular jurisdiction, this Section 18(a) shall operate upon such provision only to the extent that the laws of such jurisdiction are applicable to such provision. Each party agrees to execute and deliver to the other any further documents that may be reasonably required to effectuate fully the provisions hereof.

(b) The term “affiliate” means any Business Entity directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person, under common control with a person or controlled by a person. The singular use of any pronoun also includes the plural and the masculine includes the feminine. The term “person” includes individuals or Business Entities. The term “Section” refers to a paragraph or subparagraph of this Agreement. The word “control” means the power to direct or cause the direction of management and policies. The word “owner” means any person holding a direct or indirect, legal or beneficial ownership interest or voting rights in another person (or a transferee of this Agreement or an interest in Developer), including any person or Business Entity who has a direct or indirect interest in Developer or this Agreement, any person who has any other legal or equitable interest, or the power to vest in himself any legal or equitable interest, in the revenue, profits, rights or assets of Developer.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument. An electronic signature (whether digital or encrypted, such as one transmitted via DocuSign) and/or a signature transmitted via electronic means (such as one transmitted in a PDF format via email) shall be effective to bind the party that transmitted the signature to the same extent as would a handwritten signature.

(d) The headings and captions contained herein are for the purposes of convenience and reference only and are not to be construed as a part of this Agreement. All terms and words used herein shall be construed to include the number and gender as the context of this Agreement may require. The parties agree that each Section of this Agreement shall be construed independently of any other Section or provision of this Agreement.

(e) This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto, their respective heirs, assigns and successors in interest.

(f) The introduction and recitals and Exhibits are a part of this Agreement, which constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and at the time of this Agreement, there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between Franchisor and Developer relating to the subject matter of this Agreement, other than any Franchise Agreement relating to the operation of a Store. However, nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim any representations made in the Franchise Disclosure Document provided by Franchisor to Developer.

(g) The term “Developer” as used herein is applicable to one (1) or more persons, a corporation, limited liability company, or a partnership, as the case may be. If there is more than one signatory as “Developer”, all of Developer’s obligations hereunder and under any other agreement with Franchisor or its affiliates shall be joint and several in each and every respect and fully enforceable against each signatory. References in this Agreement to the termination of this Agreement, shall be deemed to include the expiration of this Agreement without renewal.

(h) The parties agree that if any provision of this Agreement is capable of two (2) constructions, one of which would render the provision illegal or otherwise voidable or unenforceable and the other of which would render the provision valid and enforceable, the provision shall have the meaning which renders it valid and enforceable. The language of all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed simply according to their fair meaning and not strictly against Franchisor or Developer.

(i) The parties, by written instrument, may unilaterally waive any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement. No failure, refusal or neglect of Franchisor or Developer to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon full compliance by the other with its obligations hereunder or with any specification, standard or operating procedure shall constitute a waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure; provided, however, that failure, neglect, or delay of a party to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon full compliance by the other party with its obligations under this Agreement, shall constitute a waiver of any default arising under this Agreement and shall preclude exercise or enforcement of any right or remedy arising therefrom unless written notice of such default is provided by the nondefaulting party to the other party within twelve (12) months after such right or default; but the forgoing limitation shall not apply to failure to disclose amounts paid by a Unit Franchisee to Developer.

(j) All remedies provided to a party under this Agreement are cumulative. No exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Developer of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by Franchisor or Developer of any other right or remedy hereunder or which Franchisor or Developer is entitled by law to enforce.

(k) Because complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not be possible or practical, Franchisor specifically reserves the right and privilege, at its sole discretion and as it may deem in the best interests of all concerned in any specific instance, to vary standards for any developer based upon the peculiarities of a particular site or circumstance, density of population, business potential, population of trade area, existing business practices or any other condition which Franchisor deems to be of importance to the successful operation of such developer's business. Developer shall not complain on account of any variation from standard specifications and practices granted to any other developer and shall not be entitled to require Franchisor to grant to Developer a like or similar variation thereof.

19.) WAIVER OF DAMAGES

Except for Developer's obligation to indemnify Franchisor and claims for unauthorized use of the Marks or Confidential Information, Developer and Franchisor each waive to the full extent permitted by law any right to, or claim for, any punitive, consequential, special or exemplary damages against the other and any affiliates, owners, employees or agents of the other. Developer and Franchisor also agree that, in the event of a dispute between them, the party making a claim will be limited to equitable relief and recovery of any actual damages it sustains.

20.) WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

TO THE EXTENT EITHER PARTY MAY PROCEED BY JUDICIAL PROCESS, EACH OF THE PARTIES WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEMENT OR INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND ALLEGATIONS OF STATE OR FEDERAL STATUTORY VIOLATIONS, FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION, OR OTHER CAUSES OF ACTION, IN CONNECTION WITH ANY LEGAL ACTION.

21.) WAIVER OF COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

The parties agree they should each be able to settle, mediate, litigate, or compromise disputes in which they are involved with third parties, without having the disposition of such disputes directly affect the contract or relationship between them. The parties therefore each agree that a decision of an arbitrator or court of law in a dispute to which one of them is not a party shall not in any manner prevent the person that was a party to such action from making similar arguments, or taking similar positions, in any subsequent action between the parties. The parties therefore waive the right to assert that principals of collateral estoppel prevent either of them from raising any claim or defense in an action between them as a result of such party having lost a similar claim or defense in another action.

22.) WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION RIGHTS

Developer waives its right to bring, join or participate in, and is barred from bringing, joining or participating in, any class action suit in court or in arbitration. The parties agree that any proceeding, including any arbitration, will be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide, basis and that any proceeding between them or any owner or any guarantor of Developer may not be consolidated with another proceeding between Franchisor and any other entity or person. Developer further agrees that the foregoing will not limit its ability to obtain a remedy for any particular claim that it may assert against Franchisor.

23.) ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Developer hereby acknowledges the following:

(a) Developer has conducted an independent investigation of the business contemplated by this Agreement and understands and acknowledges that the business contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks making the success of the venture largely dependent upon the business abilities and participation of developer and its efforts as an independent business operator. Franchisor expressly disclaims the making of, and developer acknowledges that it has not received or relied upon any warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the potential volume, profits or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Developer has no knowledge of any representations by Franchisor or its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents or servants, about the business contemplated by this Agreement that are contrary to the terms of this Agreement or the Franchise Disclosure Document developer acknowledges receiving at least fourteen (14) days before the earlier of payment of any consideration to franchisor or its affiliates or Developer's signing of any agreement with Franchisor or an affiliate. Developer represents, as an inducement to Franchisor's entry into this Agreement, that it has made no misrepresentations in obtaining this Agreement.

(c) Developer acknowledges that it has had ample opportunity to consult with its own attorneys, accountants and other advisors and that the attorneys for Franchisor have not advised or represented Developer with respect to this Agreement or the relationship thereby created.

(d) Developer, together with its advisers, has sufficient knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to make an informed investment decision with respect to the regional development rights and the unit franchises to be developed pursuant to this Agreement.

(e) Developer acknowledges that this instrument constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereto. This Agreement terminates and supersedes any prior agreement between the parties concerning the same subject matter.

DEVELOPER ASSIGNMENT, SALE AND TRANSFER TO ENTITY OWNED BY ORIGINAL DEVELOPER

A. Assignment and Sale

Pursuant to Section 9(i) of the Pet Evolution Regional Development Agreement dated _____, by and between the Transferor (as defined below) and Pet Evolution Franchising LLC (the "Agreement"), Transferor hereby transfers, subject to approval by Pet Evolution Franchising LLC (the "Company"), all Transferor's rights, in the Agreement, effective _____, to the Transferee (as defined below). Transferor understands that this transfer does not relieve Transferor of its obligations under the Agreement. To induce the Company to approve this assignment:

(01) Transferor agrees to subordinate any payment due to Transferor from the Transferee to any other obligation the Transferee may have to the Company. If the Company notifies Transferor of a default by the Transferee of its obligations to the Company under the Agreement, Transferor will not accept any further amounts that may be owed to Transferor by the Transferee until the Company has confirmed, in writing, that such defaults have been cured.

(02) Transferor releases the Company and its officers, directors, and agents, from all actions and claims Transferor may have against the Company arising out of their sale to Transferor of the Pet Evolution regional development business franchise, or in connection with Transferor's operation of the Pet Evolution development business franchise, including, but not limited to, any claims arising under the Agreement.

NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, THIS RELEASE DOES NOT RELEASE ANY CLAIMS THE UNDERSIGNED MAY HAVE THAT MAY NOT BE RELEASED PURSUANT TO THE FRANCHISE LAWS WHERE THE UNDERSIGNED IS A RESIDENT OR WHERE THE REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT BUSINESS IS LOCATED, TO THE EXTENT REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM TO REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Regional Development Agreement, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of California:

This California Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of California or if your regional development business is located in California.

1. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California developers until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and the regional development business opens.

2. The California Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Section 20000 through 20043) provides developers with additional rights concerning transfer, termination and non-renewal of the Regional Development Agreement and certain provisions of the Regional Development Agreement relating to transfer, termination and non-renewal may be superseded by the Act. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the Regional Development Agreement and your relationship with Franchisor, including the areas of transfer, termination and renewal of the regional development franchise. If the Regional Development Agreement is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

3. The Regional Development Agreement requires Developer to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the Regional Development Agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any regional development franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 - 20043)). To the extent required by such laws, Developer shall not be required to execute a general release.

4. For Developers operating outlets located in California, the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act will apply regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the Regional Development Agreement or any amendment thereto or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.

5. The Regional Development Agreement requires application of the laws and forum of Minnesota. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

6. The Regional Development Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the regional development franchise. A contract that restrains a former developer from engaging in a lawful trade or business may be void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.

7. The provision in the Regional Development Agreement which terminates the regional development franchise upon the bankruptcy of the Developer may not be enforceable under Title 11, United States Code, Section 101.

8. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by an franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

9. Section 23(a-d) is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:
“Intentionally Omitted”.

Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the California Franchise Relations Act are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date set forth below.

ILLINOIS ADDENDUM TO REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Regional Development Agreement, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises governed by the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

Illinois law governs the Regional Development Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a regional development agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a regional development agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Payment of the Initial Fee will be deferred until Franchisor has satisfied its pre-opening obligations to Developer, and Developer has commenced doing business. The Illinois Attorney General's Office imposed this deferral requirement due to Franchisor's financial condition.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Addendum as of the date set forth below.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Pet Evolution Regional Development Agreement, the following provisions shall supersede any inconsistent provisions and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of Indiana.

This Indiana Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Indiana or if your regional development business will be located in Indiana.

In accordance with IC 23-2-2.7-1, the applicable sections of the Regional Development Agreement are hereby amended to provide that Franchisor will not: (a) require the Developer to execute a release in connection with the renewal or transfer of the regional development franchise which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed under the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act; (b) require the Developer to covenant not to compete with the Franchisor in an area greater than the Development Territory set forth in the Regional Development Agreement, upon termination of or failure to renew the Regional Development Agreement; or (c) limit litigation brought for breach of the Regional Development Agreement.

To the extent this Addendum shall be deemed to be inconsistent with any terms or conditions of the Regional Development Agreement or Exhibits or Attachments thereto, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. Each of the undersigned hereby acknowledges having read and understood this Addendum and consents to be bound by all of its terms.

MARYLAND ADDENDUM TO REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Pet Evolution Regional Development Agreement, the following provisions shall supersede any inconsistent provisions and apply to all Pet Evolution regional development franchises offered and sold in the state of Maryland.

This Maryland Addendum is only applicable if you are a resident of Maryland or if your business is located in Maryland.

1. Based upon the Franchisor's financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required a financial assurance. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by franchisees shall be deferred until the Franchisor completes its pre-opening obligations under the Development Agreement and the regional development business opens.

2. All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent, estoppel or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

3. The Regional Development Agreement is revised to provide that termination upon bankruptcy might not be enforceable under the U.S. Bankruptcy Act, but Franchisor intends to enforce it to the extent enforceable.

4. The Regional Development Agreement is revised to include the following language:

"Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, you may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law. Any claims under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three years after the grant of the franchise."

5. The Regional Development Agreement states that Minnesota law generally applies. However, the conditions under which your franchise can be terminated and your rights upon nonrenewal may be affected by Maryland Law, and we will comply with that law in Maryland.

6. The representations made in the Regional Development Agreement are not intended to nor should they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

7. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by an franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

8. Section 23(a-d) of the Regional Development Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following: "INTENTIONALLY OMITTED".

Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent that, with respect to such provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are met independently without reference to this Addendum.

In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.
5. With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.14, Subd. 3-5, which require (except in certain specified cases) (1) that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Regional Development Agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
6. To the extent required by the Minnesota Franchise Act, the franchisor will protect the franchisee's rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols related to the trademarks or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the trademarks, provided the franchisee is using the names in marks in accordance with the Regional Development Agreement.
7. Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).

10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.
15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

19. Fee Deferral. In lieu of an impound of franchise fees, the franchisor will not require or accept the payment of any initial franchise fees until the franchisee has (a) received all pre-opening and initial training obligations that it is entitled to under the franchise agreement or offering circular, and (b) is open for business.
20. The page entitled “Special Risk(s) to Consider About *This Franchise” is amended by the addition of the following language:

Special Risk(s) to Consider About This Franchise

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor uses the services of one or more franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor’s current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

21. Nothing set forth in the Pet Evolution Franchising LLC Franchise Disclosure Document shall waive any liability the Franchisor may have under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder.
