What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit H.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation only in Colorado. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to litigate with the franchisor in Colorado than in your own state.

2. Minimum Agent Count Requirement. The Franchise Agreement requires that you meet minimum agent count requirements. Failure to meet these minimum agent count requirements could result in termination or non-renewal of the franchise agreement.

3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

Item 1

THE FRANCHISOR, THE SUBFRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

For ease of reference, the Franchisor, RE/MAX, LLC, will be referred to in this Franchise Disclosure Document as "RE/MAX, LLC"; and RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, the Subfranchisor, will be referred to as RE/MAX Regional or simply as "we" or "us." A person who buys a franchise from RE/MAX Regional will be referred to in this Franchise Disclosure Document as "you." If you are a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other business entity, certain provisions of the franchise agreement will also apply to your owners. The REMAX business you will operate as a franchise under the franchise agreement is referred to in this Franchise Disclosure Document as the "Office."

The Franchisor; the Subfranchisor and Predecessors

The Franchisor and owner of the REMAX® franchise system is RE/MAX, LLC. RE/MAX, LLC, formerly known as RE/MAX International, Inc., has offered REMAX franchises in the U.S. since August 9, 1974 and internationally since 1980. It converted to a Delaware limited liability company on April 15, 2010, and its principal business address is at 5075 South Syracuse Street, Denver, Colorado 80237-2712.

Currently RE/MAX, LLC only offers individual REMAX office franchises. From 1978 until 2001, RE/MAX, LLC also granted master franchise rights to independent third parties to offer, sell and support REMAX franchises in various regions of the U.S. As described more below in this Item 1, over the last ten years, RE/MAX, LLC reacquired these regional subfranchisor rights from all but three of these independent subfranchisors, and simultaneously RE/MAX, LLC assumed rights to the existing franchise agreements for REMAX offices located in these re-acquired regions. Since 2001, RE/MAX, LLC no longer offers master franchise rights in the U.S.

RE/MAX, LLC offers REMAX franchises under a separate franchise disclosure document. As of the date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, RE/MAX, LLC offers and sells REMAX franchises in all U.S. states except for:

(a) Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin (collectively, "RIR Regions") – in these states, we, RE/MAX Regional, as the Subfranchisor, offer and sell REMAX franchises pursuant to this franchise disclosure document, as further described below in this Item 1; and

(b) Alabama, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, western part of Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma ("Independent Regions") – in each of these Independent Regions, REMAX franchises are offered and sold by one of the three remaining independent subfranchisors of RE/MAX, LLC, pursuant to separate franchise disclosure documents.

RE/MAX, LLC conducts business under its corporate name and under the names "RE/MAX", "REMAX", "RE/MAX World Headquarters", "REMAX East Region" (with respect to our franchise operations in the eastern part of the U.S.) and "REMAX West/Central Region" (with respect to our franchise operations in the western and central part of the U.S.) and "RE/MAX Commercial". RE/MAX, LLC has never operated a REMAX office. RE/MAX, LLC has not offered franchises in any other lines of business, nor has it engaged in any other business activities.

Subfranchisor

As noted above, RE/MAX Regional is the Subfranchisor offering and selling REMAX franchises under this Franchise Disclosure Document and administering the REMAX franchise program in the RIR Regions (i.e., Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin). RE/MAX Regional has the right to offer, sell and support REMAX franchises in the RIR Regions pursuant to an Intellectual Property License Agreement with RE/MAX, LLC (See also Item 13). RE/MAX Regional is a Delaware limited liability company formed in May 2021 under the name A la Carte U.S., LLC. On July 21, 2021 it changed its name to RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC. RE/MAX Regional is a subsidiary of RE/MAX, LLC. On July 22, 2021, it acquired the REMAX subfranchisor operations from RE/MAX Integra (as defined below), as noted below in this Item 1, under "Predecessors". RE/MAX Regional has the same principal office address as RE/MAX, LLC. It conducts business under its corporate name (RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC). RE/MAX, LLC manages the operations of RE/MAX Regional. RE/MAX Regional has never operated a REMAX office, and it has never offered franchises in any other line of business. RE/MAX Regional does not engage in any other business activities.

Agents for Service of Process

Our and RE/MAX, LLC's agents for service of process are listed on Exhibit H.

Predecessors

Although RE/MAX, LLC has no predecessors from whom it would have acquired the major portion of its assets, as noted above, during the ten year period ended December 31, 2025, it has reacquired the master franchise rights (and assumed existing franchise agreements) from the following independent third parties who, until such acquisition, operated as our independent subfranchisors in the following states:

Former Subfranchisor's Name[2]	Former Subfranchisor's Address	States where Subfranchisor had rights to operate	Dates of Operation as a REMAX Subfranchisor

[1] On July 22, 2021, RE/MAX, LLC, RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (then known as A la Carte U.S., LLC) and a predecessor of REMAX Canada, Inc. (namely, A la Carte Investments Canada, Inc.)

acquired the North American operations of an independent subfranchisor with rights to five Canadian provinces (i.e., New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, Ontario, and Prince Edward Island) and the RIR Regions in the U.S. (i.e., Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin), the RE/MAX Integra group of companies (collectively "RE/MAX Integra"). Since the acquisition, RE/MAX Regional (i.e., RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC), a wholly-owned subsidiary of RE/MAX, LLC, has been the Subfranchisor for the RIR Regions, and our affiliate REMAX Canada, Inc. has been the subfranchisor for the five above-listed Canadian provinces. Therefore, RE/MAX of New England, Inc. d/b/a RE/MAX Integra, New England, RE/MAX of Indiana Limited Partnership d/b/a RE/MAX Integra, Midwest, and RE/MAX North Central, Inc. d/b/a RE/MAX Integra, Midwest are predecessors to RE/MAX Regional.

[2] All of the former subfranchisors listed in the table above were independent entities and none of them offered franchises in any lines of business other than for REMAX franchised businesses. The franchising operations in these states are now directly operated by RE/MAX, LLC or RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, as applicable, as noted above in this Item 1.

Parents

RE/MAX, LLC is our parent. RE/MAX, LLC is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of RMCO, LLC ("RMCO"), a Delaware limited liability company. RMCO was formed on April 7, 2010 and its principal business address is the same as ours. RMCO's parent company is RE/MAX Holdings, Inc. ("RE/MAX Holdings"), a Delaware corporation formed on June 23, 2013. RE/MAX Holdings is the majority owner and the sole manager of RMCO, and its principal business address is the same as ours. RE/MAX Holdings is a public company with shares listed on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "RMAX."

On April 26, 2026, our indirect parent RE/MAX Holdings entered into an Arrangement Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") with Rome Wildlife, Inc. ("Purchaser"), a holding entity formed by The Real Brokerage Inc., a leading real estate technology company that operates fully digital brokerage (and offers ancillary services such as mortgage origination, title and escrow services, and financial technology and lending products) in all U.S. states and five Canadian provinces. Pursuant to the Agreement, RE/MAX Holdings agreed, through a series of mergers, to pursue a strategic business combination with Purchaser (the "Transaction"). It is intended that Purchaser's name will be changed to Real REMAX Group shortly after signing the Agreement. Upon the closing of the Transaction, Purchaser would become our indirect parent company and a public company with shares listed on NASDAQ. The Transaction is anticipated to close later in 2026 subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions including regulatory approvals.

Affiliates Outside of the United States

We have two affiliates outside the United States:

REMAX Canada, Inc., a British Columbia corporation, f/k/a RE/MAX Ontario-Atlantic Canada, Inc., is the subfranchisor that offers REMAX franchises in all Canadian jurisdictions except for Quebec. REMAX Canada, Inc. offers REMAX franchises in Canada under two separate franchise disclosure documents – a franchise disclosure document for the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland and Labrador, and a separate franchise disclosure document for the Western Canada Region comprised of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Northwest Territories, Yukon, and Nunavut. REMAX Canada, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of RE/MAX of Western Canada (1998), LLC (the predecessor subfranchisor for the Western Canada Region), which is a wholly owned subsidiary of RE/MAX, LLC. On July 1, 2025, RE/MAX of Western Canada (1998), LLC assigned its assets, including all subsisting franchise agreements, to RE/MAX Ontario-Atlantic Canada, Inc. as part of a corporate restructuring. After the assignment, but also on July 1, 2025, RE/MAX Ontario-Atlantic Canada, Inc. changed its name to "REMAX Canada, Inc." REMAX Canada, Inc., including through its predecessors, has offered REMAX franchises in Canada since the 1980s. REMAX Canada, Inc.'s principal address is 639 Queen Street West, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 2B7. REMAX Canada, Inc. has never operated a REMAX office and it has not offered franchises in any other lines of business. RE/MAX, LLC offers REMAX franchises in Quebec through an independent master franchisee. As of December 31, 2025, there were 921 REMAX franchised offices in Canada.

RE/MAX Promotions, Inc. is an affiliate that was formed for institutional advertising purposes for the benefit of REMAX offices operating in Canada. RE/MAX Promotions, Inc. is a British Columbia corporation that was formed on July 30, 2021 through the amalgamation of Maximized Promotions, Inc., a British Columbia corporation, and RE/MAX Promotions, ULC, a British Columbia corporation that itself was a continuation of RE/MAX Promotions, Inc., an Ontario corporation. Its principal address is 639 Queen Street West, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 2B7. Neither this affiliate nor the companies it amalgamated have ever operated a REMAX office, offered REMAX franchises or offered franchises in other lines of business.

Franchises Outside the U.S. and Canada. Outside the U.S. and Canada, RE/MAX, LLC typically grants master franchise rights to offer, sell and support REMAX franchises. As of December 31, 2025, there were over 4,700 open REMAX offices internationally (outside the U.S. and Canada).

Description of the Business

RE/MAX, LLC offers franchises throughout the United States and internationally for the development and operation of real estate brokerage offices that offer high quality real estate services to the general public under the name "REMAX®" and other trademarks and service marks (collectively, the "Marks"). RE/MAX Regional offers such franchises under the Marks in the RIR Regions. REMAX offices engage in the activities of listing, offering, marketing, selling, purchasing, exchanging, auctioning, leasing and/or renting of real property and representing sellers, purchasers, lessors or renters of real property, and such other related activities and services as RE/MAX, LLC may from time to time authorize in writing (collectively, the "Authorized Services"). REMAX offices operate under the REMAX system ("System" or "REMAX System") which means and includes, collectively, the operating systems, marketing systems, business techniques, and methods, processes, policies and procedures for the development and operation of a real estate brokerage business providing efficient, high quality and courteous services to the public, along with items of trade dress and sales, leadership and management training, including all training materials, sales and promotional materials, technology, supply chain systems and a high commission concept; all as the same may change from time to time, as specified in the Business Manual or as otherwise reasonably directed by RE/MAX, LLC from time to time. The high commission concept devised by RE/MAX, LLC enables each real estate sales associate, broker associate, broker, manager, licensed administrator and/or each designated or managing broker of record whose license is registered with a REMAX office and who is or works under the supervision of a REMAX broker (collectively, each such person, a "Sales Associate") to retain a very high percentage (typically 95%) of the commissions and fees earned for providing real estate brokerage services instead of sharing those amounts with the office as is more typical in the real estate industry. In return for the right to retain a very high percentage of their commissions, however, Sales Associates must pay certain fees to the REMAX office (i.e., the franchisee). These fees include the Sales Associate's personal expenses and pro-rata share of general office overhead, a fixed monthly institutional Marketing Fee and monthly ongoing fees. Your income is derived in part from your share of the monthly ongoing fees paid by the Sales Associates to you and the general office overhead contribution you charge each Sales Associate. Each REMAX office is an independently owned and operated business and is solely responsible for its day-to-day conduct and activities. Accordingly, no REMAX office is an agent (actual, implied, or ostensible) of RE/MAX, LLC or RE/MAX Regional.

A copy of the franchise agreement ("Franchise Agreement") you will be required to sign is attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit A. The Franchise Agreement grants a franchise for an address-only location, with no territorial protection at all. You or, if you are a business entity, each of your direct and indirect owners of at least 5% interest, will also be required to sign a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, which is affixed to the Franchise Agreement.

All prospective franchisees, as well as renewing franchisees and transferees (as discussed below), must sign a form authorizing us to obtain a consumer report and conduct a credit and background check, and must meet our then-current subjective and objective standards for new franchisees, including those relating to relevant experience, education and licensing, background and record of compliance with laws, financial capacity, skills, integrity and other qualities of character.

Team Franchises. If you wish to operate one REMAX Team under the direction of a designated Team Leader (each term as defined below) at a specified location, we may grant you a team franchise ("Team Franchise"), in which case you will be required to sign the Team Franchise Addendum (in the form included as Exhibit A-5) in addition to the Franchise Agreement. As used in this Franchise Disclosure Document, a "Team Leader" means a licensed real estate professional who closes real estate transactions (as part of Authorized Services) and earns commissions by utilizing the services of one or more other licensed real estate professional(s) (each licensed real estate professional who closes transactions and earns commission by assisting a Team with Authorized Services is referred to as a "Team Member"). If you operate a REMAX Team Franchise, your Office will be referred to in this Franchise Disclosure Document as a "Team Office", and the Team Leader and all Team Members supporting the Team Leader will be referred to as a "Team". A Team must have a Team Leader and at least one additional Team Member who is a Sales Associate other than a Licensed Administrator (as defined in Item 6), and you may only have one Team per REMAX Team Franchise. Except as otherwise provided, all references in this Franchise Disclosure Document to an Office include a Team Office and all references to a franchisee include franchisees operating Team Franchises. For avoidance of doubt, you may operate one or more Teams pursuant to a Franchise Agreement for a standard (i.e., non-Team Franchise) REMAX Office.

Commercial Real Estate Franchises. If you wish to buy a REMAX franchise that will provide authorized services with respect to commercial real estate only (subject to certain limited exceptions), you will be required to sign the then-current form of Franchise Agreement and a Commercial Office Addendum in the form of Exhibit A-4. The Commercial Office Addendum allows you to use "REMAX Commercial" branding (see Item 13), including a REMAX Commercial trade name, but restricts you from engaging in authorized services involving residential real estate. (See also Item 16.).

Commercial Division. If you are not buying a commercial real estate REMAX franchise, but you would like to have a recognized commercial division to your residential REMAX franchise, we may authorize you to have a "commercial division" in your REMAX franchise; provided, that you maintain a minimum number of Sales Associates who are commercial real estate experts, referred to as "Commercial with Residential" ("COMRES") practitioners (i.e., Sales Associates who provide authorized services with respect to both, residential real estate and commercial real estate) or "Commercial-only" ("COM") practitioners (i.e., Sales Associates who only provide authorized services with respect to commercial real estate) to properly serve the market in which you operate. For a Sales Associate to be recognized as a COM or COMRES practitioner, the Sales Associate will be required to meet certain qualifications, and the commercial division must meet minimum annual commercial real estate transaction volume in order to maintain the commercial division designation. See also Item 12.

Renewing Franchisees. If you are renewing an existing franchise relationship with us due to an expiring franchise agreement, you will be required to sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement (and if applicable, Team Franchise Addendum) and a Renewal Addendum to Franchise Agreement, which clarifies certain terms and conditions that apply to you upon renewal.

RE/MAX Regional's predecessor in this region previously granted Micro-Market Franchises and Micro-Market Team Franchises; these types of franchises are no longer offered by RE/MAX Regional.

Transferee Franchisees. If you are acquiring an existing REMAX franchise, you will be required to sign the then-current form of Franchise Agreement (and if applicable, a Team Franchise Addendum), except that its term may coincide with the remainder of the transferor's franchise agreement's term, if we so determine. In addition, you, we, and the selling franchisee will enter into the Franchise Transfer and Consent Agreement in the form of Exhibit A-3.

New Program Pilots. From time to time, we may test pilot new programs to franchisees in good standing, which programs may include varying the terms of the Franchise Agreement. These pilot programs may be offered in certain geographic markets or to certain franchisees to test new business strategies, operating models, initiatives or products or services. These pilot programs are voluntary and may provide different fee structures, minimum agent recruiting requirements, or other terms. Terms and conditions of each pilot program will vary depending upon the circumstances and the particular market. If you agree to participate in a pilot program, you will be required to agree to the terms and conditions of such program. We may discontinue a pilot program at any time upon a notice to you.

Competition and Industry Regulations

You should expect to face various forms of stiff competition from other real estate organizations for sellers and buyers of properties as well as for top-producing real estate sales agents. Competition may come from real estate organizations that offer a variety of business models and compensation structures. These include established firms and more recent entrants, national franchise organizations and brokerage systems, and independent brokerages. Such competitors may operate under the more traditional "50-50" or "60-40" methods of sharing commissions with sales agents, may operate under a 100% or other high commission arrangement that is similar to the REMAX high commission concept, may charge agents a flat fee per transaction, or may compensate their sales agents on a salaried basis rather than paying commissions. In addition, you may compete with Internet websites that facilitate sales without the involvement of a full-service real estate agent or using a low-cost provider. The market for the real estate services you will be providing is developed in many areas and developing in other areas, depending on the number of potential buyers and sellers in the area and the number of brokerage businesses that have been established to service these potential customers.

Most states have specific laws and regulations covering real estate brokerage services and licenses. These laws, among other things, require that anyone who offers real estate brokerage services be a licensed real estate broker, a licensed associate broker, or a licensed salesperson affiliated with a licensed real estate broker. In addition, some states (for example, Illinois) require anyone who manages a real estate brokerage service office to have a managing broker's license. There may be similar laws in the cities and counties in which you will be operating. There are also various federal laws that could affect your real estate business and that you must comply with, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (commonly known as RESPA), Fair Housing Laws, the CAN-SPAM Act, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, the Telemarketing Sales Rule, as well as other federal and state anti-solicitation laws regulating phone calls, spamming, and faxing, and federal and state laws that regulate data security and privacy (including but not limited to the use, storage, transmission, and disposal of data regardless of media type). You should investigate these laws to understand your potential legal obligations.

LITIGATION

Pending Actions involving RE/MAX Regional's Predecessor.

See case description # 2 under Pending Actions Involving RE/MAX, LLC and its Affiliates.

Concluded Actions involving RE/MAX Regional's Predecessors.

1. Real Estate Visionaries, Inc. d/b/a/ Leading Edge; Stephen Chuha, Jr.; Paul Mydelski; Eileen Hamblin; and Linda O'Koniewski v. RE/MAX of New England, Inc., CA No. 1881CV1676 (Middlesex County, Massachusetts Superior Court); filed June 11, 2018.

The Plaintiffs filed this action against our predecessor RE/MAX of New England, Inc. ("Predecessor") on June 11, 2018, for equitable and declaratory relief, alleging claims for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, unfair and deceptive trade practices under M.G.L. c. 93A, fraudulent inducement, and declaratory judgment, after the Plaintiffs refused to sign franchise agreements for three REMAX offices and Predecessor terminated its permission that had allowed the Plaintiffs to operate as holdovers at these three locations. Plaintiffs also filed a motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction, asking the Court to prevent or delay the termination of these three holdover REMAX offices, which was denied by the Court on June 21, 2018. The Court denied Plaintiffs' June 22, 2018 emergency motion for reconsideration of its decision, and Plaintiffs appealed the Court's decision on July 25, 2018; that appeal was denied on July 3, 2018.

On June 25, 2018, Predecessor terminated Plaintiffs' permission to operate a fourth holdover REMAX office due to Plaintiffs' refusal to sign a renewal franchise agreement. Plaintiffs filed an Amended Complaint and Jury Demand on June 28, 2018, alleging claims for breach of contract and constructive termination with respect to Plaintiffs' remaining REMAX franchise agreements, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, violation of M.G.L. c.93A, fraudulent inducement, and tortious interference with contract. The Plaintiffs also sought a declaratory judgment that the non-compete provisions in the franchise agreements were unenforceable. On July 3, 2018, Plaintiffs closed their five authorized REMAX franchised offices. On July 11, 2018, Predecessor filed its Answer and Counterclaim, asserting claims against Plaintiffs for violation of the in-term non-competition provisions of their REMAX franchise agreements and other violations. The case was tried in March 2019, and a final post-trial hearing was held on April 26, 2019. On April 17, 2020, the Court issued a split decision, holding that Predecessor had not engaged in fraudulent inducement or tortious interference with contract. The Court also dismissed Plaintiffs' claim that the non-compete provisions in the franchise agreements were unenforceable. The Court held in favor of Plaintiffs on their claims for breach of contract, breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and violation of M.G.L. c.93A, awarding the Plaintiffs $22,565 in damages and partial attorneys' fees. On June 19, 2020, the parties entered into a Confidential Settlement Agreement and Release, in which the parties agreed that Predecessor would pay the Plaintiffs $22,565 and partial attorneys' fees to satisfy the Court's order, and the parties agreed to waive all rights of appeal.

Pending Actions Involving RE/MAX, LLC and its Affiliates

1. Salvatore Calabrese, Michael Calabrese, and Related Assets LLC d/b/a RE/MAX Metro, Plaintiffs, v. RE/MAX, LLC d/b/a RE/MAX New York Region (f/k/a RE/MAX International, Inc.), RE/MAX of New York Inc. (n/k/a RMY Holdings Inc.), ABC Corp. Nos. 1-10, Brook Staten Realty LLC, Staten Brook Realty LLC, XYZ Corp. Nos. 1-10, Joseph Madaio, Robert Coppolino, Salvatore Carola, John/Jane Does Nos. 1-10, Terri Bohannon, and Sandy Jamison, Defendants, Index No. 507254/2018, in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Kings, filed on April 10, 2018.

On April 10, 2018, former REMAX franchise owners Salvatore Calabrese and Michael Calabrese and former franchisee Related Assets LLC d/b/a RE/MAX Metro filed suit against RE/MAX, LLC RE/MAX of New York, Inc. and others relating to the refusal to renew/termination of their three franchise agreements. Plaintiffs allege, among other things, that RE/MAX, LLC and/or RE/MAX of New York Inc. improperly: refused to recognize an alleged verbal agreement to renew the franchise agreements; required Plaintiffs to renew on the then-current form of franchise agreement with allegedly less favorable terms; refused to allow Plaintiffs to renew their existing form of franchise agreement; and solicited, and subsequently granted competing franchise locations to, certain of the sales agents who had been associated with Plaintiffs in an alleged effort to secure certain of Plaintiffs' business despite alleged non-compete agreements of those sales agents. On February 11, 2019, Plaintiffs amended their complaint and dismissed RE/MAX of New York, Inc. Plaintiffs allege in their amended complaint: breach of the franchise agreements; breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing; promissory estoppel; breach of contract pertaining to non-compete provisions; unfair competition/misappropriation; unjust enrichment; tortious interference with a contract and/or prospective contractual relations; fraudulent inducement; conversion/civil theft; and civil conspiracy. Plaintiffs seek rescission (of the new terms in the franchise agreements) and an unspecified amount of damages, including actual damages, consequential damages, special damages, statutory damages, attorneys' fees, punitive or exemplary damages, pre- and post-judgment interest and costs. RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to dismiss which was granted in part and denied in part on May 26, 2020. RE/MAX, LLC intends to vigorously defend against all claims.

2. Christopher Moehrl, Michael Cole, Steve Darnell, Jack Ramey, Daniel Umpa, and Jane Ruh v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, The Long & Foster Companies, Inc. RE/MAX, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., Case No. 19-cv-01610, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, filed on March 6, 2019.

   Scott and Rhonda Burnett, Ryan Hendrickson, Jerod Breit, Scott Trupiano, and Jeremy Keel v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., Case No. 19-cv-00332-SRB, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, filed on April 29, 2019.

   Jennifer Nosalek, Randy Hirschorn, and Tracey Hirschorn v. MLS Property Information Network, Inc., Realogy Holdings Corp., Anywhere Real Estate Inc. (f/k/a Realogy Holdings Corp.), Century 21 Real Estate LLC, Coldwell Banker Real Estate LLC, Sotheby's International Realty Affiliates LLC, Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate LLC, ERA Franchise System LLC, HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, Polzler & Schneider Holdings Corp., Integra Enterprises Corp., RE/MAX of New England, Inc., RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., Case No. 20-cv-12244-PBS, in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, filed on December 17, 2020.

Beginning in March 2019, multiple putative class actions were filed against the National Association of Realtors ("NAR"), or in one case a multiple listing service ("MLS") defendant rather than NAR, RE/MAX, LLC, and other real estate companies, alleging that certain NAR rules (or MLS rules) violated federal and state antitrust laws by inflating broker commissions. The complaints make substantially similar allegations and seek substantially similar relief. Plaintiffs generally allege that NAR's rule requiring listing brokers to make a blanket, non-negotiable offer of buyer broker compensation results in increased costs to sellers and violates antitrust law. They further allege that certain defendants use their agreements with franchisees to require adherence to the NAR rule also in violation of antitrust law. Amended complaints added allegations of buyer steering and nondisclosure of buyer-broker compensation. The cases listed above, along with the Copycat Cases (defined below), are collectively referred to as the "Moehrl-related antitrust litigations."

On October 5, 2023, RE/MAX, LLC entered into a nationwide settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") to resolve all claims in the Burnett and Moehrl cases and similar claims on a nationwide class basis (collectively, the "Nationwide Claims"). The Settlement Agreement would release RE/MAX, LLC and RE/MAX, Holdings, Inc. (collectively, "REMAX Parties"), their subsidiaries and affiliates, and REMAX sub-franchisors, franchisees and their sales associates in the United States from the Nationwide Claims. By the terms of the Settlement Agreement, RE/MAX, LLC agreed to implement specified business practice changes and pay $55.0 million into a qualified settlement escrow fund.

The Settlement Agreement and any actions taken to carry out the Settlement Agreement are not an admission or concession of liability, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or point of fact or law on the part of any party. RE/MAX, LLC continues to deny the material allegations of the complaints in the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations and the Copycat Cases (as defined below). RE/MAX, LLC entered into the settlement after considering the risks and costs of continuing the litigation. On May 9, 2024 the court granted final approval of the Settlement Agreement. Appeals were subsequently filed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, including by a plaintiff in the Batton Action (defined below). The Settlement Agreement will become effective if the order approving the Settlement Agreement is affirmed at the conclusion of the appeals process. The court heard oral argument on the appeal on January 14, 2026. The REMAX Parties intend to vigorously defend against all remaining claims, including appeals.

3. Monty March v.    Christina Grace v. Bay Area Real Estate Information Services, Inc.; Marin Association of Realtors; North Bay Association of Realtors; Northern Solano County Association of Realtors, Inc.; Solano Association of Realtors, Inc.; RE/MAX Holdings, Inc.; Anywhere Real Estate Inc.; Vanguard Properties, Inc.; Twin Oaks Real Estate, Inc.; Windermere Real Estate Services Company Inc.; Rapisarda & Fox, Inc.; Realty ONE Group, Inc.; Keller Williams Realty, Inc.; Compass, Inc.; and eXp World Holdings, Inc., Case No. 23-cv-06352, filed on December 8, 2023, in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California.

Willsim Latham, LLC v. MetroList Services, Inc., Sacramento Association of Realtors, Inc., Placer County Association of Realtors, Inc., El Dorado County Association of Realtors, Lodi Association of Realtors, Yolo County Association of Realtors, Central Valley Association of Realtors, Amador County Association of Realtors, Nevada County Association of Realtors, Sutter-Yuba Association of Realtors, RE/MAX Holdings, Inc., Anywhere Real Estate Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., eXp World Holdings, Inc., Norcal Gold Inc., Century 21 Select Real Estate, Inc., William L. Lyon & Associates, Inc. Paul M. Zagaris, Inc., Guide Real Estate, Inc., Case No. 24-at-00067, filed on January 18, 2024 in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California.

Copycat lawsuits to the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations were later filed by plaintiff Monty March in the Southern District of New York (the "March Action"), plaintiff Christina Grace in the Northern District of California (the "Grace Action"), and plaintiff Willsim Latham, LLC in the Eastern District of California (the "Willsim Action") (together the "Copycat Cases"). The Copycat Cases are stayed pending resolution of the appeal of the Settlement Agreement. RE/MAX, LLC intends to vigorously defend against all claims.

4. Mya Batton, Aaron Bolton, Michael Brace, Do Yeon Kim, Anna James, James Mullis, Theodore Bisbicos, and Daniel Parsons v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, The Long & Foster Companies, Inc., RE/MAX, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., Case No. 21-cv-00430, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, filed on January 25, 2021.

On January 25, 2021, a similar action to the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations was filed in the Northern District of Illinois (the "Batton Action") alleging violations of federal antitrust law and unjust enrichment. The complaint makes substantially similar allegations and seeks similar relief as the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations but alleges harm to homebuyers rather than home sellers. RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to dismiss which was granted on May 2, 2022. The plaintiffs filed an amended complaint adding state antitrust and consumer protection claims, and RE/MAX, LLC filed a subsequent motion to dismiss. On February 20, 2024, the court dismissed plaintiffs' claim seeking injunctive relief for violations of the Sherman Act and dismissed certain state law claims in Tennessee and Kansas. The court denied the remainder of RE/MAX, LLC's motion to dismiss. The only claims that remain are state law claims, and on April 15, 2024, RE/MAX, LLC filed its answer. Plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to file a second amended complaint on December 2, 2024, which sought to add new named plaintiffs and new claims. Defendants opposed and the court denied the motion on May 7, 2025. On September 22, 2025, plaintiffs filed a motion seeking to certify a class. On November 13, 2025, the court struck the plaintiffs' motion to certify a class without prejudice and ordered the class certification briefing stayed until the Burnett appeal is resolved. On March 19, 2026, RE/MAX, LLC entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement (the "Batton Settlement") to resolve all remaining claims against RE/MAX, LLC in the Batton Action that were not released by the Settlement Agreement in the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations. The Batton Settlement releases RE/MAX, LLC and RE/MAX Holdings, Inc., their subsidiaries and affiliates, and REMAX sub-franchisors, franchisees and their sales associates in the United States from the claims. Under the Batton Settlement, RE/MAX, LLC has agreed to pay a total settlement amount of $8.5 million (the "Settlement Amount") to a qualified settlement fund, which will be paid as follows: $1.5 million following preliminary court approval of the Settlement and the remaining $7.0 million following final court approval of the Batton Settlement (including any appeals). The Batton Settlement and any actions taken to carry out the Batton Settlement are not an admission or concession of liability, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or point of fact or law on the part of RE/MAX, LLC. RE/MAX, LLC continues to deny the material allegations of the Batton Action. RE/MAX, LLC entered into the Batton Settlement after considering the risks and costs of continuing the litigation. On March 31, 2026, the court granted preliminary approval of the Batton Settlement and set a hearing for final approval for July 28, 2026. The Batton Settlement remains subject to final court approval and will become effective upon such final approval (subject to any appeals).

RE/MAX, LLC intends to continue to vigorously defend the matter, including against any objections to the settlement or appeals.

5. Homie Technology, Inc. v. National Association of Realtors, Anywhere Real Estate, Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., HomeServices of America, Inc. HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Wasatch Front Regional Multiple Listing Service, Inc., Case No. 24-cv-00616, in the United States District Court for the District of Utah, Central Division.

On August 22, 2024, plaintiff Homie Technology, Inc. ("Homie") filed suit against the National Association of Realtors, Anywhere Real Estate, Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., HomeServices of America, Inc., HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Wasatch Front Regional Multiple Listing Service, Inc. in the United States District Court for the District of Utah. The lawsuit alleges certain NAR rules, many of which were at issue in the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations, created a barrier to entry for Homie as a competitor, and that other defendants agreed and/or conspired to implement these rules and engaged in conduct that foreclosed Homie from competing. The complaint alleges federal and state antitrust claims and tortious interference. The plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and an unspecified amount of damages. RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to dismiss on October 18, 2024. On July 15, 2025, the court dismissed the lawsuit and Homie's claims. Homie filed an appeal on August 7, 2025 to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. The court scheduled oral argument for May 12, 2026. RE/MAX, LLC intends to vigorously defend the appeal.

William Siegle vs. RE/MAX, LLC and John/Jane Does 1-10; Case No.: 23-cv-03102, in the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, filed on February 1, 2023.

On February 1, 2023, the franchise owner of RE/MAX Hometown in New Jersey, William Siegle, abandoned his franchise and filed a complaint against RE/MAX, LLC in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Burlington County, Case No.: BUR-L-000230-23, alleging claims of tortious interference, breach of contract, and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. On March 29, 2023, RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to remove the case to federal court and also filed a motion to transfer the case to Colorado or in the alternative dismiss the case. On November 21, 2023, the court granted RE/MAX, LLC's motion to transfer the case to Colorado. On January 31, 2024, plaintiff filed an amended complaint adding allegations that RE/MAX, LLC encouraged another REMAX franchisee to recruit and hire plaintiff's real estate agents in violation of a previous independent contractor agreement between the owner of the REMAX franchise and plaintiff. On February 14, 2024, RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to dismiss plaintiff's claims and on February 16, 2024, RE/MAX, LLC filed counterclaims against plaintiff to recover money owed under the franchise agreement and damages for plaintiff's unfair competition, trademark counterfeiting and infringement, copyright infringement, and to enjoin plaintiff from further misuse of the REMAX trademarks and copyrighted works. On September 23, 2024, the court granted RE/MAX, LLC's motion to dismiss plaintiff's claims with prejudice. On December 5, 2024, RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion seeking its attorneys' fees incurred in connection with claims brought by plaintiff. A settlement conference occurred on April 8, 2025, and in June the parties entered into a settlement agreement. As part of the agreement, Mr. Siegle agreed to pay $150,000 to RE/MAX, LLC and a consent judgment was entered stating, among other things, that Mr. Siegle breached the franchise agreement by abandoning his franchise before the term of his franchise agreement expired and by continuing to use the REMAX trademarks and copyrighted works following his abandonment. After entering the consent judgment, the court closed the case on June 12, 2025.

BANKRUPTCY

No bankruptcy is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Item 5

INITIAL FEES

If you are purchasing a REMAX franchise, you must pay us a nonrefundable initial franchise fee when you sign the Franchise Agreement, as provided in this Item 5:

If you are purchasing a REMAX franchise other than a Commercial REMAX Franchise (as defined below) or Team Franchise you will pay us the following initial franchise fee based on the general population density of the market area where the Office will be located, as determined by us:

(a) $35,000 in areas that we determine have a general population of 70,000 or more people ("high-density market"); or

(b) $17,500 in areas that we determine have a general population of fewer than 70,000 but at least 20,000 people, that are substantially distant from a major urban area ("medium-density market").

(c) $8,750 in areas that we determine have a general population of fewer than 20,000 people, that are substantially distant from an urban area and in which no appreciable population growth is envisioned ("low-density market").

We have the right to re-classify a market (e.g., from a low-density market to a medium-density, or from a medium-density to a high-density market, and vice versa) upon renewal of the franchise.

Commercial Franchise. If you are purchasing a REMAX franchise that will provide authorized services with respect to commercial real estate only (subject to certain specified exceptions) ("Commercial REMAX Franchise"), you will pay us an initial franchise fee of $25,000 (regardless of population density of the market area) when you sign the Franchise Agreement and the Commercial Office Addendum.

Team Franchise. If you are purchasing a Team Franchise, you must pay us an initial franchise fee of $1,000 (regardless of population density of the market area) upon signing of the Franchise Agreement and the Team Franchise Addendum.

Financing. You may finance the initial franchise fee as provided in Item 10, in which case your initial franchise fee will be $37,500 for a high-density market residential franchise; $19,000 for a medium-density market residential franchise, $9,500 for a low-density market residential franchise, and $27,000 for a Commercial REMAX Franchise (such financed initial franchise fee, the "Financed IFF"). You may not finance the initial franchise fee for a Team Franchise.

We may waive, reduce, or defer the initial fees and/or revise the related payment terms for any reason, including, without limitation, in order to: (i) facilitate conversions of independent businesses to REMAX; (ii) accommodate certain existing franchisees that acquire additional offices; or (iii) encourage expansion in certain markets. For example, at the present time, we may, in our sole determination, offer opportunities to purchase a franchise at a reduced initial franchise fee to (a) qualified existing franchisees in good standing or (b) qualified prospective franchisees that are converting existing single or multiple real estate offices to REMAX. We may discontinue these or any other opportunities or variations to the standard initial franchise fee ("incentives") at any time and we reserve the right not to make any incentives available. Your compliance at all times with all of the material provisions of the Franchise Agreement will be required for you to be eligible for any and all incentives. If you receive an incentive and you later default in any of your material obligations under your Franchise Agreement, we reserve the right to terminate your eligibility for any and all incentives. If you fail to cure such default within the cure period provided in your franchise agreement, or if such default cannot be cured, then in addition to any other remedies available to us, we reserve the right to require you to repay on demand any and all incentives that you received from us prior to such default.

During calendar year 2025, franchisees paid initial franchise fees ranging from $0 to $17,500 for residential franchises in markets with population of less than 30,000; $0 to $35,000 for residential franchise in markets with population of 30,000 or more. Discounts to the initial franchise fee were granted based on factors such as a conversion or assistance with expansion in certain markets as noted above in this Item 5. We did not sell any commercial franchises or Team Franchises in 2025.

Footnotes applicable to the Item 6 tables:

[1] Except as noted below, all fees are uniformly imposed and collected by and payable to either RE/MAX Regional or one of its affiliates. All fees are non-refundable. You will be required to pay all amounts to us in accordance with such procedures that we may specify. As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, we accept payment via automated clearing house ("ACH") or another electronic funds transfer ("EFT"). We may require alternate methods of payment in the future, in which case you will be required to pay any associated processing fees and surcharges. Before your Office begins operating, you will be required to sign and deliver to us the documents we require to authorize us to debit your business checking account for the amounts due to us and/or our affiliates (the "EDTA"). You may be required to sign a Withdrawal Authorization Form; the current form is attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit A-1. Alternatively, you may be prompted in our online billing system ("Agent Office Portal") to provide banking information for automatic payment (if we allow you to pay by credit card, you may be charged a credit card processing fee or surcharge). We will debit the EDTA for these amounts on their due dates. You will be required to ensure that funds are available in the EDTA to cover such withdrawals.

[2] The term "Sales Associate" means an individual whose real estate license is registered with the Office, including, without limitation, sales associates, broker associates, brokers, managers, licensed administrators and/or each designated or managing broker of record (a "licensed administrator", also known as a licensed assistant, is a real estate licensee assisting Sales Associates in your Office who primarily performs administrative tasks, does not accept or close real estate listing transactions in his or her name and does not show properties, does not earn commissions but rather is paid by a Sales Associate, and except as specifically provided in the Business Manual, does not use the Marks or market him or herself to the public as a real estate professional). You will be required to pay all fees to us as provided in this Item 6 whether or not you collect corresponding dues or fees from your Sales Associates.

[3] Monthly Ongoing Fees. You will be required to pay us the following monthly ongoing fees ("Monthly Ongoing Fees"):

● Continuing Franchise Fee ("CFF"). The amount of the CFF you will pay will depend on the state in which your Office is located, as follows:

State	CFF (per month per Sales Associate)
Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, or Vermont	$170
Indiana	$154
Minnesota/Wisconsin	$143

You will be required to pay us, on a monthly basis, the applicable CFF for the greater of (i) the actual number of Sales Associates in your Office during the previous calendar month or (ii) the applicable number of Sales Associates you are required to have under the Minimum Agent Count (see Item 12). We recommend that you, in turn, charge each of your Sales Associates a monthly management fee to cover the cost of the CFF.

If you operate multiple REMAX offices and you are in compliance with your franchise agreements except that you only meet the Minimum Agent Count on an aggregate basis (and not under each franchise agreement separately), we may elect to calculate CFF and Marketing Fees based on your actual Sales Associate count for the Office (even if it is below Minimum Agent Count). However, this election will not waive any of our rights to enforce your full compliance with the Minimum Agent Count requirement.

● Broker Fee. Except as provided below with respect to Legacy Sales Associates (if applicable), you will be required to pay us a Broker Fee in an amount equal to 1% of Revenue handled by each one of your Sales Associates during the previous calendar month whether or not you actually collect any corresponding fee from your Sales Associates. We recommend that you retain a small percentage of the Revenue handled by your Sales Associates to cover the Broker Fee. "Revenue" means and includes the total gross commissions, including referral fees, and all other revenue earned, derived or otherwise generated in connection with Authorized Services, including all Authorized Services handled by each of your Sales Associates, whether under any of the Marks or otherwise, before any deductions. Revenue excludes the portion of the commissions earned from each Authorized Services transaction that you paid as a referral fee to another REMAX franchisee, us, or an authorized outside referral source. Revenue means the aggregate dollar amount, whether for cash or credit or non-cash payments or consideration at fair market value, regardless of collection in the case of credit, before the deductions of any fees, costs or expenses you incur.

Legacy Sales Associates. In Minnesota and Wisconsin, there are a few franchisees who were franchisees before the Broker Fee was implemented who are presently not required to pay a Broker Fee for some of their Sales Associates ("Legacy Sales Associates"), and who may be entitled to renew their franchise relationship with RE/MAX Regional under terms that do not require the payment of a Broker Fee for those Legacy Sales Associates. In such cases, those franchisees are required to pay a higher CFF ("Legacy CFF") on behalf of those Legacy Sales Associates. The Legacy CFF will increase at the same time and in the same amount as any increase in the CFF.

● Technology Fee. Although not currently in effect, we reserve the right, upon 12 months' notice, to implement a technology fee to offset our cost of certain technology solutions we make available to our franchisees. If implemented, you would be required to pay us, on a monthly basis, a Technology Fee of up to $35, multiplied by the greater of (i) the actual number of Sales Associates in your Office during the previous calendar month or (ii) the applicable number of Sales Associates you are required to have under the Minimum Agent Count (see Item 12). If implemented, the Technology Fee will be subject to an increase by not more than $5 per year on 60 days' notice.

Your failure to establish or require your Sales Associates to pay corresponding fees to you, or your failure to collect such fees, will not relieve you of your obligation to remit all Monthly Ongoing Fees to us in a timely manner.

We currently offer the following optional pilot programs that alter the Monthly Ongoing Fees (and the Marketing Fees) for participating franchisees as follows:

Aspire Program.

We currently offer an optional pilot program called the "Aspire Program", pursuant to which each participating franchisee pays to us alternative ongoing monthly fees with respect to newly recruited Sales Associates who have not been associated with the REMAX network in the 90 days prior to affiliation ("Qualified Sales Associates") and whom the franchisee designates as subject to the Aspire Program, for a limited period of 12 months from the date of the Qualified Sales Associate's affiliation with the franchisee's Office (the "Eligibility Period"). Under the Aspire Program, with respect to each Qualified Sales Associate, during the Qualified Sales Associate's Eligibility Period:

- The franchisee pays no CFF and no separate Marketing Fee;
- The Broker Fee is 5% of Revenue (the "Aspire Broker Fee");
- The Aspire Broker Fee is capped at $5,000 per Qualified Sales Associate;
- The franchisee pays a $25 fee per closed transaction side handled by a Qualified Sales Associate; and
- We allocate a minimum of 1% of the Aspire Broker Fee to the Marketing Fund.

If you wish to participate in the Aspire Program, you must sign our then-current version of the REMAX Aspire Program Addendum, the current version of which is attached as Exhibit A-8. We may terminate or modify the Aspire Program at any time.

Ascend Plan.

In addition to the Aspire Program, we offer to all franchisees another optional pilot program called the "Ascend Plan", pursuant to which a franchisee may elect an alternative fee structure with respect to the monthly ongoing fees. If you wish to participate in the Ascend Plan, you must sign the then-current version of the REMAX Ascend Plan Addendum, the current versions of which are attached as Exhibit A-6 (if you are a new REMAX franchisee, you will sign the addendum included in Exhibit A-6a; if you are a renewing franchisee or are purchasing an existing REMAX franchise, you will sign the addendum included in Exhibit A-6b). Under the Ascend Plan, in lieu of the CFF and the Marketing Fee, you will pay us a monthly fixed fee, currently in the applicable amount as provided in the table below (the "Ascend Fixed Fee") per each Sales Associate enrolled in the Ascend Plan:

State	Ascend Fixed Fee (per Sales Associate)
Minnesota/Wisconsin	$140

We will allocate a minimum of 35% of the Ascend Fixed Fee to the Marketing Fund. We will have the right to annually increase the Ascend Fixed Fee, provided that any increase will not exceed 10% of the amount in effect at the time of the increase. In lieu of the Broker Fee, you will pay us an amount equal to 5% of Revenue (the "Ascend Broker Fee"); the Ascend Broker Fee will be capped annually at $3,000 per individual Sales Associate participating in the Ascend Plan (for Teams enrolled in the Ascend Plan, there will be an annual cap of $3,000 per Team Leader, plus $2,000 per the 2nd through 5th Team Member, plus $1,000 per each additional Team Member; Licensed Administrators are not counted as Team Members and are not included in the Team cap). In addition, each franchisee on the Ascend Plan will pay a $25 fee per closed transaction side (the "Ascend Transaction Fee") handled by each Sales Associate that is subject to the Ascend Plan. We may discontinue the Ascend Plan at any time.

You will have two enrollment options: (1) you can enroll in the Ascend Plan with respect to all of your Sales Associates (the "All Ascend Option"), or (2) you can enroll in the Ascend Plan with respect to some but not all of your Sales Associates (the "Hybrid Option").

(A) If you elect the All Ascend Option: (i) any Sales Associates on the Aspire Program will be enrolled in the Ascend Plan after completing the Aspire Program; and (ii) if you have any Sales Associates subject to the Gold Plan (as defined in footnote 6 below), you will be permitted to keep such Sales Associates on the Gold Plan.

(B) If you elect the Hybrid Option, then: (i) if you are entering into a Franchise Agreement other than in connection with a franchise renewal or a transfer, with respect to all Sales Associates affiliated with your Office upon Office opening, you may elect the ongoing monthly fee structure disclosed above in this Item 6 table (the "Current Plan") or the Ascend Plan; provided that all such Sales Associates are on the same plan; (ii) if you are entering into a Franchise Agreement in connection with a franchise renewal or transfer, then with respect to all Sales Associates affiliated with your Office upon the renewal or transfer you stay on the Current Plan; (iii) with respect to any Sales Associates who subsequently join your Office and who were affiliated with another REMAX office in the prior 90 days, you are subject to the Current Plan; and (iv) with respect to Qualified Sales Associates (as defined above in this footnote 3), you can elect either the Ascend Plan or the Current Plan, provided that all Sales Associates on the same Team will be subject to the same fee structure. If you are an existing REMAX franchisee participating in the Pivot Plan pilot program, the fees applicable under the Pivot Plan are considered part of the Current Plan for purposes of the Ascend Plan. For avoidance of doubt, (a) with respect to all Sales Associates enrolled in the Aspire Program, you will be able to elect either the Current Plan or the Ascend Plan upon their completion of the Aspire Program; (b) you will not be able to participate in the Pivot Plan if you have not enrolled in it prior to December 31, 2025; (c) if an individual Sales Associate affiliated with your office at the time of your Hybrid Option enrollment recruits at least two Qualified Sales Associates (excluding Licensed Administrators), you may enroll the individual Sales Associate (as Team Leader) and the Qualified Sales Associates (as Team Members) in the Ascend Plan as a Team; and (d) if a Team Leader of a Team affiliated with your office upon enrollment recruits at least two Qualified Sales Associates to join the Team, you may then elect to enroll the Team in the Ascend Plan.

4 Following at least 60 days' notice to you, RE/MAX, LLC may increase Annual Dues once in any calendar year; however, the increase will not exceed 20% of the then-existing fee. From time to time, and solely at RE/MAX, LLC's and/or RE/MAX Regional's discretion, RE/MAX Regional or RE/MAX, LLC may offer qualified, existing franchisees in good standing that acquire additional offices, or prospective franchisees that are converting an existing real estate office or merging with a REMAX real estate office, a temporary waiver or deferral of Annual Dues. To facilitate or encourage Sales Associate recruitment, from time to time, and solely at our discretion, we may offer existing franchisees in good standing the opportunity to participate in programs that may provide a temporary waiver or deferral of all or a portion of Annual Dues to a limited number of new Sales Associate recruits within an office. RE/MAX, LLC and RE/MAX Regional may discontinue such incentives or programs at any time.

We may allow you to pay Annual Dues by credit card or EFT. If a Sales Associate has been in the REMAX System for at least 12 consecutive months, you may choose to pay the Annual Dues in either one lump sum or by credit card or EFT in monthly or quarterly installments over a 12-month period (in the latter case, we reserve the right to charge a convenience fee of up to 5% of the then-current Annual Dues amount). We currently accept MasterCard®, VISA®, or American Express®.

5 The Marketing Fee that you pay will depend on what state your Office is located in (and a different Marketing Fee applies to licensed administrators in certain states), as follows:

State	Marketing Fee per Sales Associate (other than Licensed Administrator)	Marketing Fee per Licensed Administrator
Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, or Vermont	$127	$127
Minnesota/Wisconsin	$131	$46

There are currently no advertising cooperatives. If advertising cooperatives are set up, franchisor-owned or sub-franchisor-owned outlets (if any) will not have controlling voting power on any fees imposed by the cooperatives.

6 As an acknowledgement of their many years with the REMAX network, Sales Associates who are at least 70 years old and who have been in the REMAX network for at least 10 cumulative years may be eligible to be enrolled in our pilot program, the "Appreciate Plan", pursuant to which, with respect to each such qualified Sales Associate who you enroll in the Appreciate Plan (each, an "Appreciate Sales Associate"), you will not be required to pay the CFF or Marketing Fee, and in lieu of such fees you will pay (i) a revised Broker Fee of 5% of Revenue of such Appreciate Sales Associate ("Appreciate Broker Fee"); and (ii) a $100 fee per closed transaction side handled by such Appreciate Sales Associate. Appreciate Sales Associates also pay reduced Annual Dues of $99 per year. If you would like eligible Sales Associates in your Office to participate in the Appreciate Plan, you will be required to sign our then-current version of the REMAX Appreciate Plan Addendum, the current version of which is included as Exhibit A-7. We may amend or discontinue the Appreciate Plan upon a 12-months' notice.

The Appreciate Plan replaces the predecessor REMAX Gold Plan (the "Gold Plan"). If you are an existing REMAX franchisee and you currently have Sales Associates enrolled in the Gold Plan, you may elect to keep those Sales Associates on the Gold Plan so long as they continue to qualify, and with respect to such Sales Associates, you will continue to be subject to the fee structure available under the Gold Plan; however, you will not be able to enroll any additional Sales Associates in the Gold Plan as the Gold Plan is otherwise replaced by the Appreciate Plan.

7 From time to time, and solely at our discretion, we may vary, waive, reduce, defer, make an exception to, or offer a completely different alternative fee structure to the ones currently disclosed in this Item 6 and such exceptions to our fee structure may be for a limited time and/or offered in connection with specific campaigns or promotions. We may discontinue such programs ("incentives") at any time and we reserve the right not to make any such incentives available in certain circumstances. Your compliance at all times with all of the material provisions of your franchise agreement will be required for you to be eligible for any and all incentives. If you default in any of your material obligations to us under your franchise agreement, we will reserve the right to terminate your eligibility for any and all such incentives. If you fail to cure any such default within the cure period provided in your franchise agreement, or if such default cannot be cured, then in addition to any other remedies available to us, we reserve the right to require you to repay on demand any and all incentives that you received from us prior to such default.

8 If you are in Minnesota or Wisconsin, you will be required to pay a monthly Hot Air Balloon Fund Fee of $100. If you are in Indiana, you will be required to pay a monthly Hot Air Balloon Fund Fee of $125 per month if your Office is in a low-density market; $150 per month if your Office is in a medium-density market; or $175 per month if your Office is in a high-density market. The fees will be used to cover the cost of the operation of REMAX hot air balloons for public relations and promotional programs in Indiana, Minnesota, and Wisconsin.

If you are in Indiana, you will also be required to pay us or our designee a Regional Development fee of $200 per month if your Office is in a high-density market or $150 per month if your Office is a low-density or medium-density market. We may increase the fee once a calendar year, but not by more than 20% of the amount of the then-current amount.

9 In the event of a renewal, you will not pay us an initial franchise fee. However, at least 90 days prior to the expiration of your expiring franchise agreement, a nonrefundable renewal fee is payable to us, the amount of which depends on whether you are renewing a residential REMAX franchise (in a low-density, medium-density or high-density market) or a commercial REMAX franchise or a Team Franchise, and whether you are paying the fee in a lump sum or financing it as provided in Item 10:

	Low-density market residential franchise	Medium-density market residential franchise	High-density market residential franchise	Commercial franchise	Team Franchise
Renewal Fee	$3,000 ($3,500 if financed over 12 months)	$6,000 ($7,000 if financed over 12 months)	$12,500 ($14,000 if financed over 12 months)	$9,000 ($10,250 if financed over 12 months)	$500

If you are eligible to finance the renewal fee, the monthly installments will be debited from your bank account (and if we allow you to pay by credit card, you may be charged a credit card processing fee or surcharge; see Item 10).

[10] If you wish to obtain an optional "golf certified real estate agent" certification, you must attend and successfully complete our golf certification education course, which we currently offer at $499 per person (plus you must pay for your related travel expenses). See also Item 11.

[11] Lost Future Revenue shall be calculated as the combined Monthly Ongoing Fees, Annual Dues, and Marketing Fees that would have been payable under the Franchise Agreement from the date of early termination of the Franchise Agreement through the remainder of the term of the Franchise Agreement, multiplied by the greater of: (i) the highest number of Sales Associates and unreported agents affiliated with your Office during any month prior to early termination; or (ii) the number of Sales Associates required under the Franchise Agreement to have been affiliated with the Office during such period remaining in the term of the Franchise Agreement, plus all incentives that have been granted to you at any time during the term of the Franchise Agreement. We may also seek intangible damages and any and all other damages or remedies to which we may be entitled at law or in equity.

[12] If you fail to report Sales Associates to us (each, an "Unreported Agent"), to cure the default under the Franchise Agreement you must pay us a $1,000 fee per Unreported Agent, and we reserve the right to also charge you for all Monthly Ongoing Fees, Annual Dues, and Marketing Fees for such Unreported Agent(s) for the period beginning on the earliest of (i) the date of the first transaction the Unreported Agent had under your Office; (ii) the date such Unreported Agent's real estate license was first registered with your Office in the state real estate commission's records, or (iii) the date we first discovered such Unreported Agent, and until the date this default has been fully cured.

[13] If you purchase a Team Franchise, you will be required to pay us a $100 Monthly Ongoing Team Office Fee. If you wish to renew your right to operate a Team Franchise, you will also be required to pay us a nonrefundable $500 Team Franchise Renewal Fee.

Explanatory Notes

[1] Unless otherwise noted, all fees payable to us in this Item 7 are non-refundable. Payments you make to parties other than us or our affiliates may be refundable and/or financed at the option of the other party.

[2] The Initial Franchise Fee is non-refundable. You will pay $8,750 if you purchase a REMAX residential franchise in a low-density market, $17,500 if you purchase a franchise in a medium-density market, and $35,000 for a franchise in a high-density market. For a Commercial REMAX Franchise, the initial franchise fee is $25,000. For a team franchise, your initial franchise fee will be $1,000. See also Item 5. If you finance your Initial Franchise Fee as provided in Item 10, you will sign a promissory note, you will pay an installment fee as part of the financed initial franchise fee and you will be required to make a 50% down payment. Financing is not available for the initial franchise fee for a team franchise. See also Item 10.

[3] If you are starting a new office, you will be required to have at least 1,000 square feet (700 square feet if you are starting a new office in a low-density market, and at least 600 square feet for a Team Franchise Office) of office space to start and should plan to expand to be able to accommodate the minimum number of Sales Associates you will be required to have by the end of the third year of the Franchise Agreement. The exact size of your Office will depend on the number of Sales Associates you anticipate having under contract and the availability of office space in your area. If you are converting an existing real estate office rather than starting a new office, your initial investment for Office space improvements may be closer to the low end of the range. If you are starting a new office that is 1,000 square feet in size, these costs could be closer to the higher end of the range. The actual cost of the office space improvements, however, will depend on whether you lease or purchase the space, the size, condition and location of the Office premises, the demand for the Office premises among prospective lessees, the type of tenant finish or improvement you choose and how you choose to design the Office premises. (See footnote 11).

[4] Unless prohibited by a state or local ordinance, or the landlord of the Premises, you must also have one or more exterior office signs depicting your authorized trade name as identified in the Franchise Agreement, which must comply with our brand standards described in the Business Manual.

[5] Your Office (other than a Team Office) must be staffed by at least one full-time person. Your Office must be equipped with furniture and other miscellaneous office equipment (including a phone system, printer and a copier) necessary to conduct a real estate brokerage business. The costs you incur may vary significantly and will depend, in large part, on whether you are converting an existing real estate office which already has much of the furniture and fixtures you will need, or you are starting a new office, whether you lease or finance your furniture and fixtures or purchase them outright, and the size of your office. If you are starting a new office and purchase your furniture and fixtures outright, or if your office is larger than 1,000 square feet, your initial outlay may be considerably higher than the upper range listed in the table. (See also footnotes 11 and 12).

[6] You must install and maintain at the Office a technology system with hardware, networking and software that meets our specifications and is compatible with our communication and data reporting requirements, as well as high-speed Internet and email access. Costs for computer hardware, networking, software, and other office technology can vary significantly, depending on the quality you choose, the automation requirements of your Office, and whether you purchase or lease. You must have a computer per each staff member. If you or someone you employ does not have the expertise, you will need to obtain a maintenance contract with a reputable organization for your Technology System and related equipment. This estimate also includes the cost to obtain QuickBooks Online by Intuit ("QuickBooks") needed to use the required BoldTrail Back Office Software. The low end of the estimate assumes that you purchase an entry-level laptop computer that meets our minimum specifications, with a MS Windows license; you purchase three months of minimal maintenance support, three months of QuickBooks subscription, and email and Internet services, and you pay for minimal antivirus and data security systems. The high-end of the estimate assumes that you purchase two higher-end laptop computers; you sign up for annual contracts with maintenance providers and pay the contract cost upfront; you have more than 50 Sales Associates and so you pay higher QuickBooks fees; you are in a jurisdiction where MLS or other real estate database provider charges for data integration (see also Item 11), and you choose more expensive email and internet service solutions as well as more comprehensive antivirus and data security solutions. See Item 11 for more detailed information pertaining to our Technology System requirements.

[7] This category covers various supplies you will need prior to opening the real estate brokerage business, including such items as business cards, "for sale" property signs, stationery, postage, and the like.

[8] You or your principal owner (and your Manager if your principal owner will not manage the day-to-day operations of the Office) must attend and complete our mandatory 4-day (approximately) initial training program ("Initial Education Program") in person at our headquarters in Denver, Colorado. The Initial Education Program is free of charge, but you will be responsible for all travel, meal, lodging, and entertainment expenses each attendee from the Office incurs to attend the Initial Education Program. The low-end of the estimate assumes one to two attendees traveling to training from nearby states, and the high-end of the estimate assumes one to two attendees traveling from more distant locations (such as the east coast of the U.S. or Hawaii).

[9] You must obtain and maintain certain types and amounts of insurance (see Item 8). Insurance costs depend on such factors as policy limits, types of policies, nature and value of physical assets, gross revenue, number of Sales Associates, square footage, geographic location of the office (insurance premiums may vary by state), claim history, and other factors bearing on risk exposure. Therefore, your actual cost may be higher than this range, especially if you purchase more coverage than the minimum coverage required under the Franchise Agreement. Cyber insurance costs also vary depending on the information technology controls that you implement, whether you encrypt data, and whether you implement multi-factor authentication.

[10] You will also incur miscellaneous opening costs and expenses, such as broker and other required licenses, security deposit and advertising costs (including, but not limited to, a grand opening promotion costs), legal and accounting expenses, and deposits for gas, electricity and related utilities. As with other categories, the costs you incur will depend largely on whether you are converting an existing office (where your costs can generally be expected to be closer to the low end of the range) or starting a new office where your costs will generally be closer to the high end of the range.

[11] This category estimates the additional expenses (other than the items identified separately in the table) you may incur before operations begin and during the initial three-month period after the Office begins operations. These expenses include payroll costs, rent or mortgage payments, Internet service provider fees (necessary for high-speed Internet and email access) and other overhead expenses. The monetary figures reflected in this category do not include any amounts you may need for personal or living expenses. Your costs will depend on whether you are converting an existing real estate office with Sales Associates or starting a new office with no Sales Associates; the size of your Office premises and staff; local economic conditions; the local market for your services; the prevailing wage range; and competition. In general, these costs may be closer to the low end of the range if you are converting an existing office and between $15,000 and $80,000 if you are starting a new office. To compile these estimates, we relied on our 50+ years of experience in managing and developing this franchise system, on the real estate experience of some of our officers, and on financial information obtained from REMAX offices. You should discuss your cash flow needs and capital budget with a professional accountant or advisor knowledgeable in financial planning for new business enterprises.

[12] This is the total estimated range of costs you might incur prior to opening your Office and/or during the first 3 months of operation as a franchisee and it is based on the assumption that you have an office with 1,000 square feet—the minimum required during the initial phase of the Office's operation if your office is located in a high-density market. If your Office is larger than 1,000 square feet, your initial outlay may be considerably higher than the upper range listed in the table, depending upon how much additional space you lease. If you are converting an existing real estate office rather than starting a new office, your initial investment costs may be closer to the lower range indicated in the table. Except as described in Items 5 and 10, we do not offer financing directly or indirectly for any part of the initial investment. These estimates do not include any costs which you might incur to purchase (rather than lease) the Office space, or to acquire an existing real estate business or its assets.

Team Franchise. These initial investment costs should also apply to the opening of a Team Franchise. However, since the initial franchise fee to open a Team Franchise is less than the initial franchise fee for a standard office and since Team Franchise Offices may only accommodate a single team (they can be 600 square feet but not more than 1,500 square feet of office space), your initial investment costs for a Team Franchise should generally be closer to the low end of the range.

Note to Franchise Transferees. It is up to you and the selling franchisee to negotiate and determine the purchase price for the Office, which may include some or all of the items listed in the Item 7 table. We will not necessarily review or comment on the sufficiency or appropriateness of the purchase price to be paid by you. To the extent that any of the items listed above are not included in the purchase price, you may need to incur these costs in addition to the purchase price.

Note to Renewing Franchisees. Upon renewal, as you already have an established office, you will not incur all of the above estimated amounts. However, we may require you to take certain actions to bring the Office up to date with our then-current standards as set forth in the Business Manual. The costs of such actions will vary depending on the circumstances.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

You must maintain the highest standards of quality in order to provide the highest quality of service to your clients, in accordance with the standards of the REMAX System, as specified in the Business Manual. You must use, in the operation of the Office, and in the offer and sale of the services and products we approve, only those techniques, procedures, and supplies that we specify or that comply with our System standards. You must offer all, and only such, services and products as we approve from time to time. We may change any of our requirements periodically and we will notify you of any changes to the standards.

Approved Supplies and Suppliers

We may furnish you from time to time lists of approved supplies and approved suppliers. We reserve the right to require that you only use approved products, services, supplies, equipment, signs, advertising materials, and other items (the "approved supplies") in the Office operations as described in the approved supplies and approved suppliers' lists, as we may amend from time to time. We also may develop and research new services or products as we determine necessary. We reserve the right to designate a primary or single source of supply for certain services, products and supplies, and we or our affiliates may be that single source. You must pay the then-current price in effect for any purchases from us or our affiliates. You may not contract with an alternative supplier for any products and/or services for which we have designated a supplier.

You may purchase from other suppliers if you follow our supplier approval procedures and obtain our prior written approval. We evaluate suppliers based on a number of criteria including length of time in business, financial resources, business credentials and their ability to provide services or products in accordance with minimum standards for delivery, performance, appearance and quality. Suppliers who wish to be included on our approved supplier list must submit an application package; however, as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document we do not charge an application fee. We will not unreasonably withhold our approval of a supplier and will typically grant or deny approval within approximately 6 months of our receipt of a fully completed application packet. Approved supplier status can be revoked at any time if the approved supplier breaches its agreement with us. We may limit the number of approved suppliers offering similar products or services.

We may also require that other products, supplies, equipment or services you use in connection with the operation of the Office meet our then-current specifications (as we may from time to time modify). Specifications are issued in the Business Manual.

Software-Related Requirements

To facilitate your reporting to us, which includes providing data for each Sales Associate on a monthly basis, and to enhance the operation of your Office, you will be required to use BoldTrail Back Office software developed by Inside RE, LLC d/b/a Inside Real Estate ("Inside Real Estate" or "IRE"), or such other brokerage back-office software or platform as we may designate from time to time ("Back Office Software"), and from such other provider that we may designate. BoldTrail Back Office Software is part of the MAXTech[SM] powered by BoldTrail Platform, an integrated suite of products that we make available to you that includes other tools such as a customer relationship management tool and a content management system tool. You will be required to sign and accept a BoldTrail Back Office License Agreement with IRE ("Back Office License Agreement"), the current form of which is attached as Exhibit A-9a.

In order to be able to use the Back Office Software, you must also purchase and use QuickBooks Online by Intuit or another accounting software that we may designate from time to time. You may choose the version of QuickBooks that is most appropriate for the size of your Office. See also Item 11.

If you are a renewing franchisee, to give you time to transition to using BoldTrail Back Office Software in your Office, we may temporarily waive this requirement (however, within such time frame as we may specify and as we deem necessary, you will be required to start using BoldTrail Back Office Software in your Office). During the temporary waiver period, you will be required to use a brokerage back-office management software system that has capabilities compatible with our communications and data reporting requirements. Such software system must be able to record, track, and monitor transactions involving Authorized Services and provide Office accounting and bookkeeping.

You will also be required to maintain current versions of the Microsoft Windows operating system or macOS, or such operating system as we may specify.

Although we do not currently require that you purchase, lease, or use any hardware or software from any other specific supplier, in the future you may be required to do so.

Marketing Materials.

All advertising and promotional materials, signs and other items we designate must bear the Marks (see Item 13) in the form, color, location and manner we specify in the Business Manual. Your advertising and promotion must be completely factual and conform to the highest standards of ethical and truthful advertising, our System standards, and applicable laws.

MAXRefer.

If you are unable to meet our high service standard with respect to a potential client transaction or elect not to provide service with respect to a potential client transaction, you must refer the potential client transaction to another REMAX office servicing the applicable market pursuant to our REMAX referral program and in accordance with the procedures we may from time to time establish. As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, MAXRefer is our designated REMAX referral program platform. All client referrals that you or your Sales Associates give and/or receive must be made through the MAXRefer platform. RE/MAX, LLC currently administers the MAXRefer platform with its designated vendor, RESAAS. To give or accept a referral through MAXRefer, with respect to each referred transaction, you or your Sales Associate (as applicable) must accept the terms of RESAAS's referral agreement, the current form of which is included as Exhibit A-11. If you accept a referral through the MAXRefer platform, you will be required to pay to the referring Sales Associate, through the MAXRefer platform, a portion of your commission revenue ("Referral Fee") in the amount specified by the referring Sales Associate in the referring Sales Associate's referral offer. RESAAS will deduct a 5.5% processing fee (up to $99) from the Referral Fee. RESAAS will pass one-half of the processing fee to RE/MAX, LLC as consideration for the services that RE/MAX, LLC provides in connection with MAXRefer. See also Item 11.

Insurance

Prior to commencing the operations of the Office, you must obtain, and, at all times during the Term, maintain in force, at your sole expense, such insurance coverage that we from time to time require. As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, we require the following minimum insurance coverage, as more specifically described in the Business Manual: (a) comprehensive general liability insurance of not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence and annual aggregate; (b) real estate errors and omissions professional liability insurance of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and annual aggregate; (c) automobile liability insurance covering owned, hired and non-owned vehicles with combined single limits of $1,000,000; (d) workers compensation insurance in amounts prescribed by law, and employer's liability with a limit of $1,000,000 each accident/disease and in aggregate; (e) cyber/network security and privacy liability insurance of not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit; (f) any insurance coverage required by the Office lease or a lender; and (g) any additional insurance coverage that may be required by law. We also recommend that you obtain and maintain media liability insurance and employment practices liability insurance. From time to time, we may change the minimum amount of coverage required and/or require different or additional types of insurance to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards or other conditions, as provided in the Business Manual. If you operate a commercial REMAX real estate franchise, we may require you to have additional insurance coverage for such operations as specified in the Business Manual. You may satisfy the insurance coverage limits through an umbrella policy that meets the foregoing requirements.

All required insurance policies must (i) commence the day the Office begins business operations; (ii) name RE/MAX Holdings, Inc., RE/MAX, LLC and RE/MAX Regional (and other affiliates that we may designate, as well as our and their respective officers, directors, and employees) as additional insureds; (iii) provide RE/MAX Holdings, Inc., RE/MAX, LLC and RE/MAX Regional primary and noncontributory insurance coverage; (iv) contain a waiver by the insurance carrier of all subrogation rights against the additional insureds; and (v) contain a provision that we receive 30 days' prior written notice of termination, expiration, cancellation, or modification of any such policy. You must obtain insurance policies from an insurance company with an A.M. Best's rating of at least an A- and an A.M. Best's financial size category of at least VIII. You must furnish to us or our designee a copy of the certificate of insurance at least 30 days prior to Office opening and thereafter annually (or at each renewal or extension) or at our or our designee's request. We may designate an insurance agency or broker that you must use, at your expense, to comply with your insurance obligations hereunder, which insurance agency or broker may be us or an affiliate. Your obligations with respect to insurance will not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that we or our affiliates maintain, nor will the insurance requirements be deemed to limit in any manner the liabilities and obligations assumed by you under your Franchise Agreement, including, without limitation your indemnification obligations. If you fail to obtain or maintain any required insurance coverage, we may, in addition to any other rights and remedies we may have under the Franchise Agreement, obtain such insurance coverage on your behalf (although we are under no obligation to do so), and you must reimburse us, on demand, for any costs and premiums we incur.

You must ensure that each of your Sales Associates is either covered by your general liability insurance, errors and omissions liability insurance and automobile liability insurance, or the Sales Associate obtains the same insurance coverage on their own behalf. In addition, all third parties that you hire to provide any services related to the Office operations shall provide evidence of general liability, automobile liability, workers' compensation and employer's liability coverage, and other coverages as we may deem necessary. Each such coverage shall be in favor of you and RE/MAX Regional and shall include additional insured status, primary and non-contributory coverage, and a waiver of subrogation as provided above.

Upon the expiration or earlier termination of your Franchise Agreement, you must purchase an extended reporting period endorsement (also known as "tails coverage") on your errors and omissions insurance, covering a period of three years after the expiration or earlier termination, and provide us with evidence of same within 30 days of the expiration or termination. If you fail to obtain such coverage, we have the right (but not an obligation) to obtain it on your behalf, in which case you must promptly reimburse us for the cost thereof as well as related administrative expenses.

Independent Contractor Agreement

You will be required to enter into an independent contractor agreement ("ICA") with each of your independent contractor Sales Associates. For your convenience and reference, we may provide you a template or sample ICA form for you to consider and adapt for your organization. Although the form of ICA you use is entirely up to you, we will require that your ICA form includes certain provisions designed to protect the REMAX Marks, goodwill and the REMAX System (such provisions, the "Essential ICA Provisions"). The current version of the Essential ICA Provisions is attached to the Franchise Agreement as an exhibit. We may modify the Essential ICA Provisions from time to time, and you will be required to accordingly update your ICA form within 60 days of our notice and only use the updated ICA form going forward such that within 12 months of our notice, all of your independent contractor Sales Associates will be subject to an ICA that includes the updated Essential ICA Provisions. You will be required to cause all of your independent contractor Sales Associates to comply with, and you must fully enforce, the Essential ICA Provisions.

Except with respect to MAXRefer as noted above, neither we nor our affiliates are currently the only designated or approved supplier of any required products or services. We reserve the right to be one of, or the sole, designated or approved supplier of additional required products or services in the future.

Revenue from Franchisee Purchases

We and/or our affiliates may receive payments or other consideration from approved suppliers as a result of the supplier's sale of products, services or supplies to our franchisees and/or their Sales Associates. Typically, approved suppliers pay us a flat annual fee (typically, a $20,000 annual fee), or a percentage of net annual sales to REMAX franchisees (typically 3% to 10% of sales), or a combination of both, although occasionally approved suppliers may pay a substantially higher flat fee or percentage fee. We have the right to receive these payments from approved suppliers on account of the suppliers' dealings with you and other REMAX franchisees and it has the right to use the amounts it receives without restriction, for any purpose. We have the right to modify these fees, rebates, percentages or other consideration in the future. Prices for products and services from approved suppliers are generally competitive due to our and RE/MAX, LLC's buying power.

Neither RE/MAX Regional, RE/MAX, LLC nor any of their affiliates received revenue or other material consideration as a result of franchisee required purchases or leases in the year ended December 31, 2025.

Suppliers in which an Officer owns an Interest

David L. Liniger (Chairman of the Board of RE/MAX Holdings) owns an interest in EDR Travel, Inc., an approved supplier of travel agency services to our franchisees. To the best of our knowledge, none of our other officers own a material interest in any other approved supplier (not counting minimal interests possibly owned through mutual funds).

Percentage of Products or Services to be Purchased in Accordance with Specifications

We estimate that the cost of products or services required to be purchased or leased either from designated or approved sources of supply or in accordance with our specifications represents 10% to 25% of your total purchases or leases in the establishment and operation of the Office.

Cooperatives/Negotiated Prices/Material Benefits

There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives. Except as noted above, as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, we do not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees nor provide material benefits to you based on your use of approved suppliers or designated sources.

FINANCING

RE/MAX Regional offers financing to certain prospective franchisees for the initial franchise fee and, for certain renewing franchisees in good standing, the renewal franchise fee. In the past, we have offered—and we may continue to offer—financing as a financial incentive to facilitate conversions or expansion opportunities. We do not offer financing with respect to a Team Franchise.

If you wish to finance the initial franchise fee ("IFF") for a residential REMAX real estate office (other than a Team Franchise), the IFF will be increased by an installment fee, so that you will pay $37,500 if your franchise is in a high-density market (as opposed to $35,000 if you pay the IFF in one lump sum), $19,000 in a medium-density market (as opposed to $17,500 if you pay the IFF in one lump sum); or $9,500 if your franchise is in a low-density market (as opposed to $8,750 if you pay the IFF in one lump sum). If you wish to finance the IFF for a commercial real estate office, you will pay $27,000 (as opposed to $25,000 if you pay the IFF in one lump sum). Such higher IFF (that includes the applicable installment fee) will be referred to as the "Financed IFF." You will be required to sign a promissory note in the form attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit B-1 ("Promissory Note 1"). Those who wish to finance the IFF must pay at least 50% of the Financed IFF in cash as a down payment when the Franchise Agreement is signed. The balance of the Financed IFF will be due in 12 equal monthly installments (however, if in the same calendar month that you sign the Franchise Agreement and pay the 50% down payment you pay off the remaining promissory note balance in full, we will waive the installment fee). The monthly payments under Promissory Note 1 will be automatically charged to a bank account that you provide to us. If we allow you to pay by credit card, you may be charged a credit card processing fee or surcharge. No additional interest is charged on the outstanding amount under Promissory Note 1 so long as you make timely payments of amounts due.

If you wish to finance the renewal fee (other than for a Team Franchise), your financed renewal fee (which includes an installment fee) will be as follows:

	Low-density market Residential franchise	Medium-density market Residential franchise	High-density market Residential franchise	Commercial franchise
Financed Renewal Fee	$3,500	$7,000	$14,000	$10,250

You will be required to make these payments in 12 equal installments with the first installment due immediately upon signing the renewal addendum, and the remaining installments due monthly thereafter. You will be required to sign a promissory note in the form of Promissory Note 1. The monthly installments will be automatically charged to a bank account that you provide to us. If we allow you to pay by credit card, you may be charged a credit card processing fee or surcharge.

If you are acquiring REMAX franchise rights as part of a large conversion or are an existing REMAX franchisee purchasing another REMAX franchise, we may provide you certain conversion, expansion or Sales Associate recruiting incentives to offset the opening and recruiting costs and transitional expenses such as office signage, yard signs, promotional materials and office supplies. If you receive such incentives, so long as you are compliant at all times with all of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement and any other agreement between you and us, you will not be required to repay these incentives. If you receive these incentives, you will be required to sign a promissory note in the form of Exhibit B-2 attached hereto ("Promissory Note 2", and collectively with Promissory Note 1, the "Promissory Note") in the original principal amount of the incentives you received. While the amount of the financing offered will depend on the scope of the conversion or expansion, up to 100% of the associated conversion or expansion costs may be covered by the incentives. Under the Promissory Note 2, principal only payments (unless forgiven as provided below) will be due in equal annual installments throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement. If, as of December 31 of any year, including the calendar year in which the Promissory Note 2 is executed, you are not in default of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between you and us, we will forgive the annual payment due that year. No additional interest is charged on the outstanding amount under Promissory Note 2 so long as you timely make the annual payments or qualify for forgiveness.

The outstanding amount under a Promissory Note can be prepaid without penalty. If a payment due under a Promissory Note is late, we may accept the late payment with a 10% late charge or, upon 10 days' written notice, accelerate payment of the outstanding principal and interest (if applicable). We reserve the right to apply all payments first to outstanding late charges and then to principal. If we accelerate payment and subsequently refer a Promissory Note to an attorney for collection, all outstanding amounts will bear interest at the default rate of 20% per year (or if this rate exceeds the highest rate permitted under applicable law, then at the highest rate legally permitted) and you will have to pay us reasonable attorneys' fees and costs we incur due to the default, including 33.33% collection fees. As an additional remedy if you default, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement (although this will not release you from having to pay all unpaid amounts).

If you transfer any of your interest in the Franchise Agreement, the unpaid principal and interest (if applicable) balance under a Promissory Note will become immediately due and payable. If the Franchise Agreement is terminated, then the Promissory Note will immediately become due and payable. You may not assign a Promissory Note without our prior written consent. You and any endorsers waive and excuse presentment for acceptance and payment, notice of dishonor and protest of dishonor and agree to any extension of time of payment. Whether a Promissory Note will have to be secured by collateral other than the franchise itself, and whether a separate guaranty will be required, will depend primarily on your financial condition and the available collateral. A default under a Promissory Note that you fail to cure entitles us to terminate the Franchise Agreement.

RE/MAX, LLC may allow you to pay Annual Dues by credit card or EFT. If a Sales Associate has been in the REMAX network for at least 12 consecutive months, you may choose to pay the Annual Dues for the Sales Associate in either one lump sum or by credit card or EFT in monthly or quarterly installments over a 12-month period (in the latter case, RE/MAX, LLC reserves the right to charge a convenience fee of up to 5% of the then-current Annual Dues amount). We currently accept MasterCard®, VISA®, or American Express® credit cards.

Other than described above, we do not charge any additional finance fees for you to apply for or secure the financing described in this Item 10. Except as described above, we do not offer direct or indirect financing. We do not guarantee your note, lease or obligation. We do not receive direct or indirect payments for placing financing. Except as provided above, no Promissory Note contains a waiver of defenses or similar provision. We do not have any practice or intent to sell, assign or discount to a third party all or part of a Promissory Note.

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, neither RE/MAX, LLC nor RE/MAX Regional is required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open the Office, RE/MAX Regional or RE/MAX, LLC will:

At your request, assist you in selecting the Office's location which must be approved by us. Our criteria for a location include population density, the number of competing real estate offices in the surrounding area, your financial capability to maintain the Office at the particular location, public access to the Office, parking availability, the location's public appeal and professional image. In determining whether to grant you the right to establish a Team Franchise, we will consider additional factors, including the location of the proposed Team Franchise Office, population growth and the overall market share enjoyed by the REMAX brand in the area and other market conditions that may affect the desirability of establishing a Team Franchise. You may not begin operating the Office until a location has been selected and approved. We will attempt to respond to your location approval request within 14 days after you submit all requested information to us. If you and we cannot agree on a location for the Office within 90 days after the Franchise Agreement is signed, unless otherwise agreed, it will be deemed to be a failure of a material condition precedent to the Franchise Agreement entitling us to terminate the Franchise Agreement. We do not own the premises upon which the Office is located and therefore do not lease the premises to you. (Franchise Agreement – Subsections 2.A., 2.B. and 7.A.).

Provide you with specifications for the Office's appearance (Franchise Agreement - Subsection 7.B.).

Identify the items necessary for the Office to begin operations, the minimum standards and specifications that must be satisfied and the suppliers from whom these items may be obtained. We do not provide these items directly and we do not deliver or install any items. (Franchise Agreement - Subsections 7.C. – 7.F.).

Make available to you a copy of (or an electronic access to) the Business Manual that includes the specifications and procedures incidental to the operation of the Office, which Business Manual may be modified periodically by us. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 7.C.). The table of contents of the Business Manual is attached as Exhibit F; as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, the Business Manual contained a total of 1,064 pages. The Business Manual identifies those elements that are required System standards and those that are recommended to you and provided solely as a resource.

Provide you with access to our confidential information (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 12.A.).

Grant you a limited, non-exclusive license to use the Marks (Franchise Agreement – Section 4).

Provide training for you or your principal owner and/or Manager. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 8.C.). This training is described in more detail later in this Item 11.

The typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of a REMAX office ranges from approximately one to three months, although a longer time period may be necessary if you have not obtained necessary real estate licenses or secured a principal broker for your Office. Factors affecting the length of time usually include the time necessary to find an acceptable location for the Office, secure financing arrangements, comply with local laws and acquire and install required equipment and signs. You will be required to open your Office in compliance with our requirements within 180 days after the Franchise Agreement is signed. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 7.A.).

We will not provide you any assistance with conforming the premises to local ordinances and building codes, or obtaining any required permits, and/or constructing, remodeling, or decorating the premises, and/or hiring and training employees. Nor are we obligated by the Franchise Agreement, or any other agreement, to provide any other assistance or services before the opening of the Office.

During your operation of the Office, RE/MAX Regional or RE/MAX, LLC will:

1. At your request and expense and in our discretion, provide in-person or remote consultation and guidance relating to the REMAX System. In addition, various educational courses and other assistance will periodically be made available in such areas as sales, fiscal management, office opening, recruiting and retention of Sales Associates and financial planning. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 8.C.(2)).

2. Supplement and update the Business Manual and System standards for REMAX offices. We may modify the System standards from time to time and these modifications may obligate you to invest additional capital in the Office and/or incur higher operating costs. (Franchise Agreement – Subsections 7.C., 7.E. and 7.F.).

3. Encourage use of the Marks and the REMAX System on a national and international basis. To this end, we have established and maintain a national and international REMAX client referral program. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 2.F.).

4. Allow you to attend, at your expense, regional conferences and annual conventions designed to enhance the image of the REMAX System, introduce new products and services, provide educational resources and guidance to franchisees and provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and information on the operation of REMAX offices. You also will be entitled to receive any publications that we produce and distribute. (Franchise Agreement - Subsections 8.C.(2) and 8.C.(3)).

5. Collect, control and administer monies paid to the REMAX Marketing Fund (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 9.B.). The Marketing Fund is described in more detail below.

6. Collect the Hot Air Balloon Fund Fee, if applicable, and administer the Hot Air Balloon Fund (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 5.D.). This fund is discussed in more detail below.

Neither RE/MAX, LLC nor RE/MAX Regional assist you in establishing prices nor do they set minimum or maximum prices at which you must offer your services.

Neither RE/MAX, LLC nor RE/MAX Regional is obligated by the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement to provide any other assistance or services in connection with the ongoing operation of the Office. We have the right to suspend some or all of the assistance, benefits and/or services afforded to you as a franchisee if you are in default under the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 14.A.).

Marketing

RE/MAX, LLC has established a marketing, advertising and promotion fund for REMAX offices (the "Marketing Fund") and it has designated its subsidiary and our affiliate, RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, to manage and administer the Marketing Fund. Each franchisee must make monthly contributions to the Marketing Fund (see also Item 6); the contribution amount varies by state, as follows:

State	Marketing Fee per Sales Associate (other than Licensed Administrator)	Marketing Fee per Licensed Administrator
Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, or Vermont	$127	$127
Minnesota/Wisconsin	$131	$46

Not all franchisees contribute to the Marketing Fund on the same basis. As described above, the Marketing Fees differ depending on the state in which a franchisee is located. Moreover, in some instances, and usually for a limited period of time, we may vary, waive, reduce or defer Marketing Fees. If you elect to participate in the Aspire Program, the Appreciate Plan or the Ascend Plan, we will allocate a portion of the fees paid under such program to the Marketing Fund (i.e., a minimum of 1% of the Aspire Broker Fee, a minimum of 37% of the Appreciate Broker Fee, or a minimum of 35% of the Ascend Fixed Fee, as applicable; see also Item 6), but you do not pay a separate Marketing Fee with respect to Sales Associates subject to these programs. We deposit all Marketing Fees you pay to us into the Marketing Fund.

We have also established and our affiliate RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC administers a separate fund (the "Hot Air Balloon Fund" and collectively with the Marketing Fund, a "Fund" and the "Funds") for franchisees located in Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin. If you are a franchisee in Indiana, Minnesota or Wisconsin, you must contribute to the Hot Air Balloon Fund. If your Office is in Minnesota or Wisconsin, you will pay $100 per month as the Hot Air Balloon Fund fee; and if your Office is in Indiana, you will pay $125 per month if your Office is in a low-density market, $150 in a medium-density market or $175 per month if your Office is in a high-density market. See also Item 6. Similarly-situated franchisees in Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin contribute on the same basis.

Neither Fund is a trust or escrow account, and neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC have any fiduciary obligation to franchisees with respect to either Fund. RE/MAX, LLC will have the right to make disbursements from the Marketing Fund for costs and expenses incurred in connection with formulating, developing, implementing and administering national, international, pan-regional, regional and local marketing, advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns and programs and related materials and activities, consumer surveys, and technology-related services, including development and maintenance and administrative costs. We have the right to make disbursements from the Hot Air Balloon Fund in connection with REMAX hot air balloon promotional activities in Indiana, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, including for operational and maintenance costs related to the hot air balloon assets. We and RE/MAX, LLC have the right to determine the methods of marketing and advertising, the media employed, the contents, and the terms and conditions of marketing campaigns and promotional programs. You understand that each Fund is intended to maximize public recognition of the REMAX Marks and the System and services offered by REMAX offices. Because of the methods used, neither RE/MAX, LLC nor RE/MAX Regional is required to spend a prorated amount on each REMAX office or in each advertising market and is not obliged to ensure that any REMAX office will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Marketing Fund and/or the Hot Air Balloon Fund, as applicable, from the development of marketing and advertising materials, or the placement of advertising. Examples of possible uses of the Marketing Fund include: national, regional and local television, video, radio, billboard and other out-of-home media advertising, print, digital, social, hot air balloon and other media campaigns, as well as technology (which may include, without limitation, costs related to the development, operation, and maintenance of our website and/or REMAX office and Sales Associate websites; lead and customer relationship management solutions; mobile applications; and/or our marketing tools and platforms). In addition, the Marketing Fund may pay for special high-profile promotional opportunities and may contribute together with the marketing funds managed by our independent sub-franchisors to fund national and/or pan-regional creative development and media purchases. The disbursements from each Fund may include payments to RE/MAX, LLC and/or us, as applicable, for the expense of administering the Fund and developing, directing and conducting the Fund programs and activities, including accounting expenses, travel expenses and salaries and benefits paid to employees engaged in the administration and operation of the Fund or otherwise providing services with respect to the Fund, including conducting market research and preparing marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for Fund contributions and expenses. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 9.B.).

All monies collected and disbursed by the Marketing Fund, including any interest, dividends or other income earned on these monies, will be accounted for separately from our and RE/MAX, LLC's other funds. All monies collected and disbursed by the Hot Air Balloon Fund, including any interest, dividends or other income earned on these monies, will be included in the Marketing Fund but will be accounted for separately from the Marketing Fund and from our and RE/MAX, LLC's other funds. It is possible that not all amounts contributed to the Marketing Fund during a fiscal year will be spent that year; amounts not spent by the end of the fiscal year will be carried over to the next year until these excess funds are spent for the marketing, promotional, and technology purposes (but excluding administrative costs) described above. Any contributions to the Hot Air Balloon Fund not spent during a fiscal year will be carried over to the next fiscal year until spent for marketing and promotional purposes (but excluding administrative costs) described above. All Marketing Fees become the non-refundable property of the Marketing Fund and all Hot Air Balloon Fund Fees become the non-refundable property of the Hot Air Balloon Fund. Neither RE/MAX, LLC, RE/MAX Regional nor RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC assumes any direct or indirect liability or obligation to you with respect to collecting amounts due to the a Fund or related to the maintenance, direction or administration of a Fund, including with respect to the efficiency or effectiveness, if any, of the Fund in enhancing the Marks, brand or System or advancing the business interests of a franchisee or franchisees in general. RE/MAX, LLC has the right, but not the obligation, to cause the Marketing Fund to be operated through a different entity separate from RE/MAX, LLC or RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, and any such successor entity will have all of RE/MAX, LLC's and/or RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC's rights and duties as described in this Item 11. We and RE/MAX, LLC may use collection agents and institute legal proceedings at each Fund's expense to collect Marketing Fees and Hot Air Balloon Fund Fees. We and RE/MAX, LLC also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against either Fund. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 9.B.).

The Funds are audited as part of RE/MAX, LLC's annual audit, but neither Fund is audited separately. The financial statements for the Funds are not distributed to franchisees; however, upon written request, we may make certain financial information available for your review (including accounting of how the Marketing Fees were spent).

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, 5.4% of the Marketing Fund's expenditures was spent on production, 52.9% was spent on media placement, 31% was spent on technology related services including development and maintenance (described above), and 10.7% was spent on administrative expenses.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, 97% of the Hot Air Balloon Fund expenditures was spent on hot air balloon operating expenses and 3% was spent on administrative expenses.

Neither Fund spends money on advertising that is principally a solicitation of new franchisees.

The Marketing Fund may furnish you with samples of advertising, marketing and promotional materials at no cost; you may also purchase additional copies of these materials from it. You are permitted to use your own advertising materials to specifically promote the Office if you follow our standards and policies to protect the Marks. All of your advertising and promotion must be completely clear and factual and conform to the highest standards of fair and ethical marketing. (Franchise Agreement – Subsections 9.A. and 9.C.).

Neither RE/MAX Regional nor RE/MAX, LLC has an advertising council composed of franchisees that advises on an advertising policy.

Local Marketing Groups. We reserve the right to require advertising or marketing cooperatives and/or local marketing groups ("LMG") to be formed, changed, dissolved or merged, based on specific criteria determined by us for designated advertising markets. We typically determine the designated advertising markets based on a combination of designated market area and core based statistical area data. If an LMG is established in your market, you will be designated to be a member of the LMG and will have one vote per Office in the LMG's market. The LMG contribution amount will be determined by a vote of 65% of its members, subject to our approval. If the LMG members cannot agree on the contribution amount, we have the right to set the contribution amount, but the amount will initially not exceed $50 per Sales Associate per month. Other franchisees that will be members of the same LMG will contribute on the same basis as you, and each company-owned or affiliate-owned REMAX office (if any) located within the LMG's market will be a member and will contribute to the LMG on the same terms as franchisees. We will collect all LMG contributions from franchisees and pass them onto the LMG. The LMG will have the right to enforce the members' obligation to contribute to the LMG. Each LMG will be administered by a committee comprised of representatives appointed by the members. Each member may not have more than one representative on the committee. We have the right to also have a representative on the committee. The committee will have the authority to decide how the LMG contributions will be spent; provided that all promotional and advertising materials proposed to be used by the LMG must comply with our brand standards and we reserve the right to approve such materials prior to use; and provided, further, that we reserve the right to direct the use of a portion of the LMG contributions to designated promotional, marketing and advertising initiatives benefitting the LMG's market. The LMGs will not be required to operate from written governing documents although we may establish written operating guidelines and rules for the LMGs. The LMGs will not be required to prepare annual or periodic financial statements. As of the date of this disclosure document, the LMGs we plan to establish will be local marketing groups rather than advertising cooperatives. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 9.D.).

Marketing Tools. We also provide you access to various optional advertising and marketing tools and platforms, including AI tools, to help you create promotional materials such as social media posts, branded brochures, video advertising campaigns, custom listing videos, personalized commercials, automated digital marketing assets and packages for property listings, and Sales Associate personal branding campaigns. The tools allow you to create certain complimentary digital and print marketing materials and you also have the option to purchase more advanced and tailored marketing campaigns and solutions, including generative AI videos. (Franchise Agreement – Subsections 7.F.(4) and 9.C.).

Computer System and Technology

You will be required to purchase, implement and maintain a computer system and other technology we from time to time specify, including, without limitation, communication systems, accounting programs, data management systems, brokerage back-office management software, and other systems and technology we from time to time designate (the "Technology System"). The computer hardware can be obtained from any source but must be Microsoft Windows or macOS compatible, must be able to run the most current version of Microsoft Edge, Safari, Firefox, or Google Chrome, and must meet our other specifications. You will also be required to maintain current versions of the Microsoft Windows operating system, macOS, or such other operating system as we may specify from time to time. We estimate that the cost to acquire one laptop that meets our specifications to be between $800 and $3,500. (Franchise Agreement - Subsection 7.F.).

We may from time to time modify specifications for any components of the Technology System. You will be required to upgrade or update, at your own cost, such hardware and software throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement as we may specify, as well as to pay for the cost of implementing additional or different systems, programs and procedures, including the cost of purchasing or leasing additional or different computer hardware and software, as we may require. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of these obligations. We will not provide maintenance for your computer hardware and except as provided below in this Item 11, we will not provide maintenance, updates, upgrades or other support on your computer software or any other component of the Technology System. If you or someone you employ does not have the expertise, you will have to obtain a maintenance contract with a reputable organization for your Technology System. It is difficult to estimate the annual cost of maintaining or upgrading your Technology System because it will depend on many variables such as the age and total number of computers you choose to have in your Office, your usage and security practices, the cost of third-party maintenance services in your area, as well as technological advances that we cannot predict at this time. We estimate that if you need 1 to 5 hours of third-party maintenance services per month, it may cost you between $100 to $750 per month (or $1,200 to $9,000 per year) for one computer. The approximate cost to upgrade Microsoft Windows software, or comparable operating software system, may range from $125 to $250 per year per one license, and it will depend in part on the version of the operating system you choose, the number of software licenses you require, as well as on technological advances which we cannot predict at this time.

Back Office Software.

To facilitate your reporting to us, which includes providing data for each Sales Associate on a monthly basis, and to enhance the operation of your Office, you will be required to use BoldTrail Back Office software developed by Inside RE, LLC d/b/a Inside Real Estate ("Inside Real Estate" or "IRE"), or such other brokerage back-office software or platform as we may designate from time to time ("Back Office Software"), or from such other provider that we may designate. BoldTrail Back Office Software is part of the MAXTech[SM] powered by BoldTrail Platform we make available to you, which is an integrated suite of products that includes other tools such as a customer relationship management tool and a content management system tool. The Back Office Software is intended to help you manage, and it will collect and manage information and data related to, Sales Associate onboarding; billing; transactions (including commission tracking and disbursements); and reporting, accounting, and analytics. You will be required to sign a BoldTrail Back Office License Agreement with IRE ("Back Office License Agreement"), the current form of which is attached as Exhibit A-9a. IRE will provide ongoing maintenance, updates, or repairs to the Back Office Software. Although we do not currently charge a fee for BoldTrail Back Office Software, you will be required to pay IRE for any additional services or enhancements that you may voluntarily choose that are not included in the BoldTrail Back Office Software. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 7.F.).

In addition, if you are a renewing franchisee, to give you time to transition to using BoldTrail Back Office Software in your Office, we may temporarily waive this requirement; however, within such time frame as we may specify and as we deem necessary, you will be required to start using BoldTrail Back Office Software in your Office. During the temporary waiver period, you will be required to use a brokerage back-office management software system that has capabilities compatible with our communications and data reporting requirements, which includes providing to us required data for each Sales Associate on a monthly basis (such as data relating to listings, sales, contract management, Sales Associate receivables, escrow and trust accounts, referrals and miscellaneous income). The software system must be able to record, track, and monitor transactions and provide office accounting and bookkeeping (brokerage back-office management software programs are also generally able to manage data pertaining to listings, sales, contract management, associate receivables, escrow and trust accounts, referrals and miscellaneous income). While you are temporarily using other brokerage back-office software, we will not have independent access to the information and data on the software that you choose. However, we will require that you provide us with data for each Sales Associate on a monthly basis, as follows: (i) direct data entry in the REMAX Agent Office Portal; (ii) file upload to the REMAX Agent Office Portal; or (iii) direct integration with the REMAX network database. You will be able to access the REMAX Agent Office Portal via the extranet (described below). There will be no contractual limitations on our right to access the data that you provide to us.

QuickBooks. In order to be able to use the Back Office Software, you must also purchase and use QuickBooks Online by Intuit ("QuickBooks"), or another accounting software that we designate, to manage your finances. You must enter into a QuickBooks user agreement with Intuit (the "QuickBooks Online User Agreement"), the current form of which is attached as Exhibit A-10. The current estimate to purchase and use QuickBooks varies depending on the number of Sales Associates affiliated with your Office, as follows:

Office Size (# of Sales Associates)	QuickBooks Estimated Cost
Small (1 - 50)	$75 a month ($900 per year)
Medium (51 - 250)	$115 a month ($1,380 per year)
Large (251 - 500+)	$275 a month ($3,300 per year)

Real Estate Database Provider Data Feed. You are required to provide us with an approved data feed from your real estate database provider(s) that enables us, our affiliates, you and your Sales Associates to display real property listings on the internet for consumers to view online. Subject to applicable law, we may utilize this data feed for any reason, within the rules of the relevant data feed providers, to run additional reports, aggregate information, track trends, or for any other internal or public-facing marketing or data tracking initiative. To integrate your real estate property listings with the Back Office Software, you may be required to sign a three-party agreement between you, Inside Real Estate and your real estate database provider. You will be responsible for pass-through fees (if any) that your real estate database provider may charge for data access. Such fees differ greatly. We estimate that these fees will vary from free of charge to $300 per month (some fees may be assessed quarterly or annually), plus a possible one-time setup fee typically ranging from $50 to $4,000.

Email and Internet. You must have a dedicated email account for the Office. We will provide you, currently at no additional cost, a remax.net forwarding email address for the Office. Although you are not required to use a specific email service, some functionality and integration of the Back Office Software may not work with some email providers. Internet service provider subscription fees typically range from $750 to $4,000 per year (varies depending on such factors as the number of users).

Extranet. We will provide you and your Sales Associates access to our extranet, a password protected website which serves as an electronic hub for the exchange of important REMAX system information and from which you may access various optional online tools and resources we make available to you. The software systems that comprise or can be accessed through the extranet are the proprietary property of RE/MAX, LLC or its vendors. This site incorporates basic functions such as e-mail forwarding addresses, messaging, a "find an agent/office" feature that allows one to search for and obtain contact information for all REMAX franchisees and their Sales Associates, as well as information on approved suppliers and approved products and services, a market place where you can purchase products and services from approved suppliers, access to our optional marketing tools (as described above in this Item 11), access to our educational programming (through REMAX University), and other proprietary tools and resources we make available to you. We are not obligated to maintain the extranet—or the services offered through it—indefinitely and may discontinue it at any time without liability to you. You will also be required to participate in any other intranet or extranet we may develop. (Franchise Agreement - Subsection 7.F.(3)).

Antivirus Protection and Data Breach Notification.

You will also be solely responsible for securing your Technology System (including all data, including client information, residing in the Technology System) and protecting it from viruses, malware, spyware, malicious code, communication disruptions, Internet access and content failures, and social engineering attacks by hackers and other unauthorized parties. You must establish best practices for password management as you will be responsible for any resulting losses and damages. You must also maintain reasonable physical, technical and administrative safeguards for Technology System data (including client information) in your possession or control in order to protect the same from unauthorized processing, destruction, modification, or use, which obligations will include installing and continually updating Microsoft Windows (patches, service packs, and upgrades), macOS (patches and upgrades), web browser and application updates, anti-virus systems, and firewalls. We estimate the cost for these protection services or systems may range from $50 to $200 per computer per year, depending on the services provided. You will be required to notify us immediately of any data or security incident or breach related to your Office, including any unauthorized access to your Technology System data (including client data), and specify the extent to which personal information may have been compromised. You will also be required to retain a qualified and independent data security expert to assess the nature and scope of the breach and fully cooperate with us with respect to any media statements and other items related to managing any such incident, including fact finding or mitigation/defense actions we deem advisable as well as any steps taken to resolve the matter. You must comply with all federal and state laws that regulate privacy and data security (including but not limited to laws regulating the processing, protection, and security of client information in any way including but not limited to laws pertaining to the use, storage, transmission, and disposal of data regardless of media type); the CAN-SPAM Act; the Telephone Consumer Protection Act; the Telemarketing Sales Rule, as well as other federal and state anti-solicitation laws regulating phone calls, spamming, faxing, and/or privacy and our data privacy and security policies. You must do and execute each act, document and thing we deem necessary in our business judgment to keep us in compliance with these laws, and you must refrain from any action or inaction that could cause us to breach any such laws. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 12.D.(1)).

MAXRefer.

If you are unable to meet our high service standard with respect to a potential client transaction or elect not to provide service with respect to a potential client transaction, you must refer the potential client transaction to another REMAX office servicing the applicable market pursuant to RE/MAX, LLC's referral program and in accordance with the procedures RE/MAX, LLC may from time to time establish. As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, MAXRefer is our designated REMAX referral program platform. All client referrals that you or your Sales Associates give and/or receive must be made through the MAXRefer platform. RE/MAX, LLC currently administers the MAXRefer platform with its designated vendor, RESAAS. To give or accept a referral through MAXRefer, with respect to each referred transaction, you or your Sales Associate (as applicable) must accept the terms of RESAAS's referral agreement, the current form of which is included as Exhibit A-11. If you accept a referral through the MAXRefer platform, you will be required to pay to the referring Sales Associate, through the MAXRefer platform, a portion of your commission revenue ("Referral Fee") in the amount specified by the referring Sales Associate in the referring Sales Associate's referral offer. RESAAS will deduct a 5.5% processing fee (up to $99) from the Referral Fee. RESAAS will pass one-half of the processing fee to RE/MAX, LLC as consideration for the services that RE/MAX, LLC provides in connection with MAXRefer. As an optional add-on service, subject to RESASS' then-current terms and conditions, you will also be able to subscribe to receive additional referrals (outside the REMAX network) through MAXRefer for a fee of $100 per month payable to RESASS (of which RE/MAX, LLC will receive 20% as consideration for the services it will provide). (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 2.F.).

Additional Tools and Resources

Throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement, we and RE/MAX, LLC may make available to you other valuable systems, programs and platforms that are optional (collectively, "Optional Resources"). (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 7.F.(4)). We and RE/MAX, LLC are not obligated to maintain any of the Optional Resources—or the services offered through them—indefinitely and may discontinue them at any time without notice or liability to you. We reserve the right to require you to use certain Optional Resources in the future. We currently offer the following Optional Resources:

Agent Tools Platform. As part of the MAXTech^{SM} powered by BoldTrail Platform, we also make available to you an agent tools platform ("Agent Tools Platform"), which includes a customer relationship management tool, a content management system tool, and a lead routing tool, and is designed to assist you and your Sales Associates with managing client contact and related information. It includes integrated Office and Sales Associate websites. As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, the Agent Tools Platform is available free of charge; however, you will pay the then-current prices if you make voluntary purchases of goods or services through the Agent Tools Platform, such as on REMAX Marketplace (described below) and other third-party products and services. If you or your Sales Associates decide to use the Agent Tools Platform, your use will be subject to the third-party vendor's terms of use. The Agent Tools Platform will be provided "as is," without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied.

REMAX Marketplace is a web-based store (accessible through the Agent Office Portal) featuring products and services offered by approved suppliers. You will pay the then-current prices for any purchases of products or services you make through the REMAX Marketplace.

MAXTech Lead Concierge Program ("Lead Concierge Program") is an optional program that we offer to the REMAX Network through our vendor IRE and its affiliate, BTRN, LLC ("BTRN"), a licensed real estate brokerage. The program is designed to enhance client lead response times and improve lead quality. It offers participating Sales Associates the opportunity to receive client leads generated through RE/MAX, LLC's website (remax.com) and that RE/MAX, LLC and BTRN have qualified and actively engaged with. Your use of the Lead Concierge Program will be subject to BTRN's then-current terms of use. If a Sales Associate accepts a referral through the Lead Concierge Program, the Sales Associate will pay to BTRN a fee equal to 30% of the commission revenue your Office receives on the referred transaction, of which fee we will receive approximately one-half as consideration for the services we provide in connection with the program. (Franchise Agreement – Subsections 7.D. and 7.F.(4)).

As mentioned in Item 1, our affiliate Homeview Development, LLC will also provide you access, as an Optional Resource, to BOSSCAT, a home repair pricing tool built specifically for real estate agents, that allows its user to quickly and reliably produce free-to-consumer home repair estimates from home inspection reports. (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.F.(4)).

We and RE/MAX, LLC will have independent access to the information and data entered into or produced by the Technology System and we and RE/MAX, LLC can use the same in any way we deem appropriate subject to compliance with applicable law, including sharing it with our affiliates and third-party vendors. As noted above in this Item 11, such information includes information related to Sales Associate onboarding; billing; transactions (including transaction and client data and commission tracking and disbursements); and reporting, accounting, and analytics. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access this information. (Franchise Agreement – Subsection 7.F.(1)).

We also offer an optional "golf certified real estate agent" certification, which a Sales Associate may obtain if they complete our golf certification education course and successfully pass the exam for the course. The course costs $499 per person and it may be held in person (at our headquarters in Denver, Colorado or another location that we may designate) or virtually. Any golf certified real estate agent will be included in the golf certified real estate agent directory and will be permitted to market themselves accordingly as provided in the Business Manual.

We may require you to complete, at your expense (including the cost of the course and all travel and related expenses) one or more of our or RE/MAX, LLC's education programs as a condition of renewal. The fees for premium programming typically range from $50 to $2,000 per participant. Item 12

TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. Franchisees are granted the right to operate the Office at a specific address-only location that first must be approved by us.

You may not relocate the Office without our prior written consent. We will approve a relocation if (i) the new premises meet our then-current site selection criteria; (ii) you are not in default under your Franchise Agreement or any other agreement with us or our affiliates; and (iii) you are current in your financial obligations to us, our affiliates and third parties. You must continue to operate your Franchise at all times during the relocation.

The Franchise Agreement does not grant you any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

Neither you nor any other REMAX office is limited to providing authorized services with respect to real property located in, or representing clients located in, any defined geographic area. However, you will be expected to meet high standards of service and professionalism reflective of the goodwill enjoyed by the REMAX brand. These expectations can only be met by limiting the provision of authorized services to market areas where you can serve clients directly and personally and where you have the greatest knowledge of local conditions, infrastructures, and the housing market. Accordingly, if you are asked to provide services in areas in which you are unable to meet such requirements or elect not to provide service, you will be required to refer the request to the REMAX office for that area. Other than as provided above, there are no restrictions on your soliciting or accepting orders from consumers. You may use other channels of distribution such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, to make sales of the authorized services in any location in which you have a real estate license to provide the authorized services and in which you have local marketing knowledge and the ability to personally and directly serve customers.

We and our affiliates reserve all rights not specifically granted to you in the Franchise Agreement, including, without limitation, the right, now or in the future, and anywhere, to: (i) engage in any business activities whatsoever, without limitation as to location, medium or trade channels; (ii) use the REMAX Marks and other proprietary rights in their other business activities without limitation; and (iii) offer and sell any products and/or services under the REMAX Marks, or under other trademarks, service marks or trade dress, or through any other trade channels. Without limiting the foregoing, we and our affiliates reserve all rights to (a) establish other franchised or company-owned outlets using the REMAX Marks (or acquire existing REMAX or non-REMAX real estate businesses and convert them to REMAX offices) at any location whatsoever, including a location in close proximity to your Office and that may compete with your Office; (b) acquire, develop, locate and operate, and to grant others the right to develop, locate and operate, real estate brokerage offices under other trademarks or service marks, or any other businesses under the Marks or under any other trademarks or service marks, or to engage in any other business activity, anywhere even if such real estate brokerage office or another business has an adverse impact on your Office; and (c) use alternative distribution channels, including the Internet, at any location (including in your market area), under the REMAX Marks or other trademarks. We are not required to pay you any compensation for soliciting or accepting business in your market area.

Minimum Agent Count Requirement.

Throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement, you will be required to have a minimum number of Sales Associates in your Office (such requirement, the "Minimum Agent Count" or "MAC"). Only Sales Associates who have not been affiliated with the REMAX network for at least 3 months prior to their initial affiliation with your Office will be counted toward satisfaction of your MAC requirements (although in extraordinary circumstances, such as the imminent closing of a nearby REMAX office, we, in our sole determination, may grant an exception to this MAC exclusion policy).

As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, we impose the following MAC requirements:

	From the 12-month anniversary of Opening Date, or from renewal/transfer date, and until month 24	During months 25 – 36	During months 37 – end of Term
New franchisee, or existing franchisee purchasing additional REMAX franchise (high-density market)	7	15	20
New franchisee, or existing franchisee purchasing additional REMAX franchise (medium-density market)	5	8	12

	From the 12-month anniversary of Opening Date, or from renewal/transfer date, and until month 24	During months 25 – 36	During months 37 – end of Term
New franchisee, or existing franchisee purchasing additional REMAX franchise (low-density market)	2	3	5
Commercial REMAX franchise	2	3	4
Conversion	From and after conversion date, greater of: (i) 60% of the number of Sales Associates you had immediately prior to becoming a REMAX franchisee or (ii) the MAC for new REMAX franchisees for markets of similar population density.
Renewing franchisee	From and after renewal date, greater of: (i) 60% of the actual number of Sales Associates you had at the end of your expiring franchise agreement or (ii) the MAC you were required to have as of the end of your expiring franchise agreement.
Transferee	From and after transfer date, greater of: (i) 60% of the actual number of Sales Associates the selling franchisee had at the time of the transfer or (ii) the MAC the selling franchisee was required to have at the time of the transfer.	From month 25, greater of: (i) 60% of the actual number of Sales Associates the selling franchisee had at the time of the transfer or (ii) the MAC for new REMAX franchisees for markets of similar population density.

* The time periods noted in the table begin (a) on the earlier of (i) 180 days after Franchise Agreement date or (ii) the actual Office opening date (such earlier date, the "Opening Date"), or (b) upon the renewal or transfer, as applicable.

As of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document, we do not impose MAC requirements on franchisees with 100 or more Sales Associates (whether under one or more Franchise Agreements). You will not have a MAC requirement under a Team Franchise except that you must have a Team under the Team Franchise (i.e., a Team Leader and at least one other Team Member as described in Item 1), and you may only have one Team under each Team Franchise.

If you fail to meet the Minimum Agent Count hereunder, without waiving any other rights under the Franchise Agreement, we may elect to require you to establish, with our guidance, a performance improvement plan for the Office ("PIP") that we approve and that will require you, over a specified period of time we establish (up to 12 months) to take specific actions with the goal of increasing the Sales Associate count for your Office to meet the Minimum Agent Count. The PIP may require you to complete certain educational programs and/or consultation sessions with us and/or third parties and/or to invest (at your own cost) in certain targeted local marketing efforts. Your failure to implement or comply with the PIP over the designated time period will be a default under your Franchise Agreement, subject to a 30-day cure period.

If we permit you to have a commercial division to your residential REMAX franchise, you must at all times have a minimum number of COMRES (Commercial with Residential) and/or COM (Commercial-only) practitioners (see also Item 1) to maintain the commercial division designation and to properly serve the market in which you operate, as follows:

Minimum Number of COM or COMRES	Low-Density Market	Medium-Density Market	High-Density Market
	1 COM or COMRES	1 COM	2 COMs

In addition, a commercial division must meet a minimum annual commercial real estate sales transaction and/or commercial lease transaction volume of $10 million to maintain the commercial division designation. If you fail to comply with the foregoing COM/COMRES and transaction volume requirements, you will be required to cease using the commercial division designation and related branding.

We or our affiliates may own, operate, franchise or license other businesses under different trademarks that sell goods or services similar to the goods or services that your Office will offer. These competing businesses may be located anywhere and except for real estate license limitations, may solicit and accept clients and listings anywhere, including within the market area in which you operate. These businesses may use our purchasing arrangements, marketing, training and other support services and corporate headquarters personnel. We do not have an obligation to resolve conflicts between our franchisees and such other businesses regarding territory, customers or franchisor support. These businesses may have the same principal business address as us; provided, that they would maintain physically separate offices and training facilities. As described in Item 1, if the Transaction (described in Item 1) with Purchaser closes, following the closing (which is anticipated to occur later in 2026), we would have an affiliate that would operate a company-owned digital brokerage offering real estate brokerage services, as well as ancillary services such as mortgage origination, title and escrow services, and financial technology and lending products, in the U.S. under the Real trademarks. Such digital brokerage business would have the right to solicit and accept clients and listings anywhere (subject to real estate license limitations), including in the market area in which you operate. The principal business address of the Real brokerage business would be at 701 Brickell Ave., 17th floor, Miami, Florida.

TRADEMARKS

RE/MAX, LLC owns certain trademarks, service marks and other commercial symbols (the "Marks") and it has authorized RE/MAX Regional (pursuant to the license agreement described below) to grant you a limited license to use certain of the Marks in operating the Office. The principal service marks under which you will operate your Office (the "Principal Marks") are registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") and are as follows:

Service Mark	Registration Number	Registration Date
REMAX	2,106,387	10/21/1997

The Principal Marks registrations have been timely renewed (where applicable), and all affidavits required as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document have also been timely filed.

RE/MAX, LLC has filed with the USPTO trademark applications for the below-listed Marks. RE/MAX, LLC does not have federal registrations for these principal trademarks. Therefore, these trademarks do not have many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark. If RE/MAX, LLC's right to use any of these trademarks is challenged, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

Service Mark	Application Number	Application Date
	99/718,435	03/23/2026
REMAX COMMERCIAL	99/560,687	12/22/2025

You will be required to follow our rules when you use the Marks. You will not be permitted to use any Mark as part of your corporate or legal business name or with modifying words, designs or symbols. You will not be permitted to use any Mark in connection with the performance of any unauthorized services or the sale of any unauthorized products or in any other manner we have not expressly authorized in writing. You may only use the REMAX Commercial mark if we approve you to only provide services with respect to commercial real estate (subject to certain limited exceptions), pursuant to the Commercial Office Addendum (in the form of Exhibit A-4).

There are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit RE/MAX, LLC's right to use or license the use of the Principal Marks in a manner material to you.

We derive our right to use and to license to our franchisees the Marks and certain other intellectual property owned by RE/MAX, LLC by virtue of an Intellectual Property License Agreement between us and RE/MAX, LLC dated January 1, 2026. The term of the license agreement is 20 years, and it will automatically renew for successive 20-year periods. The license agreement will terminate if we assign our rights thereunder without RE/MAX, LLC's consent, make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, have a trustee or receiver appointed, or are adjudged bankrupt. RE/MAX, LLC may also terminate the license agreement if we breach the agreement and fail to cure the breach within 30 days. If the license agreement is terminated, RE/MAX, LLC will assume our then-existing franchise agreements. There are no other agreements currently in effect which significantly limit our right to use or license the use of the Marks in any manner material to the franchise.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board or any state trademark administrator or court. There is no pending material litigation regarding RE/MAX, LLC's ownership rights in, or RE/MAX, LLC's or our use of, the Principal Marks. There are no pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings that could materially affect the use of the Principal Marks.

You will be required to notify us promptly of any third-party infringement or challenge to your use of any of the Marks. RE/MAX, LLC has the right to take whatever action it deems appropriate and to control exclusively any litigation or other proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge or claim relating to any of the Marks, and RE/MAX, LLC has the right to determine whether suit or other proceeding will be instituted, prosecuted or settled, the terms of settlement and whether any other action will be taken. You must take reasonable steps, without compensation, to assist us and RE/MAX, LLC with any action we or RE/MAX, LLC undertake. We will defend any action against you brought by a third party alleging that any of the Marks infringes any U.S. trademark of a third party, and we will pay those costs and damages finally awarded against you in any such action that are specifically attributable to such claim or those costs and damages agreed to in a monetary settlement of such actions; provided, that your use of the Marks complies with the Franchise Agreement and our brand standards, you have notified us promptly after you learned of the challenge, gave us and RE/MAX, LLC sole control of the defense and any related settlement negotiations, and you cooperate with us and RE/MAX, LLC in defending the challenge as required. Neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC have any obligation to defend the Marks from valid claims of prior use or of lawful concurrent use by others.

You must modify or discontinue the use of a Mark, at your expense, if we so direct. If we so direct, you must adopt or use one or more additional or substitute Marks.

Neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC actually knows of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect a franchisee's use of the Principal Marks in any state.

Item 14

These copyrights have generally not been registered with the United States Copyright Office. You may use these various items only in the manner we specify and only while operating your Office under the Franchise Agreement.

In addition to its trademark registrations for the REMAX balloon design, RE/MAX, LLC owns the following copyright registrations:

Under current U.S. law, the duration of copyright for these works extends to the end of the calendar year, 95 years from the year of the work's first publication, and copyright in these works cannot be renewed beyond that duration. RE/MAX, LLC takes no position whether, as between trademark rights and copyright in these logos, copyright is material to the franchise.

The Business Manual that you will be allowed to use in operating your Office includes RE/MAX, LLC's confidential information, including specifications, standards, policies, procedures and recommendations for operating REMAX offices. You will not be permitted to use this confidential information in an unauthorized manner and you will be required to take reasonable steps to prevent its disclosure to others.

You will be required to notify us promptly of any third-party infringement of or challenge to any of these copyrights, or of any claim by any person of any rights in any such copyright. RE/MAX, LLC has the right to take whatever action it deems appropriate and to control exclusively any litigation or other proceeding arising from any infringement, challenge or claim relating to any of the copyrights, and it has the right to determine whether suit or other proceeding will be instituted, prosecuted or settled, the terms of settlement and whether any other action will be taken. You must take reasonable steps, without compensation, to assist us and RE/MAX, LLC with any action we and/or RE/MAX, LLC undertake.

Neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC has any obligation to participate in your defense or indemnify you for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving a patent, patent application, or copyright licensed to you.

If it becomes advisable at any time in RE/MAX, LLC's sole determination for you to modify or discontinue the use of any material covered by a copyright and/or use one or more additional or substitute materials, you will be required, at your expense, to comply with RE/MAX, LLC's directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice.

There currently are no effective determinations of the USPTO, the U.S. Copyright Office or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials nor are there any infringing uses actually known to RE/MAX, LLC or to us that could materially affect a franchisee's use of the copyrighted materials in any state. Further, there are no agreements currently in effect that limit RE/MAX, LLC's or our right to use or authorize franchisees to use the copyrighted materials.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

Neither you nor your owners, if you are a business entity, will be required to participate personally in the direct operation of the Office, although we recommend that you or a principal owner do so. If neither you nor any of your owners (if you are a business entity) will supervise the on-premises operation of the Office, you must hire a manager ("Manager") who will devote his or her full time and best efforts to the on-premises management and supervision of the Office's operations. The person supervising the day-to-day operation of the Office must hold a valid state real estate broker license or such other state license as may be required to act as the managing or designated broker of record under whose license the Office will operate ("real estate broker license"). If applicable law requires that real estate offices be managed by a licensed real estate managing broker, the person managing your Office operations must have such a real estate managing broker's license. If you are a business entity, the Manager need not have an equity interest in the franchisee but will be required to agree in writing to preserve the confidentiality of any confidential information to which he or she has access. You or your principal owner or, if applicable, your Manager will be required to devote his or her full time and best efforts to managing and supervising the Office's operations. During the term of the Franchise Agreement, neither you nor your owners or Manager (if you are a business entity) will be permitted to operate, manage, own or have an interest in or become affiliated with in any other way (1) any non-REMAX real estate brokerage business; or (2) any other business or enterprise offering products or services that directly or indirectly compete with the products and/or services offered by REMAX offices or RE/MAX, LLC. You or your principal owner or Manager, as applicable, will be required to successfully complete our Initial Education and Recruiting 101 education programs in their entirety.

If you are a legal entity, your owners owning at least a 5% interest in you must sign a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, agreeing to pay and perform all obligations of the franchisee under the Franchise Agreement (attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit D). We may also require you to obtain a confidentiality agreement (to maintain confidentiality of confidential information as described in Item 14) from your owners.

If you enter into the Franchise Agreement as an individual, within 180 days of the effective date of the Franchise Agreement you will be required to form a business entity and transfer the franchise and the Franchise Agreement to the business entity (subject to our approval and your compliance with the applicable transfer provisions of the Franchise Agreement).

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You may operate your Office only at the approved location; however, you are not limited by RE/MAX, LLC or us to listing, selling, purchasing, exchanging, or managing property or representing clients within any defined geographic area. Subject to any restrictions or limitations placed upon you by state licensing laws and subject to best business practices, standards and guidelines from time to time issued by RE/MAX, LLC, you are free to deal with real property and/or represent clients wherever they are located. Similarly, other franchisees are free to deal with real property and/or represent clients that are located near you. However, you will be expected to meet high standards of service and professionalism reflective of the goodwill enjoyed by the REMAX brand. These expectations can only be met by limiting your authorized services to market areas where you can serve clients directly and personally and where you have the greatest knowledge of local conditions, infrastructures, and the housing market. Accordingly, if you are asked to provide services in areas in which you are unable to meet the service standard or elect not to provide service, you will be required to refer the request to the REMAX office for that area pursuant to RE/MAX, LLC's REMAX referral program and in accordance with the procedures we may from time to time establish.

Your Office will be permitted to offer only the real estate brokerage and related services that RE/MAX, LLC requires or authorizes from time to time for REMAX offices. You will be required to offer all services that RE/MAX, LLC designates as required services. RE/MAX, LLC will have the unlimited right to change these required and authorized services from time to time.

If you operate your Office exclusively as a commercial REMAX real estate franchise, you will be required to sign the Commercial Office Addendum (Exhibit A-4) which will restrict you from offering or engaging in any real estate brokerage services involving Residential Real Estate except for Residential Real Estate owned personally by you or others affiliated with your Office or by your or their immediate family members. The term "Residential Real Estate" means real property on which structures intended for human habitation and containing up to four dwelling units are located or are intended to be located.

If, when you sign the Franchise Agreement, you also own an existing business providing services that are distinguishable from but complementary to real estate brokerage services, we may (in our sole discretion) allow you to exclude such separate business from the Franchise by executing the Ancillary Services Addendum attached as Exhibit E to the Franchise Agreement.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing REMAX® office you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

We do not make any representations about a franchisee's future financial performance or the past financial performance of company-owned or franchised outlets. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing REMAX® office, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to our management by contacting Chris Lim, President and Chief Growth Officer, RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, 5075 South Syracuse Street, Denver, Colorado, 80237-2712, (303) 770-5531, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

RE/MAX INTEGRATED REGIONS, LLC
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Franchise Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the Agreement Date (as identified on Exhibit A hereto (the "Data Sheet")) by and between RE/MAX INTEGRATED REGIONS, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business at 5075 S. Syracuse St., Denver, CO 80237 ("we", "us" or "RE/MAX Regional"), and the person or entity identified as the Franchisee on the Data Sheet ("you" or "Franchisee"). For avoidance of doubt, if Franchisee is a Business Entity, the provisions of this Agreement also apply to Owners.

1. INTRODUCTION.

Our Related Party, RE/MAX, LLC, has developed a system (the "System" as further defined in Section 17) for the establishment and operation of real estate brokerage offices (each, a "REMAX office") offering high-quality real estate services to the general public under the REMAX Marks. These high-quality real estate services are provided under the REMAX Marks through a network of franchisees and their Sales Associates (collectively, the "REMAX Network").

RE/MAX, LLC owns the REMAX Marks as well as other Intellectual Property used in connection with the operation of a REMAX office and has granted us the right to use the REMAX Marks, the other Intellectual Property and the System in connection with granting franchises for the operation of REMAX offices and supporting franchisees operating such REMAX offices.

You desire to develop and operate a REMAX office, and we have agreed to grant you a franchise to operate a REMAX office, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement and not defined elsewhere in this Agreement are defined in Section 17.

You represent to us that you have made no misrepresentations or material omissions in connection with entering into this Agreement, including in your application for the rights granted by this Agreement or in the financial or other information provided to us by you and/or your Owners.

2. GRANT OF FRANCHISE.

A. Rights Granted. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, we grant to you the right and license (the "Franchise") to establish and operate, during the Term, at the premises identified on the Data Sheet (the "Premises"), a single REMAX office (the "Office") identified by the REMAX Marks. You accept this Franchise, undertake the obligation to open and continuously operate the Office faithfully, honestly and diligently, and agree to continuously exert your best efforts to promote and enhance the business of the Office, during the Term, in accordance with the System and in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable laws. You may not subfranchise, sublicense, assign or transfer your rights under this Agreement except as specifically provided in this Agreement. The Office must operate under the REMAX trade name that meets RE/MAX, LLC's requirements (as RE/MAX, LLC may modify from time to time) as provided in Subsection 4.D.

B. Office Location. If the location of the Premises has not been approved by us as of the Agreement Date, you must, within 90 days of the Agreement Date, purchase or lease a location for the Premises that is acceptable to us. We will approve the location if it meets our site selection criteria (as specified in the Business Manual), and we will attempt to provide our approval or disapproval within 14 days after you submit the location information to us. Once we approve the Premises' location, we will update the Data Sheet with the Premises information. If the parties cannot agree on a mutually acceptable location within 90 days of the Agreement Date, it will be deemed to be a failure of a material condition precedent, entitling us to terminate this Agreement without a refund of the Initial Franchise Fee.

C. Relocation. You may not relocate your Office without our prior written consent. We will approve a relocation if (i) the new Premises meet our then-current site selection criteria; (ii) you are not in default under this Agreement or any other agreement with us or our Related Parties; and (iii) you are current in your financial obligations to us, our Related Parties and third parties. You must continue to operate your Franchise at all times during the relocation.

D. Additional REMAX Franchises. This Agreement does not grant you a right of first refusal, option or any other right to purchase, acquire or open an additional REMAX franchise now or in the future. However, if you acquire or open one or more additional REMAX franchises in the future, each such franchise will be governed by a separate franchise agreement, which franchise agreement may have materially different terms from this Agreement. You agree that you will not operate or establish, nor permit your Sales Associates to operate or establish, any team office, branch office, kiosk, or other extension of the Office outside the Premises.

E. Authorized Services; Excluded Activity. You may operate the Office solely as a real estate brokerage business and engage in the activities of listing, offering, marketing, selling, purchasing, exchanging, auctioning, leasing and/or renting of real property and representing sellers, purchasers, lessors or renters of real property, or such other related activities and services as we may from time to time authorize in writing (collectively, the "Authorized Services"). You agree that no business or activity may be conducted at the Premises other than the Authorized Services. Authorized Services expressly exclude, without limitation, the following (each, an "Excluded Activity"): (a) the offering or performing of services that are distinguishable from but complementary to real estate brokerage services, including without limitation, title insurance or searches, mortgage brokerage and mortgage origination, insurance or insurance-related services or products, escrow or appraisal services, property management and home inspection services; (b) activities related to the business of listing, offering, selling, purchasing, exchanging or managing virtual, metaverse or digital property or assets ("Digital Property"), or any activities related to the auctioning, leasing or renting of Digital Property or representing sellers, purchasers, lessors, renters or users of Digital Property; and (c) real property management, commission advance, financial, or legal services. We may change the scope of, and any of our requirements with respect to, Authorized Services or Excluded Activity, and you agree to comply with any such changes. Subject to your compliance with the noncompetition covenants in Subsection 12.B, you (or your affiliate or Sales Associate) may engage in an Excluded Activity; provided, that you first enter into an Ancillary Services Addendum (in the form of Exhibit E) with us with respect to such Excluded Activity.

F. Market Areas Served; REMAX Referral Program. You are not limited to engaging in Authorized Services within any defined geographic area except as otherwise required under applicable real estate licensing laws. However, as a REMAX franchisee, you are expected to meet high standards of service and professionalism reflective of the goodwill enjoyed by the REMAX brand. These expectations may only be met by limiting the provision of Authorized Services to market areas where you can serve clients directly and personally and where you have the greatest knowledge of local conditions, infrastructures, and the housing market. Accordingly, you are not permitted to advertise or otherwise hold the Office out as having the ability to serve in market areas where you cannot effectively meet this high service standard, and you agree to refer all requests for Authorized Services in areas in which you are unable to meet the service standard or elect not to provide service to the REMAX office for that area pursuant to RE/MAX, LLC's referral program and in accordance with the procedures RE/MAX, LLC may from time to time establish. You acknowledge the importance of the REMAX referral program as an integral part of the System and to the success of REMAX offices. You agree not to use, or engage in the business of providing, any real estate office or agent locator service or referral service (including any digital service) that competes with the services made available by us or RE/MAX, LLC to the REMAX Network.

G. No Territorial Protection. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed, expressly or by implication, to grant to you any type of exclusive or protected territory or any right to limit, control, or prevent our, RE/MAX, LLC's or its Related Parties' right to own, operate, franchise, license or in any other manner authorize the location and/or operation of real estate brokerage or other businesses, under the Marks or other trademarks, service marks or trade dress, at any location or in any medium whatsoever, including at a location in close proximity to your Office and even if the operations of such other location or business may have an adverse impact on your Office operations.

H. Our Reservation of Rights. RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties (including RE/MAX Regional) reserve all rights not specifically granted to you in this Agreement, including, without limitation, the right, now or in the future, and anywhere, to: (i) engage in any business activities whatsoever, without limitation as to location, medium or trade channels; (ii) use the REMAX Marks and/or other proprietary rights in their other business activities without limitation; and (iii) offer and sell any products and/or services under the REMAX Marks, or under other trademarks, service marks or trade dress, or through any other trade channels.

3. TERM AND RENEWAL OF FRANCHISE.

A. Term. The term of this Agreement begins on the Agreement Date and, unless terminated earlier in accordance with the terms hereof, will expire on the expiration date identified in the Data Sheet (the "Term").

B. Renewal of Franchise.

(1) Renewal Term and Conditions of Renewal. You may renew the Franchise for one additional five-year renewal term; provided that you comply with the following conditions: (a) you have complied, throughout the Term, with all monetary obligations and other material terms and conditions of this Agreement, including but not limited to the Minimum Agent Count requirement under Section 6; (b) if requested by us, you and your Owners execute a form authorizing RE/MAX, LLC to obtain a consumer report and to conduct a credit and background check on you and your Owners; (d) you provide us with copies of your financial statements for the most recently completed calendar month, quarter and year, including balance sheets and results of operations, and such other financial reports and data as we require; (e) you and your Owners meet our then-current standards for REMAX franchisees; (f) you have given us written notice of your request to renew the Franchise not less than 6 months nor more than 12 months prior to the end of the Term; (g) if required by us, you (or your Principal Owner and/or Manager, as applicable) complete our then-current training or education requirements; (h) at least 90 days prior to the expiration of this Agreement, you execute our then-current form of franchise agreement (including the renewal addendum and all related agreements and documents, which may have materially different terms than this Agreement, including without limitation, requirements to use new systems and/or procedures, higher and/or additional fees, and higher minimum agent count requirements; (i) at least 90 days prior to the expiration of this Agreement, you pay us a renewal fee in the amount set forth in the Data Sheet (the "Renewal Fee"); (j) you and your guarantors execute a general release of claims in a form we prescribe; and (k) you complete such Office renovation and upgrade requirements as we may specify in order to conform the Office and the Premises to our then-current System standards as set forth in the Business Manual.

(2) Holdover Period. If this Agreement expires without you properly exercising renewal of the Franchise and you continue to accept the benefits of this Agreement thereafter, then, at our option, we may consider you as (i) operating a franchise in violation of our rights; or (ii) operating the franchise on a month-to-month holdover basis ("Holdover Period") under the terms of this expired Agreement, until either (a) both parties enter into our then-current form of franchise agreement for a renewal term or (b) we either elect to terminate your rights to operate the Office upon a 10 days' prior written notice or you terminate the relationship upon a 60 days' prior written notice. If we permit you to continue to operate during a Holdover Period, all of your obligations hereunder will remain in full force and effect during the Holdover Period as if this Agreement had not expired; provided, however, that in addition to all other fees that you must continue to pay to us under this Agreement and any related agreement, you will be required to pay us a $2,500 monthly holdover fee and you will pay us two times the Monthly Ongoing Fees that you would otherwise owe under this Agreement. You understand and agree that any operation during a Holdover Period is intended solely as a temporary arrangement and does not relieve you of your obligation to actively pursue renewal of—and to renew—the Franchise. If you close the Office without providing us the required notice, then, in addition to all fees and other amounts owed by you as of the date you close the Office, you will be required to pay us an amount equal to the total of what you were billed pursuant to this paragraph for Monthly Ongoing Fees and Marketing Fees for the two-month period immediately preceding the date that you closed the Office.

4. TRADEMARK AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS.

A. Limited Right to Use Marks. We hereby grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-sublicensable right to use the Marks during the Term solely in connection with the operation of the Office hereunder, subject to the below terms and conditions. You agree to comply, and you must ensure, and are solely responsible for ensuring, that all Sales Associates comply, with all provisions of this Section 4 and the Brand Identity Manual.

B. Mark Ownership. The Marks are RE/MAX, LLC's and/or its Related Parties' or its licensors' valuable property, and RE/MAX, LLC and/or its Related Parties or licensors are the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Marks and all past, present or future goodwill of the Office and of the business conducted that is associated with or attributable to the Marks. Your use of the Marks, including, without limitation, the use of "REMAX" in the trade name you adopt for your Office, will inure exclusively to RE/MAX, LLC's benefit. You may not, during or after the Term, engage, directly or indirectly, in any conduct that would infringe upon, contest or otherwise interfere with RE/MAX, LLC's or its Related Parties' rights in any of the Marks or the goodwill associated with the Marks. You agree that you will not grant or attempt to grant a security interest in, or otherwise encumber, the Marks or record any such security interest or encumbrance against any application or registration regarding the Marks in the United States Patent and Trademark Office or elsewhere.

C. Use of Marks; Hot Air Balloons. You may not use, or permit the use of, any trademarks, trade names, logos, service marks or any other names or marks in connection with the Office except those we authorize or direct in writing. You may use the Marks only in the form and manner we prescribe in writing and only in connection with the products and services that we specify and that meet our standards and requirements with respect to quality and professionalism. You must strictly comply with the Brand Identity Manual, as well as all other trademark, trade name and service mark notice marking requirements and other brand usage guidelines that we may provide from time to time. Without limiting the foregoing, and except to the extent specifically permitted in the Brand Identity Manual, you will not authorize or permit real estate licensees who are not registered or licensed as Sales Associates with your Office to appear with or be listed under your name, your Office name, the name of any Sales Associate or of any Team associated with your Office or under any of the REMAX Marks or to otherwise use or benefit from the use of any of the REMAX Marks. Under no circumstances may you use the Marks in violation of the law.

(1) You acknowledge and agree that REMAX hot air balloons, which are intended to be used to maximize public awareness and recognition of the REMAX brand and to promote and enhance public goodwill reflected in the REMAX Marks, must always remain under the control and ownership of RE/MAX, LLC or its designee. You understand that we or our designee will use reasonable efforts to make a REMAX hot air balloon available to you for a reasonable fee if you desire to use one for marketing purposes. You agree that neither you, your Owners nor your Sales Associates may purchase or own, for any purpose, a REMAX hot air balloon or any hot air balloon depicting red, white and blue trade dress, or that otherwise depicts, or is confusingly similar to, any of the REMAX Marks.

D. Business Identification. The currently authorized trade name for your Office is set forth in the Data Sheet. Unless we direct you otherwise, you must use the name REMAX as the first word in the trade name, and you must obtain and maintain a corresponding fictitious or assumed name registration as required under applicable laws in the jurisdiction in which your Office is located and provide us with evidence of the same prior to opening for business. You are solely responsible for ensuring that any terms included in the authorized trade name other than the REMAX Marks (the "Non-REMAX Trade Name Terms") do not infringe any third party's rights. You may not use any other mark or words to identify the Office without our prior written consent. If you are a Business Entity, you may not use the words "REMAX" or any other Mark as part of the name of your Business Entity. You may not change your legal Business Entity name, trade name, or fictitious or assumed name without our prior written consent. If you are a Business Entity, you must conduct all business in the name of the Business Entity, not just your trade name.

(1) If you wish for your Office to be identified as only (subject to limited exceptions) providing Authorized Services with respect to commercial real estate, you will be required to sign the Commercial Office Addendum (in the form we provide).

(2) You may use the Marks on various materials associated with the Office, such as business cards, stationery and checks; provided that you (i) accurately depict the Marks on the materials as we direct, (ii) use the Marks in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Brand Identity Manual, (iii) include a statement on the materials indicating that the Office is independently owned and operated by you, (iv) do not use the Marks in connection with any other trademarks, trade names, logos, service marks or any other names or marks except as expressly permitted in the Brand Identity Manual, and (v) make available to us, upon our request, a copy of any materials depicting the Marks. You must put clients on notice (by language in your contracts) identifying you as a REMAX franchisee in a format we deem acceptable, including an acknowledgment that you independently own and operate the Office.

E. Domain Names. Except to the extent provided in the Brand Identity Manual, you cannot register or use any of the Marks as part of a domain name. No Sales Associate may register any domain name that includes any of the Marks or variants thereof, and neither you nor your Sales Associates may sell or offer to sell any domain name that includes any of the Marks or variants thereof.

(1) Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement or at any time upon our request, you agree, at your own expense, to promptly (i) execute and deliver all necessary documents and take any action reasonably requested by us necessary to effect the transfer, deactivation, redirection or termination of any domain names or Internet addresses that use any of the Marks as we may require, (ii) comply with any procedure for same required by the domain name registrar or another third party that issued the domain name or website address, and (iii) direct all Internet service providers, domain name registrars, domain name listing agencies and other third parties to accept this Agreement as conclusive evidence of the rights of RE/MAX, LLC to ownership, control and benefit of all domain names and Internet addresses containing any of the Marks that you or your Sales Associates create. You and your Owners hereby appoint RE/MAX, LLC as your agent and attorney-in-fact to act for and on your behalf to execute, register, and file such documents, complete such processes and all other lawfully permitted acts as the registrar, or applicable law, requires to effectuate a transfer, deactivation, redirection or termination of such domain names or Internet addresses with the same legal effect as if executed by you or your Owners, and you agree to pay directly, or reimburse RE/MAX, LLC for, any costs and attorney fees it incurs in taking such actions. You agree to pay us and RE/MAX, LLC for our costs and expenses including our attorney's fees incurred in the process of obtaining and/or deactivating (in REMAX, LLC's sole discretion), any domain name registered by you or your Sales Associates that is not compliant with this section. You further agree that registering or owning any domain name that includes one or more of the Marks, except to the extent provided in the Brand Identity Manual, or retaining ownership of any such domains after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, would be an act of bad faith.

F. Litigation. If any person or entity improperly uses or infringes the Marks or other Intellectual Property or challenges your use or our use or RE/MAX, LLC's ownership of or the validity of the Marks or other Intellectual Property, RE/MAX, LLC will control all litigation and other proceedings and efforts to enforce its rights in the Marks and Intellectual Property, and it has the right to determine whether suit or other proceeding will be instituted, prosecuted or settled, the terms of settlement and whether any other action will be taken. You must promptly notify us of any such use or infringement of which you become aware or any challenge or claim arising out of your use of any Mark or other Intellectual Property. You must take reasonable steps, without compensation, to assist RE/MAX, LLC with any action it undertakes. RE/MAX, LLC will be responsible for its fees and expenses incurred in connection with any such action, unless the challenge or claim results from your misuse of the Marks or other Intellectual Property in violation of this Agreement, in which case you must pay RE/MAX, LLC for its costs and expenses including its attorneys' fees. Provided that you are using the Marks in compliance with the terms of this Agreement, RE/MAX, LLC will defend, at its own expense, any action against you brought by a third party alleging that any of the Marks infringes any U.S. trademark of a third party, and it will pay those costs and damages finally awarded against you in any such action that are specifically attributable to such claim or those costs and damages agreed to in a monetary settlement of such action. The foregoing obligations are conditioned on you: (i) notifying us promptly in writing of such action; (ii) giving RE/MAX, LLC sole control of the defense thereof and any related settlement negotiations; and (iii) cooperating and, at our request and expense, assisting in such defense. You acknowledge and understand that RE/MAX, LLC will have no obligation to defend the REMAX Marks from valid claims of prior use or of lawful concurrent use by others.

G. Changes. Unless we direct you so in writing, you may not make any changes or substitutions to the Marks. RE/MAX, LLC reserves the right to change the Marks at any time, and you must comply, at your own cost, with any such changes within the time frames we specify.

H. Prohibition Against Disparagement. During or after the Term, you agree not to, and to use your best efforts to cause your Sales Associates or anyone else acting on your behalf not to, make any false, derogatory or defamatory statements about us, RE/MAX, LLC, the REMAX brand, our Related Parties, any current or former REMAX franchisees, or any of our or their officers, directors, employees or owners. You may not engage in any conduct that harms or interferes with RE/MAX, LLC's rights in the REMAX Marks or the goodwill associated with the Marks, including using the Marks in any negative, inappropriate, or misleading manner in any media. This provision does not restrict communications with governmental authorities when required by law.

I. Creative Works. All ideas, business ventures, concepts, inventions, techniques, or materials concerning a REMAX office or the Franchise, whether or not protectable Intellectual Property and whether created by or for you or one of your Owners, employees or Sales Associates, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be solely and exclusively RE/MAX, LLC's property, part of the System, and "works made-for-hire," as the phrase is defined in the Copyright Act of 1976 (17 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq.), for RE/MAX, LLC. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for us, by operation of law or otherwise, you agree to assign and hereby irrevocably assign, for no additional consideration, ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to RE/MAX, LLC, and its successors and assigns, including without limitation, the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for all past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, or dilution thereof, and all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world and agree to take whatever action (including signing an assignment agreement or other documents) we request to show RE/MAX, LLC's ownership or to help RE/MAX, LLC obtain intellectual property rights in the item. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, neither the expiration nor the termination of this Agreement shall affect RE/MAX, LLC's ownership of the items herein or alter any of its rights or privileges hereunder.

J. License to Materials and Likeness. With respect to images, videos or other content (collectively, "Materials") that you, your Sales Associates or Owners supply to us, you and your Owners (as applicable) grant, and you agree to cause your Sales Associate to grant, RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties a fully paid-up and royalty-free license and right to use and sublicense such Materials for any marketing, educational or operational purpose that we deem appropriate in any media now in existence or hereafter created. To the extent that the Materials feature your, your Sales Associates' or any Owner's likeness, image, performance, voice or name (collectively, "Likeness"), or the Likeness of you, your Sales Associates or Owners appears in content created by us or RE/MAX, LLC during the Term, the license granted herein shall include the right to use and sublicense such Likeness. If you, your Sales Associates or Owners do not own the copyright in the Materials, you and your Owners represent and warrant (and you agree to cause your Sales Associates to represent and warrant) that you or they have permission to use such Materials and to authorize the uses contemplated by this paragraph. You and your Owners hereby release and covenant not to sue (and you agree to cause your Sales Associates to release and covenant not to sue) RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties in connection with any use of the Materials or Likeness permitted by this paragraph, and further agree to indemnify and hold RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties harmless against any third-party Claims that use of the Materials or Likeness infringes upon such third party's rights, including copyrights and rights of publicity. The license and other provisions of this paragraph shall survive expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

5. FEES.

A. Initial Franchise Fee. Upon signing this Agreement, you must pay us an initial franchise fee set forth in the Data Sheet (the "Initial Franchise Fee"), which is earned upon receipt and is non-refundable. Any financing of the Initial Franchise Fee is only available if we offer you financing under the terms of our form of a Promissory Note.

B. Monthly Ongoing Fees. You agree to pay us monthly ongoing fees ("Monthly Ongoing Fees") as follows:

(1) CFF. Beginning with the calendar month during which your Office opens and continuing each month thereafter during the Term, you agree to pay us, by the 10th day of the following calendar month, a fee (the "CFF") in the amount specified on the Data Sheet as the Continuing Franchise Fee multiplied by the number of Sales Associates equal to the greater of (a) the number of Sales Associates associated with your Office during the month or (b) the applicable Minimum Agent Count. We may modify the CFF once per calendar year during the Term; provided that any increase will not exceed 10% of the CFF in effect at the time of the increase. We recommend that you, in turn, charge each of your Sales Associates a monthly management fee to cover the cost of the CFF; however, the CFF is due to us whether or not you collect any corresponding fees from your Sales Associates.

(2) Broker Fee. Simultaneously with each payment of the CFF, you agree to pay us a fee (the "Broker Fee") equal to a percentage of Revenue for the previous calendar month as specified on the Data Sheet, whether or not you collect a corresponding fee from the Sales Associates. In addition to the monthly management fee referred to in Subsection 5.B.(1), we recommend that you retain a small percentage of the Revenue generated by your Sales Associates to cover the cost of the Broker Fee.

(3) Technology Fee. We reserve the right, upon 12 months' notice to you, to implement a third component to the Monthly Ongoing Fees, a technology fee to offset our cost of certain technology solutions we make available to you (the "Technology Fee"). If implemented, you will be required to pay us, simultaneously with the other Monthly Ongoing Fees, a Technology Fee in an amount we specify (in an initial amount not to exceed the amount set forth in the Data Sheet), whether or not you collect a corresponding fee from your Sales Associates, and you will pay us the Technology Fee with respect to the number of Sales Associates equal to the greater of (a) the number of Sales Associates associated with your Office during the month or (b) the applicable Minimum Agent Count. If we implement the Technology Fee, the use of such funds will be determined by us, and we will have the right to increase the Technology Fee (by not more than $5 per year) once per calendar year during the Term.

(4) Regional Development Fee. If your Office is located in Indiana, you will also pay us, at the same time as the other Monthly Ongoing Fees, a monthly regional development fee in the amount set forth in the Data Sheet (the "Regional Development Fee") which we will use to support promotional, marketing, recruiting and other activities in the state of Indiana. We may increase the Regional Development Fee once per calendar year during the Term, but not more than by 20% each year.

C. Annual Dues. You agree to pay to RE/MAX, LLC annual dues in an amount specified in the Data Sheet (the "Annual Dues") with respect to each Sales Associate associated with your Office during the applicable year. If your Sales Associate count is below the required Minimum Agent Count, RE/MAX, LLC reserves the right to charge you Annual Dues with respect to each Sales Associate required to be associated with your Office under the Minimum Agent Count. The first Annual Dues payment with respect to a Sales Associate will be due within five days of the earlier of the date (the "Annual Dues Payment Date") that is (i) the date on which the Sales Associate first becomes registered with your Office (by you submitting to us a completed membership profile form (in the form we specify) for the Sales Associate) or (ii) the date on which the Sales Associate first becomes qualified to engage in real estate services for the Office, and each subsequent Annual Dues payment for that Sales Associate will be due on each anniversary of the first Annual Dues Payment Date. (If you are not in compliance with the Minimum Agent Count, with respect to any Sales Associate(s) that represents a Minimum Agent Count shortfall, the first Annual Dues Payment Date shall the date on which the Sales Associate was required to be registered with the Office under the Minimum Agent Count requirement.) Although RE/MAX, LLC may elect to bill the Sales Associates directly for the Annual Dues, you acknowledge and agree that such direct billing will not relieve you of your obligation to promptly pay to RE/MAX, LLC the Annual Dues for each Sales Associate who fails to timely make the payment in full themselves or who represents a shortfall in the Minimum Agent Count. RE/MAX, LLC may, once in each calendar year during the Term, increase the Annual Dues amount but not by more than 20% each year.

D. Marketing Fee; Hot Air Balloon Fee. Simultaneously with the Monthly Ongoing Fees, you agree to pay us or our designee a monthly marketing fee in the amount specified in the Data Sheet (the "Marketing Fee"), multiplied by the greater of (a) the number of Sales Associates associated with your Office during the month or (b) the applicable Minimum Agent Count. We will deposit all Marketing Fees into the Marketing Fund in accordance with Subsection 9.B. We may increase (but not more than by $30) or decrease the Marketing Fee once in each calendar year during the Term.

If your Office is located in Indiana, Minnesota or Wisconsin, you will also pay to us (or our designee), at the same time as the Marketing Fee, a monthly contribution to the Hot Air Balloon Fund in the amount specified on the Data Sheet. We may increase the Hot Air Balloon Fund contribution amount once in each calendar year during the Term but not more than by 20% each year. We have the right to stop charging this fee at any time in our sole determination.

E. Payment Terms; Late Fees.

(1) Submission of Payments. You agree to pay all fees, dues, and charges in accordance with such procedures we may from time to time specify. Before your Office begins operating, you must deliver to us the documents we require to authorize us to debit your business checking account for Monthly Ongoing Fees, Marketing Fees, Annual Dues, and other amounts due to us, including for your purchases from us and/or our Related Parties. In addition to any other remedies we may have, failure to timely complete the documents that we need to auto-debit your bank account may result in a processing fee of $100 for each month during which the default continues. You agree to sign a withdrawal authorization form (Automatic Bank Draft) or to provide the payment information needed for automatic payment when you are prompted in our online billing system (referred to as the "Agent Office Portal"). We will debit your bank account for the amounts due on the due dates. You agree to ensure that funds are available in your bank account to cover such withdrawals. If there are insufficient funds in your bank account to cover any amount you owe, you agree (i) to pay us, on demand, a processing fee of $100, plus reimburse us for our administrative costs, in addition to the amounts owed under this Agreement; and (ii) that we may require you to make some or all subsequent payments via another form of payment we designate. We reserve the right to specify alternative methods of payment, and you agree to comply with our payment instructions and procedures. If we accept credit card or other forms of payment, you agree to pay any associated processing fees and surcharges. For avoidance of doubt, you agree that your failure to (a) require your Sales Associates to pay fees to you or (b) collect fees from your Sales Associates does not relieve you of your obligation to timely remit the fees to us as required under this Agreement.

(2) Calculation of Fees based on Multi-Office Aggregate Minimum Agent Count. Notwithstanding anything in Subsections 5.B.- 5.D. to the contrary, if, in addition to operating the Office hereunder, you operate one or more additional REMAX franchise(s) under separate franchise agreements with us and you are in compliance with this Agreement and all of your other REMAX franchise agreements except that you only meet the Minimum Agent Count under your REMAX franchise agreements on an aggregate basis (and not under each franchise agreement separately), we may elect to calculate the CFF and Marketing Fees hereunder based on your actual Sales Associate count for the Office even if it is less than the Minimum Agent Count; provided, however, that such election will not waive any of our rights to enforce your full compliance with the Minimum Agent Count requirement.

(3) Failure to Submit Payment or Report. If you fail to make any payments to us by their due date, you agree to pay us: (a) a late charge equal to 10% of the amount due, or if such rate exceeds the highest rate permitted by applicable law, then at the highest rate permitted by law; and (b) interest on all amounts owed but unpaid at the rate of 1% per month compounded or the highest rate permitted under applicable law, whichever is less, in addition to the amounts owed. If you fail to submit any report by its due date as required under Section 10, you agree to pay us a late charge of $100 per day per missed report until the report is submitted, as consideration for our additional administrative costs incurred due to the late submission.

(4) Application of Payments. You agree to pay all amounts due without deduction, set off, or abatement. Notwithstanding any designation by you, we have the right to apply any payments received from you to any past-due indebtedness to us or any Related Party in such amounts and in such order as we determine. If we are ever deemed to have contracted for, charged or received late payments or interest on overdue sums in an amount that exceeds the amount permitted under applicable law, then such excess amount will be deemed intended for, and will be applied as, payment of outstanding amounts due under this Agreement and, if no such amounts remain outstanding, such excess will be returned to you.

F. REMAX Appreciate Plan. If you so elect, under our program referred to as the REMAX Appreciate Plan, you may receive the benefit of a revised fee structure with respect to certain qualified long-standing Sales Associates, as an acknowledgment of their many years of affiliation with a REMAX office. If you wish for your eligible Sales Associates to participate in the REMAX Appreciate Plan, you must sign our then-current form of the Appreciate Plan Addendum. We may amend or discontinue the REMAX Appreciate Plan at any time upon 12 months' notice.

G. Unreported Agents; Unreported Agents' Fees. You may not at any time during the Term have any Unreported Agent associated with your Office. If we notify you of an Unreported Agent, in order to cure the default, you must, within 10 days of receiving such notice, either eliminate all ties with the Unreported Agent or enroll them as a Sales Associate in the Agent Office Portal, and, in each case, you must pay us, as liquidated damages and not a penalty, a fee of $1,000 per Unreported Agent. In addition, we reserve the right to also charge you for all of the Monthly Ongoing Fees, the Annual Dues and the Marketing Fees due hereunder as if such Unreported Agent were a Sales Associate, retroactively for the period beginning on the earliest of (i) the date of the first transaction the Unreported Agent had under the Office, (ii) the date such Unreported Agent's real estate license was first registered with the Office in the applicable state real estate commission's records, or (iii) the date we first discovered such Unreported Agent, and until the date this default has been fully cured.

H. Document Processing Fee. You agree to pay us a fee (the "Document Processing Fee") ranging from $500 to $2,000 to cover the administrative and other costs we incur if you request a complex or extensive modification (as determined by us) to this Agreement (or any related document) or if we agree to draft such modification to accommodate you in connection with a cure of your default under this Agreement or related document during the Term or in connection with a Franchise renewal or transfer. The Document Processing Fee is due within 10 days after billing.

6. MINIMUM AGENT COUNT.

You must have the minimum number of Sales Associates in your Office by the dates and during the time periods set forth in the Data Sheet (the "Minimum Agent Count"). Only Sales Associates who have not otherwise been associated with the REMAX Network during the 3 months prior to their association with you will be counted towards the satisfaction of your Minimum Agent Count requirement.

If you fail to meet the Minimum Agent Count hereunder, in lieu of immediately exercising our rights under Section 14 (but without waiving our right to do so), we may elect to require you to establish, with our guidance, a performance improvement plan for the Office ("PIP") that we approve and that will require you, over a specified period of time we establish (up to 12 months) to take specific actions with the goal of increasing the Sales Associate count for the Office to meet the Minimum Agent Count. The PIP may require you to complete certain educational programs and/or consultation sessions with us and/or third parties and/or to invest (at your own cost) in certain targeted local marketing efforts. Your failure to implement or comply with the PIP over the designated time period will be a default hereunder, subject to a 30-day cure period.

7. OPERATIONS STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS.

A. Office Opening. You agree to open and begin operating the Office by the Required Opening Date identified on the Data Sheet, although you cannot commence operations until you have satisfactorily completed our training program and complied with your other pre-opening obligations (including meeting the insurance obligations under Subsection 12.C). To "open" the Office hereunder, the Office must be staffed by a full-time Manager (which may be you, or if Franchisee is a Business Entity, Principal Owner or a non-owner if we so approve) and equipped with furniture, a Technology System (as defined in Subsection 7.F.(1)), and other office equipment necessary to operate a REMAX office in accordance with our specifications and our System standards as set forth in the Business Manual. Unless prohibited by law or the landlord for the Premises, you must also have one or more exterior office signs that depicts the authorized trade name for the Office in compliance with the Business Manual. You are solely responsible for ensuring that the Office is constructed, designed and equipped in compliance with all applicable laws, including without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act. We are not liable for any of your pre-opening obligations, losses or expenses and we have no responsibility for any lease you enter into in connection with the Office operations.

B. Appearance of Office. You agree to maintain and periodically refresh the appearance of the Office in accordance with our specifications and consistent with the image of a REMAX office as a modern, clean, attractive and efficiently operated facility. You agree to take steps as we may reasonably require from time to time to maintain such appearance and efficient operation, including, without limitation, interior and exterior repairs and cleaning of the Premises; replacement of worn-out or obsolete leasehold improvements, fixtures, equipment and/or signs; and periodic redecorating.

C. System Standards; the Business Manual. You acknowledge and agree that the development and operation of the Office in accordance with the System standards set forth in the Business Manual is essential to preserve the reputation and high standards of quality and service of REMAX offices and the goodwill associated with the Marks. You further acknowledge and agree that the mandatory elements of the System contained in the Business Manual have been established for the purpose of preserving such reputation, standards and goodwill, but do not, and are not intended to, govern or control the day-to-day business of the Office or the means or manner by which you conduct the operations of the Office, which shall always be solely your responsibility and subject to your judgment and control. We will provide you access to the Business Manual (in such format as we determine). You acknowledge that the Business Manual is RE/MAX, LLC's Intellectual Property and is owned exclusively by RE/MAX, LLC. You must, at all times, treat the Business Manual, and the information it contains, as secret and confidential, and must use all reasonable efforts to maintain such information secret and confidential. You must adopt and use as your continuing operational routine the required standards and systems as described in the Business Manual. RE/MAX, LLC will revise the Business Manual and any standards, procedures, techniques and management systems included therein periodically to adapt the System to changing conditions, competitive circumstances, business strategies and practices and technological innovations and in the best interest of the System. We will notify you of any such updates or revisions and you agree to comply with each new or changed requirement within the time frame we specify. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Business Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Business Manual that we maintain are controlling.

The Business Manual contains both required standards and recommended standards. Any required standards exist to protect our and RE/MAX, LLC's interests in the System and the Marks and not for the purpose of establishing any control or duty to take control over those matters that are reserved to you. The required standards generally will be set forth in the Business Manual or other written policies as we and RE/MAX, LLC may adopt from time to time. The Business Manual also will include guidelines or recommendations in addition to required standards. In some instances, the required standards will include recommendations or guidelines to meet the required standards. You may follow the recommendations or guidelines or some other suitable alternative, provided you meet and comply with the required standards. In other instances, no suitable alternative may exist. To protect our and RE/MAX, LLC's interests in the System and the Marks, we reserve the right to determine if you are meeting the required standard and whether an alternative is suitable to any recommendations or guidelines.

D. Client Service. You are solely responsible for the quality and results of the services and products you sell and provide to clients, maintaining a continuing responsibility with respect to such services and products beyond the termination or expiration of this Agreement. You must render and must cause each of your employees and Sales Associates to render prompt, professional and courteous service to clients. We may at any time contact your clients concerning the quality of services you provide, the level of client satisfaction, or other aspects of the Franchise that we deem relevant. If we refer a client lead to you or your Sales Associate, you must initiate (or cause the Sales Associate to initiate) contact with the client lead within the timeframe we specify in the Business Manual. If you fail to timely initiate contact with a client lead, we have the right to assign the lead to another franchisee or to the Lead Concierge Program. If you subsequently wish to work with the client lead, you may be required to enter into an agreement with us or our designated vendor to participate in the Lead Concierge Program and pay a participation fee pursuant to the program.

E. Approved Supplies and Suppliers. We reserve the right to require that you only use approved products, services, equipment, signs, advertising materials, and other items (collectively "Approved Supplies") in the operation of the Office. We may introduce new Approved Supplies and change Approved Supplies from time to time, and you agree to promptly comply with our new or changed requirements. Although we do not do so for every item, we have the right to approve the supplier of Approved Supplies. You acknowledge and agree that certain Approved Supplies may only be available from one approved supplier source, and we or our Related Parties (including RE/MAX, LLC) may be that source. You will pay the then-current price in effect for any Approved Supplies you purchase from us or our Related Parties. All products, materials, services and other items and supplies used in the operation of the Office must conform to the specifications and standards we establish from time to time as provided in the Business Manual. All client-facing materials, techniques, and promotional items must meet our standards of uniformity and quality. We may furnish to you lists of Approved Supplies and/or approved suppliers, which lists are confidential and proprietary and may be amended by us and/or RE/MAX, LLC from time to time. We or our Related Party may make available to you the opportunity to participate from time to time in certain discounts, rebates or other benefits in connection with your purchases from approved suppliers.

WE AND OUR RELATED PARTIES MAKE NO WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO ANY PRODUCTS, SERVICES, EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES OR OTHER ITEMS WE APPROVE AND WE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS AND IMPLIED, INCLUDING IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO ANY SUCH PRODUCTS, EQUIPMENT (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION AND ANY REQUIRED TECHNOLOGY SYSTEMS), SUPPLIES, OR OTHER APPROVED ITEMS.

F. Systems, Data and Technology. You agree to implement and use, at your own cost, in the operation of the Office, all systems, programs and procedures that we establish from time to time, including, without limitation, communication systems, accounting systems, data management systems, back-office management system, and other systems and technology we designate. Such requirements are intended to facilitate communications between you and RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties (including us) and efficient operation of the Office and not to control the manner or means of the day-to-day operations of the Office. Such systems, programs, and procedures include, without limitation, the following:

(1) Technology-Related Requirements. You must purchase, implement and maintain a computer system and other technology we from time to time specify, including, without limitation, brokerage back-office management software (the "Back-Office Software") and accounting software and related hardware, and all future updates, upgrades, supplements and modifications (collectively, the "Technology System"). Upon our request, you agree to promptly enter into a third-party agreement among you, our Back-Office Software provider or other vendor designated by us, and the real property database provider for your Office's local market area. You are responsible for any pass-through fees (if any) that your real property database provider may charge for data access. We may modify specifications for any components of the Technology System or change any systems, programs or technology included in the Technology System from time to time, and you agree to implement, at your own cost, such upgrades and modifications during the Term. You acknowledge and agree that we and RE/MAX, LLC will have independent access to the information and data entered into or produced by the Technology System and we and RE/MAX, LLC can use the same in any way we deem appropriate, including sharing it with our Related Parties and third-party vendors. You are responsible for obtaining appropriate client consent, as well as all necessary rights in the Client Information, to ensure you and we may process Client Information as provided in this Agreement. You must also have high-speed Internet access. You must use a dedicated email account for the Office. If you or someone you employ does not have the expertise, you must obtain a maintenance contract with a reputable vendor for the provision of support and maintenance services for the Technology System. You must comply with all laws applicable to your use of the Technology System, including payment card industry (PCI) requirements.

You may be required to purchase certain equipment, hardware or services or license software or other technology directly from us, our Related Party, or a third party we designate, at your own cost, and you also may be required to sign license or user agreements and pay additional licensing or other fee(s) in connection with your use of such services, software or other technology. All right, title and interest in and to the software and technology will remain with its licensor. You will be liable for all damages and losses (under this Agreement, any other license agreement you execute, and under applicable law) caused by your use of any software or technology on the Technology System. As to any malfunctioning of the Technology System or any website as further described in Subsection 7.E.(3), neither we nor a Related Party will be liable to you for any consequential, incidental, indirect, economic, special, exemplary or punitive damages, such as, but not limited to, loss of revenue or anticipated profits or lost business, even if you have advised us that such damages are possible as a result of any breach or malfunction. You agree that, without our prior written consent, you may not use Confidential Information in connection with any Technology System that leverages artificial intelligence or machine learning models.

(2) Data Protection and Data Incidents. You must secure the Technology System and protect it from viruses, malware, spyware, malicious code, communication disruptions, Internet access and content failures, and social engineering and other attacks by unauthorized parties, including by timely installing all updates and upgrades and maintaining anti-virus systems and firewalls. In connection with your compliance with Privacy Laws (as defined in Subsection 12.D.(1)), you must (i) maintain reasonable physical, technical and administrative safeguards for Client Information in your possession or control to protect the same from unauthorized access or use; (ii) refrain from any action or inaction that could cause us to breach any Privacy Laws; and (iii) do and execute, or arrange to be done and executed, each act, document and thing we deem necessary in our business judgment to keep us in compliance with Privacy Laws. In the interest of protecting the REMAX brand, you must notify us immediately of any data or security incident related to your Office (including any unauthorized access to your Technology System, the breach of any requirements regarding Client Information or any Privacy Law, or the theft or loss (or apparent or alleged theft or loss) of Client Information), and specify the extent to which personal information may have been compromised. You must also, at your expense, retain a qualified independent data security expert ("remediation expert") to assess the nature and scope of the incident. If we request, you agree to provide us with a written report detailing the remediation expert's findings. You agree to fully cooperate with us and RE/MAX, LLC with respect to any media statements and management of any such incident, including fact finding or mitigation/defense actions we deem advisable (see also Crisis Communications, Subsection 12.D.(4)) and keep us informed about the status of the incident, including identifying all steps you take to remedy and resolve the matter.

(3) Participation in Internet Websites or Other Online Communications. We may require you, at your expense, to participate in RE/MAX, LLC's website on the Internet, its intranet and/or extranet system or other online communications as we may from time to time prescribe. RE/MAX, LLC has the right to determine the content and use of RE/MAX, LLC's website and intranet or extranet system and establish the rules under which franchisees may or must participate. We will post your Office contact information on RE/MAX, LLC's website. We reserve the right to pre-approve and establish rules, procedures and policies relating to any website and social media account that you create or use for the operation of your Office. RE/MAX, LLC retains all rights relating to its website, intranet system and social media accounts and may alter or terminate its website, extranet system or intranet system, or any social media accounts. Your general conduct on RE/MAX, LLC's website, social media accounts, intranet or extranet system or other online communications and specifically your use of the Marks or any advertising on any website or social media account is subject to the provisions of this Agreement and other terms and conditions we from time to time specify. You acknowledge that certain information related to your participation in RE/MAX, LLC's website, social media accounts, extranet system or intranet system may be considered Confidential Information, including access codes and identification codes. Your right to participate in RE/MAX, LLC's website, social media accounts, and intranet or extranet system, or otherwise use the Marks or System on the Internet or in other online communications, will terminate when this Agreement expires or terminates. You acknowledge and agree that you do not have any right to use the Marks or other Intellectual Property of the System on any website or any social media platform except in strict compliance with our specifications as provided in the Business Manual or as expressly approved by us in writing.

(4) Other Resources. Throughout the Term, we or RE/MAX, LLC may make available to you other valuable systems, programs and platforms that are optional for you to use (collectively, "Optional Resources"), including educational and/or motivational programming, customer relationship and content management tools, lead routing tools, tools for creating promotional materials (including social media posts, branded brochures and video advertising campaigns) and custom listing videos, a lead referral program, and an online store for Approved Supplies offered by approved suppliers. Optional Resources may include proprietary and third-party systems, and your use of Optional Resources is subject to the applicable terms and conditions we, RE/MAX, LLC or a third-party licensor specify from time to time. We may charge fees for your use of certain Optional Resources. We are not obligated to maintain any of the Optional Resources—or the services offered through them—and may modify, discontinue or replace them or add to them at any time without notice or liability to you. From time to time, we may designate an Optional Resource as a required Technology System or other required component of the System, in which case you will be required to implement and use the same, at your own cost.

G. Office Listings. Unless expressly prohibited by the client, you agree to make available to us or our designee(s), in the manner, format and within the time frame we from time to time specify, all of your Office's real estate property listings in any status, including active, pending, coming soon or any similar classification, and any updates and changes thereto (collectively, the "Office Listings"). You agree to use the software or platform that we may designate from time to time to manage the Office Listings. You hereby grant to us and RE/MAX, LLC a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, sublicense through multiple tiers, copy, publish, display, and reproduce all Listing Content of your Office Listings, prepare derivative works and distribute the Listing Content or any derivative works thereof. Such license shall be deemed granted as of the moment of creation of the Office Listing, without the necessity of any further action by either party and shall apply whether you or your Sales Associate provides the Listing Content to us or we obtain it via another source. Subject to any choice we may provide you or your Sales Associates to opt out of the provision of your Office Listings to third parties, you agree that we and RE/MAX, LLC may (but are not obliged to) use and license, or otherwise grant rights in or to, any Office Listings made available to us, including any and all Listing Content, on RE/MAX, LLC's website, web applications and other technologies and to any third party for any lawful purpose reasonably deemed appropriate by us, including to promote the Office Listings or provide you with opportunities to do the same. You represent and warrant that (i) the Listing Content and the license to us and RE/MAX, LLC of rights in and to the Listing Content do not violate any intellectual property or other rights of any third party; and (ii) all information included in the Listing Content is accurate and not misleading, to the best of your knowledge after reasonable efforts to verify its accuracy. You agree to indemnify and hold us and RE/MAX, LLC and our vendors, service providers and sublicensees harmless from and against all Claims that the Listing Content or any part of it is false or misleading or infringes the rights of any third party.

H. Maintaining Independence; Advertising Commission Rates or Plans. You understand and agree that you (and/or your Sales Associates) solely determine the commission rates for your Office independently from any other REMAX office or another competitor and we do not set such rates or plans. You understand that commission rates are fully negotiable and not set by law or by us. You agree to communicate the same to your clients, including in all advertising that publishes any commission rates. Subject to your rights and responsibilities to supervise your Sales Associates, if you or your Sales Associates elect to, or allow others associated with your Office to, advertise commission rates or fees, the advertisement must include the following notice to the public, in a typeface at least one-half the size of the largest typeface used in the advertisement: "Different commission rates, fees and services may be offered by other REMAX franchisees and sales associates serving this market area. Commissions are negotiable and not set by law." In addition, you must be transparent in your dealings with current or potential clients and ensure that potential clients fully understand the listing, purchasing, and marketing services that will be provided by your Office in the market area.

Similarly, in your Sales Associate recruitment materials, you shall refrain from any comment, advertising, or other conduct that could lead prospective Sales Associates to believe that the Sales Associate commission plans of REMAX offices are uniform, set at any specific level, or are not negotiable. You should set Sales Associate commission plans independently from any other REMAX office or another competitor and you may elect to advertise or otherwise publish those plans, in which case the advertisement or other recruitment materials shall also include the following notice, in a typeface at least one-half the size of the largest typeface used in the advertisement or other recruitment materials: "Different commission plans, fees, and tools and services may be offered by other REMAX franchisees serving this market area."

You must ensure that prospective Sales Associates fully understand your commission plans and fees charged.

8. MANAGEMENT OF THE OFFICE AND TRAINING.

A. Organization of Franchisee; Guaranty. You agree that during the Term the only business you (i.e., the Franchisee) will conduct will be the development, ownership and operation of the Office. If you are a Business Entity, you and each Owner (i) further represent and warrant that (1) Franchisee is duly organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of its organization, (2) it has the authority to execute, deliver and carry out all of the terms of this Agreement, and (3) the Ownership and Management Information form (attached hereto as Exhibit B) sets forth true and accurate information as to ownership and management of Franchisee, and (ii) agree to (1) promptly notify us of any changes to the Ownership and Management Information, which changes are subject your compliance with the transfer restrictions of Section 13, and (2) prior to executing this Agreement and thereafter upon our request, provide us with copies of your governing documents (including, without limitation, certificate of incorporation, articles of organization, by-laws, partnership and/or operating agreements, buy-sell agreements, trust documents and any other relevant documents we may request, and all amendments thereto).

Each Principal Owner, and each other Owner that holds at least a 5% ownership interest in you must execute a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, in the form attached to this Agreement, undertaking personally to be bound, jointly and severally, by all provisions of this Agreement and any ancillary agreements between you and us. (If no one Owner holds at least a 5% ownership interest in you, we may designate the Owners required to sign such a guaranty).

B. Management of Office.

(1) Manager. You (if you are an individual), or if you are a Business Entity, your Principal Owner or, if we so approve, a non-owner manager, must (a) at all times during the Term hold a valid state real estate broker license or such other state license as may be required to act as the designated or managing broker of record under whose license the Office will conduct the Authorized Services; (b) devote full-time and best efforts to the management and supervision of the day-to-day operations of the Office, including supervising, training and managing of all Sales Associates, (c) comply with applicable laws and regulations affecting real estate brokers and salespersons; (d) complete our training program; (e) be designated on Exhibit B as the Manager and (f) not be associated with any other real estate brokerage, absent express written permission from RE/MAX, LLC. If you appoint a replacement Manager, such Manager must meet all of the requirements of this Agreement (including this paragraph), and you must immediately notify us of the identity of the new Manager.

(2) Staffing. You must hire or engage a sufficient number of competent and trained employees and Sales Associates to ensure efficient service to clients. You are solely responsible for ensuring that your employees and Sales Associates receive adequate training and education. No employee of yours or Sales Associate will be deemed to be an employee of ours for any purpose whatsoever, and nothing in any aspect of the System or the Marks in any way shifts any employee or employment related responsibility from you to us.

(3) Sales Associates; Essential ICA Provisions. You agree to cause each of your Sales Associates to comply with the provisions of this Agreement and you are responsible for any of your Sales Associates' breach of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, you must develop a written form of an independent contractor agreement ("ICA") that will set forth the legal framework of your relationship with each of your Sales Associates who are independent contractors, and you must enter into the ICA with each of such Sales Associates. The ICA must include certain provisions we provide to you that are designed by RE/MAX, LLC to protect the valuable goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks (the "Essential ICA Provisions"), the current version of which is included in Exhibit C. RE/MAX, LLC may modify the Essential ICA Provisions from time to time, and you will be required to accordingly update your ICA form within 60 days of our notice and only use the updated ICA form going forward such that within 12 months of our notice, all of your independent contractor Sales Associates will be subject to an ICA that includes the updated Essential ICA Provisions. You agree to cause all of your independent contractor Sales Associates to comply with, and you agree to fully enforce, the Essential ICA Provisions. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to send communications to your Sales Associates regarding the tools, services and benefits we provide to the REMAX Network.

C. Training and Education; Conferences.

(1) Initial Training. You must comply with all of the training and/or education requirements we prescribe. You, or if you are a Business Entity, your Principal Owner and the Manager (if separate from the Principal Owner) must attend RE/MAX, LLC's initial education program (referred to as "Broker 101" program) and complete it to our satisfaction within 30 days of the Agreement Date or prior to Office opening, whichever comes first. You, your Principal Owner and/or Manager (as applicable) must also successfully complete RE/MAX, LLC's "Recruiting 101" education course during the first 12 months of Office operations. You must pay all costs and expenses, including hotel and transportation costs, you incur in attending the training and education programs. If it becomes necessary for a certain individual to repeat a training or education program, we reserve the right to charge you a fee. You also must pay all costs and expenses for any additional personnel who attend our education programs. The education and training requirements may vary depending on your experience and other factors specific to your Office. If you are given notice of default that relates, in whole or in part, to your failure to meet our operational standards, we may require that, as a condition of curing the default, you, at your expense, comply with the additional training or education requirements we prescribe. Under no circumstances may you permit management of the Office operations on a regular basis by a person who has not successfully completed to our reasonable satisfaction all applicable training or education we require.

(2) Ongoing Education and Consultation. We may make available to you, either at the Office or via video conferencing, certain consultation and guidance (including publications and other materials) relating to the REMAX System. We may charge you, and you agree to pay, our per diem rate and all travel, lodging, meals, and related expenses incurred by us for any consulting services provided to you beyond the services ordinarily provided by us to REMAX offices. The time and frequency of any such services will be subject to the availability of our personnel. We may also require you and other key employees of the Office to attend ongoing educational seminars at RE/MAX, LLC's headquarters or other locations we designate. Nominal fees or charges may also be assessed for educational and certification classes for obtaining professional credits. If you request education in addition to the initial education program identified above, we reserve the right to charge you a fee, plus you must pay your costs and expenses in connection with such education.

(3) Conferences and Meetings. You are strongly encouraged to actively participate in and attend all conferences, meetings and retreats we and/or RE/MAX, LLC organize for franchisees, and you agree to pay any associated registration fees, in addition to the travel, meals, lodging, and entertainment expenses you and any other attendee from your Office incur while participating in a REMAX conference, meeting or retreat.

(4) Any education programming or resources provided by us or RE/MAX, LLC to any of your Sales Associates are optional and will be limited to education regarding the delivery of Authorized Services to clients in a manner that reflects the standards of the System. You are, and will remain, solely responsible for your employees and Sales Associates and you are the sole employer of your employees at all times, including during all training and education programs, and you are solely responsible for all employment decisions and actions related to your employees.

9. MARKETING AND PROMOTION.

A. Your Obligation. You agree to actively promote and advertise the Office and to abide by our advertising, marketing and promotional requirements. All of your advertising, marketing and promotional activities, programs and materials must be completely factual and conform to the highest standards of ethical and truthful advertising, our System standards, and applicable laws.

B. Marketing Fund and Hot Air Balloon Fund.

(1) RE/MAX, LLC has established a marketing, advertising and promotion fund for REMAX offices (the "Marketing Fund") and it has designated its subsidiary, RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, to manage and administer the Marketing Fund. We deposit all Marketing Fees you pay to us into the Marketing Fund. In Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin, we have also established a marketing fund specifically designated for promotional activities involving the REMAX hot air balloons (the "Hot Air Balloon Fund" and collectively with the Marketing Fund, each a "Fund" and together the "Funds") and we have designated our affiliate, RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, to manage and administer the Hot Air Balloon Fund. We deposit all Hot Air Balloon Fund contributions to the Hot Air Balloon Fund.

Neither Fund is a trust or escrow account, and we have no fiduciary obligation to you or any other franchisees with respect to it. RE/MAX, LLC will have the right to make disbursements from the Marketing Fund for costs and expenses incurred in connection with formulating, developing, implementing and administering national, international, pan-regional, regional and local marketing, advertising, public relations and promotional campaigns and programs and related materials and activities, consumer surveys, and technology-related services, including development and maintenance and administrative costs. We have the right to make disbursements from the Hot Air Balloon Fund in connection with REMAX hot air balloon promotional activities in Indiana, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, including for operational and maintenance costs related to the hot air balloon assets. We and RE/MAX, LLC have the right to determine the methods of marketing and advertising, the media employed, the contents, and the terms and conditions of marketing campaigns and promotional programs. You understand that each Fund is intended to maximize public recognition of the REMAX Marks and the System and services offered by REMAX offices. Because of the methods used, neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC is required to spend a prorated amount on each REMAX office or in each advertising market and we are not obliged to ensure that any REMAX office will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Marketing Fund and/or the Hot Air Balloon Fund, as applicable, from the development of marketing and advertising materials, or the placement of advertising. Examples of possible uses of the Marketing Fund include: national, regional and local television, video, radio, billboard and other out-of-home media advertising, print, digital, social, hot air balloon and other media campaigns, as well as technology (which may include, without limitation, costs related to the development, operation, and maintenance of our website and/or REMAX office and sales associate websites; lead and customer relationship management solutions; mobile applications; and/or our marketing tools and platforms). In addition, the Marketing Fund may pay for special high-profile promotional opportunities and may contribute together with the marketing funds managed by our independent sub-franchisors to fund national and/or pan-regional creative development and media purchases. The disbursements from each Fund may include payments to RE/MAX, LLC and/or us, as applicable, for the expense of administering the Fund and developing, directing and conducting the Fund programs and activities, including accounting expenses, travel expenses and salaries and benefits paid to employees engaged in the administration and operation of the Fund or otherwise providing services with respect to the Fund, including conducting market research and preparing marketing materials, and collecting and accounting for Fund contributions and expenses.

(2) Not all franchisees contribute to the Marketing Fund on the same basis. Similarly-situated franchisees in Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin contribute to the Hot Air Balloon Fund on the same basis. All monies collected and disbursed by the Marketing Fund, including any interest, dividends or other income earned on these monies, will be accounted for separately from our and RE/MAX, LLC's other funds. All monies collected and disbursed by the Hot Air Balloon Fund, including any interest, dividends or other income earned on these monies, will be included in the Marketing Fund but will be accounted for separately from the Marketing Fund and from our and RE/MAX, LLC's other funds. It is possible that not all amounts contributed to the Marketing Fund during a fiscal year will be spent that year; amounts not spent by the end of the fiscal year will be carried over to the next fiscal year until these excess funds are spent for the marketing, promotional, and technology purposes (but excluding administrative costs) described above. Any contributions to the Hot Air Balloon Fund not spent during a fiscal year will be carried over to the next fiscal year until spent for marketing and promotional purposes (but excluding administrative costs) described above. All Marketing Fees become the non-refundable property of the Marketing Fund and all Hot Air Balloon Fees become the non-refundable property of the Hot Air Balloon Fund. Neither we, RE/MAX, LLC nor RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC assume any direct or indirect liability or obligation to you with respect to collecting amounts due to a Fund or related to the maintenance, direction or administration of a Fund, including with respect to the efficiency or effectiveness, if any, of either Fund in enhancing the Marks, the REMAX brand or System or advancing the business interests of a franchisee or franchisees in general. RE/MAX, LLC has the right, but not the obligation, to cause the Marketing Fund to be operated through another entity separate from it or RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, and any such successor entity will have all of RE/MAX, LLC's and/or RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC's rights and duties under this Subsection 9.B. We and RE/MAX, LLC may use collection agents and institute legal proceedings at each Fund's expense to collect Marketing Fees and/or Hot Air Balloon Fund contributions. We and RE/MAX, LLC also may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against either Fund.

C. REMAX Marketing Content. We may make available for your use certain marketing and promotional content, including templates, e-mail marketing materials, social media content, images and videos ("REMAX Marketing Content"). You agree to: (i) use the REMAX Marketing Content (a) in compliance with the System standards and requirements (as set forth in the Brand Identity Manual), applicable law, and, if applicable, the requirements of any applicable third-parties (including a real property database provider or another data aggregator if the REMAX Marketing Content incorporates such third-party data) and (b) only to promote and advertise the Office and the Authorized Services and not in any manner that may harm or disparage the Marks or RE/MAX, LLC, its Related Parties or their respective officers, directors, employees or owners; and (ii) upon any expiration date(s) we set for such REMAX Marketing Content, immediately delete, destroy, and otherwise stop using any products, materials or content (including any that is developed or purchased by you) that uses any portion of such expired REMAX Marketing Content. If you modify the REMAX Marketing Content in any manner, including, but not limited to, adding your business contact information or localized advertising claims regarding the Office, its market presence, market share, or other claimed achievements, you are solely liable for, and agree to indemnify us and RE/MAX, LLC, in accordance with Subsection 12.F., for any Claims that such content or its use violates any applicable laws or any third-party rights, including due to copyright infringement, unfair competition or false advertising.

D. Local Marketing Groups. We have the right to designate local advertising markets and advertising cooperatives and/or local marketing groups for such markets (collectively, each such cooperative or group, a "LMG"), and if designated, you must participate in the LMG and its programs in your designated local advertising market. If established, you must contribute to the LMG; the contribution amount will be determined by a 65% vote of the REMAX offices that are the LMG members, subject to our approval. If LMG members cannot agree on a contribution amount, we have the right to set the contribution amount, but the amount will initially not exceed $50 per Sales Associate per month. Once the LMG is established, each REMAX office in the designated local advertising market will be a member and will have one vote. We will collect all LMG contributions from franchisees and pass them onto the LMG. The LMG will have the right to enforce the members' obligation to contribute to the LMG. Each LMG will be administered by a committee comprised of representatives appointed by the members. Each member may not have more than one representative on the committee. We also have the right to have a representative on the committee. The committee will have the authority to decide how the LMG contributions will be spent; provided that all promotional and advertising materials proposed to be used by the LMG must comply with our brand standards as set forth in the Brand Identity Manual and we reserve the right to approve such materials prior to use; and provided, further, that we reserve the right to direct the use of a portion of the LMG contributions to designated promotional, marketing and advertising initiatives benefitting the LMG's market. We have the right to establish how LMGs operate and we have the right to require LMGs to be formed, changed, dissolved or merged.

10. RECORDS AND REPORTS.

A. Accounting and Records. You must compile and keep books and records that accurately reflect the operations and financial condition of the Office using record keeping and accounting systems and methods that we may periodically prescribe. You must preserve the books and records for the longer of (i) five years from creation or (ii) such period as required by law. All books and records of the Office shall be maintained at the Premises.

B. Reports.

(1) You agree to timely submit to us, via the Agent Office Portal, complete and accurate information regarding the following:

a. Within 5 days after the end of each calendar month, the name of each Sales Associate associated with the Office during the preceding month and the Sales Associate's Revenue earned and the number of real estate transaction sides closed during the preceding month. If you fail to timely provide this information, the total number of Sales Associates for purposes of calculating the Monthly Ongoing Fees and Marketing Fees for the applicable month will be deemed to be the greater of: (i) the number of Sales Associates required under the Minimum Agent Count or (ii) the average number of Sales Associates reported for such calendar month in each of the prior two years, plus 10%.

b. Immediately upon your termination of a Sales Associate, you must identify the Sales Associate as terminated in the Agent Office Portal. For avoidance of doubt, you will be required to pay all fees due under this Agreement with respect to every Sales Associate unless and until you properly report the Sales Associate as terminated.

(2) You agree to furnish to us, in the format and content we prescribe from time to time, the following reports, verified and signed by you or your financial officer:

a. Within 60 days after the end of each fiscal year during the Term, financial statements for the Franchise for the then-completed year, including a balance sheet and a profit and loss statement; and

b. Such other reports as we may require from time to time.

Subject to compliance with applicable law, we may use any information, data or other materials supplied or made available by you pursuant to this Section for any reason that we deem appropriate.

11. INSPECTIONS AND AUDITS.

A. Audit Right. For the sole purpose of verifying whether you are complying with your payment and reporting obligations under this Agreement, we or our authorized representative have the right, at any time during business hours, to enter the premises where the books and records of the Franchise are kept and inspect, audit and examine (collectively, "audit") the same, including financial statements and reports; income, sales and other tax records and reports; payroll records; Sales Associate, client and transaction databases and other business records that are necessary for purposes of conducing the audit. As part of any such audit, we also have the right to interview Office personnel and to review electronic records maintained on your Technology System. We have the right to exercise the foregoing rights with respect to any other business, including any Excluded Business, (i) in which you or your Owners have an ownership or management interest, if we reasonably believe that you have failed to comply with your reporting and/or record keeping obligations hereunder and/or the terms of any Ancillary Services Addendum; (ii) that operates at the same location as the Office; and/or (iii) that we believe may be using the REMAX Marks. You must provide reasonable cooperation, and you must ensure that everyone associated with your Office cooperates, with us and our representatives in connection with any audit conducted pursuant to this Section, and you agree that we may take photographs, videos, or other electronic recordings during an audit. The audit right hereunder shall not be construed as conferring upon us possession, custody, or control of your books, records, or data for any purpose. We will provide you with 48 hours' notice of any audit, except if we reasonably believe that an illegal or unethical conduct has taken place that adversely affects—or is likely to adversely affect—the reputation of the REMAX brand or the goodwill associated with the Marks.

If an audit reveals an understatement of any amounts owed to us, you must pay us, within 10 days after receipt of the audit report, all such amounts owed, plus interest (as provided in Subsection 5.F.) from the date originally due until the date of payment. Further, if an audit is made necessary by your failure to timely furnish reports or other information to us as required by this Agreement, or if an understatement of any amounts owed to us for any 3-month period is determined by the audit to be greater than 2%, or the audit reveals unlawful conduct or another breach of this Agreement, you must reimburse us for the cost of the audit, including the charges of any of our representatives (including independent accountants) and the travel expenses, room and board, and compensation of our employees, in addition to all other remedies and rights we may have under this Agreement and/or under applicable law.

B. Credit Report and Background Check. You authorize each applicable governmental authority regulating real estate brokerage practices to release to us all records and information it maintains for you and your Office, including the names of Sales Associates licensed with your Office, complaints filed against you or anyone associated with your Office, and information pertaining to any disciplinary actions taken against you or anyone associated with your Office. You also authorize us to obtain a credit report, criminal background check, and/or asset investigation, on you and/or your Owners at any time (including up to one year after the expiration or termination of this Agreement) and for any reason, including but not limited to, us making decisions relating to the enforcement of this Agreement. You agree to fully cooperate with us in accessing information we are authorized to obtain pursuant to this paragraph, including by providing us with such information, executing such documents and taking such other action as we may deem necessary.

12. YOUR OTHER OBLIGATIONS.

A. Confidential Information. You acknowledge that in connection with and as a result of operating your Office under this Agreement, you will have access to and become aware of Confidential Information, which, for purposes of this Agreement, together with all Intellectual Property rights therein, is owned by RE/MAX, LLC and its Related Parties. You further acknowledge that the Confidential Information was unknown to you prior to becoming a REMAX franchisee, and that the unique and proprietary combination of know-how, methods, and operational information that you become aware of as a result of operating your Office, developed by RE/MAX, LLC and licensed to you by us for the operation of the Office, are distinctive to the real estate business conducted by REMAX offices and provides a competitive advantage to REMAX offices. You may not use Confidential Information for any purpose other than operating the Office hereunder during the Term. You may not, during the Term or thereafter, communicate or divulge any Confidential Information to any person or entity except to those of your employees and Sales Associates who must have access in order to conduct the business of the Office; provided that they agree in writing to confidentiality restrictions consistent with this Subsection. In the interest of protecting the System, we may require you to obtain nondisclosure and confidentiality agreements in a form satisfactory to us from your Owners (if Franchisee is a Business Entity), your spouse, your Manager and other key employees and to provide executed copies to us upon our request.

B. Non-Competition Covenants. You acknowledge and agree that we would be unable to protect Confidential Information against unauthorized use or disclosure and would be unable to encourage a free exchange of ideas and information among REMAX franchisees and between us and REMAX franchisees if you were permitted to engage in other businesses competitive with REMAX offices or with us. Accordingly, you agree to the following noncompetition covenants and agree that the following noncompetition covenants are reasonable and necessary to protect the System's legitimate business interests and assets, including its Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, and customer goodwill:

(1) Unless otherwise specified, the term "you" as used in this Subsection 12.B. means and includes, collectively and individually, (a) if you are a Business Entity, the Business Entity, all guarantors and all Owners, as well as any spouse/domestic partner, children, parents and siblings of any guarantor and Owner, or (b) if you are an individual, the individual and the individual's spouse/domestic partner, children, parents, and siblings.

(2) You promise that during the Term, and during any Holdover Period (if applicable), you will not, either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with, any person or Business Entity, own, manage, operate, maintain, engage in, consult with or have any interest in any Competitive Business (as defined below). You agree to impose the same restriction on all of your Sales Associates (including the Manager).

(3) You promise that you will not, for a period of one year after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, or after the expiration or termination of any Holdover Period (as applicable), regardless of the cause of termination, or within one year of a Transfer of the Office or any interest in you (the "Restricted Period"), either directly or indirectly, for yourself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or Business Entity, own, manage, operate, maintain, engage in, or consult with or have any interest in, a Competitive Business that is located within a ten-mile radius of any REMAX office.

Nothing in this Subsection shall be deemed to restrict your affiliation solely as a real estate agent with a real estate brokerage business; provided, however, that, if you join a brokerage business as a real estate agent, during the Restricted Period you may not receive a revenue stream with respect to current or former Sales Associates who also join such brokerage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the post-term noncompetition covenant in this Subsection 12.B(3) does not apply if this Agreement expires without renewal after you have properly given us a notice, in accordance with Subsection 3.B., that you do not wish to renew the Franchise.

(4) For purposes of this Agreement:

"Competitive Business" means any business that (i) is a real estate brokerage business (including a virtual real estate brokerage) other than a REMAX brokerage business operated under a franchise agreement with us, a Related Party or our designated subfranchisor; (ii) is a licensor, franchisor or multi-office brokerage business that competes with RE/MAX, LLC; and (iii) offers any product or service that (a) comprises a part of our System; (b) is the same as or similar to any product or service then-offered by REMAX offices; or (c) otherwise directly or indirectly competes with the products and services offered by REMAX offices or RE/MAX, LLC.

(5) In addition, you agree that during the Term and during the Restricted Period, you will not, without our prior written consent, directly or indirectly, for yourself or on behalf of any other person, divert, or attempt to divert, any business or client of the Office or any other REMAX office away from the REMAX Network.

(6) You agree that the length of time in paragraph 12.B.(2) above will be extended for any period during which you are in breach of the non-compete covenants or any other period during which we seek to enforce this Agreement. The parties agree that each of the foregoing covenants in this Subsection 12.B. will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. To the extent you successfully contest the validity or enforceability of any part of this Subsection 12.B. in its present form predicated upon the area of coverage, this provision will not be deemed invalid or unenforceable, but will instead be deemed modified, so as to be valid and enforceable, to provide coverage for the maximum scope that any court of competent jurisdiction will deem reasonable and necessary to protect our legitimate interests.

C. Insurance. Prior to commencing the operations of the Office, you must obtain, and, at all times during the Term, maintain in force, at your sole expense, such insurance coverage that we from time to time require.

(1) Insurance Coverage. As of the Agreement Date, we require the following minimum coverage, as more specifically described in the Business Manual: (a) comprehensive general liability insurance of not less than $2,000,000 per occurrence and annual aggregate; (b) real estate errors and omissions professional liability insurance of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and annual aggregate; (c) automobile liability insurance covering owned, hired and non-owned vehicles with combined single limits of $1,000,000; (d) workers compensation insurance in amounts prescribed by law, and employer's liability with a limit of $1,000,000 each accident/disease and in aggregate; (e) cyber/network security and privacy liability insurance of not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit; (f) any insurance coverage required by the Office lease or a lender; and (g) any additional insurance coverage that may be required by law. We also recommend that you obtain and maintain media liability insurance and employment practices liability insurance. From time to time, we may change the minimum amount of coverage required and/or require different or additional types of insurance to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards or other conditions, as provided in the Business Manual, and you agree to implement such changed requirements. If you operate a commercial real estate franchise, we may require you to have additional insurance coverage for such operations as specified in the Business Manual. You may satisfy the insurance coverage limits through an umbrella policy that meets all the requirements of this Subsection 12.C.

(2) Additional Requirements. All required insurance policies must (i) commence the day the Office begins business operations; (ii) name us, RE/MAX Holdings, Inc. and RE/MAX, LLC (and other Related Parties that we may designate, as well as our and their respective officers, directors, and employees) as additional insureds; (iii) provide primary and noncontributory insurance coverage to additional insureds; (iv) contain a waiver by the insurance carrier of all subrogation rights against the additional insureds; and (iv) contain a provision that we receive 30 days' prior written notice of termination, expiration, cancellation, or modification of any such policy. You agree to obtain insurance policies from an insurance company with an A.M. Best's rating of at least an A- and an A.M. Best's financial size category of at least VIII. You must furnish to us or our designee a copy of the certificate of insurance at least 30 days prior to Office opening and thereafter annually (or at each renewal or extension) or at our or our designee's request. We may designate an insurance agency or broker that you must use, at your expense, to comply with your insurance obligations hereunder, which may be us or a Related Party. Your obligations under this Section shall not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that we or our Related Parties maintain, nor will the requirements of this Section be deemed to limit in any manner the liabilities and obligations assumed by you under this Agreement, including, without limitation, your indemnification obligations. If you fail to obtain or maintain any required insurance coverage, we may, in addition to any other rights and remedies we may have under this Agreement, obtain such insurance coverage on your behalf (although we are under no obligation to do so), and you must reimburse us, on demand, for any costs and premiums we incur.

(3) Sales Associates' and Third Parties' Coverage. You must ensure that each Sales Associate is either covered by the insurance coverage referenced in clause (a), (b) and (c) of Subsection 12.C.(1), or the Sales Associate obtains the same insurance coverage on their own behalf. In addition, all third parties that you hire to provide any services related to the Office operations shall provide evidence of general liability, automobile liability, workers' compensation and employer's liability coverage, and other coverages as we may deem necessary. Each such coverage shall be in favor of you, us and RE/MAX, LLC and shall include additional insured status, primary and non-contributory coverage, and a waiver of subrogation as provided above in this Subsection 12.C.

(4) Tails Coverage. You agree to purchase an extended reporting period endorsement (also known as "tails coverage") on your errors and omissions insurance, covering a period of three years after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, and provide us with evidence of same within 30 days of the expiration or termination. If you fail to obtain such coverage, we have the right (but not an obligation) to obtain it on your behalf, in which case you must promptly reimburse us for the cost thereof as well as related administrative expenses.

D. Compliance with Laws and Good Business Practices; Notice Obligations.

(1) You must obtain and maintain in force all required licenses, permits and certificates relating to the operation of the Office and operate the Office in full compliance with applicable laws, including, without limitation, laws relating to (i) real estate service businesses, brokers and salespersons; (ii) occupational hazards, health, workers' compensation and unemployment insurance and the Americans with Disabilities Act; (iii) the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (commonly known as RESPA); (iv) Fair Housing Laws; (v) laws that regulate data privacy and security, including the processing, protection, and security of personal information and use, storage, transmission, and disposal of data, including breach notification laws (collectively, "Privacy Laws"); and (vi) the CAN-SPAM Act, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, the Telemarketing Sales Rule, as well as other anti-solicitation laws regulating phone calls, texts, spamming, and faxing.

You agree to notify us in writing within 5 days of the receipt of any notice of violation of any law relating to the Office or its Sales Associates, or the commencement of any action, suit or proceeding, or the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award or decree of any court, agency or other governmental instrumentality, including the commencement of any audit or investigation by a regulator, relating to the Office or its Sales Associates, or the suspension or revocation of the Manager's real estate license.

(2) Highest Ethical Standards; Resolution of Client Complaints. In all dealings with clients, suppliers, us, Related Parties and the public, you must adhere to the highest standards of honesty, professionalism, integrity, fair dealing and ethical conduct. You agree to promptly respond to all complaints received from clients or other individuals, to resolve any disputes in a reasonable business manner and take such steps as may be required to ensure positive client relations. You agree to refrain, and to ensure that your Sales Associates and any other persons associated with your Office refrain, from any business or advertising practices that may be injurious to our business and the goodwill associated with the Marks and the System.

(3) Representations and Covenants Concerning Anti-Terrorism. You represent and warrant that neither you nor any Owner nor your or their property or interests are subject to being "blocked" under any Anti-Terrorism Laws (or are otherwise identified as a "Specially Designated National" or a "Blocked Person" on any lists maintained by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control or any successor governmental agency) and neither you nor any Owners are otherwise in violation of any Anti-Terrorism Laws. You and your Owners agree to comply with, and fully cooperate with us in our efforts to comply with, Anti-Terrorism Laws. You must notify us in writing immediately upon the occurrence of any event that renders the foregoing representations or covenants incorrect.

(4) Crisis Communications. In the interest of protecting the REMAX brand, the Marks and the System, RE/MAX, LLC has the absolute right, but not the obligation, to determine a response, including what steps will be taken and what communications will be made, in instances of a Crisis, and you agree to comply with and implement our directions in response to a Crisis with no liability to you or your Sales Associates as a result of our action or inaction. "Crisis" means an event or development that we determine may negatively impact the REMAX brand in such a way that it may cause substantial harm or injury to the REMAX Marks, the REMAX System, reputation, or image.

E. Payment of Debts. You agree to (i) pay promptly when due all payments, obligations, assessments and taxes due and payable to us and our Related Parties, vendors, suppliers, lessors, federal, state and local governments, and creditors in connection with your Office business; (ii) promptly discharge and remove all liens and encumbrances of every kind and character created or placed upon or against any of the property used in connection with the Office operations; and (iii) timely pay all accounts and discharge other indebtedness of every kind incurred by you in the conduct of the Office operations.

F. Independent Contractor Relationship.

(1) This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between you, on the one hand, and RE/MAX, LLC or us, on the other hand. You are an independent contractor, and nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party a general or special agent, joint venturer, partner, or employee of the other for any purpose whatsoever. All employees and Sales Associates hired or engaged by or working for you shall be your employees or agents only and shall not for any purpose be deemed employees or agents of RE/MAX, LLC or its Related Parties nor subject to RE/MAX, LLC's (or its Related Parties') control or right of control. No covenant shall be implied to vary or interpret the terms of this provision. You are not authorized to accept service of process or legal notices directed at RE/MAX, LLC or any of its Related Parties. You agree to conspicuously identify yourself and the Office, in all your dealings with clients, suppliers, public officials, Office personnel, and others, as the owner of the Office pursuant to a franchise agreement with us, and also ensure your employees and Sales Associates conspicuously identify themselves and the Office in such dealings. You shall display prominently at the Office and in your marketing and advertising materials the statement "Each Office Independently Owned and Operated" (or such other statement as we may require from time to time) in compliance with the standards set forth in the Brand Identity Manual. You may not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations that bind or obligate RE/MAX, LLC or its Related Parties, or incur any debt in the name of or on behalf of RE/MAX, LLC or its Related Parties, or represent that the relationship between us is anything other than that of franchisor and franchisee.

(2) You understand and agree that neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC has any authority to exercise control over the day-to-day conduct of your business and the Office, including but not limited to, the time and manner in which you obtain real estate listings and sell or purchase properties, the commission rates charged by the Office, the commission splits negotiated between you and your Sales Associates, the details of the work performed by you or your employees and Sales Associates, the hiring (or engagement) and termination of your employees and Sales Associates, or the compensation and benefits, tax withholdings, working hours or conditions, or the day-to-day activities of such persons. You understand and agree that (i) your employees and Sales Associates are under your sole control; and (ii) neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC is the employer or joint employer of your employees or Sales Associates. You must communicate clearly to your employees and Sales Associates in all dealings, including, without limitation, your written and electronic correspondence, paychecks, and training and other materials, that you (and only you) are the employer of your employees and that neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC is their employer or the employer of your Sales Associates. All activity within the Office will be determined by you in your own judgment, subject only to applicable laws, the terms of this Agreement, and the mandatory provisions of the Business Manual (including, without limitation, the Brand Identity Manual).

G. Waiver/Indemnification. You waive any and all Claims (as defined below) against us and RE/MAX, LLC arising in any way out of: (i) this Agreement, (ii) you or your employees or Sales Associates servicing of clients under this Agreement or any other contracts, (iii) you or your employees' or Sales Associates' actions or omissions, or (iv) the operation of your Office or your business. Except to the extent otherwise provided in Subsection 4.F., you agree, at your sole expense, to defend, fully protect, indemnify and hold harmless, us, our Related Parties, and our owners, directors, officers, members, managers, employees, attorneys, successors and assigns (collectively, "Franchisor Parties"), from any and all claims, demands, damages, assessments, violations, interest, causes of action, lawsuits, liens, and liabilities of any nature whatsoever arising in any manner, directly or indirectly, out of or in connection with or incidental to the operation of your Office or your business (regardless of cause or any concurrent, superseding or contributing fault, liability or negligence of us, our Related Parties, our owners, customers and the owners of any real property with respect to which you provide services), your, your employees' and independent contractors' actions or omissions, or your breach or failure to comply with any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement (collectively, "Claims") even if the Claims arise or are brought or filed after transfer, termination or expiration of this Agreement. You agree to cooperate with Franchisor Parties in the defense of, and not to settle or compromise, without our prior written consent, any Claims to which Franchisor Parties are a party, or which may affect their interests. You agree to waive all rights of subrogation against Franchisor Parties. We reserve the right to select our own legal counsel to represent our interests, and you agree to reimburse us for our costs and attorneys' fees immediately upon our request. Your indemnification obligations continue in full force and effect after, and notwithstanding, the transfer, expiration or termination of this Agreement.

It is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that neither we nor RE/MAX, LLC shall be deemed a joint employer with you for any reason; however, you will, at your sole expense, defend, fully protect, indemnify and hold harmless, Franchisor Parties, from any and all Claims arising in any manner, directly or indirectly, out of or in connection with or incidental to the actions or omissions of your employees or independent contractors or allegations that we or RE/MAX, LLC is the joint employer of your employees or Sales Associates.

13. TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT.

A. Transfer by RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC. We have the right to sell or assign, in whole or in part, our interest in this Agreement without prior notice to you and without your consent.

B. Transfer of Franchise. We have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon your and your Owners' character, skill, aptitude, experience, and managerial and financial qualifications as being essential to the satisfactory operation of the Office. Accordingly, neither this Agreement, the Franchise, all or a substantial portion of the assets of the Franchise or Office, nor any Interest (as defined below) belonging to you or your Owners may be voluntarily, involuntarily, directly or indirectly, sold, leased, conveyed, given away, subfranchised, sublicensed, pledged, mortgaged, assigned, transferred, encumbered or otherwise disposed of (including, without limitation, by will, inheritance, declaration of or transfer in trust, by operation of law or any other arrangement (including merger, reorganization, or as a result of death, disability, divorce, insolvency or bankruptcy) pursuant to which you turn over all or part of the daily operation of the Office to a person who shares in the losses and profits of the Office in a manner other than as an employee) (collectively, "Transferred", and any such event, a "Transfer") by you or your Owners unless (i) you have tendered to us the right of first refusal to acquire this Agreement in accordance with Subsection 13.H. and we do not exercise such right; (ii) our prior written approval is obtained; and (iii) the transfer conditions under Subsection 13.C. or Subsection 13.D., as applicable, are satisfied. Any Transfer in violation of this Section 13 will have no effect and constitute a breach of this Agreement. An "Interest" means shares of your stock or securities convertible into shares of your stock (if you are a corporation); proprietorship, partnership, membership or other ownership interest (if you are another Business Entity); or any other equitable or legal right in or to any shares of such stock or in any such proprietorship, partnership, membership or other interest.

C. Conditions for Transfer of Less-than-Controlling Interest. If you or your Owners propose to Transfer an Interest(s) that collectively represents less than 50% of the equity ownership and voting power of Franchisee, we will not unreasonably withhold our consent to such a Transfer; provided that it is to a transferee who meets our qualifications for an owner of a REMAX office; and provided that we may impose any and all of the conditions set forth in Subsection 13.D. below as we deem appropriate under the circumstances.

D. Conditions for Transfer of Controlling Interest. If you or your Owners propose to Transfer this Agreement, the Franchise, substantially all of the assets of the Franchise, or collectively a 50% or greater Interest in the Franchisee ("Controlling Interest"), we will not unreasonably withhold our consent if you meet the below conditions:

(1) you and your Owners must be in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including compliance with the Business Manual, and any other franchise or other agreements you or your Owners may have with us;

(2) you must pay all amounts owed to us, our Related Parties and your suppliers, including all outstanding amounts under any promissory note;

(3) at least 30 days prior to the date of the proposed transfer, you must submit to us all proposed transfer documents, including any purchase and sale agreement to be executed in connection with the Transfer, which documents must be acceptable to us with respect to matters relevant to the Franchise, this Agreement, and your rights and obligations hereunder. You agree that we may confer with the proposed transferee and furnish them with information concerning the Office and the proposed Transfer without being held liable to you, except for intentional misstatements made to the transferee;

(4) the transferee(s) must meet our then-current requirements for new franchisees and must submit to us such financial and other information as we may require to confirm the same; and the transferee(s) must execute a form authorizing us to obtain a consumer report and to conduct a credit and background check;

(5) the transferee(s) must complete to our satisfaction our training program;

(6) if your lease for the Premises requires it, the landlord of the Premises must have consented to the assignment of the lease to the transferee(s);

(7) you must pay us a transfer fee of $2,500 plus reimburse us for any administrative and legal expenses which we may incur in connection with evaluating the proposed Transfer;

(8) the transferee(s) must execute our then-current form of franchise agreement (including related addenda and agreements), and its owners must execute a personal guaranty. The new franchise agreement shall provide, at RE/MAX, LLC's determination, for either a term coinciding with the remainder of the Term or a term consistent with the term of franchise agreements granted by us at the time of the Transfer, and in the latter case, the transferee(s) will also pay us a renewal fee upon execution of the franchise agreement;

(9) you and your Owners must execute a general release of all claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Office and the parties' business relationship, in the form we designate, releasing us and our Related Parties;

(10) you must purchase an extended reporting period endorsement on your errors and omissions insurance covering a period of 3 years from the date of Transfer as required under Subsection 12.C.(4);

(11) the transferee(s), at its expense, must have agreed to upgrade the Office within the timeframe we specify to conform to our then-current standards and specifications for REMAX offices; and

(12) you must have complied with any other conditions that we reasonably require from time to time as part of our Transfer policies. You agree that following any Transfer hereunder, you and your Owners will continue to be subject to the noncompetition covenant under Subsection 12.B., and, as applicable, any Owner exiting the Franchise in connection with the Transfer must comply with all applicable de-identification obligations under Subsection 15.A.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to withhold our consent to a proposed Transfer to: (i) a banking or other financial institution, mutual fund company, insurance company, mortgage company or a title company; or (ii) a transferee offering products or services that directly or indirectly compete with the products or services offered by REMAX offices or us, or that are designed to bolster other business activities as opposed to focusing primarily on the REMAX real estate brokerage business, including without limitation, real estate, mortgage, title, insurance, relocation or franchising services.

E. Operational Control – Trust. If you are a trust or are owned by a trust, your guarantor(s) must, at all times, directly (i) control all aspects of the operation of the Office; and (ii) serve as trustee of the trust and retain sole control over the voting of the trust's equity interest in Franchisee. You acknowledge and agree that: (a) if the guarantor(s) do not maintain operational control of the Franchise, Franchisee and the trust, such an event will constitute a Transfer requiring you to comply with all applicable provisions of this Section 13 and (b) if the guarantor(s) desire to turn over operational control of the Franchise, Franchisee or the trust to one or more trust beneficiaries, such beneficiaries must satisfy all Transfer conditions under Subsection 13.C. or 13.D., as applicable. We reserve the right to decline to approve a Transfer to an irrevocable trust.

F. Involuntary Transfers.

(1) Death, Incompetency or Permanent Disability. Upon the death, incompetency, or permanent disability of you (or if you are a Business Entity, the Principal Owner) rendering you unable to operate the Office for the remainder of the Term, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative ("Personal Representative") of such person may sell or transfer his/her interest in this Agreement and the Franchise within a reasonable time, not to exceed 6 months from the date of death or determination of incompetency or permanent disability, to a person we have approved. Such sale or transfer, including, without limitation, transfers by a will or by inheritance, will be subject to all the Transfer conditions contained in this Section 13, including our right of first refusal. Alternatively, the Personal Representative, acting on behalf of Franchisee, may choose to close the Office and terminate this Agreement within that 6-month period; provided, that we receive a 60-day notice, all outstanding fees have been paid in full, and the parties sign a termination agreement in a form we prescribe. During that 6-month period, the Office must be under the primary supervision of a person who holds a valid state real estate broker's license and otherwise meets our Manager qualifications. Failure to appoint such a Manager or to dispose of such interest as provided in this Subsection 13.F.(1) will entitle us to terminate this Agreement. If requested by us, you or your Personal Representative shall provide us with a written opinion from your medical doctor stating that you or the Principal Owner (or Manager, as applicable) are incompetent or have a permanent disability rendering you unable to operate the Office for the remainder of the Term.

(2) Divorce Proceedings. You must promptly notify us of any divorce proceedings that may result in a Transfer and comply with the Transfer conditions described in this Section 13 (including our right of first refusal).

G. Transfer to a Business Entity. If Franchisee is one or more individuals, then within 180 days of the Agreement Date, such individual(s) shall transfer this Agreement to a Business Entity in which all of such individuals collectively own 100% of the ownership interests. Such transfer will be subject to our approval and we will not unreasonably withhold our approval; provided that each Owner of the Business Entity owning at least 5% ownership interest executes a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations in the form prescribed by us, agreeing to be bound by, and responsible for the performance of, all of the terms and conditions under this Agreement.

H. Right of First Refusal. If you propose to Transfer this Agreement or your interest herein or in the Office, in whole or in part, to a third party, as contemplated by Subsection 13.A, you first must obtain from the third-party offeror and deliver to us a statement, in writing, signed by the offeror and by you, of the binding terms of the offer. We then have 10 days from our receipt of the statement setting forth the third-party offer (and all other information requested by us) to accept the offer by delivering written notice of acceptance to you. We will have an additional 30 days to complete the purchase if we elect to exercise our right of first refusal. Our acceptance of any right of first refusal will be on the same price and terms set forth in the statement delivered to us; provided, however (and regardless of whether the following are inconsistent with the price and terms set forth in the statement) (1) we have the right to substitute equivalent cash for any noncash consideration included in the offer, (2) we will prepare the transaction documents for the Transfer, which will be on terms customary for this type of transaction (including representations and warranties, covenants, conditions, and indemnification), and (3) our purchase may be limited to any assets related to the Office. We may exercise our right of first refusal under this Subsection 13.H. through a designee.

If we fail to accept the offer within the 10-day period, you will be free for 60 days after such period to effect the disposition described in the statement delivered to us; provided such Transfer is in accordance with this Section 13, including obtaining our consent under Subsection 13.D. You may effect no other sale or assignment of you, this Agreement or the Franchise without first offering the same to us in accordance with this Subsection 13.H.

14. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION OF THE FRANCHISE.

A. Defaults; Suspension of Services. You are in default if we determine that you or any guarantor has breached any of the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our Related Parties, which without limiting the generality of the foregoing includes (i) making any false report to us; (ii) intentionally understating or underreporting or failing to pay when due any amounts required to be paid to us or any of our Related Parties; (iii) conviction of you or a guarantor of (or pleading no contest to) any misdemeanor that brings or tends to bring any of the Marks into disrepute or impairs or tends to impair your reputation or the goodwill of any of the Marks or the Business, or any felony; (iv) filing of tax or other liens that may affect this Agreement; or (v) the filing of voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy by or against you or any guarantor, insolvency, making an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any similar voluntary or involuntary arrangement for the disposition of assets for the benefit of creditors.

If you are in default hereunder, in addition to any other rights and remedies we may have hereunder and under applicable law, we may suspend, during the period of default, any or all benefits and services afforded to you and/or your Sales Associates, including, without limitation, access to software, technology and other platforms; and/or removal of your name and the names of your Sales Associates from the REMAX Roster, from being eligible for REMAX performance awards or rankings, referrals or attendance at our events.

If you are in default under this Agreement, we reserve the right to terminate your eligibility for any and all then-current and future Franchise Incentives, even if you cure the default.

B. Termination by Us. In addition to any other rights we may have under applicable law, we have the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Immediate Termination with No Opportunity to Cure. If any of the following defaults occurs, you will have no right to cure the default, and this Agreement will terminate effective immediately on our issuance of a written notice of termination:

(a) you and we, acting reasonably and in good faith, have not agreed on a location for the Office within 90 days of the Agreement Date;

(b) you fail to open the Office by the Required Opening Date;

(c) you, or if you are a Business Entity, your Principal Owner or Manager (as applicable), fails to timely and successfully complete the initial training program;

(d) you voluntarily abandon, lose the right to occupy the Office premises, or fail to actively operate the Office under the REMAX System, for a period in excess of 5 consecutive business days (other than due to force majeure) (collectively, an "Abandonment" or "Abandon");

(e) you engage or attempt to engage in an unauthorized Transfer in violation of Section 13;

(f) a voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy is filed by or against you or an Owner (unless it ceases to be in effect within 20 days of filing) or you or an Owner is declared insolvent or all or a substantial part of your or an Owner's assets are assigned for the benefit of a creditor, or you admit inability to pay debts as they become due, or a custodian or another officer with similar powers is appointed temporarily or permanently for or over you or an Owner;

(g) a final judgment against you remains unsatisfied for 30 days or a levy of execution has been made upon you or upon any property used by the Franchise and it is not discharged within 5 days;

(h) your or your Principal Owner's (or Manager's, as applicable) real estate license is suspended or revoked by a governmental or regulatory authority; or you, an Owner or anyone else associated with your Office materially violates laws or regulations applicable to real estate brokerage and related activities or are convicted of or plead no contest to a crime or offense or engage in other conduct or activity that is illegal, unethical or dishonest or that we reasonably believe adversely affects or is likely to adversely affect the reputation or image of the Office, other REMAX offices, us or RE/MAX, LLC, or the goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks or the System;

(i) you fail to comply with any law applicable to the operation of the Franchise within 10 days after notice from us or a governmental agency or such other cure period as specified by the agency;

(j) you or an Owner make a material misrepresentation or omission in your application for the rights granted by this Agreement or in other reports or information provided to us;

(k) you violate the non-competition covenant under Subsection 12.B.;

(l) you violate Subsection 12.D.(3) regarding Anti-Terrorism Law compliance;

(m) you are in default hereunder that is the third default of any type within a 12 consecutive month period even if the default(s) were cured; and

(n) you fail to comply with any other agreement between you (or your Owners) and us or a Related Party and you fail to cure the default.

(2) Termination After Opportunity to Cure. Except as provided in Subsection 14.B.(1): (i) you will have 30 days from the date of our issuance of a written notice of default to cure any default under this Agreement, other than a failure to pay amounts due or submit required reports, in which case you will have 10 days to cure those defaults; (ii) your failure to cure a default within the 30-day or 10-day period will provide us with good cause to terminate this Agreement; (iii) the termination will be accomplished by mailing or delivering to you written notice of termination that will identify the grounds for the termination; and (iv) the termination will be effective immediately upon our issuance of the written notice of termination.

(3) Effect of Other Laws. As provided in Subsection 16.J., the provisions of any valid applicable law prescribing permissible grounds, cure rights or minimum periods of notice for termination of this Franchise supersede any provision of this Agreement that is less favorable to you to the extent required by such law.

15. POST-TERM OBLIGATIONS.

Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, or the expiration or termination of any Holdover Period, as applicable, the following applies:

A. Reversion of Rights; Discontinuation of use of Intellectual Property. All of your rights to use the Marks and Intellectual Property and all other rights and licenses granted herein and the right and license to conduct business under the Marks will revert to us and RE/MAX, LLC immediately upon such expiration or termination without further act or deed of any party. All of your right, title and interest in, to and under this Agreement will become RE/MAX, LLC's property. Without limiting the foregoing, you must immediately, at your own expense:

(1) cease all use and display of, and refrain from adopting or using, the Marks and all other Intellectual Property (including any confusingly similar marks, including any marks that include "REMAX," "RE/MAX" or "MAX" or any other term that begins with the prefix "RE" or includes "MAX" or any other term, logo or design that includes the "/" element or that may create a possibility of confusion or question regarding your or your Owners' association with or sponsorship or endorsement by RE/MAX, LLC or its Related Parties), including in all meta tags, source code and website links, and not identify yourself as a current or former REMAX franchisee or otherwise a part of the REMAX Network;

(2) remove or obliterate and refrain from using all interior and exterior Office signage, displays, property signs, trade dress and all other materials in your possession that bear any of the Marks or names, trade dress or material confusingly similar to the Marks, including:

a. the red, white and blue REMAX trade dress, the REMAX property sign designs or any other trade dress or property sign designs that may be deemed confusingly similar to the REMAX trade dress or property sign designs set forth in the Brand Identity Manual, including any property sign, trade dress or identity scheme that includes lateral elements in red and blue separated by a white element or any three horizontal bar design;

b. a hot air balloon, a hot air balloon symbol or a similarly shaped symbol; and

c. and so alter the appearance of the Office Premises (including interior and exterior décor) and vehicles as to differentiate the same unmistakably from duly licensed REMAX businesses identified by the Marks.

You agree to immediately provide evidence (such as photographs) to us that demonstrates your compliance with these obligations. If you do not take the actions we request within 10 days after notice from us, you agree that we have the right to enter the Premises, if you retain possession, or to arrange entry with the owner of the Premises if you do not retain possession, and make the required changes at your expense and without liability to you or other third parties for trespass or any other claim, and you agree to reimburse us for those expenses on demand. You acknowledge and agree that by executing this Agreement, you grant us and RE/MAX, LLC a power of attorney that enables it or its designees to take, on your behalf, any and all actions required to effectuate the provisions of this Subsection 15.A.(2);

(3) cease all advertising and use of any promotional materials generated during the Term; terminate all Office listings in electronic and print format; and cease all use of the Marks on any social media or digital marketing accounts and websites that you set up or have used for the Office. You must cancel or at our request transfer to us or our designee all social media handles and usernames, and digital marketing accounts and email addresses used at any time for the Office and containing any Marks;

(4) cancel all trade, fictitious or assumed names or equivalent registrations that contain any reference to any REMAX Mark or any variation thereof; and if you did not join the REMAX Network by converting an existing real estate brokerage business to REMAX you may not continue to use any Non-REMAX Trade Name Terms;

(5) notify clients, your state real estate commission and any professional organizations to which the Office may belong that the Office is no longer in existence and, unless you have joined another REMAX office, that you are no longer part of the REMAX Network;

(6) assign to us or our designee all domain names registered by you or your Sales Associates that include the REMAX Marks (or any variation thereof) or any other service marks or trademarks of REMAX, LLC or its Related Parties, or, if we so direct, deactivate and delete from the domain name registrar's records some or all of such domain names or take such other actions regarding such domain name(s) as we may direct, as provided in Subsection 4.E.;

(7) in any form of advertising or promotion, refrain from referring to designations, certifications, awards or recognition that we or any of our Related Parties may have previously granted to you or your Owners;

(8) cease all use of, and immediately deliver to us, at your expense, all proprietary materials, including copies of the Business Manual and all other REMAX materials, forms and rosters (including REMAX Marketing Content) that we made available to you or destroy the same and certify such destruction to us; and

(9) refrain from directly or indirectly disputing the validity of the REMAX Marks or RE/MAX, LLC's ownership thereof, or challenging any application or registration owned by RE/MAX, LLC for a REMAX Mark.

You must ensure that your Sales Associates comply with the provisions of this Subsection 15.A. You must provide sufficient proof to us that you and your Sales Associates have complied with the foregoing obligations. If you fail to immediately de-identify the Office, you must pay all expenses (including attorneys' fees) we incur to de-identify the Office.

B. Payment of Amounts Owed; Lost Future Revenue. Within 5 days of the termination or expiration date (or such later date as the amount is determined), you must pay all sums due to us, our Related Parties and designees and to third parties, such debts being accelerated automatically without further notice to you.

In addition, you acknowledge and agree that a termination of this Agreement prior to the Term's expiration would cause us to be harmed and suffer damages. You further acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to calculate the actual amount of lost future revenue payable by you, and that the following represents a fair and reasonable estimate of foreseeable lost future revenue (the "Lost Future Revenue"): (i) all amounts which you would have been obligated to pay us as Monthly Ongoing Fees, Annual Dues, Marketing Fees, and, if applicable, Hot Air Balloon Fund contributions and Regional Development Fees, from the date of the termination through what would have been the end of the Term, determined based on the greater of: (a) the highest number of Sales Associates and Unreported Agents associated with your Office during any month prior to the termination; or (b) the number of Sales Associates required under this Agreement to have been associated with the Office during the period remaining in the Term; plus (ii) all Franchise Incentives that you have received at any time during the Term, whether or not previously forgiven by us. You must pay the Lost Future Revenue to us within five days of the termination. You further acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Subsection prevents us from seeking intangible damages (e.g., for loss of goodwill, brand devaluation and lost opportunities) and all other damages or remedies to which we may be entitled at law or in equity.

C. Compliance with Other Post-Term Obligations. You must also comply with, and will remain liable for, your obligations pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us or our Related Parties that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement, including, without limitation, (i) the noncompetition covenants under Subsection 12.B.; (ii) the confidentiality obligations under Subsection 12.A.; (iii) the obligation to purchase the tails coverage for your errors and omissions insurance as required under Subsection 12.C.; and (iv) the indemnification obligations under Subsection 12.G.

D. Our Right to Meet with Sales Associates. To facilitate an orderly and efficient transition and to preserve the goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks, you agree that we shall have the right to communicate with any or all of your Sales Associates to solicit and/or discuss with them their options for continued affiliation with other REMAX offices and/or opportunities to purchase a REMAX franchise, at the following times:

(1) during the 180 days prior to expiration of this Agreement if you fail to timely provide us with a renewal notice as required under Subsection 3.B. or if you inform us that you do not intend to renew the Franchise;

(2) during the 90 days prior to expiration of this Agreement if you timely elect to renew but fail to timely sign the renewal franchise agreement or pay the renewal fee as required by Subsection 3.B.;

(3) immediately after notice of default has been delivered to you (including during any period of time you may have to cure the default(s);

(4) upon our delivery to you of a notice of termination under Subsection 14.B.(1) or upon the delivery of our confirmation of termination of this Agreement under Subsection 14.B.(2)(iii);

(5) immediately after we have determined that you intend to Abandon or have Abandoned your Franchise; or

(6) at any time during a Holdover Period.

You expressly waive any claim that the contact we make with your Sales Associates pursuant to this Subsection 15.D. constitutes tortious interference with contractual or business relationships or any other similar claim.

E. De-identification Damages. In addition to any other remedies provided for herein and under applicable law, after passage of a 10-day period following the termination or expiration, you must pay us $500 for each day that you fail to comply with your post-term obligations under Subsection 15.A., which monetary amount shall be regarded as liquidated damages and not as a penalty. This remedy does not limit your or your Owners' liability for any trademark infringement, counterfeiting, unfair competition or breach of contract, nor affect or limit our right to seek or obtain injunctive relief, specific performance or other relief.

F. Claims. Except for certain claims and actions referenced in the immediately following sentence, any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the offer and sale of the franchise covered by this Agreement), the relationship between us and you or your operation of the Franchise, brought by any party to this Agreement against the other shall be commenced within one year from the occurrence of the acts or omissions giving rise to such claim or action, or such claim or action shall be barred. The foregoing one year limitation period will not apply to (i) claims or actions by us for monies due under this Agreement or for indemnification for third-party claims, (ii) claims or actions relating to the REMAX Marks, Intellectual Property or Confidential Information belonging to us and RE/MAX, LLC, or (iii) claims or actions relating to the post-termination obligations set forth in Section 14 of this Agreement.

16. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

A. Joint and Several Liability. If two or more persons are the Franchisee, Owners or guarantors, their obligations and liability to us shall be joint and several.

B. Severability. If any portion or provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard, policy or guideline we prescribe is inconsistent with, or rendered invalid or unenforceable by, any applicable law or court order, the inconsistent, invalid or unenforceable portion or provision shall be equitably adjusted so as to be valid and enforceable. If such portion or provision of this Agreement cannot be saved, it shall be stricken, and its deletion shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other portions or provisions of this Agreement or such specification, standard, policy or guideline; provided that the affected party shall be compensated for any consideration lost because of the elimination of such a provision(s). The parties' intent is that each provision of this Agreement be honored and enforced as written, and each party agrees that any provision of this Agreement sought to be enforced in any proceeding must, at the election of the party seeking enforcement and notwithstanding an adequate remedy at law, be enforced by specific performance or any other equitable remedy.

C. Waiver/Integration/Amendments/No Warranties. No waiver by us of any breach by you, nor any delay or failure by us to enforce any provision of this Agreement, may be deemed to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or be deemed a bar or an estoppel to enforce our rights with respect to that or any other or subsequent breach. Subject to our rights to modify the Business Manual and/or System standards and as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement may not be waived, altered or rescinded, in whole or in part, except by a writing signed by you and us. You must pay us a document processing fee if we agree to make any complex or extensive modifications to this Agreement or any related agreement as provided in Subsection 5.H. This Agreement together with the addenda and exhibits hereto constitutes the entire agreement between the parties concerning the Franchise and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations, and agreements. Nothing in this or in any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document we furnished to you.

D. Consents; Reasonable Business Judgment. Any modification, consent, approval, authorization or waiver granted hereunder will be valid only if in writing executed by the party granting the same. Except where this Agreement expressly obligates us to reasonably approve or not unreasonably withhold our approval of any of your actions or requests, we have the absolute right to refuse any request by you or to withhold our approval of any action or omission by you. If in connection with this Agreement we provide to you any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion, or if we neglect or delay our response or deny any request for any of those, we will not be deemed to have made any warranties or guarantees and we will not assume any liability or obligation to you.

Whenever we have reserved in this Agreement a right to take or withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant you a right to take or omit an action, except as otherwise expressly and specifically provided in this Agreement, we will satisfy our obligations if we exercise Reasonable Business Judgment in making our decision or exercising our rights. Our decisions or actions will be deemed the result of "Reasonable Business Judgment" if we make decisions or exercise rights on the basis of the information readily available to us, and our judgment of what is intended, at the time our decision is made, in whole or significant part, to promote or benefit the System generally without regard to whether other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternative decisions could have been made by us and without regard to whether our decision or the action we take promotes our financial or other individual interest. For avoidance of doubt, whenever we agree to exercise our rights reasonably or in good faith, we will satisfy our obligations if we exercise our Reasonable Business Judgment. Examples of items that will promote or benefit the System include, without limitation, enhancing the value of the REMAX Marks, improving client service and satisfaction, improving service and product quality, improving uniformity, enhancing or encouraging modernization and improving the competitive position of the System.

E. Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies specifically granted to us by this Agreement will not be deemed to prohibit us from exercising any other right or remedy provided under this Agreement or permitted by law or equity.

F. Specific Performance; Injunctive Relief. You agree that we may, without being required to post a bond or other security and without needing to present evidence of irreparable harm, and even if this Agreement has been terminated or has expired, obtain temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance (1) to enforce the provisions of this Agreement relating to your use of the REMAX Marks and your confidentiality and non-competition obligations under this Agreement; (2) to prohibit any act or omission by you or your Sales Associates or employees that constitutes a violation of applicable law, constitutes a danger to the public, or may impair the goodwill associated with the Marks, the System, or the REMAX Network; or (3) to prevent any other irreparable harm to our interests.

G. Costs and Legal Fees. If we engage legal counsel in connection with any failure by you or your Owners to comply with this Agreement, you shall reimburse us, upon demand, for the costs and expenses incurred by us as a result of such failure, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants', attorneys', expert fees, cost of investigation, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel expenses, and costs of collection including, without limitation, court costs and 33.33% collection fees, whether incurred prior to, in preparation for, in contemplation of or in connection with the filing of any judicial proceeding to enforce this Agreement (including without limitation all costs and expenses incurred by us with respect to any counterclaims brought by us in any legal proceedings initiated by you or your Owners). This provision does not limit in any way our right to seek any other costs and expenses which may be governed by applicable court rules and claimable in the context of a legal proceeding. You and your Owners shall be responsible for your own such costs and expenses. This provision shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

H. Waiver of Punitive Damages and Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT TO OR CLAIM FOR ANY AGGRAVATED, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREES THAT IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE HEREUNDER IT WILL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ANY ACTUAL COMPENSATORY DAMAGES. ALL PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN CONNECTION WITH THE ENFORCEMENT OR INTERPRETATION BY JUDICIAL PROCESS OF ANY PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND IN CONNECTION WITH ALLEGATIONS OF STATE OR FEDERAL STATUTORY VIOLATIONS, FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION OR SIMILAR CAUSES OF ACTION OR ANY LEGAL ACTION INITIATED FOR THE RECOVERY OF DAMAGES FOR BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT AND CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF THE PARTIES' RELATIONSHIP.

I. No Class or Consolidated Actions. ALL CLAIMS, CONTROVERSIES AND DISPUTES MAY ONLY BE BROUGHT BY FRANCHISEE ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS AND MAY NOT BE COMBINED OR CONSOLIDATED WITH ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY OR DISPUTE FOR OR ON BEHALF OF ANY OTHER FRANCHISEE OR BE PURSUED AS PART OF A CLASS ACTION.

J. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction; Other Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§1051 et. seq.), this Agreement and the Franchise will be governed by the internal laws of the state of Colorado (without reference to its conflict of law rules). You agree that any action arising out of or relating in any manner to this Agreement shall be instituted in, and only in, a state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the County of Denver, Colorado and you irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection you may have to either the exclusive jurisdiction or venue of such court; provided, however, with respect to action relating to the REMAX Marks or any action for injunctive or other extraordinary relief, we and RE/MAX, LLC may bring such action in any state or federal court that has jurisdiction. To the extent any applicable law or court order requires a greater advance notice of the termination or non-renewal of this Agreement than is required under this Agreement, or the taking of some other action which is not required by this Agreement, the notice and/or other action required by such law or order shall apply.

K. Your Consent to Alternative Service of Process. As an alternative to service of process under applicable law, you and your Owners hereby irrevocably consent to service of process of any summons, complaint, or other process arising from your and/or your Owner's breach of this Agreement by certified or registered mail, or overnight courier, directed to you and/or your Owners at the address identified in the Data Sheet or such other address as you subsequently provide to us. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of RE/MAX Regional or its Related Parties to serve process in any other manner permitted by applicable law.

L. Binding Effect. Subject to the terms of Section 13 hereof, this Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the administrators, executors, heirs, successors and permitted assigns of the parties. We will not, because of this Agreement or by virtue of any approvals or services provided to you, be liable to any person or legal entity who is not a party to this Agreement. You understand that you are not a third-party beneficiary of any other franchise agreement between us and other REMAX franchisees.

You acknowledge and agree that RE/MAX, LLC is a third-party beneficiary of Section 4 of this Agreement and of every other Section or Subsection of this Agreement that relates to the use of the REMAX Marks and/or the REMAX System.

M. Authorization to Communicate and Share Information; Efficient Communication. By executing this Agreement, you authorize RE/MAX Regional, its Related Parties and third-party suppliers to communicate with you, including via electronic mail, phone call, text message, or social media platforms, and at any cell phone number provided or listed, notwithstanding whether your Office or personal telephone numbers appear on a federal or state Do-Not-Call registry. You also agree that communications may be prerecorded or sent with a system capable of autodialing or sequencing phone numbers or placed with an artificial voice. Further, you agree that you are on notice that RE/MAX Regional and its Related Parties may record or transcribe telephone or text conversations with you. Moreover, you authorize us to share information related to the operation of your Franchise, including your and your Owners' Personal Information, with our Related Parties and third-party vendors.

You understand that it is critical to the efficient and successful administration of the franchise relationship that you promptly respond to all communications from us. Accordingly, unless another time frame is specified, you agree to respond within 5 business days to each communication from us that requests a response.

N. Notices and Payments. Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, any notice, demand or communication provided for herein must be in writing and signed by the party providing same and shall be deemed delivered (i) at the time delivered if delivered by hand to the recipient party or by electronic mail if sent during business hours; (ii) one business day after being placed in the hands of a commercial courier service for overnight delivery; or (iii) three business days after placement in the United States Mail by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid and addressed to the party to be notified at its most current principal business address of which the notifying party has been notified in writing. You are required to pay all fees, dues and charges required by this Agreement by electronic funds transfer, automated clearinghouse transfer, via our online billing system (also known as the REMAX Agent Office Portal) or in such other manner and to such other persons and places as we may direct.

O. Force Majeure. A party's failure of performance under this Agreement according to its terms will not be deemed a breach of this Agreement to the extent such failure was caused by events beyond the party's control and which could not be avoided by the exercise of due care ("force majeure events"), including, but not limited to terrorism, strikes (except those caused by employees or agents), war, riots, civil disorder, acts of God and acts of government except as may be specifically provided for elsewhere in this Agreement. Any delay resulting from such force majeure event will extend performance accordingly or excuse performance in whole or in part as may be reasonable. Nothing in this provision shall excuse a party from any obligations, or deprive any party of rights, which survive termination of this Agreement, including but not limited to those obligations and rights set forth in Subsections 12.B. (noncompetition) and 12.G. (indemnification). Force majeure events do not include (i) Franchisee's financial inability to perform, inability to obtain financing, inability to obtain permits or licenses or any other similar events unique to Franchisee or (ii) general economic downturn or conditions.

P. Adaptations and Variances. You acknowledge that complete and detailed uniformity under many varying conditions may not always be possible, practical, or in the best interest of the System. Accordingly, we have the right to vary the standards, specifications, and requirements for any franchised business based on conditions we deem important to the operation of such business and/or the System, as more particularly set forth in the Business Manual. We are not required to grant you a like or other variation. You acknowledge that the obligations and rights of the parties to other agreements may differ materially from your rights and obligations under this Agreement.

Q. Notice of Potential Profit. You acknowledge that we and/or our Related Parties may from time to time make a profit on our sales of goods or services to you. Further, we and/or our Related Parties may from time to time receive rebates and/or other consideration from suppliers and/or manufacturers in respect of sales of goods or services to you or in consideration of services rendered or rights licensed to such persons. You agree that we and/or our Related Parties are entitled to said rebates, profits and/or consideration and we may use same as we deem appropriate.

R. Release of Prior Claims. (11) "Listing Content" – with respect to an Office Listing, means all data and content, including without limitation, photographs, images, graphics, video recordings, virtual tours, drawings, written descriptions, remarks, narratives, and pricing information, with respect to the Office Listing that is used to market the Office Listing in a real property database to the public or to other real estate professionals.

However, if we are entering into this Agreement totally or partially based on the financial qualifications, experience, skills or managerial qualifications of any person or Business Entity that directly or indirectly owns less than a 5% interest in the franchisee, we have the right to designate that person or Business Entity as a Principal Owner for all purposes under this Agreement. In addition, if Franchisee is a partnership entity, then each person or entity who, now or hereafter is or becomes a general partner is a Principal Owner, regardless of the percentage ownership interest. If Franchisee is one or more individuals, each individual is a Principal Owner of Franchisee. Each Franchisee that is a Business Entity must have at least one Principal Owner. ESSENTIAL ICA PROVISIONS

Important Notes
Model ICA and Essential ICA Provisions

The Model ICA

RE/MAX, LLC has created a Model Independent Contractor Agreement ("Model ICA") as an optional resource and guide for REMAX franchisees (each, a "Franchisee", "you" or "Broker") to consider in their development of their form of an independent contractor agreement ("ICA") to be used by the Franchisee to establish and document its legal, business and financial relationship with each of its Sales Associates (a copy of RE/MAX, LLC's Model ICA is available at www.remax.net). (Capitalized terms used herein without a definition shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Franchise Agreement.)

The form of ICA you create (whether or not based on the Model ICA but always incorporating the Essential ICA Provisions) is the document by which you, the Franchisee, by incorporating the Essential ICA Provisions, provide to your Sales Associates permission to use the REMAX Marks under the license granted to you in the Franchise Agreement, extend your use limitations to them and establish the standards of performance and professionalism necessary to preserve and grow the goodwill embodied in the REMAX Marks, as provided in the Essential ICA Provisions. In addition to the Essential ICA Provisions, the Model ICA includes other provisions that are typical to independent contractor agreements. You are free to develop your own ICA form, as you deem appropriate, so long as such form incorporates the Essential ICA Provisions and does not include any provisions that could adversely impact, or create liability for, RE/MAX, LLC, its affiliates, or the REMAX Network.

The Essential ICA Provisions

RE/MAX, LLC has identified certain essential provisions ("Essential ICA Provisions") that are intended to preserve the reputation and goodwill associated with the REMAX brand and protect and advance the interests of the REMAX Network. Regardless of whether you adopt the Model ICA or develop your own ICA form, you are required to include these Essential ICA Provisions in every ICA you use with your Sales Associates.

The Essential ICA Provisions do not pertain to or govern the day-to-day operation, management or activity of your Office, which is entirely determined by you in your own judgment; rather, the Essential ICA Provisions are designed to help preserve and protect the high value, reputation and goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks and the REMAX System.

The Section references in the Essential ICA Provisions correlate to RE/MAX, LLC's Model ICA so that you can read and interpret the Essential ICA Provisions in the context of the Model ICA. Likewise, capitalized words appearing in the Essential ICA Provisions without a definition have the meaning assigned to them in the Model ICA. RE/MAX, LLC reserves the right to amend the Essential ICA Provisions at any time, and all such revisions will become binding upon REMAX Franchisees with respect to all ICAs entered into commencing 60 days after the date of the notice of each such revision.

Please note that the Essential ICA Provisions do not include many of the provisions from the Model ICA, including provisions necessary to establish the independent contractual relationship or the "statutory non-employee" treatment of your independent contractor Sales Associates for U.S. federal tax purposes.

Carefully Review Your Final Form of ICA and Consult with Your Legal Counsel

The Model ICA provisions are designed to help lay the foundation for your relationship with your Sales Associates as your independent contractors and for your Sales Associates to meet the pre-requisites of the "statutory non-employee" safe harbor under U.S. tax laws. Whether or not you create your own form of ICA, RE/MAX, LLC strongly recommends that you carefully review the form of ICA that you elect to use and consult with your legal counsel to (i) determine if any amendments are necessary or appropriate to satisfy the specific laws, rules or regulations or local business practices or customs applicable to you in your jurisdiction; and (ii) confirm that the final form of your ICA meets your legal, business and tax needs and includes all Essential ICA Provisions.

ESSENTIAL ICA PROVISIONS (April 2026)

2. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR.

D. No Relationship with REMAX Franchisor[5]. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that: (i) the independent contractor relationship described in this Agreement is solely between Contractor (sometimes referred to as a Sales Associate hereunder) and Broker and that no contractual relationship of any kind exists between Contractor and REMAX Franchisor; (ii) Contractor is not an employee, franchisee, partner, joint venturer or an agent of REMAX Franchisor; (iii) Contractor will look solely to Broker for performance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and (iv) REMAX Franchisor is not bound by, or subject to, the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4. CONTRACTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES.

B. Photographs, Listing Descriptions or Other Media. With respect to images, videos, real property listing descriptions and other content (collectively, "Materials") that Contractor supplies to Broker and/or REMAX Franchisor, Contractor grants to Broker, REMAX Franchisor and its affiliates a fully paid-up and royalty-free license and right to use and sublicense such Materials for any purpose Broker and/or REMAX Franchisor deems appropriate in any media now in existence or hereafter created. To the extent that the Materials feature Contractor's likeness, image, performance, voice or name (collectively, the "Likeness"), the license granted herein shall include the right to use and sublicense such Likeness. To the extent that Contractor does not own the copyright in such Materials, Contractor represents and warrants that it has permission to use such Materials and to authorize the uses contemplated by this paragraph. Contractor hereby releases and covenants not to sue Broker, REMAX Franchisor and its affiliates in connection with any use of the Materials and/or Likeness permitted by this Agreement, and further agrees to indemnify and hold Broker, REMAX Franchisor and its affiliates harmless against any third-party claims that the use of the Materials and/or Likeness infringes upon such third party's rights, including but not limited to copyrights and rights of publicity. The license and other provisions of this paragraph shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

J. Adherence to Office Policies and System Quality Standards. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that all Real Estate Service Agreements that Contractor procures or with respect to which Contractor provides services must be entered into in the name of, and executed by, Broker. Contractor must strictly observe all rules, procedures, standards, guidelines and policies (collectively "Office Policies") from time-to-time established by Broker for the operation of Broker's REMAX office (the "Office") and the conduct of its Sales Associates. Specifically, but without limitation, Contractor shall maintain the highest ethical standards in the conduct of Contractor's real estate activities and shall provide dependable, efficient, courteous, high-quality professional real estate services to clients in a manner designed to maintain goodwill among the public for the entire REMAX Network. In addition, Contractor shall abide by all mandatory elements of the REMAX System policies, guidelines and standards ("System Standards") as from time-to-time prescribed by REMAX Franchisor. Contractor acknowledges that Contractor's agreement to adhere to the Office Policies of Broker and the System Standards of REMAX Franchisor is a material consideration for the execution of this Agreement by Broker, and Contractor further acknowledges that such Office Policies and System Standards have been established for the purpose of preserving the reputation, high standards and goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks. Contractor acknowledges that such System Standards do not govern the specific manner and means by which Contractor conducts Contractor's day-to-day real estate activities as an independent contractor of Broker.

K. Compliance with Laws and Good Business Practices. Contractor shall abide by all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, including, without limitation, local, state and federal laws and regulations relating to real estate transactions and real estate service businesses; data security and protection of privacy and personal information (including but not limited to the use, storage, transmission, and disposal of data regardless of media type); and anti-solicitation laws regulating phone calls, texting, spamming, and faxing (including but not limited to the CAN-SPAM Act, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, and the Telemarketing Sales Rule). Contractor's advertising, marketing and promotion must be completely factual and conform to the highest standards of lawful, ethical advertising. In all dealings with clients, suppliers, public officials, other real estate agents and brokers and the general public, Contractor must adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity, fair dealing and ethical and professional conduct. Contractor agrees to refrain from any business or advertising or marketing practice that may expose Broker to legal action or liability or adversely affect the reputation or image of Broker, other REMAX offices, the REMAX Network, RE/MAX, LLC or its affiliates, or the goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks.

L. Loyalty. At all times during the term of this Agreement, Contractor shall act under a duty of loyalty in support and in furtherance of the REMAX franchise system and the network of REMAX real estate brokerage franchisees and their Sales Associates (the "REMAX Network") and shall maintain a proper attitude reflecting professionalism and high quality of service toward the public, Broker and other REMAX Sales Associates (whether working with Broker or other REMAX franchisees). Contractor shall not engage in any acts or activities that disrupt the operation of Broker's office or that are likely to adversely affect the image of Broker, the REMAX Network, other REMAX offices or Sales Associates, or REMAX Franchisor, or that may detract from or undermine the growth of the REMAX Network, including without limitation, any acts in furtherance of any non-REMAX real estate business (including referring clients to real estate agents outside of the REMAX Network in violation of REMAX referral program) or the establishment of, acquisition of, an investment or ownership interest in, or any other involvement with, any non-REMAX real estate business, or the recruiting of any REMAX Sales Associates for any existing or future non-REMAX real estate business that does or may compete with the REMAX Network. In addition, Contractor agrees that during the term of this Agreement, Contractor may not use, or engage in the business of providing, any real estate office or agent locator service or referral service (including any digital service) that competes with the services made available by RE/MAX, LLC to the REMAX Network as described in the Brand Identity Manual.

M. Hiring of Personal Assistants and Creating Working Relationships. Without the prior written approval of Broker, Contractor shall not (a) hire, employ, contract with or for, retain the services of, or arrange for any continuing working relationship with, any licensed or unlicensed personal assistant or any other person holding a real estate license who is not affiliated with Broker's REMAX franchise nor (b) hold or sponsor the license of any real estate broker or salesperson. If Broker approves the hiring and employment of a licensed or unlicensed personal assistant of Contractor, Contractor must maintain insurance coverage that may be required by law – in amounts prescribed by law – such as, but not limited to, workers' compensation insurance, for each such person.

P. Identification as Independent Operation. Contractor agrees to indicate in all dealings with clients, suppliers, public officials and others that Contractor is an independent contractor of Broker and that Broker's franchised REMAX Office is independently owned and operated by Broker pursuant to an agreement with REMAX Franchisor. Where appropriate or required by Office Policies or System Standards, Contractor agrees to include in all marketing materials and advertising placed by Contractor the following statement: "Each office is independently owned and operated."

Q. RE/MAX, LLC's Extranet. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that it may be required to participate in RE/MAX, LLC's extranet or such other online communication system as RE/MAX, LLC may from time to time prescribe for use by the REMAX Network. Contractor's general conduct on such extranet or other communication system and specifically its use of the Marks or any advertising on any website or social media account is subject to the provisions of this Agreement. Contractor's right to participate in the extranet or other communication system or otherwise use the Marks or System on the Internet or in other online communications, will terminate when this Agreement expires or terminates. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that it does not have any right to use the Marks on any website or any social media platform except in strict compliance with this Agreement.

R. Authorization to Communicate and Share Personal Information. Contractor authorizes REMAX Franchisor, its affiliates and approved suppliers to communicate directly with Contractor in any manner, including via electronic mail, phone call, text message, or social media platforms, and at any phone number provided or listed, notwithstanding whether any Contractor's phone number(s) appear on a federal or state Do-Not-Call registry, and agrees that such communications may be automated and/or sent with an artificial or prerecorded voice. Contractor agrees that RE/MAX, LLC and its affiliates may record or transcribe phone or text conversations with Contractor.

Contractor agrees to share, and authorizes Broker to share on Contractor's behalf, Contractor's personal information as well as the personal information of Contractor's clients (collectively, "Contractor Information") with REMAX Franchisor and its affiliates. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that REMAX Franchisor and its affiliates may use Contractor Information in any manner REMAX Franchisor and/or its affiliates deem appropriate, including sharing personal information with approved suppliers and third parties. Contractor agrees to obtain any necessary consent from clients to facilitate the sharing of personal information contemplated in this paragraph, in compliance with applicable privacy laws. As used herein, "personal information" means information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular individual. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that REMAX Franchisor is a third-party beneficiary of this paragraph.

S. Idea Submissions. If Contractor submits any unsolicited or solicited ideas, proposals, suggestions, works, or similar submissions, including any recommendations or ideas for marketing and advertising, services, products, technology, product improvements or enhancements or other content (collectively referred to as "Submissions"), Contractor agrees that: (i) the Submissions, including any related intellectual property rights, will become RE/MAX, LLC's property automatically when Contractor submits them to RE/MAX, LLC, without any compensation to Contractor; (ii) RE/MAX, LLC is not restricted in its use of the Submissions and may use them in any way it deems appropriate, including giving them to others; and (iii) RE/MAX, LLC is under no obligation to keep Submissions confidential or to attribute them to Contractor in any way.

T. Marketing Content. Contractor acknowledges that REMAX Franchisor may make available for use certain marketing and promotional content, including website templates, e-mail marketing materials, social media content and images and videos (the "REMAX Marketing Content"). Contractor agrees (i) to use the REMAX Marketing Content in a manner compliant with the System Standards (as set forth in the Brand Identity Manual), applicable law, and, if applicable, the requirements of any applicable third-parties (including MLS provider or another data aggregator if the REMAX Marketing Content incorporates such third-party data); (ii) to use the REMAX Marketing Content only on Broker's behalf and under Broker's supervision to promote and advertise the Office and its services and not in any manner that may harm, or disparage Broker or RE/MAX, LLC, its affiliates or the REMAX brand; and (iii) upon an expiration date that applies to particular REMAX Marketing Content, to immediately delete, destroy, and otherwise stop using any products, materials or content (including any that Contractor has created or purchased), that uses any portion of such expired REMAX Marketing Content. If Contractor modifies the REMAX Marketing Content in any manner, including, but not limited to, adding Contractor's business contact information or localized advertising claims regarding the Office, individual or Office performance, market presence, market share, or other claimed achievements, Contractor is solely liable for (a) any claims that such content or its usage violates applicable laws or regulations or third-party rights, including due to copyright infringement, unfair competition or false advertising, and (b) any and all costs incurred by REMAX Franchisor or Broker arising from any such claims, including court costs and attorney's fees.

8. REMAX MARKS.

A. Ownership of REMAX Marks. Contractor acknowledges that RE/MAX, LLC is the exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in and to RE/MAX, LLC's registered and unregistered marks, which include, without limitation, the name "REMAX" and certain other service marks, trademarks, trade dress and other commercial symbols, including the Balloon Design, the red, white and blue trade dress, and such other service marks, trademarks, trade dress and symbols as RE/MAX, LLC may develop, acquire, or license for the REMAX Network to use from time-to-time (collectively, the "REMAX Marks"). Contractor further acknowledges that the REMAX Marks are widely known throughout the United States and are famous.

B. Permitted Uses of REMAX Marks on Behalf of Broker. Contractor acknowledges that Broker has the right to use the REMAX Marks pursuant to, and solely in accordance with, Broker's REMAX Franchise Agreement. Contractor understands and agrees that Contractor is not being granted a license, and has no independent right, to use of any of the REMAX Marks, but rather that, by virtue of the limited trademark license granted to Broker under its REMAX Franchise Agreement, Contractor may use the REMAX Marks solely and exclusively on Broker's behalf and under Broker's supervision when acting in Contractor's capacity as a real estate Sales Associate for Broker. Contractor further understands that all use by Contractor of the REMAX Marks on behalf of Broker inures exclusively to the benefit of RE/MAX, LLC. Contractor agrees to use the REMAX Marks only in connection with Broker's Office name and contact information and in accordance with all other requirements set forth in the most current edition of RE/MAX, LLC's brand identity manual, the "REMAX Brand Identity: Trademark and Graphic Standards", or its successor, and any supplemental brand standards from time to time issued by RE/MAX, LLC, which are designed to protect the REMAX Marks, the goodwill they reflect, and the reputation of the REMAX Network, and which may be amended from time to time by RE/MAX, LLC (collectively, the "Brand Identity Manual").

C. Prohibited Uses of REMAX Marks and Broker's Name. Contractor is not authorized to and shall refrain from using Broker's name, the Office name or the REMAX Marks (or any variation thereof) in connection with any business or activity other than the real estate brokerage business of Broker. Without limiting the foregoing, Contractor agrees that it has no right to use Broker's name, the Office name or the REMAX Marks (or any variation thereof): (i) in conjunction with the name or likeness of any licensed real estate professional who is not a Sales Associate of Broker; (ii) in the name of any "team" of real estate agents; (iii) in conjunction with any third-party service that competes with a service offered by or on behalf of REMAX Franchisor or by offices operating as part of the REMAX Network (including the Office); (iv) in any telephone directory or other directory listing, including without limitation, yellow pages display advertising or any Internet directory listing, that does not comply with the Brand Identity Manual; (v) on or in connection with any Internet website that functions for any purpose other than the promotion of the real estate business of Broker or that does not include the Office name and contact information of Broker; (vi) in connection with the offering of real estate related services in market areas that Contractor does not serve personally and directly; (vii) in connection with any real estate related services that do not meet the high standards of quality and professionalism associated with the REMAX brand; or (viii) in any other manner not approved by Broker or that is not in compliance with, or is prohibited by, the Brand Identity Manual. Contractor further agrees not to use any REMAX Mark with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols, or to alter any REMAX Mark (such as creating variants of the REMAX mark using the "RE", "MAX" and/or "/").

D. No Uses by or in Support of Third Party's Services or Programs. Contractor is not authorized to and shall refrain from entering into any relationship with, or sponsorship or endorsement arrangement concerning, any third-party individual or entity where such relationship results in, involves, or purports to permit, the use or display by such third party of Broker's name, or any of the REMAX Marks, or any other name that is associated with Broker's Office or the REMAX Network, in connection with the offering or promotion of such third party's products, services, programs, beliefs or causes.

E. Registration and Use of REMAX Formative Domain Names Prohibited. Contractor may not register or own, sell or offer to sell any Internet domain name that includes the term "remax" or any of the other REMAX Marks ("REMAX Formative Domain Name"). Contractor agrees and acknowledges that Contractor does not have any legitimate interest in registering, owning or selling any REMAX Formative Domain Name or owning or selling any REMAX Formative Domain Name after the termination of this Agreement, and that it would be an act of bad faith to register, own, sell or offer to sell any REMAX Formative Domain Name or to retain ownership of any REMAX Formative Domain Name after termination of this Agreement.

F. No Other Uses of Broker's Name or REMAX Marks Permitted. Except as expressly permitted under this Section 8, Contractor may not use Broker's name, the Office name or the REMAX Marks in any manner whatsoever. Without limiting the foregoing, Contractor has no right to authorize another person to use Broker's name, the Office name or the REMAX Marks or to otherwise benefit from the goodwill associated with the REMAX Marks.

G. Third-Party Beneficiary. Contractor acknowledges and agrees that REMAX, LLC, as the owner of the REMAX Marks, is a third-party beneficiary of this Section 8 and, accordingly, Franchisor may bring an action directly to enforce the provisions of this Section 8.

H. Indemnification for Costs of Forced Compliance. Contractor agrees to indemnify Broker and REMAX Franchisor for all costs incurred, including court costs, expert witness fees and reasonable attorneys' fees, by Broker and/or REMAX Franchisor to secure full compliance with the provisions of this Section 8.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

A. Reporting of Problems and Complaints. Contractor shall promptly report to Broker or Broker's broker of record, office manager or other person designated by Broker, all problems, complaints, disputes and controversies arising out of Contractor's conduct and activities.

11. TERMINATION.

A. By Broker for Cause. If Contractor breaches any provision of Section 8 (REMAX Marks), Broker may terminate this Agreement immediately and without prior notice and pursue any and all remedies for the breach that are available to Broker at law or in equity; if Contractor breaches any other provision of this Agreement and fails to cure the same within 10 days of receiving notice from Broker of the breach, Broker may terminate this Agreement immediately and pursue any and all remedies for the breach that are available to Broker at law or in equity.

12. DE-IDENTIFICATION.

Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement without Renewal, unless Contractor has affiliated with another REMAX office, Contractor shall be free to continue Contractor's real estate business with competing real estate operations or to establish Contractor's own brokerage operation or other business alone or in concert with others. However, Contractor acknowledges the exclusive rights of RE/MAX, LLC to its real estate system, including its method of operation and its distinguishing characteristics, including but not limited to the REMAX Marks, slogans, advertising and marketing materials, copyrighted materials, confidential information and other distinguishing characteristics now or hereafter adopted, displayed, used, and comprising a part of the REMAX System, and RE/MAX, LLC's compelling business interest in protecting the exclusive right of the authorized members of the REMAX Network to use the same pursuant to a license from RE/MAX, LLC or its designated subfranchisor.

A. Proprietary Materials. Contractor acknowledges that the sales plans, programs, manuals, systems, methods, procedures, rosters, forms, brochures and other training, educational, listing and sales materials made available hereunder by, and the information gained from, Broker or REMAX Franchisor, irrespective of the origin or ultimate source (collectively, the "Proprietary Materials"), are and shall remain solely and exclusively the property of their source, be it Broker, Franchisor or Regional. Upon termination or expiration (without Renewal) of this Agreement, Contractor shall promptly return to Broker all copies of the Proprietary Materials in Contractor's possession and shall not, after such termination or expiration, use, copy, or reproduce any aspect of the Proprietary Materials for any reason, or permit, suffer or tolerate the use of the Proprietary Materials for Contractor's own advantage or the advantage of others.

B. REMAX Marks and Related Identifiers. Following termination or expiration (without Renewal) of this Agreement, Contractor will:

(1) immediately and clearly distinguish Contractor's business from a REMAX business and the REMAX System so as to avoid any possibility of confusion to the public (including by refraining from using the red, white and blue trade dress, the REMAX property sign designs, or any other trade dress or property sign designs that may be deemed confusingly similar to the REMAX trade dress or property sign designs set forth in the Brand Identity Manual, including any property sign, trade dress or identity scheme that includes lateral elements in red and blue separated by a white element, or any three horizontal bar design; or any hot air balloon, hot air balloon symbol, or similarly shaped symbol), and not directly or indirectly at any time identify or hold Contractor out as being or as having been associated with Broker, REMAX Franchisor or the REMAX Network;

(2) immediately cease all use of the REMAX Marks (including any confusingly similar marks, any marks that include "RE/MAX," "REMAX" or "MAX" or any other term that begins with the prefix "RE" or includes "MAX" and/or the "/", or that may create a possibility of confusion or question regarding Contractor's association with or sponsorship or endorsement by Broker or REMAX Franchisor), and, including by removing or obliterating the REMAX Marks from Contractor's letterhead, stationery, printed materials, advertising, web sites and web pages (including without limitation, from all digital and visual content, hyperlinks, source code, meta tags, and third-party directory listings), software applications, social media sites and other materials as well as all words and designations indicating that Contractor is or was associated with Broker, REMAX Franchisor or the REMAX Network;

(3) unless Contractor has affiliated with another REMAX office, immediately notify Contractor's state real estate commission, any professional organizations that Contractor belongs to, and Contractor's clients that Contractor is no longer associated with the REMAX Network;

(4) immediately assign to Broker, or upon their request, REMAX Franchisor or its designee, all domain names owned, held or controlled by Contractor that include any REMAX Marks (or any variation thereof), or take such actions regarding such domain name(s) as REMAX Franchisor may direct. In connection therewith, Contractor agrees, at Contractor's own expense, promptly to execute and deliver all necessary documents and take any action reasonably requested by Broker or REMAX Franchisor necessary to affect the assignment of all such domain names, including compliance with any procedure for the transfer of domains names established by the domain name registrar;

(5) immediately take any action that may be required to cancel, or at REMAX Franchisor's request, transfer to them or their designee, all pseudonyms, logins, and identifiers (including but not limited to vanity license plates, user names, instant messaging and social media screen names, handles, and user names, and e-mail addresses) that contain any reference to any REMAX Marks or any variations thereof;

(6) in any form of advertising or promotion, refrain from referring to designations, certifications, awards or recognition that REMAX Franchisor or any of their affiliates may have previously granted to Contractor;

(7) immediately cease use of all REMAX Marketing Content;

(8) refrain from directly or indirectly disputing the validity of the REMAX Marks or RE/MAX, LLC's ownership thereof, or challenging any application or registration owned by RE/MAX, LLC for a REMAX Mark; and

(9) promptly assign to Broker, or upon their request to REMAX Franchisor, all of the telephone numbers promoted in connection with Contractor's use of the REMAX Marks and immediately instruct the telephone company in writing to redirect all calls to such numbers in accordance with Broker's or REMAX Franchisors' direction. Contractor hereby directs each such telephone company or directory listing provider to accept Contractor's signature on this Agreement as Contractor's signed authorization and direction to them to assign numbers and re-direct calls as described above, and to discontinue as soon as practicable any and all on-line or printed phone directory advertising or listings that refer to Contractor in connection with the REMAX Marks.

Contractor hereby appoints Broker and REMAX Franchisor as Contractor's agent and attorney-in-fact to act for and on Contractor's behalf to take any of the actions involving third parties referred to in this Subsection with the same legal force and effect as if taken by Contractor.

C. Subsequent Affiliation with Another REMAX Franchisee. The prohibitions and requirements upon termination or expiration of this Agreement as set forth in Subsections 12.A. and 12.B. shall not affect the rights and privileges which may be conferred upon Contractor by any contract establishing Contractor's affiliation with another REMAX franchisee subsequent to such termination or expiration.

D. Enforcement; Injunctive Relief; Attorneys' Fees. Contractor hereby acknowledges and agrees that (i) it would be difficult to measure the economic loss that would occur as a result of Contractor's breach of any of the provisions of this Section 12; (ii) such a breach would cause immediate and irreparable harm for which there would be no adequate remedy at law; and (iii) any of the foregoing provisions may be enforced by injunction and/or restraining order. Further, Contractor acknowledges and agrees that RE/MAX, LLC, as the owner of the REMAX Marks, shall have a direct right to enforce any of the provisions contained in this Section 12 through appropriate legal proceedings. Contractor agrees that Broker may transfer to REMAX Franchisor the right to pursue, in Broker's or REMAX Franchisors' name, any claim (including without limitation a breach of contract claim) against Contractor for breach of any term or condition contained in this Section 12 and Contractor further agrees not to contest any such transfer in any legal proceeding. If Broker and/or REMAX Franchisor is required to retain an attorney to enforce any of the provisions of this Section 12 or to institute legal proceedings incident to such enforcement, Contractor shall pay, in addition to all other sums for which Contractor may be found liable, reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and litigation expenses incurred by Broker and/or REMAX Franchisor.

E. Third-Party Beneficiary. Franchisor shall be deemed a third-party beneficiary of the provisions of this Section 12, including, without limitation, for purposes of protection of the REMAX System, the Proprietary Materials, and the REMAX Marks; and, accordingly, Franchisor may bring an action directly to enforce the provisions of this Section 12. The obligations of Contractor under the provisions of this Section 12 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

Exhibit E
To Franchise Agreement

ANCILLARY SERVICES ADDENDUM

This ANCILLARY SERVICES ADDENDUM (the "Addendum") is entered into by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, a _____ ("RE/MAX Regional"), and _____, _____ ("Franchisee") as of _____ (the "Effective Date").

RECITALS

A. RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee have contemporaneously herewith entered into a Franchise Agreement (the "Franchise Agreement") for the operation by Franchisee of a REMAX real estate brokerage office franchise (the "Franchised Business"). (Capitalized terms used herein without a definition shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Franchise Agreement).

B. Franchisee or its affiliate (as applicable) currently operates an Existing Business (as defined below) which offers Ancillary Services (as defined below) that are related to but distinguishable from the services provided by the Franchised Business under the Franchise Agreement.

C. RE/MAX Regional has agreed that, subject to Franchisee's and, if applicable, its affiliate's continuing compliance with the conditions set forth in this Addendum, the continued operation of the Ancillary Services by the Existing Business shall not be deemed to be a violation of Subsection 12.B. of the Franchise Agreement (Noncompetition Covenants), and the revenue attributable to such Ancillary Services shall not be included as "Revenue" under the Franchise Agreement.

AGREEMENT

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Identification of Existing Business. The name of the Existing Business authorized pursuant to this Addendum is: _____, a _____ located at _____ ("Existing Business"), and the Ancillary Services performed by the Existing Business are: _____ _____ ("Ancillary Services").

2. Authorization of Ancillary Services Offered by the Existing Business. Anything in the Franchise Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the continued offer of the Ancillary Services by the Existing Business shall not be deemed to be a violation of Subsection 12.B. of the Franchise Agreement (Noncompetition Covenants) and the revenue from such Ancillary Services shall not be deemed to be "Revenue" under the Franchise Agreement; provided, that the conditions set forth in clauses 2(a)-(d) below are satisfied as of the Effective Date and throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement (including any extensions or renewals thereof):

(a) the operation of the Existing Business does not interfere with Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, and the Existing Business operates in compliance with applicable laws and from a location separate from the Franchised Business' Premises;

(b) the Existing Business does not utilize Franchisor's Marks, other Intellectual Property, the System or Confidential Information;

(c) the Existing Business offers only the Ancillary Services identified herein and does not offer the services offered by the Franchised Business or services that otherwise compete with the Franchised Business; and

(d) the Franchised Business and the Existing Business maintain separate books and records, and the operations of the Franchised Business and the Existing Business are otherwise properly segregated, including by each operating under a separate legal entity and each maintaining adequate and separate insurance coverage.

For avoidance of doubt, if at any time the operation of the Existing Business gives rise to Authorized Services activities, Franchisee agrees that those activities will be conducted through the Franchised Business.

3. Effect of Failure to Comply with Conditions. If Franchisee or its affiliate (as applicable) at any time fails to satisfy any of the conditions set forth in Section 2 of this Addendum, then the continued operation of the Existing Business shall be deemed to be a violation of Subsection 12.B of the Franchise Agreement (Noncompetition Covenants). In that event RE/MAX Regional may terminate the Franchise Agreement immediately if Franchisee fails (or fails to cause its affiliate) to cure the breach within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed ten (10) calendar days following written notice from RE/MAX Regional (provided, however, that a breach of clause 2(b) hereof shall not be subject to a cure opportunity). Upon any termination of the Franchise Agreement pursuant to this provision, RE/MAX Regional shall be entitled to any and all legal and equitable remedies available under the Franchise Agreement and applicable law, including, without limitation, the collection, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, of an amount equal to the Broker Fee provided in the Franchise Agreement with respect to all revenue of the Existing Business for all periods during which the breach is continuing or, if such period cannot be ascertained with certainty, during all periods during which this Addendum has been in effect. This provision shall survive any transfer, expiration, termination or nonrenewal of the Franchise Agreement or the Franchised Business.

4. Inspections; Audits. If RE/MAX Regional reasonably believes that Franchisee has failed to comply with the provisions of this Addendum, Franchisee shall make and if applicable shall cause its affiliate to make the books and records (including all electronic records, tax returns and personal tax returns) for the Existing Business available to RE/MAX Regional for inspection and audit upon reasonable prior notice, so that RE/MAX Regional may verify Franchisee's compliance with the requirements of this Addendum, including the requirements in subparagraph 2(d) above. In such event, the provisions of Subsection 11.A. of the Franchise Agreement regarding audits shall apply in all respects to the Existing Business and RE/MAX Regional shall have the same rights to access (including remotely) and audit the books and records of the Existing Business, and to require payment for the audit if the audit reveals that Franchisee did not comply with the requirements of this Addendum, in addition to any other remedies available to RE/MAX Regional hereunder or under the law.

5. Franchisee's Representations and Warranties. Franchisee hereby represents and warrants to RE/MAX Regional that it has all necessary power and authority to execute this Addendum, to bind the Existing Business to the terms hereof and to perform and comply with all of its obligations hereunder. There is no agreement or understanding (and Franchisee will not permit any such agreement or understanding to be entered into during the term of this Addendum) with respect to the Existing Business that would conflict with the terms of this Addendum.

6. Construction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Franchise Agreement, in the event of a conflict between the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and the provisions of this Addendum, the provisions of this Addendum shall control. Except as specifically provided in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains fully effective in all respects in accordance with its terms, and all the respective rights and obligations of Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional remain as written unless modified specifically herein.

7. No Restriction on In-Term and Post-Term Covenants. Except as specifically stated in this Addendum, nothing in the Franchise Agreement or this Addendum or in the terms used herein shall be construed in any way to limit or restrict the application of the provisions of Subsection 12.B. of the Franchise Agreement as it relates to the Existing Business or any other business Franchisee or any of its affiliates may engage in.

The parties have executed this Addendum as of the Effective Date.

RECITALS:

A. Effective as of the _____ day of _____, 20__, Transferor entered into a Franchise Agreement (as amended to date, the “Existing Franchise Agreement”) with RE/MAX Regional, whereby Transferor was granted the right and the obligation to establish and operate a REMAX real estate brokerage office using the REMAX system and the REMAX trademarks at the following location: _____ (the “Franchised Business”). Transferor Owner(s) is/are the sole owner(s) of Transferor and the guarantor(s) of Transferor’s obligations under the Existing Franchise Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein without a definition shall have the meaning set forth in the Existing Franchise Agreement.

B. Transferor desires to transfer to Transferee, and Transferee desires to accept and assume from Transferor, all of Transferor’s right, title and interest in the Franchised Business, and Transferor has requested that RE/MAX Regional consent to the transfer pursuant to Section [12] of the Existing Franchise Agreement.

C. Each Transferor Party represents that there is no dispute related to the offer and sale of the franchise rights granted under the Existing Franchise Agreement or the Franchised Business and further represents that neither Transferor Party has any claims against RE/MAX Regional or its Related Parties under the Existing Franchise Agreement or applicable laws.

D. In consideration of Transferor’s request for the transfer hereunder and the representations set forth in Recital C above, RE/MAX Regional is willing to consent to the transfer as of the Effective Date, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including the release of claims granted hereunder.

AGREEMENT:

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the parties, the parties agree as follows:

1. Transfer. As of the Effective Date, subject to the terms of this Agreement, Transferor transfers and assigns, and Transferee unconditionally accepts and assumes, all of Transferor’s right, title, and interest in and to the Franchised Business, and Transferee agrees to be bound by all obligations, responsibilities, and duties of Transferor related thereto, including all of Transferor’s obligations to clients (the “Transfer”).

2. Conditions to RE/MAX Regional’s Consent to Transfer. RE/MAX Regional hereby consents to the Transfer; provided, that all of the following conditions are met as of the Effective Date:

A. Transferor and Transferor Owner are in compliance with the terms of the Existing Franchise Agreement, and all amounts due and owing to RE/MAX Regional, any of its Related

Parties, or any suppliers or upon which RE/MAX Regional or its Related Parties may have a contingent liability, as of the Effective Date, have been satisfied in full;

B. Transferor has provided to RE/MAX Regional all proposed transfer documents, including a landlord consent to the Transfer (if applicable);

C. Transferee has executed a form authorizing RE/MAX Regional to obtain a consumer report and credit and background check;

D. The transfer fee, in the amount of $[2,500], has been paid in full, and, if applicable, you have reimbursed us for our expenses incurred in connection with the Transfer;

E. Transferee has executed RE/MAX Regional's then-current form of Franchise Agreement, together with the Ownership and Management Information form and such other related documents as RE/MAX Regional requires, designating Transferee as the new franchisee (collectively, the "New Franchise Agreement"). Transferee acknowledges that the terms and conditions of the New Franchise Agreement may differ from the terms and conditions of the Existing Franchise Agreement;

F. If Transferee is a business entity, Transferee Owner has executed RE/MAX Regional's then-current form of Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations;

G. Transferor has purchased a tails coverage policy for errors and omissions insurance as required under the Existing Franchise Agreement;

H. Transferee or Transferee Owner, as applicable, has completed or will timely complete all of RE/MAX Regional's training requirements as provided in the New Franchise Agreement; and

I. If requested by us, Transferee has agreed to timely complete upgrades for the Office to conform to our then-current specifications for REMAX offices.

RE/MAX Regional's consent to the Transfer will not result in a waiver of any rights nor a release under the Existing Franchise Agreement or the New Franchise Agreement and is not a consent to any additional or subsequent transfers.

3. Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgments.

A. Transferor represents and warrants to RE/MAX Regional and Transferee that Transferor owns all right, title and interest in and to the Franchised Business and the Existing Franchise Agreement, free and clear of any mortgage, lien or claims, and Transferor has not assigned any or all of its interest in the Franchised Business or the Existing Franchise Agreement to any third party.

B. Transferor and Transferee acknowledge and agree that, except for the preparation and execution of this Agreement, RE/MAX Regional has not participated in the underlying purchase and sale transaction between them and understand that RE/MAX Regional has no knowledge of, and does not attest to, the accuracy of any representations or warranties made by or between Transferor and Transferee in connection with the Existing Franchise Agreement, the Franchised Business, or the Transfer. Transferor and Transferee represent and warrant that (i) they have the authority to execute and perform this Agreement and (ii) they have consummated the purchase and sale transaction that is related to the Transfer contemplated hereunder as of the Effective Date. Transferee understands that it is acquiring the right to operate the REMAX franchise formerly operated by Transferor. Transferee acknowledges that it has had a full opportunity to review the books and records of the Franchised Business. Transferor and Transferee each represent and warrant that the client escrow accounts used in connection with the Franchised Business are, as of the Effective Date, fully funded, and they agree that Transferor and Transferee are responsible and liable and agree to indemnify RE/MAX Regional and its Related Parties, jointly and severally, for any shortfall in the escrow accounts and for any losses sustained by any person as a result of a shortfall in the escrow accounts.

4. Termination of Existing Franchise Agreement. This Agreement terminates the Existing Franchise Agreement, and as of the Effective Date, neither Transferor nor, if it is a business entity, any Transferor Owner, shall have any further rights or interest in or under the Existing Franchise Agreement, and, except as provided in Paragraph 5 below, neither Transferor nor any Transferor Owner shall have any further obligations under the Existing Franchise Agreement.

5. Post-Termination Obligations. Notwithstanding Paragraph 4 above, Transferor and, if it is a business entity, Transferor Owners, agree that certain obligations under the Existing Franchise Agreement by their nature survive its termination and will continue in full force and effect. Specifically, Transferor and, if it is a business entity, Transferor Owners, agree to fully comply with all post-termination obligations under the Existing Franchise Agreement, including the indemnification obligations of Subsection [5.D.] of the Existing Franchise Agreement (but only with respect to claims where the underlying events giving rise to the claim occurred prior to the Effective Date), and Subsections [5.E., 14.B., 14.C., 14.H., and 14.I.] of the Existing Franchise Agreement relating to maintaining confidentiality, complying with the post-termination de-identification procedures, providing contact information, and paying liquidated damages in the event of a breach. If RE/MAX Regional engages legal counsel in connection with the enforcement of any of the provisions of this Paragraph 5, Transferor agrees to reimburse RE/MAX Regional upon demand, for the costs and expenses incurred by RE/MAX Regional, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, collections fees, costs of investigation and court costs.

6. Release. Transferor and, if Transferor is a business entity, Transferor Owners, unconditionally jointly and severally release and forever discharge RE/MAX Regional, its Related Parties and its and their respective present and former shareholders, members, officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, representatives, and successors and assigns (collectively, the "RE/MAX Parties") from and against any and all claims, disputes, demands, damages, losses or liabilities of any kind or nature which Transferor and, if it is a business entity, Transferor Owner(s), ever had, now have or in the future may have against the RE/MAX Parties arising out of or in any way relating to this Agreement, the Existing Franchise Agreement, the Franchised Business, or the relationships created thereby through the Effective Date, whether known or unknown, vested or contingent, including, without limitation, any alleged violations of any deceptive or unfair trade practices laws, franchise laws, or other laws and any alleged violations of the Existing Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between Transferor and/or Transferor Owner, on the one hand, and RE/MAX Regional and/or its Related Parties, on the other hand, through and including the Effective Date. Transferor and Transferor Owners intend for this release to be a full and unconditional general release, extending to all claims of any nature, whether expected or not anticipated to exist, and it is Transferor's and Transferor Owner's intention to fully release any and all matters, regardless of possibility of later discovered claims or facts. Transferor and Transferor Owners acknowledge that they have had adequate opportunity to gather all information necessary to enter into this Agreement and release and need no further information of any kind that would otherwise influence their decision to enter into this Agreement and release.

A. Transferor, and if Transferor is a business entity, Transferor Owners, each for itself, its heirs, owners, officers, directors, affiliates, successors and assigns, agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify and hold harmless RE/MAX Parties, and each of them, against any and all liabilities, damages, actions, claims, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), or expenses of any nature (collectively, "Liabilities") resulting, directly or indirectly, from any of the following: (i) any misrepresentations or breach by any Transferor Party under this Agreement; (ii) the Transfer; or (iii) any claim, suit or proceeding initiated by or for a third party(s), now or in the future, that arises out of or relates to the Existing Franchise Agreement or the Franchise operated by Transferor prior to and on the Effective Date.

B. Transferee, and if Transferee is a business entity, Transferee Owners, each for itself, its heirs, owners, officers, directors, affiliates, successors and assigns, agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify and hold harmless RE/MAX Parties, and each of them, against any and all Liabilities resulting, directly or indirectly, from any of the following: (i) any misrepresentations or breach by any Transferee Party under this Agreement; or (ii) the Transfer.

8. Confidentiality. Each Transferor Party and each Transferee Party acknowledges and agrees that (a) this Agreement and the matters discussed in relation thereto are entirely confidential, and (b) they will not reveal, publish or in any way communicate any of the terms or existence of this Agreement to any person or entity, except to their respective officers, employees or professional representatives who are subject to confidentiality obligations, or to the extent required by law.

9. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted, construed and enforced in all respects in accordance with the laws of the state of Colorado, without regard to its conflicts of laws principles. The parties agree that any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be instituted in a state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the county of Denver, Colorado, and hereby submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection to either the exclusive jurisdiction or venue of such courts.

10. Representation by Counsel. The parties have had adequate opportunity to consult with an attorney of their respective choice, including with respect to the release of claims set forth herein.

11. Miscellaneous. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto. This Agreement, together with the documents referenced herein, constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. No amendment or waiver will be binding unless in writing and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought. The provisions of this Agreement are severable, and if any of them are held void and unenforceable as a matter of law, the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. All representations, warranties, agreements and other provisions of this Agreement that by their terms or by reasonable implication are intended to survive the closing of the Transfer transaction will survive it.

COMMERCIAL OFFICE ADDENDUM

COMMERCIAL OFFICE ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS ADDENDUM is entered into as of the ___ day of _____, 20__ (the "Effective Date") by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (referred to as "we," "us," or "RE/MAX Regional") and _____ (referred to as "you" or "Franchisee").

A. RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee are parties to a Franchise Agreement, dated as of the Effective Date (the "Franchise Agreement"), pursuant to which Franchisee was granted the right and the obligation to operate a REMAX office under the REMAX Marks and the System.

B. Franchisee wishes to operate the Franchise as a REMAX Commercial Office (as defined below) under an approved REMAX Commercial trade name, and RE/MAX Regional is willing to consent to the same, subject to the terms of this Addendum.

Now, therefore, for good and valuable consideration, the parties agree as follows:

1. Subsection 2.E. of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended by adding the following language at the end of the Subsection:

> "Notwithstanding the foregoing, you agree to provide Authorized Services only with respect to Commercial Real Estate (and your Office may be therefore referred to herein as a "REMAX Commercial Office"), except that you may provide Authorized Services with respect to Residential Real Estate that is owned personally by you or others affiliated with your Office or by your or their immediate family members ("Residential Services Exception"). As used herein, "Commercial Real Estate" means any real property other than Residential Real Estate; and "Residential Real Estate" means any real property on which there is located, or intended to be located, a building structure designed for human habitation and containing not more than four dwelling units. If you, at any time, fail to operate the Office as a REMAX Commercial Office (subject to the Residential Services Exception), we will have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement effective upon delivery of notice of termination to you."

2. You agree to refer all Residential Real Estate transactions (other than those included in the Residential Services Exception) to a REMAX office authorized to provide services with respect to Residential Real Estate, pursuant to our referral program described in Section 2.F of the Franchise Agreement. Nothing in this Addendum shall be construed to prohibit you from receiving referral fees on any Residential Real Estate transactions so referred.

3. You acknowledge and agree that you are not granted any exclusive or protected right to engage in Authorized Services with respect to Commercial Real Estate and that any REMAX office that presently exists or that may in the future be established may have Sales Associates that provide Authorized Services with respect to Commercial Real Estate, may have "a REMAX commercial division" that we approve to provide Authorized Services with respect to Commercial Real Estate, or may also operate as a REMAX Commercial® office.

4. Subject to the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, including without limitation Section 4 thereof, so long as you have the right to operate the Office as a REMAX Commercial Office, you may use the Mark "REMAX Commercial®" in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Brand Identity Manual.

5. This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Addendum as of the Effective Date.

TEAM FRANCHISE ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS TEAM FRANCHISE ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the "Addendum") is entered into as of __ day of _____, 20____ (the "Effective Date"), by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (referred to as "we," "us," or "RE/MAX Regional") and _____ _____ (referred to as "you" or "Franchisee").

A. Simultaneously herewith, RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee are entering into a franchise agreement dated as of the Effective Date (the "Franchise Agreement"), pursuant to which RE/MAX Regional grants to Franchisee the right to operate a single REMAX real estate brokerage office at the following location: _____ (the "Office").

B. Franchisee wishes for the Franchise grant under the Franchise Agreement to be a Team Franchise, and Franchisor is willing to grant a Team Franchise to Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Team Name; Team and Office Requirements.

Franchisee agrees as follows:

A. The Team operating out of the Office will be known as: _____ ("Team Name" or the "Team"), and you may use the Team Name as the authorized trade name for the Office subject to compliance with the Brand Identity Manual.

B. Prior to opening the Office, Franchisee must designate a Team leader for the Office ("Team Leader"), i.e., a licensed real estate professional who will close real estate transactions (as part of Authorized Services) and earn commissions by utilizing the services of one or more other licensed real estate professional(s) (each licensed real estate professional who closes transactions and earns commission by assisting the Team with Authorized Services is referred to as a "Team Member"). The Team Leader must be the Manager; provided that if the Team Leader does not hold a valid state real estate broker license (or such other state license as may be required to act as the designated or managing broker of record for the Office), you must engage the services of an individual with a valid state real estate broker license to function as the designated or managing broker of record for the Office under whose license the Office will conduct the Authorized Services.

C. Only one Team may operate out of or utilize the resources of the Office, and only Sales Associates who are on the Team may operate out of or utilize the resource of the Office. Although the Team Leader may recruit members to the Team, Sales Associates not on the Team may not operate out of the Office in any capacity.

D. Notwithstanding Section 6 of the Franchise Agreement, the Office will not be subject to any Minimum Agent Count requirements but must have at least two Sales Associates (a Team Leader and another Team Member) at all times registered with the Office.

E. All advertising, marketing and promotional materials and activities of the Office must conform to our requirements for Team Offices as provided in the Brand Identity Manual.

2. Monthly Ongoing Team Office Fee.

In addition to the Monthly Ongoing Fees owed under the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee also agrees to pay us a monthly ongoing Team Office fee (the "Monthly Ongoing Team Office Fee") in the amount specified in the Data Sheet to the Franchise Agreement. The Monthly Ongoing Team Office Fee will be due at the same time as the other Monthly Ongoing Fees. We may increase the Monthly Ongoing Team Office Fee once in each calendar year during the Term; provided, such increase will not exceed 20% of the fee in effect at the time of the increase.

3. Renewal/Transfer/Default/Termination.

If you wish to renew the Franchise as provided in the Franchise Agreement, you will be required to sign our then-current form of a Team Franchise Addendum upon signing of the renewal franchise agreement. If there is a Transfer under the Franchise Agreement, the transferee will be required to sign our then-current form of a Team Franchise Addendum in addition to a then-current form of a franchise agreement.

Any default under this Addendum is a default under the Franchise Agreement. This Addendum automatically terminates upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement. If you are a party to another REMAX franchise agreement with us, and the Team operating out of the Office terminates its affiliation with the Office, you may terminate the Franchise Agreement and this Addendum upon 60 days' prior written notice without an obligation to pay us any Lost Future Revenue.

4. Construction.

This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

REMAX ASCEND PLAN ADDENDA

REMAX ASCEND PLAN ADDENDUM

REMAX ASCEND PLAN
ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S)

THIS ASCEND PLAN ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S) ("Addendum") is entered into, effective as of the date of the last signature appearing below (the "Effective Date"), by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (referred to as "we," "us," or "RE/MAX Regional") and the undersigned Franchisee ("Franchisee" or "you"), and it amends each of the Franchise Agreement(s) between Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional listed on the attached Schedule A (each and collectively, "Franchise Agreement").

A. Simultaneously herewith, Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional are entering into the Franchise Agreement.

B. The Franchise Agreement requires Franchisee to pay certain ongoing monthly fees to RE/MAX Regional, which fees include continuing franchise fees, including a per-agent flat fee and a percentage of the Revenue generated from closed real estate transactions handled by each of Franchisee's Sales Associates, and a per-agent monthly marketing fee (collectively, the "Current Plan").

C. RE/MAX Regional is offering a voluntary revised fee model pilot (the "Ascend Plan") that replaces the Current Plan.

D. RE/MAX Regional has offered Franchisee the opportunity, and Franchisee has elected, to adopt the Ascend Plan for Franchisee's Office(s) in accordance with one of two Ascend Plan enrollment options set forth in this Addendum, and accordingly the parties wish to amend certain terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement to implement the Ascend Plan as provided in this Addendum.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee hereby agree as follows:

1. Ascend Plan "All Ascend" Enrollment Option.

By initialing below, Franchisee elects to enroll in the Ascend Plan via the All Ascend Option.

_____ [Franchisee Initials to Elect the Ascend Plan All Ascend Option]

By electing the Ascend Plan "All Ascend" enrollment option ("All Ascend Option"), Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, subject to the one exception set out in this paragraph, the Ascend Plan will apply (i) to all Sales Associates affiliated with all of Franchisee's Office(s) as of the Effective Date; (ii) to all Sales Associates who join Franchisee's Office(s) after the Effective Date; and (iii) if Franchisee owns and operates more than one Franchise, to all of the Sales Associates in all of Franchisee's Offices. Franchisee acknowledges that under the All Ascend Option the only exception to the required enrollment in the Ascend Plan are individual Sales Associates enrolled in RE/MAX Regional's "Aspire Program", as of or after the Effective Date (who will become enrolled in the Ascend Plan after they complete the Aspire Program).

2. Ascend Plan "Hybrid" Enrollment Option.

By initialing below, Franchisee elects to enroll in the Ascend Plan via the Hybrid Option.

_____ [Franchisee Initials to Elect the Ascend Plan Hybrid Option]

By electing Ascend Plan "Hybrid" enrollment option ("Hybrid Option"), Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, subject to the limited exceptions set forth below ("Hybrid Program Exceptions"), with respect to all (and not less than all) Sales Associates affiliated with all of Franchisee's Office(s) as of the Effective Date (the "Existing Sales Associates"), if any, Franchisee may elect either the Current Plan or the Ascend Plan, as follows:

_____ Ascend Plan [Franchisee Initials to Elect the Ascend Plan for Existing Sales Associates]

_____ Current Plan [Franchisee Initials to Elect the Current Plan for Existing Sales Associates]

With respect to Sales Associates that join Franchisee's Office(s) after the Effective Date:

- If a Sales Associate has not been affiliated with the REMAX system in the 90 days immediately prior to joining Franchisee's Office (a "Qualified Associate"), Franchisee may elect to have the Qualified Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

- If a Sales Associate was affiliated with another REMAX office in the 90 days immediately prior to joining Franchisee's Office, such Sales Associate will join the Office's Current Plan; provided that all Sales Associates on the same Team must be subject to the same fee structure (i.e., either the Current Plan or the Ascend Plan).

- For avoidance of doubt:

    - For Sales Associates enrolled as of the Effective Date in the Aspire Program, upon completion of the Aspire Program Franchisee may elect to have the Sales Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

    - Licensed Assistants who affiliate with Franchisee's Office after the Effective Date will not be considered Qualified Associates for the purpose of the Ascend Plan.

    - For Qualified Associates who enroll in the Aspire Program after the Effective Date, upon completion of the Aspire Program Franchisee may elect to have the Qualified Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

    - As a Hybrid Program Exception, if an individual Sales Associate affiliated with an Office as of the Effective Date is on the Current Plan and recruits a minimum of 2 Qualified Associates after the Effective Date to form a Team, at the time of these 2 or more Qualified Associates' affiliation Franchisee may elect to enroll the individual Sales Associate (as Team leader) and the Qualified Associates (as Team members) in the Ascend Plan as a Team.

    - As a Hybrid Program Exception, if a Team leader of a Team affiliated with an Office as of the Effective Date is on the Current Plan and recruits a minimum of 2 Qualified Associates after the Effective Date to join that Team, at the time of these 2 or more Qualified Associates' affiliation Franchisee may elect to enroll the entire Team in the Ascend Plan.

3. Ascend Plan Monthly Fees.

With respect to each Sales Associate enrolled in the Ascend Plan, whether through the All Ascend Option or the Hybrid Option (each, an "Ascend SA"), notwithstanding the provisions of, and in lieu of the fees set forth in, Subsections 5.B and 5.D of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee agrees to pay to RE/MAX Regional, for the duration of the Term of the Franchise Agreement, the following Ascend Plan monthly fees (collectively, the "Ascend Fee Plan"):

(1) Ascend Fixed Fee.

The first component of the Ascend Fee Plan is the "Ascend Fixed Fee." Under the Ascend Fixed Fee, in lieu of the per-Sales Associate CFF and Marketing Fee due under the Franchise Agreement, you agree to pay us the monthly Ascend Fixed Fee for the state in which your Office is located as set forth in the attached Schedule B, for each Ascend SA in your Office during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect monthly fixed fees from your Sales Associates. The Ascend Fixed Fee is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term. We will have the right to increase the amount of the Ascend Fixed Fee once in any calendar year provided such increase will not exceed 10% of the Ascend Fixed Fee amount in effect at the time of any such increase. As of the Effective Date, we anticipate that this fee may increase by at least $2.50 on July 1, 2027, and by at least $2.50 on the 1st day of July in each subsequent year of the Term. You understand that your failure to collect the Ascend Fixed Fee from some or all Ascend SAs does not relieve you of your obligation to remit the required amount to us in a timely manner. We recommend but do not require that you, in turn, charge each of your Ascend SAs a monthly fixed fee. RE/MAX Regional will allocate a minimum of 35% of the Ascend Fixed Fee to the Marketing Fund.

(2) Ascend Fee Plan Continuing Franchise Fee.

The second component of the Ascend Fee Plan is the Ascend Plan Component Two Continuing Franchise Fee ("Ascend Broker Fee"), which may be referred to simply as "Broker Fee" on billing statements or invoices you receive.

Individual Ascend SA Cap:

Subject to the Individual Ascend SA Cap described below, for each Ascend SA who is an individual Sales Associate not belonging to a Team ("Individual Ascend SA"), in lieu of the Broker Fee due under the Franchise Agreement you agree to pay us as an Ascend Broker Fee in an amount equal to 5% of Revenue generated from the Authorized Services handled by the Individual Ascend SA during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect corresponding fees from your Sales Associates. This Ascend Broker Fee is subject to an annual cap of $3,000 per Individual Ascend SA ("Individual Ascend SA Cap"), with the initial annual period beginning on the first day of the month in which an Individual Ascend SA is enrolled in the Ascend Plan and ending on the 12-month anniversary of such date, and each subsequent annual period being a 12 consecutive month period thereafter (each such 12-month period, an "Individual Annual Period"). Once you have paid the Individual Ascend SA Cap on behalf of an Individual Ascend SA during an Individual Annual Period, you will not be required to pay an Ascend Broker Fee with respect to that Individual Ascend SA for the remainder of that Individual Ascend SA's Individual Annual Period. Each Individual Ascend SA's Individual Ascend SA Cap will reset on the first day of their respective next Individual Annual Period.

Ascend Plan Team Cap:

Subject to the Ascend Team Cap described below, for each Team leader and Team member (each, a "Team Ascend SA") of a Team enrolled in the Ascend Plan (each, an "Ascend Plan Team"), in lieu of the Broker Fee due under the Franchise Agreement you agree to pay us as an Ascend Broker Fee in an amount equal to 5% of Revenue generated from Authorized Services handled by each Team Ascend SA during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect corresponding fees from your Sales Associates. This Ascend Broker Fee is subject to an annual Ascend Team Cap described below, with the initial annual period beginning on the first day of the month in which the Team leader is enrolled in the Ascend Plan and ending on the 12-month anniversary of such date, and each subsequent annual period being a 12 consecutive month period thereafter (each such 12-month period, a "Team Annual Period"). Once you have paid the applicable Ascend Team Cap with respect to an Ascend Plan Team during a Team Annual Period, you will not be required to pay an Ascend Broker Fee on behalf of that Ascend Plan Team for the remainder of that Ascend Plan Team's Team Annual Period. The Ascend Team Cap will reset on the first day of the next Team Annual Period and will be calculated based on the number of Team members who are then part of the Ascend Plan Team. RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC will allocate a minimum of 20% of the Ascend Broker Fee to the Marketing Fund.

The Team Annual Period cap applicable to an Ascend Plan Team ("Ascend Team Cap") is a pooled cap calculated as follows: $3,000 for the Team leader, plus $2,000 for each of the second through fifth Team members (the Team leader being counted as the first Team member), plus $1,000 for the sixth Team member and for each Team member thereafter. If a Team member is added or removed during a Team Annual Period, the Ascend Team Cap will be pro-rated. Licensed Assistants affiliated with an Ascend Plan Team are not counted as Team members for the purpose of calculating the Ascend Team Cap.

The Ascend Broker Fee for all Ascend SAs is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term.

We recommend that you retain a percentage of the Revenue generated from Authorized Services handled by your Ascend SAs to cover the cost of the Ascend Broker Fee.

(3) Ascend Plan Transaction Fee.

Franchisee also agrees to pay a fee of $25 per closed transaction side handled by each Ascend SA during the previous calendar month ("Ascend Transaction Fee"). The Ascend Transaction Fee is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term. For clarification, if an Ascend SA (including an Ascend Plan Team's Team leader or Team member) has no transactions in any given month, no Ascend Transaction Fee will be due on behalf of that Ascend SA. RE/MAX Regional will have the right to increase the amount of the Ascend Transaction Fee once in any calendar year, provided such an increase will not exceed 20% of the Ascend Transaction Fee in effect at the time of any such increase.

4. No Other Fees Modified or Waived.

Except as expressly provided in this Addendum, there are no other fee modifications under the Franchise Agreement, and all fees are payable as set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

5. Reporting.

As part of its monthly reporting obligations under the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee agrees to continuously keep the REMAX Agent Office Portal current and to identify and accurately report the Revenue earned and the number of transaction sides closed by each Sales Associate, including each Team leader and Team member. A failure to report each Sales Associate's transactions and Revenue earned, in a timely manner and in accordance with this paragraph, will be deemed a material default of an essential provision of the Franchise Agreement.

6. Modification of Ascend Plan.

At any time, RE/MAX Regional may modify any part or all of the Ascend Plan, including but not limited to modifying the Ascend Fee Plan, which changes will become automatically effective upon 60 days' written notice to Franchisee for all new Sales Associates that join Franchisee's Office after the date of modification, without the need for a written amendment to this Addendum. For avoidance of doubt, RE/MAX Regional may modify the Ascend Plan with respect to Sales Associates that are then enrolled in the Ascend Plan only as provided in Section 3.

7. Pilot Program Termination; Addendum Termination; Franchise Renewal under Ascend Plan.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Ascend Plan is a pilot program, and that as such, it may be discontinued by RE/MAX Regional at any time. If the Ascend Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will retain the benefit of the Ascend Fee Plan through the remainder of the Term with respect to all Ascend SAs enrolled in the Ascend Plan as of the date the Ascend Plan is discontinued. If the Ascend Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will no longer be able to add new Sales Associates to the Ascend Plan. As to any Franchise Agreement, this Addendum automatically terminates upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement. If your franchise relationship is renewed while the Ascend Plan is in effect, the renewal franchise agreement will include RE/MAX Regional's then-current form of Ascend Plan Addendum, which addendum shall supersede this Addendum and may have terms materially different from the terms of this Addendum.

8. Offices Opened by Franchisee after Effective Date of Addendum.

If during the Term Franchisee purchases or acquires a new REMAX franchise, provided the ownership structure of the new franchise is identical to that of Franchisee's existing Franchise, RE/MAX Regional will amend Schedule A to add the new franchise to this Addendum and the new franchise will be required to participate in the Ascend Plan enrollment option selected by Franchisee at the time of Ascend Plan enrollment.

9. Construction.

This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties; provided that RE/MAX Regional may modify, discontinue or terminate the Ascend Plan as provided in Sections 6 and 7. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

REMAX ASCEND PLAN ADDENDUM

REMAX ASCEND PLAN
ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S)

THIS ASCEND PLAN ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S) ("Addendum") is entered into, effective as of the date of the last signature appearing below (the "Effective Date"), by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (referred to as "we," "us," or "RE/MAX Regional") and the undersigned Franchisee ("Franchisee" or "you"), and it amends each of the Franchise Agreement(s) between Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional listed on the attached Schedule A (each and collectively, "Franchise Agreement").

A. Simultaneously herewith, Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional are entering into the Franchise Agreement.

B. The Franchise Agreement requires Franchisee to pay certain ongoing monthly fees to RE/MAX Regional, which fees include continuing franchise fees, including a per-agent flat fee and a percentage of the Revenue generated from closed real estate transactions handled by each of Franchisee's Sales Associates, and a per-agent monthly marketing fee (collectively, a "Current Plan").

C. Where available, Franchisee may have enrolled in RE/MAX Regional's "Pivot Plan" pursuant to which, as an alternative Current Plan, Franchisee pays RE/MAX Regional, with respect to qualifying Sales Associates and/or Teams, modified ongoing monthly fees.

D. RE/MAX Regional is offering a voluntary revised fee model pilot (the "Ascend Plan") that replaces the Current Plan.

E. RE/MAX Regional has offered Franchisee the opportunity, and Franchisee has elected, to adopt the Ascend Plan for Franchisee's Office(s) in accordance with one of two Ascend Plan enrollment options set forth in this Addendum, and accordingly the parties wish to amend certain terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement to implement the Ascend Plan as provided in this Addendum.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee hereby agree as follows:

10. Ascend Plan "All Ascend" Enrollment Option.

By electing the Ascend Plan "All Ascend" enrollment option ("All Ascend Option"), Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, subject to the limited exceptions set out in this paragraph, the Ascend Plan will apply (i) to all Sales Associates affiliated with all of Franchisee's Office(s) as of the Effective Date; (ii) to all Sales Associates who join Franchisee's Office(s) after the Effective Date; and (iii) if Franchisee owns and operates more than one Franchise, to all of Franchisee's Offices. Franchisee acknowledges that under the All Ascend Option the only exceptions to the required enrollment in the Ascend Plan are Sales Associates: (a) who are individual Sales Associates enrolled in RE/MAX Regional's "Aspire Program", as of or after the Effective Date (who will become enrolled in the Ascend Plan after they complete the Aspire Program); and (b) who as of the Effective Date are enrolled in the REMAX Gold Plan, who continue to meet the eligibility criteria to remain in the REMAX Gold Plan and elect to remain in the REMAX Gold Plan (collectively, "All Ascend Program Exceptions"). Under the All Ascend Option, so long as a Sales Associate falls under one of the All Ascend Program Exceptions, that Sales Associate will continue to be subject to their applicable Current Plan. As of the Effective Date, all fee modification programs applicable to Franchisee that are not identified in any of the All Ascend Program Exceptions (each, a "Discontinued Program") will terminate, and all Sales Associates under the Discontinued Programs will be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

By initialing below, Franchisee elects to enroll in the Ascend Plan via the All Ascend Option.

11. Ascend Plan "Hybrid" Enrollment Option.

By electing Ascend Plan "Hybrid" enrollment option ("Hybrid Option"), Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that subject to the limited exceptions set forth below ("Hybrid Program Exceptions"), all Sales Associates affiliated with all of Franchisee's Office(s) as of the Effective Date will continue to be subject to their respective Current Plan.

With respect to Sales Associates that join Franchisee's Office(s) after the Effective Date:

- If a Sales Associate has not been affiliated with the REMAX system in the 90 days immediately prior to joining Franchisee's Office (a "Qualified Associate"), Franchisee may elect to have the Qualified Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

- If a Sales Associate was affiliated with another REMAX office in the 90 days immediately prior to joining Franchisee's Office, such Sales Associate will join the Office's Current Plan; provided that all Sales Associates on the same Team must be subject to the same fee structure (i.e., either the Current Plan or the Ascend Plan).

- For avoidance of doubt:

    - For Sales Associates enrolled as of the Effective Date in the Aspire Program Franchisee may elect to have the Sales Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

    - Licensed Assistants who affiliate with Franchisee's Office after the Effective Date will not be considered Qualified Associates for the purpose of the Ascend Plan.

    - For Qualified Associates who enroll in the Aspire Program after the Effective Date, upon completion of the Aspire Program Franchisee may elect to have the Qualified Associate be subject to the Current Plan or be enrolled in the Ascend Plan.

    - Franchisee will not be able to enroll in the Pivot Plan after December 31, 2025.

    - As a Hybrid Program Exception, if an individual Sales Associate affiliated with an Office as of the Effective Date (and therefore on the Office's Current Plan) recruits a minimum of 2 Qualified Associates after the Effective Date to form a Team, at the time of these 2 or more Qualified Associates' affiliation Franchisee may elect to enroll the individual Sales Associate (as Team leader) and the Qualified Associates (as Team members) in the Ascend Plan as a Team.

    - As a Hybrid Program Exception, if a Team leader of a Team affiliated with an Office as of the Effective Date (and therefore on the Office's Current Plan) recruits a minimum of 2 Qualified Associates after the Effective Date to join that Team, at the time of these 2 or more Qualified Associates' affiliation Franchisee may elect to enroll the entire Team in the Ascend Plan.

By initialing below, Franchisee elects to enroll in the Ascend Plan via the Hybrid Option.

12. Ascend Plan Monthly Fees.

With respect to each Sales Associate enrolled in the Ascend Plan, whether through the All Ascend Option or the Hybrid Option (each, an "Ascend SA"), notwithstanding the provisions of, and in lieu of the fees set forth in, Subsections 5.B and 5.D of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee agrees to pay to RE/MAX Regional, for the duration of the Term of the Franchise Agreement, the following Ascend Plan monthly fees (collectively, the "Ascend Fee Plan"):

(4) Ascend Fixed Fee.

The first component of the Ascend Fee Plan is the "Ascend Fixed Fee." Under the Ascend Fixed Fee, in lieu of the per-Sales Associate CFF and Marketing Fee due under the Franchise Agreement, you agree to pay us the monthly Ascend Fixed Fee for the state in which your Office is located as set forth in the attached Schedule B, for each Ascend SA in your Office during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect monthly fixed fees from your Sales Associates. The Ascend Fixed Fee is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term. We will have the right to increase the amount of the Ascend Fixed Fee once in any calendar year provided such increase will not exceed 10% of the Ascend Fixed Fee amount in effect at the time of any such increase. As of the Effective Date, we anticipate that this fee may increase by at least $2.50 on July 1, 2027, and by at least $2.50 on the 1st day of July in each subsequent year of the Term. You understand that your failure to collect the Ascend Fixed Fee from some or all Ascend SAs does not relieve you of your obligation to remit the required amount to us in a timely manner. We recommend but do not require that you, in turn, charge each of your Ascend SAs a monthly fixed fee. RE/MAX Regional will allocate a minimum of 35% of the Ascend Fixed Fee to the Marketing Fund.

(5) Ascend Fee Plan Continuing Franchise Fee.

The second component of the Ascend Fee Plan is the Ascend Plan Component Two Continuing Franchise Fee ("Ascend Broker Fee"), which may be referred to simply as "Broker Fee" on billing statements or invoices you receive.

Individual Ascend SA Cap:

Subject to the Individual Ascend SA Cap described below, for each Ascend SA who is an individual Sales Associate not belonging to a Team ("Individual Ascend SA"), in lieu of the Broker Fee due under the Franchise Agreement you agree to pay us as an Ascend Broker Fee in an amount equal to 5% of Revenue generated from the Authorized Services handled by the Individual Ascend SA during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect corresponding fees from your Sales Associates. This Ascend Broker Fee is subject to an annual cap of $3,000 per Individual Ascend SA ("Individual Ascend SA Cap"), with the initial annual period beginning on the first day of the month in which an Individual Ascend SA is enrolled in the Ascend Plan and ending on the 12-month anniversary of such date, and each subsequent annual period being a 12 consecutive month period thereafter (each such 12-month period, an "Individual Annual Period"). Once you have paid the Individual Ascend SA Cap on behalf of an Individual Ascend SA during an Individual Annual Period, you will not be required to pay an Ascend Broker Fee with respect to that Individual Ascend SA for the remainder of that Individual Ascend SA's Individual Annual Period. Each Individual Ascend SA's Individual Ascend SA Cap will reset on the first day of their respective next Individual Annual Period.

Ascend Plan Team Cap:

Subject to the Ascend Team Cap described below, for each Team leader and Team member (each, a "Team Ascend SA") of a Team enrolled in the Ascend Plan (each, an "Ascend Plan Team"), in lieu of the Broker Fee due under the Franchise Agreement you agree to pay us as an Ascend Broker Fee in an amount equal to 5% of Revenue generated from Authorized Services handled by each Team Ascend SA during the previous calendar month, whether or not you actually collect corresponding fees from your Sales Associates. This Ascend Broker Fee is subject to an annual Ascend Team Cap described below, with the initial annual period beginning on the first day of the month in which the Team leader is enrolled in the Ascend Plan and ending on the 12-month anniversary of such date, and each subsequent annual period being a 12 consecutive month period thereafter (each such 12-month period, a "Team Annual Period"). Once you have paid the applicable Ascend Team Cap with respect to an Ascend Plan Team during a Team Annual Period, you will not be required to pay an Ascend Broker Fee on behalf of that Ascend Plan Team for the remainder of that Ascend Plan Team's Team Annual Period. The Ascend Team Cap will reset on the first day of the next Team Annual Period and will be calculated based on the number of Team members who are then part of the Ascend Plan Team. RE/MAX Regional will allocate a minimum of 20% of the Ascend Broker Fee to the Marketing Fund.

The Team Annual Period cap applicable to an Ascend Plan Team ("Ascend Team Cap") is a pooled cap calculated as follows: $3,000 for the Team leader, plus $2,000 for each of the second through fifth Team members (the Team leader being counted as the first Team member), plus $1,000 for the sixth Team member and for each Team member thereafter. If a Team member is added or removed during a Team Annual Period, the Ascend Team Cap will be pro-rated. Licensed Assistants affiliated with an Ascend Plan Team are not counted as Team members for the purpose of calculating the Ascend Team Cap.

The Ascend Broker Fee for all Ascend SAs is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term.

We recommend that you retain a percentage of the Revenue generated from Authorized Services handled by your Ascend SAs to cover the cost of the Ascend Broker Fee.

(6) Ascend Plan Transaction Fee.

Franchisee also agrees to pay a fee of $25 per closed transaction side handled by each Ascend SA during the previous calendar month ("Ascend Transaction Fee"). The Ascend Transaction Fee is due and will be considered late if not received by us by the 10th day of the month after the Effective Date and by the 10th day of each month throughout the remainder of the Term. For clarification, if an Ascend SA (including an Ascend Plan Team's Team leader or Team member) has no transactions in any given month, no Ascend Transaction Fee will be due on behalf of that Ascend SA. RE/MAX Regional will have the right to increase the amount of the Ascend Transaction Fee once in any calendar year, provided such an increase will not exceed 20% of the Ascend Transaction Fee in effect at the time of any such increase.

13. No Other Fees Modified or Waived.

Except as expressly provided in this Addendum, there are no other fee modifications under the Franchise Agreement, and all fees are payable as set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

14. Reporting.

As part of its monthly reporting obligations under the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee agrees to continuously keep the REMAX Agent Office Portal current and to identify and accurately report the Revenue earned and the number of transaction sides closed by each Sales Associate, including each Team leader and Team member. A failure to report each Sales Associate's transactions and Revenue earned, in a timely manner and in accordance with this paragraph, will be deemed a material default of an essential provision of the Franchise Agreement.

15. Modification of Ascend Plan.

At any time, RE/MAX Regional may modify any part or all of the Ascend Plan, including but not limited to modifying the Ascend Fee Plan, which changes will become automatically effective upon 60 days' written notice to Franchisee for all new Sales Associates that join Franchisee's Office after the date of modification, without the need for a written amendment to this Addendum. For avoidance of doubt, RE/MAX Regional may modify the Ascend Plan with respect to Sales Associates that are then enrolled in the Ascend Plan only as provided in Section 3.

16. Pilot Program Termination; Addendum Termination; Franchise Renewal under Ascend Plan.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Ascend Plan is a pilot program, and that as such, it may be discontinued by RE/MAX Regional at any time. If the Ascend Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will retain the benefit of the Ascend Fee Plan through the remainder of the Term with respect to all Ascend SAs enrolled in the Ascend Plan as of the date the Ascend Plan is discontinued. If the Ascend Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will no longer be able to add new Sales Associates to the Ascend Plan. As to any Franchise Agreement, this Addendum automatically terminates upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement. If your franchise relationship is renewed while the Ascend Plan is in effect, the renewal franchise agreement will include RE/MAX Regional's then-current form of Ascend Plan Addendum, which addendum shall supersede this Addendum and may have terms materially different from the terms of this Addendum.

17. Offices Opened by Franchisee after Effective Date of Addendum.

If during the Term Franchisee purchases or acquires a new REMAX franchise, provided the ownership structure of the new franchise is identical to that of Franchisee's existing Franchise, RE/MAX Regional will amend Schedule A to add the new franchise to this Addendum and the new franchise will be required to participate in the Ascend Plan enrollment option selected by Franchisee at the time of Ascend Plan enrollment.

18. Release of Claims.

As partial consideration for participating in the Ascend Plan, Franchisee and Franchisee's Owner(s), individually and on behalf of Franchisee, and their heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby forever and unconditionally release and discharge RE/MAX Regional, its Related Parties, and their current and former respective owners, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns, from any and all Claims existing as of the date of this Addendum and which relate to or arise out of any franchise agreement (including the Franchise Agreement(s)) or any other agreement between the parties executed prior to the date of this Addendum, the Office(s) operated under the Franchise Agreements, and any and all of the relationships created thereby, including but not limited to, any and all Claims, whether presently known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, arising under the franchise, securities, antitrust laws or other laws of the United States or of any state. With respect to any Franchise Agreement(s) entered into as of the Effective Date, Franchisee and Franchisee's Owner(s) acknowledge and agree that the release does not relate to the offer and sale of the Franchise under such Franchise Agreement(s) and the release relates only to Claims arising from matters existing or first arising on or before the Effective Date and not matters first arising after the Effective Date.

19. Construction.

This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties; provided that RE/MAX Regional may modify, discontinue or terminate the Ascend Plan as provided in Sections 6 and 7. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

2. Amendments to Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement with respect to Participating Sales Associates. With respect to Participating Sales Associates only, RE/MAX Regional and Franchisee agree that Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

B. Per-Transaction Fee. In consideration of the waiver of CFF with respect to each Participating Sales Associate, Franchisee agrees to pay to RE/MAX Regional together with your regular monthly billing due under the Franchise Agreement a fee of $100 per each closed transaction side involving Authorized Services handled by a Participating Sales Associate (the "Transaction Fee"). For clarification, if a Participating Sales Associate has no transactions in any given month, no Transaction Fees will be due on behalf of that Participating Sales Associate. C. Revised Broker Fee. RE/MAX Regional will allocate a minimum of 37% of the Appreciate Broker Fee to the Marketing Fund.

D. Revised Annual Dues. Notwithstanding the first sentence of Subsection 5.C of the Franchise Agreement, with respect to each Participating Sales Associate Franchisee agrees to pay to RE/MAX, LLC revised Annual Dues ("Appreciate Annual Dues") in the reduced amount of $99 per year, beginning with the first Appreciate Annual Dues payment due following the Participating Sales Associate's Enrollment Date.

3. [Use with existing franchisees only:]Release. With respect to any Franchise Agreement(s) entered into as of the Effective Date, Franchisee and Franchisee's Owner(s) acknowledge and agree that the release does not relate to the offer and sale of the Franchise under such Franchise Agreement(s) and the release relates only to Claims arising from matters existing or first arising on or before the Effective Date and not matters first arising after the Effective Date.

4. [Use with existing franchisees only:]Termination of REMAX Gold Plan and Gold Plan Letter Addendum. If Franchisee has previously signed the REMAX Gold Plan Letter Addendum, Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the REMAX Gold Plan was discontinued, and the REMAX Gold Plan Letter Addendum that Franchisee previously executed terminated, as to any new enrollments, as of December 31, 2025, and the REMAX Gold Plan is replaced and superseded by this Addendum with respect to Participating Sales Associates. 5. Pilot Program Termination; Addendum Termination; Franchise Renewal under Appreciate Plan. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the Appreciate Plan is a pilot program, and that as such, it may be discontinued by RE/MAX Regional at any time upon 12 months' notice. If the Appreciate Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will retain the benefit of the Appreciate Plan fees through the remainder of the Term with respect to all Participating Sales Associates enrolled in the Appreciate Plan as of the date the Appreciate Plan is discontinued. If the Appreciate Plan is discontinued, Franchisee will no longer be able to add new Sales Associates to the Appreciate Plan. As to any Franchise Agreement, this Addendum automatically terminates upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement. If your franchise relationship is renewed while the Appreciate Plan is in effect, the renewal franchise agreement will include RE/MAX Regional's then-current form of Appreciate Plan Addendum, which addendum shall supersede this Addendum and may have terms materially different from the terms of this Addendum.

6. Construction. This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties; provided that RE/MAX Regional has the sole right to amend, discontinue or terminate the Appreciate Plan as provided in Section [5][3] above. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

REMAX ASPIRE PLAN ADDENDUM

ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S)

THIS ASPIRE PROGRAM ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT(S) ("Addendum") is entered into, effective as of the date of the last signature appearing below (the "Effective Date"), by and between RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC (referred to as "we," "us," or "RE/MAX Regional") and the undersigned Franchisee ("Franchisee" or "you"), and it amends each of the Franchise Agreement(s) between Franchisee and RE/MAX Regional listed on the attached Schedule A (each, "Franchise Agreement", and collectively, the "Franchise Agreements").

A. The Franchise Agreements (including any addenda thereto) require that Franchisee pays to RE/MAX Regional certain monthly ongoing fees, including, as applicable, a CFF, Broker Fee, and Marketing Fee and/or an Ascend Fixed Fee and Ascend Broker Fee (such fees, collectively, the "Current Fee Structure").

B. RE/MAX Regional, in order to encourage REMAX franchisees' recruitment of new Sales Associates, is offering a voluntary pilot program (the "Aspire Program") to eligible franchisees, pursuant to which the franchisee may elect, for a limited period of up to 12 months, a transaction-based fee structure (referred to as the Aspire Program Fee Structure) as described in Section 2 below, in lieu of the Current Fee Structure, with respect to those newly-recruited Sales Associates who have not been affiliated with any REMAX office during the 90 days prior to joining the franchisee's REMAX office.

C. You wish to participate in the Aspire Program, and we are willing to permit you to participate in the Aspire Program, subject to the terms and conditions of this Addendum.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Eligibility and Activation Process. Provided that (i) you are not in default under any Franchise Agreement and (ii) we have not terminated the Aspire Program, you may participate in the Aspire Program with respect to each Sales Associate (a) who has joined your Office as a new Sales Associate on or after the Effective Date, (b) who has not been affiliated with your Office or any other REMAX office (whether as an active Sales Associate or a Sales Associate on an approved leave of absence) during the 90 days prior to joining your Office, and (c) whom you have properly entered into the Agent Office Portal (each such eligible new Sales Associate, a "Recruit"). If you wish to be subject to the Aspire Program Fee Structure with respect to a Recruit, you must notify us in writing of the election within 60 days of the Recruit's initial affiliation with your Office (the "Notice of Election").

2. The Aspire Program Fee Structure. If you timely elect the Aspire Program Fee Structure with respect to a Recruit as provided in Section 1, then, with respect to that Recruit, for a period of up to 12 months from the first day of the calendar month during which you provide the Notice of Election (such period, the "Individual Aspire Term"), you will pay us, in lieu of the Current Fee Structure but at the same time and in the same manner as the monthly ongoing fees under the Current Fee Structure, the following fees (the "Aspire Program Fee Structure"):

A. A monthly fee equal to 5% of Revenue derived from transactions handled by the Recruit during the previous calendar month (the "Aspire Broker Fee"), up to a total of $5,000. Once you have paid a total of $5,000 in Aspire Broker Fees for a Recruit, you will owe no additional Aspire Broker Fees for that Recruit for the remainder of his or her Individual Aspire Term. We will allocate a minimum of 1% of the Aspire Broker Fee to the Marketing Fund; and

B. A monthly fee of $25 per closed transaction side handled by the Recruit during the previous calendar month (the "Transaction Fee").

For clarification, if there are no transactions handled by a Recruit in a given month (and therefore no Revenue earned by that Recruit in that month), no Aspire Broker Fee and no Transaction Fee will be due for that month for that Recruit. You may remove a Recruit from the Aspire Program Fee Structure at any time upon written notice to us ("Termination Notice"), and the Recruit's Individual Aspire Term will then automatically terminate effective as of the last day of the calendar month that precedes the month during which we receive your Termination Notice (such date, the "Effective Termination Date"). Upon the expiration or earlier termination of a Recruit's Individual Aspire Term, you will immediately become subject to all of the fees included in the Current Fee Structure with respect to that Recruit beginning the day after the Effective Termination Date.

3. No Other Fees Modified or Waived. Except as expressly provided in this Addendum, no other fees due under the Franchise Agreement are waived or modified, and all fees not expressly modified by this Addendum (including, without limitation, Annual Dues) shall be due and payable as set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

4. Educational Resources. To assist you in successfully onboarding Recruits to your Office, each Recruit with respect to whom you elect to participate in the Aspire Program Fee Structure will receive access, free of charge, during the Recruit's Individual Aspire Term, to the "100 Days to Greatness" real estate educational course offered by our vendor, Buffini & Company. If the Recruit completes the 100 Days to Greatness course prior to the expiration of the Recruit's Individual Aspire Term, the Recruit will also receive access, free of charge, to Buffini & Company's Certified Full-Service Professional training program, which will allow them to earn the Certified Full-Service Professional designation.

5. Reporting Obligations. On-time reporting is critical to maintaining your eligibility for the Aspire Program. As part of your monthly reporting obligations under the Franchise Agreement, you agree to continuously identify and report to us the Revenue earned and the number of transaction sides closed by each Recruit under that Recruit's name only. A failure to timely comply with this reporting obligation shall be deemed a material default that gives us the right to terminate this Addendum, or alternatively, in our discretion, going forward we may require you to pay the Current Fee Structure with respect to any Recruit with respect to whom you failed to comply with your reporting obligation.

6. Full Compliance Required. You understand and agree that to be able to participate in the Aspire Program, you must be—and remain—fully compliant with all of your obligations under the Franchise Agreement, including, without limitation, the timely payment of Annual Dues and all other fees owed and compliance with all applicable reporting requirements. If you fail to remain in compliance, we may terminate this Addendum immediately, which will terminate your participation in the Aspire Program.

7. Pilot Program; Renewal. You understand that the Aspire Program is a pilot program, and that as such, it may be discontinued or modified by us at any time, including by modifying the eligibility requirements and/or discontinuing the educational resources. If we discontinue the Aspire Program, you will continue to have the benefit of the Aspire Program Fee Structure with respect to all Recruits who are in compliance with the Program as of the date the Program is discontinued, until the expiration or earlier termination of their Individual Aspire Term. However, after the Aspire Program terminates, you will no longer be able to add additional Sales Associates to the Aspire Program. If your franchise relationship with us is renewed, and you wish to continue to participate in the Aspire Program upon renewal, we may permit you to do so subject to your execution of our then-current form of Addendum, which addendum will supersede this Addendum and may have terms materially different from this Addendum.

8. [For Transfers and Renewals Only] [Release. As partial consideration for participating in the Aspire Program, Franchisee and Franchisee's Owner(s), individually and on behalf of Franchisee, and their heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, hereby forever and unconditionally release and discharge RE/MAX Regional, its Related Parties, and their current and former respective owners, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns, from any and all Claims existing as of the date of this Addendum and which relate to or arise out of any franchise agreement (including the Franchise Agreement(s)) or any other agreement between the parties executed prior to the date of this Addendum, the Office(s) operated under the Franchise Agreements, and any and all of the relationships created thereby, including but not limited to, any and all Claims, whether presently known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, arising under the franchise, securities, antitrust laws or other laws of the United States or of any state. With respect to any Franchise Agreement(s) entered into as of the Effective Date, Franchisee and Franchisee's Owner(s) acknowledge and agree that the release does not relate to the offer and sale of the Franchise under such Franchise Agreement(s) and the release relates only to Claims arising from matters existing or first arising on or before the Effective Date and not matters first arising after the Effective Date.]

9. Construction. This Addendum shall be deemed a part of the Franchise Agreement and is hereby incorporated into the Franchise Agreement as if originally set forth therein. Except as specifically set forth in this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unchanged and in full force and effect. To the extent any provision of this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision of the Franchise Agreement, this Addendum controls. No provision of this Addendum may be amended or waived except by a written instrument signed by both parties. Any capitalized terms used but not defined in this Addendum shall have the meanings specified in the Franchise Agreement.

Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (a) the Offerings are licensed, not sold, to Customer by Licensor and Customer does not have under or in connection with this Agreement any ownership interest in or to the Offerings, or in any related intellectual property rights; (b) as between Customer and Licensor, Licensor owns all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Offerings; and (c) Customer hereby unconditionally and irrevocably assigns to Licensor or Licensor's designee, its entire right, title, and interest in and to any intellectual property rights that Customer may now or hereafter have in the Offerings (including any rights in derivative works or patent improvements relating to either of them), whether held or acquired by operation of law, contract, assignment or otherwise. If Customer or any of its employees or contractors sends or transmits any communications or materials to Licensor by mail, email, telephone, or otherwise, suggesting or recommending changes to the Offerings, including without limitation, new features or functionality relating thereto, or any comments, questions, suggestions, or the like ("Feedback"), Licensor is free to use such Feedback. Customer hereby assigns to Licensor on Customer's behalf, and on behalf of its employees, contractors and/or agents, all right, title, and interest in, and Licensor is free to use, without any attribution or compensation to any party, any ideas, know-how, concepts, techniques, or other intellectual property rights contained in the Feedback, for any purpose whatsoever, although Licensor is not required to use any Feedback.

6. Limited Warranties and Warranty Disclaimer.

6.1 Licensor warrants to Customer that the Software ordered by Customer hereunder will substantially perform in accordance with the Documentation and will be free from material defects and that all professional services Licensor performs for Customer shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner in accordance with industry standards. The warranty set forth in this Section 7.1 does not apply and becomes void if the alleged defect or issue arises from Customer's breach of any provision of this Agreement, or if Customer, any Authorized User, or any other person provided access to the Software by Customer or any Authorized User, whether or not in violation of this Agreement, including if such Authorized User: (i) installs or uses the Software on or in connection with any hardware or software not specified in the Documentation; (ii) modifies or damages the Software; (iii) misuses the Software, including any use of the Software other than as specified in the Documentation or any BoldTrail Data.

6.2 If, during the period specified in Section 7.1, any Software materially fails to comply with the warranty in Section 7.1, and such failure is not excluded from warranty pursuant to Section 7.1, Licensor shall, subject to Customer's promptly notifying Licensor in writing of such failure, at its sole option, promptly upon receipt of such notice repair or replace the Software, provided that Customer provides Licensor with all information Licensor requests to resolve the reported failure, including making reasonable efforts to provide sufficient information to enable the Licensor to recreate such failure. In addition to complying with the notice provisions of this Agreement, such notice will refer to this Agreement or mention a breach of warranty or similar language. Failure to provide notice as described in this section or delay of such notice will not impact the validity of the Customer's claim or Licensor's obligations under this Section 7.2 except in the case that such failure or delay prejudices the Licensor. The foregoing sets forth Licensor's sole and exclusive obligation, and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, for any failure to comply with Section 7.1.

6.3 EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN SECTION 7.1, ALL OFFERINGS ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND LICENSOR HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE. LICENSOR SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ALL WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN SECTION 7.1, LICENSOR MAKES NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND THAT THE ADDITIONAL BOLDTRAIL PRODUCTS, SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION, AND OTHER OFFERINGS OR ANY PRODUCTS OR RESULTS OF THE USE THEREOF, WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S OR ANY OTHER PERSON'S REQUIREMENTS, OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, ACHIEVE ANY INTENDED RESULT, BE COMPATIBLE OR WORK WITH ANY SOFTWARE, SYSTEM OR OTHER SERVICES OTHER THAN THOSE SPECIFICALLY INTEGRATED INTO FUNCTIONALITY OF THE ADDITIONAL BOLDTRAIL PRODUCTS, OR BE ERROR FREE OR THAT ANY BOLDTRAIL DATA WILL BE ACCURATE OR COMPLETE. ALL SUPPLIER PRODUCTS

PROVIDED TO FRANCHISE ARE PROVIDED “AS IS” AND ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF OR CONCERNING ANY SUPPLIER PRODUCTS IS STRICTLY BETWEEN CUSTOMER AND THE THIRD-PARTY OWNER OR DISTRIBUTOR OF THE SUPPLIER PRODUCTS. LICENSOR SHALL PASS ALONG ANY SUCH SUPPLIER PRODUCTS WARRANTIES TO CUSTOMER PURSUANT TO ANY CONTRACT BETWEEN LICENSOR AND ANY SUPPLIER IF LEGALLY POSSIBLE AND COMMERCIALLY PRACTICABLE.

7. Indemnification.

7.1 Indemnification by Customer. Customer shall indemnify, hold harmless, and, at Licensor’s option, defend Licensor from and against any loss(es), costs, obligations, liabilities, damages, actions, suits, causes of action, claims, demands, interest, penalties, liens, encumbrances, security interests, settlements, judgments, attorney’s fees, disbursements, and other expenses (collectively, “Losses”) that are asserted against, imposed on, or incurred or suffered by Licensor based on or arising out of: (i) Customer’s, or any Authorized User’s negligence or more culpable acts or omissions; (ii) Customer’s, or any Authorized User’s violation of law or infringement, violation or misappropriation of any intellectual property right or other right of any person, entity or estate; (iii) Customer’s, or any Authorized User’s breach of this Agreement, including use of the Offerings in a manner not authorized or contemplated by this Agreement or the Documentation; (iv) any Customer Data or any use thereof, including without limitation any claim that any Customer Data infringes the intellectual property right of, or has otherwise harmed, a third party; or (v) any Supplier Product or any Third-Party Terms or breach thereof, provided in each case that Customer may not settle any claim against Licensor unless such settlement completely and forever releases Licensor from all liability with respect to such claim or unless Licensor consents to such settlement, and further provided that Licensor will have the right, at its option, to defend itself against any such claim or to participate in the defense thereof by counsel of its own choice.

7.2 Indemnification by Licensor. Licensor shall indemnify, hold harmless, and, at Customer’s option, defend Customer and Authorized Users from and against any Losses that are asserted against, imposed on, or incurred or suffered by Customer or any Authorized User based on or arising out of Licensor’s (or any affiliate of Licensor’s): (i) negligence or more culpable acts or omissions; (ii) violation of law or infringement, violation or misappropriation of any intellectual property right or other right of any person, entity or estate; or (iii) breach of this Agreement, provided that Licensor may not settle any claim against Customer or any Authorized User unless such settlement completely and forever releases Customer and such Authorized Users from all liability with respect to such claim or unless Customer and, if applicable, the Authorized Users consent to such settlement.

7.3 IP Infringement. In the case of a third-party claim against any Customer that alleges Licensor’s infringement or violation of any Intellectual Property right related to the Software, or any component of the Software where Customer’s, or any Authorized Users’ access to and use of the Software is enjoined or disrupted as the result of that third-party claim, in addition to Licensor’s defense and indemnification obligations, Licensor shall take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to the Customer: (a) procure the right to continue using the Software without material interruption to the Customer’s and Authorized Users’ access to and use of the Software; (b) replace the infringing components of the Software with substantially similar, noninfringing systems, software, or products; or (c) modify the Software to make it noninfringing without materially impacting the functionality of the Software.

8. Limitations of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE, FOR ANY: (a) CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, ENHANCED, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES; (b) INCREASED COSTS, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR LOST BUSINESS, PRODUCTION, REVENUES, OR PROFITS; (c) LOSS OF GOODWILL OR REPUTATION; (d) USE, INABILITY TO USE, LOSS, INTERRUPTION, DELAY OR RECOVERY OF ANY DATA, OR BREACH OF DATA OR SYSTEM SECURITY; OR (e) COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS OR SERVICES, IN EACH CASE REGARDLESS OF WHETHER LICENSOR WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES OR IF SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES WERE OTHERWISE FORESEEABLE. EXCEPT FOR (i) CLAIMS INVOLVING BREACHES OF CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER INCLUDING ANY DATA BREACH AND (ii) INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNTS PAID TO LICENSOR BY OR ON BEHALF OF CUSTOMER UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IN THE 12-MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM. The foregoing limitations shall not apply to: (i) Customer payment obligations; (ii) liability arising from the indemnification obligations in Section 8; (iii) violation or misappropriation of a Party's intellectual property rights; (iv) damages arising from a breach by Customer of Sections 2, 4, 3.5, 5, or 6.1; or (v) damages arising from a Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Term and Termination.

8.1 Term. The initial term of this Agreement begins on the Effective Date and, unless terminated as otherwise provided in this Agreement, will continue in effect until the earlier of: (a) the date that Customer ceases to be a REMAX franchisee; or (b) the termination or expiration of the MTSA (the "Term").

8.2 Termination with Cause. Either Party may terminate this Agreement in the event the other party breaches any representation, warranty, covenant, or obligation (if such breach is capable of being cured), and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days of written notice thereof from the non-breaching party.

8.3 Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the license granted hereunder will also terminate, and, without limiting Customer's obligations under Section 4, Customer shall cease using the Software, delete or destroy all Documentation and certify in writing to the Licensor that the Documentation has been deleted or destroyed. No expiration or termination will affect Licensor's entitlement to all Fees that may have become due before such expiration or termination, or entitle Customer to any refund. This Section 10.3 and Sections 1, 2.5, 4, 5, 7.3, 8, 9, and 11 survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. No other provisions of this Agreement survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

9. Miscellaneous.

9.1 Third-Party Beneficiaries. RE/MAX, LLC is a third party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce the rights and benefits of Customer as if they were party to this Agreement. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no other person or entity shall be deemed a third party beneficiary to this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, Customer is not and shall not be deemed a third-party beneficiary of the MTSA.

9.2 Entire Agreement, Existing Agreements, Precedence of Documents. This Agreement, together with any other documents incorporated herein by reference and all Product Schedules, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, and representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. This Agreement does not supersede, replace, amend, or otherwise modify the kvCORE Platform (KPA) Agreement. Customer and Licensor agree that, by entering into this Agreement, any agreement between Customer and Licensor that existed as of the Effective Date shall automatically terminate on the later of (i) the date that is at least ninety (90) days after the execution of this Agreement, or (ii) the date that the Software is successfully launched for the Customer, unless such prior agreements are extended by mutual written agreement. In the event of any inconsistency between the statements made in the body of this Agreement, any related Product Schedules, and any other documents incorporated herein by reference, the following order of precedence governs: (a) first, this Agreement; (b) second, the Product Schedules (if applicable); and (c) third, any other documents incorporated herein by reference.

9.3 Notices. Any notice or report required to be given to or from a party or under this Agreement will be considered given: (a) when delivered in person or by courier to the other party; or (b) on the fifth calendar day after a party sends it by certified mail, return receipt requested to the other party. An e-mail communication giving notice or sending a report also will be considered given under this Section 11 on the condition that the party's representative who receives the notice or report gives the sending party its prior written acknowledgement to receive the notice or report by e-mail communication and confirms that it received the notice or report by replying to the sending party's e-mail communication. All notices or reports required to be given under this Agreement must be given by one of these methods. All notices or reports that a party delivers by courier or by certified mail under this Agreement must (i) for notices to Licensor, be sent to the following persons at the addresses below, and (ii) for Customer, be sent to the address listed as Mail Address if such field is populated and otherwise to the address listed as Main Address and to the email address listed for the Primary Contact of Customer in the data feed that Licensor receives from RE/MAX Marketing Fund:

9.4 Force Majeure. In no event shall either Party be liable to the other Party, or be deemed to have breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement, (except for any obligations to make payments), if and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by any circumstances beyond such Party's reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, flood, fire, earthquake, explosion, war, terrorism, invasion, riot or other civil unrest, strikes, labor stoppages or slowdowns or other industrial disturbances, or passage of law or any action taken by a governmental or public authority, including imposing an embargo.

9.5 Amendments. Licensor reserves the right, in its reasonable discretion, to revise, update, change, modify, add to, supplement, or remove certain terms of this Agreement (i) solely to the extent Licensor determines, based on a written opinion of its legal counsel, provided to RE/MAX Marketing Fund, that such changes are needed to comply with applicable Laws, or (ii) if such changes are approved in writing by RE/MAX Marketing Fund. Such changes will be effective with prior notice to Customer. If any future changes to this Agreement are unacceptable to Customer, Customer may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Licensor and must immediately cease use of the Offerings and destroy all copies of the Offerings. Customer's use of the Offerings following any revision to this Agreement constitutes Customer's acceptance of any and all such changes.

9.6 Waiver. No waiver by any Party of any of the provisions hereof will be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the Party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement (i) no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any rights, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement will operate or be construed as a waiver thereof, and (ii) no single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.

9.7 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

9.8 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware. Any legal suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the licenses granted hereunder will be instituted exclusively in the state and federal courts located in Delaware, and each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such suit, action, or proceeding.

9.9 Export Regulation. The Offerings may be subject to US export control laws, including the Export Control Reform Act and its associated regulations. Customer shall not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export, or release the Offerings to, or make the Offerings accessible from, any jurisdiction or country to which export, re-export, or release is prohibited by law, rule, or regulation. Customer shall comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations, and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), prior to exporting, re exporting, releasing, or otherwise making the Offerings available outside the US.

9.10 Equitable Relief. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that a breach or threatened breach by such Party of any of its obligations under Section 4 or, in the case of Customer, Section 2.1, would cause the other Party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that, in the event of such breach or threatened breach, the other Party will be entitled to equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from any court, without any requirement to post a bond or other security, or to prove actual damages or that monetary damages are not an adequate remedy. Such remedies are not exclusive and are in addition to all other remedies that may be available at law, in equity, or otherwise.

9.11 Miscellaneous. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original, but all of which together are deemed to be one and the same agreement. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns. "Including" in this Agreement means "including, without limitation". Customer's signature on this Agreement communicated by electronic transmission or a digital signature shall be considered an original signature. No signature from Licensor is required for this Agreement to be binding on Customer. Customer hereby acknowledges that Licensor may convert this Agreement to electronic format and retain this Agreement solely in an electronic format. Licensor may provide this Agreement in electronic form or may provide a reproduction of this Agreement from its electronic copy in the event of any dispute hereunder.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that (a) the Software and Documentation are licensed, not sold, to Franchisee by Licensor and Franchisee does not have under or in connection with this Agreement any ownership interest in or to the Software or Documentation, or in any related intellectual property rights; (b) as between Franchisee and Licensor, Licensor owns all right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to the Software and Documentation; and (c) Franchisee hereby unconditionally and irrevocably assigns to Licensor or Licensor's designee, its entire right, title, and interest in and to any intellectual property rights that Franchisee may now or hereafter have in the Software or Documentation (including any rights in derivative works or patent improvements relating to either of them), whether held or acquired by operation of law, contract, assignment or otherwise. If Franchisee or any of its employees or contractors sends or transmits any communications or materials to Licensor by mail, email, telephone, or otherwise, suggesting or recommending changes to the Software or Documentation, including without limitation, new features or functionality relating thereto, or any comments, questions, suggestions, or the like ("Feedback"), Licensor is free to use such Feedback. Franchisee hereby assigns to Licensor on Franchisee's behalf, and on behalf of its employees, contractors and/or agents, all right, title, and interest in, and Licensor is free to use, without any attribution or compensation to any party, any ideas, know how, concepts, techniques, or other intellectual property rights contained in the Feedback, for any purpose whatsoever, although Licensor is not required to use any Feedback.

6. Representations and Warranties

6.1 Franchisee represents and warrants to Licensor that (a) unless Franchisee is a natural person or sole proprietor, Franchisee is incorporated or organized and in good standing under the Laws of the state or province of its incorporation or organization, (b) it is legally able to enter into and perform its obligations and make its representations and warranties under and in this Agreement, (c) this Agreement does not and will not conflict with any of its other agreements, commitments, or obligations with or to another person or entity, (d) its performance of this Agreement does not and will not contravene any Laws, including Data Protection Laws, (e) it has the right to its computer systems, software, services, products and the Franchisee Data that Licensor may need to access or use to perform its obligations under this Agreement and each Product Schedule (if applicable); (f) it has all necessary rights, permissions, licenses, and other authority to use the Franchisee Data as anticipated under this Agreement each Product Schedule (if applicable); (g) when executed and delivered, this Agreement and Product Schedule (if applicable) will constitute a legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Franchisee that Licensor can enforce against it in accordance with its terms and (h) Franchisee will only use the license and any other intellectual property granted by Licensor in accordance with the terms herein and as restricted by Section 2.2 of this Agreement.

6.2 Licensor represents and warrants to Franchisee that (a) it is incorporated or organized and is in good standing under the Laws of the state of its incorporation or organization; (b) it is legally able to enter into and perform its obligations under and make its representations and warranties in this Agreement and each Product Schedule (if applicable); (c) this Agreement and each Product Schedule (if applicable) does not and will not conflict with any other of Licensor's agreements, commitments, or obligations with or to another Person; and (d) it owns or has the right to use the BoldTrail Platform, the Software, and BoldTrail Products and can grant all licenses and permissions granted under the Agreement and any Product Schedule(s) to Franchisee and its Authorized Users; (e) its performance under this Agreement, the BoldTrail Platform Agreement(s), and any Product Schedule(s) does not and will not contravene any Laws, including any Data Protection Laws and (f) the BoldTrail Platform, the Software, and BoldTrail Products do not and will not infringe, violate or misappropriate the Intellectual Property rights of any Person; and (g) Licensor has not defaulted under, any license, agreement, or Intellectual Property owned or claimed by another Person, which license, agreement, or Intellectual Property is necessary for Franchisees to access and use the BoldTrail Platform, the Software, and BoldTrail Products.

7. Limited Warranties and Warranty Disclaimer.

7.1 Licensor warrants to Franchisee that the Software ordered by Franchisee hereunder will substantially perform in accordance with the Documentation and will be free from material defects and that all professional services Licensor performs for Franchisee shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner in accordance with industry standards. The warranty set forth in this Section 7.1 does not apply and becomes void if the alleged defect or issue arises from Franchisee's breach of any provision of this Agreement, or if Franchisee, any Authorized User, or any other person provided access to the Software by Franchisee or any Authorized User, whether or not in violation of this Agreement: (i) installs or uses the Software on or in connection with any hardware or software not specified in the Documentation; (ii) modifies or damages the Software; (iii) misuses the Software, including any use of the Software other than as specified in the Documentation.

7.2 If, during the period specified in Section 7.1, any Software materially fails to comply with the warranty in Section 7.1, and such failure is not excluded from warranty pursuant to Section 7.1, Licensor shall, subject to Franchisee's promptly notifying Licensor in writing of such failure, at its sole option, promptly upon receipt of such notice repair or replace the Software, provided that Franchisee provides Licensor with all information Licensor requests to resolve the reported failure, including making reasonable efforts to provide sufficient information to enable the Licensor to recreate such failure. In addition to complying with the notice provisions of this Agreement, such notice will refer to this Agreement or mention a breach of warranty or similar language. Failure to provide notice as described in this section or delay of such notice will not impact the validity of the Franchisee's claim or Licensor's obligations under this Section 7.2 except in the case that such failure or delay prejudices the Licensor.

7.3 EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN SECTION 7.1, THE SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND LICENSOR HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE. LICENSOR SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ALL WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING, USAGE, OR TRADE PRACTICE TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT FOR THE LIMITED WARRANTY SET FORTH IN SECTION 7.1, LICENSOR MAKES NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND THAT THE BOLDTRAIL PLATFORM, BOLDTRAIL PRODUCTS, SOFTWARE AND DOCUMENTATION, OR ANY PRODUCTS OR RESULTS OF THE USE THEREOF, WILL MEET FRANCHISEE'S OR ANY OTHER PERSON'S REQUIREMENTS, OPERATE WITHOUT INTERRUPTION, ACHIEVE ANY INTENDED RESULT, BE COMPATIBLE OR WORK WITH ANY SOFTWARE, SYSTEM OR OTHER SERVICES OTHER THAN THOSE SPECIFICALLY INTEGRATED INTO FUNCTIONALITY OF THE BOLDTRAIL PLATFORM AND BOLDTRAIL PRODUCTS, OR BE ERROR FREE. ALL SUPPLIER PRODUCTS PROVIDED TO FRANCHISE ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF OR CONCERNING ANY SUPPLIER PRODUCTS IS STRICTLY BETWEEN FRANCHISEE AND THE THIRD-PARTY OWNER OR DISTRIBUTOR OF THE SUPPLIER PRODUCTS. INSIDERE SHALL PASS ALONG ANY SUCH SUPPLIER PRODUCTS WARRANTIES TO FRANCHISEE PURSUANT TO ANY CONTRACT BETWEEN INSIDERE AND ANY SUPPLIER IF LEGALLY POSSIBLE AND COMMERCIALLY PRACTICABLE.

8. Indemnification.

8.1 Indemnification by Franchisee. Franchisee shall indemnify, hold harmless, and, at Licensor's option, defend Licensor from and against any loss(es), costs, obligations, liabilities, damages, actions, suits, causes of action, claims, demands, interest, penalties, liens, encumbrances, security interests, settlements, judgments, attorney's fees, disbursements, and other expenses (collectively, "Losses") that are asserted against, imposed on, or incurred or suffered by Licensor based on or arising out of Franchisee's, or any Authorized User's: (i) negligence or more culpable acts or omissions; (ii) violation of law or infringement, violation or misappropriation of any intellectual property right or other right of any person, entity or estate; or (iii) breach of this Agreement, including use of the Software or Documentation in a manner not authorized or contemplated by this Agreement, provided that Franchisee may not settle any claim against Licensor unless such settlement completely and forever releases Licensor from all liability with respect to such claim or unless Licensor consents to such settlement, and further provided that Licensor will have the right, at its option, to defend itself against any such claim or to participate in the defense thereof by counsel of its own choice.

8.2 Indemnification by Licensor. Licensor shall indemnify, hold harmless, and, at Franchisee's option, defend Franchisee and Authorized Users from and against any Losses that are asserted against, imposed on, or incurred or suffered by Franchisee or any Authorized User based on or arising out of Licensor's (or any affiliate of Licensor's) (i) negligence or more culpable acts or omissions; (ii) violation of law or infringement, violation or misappropriation of any intellectual property right or other right of any person, entity or estate; or (iii) breach of this Agreement, provided that Licensor may not settle any claim against Franchisee or any Authorized User unless such settlement completely and forever releases Franchisee and such Authorized Users from all liability with respect to such claim or unless Franchisee and, if applicable, the Authorized Users consent to such settlement.

8.3 IP Infringement. In the case of a third-party claim against any Franchisee that alleges Licensor's infringement or violation of any Intellectual Property right related to the Software, or any component of the Software where Franchisee's, or any Authorized Users' access to and use of the Software is enjoined or disrupted as the result of that third-party claim, in addition to Licensor's defense and indemnification obligations, Licensor shall take one or more of the following actions at no additional cost to the Franchisee: (a) procure the right to continue using the Software without material interruption to the Franchisee's and Authorized Users' access to and use of the Software; (b) replace the infringing components of the Software with substantially similar, noninfringing systems, software, or products; or (c) modify the Software to make it noninfringing without materially impacting the functionality of the Software.

9. Limitations of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE, FOR ANY: (a) CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL, ENHANCED, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES; (b) INCREASED COSTS, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR LOST BUSINESS, PRODUCTION, REVENUES, OR PROFITS; (c) LOSS OF GOODWILL OR REPUTATION; (d) USE, INABILITY TO USE, LOSS, INTERRUPTION, DELAY OR RECOVERY OF ANY DATA, OR BREACH OF DATA OR SYSTEM SECURITY; OR (e) COST OF REPLACEMENT GOODS OR SERVICES, IN EACH CASE REGARDLESS OF WHETHER LICENSOR WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES OR SUCH LOSSES OR DAMAGES WERE OTHERWISE FORESEEABLE. EXCEPT FOR (i) CLAIMS INVOLVING BREACHES OF CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER INCLUDING ANY DATA BREACH AND (ii) INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY'S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY, INCLUDING BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), STRICT LIABILITY, AND OTHERWISE EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNTS PAID TO LICENSOR BY OR ON BEHALF OF FRANCHISEE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IN THE 12-MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM.

10. Term and Termination.

10.1 Term. The initial term of this Agreement begins on the Effective Date and, unless terminated as otherwise provided in this Agreement, will continue in effect until the earlier of: (a) the date that Franchisee ceases to be a REMAX franchisee; or (b) the termination or expiration of the MTSA (the "Term").

10.2 Termination with Cause. Either Party may terminate this Agreement in the event the other party breaches any representation, warranty, covenant, or obligation and (if such breach is capable of being cured), such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days of written notice thereof from the non-breaching party.

10.3 Effect of Expiration or Termination. Upon expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, the license granted hereunder will also terminate, and, without limiting Franchisee's obligations under Section 4, Franchisee shall cease using the Software, delete or destroy all Documentation and certify in writing to the Licensor that the Documentation has been deleted or destroyed. No expiration or termination will affect Licensor's entitlement to all Fees that may have become due before such expiration or termination, or entitle Franchisee to any refund. This Section 10.3 and Sections 1, 2.5, 4, 5, 7.3, 8, 9, and 11 survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. No other provisions of this Agreement survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

11.1 Third-Party Beneficiaries. Each of RE/MAX Marketing Fund, LLC, RE/MAX Promotions, Inc., and RE/MAX, LLC are third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement and may enforce the rights and benefits of Franchisee as if they were party to this Agreement. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, no other person or entity shall be deemed a third party beneficiary to this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, Franchisee is not and shall not be deemed a third-party beneficiary of the MTSA.

11.2 Entire Agreement, Existing Agreements, Precedence of Documents. This Agreement, together with any other documents incorporated herein by reference and all Product Schedules, constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, and representations and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. Franchisee and Licensor agree that, by entering into this Agreement, any agreement between Franchisee and Licensor that existed as of the Effective Date shall automatically terminate on the later of (i) the date that is at least ninety (90) days after the execution of this Agreement or (ii) the date that the Software is successfully launched for the Franchisee, unless such prior agreements are extended by mutual written agreement. In the event of any inconsistency between the statements made in the body of this Agreement, any related Product Schedules, and any other documents incorporated herein by reference, the following order of precedence governs: (a) first, this Agreement; (b) second, the Product Schedules (if applicable); and (c) third, any other documents incorporated herein by reference.

11.3 Notices. Any notice or report required to be given to or from a party or under this Agreement will be considered given (a) when delivered in person or by courier to the other party; or (b) on the fifth calendar day after a party sends it by certified mail, return receipt requested to the other party. An e-mail communication giving notice or sending a report also will be considered given under this Section 11 on the condition that the party's representative who receives the notice or report gives the sending party its prior written acknowledgement to receive the notice or report by e-mail communication and confirms that it received the notice or report by replying to the sending party's e-mail communication. All notices or reports required to be given under this Agreement must be given by one of these methods. All notices or reports that a party delivers by courier or by certified mail under this Agreement must (i) for notices to Licensor, be sent to the following persons at the addresses below and (ii) for Franchisee, be sent to the address listed as Mail Address if such field is populated and otherwise to the address listed as Main Address and to the email address listed for the Primary Contact of Franchisee in the data feed that Licensor receives from RE/MAX Marketing Fund:

11.4 Force Majeure. In no event shall either Party be liable to the other Party, or be deemed to have breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement, (except for any obligations to make payments), if and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by any circumstances beyond such Party's reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, flood, fire, earthquake, explosion, war, terrorism, invasion, riot or other civil unrest, strikes, labor stoppages or slowdowns or other industrial disturbances, or passage of law or any action taken by a governmental or public authority, including imposing an embargo.

11.5 Amendments. Licensor reserves the right, in its reasonable discretion, to revise, update, change, modify, add to, supplement, or remove certain terms of this Agreement (i) solely to the extent Licensor determined, based on a written opinion of its legal counsel, provided to RE/MAX Marketing Fund, that such changes are needed to comply with applicable Laws or (ii) if such changes are approved in writing by RE/MAX Marketing Fund. Such changes will be effective with prior notice to Franchisee. If any future changes to this Agreement are unacceptable to Franchisee, Franchisee may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Licensor and must immediately cease use of the Software and destroy all copies of the Documentation. Franchisee's use of the Software following any revision to this Agreement constitutes Franchisee's acceptance of any and all such changes.

11.6 Waiver. No waiver by any Party of any of the provisions hereof will be effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by the Party so waiving. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, (i) no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any rights, remedy, power, or privilege arising from this Agreement will operate or be construed as a waiver thereof and (ii) no single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power, or privilege hereunder will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power, or privilege.

11.7 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability will not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

11.8 Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Colorado without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule that would require or permit the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware. Any legal suit, action, or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the licenses granted hereunder will be instituted exclusively in the state and federal courts located in Delaware, and each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such suit, action, or proceeding.

11.9 Export Regulation. The Software may be subject to US export control laws, including the Export Control Reform Act and its associated regulations. Franchisee shall not, directly or indirectly, export, re-export, or release the Software to, or make the Software accessible from, any jurisdiction or country to which export, re-export, or release is prohibited by law, rule, or regulation. Franchisee shall comply with all applicable federal laws, regulations, and rules, and complete all required undertakings (including obtaining any necessary export license or other governmental approval), prior to exporting, reexporting, releasing, or otherwise making the Software available outside the US.

11.10 Equitable Relief. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that a breach or threatened breach by such Party of any of its obligations under Section 4 or, in the case of Franchisee, Section 2.1, would cause the other Party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and agrees that, in the event of such breach or threatened breach, the other Party will be entitled to equitable relief, including a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance, and any other relief that may be available from any court, without any requirement to post a bond or other security, or to prove actual damages or that monetary damages are not an adequate remedy. Such remedies are not exclusive and are in addition to all other remedies that may be available at law, in equity, or otherwise.

11.11 Miscellaneous. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which is deemed an original, but all of which together are deemed to be one and the same agreement. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

Intuit General Terms
Version 02122026

SECTION A TERMS

Introduction and Overview

Thank you for choosing Intuit Inc. We provide a platform (the "Platform") that encompasses (1) a variety of services, including TurboTax, QuickBooks, Mailchimp, Intuit Accountants Professional Tax and Intuit Enterprise Suite (each, a "Service") as well as various products, features, technologies, websites, and services contained within or related to those services; and (2) installable software (including our desktop and mobile applications), any accompanying documentation, and any updates to such software or documentation (collectively, "Software"). These Platform Terms, Section A ("Platform Terms") along with any applicable Product Specific Terms Section B (see below) (collectively, with the Platform Terms, this "Agreement" or "Intuit Terms") govern your use of and access to the Platform, including any Service or Software. Intuit Inc., along with any parent, subsidiary, affiliate, or related companies (including those listed here and at https://www.intuit.com/legal/intuit-group-companies/) are referred to in these provisions as "Intuit Group Companies" or simply "Intuit" or "us."

When you use the Platform, you enter into a binding contract with us. Each section of the agreement begins with an italicized annotation that is intended to help you navigate the agreement. The annotations do not completely summarize the agreement, though, and you should read each section carefully and in full. We've also bolded a few areas that talk about important legal rights, and you should be sure to read those sections carefully. These provisions in Section A apply to the Platform generally and are separate from the provisions in Section B which include additional provisions for your use of specific Intuit Software or Services.

If you are an individual acting on your company's or client's behalf, you accept these provisions on their behalf and the term "you" will refer to you, your company, or your client.

Agreement to These Terms

You need to agree to these terms to use our Platform. By using the Platform, you are instructing us to share your data across our Platform for marketing, eligibility, and other purposes described in our Global Privacy Statement (https://www.intuit.com/privacy/statement), consistent with applicable law. This data may include credit information and other information we obtain from third parties.

To access and/or use the Platform, you acknowledge and agree:

To the terms and conditions of this agreement ("Agreement"), which includes:

- Intuit's Global Privacy Statement;
- Intuit Telecom Specific Terms (https://www.intuit.com/legal/terms/en-us/other/telecom);
- The current version of the terms set out in Section A and Section B;

- Any additional provisions and conditions provided separately to you for your use of the Platform, which may include terms and conditions from third parties (which we refer to as "Additional Terms")
- You are at least 18 years of age;
- You are capable of forming a binding contract with Intuit;
- You are not based in Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Syria, the Crimea, Donetsk ("DNR"), Luhansk ("LNR"), Kherson, and Zaporizhzhia regions of the Ukraine or any other territory that is subject to a government embargo or comprehensive sanctions (Russia), or are not otherwise prohibited from using the Platform under the laws and regulations of the United States, or any other applicable jurisdiction; and
- You are not included in lists maintained by the United States or other applicable jurisdictions prohibiting transactions with and the export of US products to certain entities, people, and jurisdictions.

You understand that by using certain Services, you are providing written instructions in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act and other applicable law to permit Intuit Inc. and its affiliated companies to obtain and periodically refresh your consumer report information (including credit reports) and other information about you from third parties for marketing, eligibility, and other purposes described in Intuit's Global Privacy Statement. You understand that your instructions authorize Intuit and its affiliated companies to obtain such information now and periodically in the future for as long as you have a registered Intuit account. We will stop refreshing your consumer report information when you cancel your account through your account settings.

Your Personal Information

We want to be transparent about how we use personal information and about your rights in our Privacy Statement. You should only provide us with personal information of others if you have received permission to do so.

You agree that Intuit may use and maintain your personal information according to Intuit's Global Privacy Statement and any changes published by Intuit.

To the extent we allow you to input personal information (as the term is defined under applicable law) about other individuals other than yourself, you represent and warrant that you have complied with all applicable laws and received the proper authority or consent to allow us to collect and process such information to operate our business, in accordance with our Global Privacy Statement. You further agree that, other than with respect to information furnished to TurboTax in connection with the preparation of an individual tax return, any sharing of personal information among Intuit Group Companies is contemplated as part of the Platform. You agree such sharing does not constitute a "sale" of information as defined under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA).

Changes

Change happens. When it does happen, we will update this Agreement. If the changes are material, you may need to accept the changes to use the Platform. Similarly, there may be circumstances where we need to update or discontinue the Platform.

We may modify the provisions of this Agreement at any time. We may notify you of such modifications by posting through the Platform or on our website or by other means. It is important that you review this Agreement whenever we modify it because your continued use of the Platform indicates your agreement to the modifications.

In some cases, you may need to accept changes to this Agreement to continue using the Platform. If you do not agree to the changes, you may stop using the Platform or terminate your account.

Similarly, we may update the Platform, including with tools, utilities, improvements or third party applications. You agree to receive these updates. We may further modify, suspend or discontinue the Platform at any time. You agree that we will not be liable to you or any third party for any modification, suspensions, or discontinuance of the Platform.

Your Rights to Use the Platform

You can use our Platform for your own personal and lawful use or as otherwise permitted under this Agreement.

Except as set forth in the Section B terms, you may access and use the Platform for your own internal, lawful and non-commercial purposes only.

Beta Features

We may provide you with access to beta features in the Platform. You are free to use them, but they are provided as-is.

We may include new and/or updated pre-release and trial features in the Platform and such features are provided as-is.

Account

You will provide accurate, up-to-date account information and securely manage such information.

You may need to sign up for an account to use the Platform. We may need to verify your identity and you authorize us to collect information (e.g., date of birth, address) from you to do so (collectively, with all information requested to enable your account, "Account Information"). You will provide accurate, up-to-date Account Information, and we disclaim any liability arising from your failure to do so. Such failure may further limit your ability to use the Platform and affect the Platform's accuracy and effectiveness.

You are responsible for securely managing your Account Information, including any password(s) for the Platform. You will notify us immediately if you believe that your Account Information or device you use to access the Platform has been lost or stolen or that someone is using your account without your permission.

Payment & Cancellations

Some Services may be free, others may have costs associated. For those with costs, we may charge your payment method for fees or on a subscription basis. You may cancel your subscription at any time (but you may not receive a refund).

We may require payment of fees or a subscription charge for use of the Platform (or certain portions of the Platform) and you agree to pay such fees. If you registered for a trial, you may need to purchase the Platform before the trial ends in order to retain access to any content provided to, or created through, the Platform.

Payments will be billed in U.S. dollars, and your account will be charged upon purchase and when you provide your payment information, unless stated otherwise in applicable payment provisions. If your payment information is not accurate, current, and complete, we may suspend or terminate your account. If you do not notify us of updates to your payment information, we may participate in programs supported by your card provider to try to update your payment information, and you authorize us to continue billing your account with the updated information that we obtain.

You may be charged a subscription fee in advance on an annual basis or other recurring interval disclosed to you prior to your purchase. For annual subscriptions, we will send you a reminder with the then-current subscription fee no less than thirty (30) days and no more than sixty (60) days before your subscription term ends, or otherwise as required by applicable law. Intuit may change the price for recurring subscription fees from time to time with notice to you. Price changes will take effect at the start of the next subscription period following the date of the price change. If you do not agree with the price change, you may unsubscribe prior to the price change going into effect.

Your payment to Intuit will automatically renew at the end of the applicable subscription period but you can cancel a subscription at any time. Subscription cancellations will take effect the day after the last day of the current subscription period. If you cancel in the middle of a subscription period, you will be able to continue to access and use the applicable Service until the end of your subscription period. We do not provide refunds or credits for any cancellations or partial subscription period.

Desktop and Mobile App Use

Desktop and Mobile versions of our Platform may be available for download but you must follow applicable third-party terms when using them.

The Platform may be available through one or more apps for a compatible desktop computer or mobile device. You agree that you are solely responsible for any applicable changes, updates and fees as well as complying with the provisions of your agreement with your telecommunications provider and any third-party mobile app marketplace.

With respect to the applicable Software, you are only granted limited rights to install and use the Software you have downloaded, signed up for or for which you have purchased a license or acquired a free trial. Intuit reserves all other rights in the applicable Software not granted to you in writing in this Agreement. Conditioned upon your compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including all payment obligations), Intuit grants you a personal, limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable, revocable license to use the applicable Software only for the period of use provided in the ordering and activation terms (as applicable), as set forth in this Agreement or in Intuit's then-current product discontinuation policies (as updated from time to time) and only for the purposes described by Intuit for the applicable Software.

You acknowledge and agree that such Software is licensed, not sold.

You may make a single copy of the Software for backup purposes, provided that you reproduce on it all copyright and other proprietary notices that are on the original copy of the Software. You will not delete or in any manner alter the copyright, trademark and other proprietary rights notices or markings appearing on the Software as delivered to you.

Advice and Third Party Services and Products

You may have access to professional advice and third-party products. Any such advice and products are not covered under this Agreement.

We may offer specific functionality in the Platform that provides you with the opportunity to seek professional advice, for example, the ability to speak with a tax expert. Unless specifically disclosed, Intuit is not in the business of providing legal, financial, accounting, tax, health care, insurance, real estate or other professional service or advice, and you should consult with professionals for advice prior to making important decisions in these areas.

The Platform may also include information about or offers for third-party services or products or allow you to connect your account to or otherwise access third-party services or products. Intuit does not warrant, and is not responsible for, such third party services and products or claims made about them, or the actions or inactions of any third party. You must review and comply with any Additional Terms. Intuit may be compensated by those third parties, which could impact whether, how and where the services and products are displayed.

Content and Data

What's yours remains yours, what's ours remains ours, but we may use information you provide to improve our Platform.

You are solely responsible for anything you write, submit, receive, share and store or any data you input into the Platform (collectively, your "Content"). Content includes, but is not limited to, data, information, materials, text, graphics, images, audio, video that are uploaded, transmitted, posted, generated, stored, or otherwise made available through the Platform. You have no obligation to provide any content to the Platform, and you're free to choose the content that you want to provide. You acknowledge certain functionality in the Platform may be dependent on the provision of Content and may not be available without such Content.

Your Content remains yours, which means that you retain any intellectual property rights that you have in your Content. By sharing your Content on the Platform, you hereby grant Intuit a license to use your Content, as described in more detail below.

Termination

You may cancel your account and Intuit may suspend or terminate your use of the Platform. For mobile apps, removing the app may not cancel your subscription or delete your data.

This Agreement is effective until your subscription expires or you cancel your account or Intuit terminates this Agreement (or your account). Intuit may terminate this Agreement (and your account) or suspend the Platform at any time in our discretion.

Upon expiration of your subscription or cancellation of your account, or Intuit's termination of your account or this Agreement, you must immediately stop using the Platform and pay all fees for Platform used. Survival

There are a few parts of this Agreement that will continue to apply after termination.

The following Sections will survive any termination, discontinuation or cancellation of the Platform or your account: "Your Personal Information," "Payment and Cancellations" (with respect to fees due and unpaid), "Content and Data," "Community Forums; Feedback," "Effect of Termination," "Disclaimers," "Limitation of Liability," "Indemnity Obligations," "Disputes," and "General Terms (Miscellaneous)".

Intuit Communications

We may contact you from time to time to support your use of the Platform.

In order to properly support and serve you, we occasionally need to reach out and contact you, and may do so in a variety of ways such as via text message, email or messaging functionality in the Platform. We want to provide you options for receiving communications from us, and as such you may opt-in or opt-out of receiving certain types of communications from us or sign up to receive certain kinds of messages from us, depending on the Platform. You will need to notify us of any changes to your contact details to ensure your preferences are updated.

You may provide us with your telephone number as part of your customer record or registration or via other methods. You understand and agree that Intuit may use your telephone number for multi-factor authentication ("MFA"), to confirm your identity and help protect the security of your account. Part of the MFA identity verification process may involve Intuit sending text messages containing security codes to your telephone number. You agree to receive these texts from Intuit containing security codes as part of the MFA process. In addition, you agree that Intuit may send automated text messages and pre-recorded voice messages to the telephone number you provide for other limited purposes, including: providing you with important critical notices regarding your use of the Services, or fulfilling a request made by you through the Services.

Third Party Account Information

Intuit is not responsible for any account information obtained from third parties.

When you direct Intuit to retrieve your account information from third parties, you authorize and permit us to use and store that information and other information you submit through the Platform

(such as usernames and passwords) for purposes of providing the Platform and Services to you. You grant Intuit a limited power of attorney to access those accounts and retrieve your account information, without additional notice to you. . Intuit will be acting as your agent and will not be acting on behalf of the third party.

Intuit does not review third party account information for accuracy and is not responsible for any issues or expenses resulting from such account information, including any inaccuracy, error, delay, or non-delivery. For clarity, Intuit is not responsible for any payment processing errors or fees arising from inaccurate account information provided by third parties.

Disclaimers

We don't make any warranties about the Platform except as expressly stated in this Agreement.

The only warranties we make about the Platform are (1) stated in this Agreement, or (2) as provided under applicable laws. The Platform is otherwise provided "as-is," and we do not make any other warranties about the Platform. Unless required by law, we do not provide implied warranties, such as the implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement. We do not warrant that the Platform is error-free, secure, or free from any viruses or other harmful components. We also do not provide any warranties with respect to data loss or to the accuracy, reliability, or availability of the Platform, nor of any content (including any Content) or information made available in the Platform. If the exclusions for implied warranties do not apply to you, any implied warranties are limited to sixty (60) days from the date of purchase or delivery of the Platform, whichever is sooner.

Limitation of Liability

Our liability is limited when it comes to issues you may encounter with our Platform.

Other than the rights and responsibilities described in this Agreement and as allowed by applicable law, Intuit won't be responsible for any losses.

The total aggregate liability of Intuit and our third party providers, licensors, distributors or suppliers ("Intuit Parties") arising out of or relating to this Agreement is limited to the greater of: (1) the fees that you paid to use the relevant Service(s) in the 12 months before the breach or (2) $100.

The Intuit Parties won't be responsible for the following:

- Loss of data, profits, revenues, business opportunities, goodwill or anticipated savings;
- Indirect, incidental, or consequential loss;
- Punitive damages; or
- Damages relating to failures of telecommunications, the internet, electronic communications, corruption, security, viruses, or spyware.

The above limitations apply even if the Intuit Parties have been advised of the possibility of such damages. This Agreement sets forth your exclusive remedy with respect to the Platform and its use.

If you're legally exempt from certain responsibilities, including indemnification, then those responsibilities don't apply to you under this Agreement. For example, the United Nations enjoys certain immunities from legal obligations and this Agreement doesn't override those immunities.

Indemnity Obligations

If someone sues us because you used the Platform unlawfully or didn't follow our rules, you will be responsible for any harm to us.

You will indemnify and hold harmless the Intuit Parties for any losses, damages, judgments, fines, costs and expenses (including legal fees) in connection with any claims arising out of or relating to your unlawful or unauthorized use of the Platform or violation of this Agreement. Intuit reserves the right, in its sole discretion and at its own expense, to assume the exclusive defense and control of any claims. You agree to reasonably cooperate as requested by Intuit in the defense of any claims.

Disputes

In the event we are unable to resolve any dispute through an informal dialogue, a third-party arbitrator or small claims court will help us resolve any disputes we might have, and any disputes will be resolved on an individual basis rather than as a class action.

If you are a U.S. customer:

You and Intuit agree that, except as provided below, any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating in any way to the Platform or this Agreement (a "Claim") will be determined by binding arbitration or small claims court, instead of in courts of general jurisdiction.

Either you or Intuit can seek to have a Claim resolved in small claims court if all the requirements of the small claims court are satisfied. Either you or Intuit may seek to have a Claim resolved in small claims court in your county of residence or the small claims court in closest proximity to your residence, and you may also bring a claim in small claims court in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara.

Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, may allow for more limited discovery than in court, and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award. You agree that the U.S. Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this arbitration provision, and that you and Intuit are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of this Agreement and/or the termination of your account.

If you elect to seek arbitration, you must first send to Intuit a written notice of your Claim ("Notice of Claim"). The Notice of Claim to Intuit should be sent in care of our registered agent Corporation Service Company, 251 Little Falls Drive, Wilmington, DE 19808. The Notice of Claim should include both the mailing address and email address you would like Intuit to use to contact you. If Intuit elects to seek arbitration, it will send, by certified mail, a written Notice of Claim to your address on file. A Notice of Claim, whether sent by you or by Intuit, must (a) describe the nature and basis of the Claim or dispute; and (b) set forth the specific amount of damages or other relief sought.

You and Intuit agree that good-faith informal efforts to resolve disputes often can result in a prompt, low-cost and mutually beneficial outcome. You and Intuit therefore agree that, after a Notice of Claim is sent but before either you or Intuit commence arbitration or file a Claim in small claims court against the other, we will personally meet, via telephone or videoconference, in a good-faith effort to confer with each other and try to resolve informally any Claim covered by this Agreement. If you are represented by counsel, your counsel may participate in the conference as well, but you agree to fully participate in the conference. Likewise, if Intuit is represented by counsel, its counsel may participate in the conference as well, but Intuit agrees to have a company representative fully participate in the conference. The statute of limitations and any filing fee deadlines shall be tolled while the parties engage in the informal dispute resolution process required by this paragraph.

If we do not reach an agreement to resolve the Claim within sixty (60) days after the Notice of Claim is received, you or Intuit may commence an arbitration proceeding by filing a Demand for Arbitration or, alternatively, by filing a Claim in small claims court. You agree that you may not commence any arbitration or file a Claim in small claims court unless you and Intuit are unable to resolve the Claim within sixty (60) days after we receive your completed Notice of Claim and you have made a good faith effort to resolve your claim directly with Intuit during that time. If a Claim qualifies for small claims court, but a party commences an arbitration proceeding, you and Intuit agree that either party may elect instead to have the Claim resolved in small claims court, and upon written notice of a party's election, the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") will administratively close the arbitration proceeding. Any dispute about whether a Claim qualifies for small claims court shall be resolved by that court, not by an arbitrator. In the event of any such dispute, the arbitration proceeding shall remain closed unless and until a decision by the small claims court that the Claim should proceed in arbitration. You may download or copy a form of notice and a form to initiate arbitration at www.adr.org or by calling 1-800-778-7879. The arbitration will be conducted by the AAA before a single AAA arbitrator under the AAA's rules, which are available at www.adr.org or by calling 1-800-778-7879, except as modified by this Agreement. Unless Intuit and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in the county (or parish) of either your residence or of the mailing address you provided in your Notice of Claim.

The arbitrator will be either (1) a retired judge or (2) an attorney specifically licensed to practice law in the state of California or the state of your residence and will be selected by the parties from the AAA's National Roster of Arbitrators. The arbitrator will be selected using the following procedure: (a) the AAA will send the parties a list of five candidates meeting this criteria; (b) if the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator from the list, each party shall return its list to the AAA within 10 days, striking up to two candidates, and ranking the remaining candidates in order of preference; (c) the AAA shall appoint as arbitrator the candidate with the highest aggregate ranking; and (d) if for any reason the appointment cannot be made according to this procedure, the AAA may exercise its discretion in appointing the arbitrator. The arbitrator is bound by this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided below, all issues are for the arbitrator to decide, including issues relating to the scope and enforceability of this arbitration provision.

The parties agree that an administrative conference with the AAA shall be conducted in each arbitration proceeding, and you and an Intuit company representative shall appear at the administrative conference via telephone. If you fail to appear at the administrative conference, regardless of whether your counsel attends, the AAA will administratively close the arbitration proceeding without prejudice, unless you show good cause as to why you were not able to attend the conference.

The arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. The award shall be binding only among the parties and shall have no preclusive effect in any other arbitration or other proceeding involving a different party. Intuit will not seek to recover its attorneys' fees and costs in arbitration from you unless the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your Claim or the relief sought in your Demand for Arbitration was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)). Judgment on any award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. This agreement to arbitrate shall not preclude any party to the arbitration from at any time seeking injunctions or other forms of equitable relief in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction including whether a Demand for Arbitration is filed in violation of this Agreement.

Unless you or Intuit seek to have a Claim resolved in small claims court, the arbitrator shall determine all issues of liability on the merits of any Claim asserted by you or Intuit and may award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim. To the extent that you or Intuit prevail on a Claim and seek public injunctive relief (that is, injunctive relief that has the primary purpose and effect of prohibiting unlawful acts that threaten future injury to the public), the entitlement to and extent of such relief must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction and not in arbitration. The parties agree that litigation of any issues of public injunctive relief shall be stayed pending the outcome of the merits of any individual Claims in arbitration. Before a court of competent jurisdiction issues any public injunctive relief, it shall review the factual findings of the arbitration award on which any injunction would issue with no deference to the arbitrator.
Payment of all filing, administration and arbitrator fees will be governed by the AAA Rules. You are required to pay AAA's initial filing fee, but Intuit will reimburse you for this filing fee at the conclusion of the arbitration to the extent it exceeds the fee for filing a complaint in a federal or state court in your county of residence or in Santa Clara County, California. If the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your Claim or the relief sought in your Demand for Arbitration was frivolous or was brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)), then the payment of all fees will be governed by the AAA Rules and Intuit will not reimburse your initial filing fee. The parties agree that the AAA has discretion to modify the amount or timing of any administrative or arbitration fees due under the AAA Rules where it deems appropriate, provided that such modification does not increase the AAA fees to you or Intuit, and you and Intuit waive any objection to such fee modification.

You and Intuit agree that each may bring Claims against the other only in your or its individual capacity, and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. Further, if you have elected arbitration, unless both you and Intuit agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate any other person's Claims with your Claims and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. If Intuit believes that any Claim you have filed in arbitration or in court is inconsistent with the limitations in this paragraph, then you agree that Intuit may seek an order from a court determining whether your Claim is within the scope of the Class Action Waiver. If this Class Action Waiver is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this Disputes Section shall be null and void.

General Terms (Miscellaneous)

This Agreement, including any Section B terms, is the entire agreement between you and Intuit and replaces all prior understandings, communications and agreements, oral or written, regarding its subject matter.

Governing Law

The laws of California govern this Agreement and any disputes that may arise.

The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply to this Agreement.

Government End Users of Software

The Software is a "commercial item" as that term is defined in FAR 2.101, consisting of "commercial computer software," as such term is used in FAR 12.212 and DFARS 227.7202. If the Software is being acquired by or on behalf of the U.S. Government, then, as provided in FAR 12.212 and DFARS 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4, as applicable, the U.S. Government's rights in the Software will be only those specified in this Agreement.

Waiver

If we waive some of our rights under this Agreement, it doesn't mean we waive our rights in other circumstances.

Intuit's failure to act or enforce any of its rights does not constitute a waiver of any of our rights. Any waiver by Intuit of any of the provisions in the Agreement must be made in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of Intuit.

Assignment

You can't transfer this Agreement or your right to use the Platform to someone else without our permission.
Intuit may assign or transfer this Agreement to any party at any time without notice to you. You may not assign your rights under this Agreement, by operation of law or otherwise, without our consent. Any attempts to do so without our consent will be void.

Severability

If a court voids a term of this Agreement, the other terms will not be affected.

If any provision of this Agreement is unlawful, void, or unenforceable for any reason, then that provision will be severed and the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

5. ADMINISTRATOR ACCESS AND DISPUTES POLICY AND PROCEDURE

If a person contacts Intuit and requests that he or she should be designated as the Administrator of an account that permits Administrators for any reason (including, but not limited to, due to the death or departure of the registered Administrator, a change in your ownership, etc.), but has not been designated by the current Administrator as a replacement Administrator, Intuit reserves the right to determine, in its sole discretion, and without notice to you, whether that person should be designated as the Administrator.

Disputes sometimes arise between or among multiple persons concerning the right to be designated as the Administrator (including, but not limited to, in the event of a dispute between your owners, etc.). In that instance, Intuit reserves the right to determine, in its sole judgment, and without notice to you, whom should be designated as the Administrator. However, Intuit may be unable, and is not obligated, to resolve any such disputes. If, in Intuit's sole discretion, Intuit attempts, but concludes that it is unable, to determine whom should be designated as the Administrator, Intuit reserves all rights, including, but not limited to, the right to suspend or terminate your account and use of the Services, and/or require a court order to determine the rightful Administrator.

In determining access or whom should be Administrator, Intuit may request and review documentation from the person making the request (including, but not limited to, government-issued photo identification, proof of payment of your subscription, an affidavit, a signed permission letter from your owner, documents showing the successorship of your business or legal documents that tie the request to your business, etc.). You acknowledge and accept the foregoing Administrator access and disputes policy and procedure and hereby release Intuit from all liability and all claims for damages, or any other liability whatsoever, that may arise out of or relate to Intuit following said policy and procedure.

6. THIRD-PARTY COMMUNICATIONS USING MESSAGING SERVICES

Some Services available on the Platform may enable you to send short-code SMS/MMS messages to third-parties, such as your employees, customers, and vendors ("Messaging Services").

You represent and warrant that the owners, which shall include the subscriber and/or authorized user(s), of the phone numbers to which you transmit outbound text messages through the Platform have expressly consented or otherwise opted-in to the receipt of such messages, in accordance with the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, the Telemarketing Sales Rule, and other applicable federal, state, local laws, statutes and regulations, and industry guidelines and best practices, including, but not limited to, the CTIA Short Code Monitoring Handbook and the CTIA Messaging Principles & Best Practices (hereinafter, "Consent(s)"). You will ensure that any and all Consents necessary for such messages have been obtained, including, without limitation, consent for the delivery of transactional, informational, commercial and/or marketing messages.

Intuit may allow, at our discretion, the ability to upload previously opted-in phone numbers to the Platform. You acknowledge and agree that you shall have sole responsibility for obtaining any Consents for uploaded phone numbers and for complying with any terms and/or conditions that may govern or apply to these previously opted-in phone numbers. You agree that you will only import, add, edit, access and otherwise use in connection with the Platform phone numbers with proof, which you shall retain, of Consent to receive communications from You. By uploading and/or messaging any phone number using the Platform, you represent and warrant that you have obtained such Consent for the phone number and further that such Consent is valid at the time you send any message to such phone number. We reserve the right, at our sole and absolute discretion, to suspend or deny access to import functions, to impose a stringent qualification process, to require proof of consent or opt-in method, or to require documentation of your or your organization's legal identity.

You agree that you will not access or otherwise use any third-party list of phone numbers or otherwise engage in unsolicited messaging in connection with the Platform.

You agree that you are responsible for the receipt and implementation of any revocation, opt-out instruction, or "Do-Not-Call" ("DNC") requests for any and all phone numbers uploaded and/or contacted using the Platform, and that it is your sole responsibility to ensure that any such requests are properly documented, including but not limited to placing such phone number(s) on your company-specific DNC list, and honoring such requests immediately. You further agree that you will not initiate any subsequent messages to any phone number after a DNC or other opt-out or revocation request is made in regard to that phone number.

You agree not to send messages to any phone number beyond the frequency or scope represented in any disclosures or terms or in relation to the Consent applicable to such phone number.

You agree to represent truthfully your identity, the identity of your organization, your product(s) or service(s), availability of goods or services, pricing, benefits, and any other offering aspects in your content or messaging.

You are solely responsible for the content of messages you send using the Platform and you agree to comply with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations as well as general industry best practices governing your content. Intuit maintains a no-tolerance policy toward spam.

You agree to Intuit's Anti-Spam Policy: The following terms and information constitute an introduction to the general contours of responsible, permission-based text messaging. This general information is not an exclusive source for applicable laws, guidelines, and compliance responsibilities pertaining to Your use of the Messaging Services. Also, some federal and state laws restrict the hours and days when certain calls can be made.

Before using the Messaging Services, You agree to review and abide by all federal, state, and local laws, statutes and regulations as well as applicable text/SMS/MMS messaging/telecommunications industry guidelines, including, but not limited to, the following laws and guidelines, and to check for any revisions, as they may be amended over time:

- Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA"), 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq., and related regulations, 47 C.F.R. Part 64.1200, et seq;

Report of Independent Auditors

RE/MAX, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of RE/MAX, LLC and subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of income (loss), comprehensive income (loss), member's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with

with confidence

GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Business and Organization

RE/MAX, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Company") is a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of RMCO, LLC ("RMCO" or "Member"). RMCO is a subsidiary of RE/MAX Holdings, Inc. ("Holdings"). Holdings completed an initial public offering (the "IPO") of its shares of Class A common stock on October 7, 2013. Holdings' only business is to act as the sole manager of RMCO. As of December 31, 2025, Holdings owns 61.5% of the common membership units in RMCO, while RIHI, Inc. ("RIHI") owns the remaining 38.5%. The Company's distributions to RMCO and RMCO's subsequent distributions to Holdings are largely used to fund Holdings' distributions to its shareholders, including Holdings dividends and repurchases of common shares. Because of the Company's relationship as a wholly owned subsidiary of RMCO, the accompanying consolidated financial statements do not purport to reflect the results of operations and financial position which might have been obtained if the Company were autonomous.

The Company is one of the world's leading franchisors in the real estate industry, franchising real estate brokerages globally under the REMAX brand ("REMAX") and mortgage brokerages within the United States ("U.S.") under the Motto Mortgage brand ("Motto"). The Company also sells ancillary products and services to its franchise networks, including marketing services, technology platforms, and mortgage loan processing services to its Motto network and third parties through its wemlo brand and advertisements on and lead generation services from its flagship websites www.remax.com and www.remax.ca. The Company focuses on enabling its networks' success by providing quality education, innovative technology products, valuable marketing tools and initiatives, and by leveraging the Company's size and scale to continue to build and enhance the competitive advantages of the REMAX and Motto brands. The Company's focus on operational excellence and delivering the best experience in everything real estate remains unwavering, as the Company continues to invest in tools and programs that help affiliates win more business, save time and build more profitable businesses.

REMAX was founded in 1973 and its strategy is to sell franchises and help those franchisees recruit and retain the best agents. The REMAX brand is built on the strength of the Company's global franchise network and its ability to attract, develop and retain the best-performing and most experienced agents. Additionally, the Company continues to focus on growth and development through the adoption of powerful tools and technologies.

Motto, founded in 2016, offers U.S. real estate brokers, real estate professionals and other investors access to the mortgage brokerage business. Motto is highly complementary to the REMAX real estate business and is designed to provide diversified revenue and income streams to real estate professionals. Motto franchisees offer potential homebuyers an opportunity to find both real estate agents and independent Motto loan originators at the same location or at offices near each other.

> REMAX and Motto are 100% franchised—the Company does not own any of the brokerages that operate under these brands.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements ("financial statements") and notes thereto have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") and include the accounts of RE/MAX, LLC and its consolidated subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. In the opinion of management, the accompanying financial statements reflect all normal and recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the results of its operations and comprehensive income (loss), changes in its member's equity and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the accompanying financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

Management evaluated the activity of the Company through March 25, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were issued and concluded that, other than the litigation settlement discussed further in Note 11, Commitments and Contingencies, no additional subsequent events have occurred that would require recognition in the financial statements or disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

The Company generates most of its revenue from contracts with customers. The Company's franchise agreements offer the following benefits to the franchisee: common use and promotion of REMAX and Motto trademarks; distinctive sales and promotional materials; access to technology; marketing tools and education; standardized supplies and other materials used in REMAX and Motto offices; recommended procedures for operation of REMAX and Motto offices; and specifically for Motto franchisees, access to a variety of quality loan options from multiple leading wholesale lenders. The Company concluded that these benefits are highly related and all part of one performance obligation for each franchise agreement, a license of symbolic intellectual property that is billed through a variety of fees including continuing franchise fees, annual dues, broker fees, marketing funds fees and franchise sales, described below. The Company has other performance obligations associated with contracts with customers in other revenue for education, marketing and events, subscription revenue, loan processing revenue, advertising revenue and revenue from marketing as a service ("MaaS"). The method used to measure progress is over the passage of time for most streams of revenue. The following is a description of principal activities from which the Company generates its revenue.

Continuing Franchise Fees

Continuing franchise fees are fixed contractual fees paid monthly (a) by regional franchise owners in Independent Regions or franchisees in Company-Owned Regions based on the number of REMAX agents in the respective franchised region or office or (b) by Motto franchisees based on the number of open offices. Motto offices reach the full monthly billing once the Motto office has been open for 12 months. Continuing franchise fees are recognized in the month for which the fee is billed and are a usage-based royalty as they are dependent on the number of REMAX agents or the number of Motto open offices.

Annual Dues

Annual dues are a fixed membership fee paid annually by REMAX agents directly to the Company. The Company defers the annual dues revenue when billed and recognizes the revenue ratably over the 12-month period to which it relates. See the "Deferred Revenue" section below for a reconciliation of the activity in the Company's deferred revenue for annual dues. Annual dues revenue is a usage-based royalty as it is dependent on the number of REMAX agents.

Broker Fees

Broker fees are assessed against real estate commissions paid by customers when a REMAX agent buys or sells a property. Generally, the amount paid is 1% of the total commission on the transaction in most regions. Revenue from broker fees is a sales-based royalty and recognized in the month when a home sale transaction occurs.

Agents in Company-Owned Regions who joined REMAX prior to 2004, the year the Company began assessing broker fees, are generally "grandfathered" and continue to be exempt from paying a broker fee. Certain agents in Canada do not pay broker fees. As of December 31, 2025, approximately 22% of agents in the U.S. and Canada Company-owned Regions did not pay broker fees. Motto franchisees do not pay any fees based on the number or dollar value of loans brokered.

The Company has pricing components that cap broker fees at certain commission levels. If a franchise agreement includes a capped broker fee plan, the sales- and-usage-based royalty exception is no longer valid. Therefore, revenue from any agent, even agents on a traditional plan, that operates under a franchise agreement with a capped broker fee is estimated and recognized ratably over the year.

Marketing Funds Fees

Marketing Funds fees are fixed contractual fees paid monthly by franchisees based on the number of REMAX agents in the respective franchised region or office or the number of Motto offices. These revenues are obligated to be used for marketing campaigns to build brand awareness and to support agent marketing technology. Amounts received into the Marketing Funds are recognized as revenue in the month for which the fee is billed. This revenue is a usage-based royalty as it is dependent on the number of REMAX agents or number of Motto offices.

All assets of the Marketing Funds are contractually restricted for the benefit of franchisees, and the Company recognizes an equal and offsetting liability on the Company's balance sheet for all amounts received. Additionally, this results in recording an equal and offsetting amount of expenses, against all revenues such that there is no impact to overall profitability of the Company from these revenues. In addition, advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Franchise Sales

Franchise sales comprises revenue from the sale or renewal of franchises. A fee is charged upon a franchise sale or renewal. Those fees are deemed to be a part of the license of symbolic intellectual property and are recognized as revenue over the contractual term of the franchise agreement, which is typically 5 years for REMAX and 7 years for Motto franchise agreements. See the "Deferred Revenue" section below for a reconciliation of the activity in the Company's deferred revenue for franchise sales.

Other Revenue

Other revenue is primarily from:

- Event-based revenue from education and other programs, which is recognized when the event occurs and until then amounts collected are included in "Deferred revenue".
- Data service subscription revenue, which is recognized when the control of the products or services has transferred to the customer, which may occur at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the contract.
- Preferred marketing arrangements, which involves both flat fees paid in advance as well as revenue sharing, both of which are generally recognized over the period of the arrangement and are recorded net as the Company does not control the good or service provided.
- Technology products and subscription revenue, which charges a monthly fee to its customers or a periodic fee to agents who use the products or services.
- Mortgage loan processing revenue, which charges a flat fee per transaction which is recognized when a loan is closed.
- Advertising revenue is generated through advertisements, media and sponsorship sales via our websites. Revenue is recognized as ads are delivered based on the number of clicks or impressions and is recorded net of any commissions paid to advertising agencies, as applicable, as the Company does not control the good or service provided.
- MaaS is a centralized data-driven marketing platform that enables affiliates, such as brokers, owners, agents, and teams, to efficiently launch marketing campaigns. Revenue is generated from affiliate spend on marketing services within the platform and is recognized on a gross basis, as the Company controls the goods or services provided.

Deferred Revenue and Capitalized Contract Costs

Deferred revenue is primarily driven by Franchise sales and Annual dues, as discussed above, and is included in "Deferred revenue" and "Deferred revenue, net of current portion" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Other deferred revenue is primarily related to event-based revenue. The activity consists of the following (in thousands):

Services Provided to the Marketing Funds

The Company's real estate operating subsidiaries charge the Marketing Funds for various services it performs. These services are primarily comprised of (a) building and maintaining the remax.com and remax.ca websites, (b) agent and consumer-facing technology via the BoldTrail platform, (c) dedicated employees focused on consumer-facing marketing initiatives, and (d) various administrative services including customer support of technology, accounting and legal.

(a) During the year ended 2023, the Company determined that certain development projects were no longer needed and therefore $0.2 million, reflecting the cost of work in process assets that would no longer be placed in service, was refunded to the marketing funds.

Selling, Operating and Administrative Expenses

Selling, operating and administrative expenses primarily consist of personnel costs, including salaries, benefits, payroll taxes and other compensation expenses, professional fees, lease costs, as well as expenses for outsourced technology services and expenses for marketing to customers, to expand the Company's franchises.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of financial instruments, net of any allowances, including cash equivalents, accounts and notes receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

Accounts and Notes Receivable

Accounts receivable arising from monthly billings do not bear interest. The Company provides limited financing of certain franchise sales through the issuance of notes receivable with the associated interest recorded in "Interest income" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). Amounts collected on notes receivable are included in "Net cash provided by operating activities" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the current portion of notes receivable was approximately $3.1 million, respectively, and are recorded as a component of "Accounts and notes receivable, net of allowances" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company records estimates of expected credit losses against its accounts and notes receivable based on historical experience, the credit quality of specific accounts, and general economic conditions that affect the Company's performance, including changes in interest rates or the number of existing home sales, which are expected to impact the performance of its franchisees, agents and loan originators. These changes are included as a component of "Selling, operating and administrative expenses" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

The activity in the Company's allowances against accounts and notes receivable consists of the following (in thousands):

	Balance at beginning of period	Charges to expense for changes in Allowance for doubtful accounts[(a)]	Write-offs	Balance at end of period
Year Ended December 31, 2025	$ 11,208	$ 3,278	$ (1,867)	$ 12,619

(a) Includes approximately $1.0 million, $0.4 million and $1.8 million of expense attributable to the Marketing Funds for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income (Loss) and Foreign Currency Translation

Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) includes all changes in equity during a period that have yet to be recognized in income, except those resulting from transactions with stockholders and is comprised of foreign currency translation adjustments.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company, directly and through its franchisees, conducted operations in over 120 countries and territories, including the U.S. and Canada. The functional currency for the Company's operations is the U.S. dollar, except for its Canadian subsidiaries for which it is the Canadian Dollar.

Assets and liabilities of the Canadian subsidiaries are translated at the spot rate in effect at the applicable reporting date, and the consolidated statements of income (loss) and cash flows are translated at the average exchange rates in effect during the applicable period. Exchange rate fluctuations on translating consolidated foreign currency financial statements into U.S. dollars that result in unrealized gains or losses are referred to as translation adjustments. Cumulative translation adjustments are recorded as a component of "Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)," and periodic changes are included in comprehensive income (loss). Were the Company to sell a part or all of its investment in a foreign entity resulting in the complete or substantially complete liquidation of the foreign entity in which the subsidiary or group of assets had resided, it would release any related cumulative translation adjustment into net income (loss).

Foreign currency denominated monetary assets and liabilities and transactions occurring in currencies other than the Company's or the Company's consolidated foreign subsidiaries' functional currencies are recorded based on exchange rates at the time such transactions arise. Changes in exchange rates with respect to amounts recorded in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets related to these non-functional currency transactions result in transaction gains and losses that are reflected in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) as "Foreign currency transaction (losses) gains."

Other Current Assets and Other Assets, Net of Current Portion

Other current assets and Other assets, net of current portion consist of the following (in thousands):

	As of December 31,
	2025	2024
Prepaid expenses	$ 9,807	$ 11,727
Capitalized contract costs	1,055	1,008
Other	413	380
Other current assets	$ 11,275	$ 13,115
Capitalized contract costs	$ 3,263	$ 2,545
Notes receivable, net of current portion	1,791	1,873
Other	1,251	1,147
Other assets, net of current portion	$ 6,305	$ 5,565

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment, including leasehold improvements, are initially recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided for on a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of each asset class and commences when the property is placed in service. Amortization of leasehold improvements is provided for on a straight-line method over the estimated benefit period of the related assets or the lease term, if shorter.

Franchise Agreements and Other Intangible Assets

The Company's franchise agreements result from franchise rights acquired from Independent Region acquisitions and are initially recorded at fair value. The Company amortizes the franchise agreements over their estimated useful life on a straight-line basis.

The Company also purchases and develops software for internal use. Software development costs and upgrade and enhancement costs incurred during the application development stage that result in additional functionality are capitalized. Costs incurred during the preliminary project and post-implementation operation stages are expensed as incurred. Capitalized software costs are generally amortized over a term of two to five years. Purchased software licenses are amortized over their estimated useful lives.

The Company reviews its franchise agreements and other intangible assets subject to amortization for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is assessed by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset group to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated from such asset. If not recoverable, the excess of the carrying amount of an asset over its estimated discounted cash flows would be charged to operations as an impairment loss. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, there were no impairments indicated for such assets.

Goodwill

Goodwill is an asset representing the future economic benefits arising from the other assets acquired in a business combination that are not individually identified and separately recognized. The Company assesses goodwill for impairment at least annually at the reporting unit level or whenever an event occurs that would indicate impairment may have occurred. Reporting units are driven by the level at which management reviews operating results. The Company performs its required impairment testing annually on October 1.

The Company's impairment assessment begins with a qualitative assessment to determine if it is more likely than not that a reporting unit's fair value is less than the carrying amount. The initial qualitative assessment includes comparing the overall financial performance of the reporting units against the planned results as well as other factors which might indicate that the reporting unit's value has declined since the last assessment date. If it is determined in the qualitative assessment that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value, then the standard two-step quantitative impairment test is performed. The impairment test consists of comparing the estimated fair value of each reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The fair value of a reporting unit is determined by forecasting results and applying an assumed discount rate to determine fair value as of the test date. If the estimated fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying value, then it is not considered impaired and no further analysis is required. Goodwill impairment exists when the estimated implied fair value of a reporting unit's goodwill is less than its carrying value.

During 2023, the Company recorded a goodwill impairment on its Mortgage reporting unit. See Note 5, Intangible Assets and Goodwill, for additional information.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. The Company is a "flow-through" entity for tax purposes. As such, U.S. federal and state income taxes on net domestic taxable earnings are the obligation of the Company's member. Accordingly, no provision for U.S. income taxes has been made in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for the direct income of the Company. In contrast to most of the Company's domestic operations, the Company has three subsidiaries that are taxable entities (not flow through), comprised of a pre-existing Canadian subsidiary and two subsidiaries acquired in 2021, one in Canada and one in the U.S. Income taxes incurred by these subsidiaries are recorded in the "Provision for income taxes" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income. In addition, the "Provision for income taxes" includes foreign withholding taxes on franchise sales and continuing franchise fees.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Management periodically assesses the recoverability of its deferred tax assets based upon expected future earnings, future deductibility of the asset and changes in applicable tax laws and other factors. If management determines that it is not likely that the deferred tax asset will be fully recoverable in the future, a valuation allowance may be established for the difference between the asset balance and the amount expected to be recoverable in the future. The allowance will result in a charge to the Company's Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

The Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. The Company's operating lease agreements are primarily for corporate office space and are included within "Operating lease right of use assets", "Operating lease liabilities" and "Operating lease liabilities, net of current portion' on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company's lease liabilities represent the obligation to make lease payments arising from the leases and right of use ("ROU") assets are recognized as an offset at lease inception. ROU assets and lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. Variable lease payments consist of non-lease services related to the lease. Variable lease payments are excluded from the ROU assets and lease liabilities and are recognized in the period in which the obligation for those payments is incurred. As most of the Company's leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. Many of the Company's lessee agreements include options to extend the lease, which is not included in the minimum lease terms unless they are reasonably certain to be exercised. Lease cost expense for lease payments related to operating leases (which is substantially all of the Company's leases) is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is recorded to "Selling, operating and administrative expenses' in the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

The Company has made an accounting policy election not to recognize ROU assets and lease liabilities that arise from any of its short-term leases. All leases with a term of 12 months or less at commencement, for which the Company is not reasonably certain to exercise available renewal options that would extend the lease term past 12 months, are recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Restructuring Charges

During 2025, the Company restructured its support services intended to further enhance the overall customer experience. As a result, the Company incurred $2.7 million of severance and related expenses and an equity compensation benefit of $0.4 million, which are recognized as “Selling, operating and administrative expenses” in the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). See Note 6, Accrued Liabilities, for a roll forward of the liability.

During the fourth quarter of 2024, the Company restructured its support services intended to further enhance the overall customer experience. As a result of this restructuring, for the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company incurred $1.3 million of severance and related expenses and accelerated equity compensation expense of $0.3 million, which are recognized as “Selling, operating and administrative expenses” in the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). See Note 6, Accrued Liabilities, for a roll forward of the liability.

During the third quarter of 2023, the Company announced a reduction in force and reorganization (the “Reorganization”) intended to streamline the Company’s operations and yield cost savings over the long term. The Reorganization reduced the Company’s overall workforce by approximately 7% and was substantially complete by the end of the third quarter. As a result of the Reorganization, the Company incurred a pre-tax cash charge for one-time termination benefits of severance and related costs of $4.3 million and accelerated equity compensation expense of $0.5 million, which are recognized as “Selling, operating and administrative expenses” in the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). See Note 6, Accrued Liabilities, for a roll forward of the liability.

Equity-Based Compensation

The Company recognizes compensation expense associated with equity-based compensation as a component of “Selling, operating and administrative expenses” in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). All equity-based compensation is required to be measured at fair value on or just prior to the date of grant and is expensed over the requisite service period, generally over three-years, and forfeitures are accounted for as they occur. The Company recognizes compensation expense on awards on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period for the entire award. See Note 10*, Equity-Based Compensation*, for additional discussion regarding details of the Company’s equity-based compensation plans.

Severance and Retirement Plan

On December 2, 2025, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors modified the Severance and Retirement Plan previously adopted by the Company on May 24, 2023 (the “Plan”). The Plan provides benefits to eligible employees and executive officers of RE/MAX, LLC and its subsidiaries, in the event of (i) involuntary termination of their employment due to position elimination, reduction in force, or other circumstances that the employer determines should result in payment of benefits, or (ii) voluntary termination of employment due to retirement for employees who meet the retirement eligibility criteria in the Plan, subject in both cases to certain restrictions set forth in the Plan. In the case of involuntary termination, these benefits include salary continuation, a health benefits stipend, outplacement services and a possible pro-rated bonus. In the case of retirement, these benefits include modification of vesting of restricted stock awards (for employees who are eligible for restricted stock awards) and a possible pro-rated bonus. Any associated equity compensation expense will be accelerated through the employee's retirement eligibility date.

Foreign Currency Derivatives

The Company is exposed to foreign currency transaction gains and losses related to certain foreign currency denominated asset and liability positions, with the Canadian dollar representing the most significant exposure primarily from an intercompany Canadian loan between RMCO and the Canadian entity for INTEGRA. The Company uses short duration foreign currency forward contracts, generally with maturities ranging from a few days to a few months, to minimize its exposures related to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. None of these contracts are designated as accounting hedges as the underlying currency positions are revalued through “Foreign currency transaction gains (losses)” on the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) along with the related derivative contracts. Maturities of the foreign currency forward contracts are included within “Net cash provided by operating activities” on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows, with any non-cash portion included as a component of “Changes in operating assets and liabilities - Other assets and liabilities" on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized a net loss of $1.0 million, a net gain of $3.5 million and a net loss of $1.1 million, respectively, on the derivative contracts.

The Company had a short-term $44.0 million Canadian dollar forward contract that matures in the first quarter of 2026 that net settles in U.S. dollar based on the prevailing spot rates at maturity.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

None.

New Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740) – Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, which requires greater disaggregation of income tax disclosures related to the income tax reconciliation and income taxes paid. The amendments improve the transparency of income tax disclosures by requiring (1) consistent categories and greater disaggregation of information in the rate reconciliation and (2) income taxes paid disaggregated by jurisdiction. For entities other than public business entities, the new standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2025, and early adoption is permitted. The Company believes the amendments of ASU 2023-09 will not have a significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements and will include all required disclosures upon adoption.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-06, Intangibles (Topic 350) – Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software ("ASU 2025-06"), which clarifies and modernizes the accounting for costs related to internal-use software. The amendments remove all references to project stages in Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 350-40 and clarify the threshold entities should apply to begin capitalizing costs. The new standard is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The amendments can be applied using a prospective, retrospective, or modified transition approach. The Company believes the amendments of ASU 2025-06 will not have a significant impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements or required disclosures.

3. Leases

The Company leases corporate offices, a distribution center, billboards and certain equipment. The Company's only significant lease is for its corporate headquarters office building (the "Headquarters Lease") and expires in 2028. The Company pays an annual base rent that escalates 3% each year and the Headquarters Lease has two 10-year optional renewal periods at the Company's discretion, which is not reasonably certain to be exercised in 2028. The Company also acts as the lessor for six sublease agreements on the Headquarters Lease, each of which include a renewal option for the lessee to extend the length of the lease, with varying options to renew. The Company does not recognize leases for any offices used by the Company's franchisees as all franchisees are independently owned and operated.

A summary of the Company's lease cost is as follows (in thousands, except for weighted averages):

Impairment charge - goodwill

The Company assesses goodwill for impairment at least annually or whenever an event occurs, or circumstances change that would indicate impairment may have occurred at the reporting unit level. Reporting units are driven by the level at which management reviews operating results. The Company did not record any goodwill impairments for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

During the fourth quarter of 2023, the Company tested and identified impairment indicators associated with the Mortgage reporting unit, primarily due to a decline in projected net cash flows resulting from continued macroeconomic pressures and revised franchise sales forecasts. Therefore, the Company fully impaired the reporting unit's goodwill and recorded a non-cash impairment charge of $18.6 million in "Settlement and impairment charges" in the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

(b) Represents the settlement payable as part of the settlements of certain industry class-action lawsuits and other legal settlements. Settlement payables that are transacted in Canadian dollars have been translated into U.S. dollars at the balance sheet date. As of December 31,

Senior Secured Credit Facility

On July 21, 2021, the Company amended and restated its credit agreement with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and various lenders party thereto (the "Senior Secured Credit Facility') to refinance its previous facility. The revised facility provides for a seven-year $460.0 million term loan facility which matures on July 21, 2028; and a $50.0 million revolving loan facility, which was amended on September 30, 2025, to extend the maturity from July 21, 2026 to April 21, 2028, if any amounts are drawn.

The Senior Secured Credit Facility requires the Company to repay term loans at approximately $1.2 million per quarter. The Company is also required to repay the term loans and reduce revolving commitments with (i) 100% of proceeds of any incurrence of additional debt not permitted by the Senior Secured Credit Facility, (ii) 100% of proceeds of asset sales and 100% of amounts recovered under insurance policies, subject to certain exceptions and a reinvestment right and (iii) 50% of Excess Cash Flow (or "ECF") as defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility, at the end of the applicable fiscal year if RE/MAX, LLC's Total Leverage Ratio (or "TLR") as defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility, is in excess of 4.25:1. If the Company's TLR as of the last day of such fiscal year is equal to or less than 4.25:1 but above 3.75:1, the repayment percentage is 25% of ECF and if the Company's TLR as of the last day of such fiscal year is less than 3.75:1, no repayment from ECF is required. As of December 31, 2025, no ECF payment was required because the Company's TLR was below 3.75:1.

The Senior Secured Credit Facility provides for customary restrictions on, among other things, additional indebtedness, liens, dispositions of property, dividends, share repurchases, other distributions, transactions with affiliates and fundamental changes such as mergers, consolidations, and liquidations. In general, the Company can make unlimited restricted payments – including dividends and share repurchases – if the Company's TLR does not exceed 3.50:1 (both before and after giving effect to such payments). If the Company's TLR exceeds 3.50:1, the Company will be generally limited in the amount of restricted payments it can make up to the greater of $50 million or 50% of RE/MAX LLC's consolidated EBITDA on a trailing twelve-month basis (unless the Company relies on other restricted payment baskets available under the Senior Secured Credit Facility).

The Company calculates TLR quarterly and it is based on RE/MAX, LLC's consolidated indebtedness and consolidated EBITDA on a trailing twelve-month basis, both defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility. For the twelve-month period ending December 31, 2025, RE/MAX, LLC's consolidated EBITDA, as defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility, was $94.1 million and as of December 31, 2025, the Company's TLR was 3.40:1.

With certain exceptions, any default under any of the Company's other agreements evidencing indebtedness in the amount of $15.0 million or more constitutes an event of default under the Senior Secured Credit Facility.

Prior to July 2023, borrowings under the term loans and revolving loans accrued interest, at the Company's option on (a) LIBOR, provided LIBOR was no less than 0.50% plus an applicable margin of 2.50% and, provided further that such rate was adjusted for reserve requirements for eurocurrency liabilities, if any (the "LIBOR Rate") or (b) the greatest of (i) the prime rate that was quoted by the Wall Street Journal, (ii) the NYFRB Rate (as defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility) plus 0.50% and (iii) the one-month Eurodollar Rate plus 1.00%, (such greatest rate, the "ABR") plus, in each case, an applicable margin of 1.50%.

After July 2023, due to the transition away from LIBOR, borrowings under the term loans and revolving loans accrue interest, at the Company's option on (a) the adjusted forward-looking term rate based on the Term Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("Adjusted Term SOFR"), provided if the Adjusted Term SOFR would be less than 0.50%, the Adjusted Term SOFR shall be deemed to be 0.50%, plus an applicable margin of 2.50% or (b) the greatest of (i) the prime rate as quoted by the Wall Street Journal, (ii) the NYFRB Rate (as defined in the Senior Secured Credit Facility) plus 0.50% and (iii) the one-month Adjusted Term SOFR plus 1.00%, (such greatest rate, the "ABR"), provided if the ABR would be less than 1.50%, ABR shall be deemed to be 1.50%, plus in each case, an applicable margin of 1.50%. As of December 31, 2025, the interest rate on the term loan facility was 6.3%.

If any amounts are drawn on the $50 million revolving line of credit as of the last day of any fiscal quarter, the terms of the Company's Senior Secured Credit Facility require the Company's TLR to not exceed 4.50:1 as of the last day of four consecutive fiscal quarters. As a result, as long as the Company's TLR remains below 4.50:1, access to borrowings under the revolving line of credit will not be restricted. A commitment fee of 0.5% per annum (subject to reductions) accrues on the amount of unutilized revolving line of credit regardless of the Company's TLR. As of the date of this report, no amounts were drawn on the revolving line of credit.

8. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that is determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering assumptions, the Company follows a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

- Level 1: Quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets.
- Level 2: Quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and model-derived valuations, in which all significant inputs are observable in active markets. The fair value of the Company's debt reflects a Level 2 measurement and was estimated based on quoted prices for the Company's debt instruments in an inactive market.

- Level 3: Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions. Level 3 liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis consist of the Company's contingent consideration related to the acquisition of Motto.

A summary of the Company's liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis is as follows (in thousands):

	As of December 31, 2025				As of December 31, 2024
	Fair Value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Fair Value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Liabilities - Contingent consideration [(a)]	$ 1,275	$ —	$ —	$ 1,275	$ 2,175	$ —	$ —	$ 2,175

(a) Recorded as a component of "Accounts payable", "Accrued liabilities" and "Other liabilities, net of current portion" in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company is required to pay additional purchase consideration totaling 8% of gross receipts collected by Motto each year (the "Revenue Share Year") through September 30, 2026, with no limitation as to the maximum payout. The annual payment is required to be made within 120 days of the end of each Revenue Share Year. The fair value of the contingent purchase consideration represents the forecasted discounted cash payments that the Company expects to pay. Increases or decreases in the fair value of the contingent purchase consideration can result from changes in discount rates as well as the timing and amount of forecasted revenues. The forecasted revenue growth assumption that is most sensitive is the assumed franchise sales count for which the forecast assumes 30 franchise sales in the final Revenue Share Year. This assumption is based on historical sales and an assumption of growth over time. A 10% reduction in the number of franchise sales and a 1% change to the discount rate applied to the forecast would not substantially change the liability. As of December 31, 2025, the Company does not anticipate making any further cash payments for contingent consideration associated with the acquisition of Gadberry Group. The Company measures these liabilities each reporting period and recognizes changes in fair value, if any, in "Selling, operating and administrative expenses" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

The table below presents a reconciliation of the contingent consideration (in thousands):

	Total
Balance at January 1, 2024	$ 2,760
Fair value adjustments	(225)
Cash payments	(360)
Balance at January 1, 2025	$ 2,175
Fair value adjustments	(109)
Cash payments	(791)
Balance at December 31, 2025	$ 1,275

The Company assesses categorization of assets and liabilities by level at each measurement date, and transfers between levels are recognized on the actual date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer. There were no transfers between Levels I, II and III during the year ended December 31, 2025.

The following table summarizes the carrying value and estimated fair value of the Senior Secured Credit Facility (in thousands):

	December 31, 2025		December 31, 2024
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value Level 2	Carrying Amount	Fair Value Level 2
Senior Secured Credit Facility	$ 436,751	$ 432,711	$ 440,843	$ 435,022

9. Income Taxes

As a "flow through" entity for tax purposes, the Company's member is responsible for the substantial majority of taxes on the Company's earnings, accordingly, no provision for U.S. income taxes on those earnings has been made. The Company has certain subsidiaries and foreign income that are taxable, which represent the entirety of the Company's tax provision. For the income subject to tax, the difference to U.S. statutory rates would be attributable to the difference between U.S. and foreign tax rates. Income taxes incurred on those earnings are recorded in the "Provision for income taxes" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) and consist of the following (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Current expense	$ 7,005	$ 7,217	$ 6,511
Deferred benefit	(341)	(2,102)	(1,571)
Provision for income taxes	$ 6,664	$ 5,115	$ 4,940

Deferred Tax Liabilities

Deferred tax liabilities relate to temporary differences on goodwill and intangibles from the acquisition of INTEGRA's U.S. and Canadian subsidiaries.

Uncertain Tax Positions

In 2021 as part of the INTEGRA acquisition, the Company assumed an uncertain tax position related to certain U.S. tax matters and also recorded a largely offsetting related indemnification asset.

In 2023, 2024 and 2025, a portion of the uncertain tax position and related indemnification asset assumed in connection with the INTEGRA acquisition were reversed as a result of lapse of applicable statute of limitations. As of December 31, 2025 there is no remaining reserve for uncertain tax positions.

Uncertain tax position liabilities represent the aggregate tax effect of differences between the tax return positions and the amounts otherwise recognized in the consolidated financial statements and are recognized in "Income taxes payable" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. A reconciliation of the beginning and ending amount, excluding interest and penalties is as follows:

	As of December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Balance, January 1	$ 30	$ 258	$ 1,014
Decrease related to prior year tax positions	(30)	(228)	(756)
Balance, December 31 [(a)]	$ —	$ 30	$ 258

(a) Excludes accrued interest and penalties of $0.1 million for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024. As of December 31, 2025, there is no accrued interest and penalties. Interest and penalties are recognized in "Income taxes payable" within the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

10. Equity-Based Compensation

During the second quarter of 2023, Holdings stockholders approved a new Holdings 2023 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the "2023 Incentive Plan"), that became effective immediately upon approval, superseding the prior 2013 Incentive Plan (the "2013 Incentive Plan"). The 2023 Incentive Plan along with the 2013 Incentive Plan (collectively referred to as the "Incentive Plan"), include restrictive stock units which may have time-based or performance-based vesting criteria. In addition, during the fourth quarter of 2023, pursuant to the inducement award exception under New York Stock Exchange Rule 303A.08, the Board of Directors approved equity grants to the Company's newly appointed CEO ("2023 CEO Grants") which have both time-based and performance-based vesting criteria.

The Company recognizes equity-based compensation expense in "Selling, operating and administrative expenses" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss). The Company recognizes corporate income tax benefits relating to the vesting of restricted stock units in "Provision for income taxes" in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss).

Employee stock-based compensation expense under the Company's Incentive Plan is as follows (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31,
	2025	2024	2023
Expense from time-based awards [(a)]	$ 8,704	$ 9,836	$ 11,163
Expense from performance-based awards [(a)(b)]	3,235	2,801	3,545
Expense from bonus to be settled in Holdings Class A common stock [(c)]	3,589	4,916	3,398
Equity-based compensation expense	$ 15,528	$ 17,553	$ 18,106

(a) Includes $0.7 million of expense recognized for time-based awards and $0.6 million of expense recognized for performance-based awards, for the year ended December 31, 2025, for inducement awards granted to the Company's CEO, Erik Carlson, in the fourth quarter of 2023, and two additional employees hired during the second half of 2025. As of December 31, 2025, 804,311 restricted stock units remain outstanding assuming maximum achievement of the CEO performance awards.
(b) Expense recognized for performance-based awards is re-assessed each quarter based on expectations of achievement against the performance conditions.
(c) A portion of the annual corporate bonus earned is to be settled in shares. These amounts are recognized as "Accrued liabilities" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and are not included in "Additional paid-in capital" until the shares are issued.

11. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is subject to litigation claims arising in the ordinary course of business. Litigation and other disputes are inherently unpredictable and subject to substantial uncertainties. The Company believes that it has adequately accrued for legal matters as appropriate. The Company records litigation accruals for legal matters which are both probable and estimable and for related legal costs as incurred.

U.S. Antitrust Litigation and Settlement

Beginning in March 2019, multiple putative class actions were filed against the National Association of Realtors ("NAR"), or in one case a multiple listing service ("MLS") defendant rather than NAR, RE/MAX, LLC, and other real estate companies, alleging that certain NAR rules (or MLS rules) violated federal and state antitrust laws by inflating broker commissions. The complaints make substantially similar allegations and seek substantially similar relief. Plaintiffs generally allege that NAR's rule requiring listing brokers to make a blanket, non-negotiable offer of buyer broker compensation results in increased costs to sellers and violates antitrust law. They further allege that certain defendants use their agreements with franchisees to require adherence to the NAR rule also in violation of antitrust law. Amended complaints added allegations of buyer steering and non-disclosure of buyer-broker compensation. The cases listed below, along with the Copycat Cases (defined below), are collectively referred to as the "Moehrl-related antitrust litigations."

- Christopher Moehrl et al. v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, The Long & Foster Companies, Inc. RE/MAX, LLC., and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., filed on March 6, 2019 in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

- Scott and Rhonda Burnett et al. v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., filed on April 29, 2019 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Missouri.

- Jennifer Nosalek et al. v. MLS Property Information Network, Inc., Anywhere Real Estate Inc. (f/k/a Realogy Holdings Corp.), Century 21 Real Estate LLC, Coldwell Banker Real Estate LLC, Sotheby's International Realty Affiliates LLC, Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate LLC, ERA Franchise System LLC, HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, Polzler & Schneider Holdings Corp., Integra Enterprises Corp., RE/MAX of New England, Inc., RE/MAX Integrated Regions, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., filed on December 17, 2020 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

On October 5, 2023, RE/MAX, LLC entered into a nationwide settlement agreement (the "U.S. Settlement Agreement") to resolve all claims in the Burnett and Moehrl cases and similar claims on a nationwide class basis (collectively, the "Nationwide Claims"). The U.S. Settlement Agreement would release REMAX, LLC and the Company, their subsidiaries and affiliates, and REMAX sub-franchisors, franchisees and their sales associates in the United States from the Nationwide Claims. By the terms of the U.S. Settlement Agreement, RE/MAX, LLC agreed to implement specified business practice changes and pay $55.0 million (the "U.S. Settlement Amount") into a qualified settlement escrow fund

(the "U.S. Settlement Fund"). The Company used available cash to fund the payment and recorded the U.S. Settlement Amount to "Settlement and impairment charges" within the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) and recognized a corresponding liability in "Accrued liabilities" within the Consolidated Balance Sheets during 2023. Until the conclusion of the appeals process, amounts paid into the escrow fund are classified as "Restricted cash" within the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The U.S. Settlement Agreement and any actions taken to carry out the U.S. Settlement Agreement are not an admission or concession of liability, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or point of fact or law on the part of any party. RE/MAX, LLC continues to deny the material allegations of the complaints in the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations and the Copycat Cases (as defined below). RE/MAX, LLC entered into the settlement after considering the risks and costs of continuing the litigation. On May 9, 2024 the court granted final approval of the U.S. Settlement Agreement. Appeals were subsequently filed in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, including by a plaintiff in the Batton Action (defined below). The U.S. Settlement Agreement will become effective if the order approving the U.S. Settlement Agreement is affirmed at the conclusion of the appeals process.

Mya Batton et al. v. The National Association of Realtors, Realogy Holdings Corp., HomeServices of America, Inc., BHH Affiliates, LLC, HSF Affiliates, LLC, The Long & Foster Companies, Inc., RE/MAX, LLC, and Keller Williams Realty, Inc., filed on January 25, 2021 in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Copycat lawsuits to the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations were later filed by plaintiff Monty March in the Southern District of New York (the "March Action"), plaintiff Christina Grace in the Northern District of California (the "Grace Action"), and plaintiff Willsim Latham, LLC in the Eastern District of California (the "Willsim Action") (together the "Copycat Cases"). The Copycat Cases are stayed pending resolution of the appeal of the U.S. Settlement Agreement. The Company intends to vigorously defend against all claims. The Copycat Cases that name the Company consist of:

Bay Area Real Estate Information Services, Inc.; Marin Association of Realtors; North Bay Association of Realtors; Northern Solano County Association of Realtors, Inc.; Solano Association of Realtors, Inc.; RE/MAX Holdings, Inc.; Anywhere Real Estate Inc.; Vanguard Properties, Inc.; Twin Oaks Real Estate, Inc.; Windermere Real Estate Services Company Inc.; Rapisarda & Fox, Inc.; Realty ONE Group, Inc.; Keller Williams Realty, Inc.; Compass, Inc.; and eXp World Holdings, Inc., filed on December 8, 2023 in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California.

Willsim Latham, LLC v. MetroList Services, Inc., Sacramento Association of Realtors, Inc., Placer County Association of Realtors, Inc., El Dorado County Association of Realtors, Lodi Association of Realtors, Yolo County Association of Realtors, Central Valley Association of Realtors, Amador County Association of Realtors, Nevada County Association of Realtors, Sutter-Yuba Association of Realtors, RE/MAX Holdings, Inc., Anywhere Real Estate Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., eXp World Holdings, Inc., Norcal Gold Inc., Century 21 Select Real Estate, Inc., William L. Lyon & Associates, Inc. Paul M. Zagaris, Inc., and Guide Real Estate, Inc., filed on January 18, 2024 in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California.

On January 25, 2021, a similar action to the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations was filed in the Northern District of Illinois (the "Batton Action") alleging violations of federal antitrust law and unjust enrichment. The complaint makes substantially similar allegations and seeks similar relief as the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations but alleges harm to homebuyers rather than home sellers. The Company filed a motion to dismiss which was granted on May 2, 2022. The plaintiffs filed an amended complaint adding state antitrust and consumer protection claims, and the Company filed a subsequent motion to dismiss. On February 20, 2024, the court dismissed plaintiffs' claim seeking injunctive relief for violations of the Sherman Act and dismissed certain state law claims in Tennessee and Kansas. The court denied the remainder of the Company's motion to dismiss. The only claims that remain are state law, and on April 15, 2024, the Company filed its answer. Plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to file a second amended complaint on December 2, 2024, which sought to add new named plaintiffs and new claims. Defendants opposed and the court denied the motion on May 7, 2025. On September 22, 2025, plaintiffs filed a motion seeking to certify a class. On November 13, 2025, the court struck the plaintiffs' motion to certify a class without prejudice and ordered the class certification briefing stayed until the Burnett appeal is resolved.

On March 19, 2026, RE/MAX, LLC entered into a Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement (the "Batton Settlement") to resolve all remaining claims against RE/MAX, LLC in the Batton Action that were not previously released in the U.S. Settlement Agreement. Under the Batton Settlement, RE/MAX, LLC would pay a total settlement amount of $8.5 million (the "Batton Settlement Amount") into a qualified settlement escrow fund as follows: $1.5 million following preliminary court approval of the Settlement and the remaining $7.0 million following final court approval of the Settlement, including any appeals. The Company recorded the settlement amount to "Settlement and impairment charges" within the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) with a corresponding liability recorded to "Accrued liabilities" within the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The Batton Settlement remains subject to preliminary and final court approval and will become effective upon such final approval, subject to any appeals. The Batton Settlement and any actions taken to carry out the Batton Settlement are not an admission or concession of liability, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or point of fact or law on the part of any party. REMAX continues to deny the material allegations of the complaints in the Lawsuit. RE/MAX, LLC entered into the Batton Settlement after considering the risks and costs of continuing the litigation.

On August 22, 2024, plaintiff Homie Technology, Inc. ("Homie") filed suit against the National Association of Realtors, Anywhere Real Estate, Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., HomeServices of America, Inc., HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Wasatch Front Regional Multiple Listing Service, Inc. in the United States District Court for the District of Utah. The lawsuit alleges certain NAR rules, many of which were at issue in the Moehrl-related antitrust litigations, created a barrier to entry for Homie as a competitor, and that other defendants agreed and/or conspired to implement these rules and engaged in conduct that foreclosed Homie from competing. The complaint alleges federal and state antitrust claims and tortious interference. The plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and an unspecified amount of damages. RE/MAX, LLC filed a motion to dismiss on October 18, 2024. On July 15, 2025, the court dismissed the lawsuit and Homie's claims. Homie filed an appeal on August 7, 2025 to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and oral argument was scheduled for May 12, 2026. The Company intends to vigorously defend the appeal.

Homie Technology, Inc. v. National Association of Realtors, Anywhere Real Estate, Inc., Keller Williams Realty, Inc., HomeServices of America, Inc. HSF Affiliates, LLC, RE/MAX, LLC, and Wasatch Front Regional Multiple Listing Service, Inc., Case No. 24-cv-00616, filed in the United States District Court for the District of Utah, Central Division.

The Company intends to vigorously defend against all remaining claims, including appeals. If the final approval of the U.S. Settlement Agreement is not upheld on appeal, the Company may become involved in additional litigation or other legal proceedings concerning the same or similar claims. As a result, the Company is unable to reasonably estimate the financial impact of the litigation beyond what has been accrued for pursuant to the terms of the U.S. Settlement Agreement and the Batton Settlement, and the Company cannot predict, beyond the U.S. Settlement Amount or Batton Settlement, whether resolution of these matters would have a material effect on its financial position or results of operations.

Canadian Competition Act Litigation and Settlement

On April 9, 2021, a putative class action was filed in the Federal Court of Canada against multiple real estate companies, including RE/MAX Ontario-Atlantic Canada Inc. ("REMAX OA"), which the Company acquired in July 2021, alleging violations of the Canadian Competition Act related to certain Canadian Real Estate Association rules and real estate commission practices. A similar national class action was filed on January 18, 2024. These cases listed below, are collectively referred to as the "Canadian competition litigations."

- Mark Sunderland v. Toronto Regional Real Estate Board (TRREB), The Canadian Real Estate Association (CREA), RE/MAX Ontario-Atlantic Canada Inc. o/a RE/MAX INTEGRA, Century 21 Canada Limited Partnership, Residential Income Fund, L.P., Royal Lepage Real Estate Services Ltd., Homelife Realty Services Inc., Right At Home Realty Inc., Forest Hill Real Estate Inc., Harvey Kalles Real Estate Ltd., Max Wright Real Estate Corporation, Chestnut Park Real Estate Limited, Sutton Group Realty Services Ltd. and IPRO Realty Ltd., filed on April 9, 2021 in the Federal Court of Canada.

- Kevin McFall v. Canadian Real Estate Association, et. al., filed January 18, 2024 in the Federal Court of Canada.

In early 2025, REMAX OA reached substantial agreement on monetary terms and business practice changes to resolve the Canadian competition litigations. On April 29, 2025, REMAX OA entered into a settlement agreement to resolve all claims in these litigations (the "Canadian Settlement Agreement"). Under the agreement, REMAX OA paid $7.8 million Canadian dollars (the "Canadian Settlement Amount") into a third-party interest-bearing account in second quarter of 2025 and agreed to certain business practice changes consistent with those in the U.S. Settlement Agreement. Any actions taken to carry out the Canadian Settlement Agreement are not an admission or concession of liability, or of the validity of any claim, defense, or point of fact or law on the part of the Company. The Company continues to deny the material allegations of the Canadian competition litigations. The Company entered into the settlement agreement after considering the risks and costs of continuing the litigation. The Company used available cash to fund the payment and recorded the Canadian Settlement Amount to “Settlement and impairment charges” within the Consolidated Statements of Income (Loss) and recognized a corresponding liability in “Accrued liabilities” within the Consolidated Balance Sheets during the fourth quarter of 2024. The court approved the Canadian Settlement Agreement on October 8, 2025 resulting in a reduction of $7.8 million Canadian dollars (translated to $5.6 million U.S. dollars at the transaction date) in “Restricted cash” with a corresponding reduction of the liability in “Accrued liabilities” within the Consolidated Balance Sheets during 2025. On October 8, 2025, the court dismissed REMAX OA from the Canadian competition litigations pursuant to the terms of the settlement.

12. Defined-Contribution Savings Plan

The Company sponsors an employee retirement plan (the “401(k) Plan”) that provides certain eligible employees of the Company an opportunity to accumulate funds for retirement. The Company provides matching contributions on a discretionary basis. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized expense of $2.6 million, each, for matching contributions to the 401(k) Plan.
