What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit H.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation and/or litigation only in Nevada. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, or litigate with the franchisor in Nevada than in your own state.
2. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make mandatory minimum royalty payments regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make these payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
4. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.
5. Financial Condition. The franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

MICHIGAN SPECIFIC-NOTICE

The state of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you:

- (a) A prohibition of the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than thirty (30) days, to cure each failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchised business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than five (5) years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six (6) months notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside of Michigan. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualification or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or sub-franchisor.
 - (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in the subdivision.

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

At your option, in the event that our most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00 then we will, at your request, arrange for the escrow of your initial investment and other funds paid by you until our obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in this franchise offering are fulfilled.

The fact that there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Attorney General's Department for the State of Michigan, Consumer Protection Division, Franchise Section, 670 Law Building, 525 W. Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913, (517) 373-7117.

Item 1
The Franchisor and any Parents, Predecessors, and Affiliates

The Sit Means Sit

To simplify the language in this disclosure document, “we”, “us,” or “our” means Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc., the franchisor. “You” or “your” means the individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or other entity who buys the franchise, and includes your owners, members, and partners.

We are a Nevada corporation that was organized on January 20, 2009. Our principal business address is 6295 McLeod Drive #12, Las Vegas, Nevada 89120. We conduct business under our corporate name and “Sit Means Sit,” as well as the trademarks described in Item 13 of this Disclosure Document (the “Marks”). We have offered franchises to operate “Sit Means Sit” dog training businesses (“Businesses”) since February 2009.

We do not operate a Business, although we have an affiliate that has done so. Neither we nor our affiliates currently offer, or have offered, franchises in other lines of business. We do not conduct any business activities other than franchising.

Our agents for service of process are disclosed in Exhibit H to this disclosure document.

Our Affiliates

Sit Means Sit, Inc. (“SMSI”), our affiliate, was incorporated in the State of Nevada on January 20, 2006. Since March 2006, SMSI has operated a Sit Means Sit business that is substantially similar to the franchise being offered in this Disclosure Document. Between March 2006 and November 2008, SMSI licensed third parties to operate Sit Means Sit businesses under a Merchandising and Licensing Agreement (“MLA”), which differed significantly from our current franchise offering. SMSI has never offered franchises in this or any other line of business. However, SMSI does sell inventory items that you, as a franchisee, are required to purchase. SMSI shares the same principal business address as we do.

We do not have any predecessors or parents, or any affiliates other than SMSI that offer franchises or provide goods or services to you.

The Business You Will Conduct

As a franchisee, you will operate a business that provides dog training, behavior modification, and consulting services to dog owners (referred to as your “Business”). You will enter into a Franchise Agreement (attached as Exhibit A) to operate one business under our proprietary trademarks and service marks (the “Marks”). You are required to offer only the Authorized Products and Services (defined in this Disclosure Document) within your designated Trade Area (also defined herein). The Marks, your vehicle(s), any Training Facility, and our proprietary methods of operation are collectively referred to as the “System.”

To operate your Business, you must own, lease, or purchase one or more trucks, sport-utility vehicles, or other suitable automobiles (“Vehicles”) to deliver and perform the Authorized Products and Services within your Trade Area. You may conduct training sessions in public venues such as parks, gyms, or pet stores, or you may operate from a dedicated Training Facility, which is a space you control for conducting dog training classes.

We may allow you to reserve a specific Trade Area for up to one (1) year under a Trade Area Reservation Agreement (“TARA”) (attached as Exhibit K). To reserve a Trade Area, you must pay a deposit of $5,000 per Trade Area. Under the TARA, you are required to begin operating your Business within one (1) year by signing our then-current Franchise Agreement and paying the applicable initial franchise fee (your deposit will be credited toward this fee). The Franchise Agreement you sign under the TARA may differ from the version included in this Disclosure Document. If you do not commence operations by the deadline specified in the TARA (the “Commencement Deadline”), you may extend the deadline once for an additional year by paying an additional deposit equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for that Trade Area.

The Market and Competition

The market for dog training services is mature, competitive, and continues to grow alongside increasing pet ownership in the United States. As a franchisee, your primary customers will be dog owners seeking professional training, behavior modification, and consulting services. You will compete with a wide range of businesses offering similar services, including: independent dog trainers and obedience schools; national and regional franchised dog training companies; kennel clubs and pet boarding facilities offering training; veterinary clinics that provide basic obedience or behavior services; and online and app-based dog training platforms.

Industry Specific Laws

Operating a dog training business involves compliance with a variety of federal, state, and local laws that apply to different aspects of your operations. Depending on your location, you may be required to obtain an animal handler’s permit, dog trainer license, or similar authorization, which may require demonstrating experience, training, or certification. If you operate from a Training Facility, you must ensure that the location complies with all applicable zoning, land use, and occupancy regulations governing commercial or animal-related uses.

Your Business must comply with applicable health, safety, and sanitation laws, including requirements relating to cleanliness, waste disposal, ventilation, and the humane handling and care of animals, particularly if dogs are housed or trained onsite. You may also be required to maintain insurance coverage (such as general liability and animal liability insurance) and to implement safety and operational protocols designed to protect animals, customers, and the public.

You must comply with applicable consumer protection laws, including laws governing advertising, marketing, pricing disclosures, and customer interactions. If you employ workers, you are subject to all applicable employment and labor laws, including those relating to wages, hours, workplace safety, and classification. In addition, if your Business interacts with service animals or their handlers, you must comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and similar state and local laws, including requirements relating to public access and nondiscrimination.

You may also be subject to background check requirements imposed by local jurisdictions as a condition to obtaining or maintaining licenses or permits. We require you, as part of our franchise qualification process, to pass a criminal background check.

Litigation

Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. v. Oklahoma City Dog Training, LLC and Lukas Miller, in the District Court, Clark County, Nevada (Eighth Judicial District Court), Case No. A-25-921505-B. On or about June 19, 2025, we filed a lawsuit against our former franchisee, Oklahoma City Dog Training, LLC ("ODT") and its owner, Lukas Miller ("Miller") (collectively, "Defendants"). Miller, through ODT, operated a Sit Means Sit franchise in and around Edmond, Oklahoma, under a franchise agreement that expired by its terms on October 27, 2024. Shortly before expiration, Miller formed 5 Star Dog Training OKC, LLC and began operating a competing dog training business within the trade area in violation of the post-termination non-competition covenant in the franchise agreement and the continuing guaranty signed by Miller. In the Complaint, we sought preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, attorneys' fees, and costs, asserting claims against ODT for breach of the franchise agreement and against Miller for breach of the continuing guaranty. On October 30, 2025, the Court entered an order denying Defendants' motion to dismiss and granting our motion for a preliminary injunction against Defendants. On December 8, 2025, Defendants filed an answer and counterclaims against us asserting five counts: two counts of tortious interference with contractual relations, one count of negligence, and two counts of breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. On March 16, 2026, the Court entered an order dismissing all five of Defendants' counterclaims. The litigation remains pending as to our affirmative claims, and we intend to continue to vigorously prosecute those claims.

Harold Theodore Wall III, Command Masters Dog Training, LLC, Alex Scofield, K9 Dynamics, LLC, Alan Shade, and Elite Canine Services, LLC v. Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc., in the Chancery Court of Rutherford County, Tennessee, Case No. 26CV-882. On or about May 15, 2026, three franchisees and their affiliated entities (collectively, the "Plaintiffs") filed a lawsuit against us. The Plaintiffs operate Sit Means Sit franchises in Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi. In the Complaint, the Plaintiffs assert claims against us for promissory fraud, breach of contract and breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, and negligent misrepresentation. The Plaintiffs generally allege that we failed to provide a consistent and functional dog training system, failed to provide adequate support and services under the franchise agreements, and made alleged misrepresentations in connection with the sale and operation of the franchises. The Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages, attorneys' fees, punitive or statutory damages, interest, and other relief. We have not yet filed a responsive pleading to the Complaint, but we intend to vigorously defend against the claims asserted and deny the material allegations.

Maryland Consent Order (Case No. 2012-0362). On or about September 19, 2012, the Securities Division of the Office of the Attorney General of Maryland entered into a stipulated Consent Order with us and with our affiliate, Sit Means Sit, Inc. (“SMSI”) entered into a stipulated Consent Order in which SMSI acknowledged that Merchandising and Licensing Agreements (“MLAs”) that it had entered into with two different Maryland residents constituted “franchises” as defined under the Maryland Franchise Law. SMSI also acknowledged that SMSI was not registered to offer and sell franchises under the Maryland Franchise Law at the time SMSI entered into MLAs with the two Maryland residents and that SMSI did not provide those Maryland residents with an FDD registered under the Maryland Franchise Law prior to the sale of the SMSI MLAs. We further admitted that we offered a franchise to a prospective Maryland franchisee at a time that we were not registered to offer franchises under the Maryland Franchise Law.

In the Consent Order, the Maryland Securities Commissioner (the “Securities Commissioner”) concluded that SMSI violated §§14-214, 14-216, 14-228, and 14-229 of the Maryland Franchise Law, and that we violated §§14-214, 14-216, 14-228, 14-229, and 14-231 of the Maryland Franchise Law. As part of the Consent Order, we represented to the Securities Commissioner that: (1) we have developed and implemented new written compliance procedures to ensure that, in the future, we comply with the registration, disclosure and antifraud provisions of the Maryland Franchise Law, which compliance procedures we submitted to the Securities Commissioner; (2) we and SMSI would immediately and permanently cease from the offer and sale of franchises in violation of the Maryland Franchise Law; and that (3) the Consent Order is a discloseable order under the Maryland Franchise Law, and Item 3 of the NASAA Franchise Registration and Disclosure Guidelines and Amended FTC Franchise Rule. We also agreed to pay a $2,000 civil penalty to the Office of the Attorney General.

Minnesota Consent Order (Case No. FR2900235/DPK). On or about September 1, 2009, the Minnesota Department of Commerce and our affiliate, Sit Means Sit, Inc. (“SMSI”) entered into a stipulated Consent Order in which the state alleged that SMSI sold an unregistered franchise in that state, and SMSI, without admitting or denying any violation of law, agreed to pay a $1,000 civil penalty and comply with Minnesota franchise law.

Other than these actions, no litigation is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Item 4 Bankruptcy

No bankruptcy information is required to be disclosed in this Item.

Item 5 Initial Fees

Deposit

You must pay us an application fee and deposit of $1,500 at the time you apply to become a franchisee. This fee covers the cost of conducting a credit and criminal background check and evaluating your qualifications as a franchisee candidate. If both parties agree to proceed, the $1,500 will be applied toward your initial franchise fee or your payment under the Trade Area Reservation Agreement (“TARA”), described below. This fee is nonrefundable under all circumstances, including if either party decides not to proceed.

Initial Training and Apprentice Program Fees

We provide the Initial Training Program at no additional cost for one trainee. For each additional trainee, you must pay a $2,500 training fee and a $150 background check fee. If you send individuals to our apprentice program (a five-day segment of the Initial Training Program), you must pay a $1,000 fee per person, plus a $150 background check fee per person. You are responsible for all travel, lodging, and living expenses for yourself and any attendees. These fees are nonrefundable.

Initial Franchise Fee

If this is your first franchise with us, you will pay a nonrefundable initial franchise fee of $30,000 when you sign the Franchise Agreement.

If you are an existing franchisee who purchased your first franchise before July 2020, or if you are purchasing an additional franchise on or after June 1, 2025, you will pay a nonrefundable initial franchise fee of $25,000 for each additional franchise.

If you purchased your first franchise between July 1, 2020, and May 31, 2025, you will pay a reduced initial franchise fee for each additional franchise according to the following schedule:

Franchise Number	Initial Franchise Fee
2	$15,500
3	$13,500
4	$11,500
5 and each additional	$10,000

All initial franchise fees are nonrefundable under any circumstances.

Trade Area Reservation Agreement

If you choose to reserve a Trade Area under a TARA (see Item 12 and Exhibit K), you must pay a $5,000 deposit for each Trade Area reserved. If you do not sign a franchise agreement and begin operations by the Commencement Deadline, you may extend the deadline once for an additional year by paying an additional deposit equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee for that Trade Area. If you do not begin operations before the original or extended deadline, your TARA and rights to the Trade Area will terminate automatically. All deposits paid under the TARA are nonrefundable, but they will be credited toward your initial franchise fee if you sign a Franchise Agreement before the applicable deadline.

CRM Setup Fee

You must pay a one-time, nonrefundable CRM setup fee of $1,000 per Franchised Business. This fee covers the cost of onboarding, implementation, and initial configuration of the required Customer Relationship Management (“CRM”) system for your Business. You must pay the CRM setup fee when you are onboarded to the CRM system or at such earlier time as we require. This fee is nonrefundable under all circumstances.

Supply and Equipment Fees

You must purchase an initial inventory of training collars from our affiliate, SMSI. While there is no required quantity, we estimate the cost will range from $630 to $1,570. If we determine that your or your employees' progress during training is unsatisfactory, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement. In that case, we will refund the cost of the collars if they are returned unused or in "like new" condition.

All initial fees described in this Item 5 are uniform for franchises being offered under this disclosure document, are payable in a lump sum, and, except for the training collars, are not refundable under any circumstances. In 2025, we charged initial fees ranging between $17,500 and $20,000.

(Note 4).	Upon Demand	Payable only if we terminate the Franchise Agreement with cause, or if you cancel your Franchise Agreement prior to its expiration.

(1) All fees listed in this Item are uniformly imposed on all franchisees and are payable directly to us, unless otherwise noted. The only exception is the fee for the Franchise Financial Database, which is payable to a third-party provider. Once paid, all fees due to us are nonrefundable under any circumstances. Fees paid to third-party vendors or suppliers may or may not be refundable, depending on the policies of those vendors or suppliers.

(2) “Gross Sales” means all revenue received or receivable by you from any source as payment for goods and services sold or promoted under the Marks, regardless of the form of payment (e.g., cash, credit, debit, barter, or other means of exchange), and regardless of whether payment is actually collected. This includes the full retail value of any gift certificates or coupons sold for use at your Business. However, Gross Sales excludes: (i) sales taxes collected directly from customers and any other taxes, excises, or duties imposed by a governmental authority on specific goods or services, provided such amounts are separately stated and actually remitted to the appropriate authority; (ii) tips, gratuities, or service charges paid directly to employees; and (iii) proceeds from isolated sales of equipment or trade fixtures not part of your ordinary course of business.

We may require that all amounts you owe us be paid through an electronic depository transfer account (“Electronic Depository Transfer Account”). If so, you must establish and maintain such an account and authorize us to access it for the purpose of collecting royalty fees, advertising contributions, payments for purchases from us, and any other amounts due under your Franchise Agreement.

(3) Unless we have indicated otherwise, for any fee that is listed as our then-current fee in the table above, we have the right to increase fees by a maximum of 10% per year, calculated cumulatively over the term of the Franchise Agreement. Additionally, we may also increase these fees by the amount of any increases in fees from third parties for the underlying products or services which will be added to the capped fee increase (even if it is more than 10%).

(4) Example 1: If your average monthly royalty was $1,200 and 24 months remain, liquidated damages would be $$1,200 \times 24 = $28,800$. If you purchased your first franchise between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2023, your minimum monthly royalty is $900. $$900 \times 24 = $21,600$. Because $28,800 is greater than $21,600, the liquidated damages would be $28,800.

Example 2: If your average monthly royalty was $900 and 40 months remain, you use 36 months (the cap). Calculate both: $$900 \times 36 = $32,400$; $$1,000 \times 36 = $36,000$. Liquidated damages would be $36,000 because it is greater than $32,400.

TOTAL ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT (EXISTING FRANCHISEE – FIRST FRANCHISE BETWEEN JULY 1, 2020 AND MAY 31, 2025)	$20,175 - $122,750

Note: Neither we, nor any of our affiliates, offer direct or indirect financing for any part of the initial investment. We do not know whether any of the money you pay to third parties will be refundable.

1. As described in Item 5, the Initial Franchise Fee varies depending on your franchise history; existing franchisees who purchased their first franchise before July 1, 2020, or who are purchasing an additional franchise on or after June 1, 2025, pay $25,000; and existing franchisees who purchased their first franchise between July 1, 2020, and May 31, 2025, pay a tiered Initial Franchise Fee ranging from $10,000 to $15,500 depending on the number of franchises they have already purchased. We also offer a referral incentive through our Franchisee Lead Referral (FLR) Program, under which existing franchisees who refer a new franchisee to us are eligible to receive a $5,000 referral fee. This referral fee may be applied toward the purchase of an additional Trade Area, and if the referring franchisee subsequently purchases an additional Trade Area, they will receive a $5,000 refund upon signing the Franchise Agreement and paying the applicable Initial Franchise Fee. Please note that this Item 7 does not reflect the $5,000 refund. We reserve the right to modify or discontinue the FLR Program at any time.

2. The low end of the estimated initial investment assumes that you will operate without a formal Training Facility, and therefore will not incur rental or construction costs. If you choose to operate from a facility, suitable locations may include strip malls or light industrial/commercial zones, typically involving the lease of unimproved and unfurnished retail or warehouse space. For a leased facility, you should expect to prepay first and last month's rent (estimated at approximately $6,000) and invest an additional $6,000 to $9,000 in construction and improvements. These figures are reflected in the high estimate and are based on a facility ranging from 1,000 to 3,500 square feet in Las Vegas, Nevada. Actual costs may vary significantly depending on factors such as location, size, market demand, economic conditions, and lease terms. If you choose to purchase a facility or construct a free-standing building, your investment will likely be substantially higher.
3. The low estimate assumes that you already own a suitable Vehicle and will incur only minimal costs for decals. You are required to purchase or lease one or more Vehicles that meet our specifications. After acquiring your vehicle(s), you must promptly complete all required modifications, including the installation of decals, logos, and racks, in accordance with our standards.
4. We provide the Initial Training Program at no additional cost for one trainee (excluding transferees). The low estimate assumes that only one person will attend training. The high estimate includes the Initial Training Fee for a second trainee. You must pay a fee of $2,500 for each additional person attending the Initial Training Program. If you send individuals to our apprentice program (a five-day segment of the Initial Training Program), you must pay a fee of $1,000 per person. For each additional trainee or apprentice, you must also pay a $150 criminal background check fee. You are responsible for all travel, lodging, and living expenses for yourself and any other attendees.
5. You are responsible for all travel-related expenses for attendees of the Initial Training Program. The low estimate assumes one trainee will drive to the training location and incur approximately $200 in fuel costs. The high estimate assumes two trainees will travel by air and incur approximately $1,000 in combined airfare, meals, and wages. Actual costs will vary depending on the number of attendees and the distance traveled.
6. This estimate represents a down payment toward the annual insurance premiums required under the Franchise Agreement and Manual. Your actual insurance costs will depend on the geographic location of your Business and the number of employees you employ.
7. You are required to have a demonstration dog trained using our methods to help market your Business. We do not charge a fee for training the dog. You may train the dog yourself after completing our Initial Training Program. The estimated cost reflects either adopting a dog (typically around $50) or purchasing one (which may cost up to $7,500).
8. These amounts are the minimum recommended levels to cover your operating expenses for three (3) months, assuming no revenue during this period. We have included your first three (3) months of the CRM fee. In compiling this chart, we relied on the experience of our affiliate, SMSI, as the owner and operator of a Business similar to the franchise being offered to you, as well as on our own experience as the franchisor of Businesses.

Item 8

Restrictions on Sources of Products and Services

Standards and Specifications

You must establish and operate your Business in full compliance with your Franchise Agreement and the standards and specifications set forth in our confidential Manual (the “Manual”), which we will provide to you. We will communicate updates to these standards and specifications in writing through the Manual.

To ensure consistency, quality, brand recognition, and uniformity across all Sit Means Sit® Businesses, you are required to purchase all décor, inventory, equipment, supplies, forms, products, services, and advertising materials used in or sold through your Business in accordance with our specifications. These items must be purchased only from us, our affiliates, or suppliers and distributors that we have approved or designated.

We may periodically require you to purchase, use, offer, promote, and/or maintain in stock certain products and materials, including but not limited to: dog collars, dog care and training products, toys, food and treats, leashes, bite suits, apparel, training and other equipment, uniforms, packaging, business cards, forms, computer hardware and software, modems, and other peripheral equipment. These items may be designated as “Designated Products” or “Sit Means Sit Brand Products” if they are produced in accordance with our proprietary specifications or bear our trademarks. You must purchase these products exclusively from us, our affiliates, or suppliers we designate.

You may not use any product, service, or supplier that we have not authorized. All packaging and similar materials must meet our specifications and, if required, bear our Marks. If you use materials or products not purchased from us or our affiliates, we must approve the manner in which our Marks are used on those items.

Our standards and specifications are developed and updated based on market conditions, competitive factors, and the operational experience of our affiliate and franchisees. We do not disclose our criteria for selecting approved suppliers to franchisees or suppliers. We do not provide or withhold material benefits based on your use of designated or approved suppliers.

Supplier Approvals; Specifications

We may also designate certain products, materials, or equipment as “Ancillary Products,” which you may or must use or offer in connection with your Business. You are not required to purchase Ancillary Products from us or our affiliates, but you may only use those we have expressly authorized. You may purchase authorized Ancillary Products from us, our affiliates, or from a supplier we designate or approve.

If you wish to purchase from a supplier not previously approved, you must submit a written request for approval. You or the supplier must reimburse us for all reasonable costs incurred in evaluating the supplier, including travel expenses for inspections and third-party product testing. We will evaluate whether the supplier and its products meet our standards and may revoke approval at any time by written notice or through the Manual. Upon request, we will provide general (but not manufacturing) specifications for Ancillary Products not already included in the Manual. We will notify you of our decision within 60 days of receiving your complete request and supporting documentation.

Approved suppliers must meet our customary requirements regarding insurance, indemnification, and non-disclosure, and must demonstrate: (a) the ability to supply products that meet our specifications;

(b) reliability in delivery and consistent product quality; and (c) the ability to meet other requirements we determine are in the best interest of the franchise system.

Required Purchases Or Leases

Our affiliate, SMSI, is the sole approved supplier for the following required items: franchisee training, training collars, leashes, and training cots. While we or our affiliates may reserve the right to be the exclusive supplier of other items, we currently do not exercise that right for any other categories.

Training and Certification Programs

We and our affiliates are the only approved supplier of training and certification programs that we require you to take and to have for your franchise.

Customer Relationship Management (CRM) Software

You must subscribe to and use the Customer Relationship Management (“CRM”) system that we designate. You must obtain the CRM system and related services only from us, our Affiliate, or our designated third-party provider. We may require you to transition to a different CRM system or provider at any time upon reasonable notice. In that event, you must comply with our transition requirements and may incur additional onboarding or conversion costs.

Real Estate

You are not required to operate the Business at a formal Training Facility. If you elect to do so, the Training Facility must be located within your Trade Area, it must meet our standards and specifications and be accepted by us. If the Training Facility is leased or subleased, you must submit a copy of your lease to us for our review and acceptance. We are not an approved supplier of site leases.

Vehicles

A significant portion of your Business will be conducted using a truck, SUV, or other vehicle (“Vehicle”) to deliver products and perform services within your Trade Area. You must purchase or lease at least one suitable Vehicle unless you already own one that is in good condition and free from significant damage. We do not require a specific make, model, or year, and we do not issue specifications to vehicle suppliers. We are not an approved supplier of Vehicles.

Insurance

You must maintain insurance coverage in the types and minimum amounts specified in the Franchise Agreement, Manual, or by written notice. This includes workers’ compensation insurance as required by law, and comprehensive general liability insurance (including errors and omissions) of at least $1,000,000. For any vehicles used in your Business, you must carry automobile liability insurance of at least $250,000 per person, $500,000 per accident, and $100,000 for property damage. All policies must name us and our designated affiliates as additional insureds. You may purchase insurance from any carrier, subject to our approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Proof of insurance must be submitted before opening. We are not an approved supplier of insurance.

Advertising

All advertising and promotional activities you conduct—regardless of the medium—must be carried out in a professional and dignified manner and must comply with our standards and specifications. You are solely responsible for all costs associated with your advertising and promotional efforts. We reserve the right to require you to purchase advertising and promotional materials directly from us, our affiliates, or from suppliers we have approved. While we are not currently the exclusive supplier of advertising materials, we reserve the right to become one in the future.

Computer System and Proprietary Software

You are required to purchase or lease and maintain a personal computer system (the “Computer System”) that meets the specifications outlined in the Manual or as otherwise communicated by us in writing. You may obtain the Computer System from any supplier, provided it meets our minimum requirements. You must keep the Computer System in good working order and install all required software updates as specified or supplied by us or by approved vendors. We may also require you to sign a license or sublicense agreement for proprietary software that we own or license (“Proprietary Software”). This includes, but is not limited to, our franchise financial database program. You must also maintain a PC desktop version of QuickBooks that is no more than three years old. If we require you to use Proprietary Software, we or our designee will provide support services at our then-current rates. We are not currently an approved supplier of the Computer System or Proprietary Software, but we reserve the right to become one.

Website Development

You must use our designated third-party vendor for all website development, hosting, and digital marketing services. You are not allowed to register or use any domain names, URLs, or websites that include our trademarks or any similar names. All online marketing must be done through our approved vendor and follow our current policies and guidelines. Our approved vendor currently provides: website creation and hosting; search engine optimization (SEO); online advertising (such as Google Ads and social media ads); and social media content and management. You are responsible for paying the vendor directly for these services under a separate agreement.

Proportion of Required Purchases and Leases to All Purchases and Leases

We estimate that required purchases and leases will account for approximately 55% to 90% of the total cost of establishing your franchise. During ongoing operations, required purchases and leases are expected to represent approximately 5% to 50% of your total operational costs.

Purchasing Cooperatives, Purchasing Arrangements, Rebates, Payments, and Derived Revenue

As of the date of this Disclosure Document, we have not established any purchasing or distribution cooperatives. However, we may do so in the future. We may also negotiate volume purchasing arrangements, including pricing terms, with suppliers for the benefit of our franchisees. Additionally, we may negotiate alternative purchasing arrangements with approved suppliers and distributors.

We reserve the right to receive rebates, discounts, or other consideration from suppliers based on volume purchases, including purchases of products that we resell to you. We or our affiliates may derive revenue from your required purchases or leases if those purchases are made from us or our affiliates.

In 2025, we did not receive any revenue, rebates, or other material consideration from required franchisee purchases or leases. However, our affiliate, Sit Means Sit, Inc. (“SMSI”), reported unaudited revenue of approximately $4,643,127.62 of its total revenue of $5,052,882.19 from franchisee purchases. SMSI also expects to receive a 5% rebate from its supplier on all purchases of Sit Means Sit training collars.

None of our officers owns an interest in any unaffiliated supplier, but they do own an interest in us and SMSI, and as discussed above we and SMSI are approved suppliers.

Item 11 Franchisor's Assistance, Advertising, Computer Systems, and Training

Except as listed below, Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Obligations. Before you open your Business, we will:

1. If you choose to operate from a Training Facility, you must find a location within your Trade Area that meets our current standards and specifications, as well as all applicable local laws and building codes. We do not select or lease the site for you. After you submit your proposed site, we will review it and notify you of our approval or rejection—typically within 14 days. We consider factors such as location, neighborhood, demographics, traffic patterns, parking, size, building condition, and lease terms. If we do not approve a site or you choose not to operate from a Training Facility, you may operate without one.

We do not assist with permitting, construction, remodeling, or compliance with local codes. If you do not begin operating your Business within 60 days after completing the Initial Training Program, we may terminate your agreement. (Franchise Agreement § 4.4)

2. Provide you with our guidelines and specifications for required equipment (including computer equipment), inventory, supplies, materials, and signs. You are solely responsible for purchasing those items, which must conform to our standards and specifications. (Franchise Agreement, § 4.1.1)

3. We will provide you with our Vehicle specifications in the Manual and other materials. These may include requirements for make, model, year, color, and branding (e.g., wraps or decals). You must promptly acquire one or more vehicles for use in your Trade Area. You are responsible for all costs. (Franchise Agreement § 4.1.2)

4. We will provide an Initial Training Program. You may send employees to attend the full program or the apprentice portion. We do not assist with hiring or training your employees. (Franchise Agreement § 6.1)

5. We will give you access to our Manual through our corporate resource page. This manual includes our operational procedures, policies, and rules. A copy of the current table of contents is attached as Exhibit I. The Manual currently contains 99 pages. (Franchise Agreement § 7.6.3)

6. SMSI will sell and deliver to you an initial inventory of training collars. (Franchise Agreement, § 10.4)

7. If you purchase a Trade Area Reservation Agreement (TARA), we will reserve each Trade Area you pay for ($5,000 per Trade Area) and will not sell it to another franchisee. (TARA, Section 5).

Time to Open

We estimate that most franchisees open their Business within 1 to 4 months after signing the Franchise Agreement. This timeline may vary based on factors such as your ability to obtain a lease or financing; acquiring a demonstration dog; completing the Initial Training Program; local permitting, zoning, or construction delays (if leasing a Training Facility). Unless we agree otherwise in writing, you must begin operating your Business within 60 days after completing the Initial Training Program. If you do not, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement without refunding any initial fees.

Post-Opening Obligations: During your operation of the Business, we will:

1. At your reasonable request, provide support and advice from our headquarters staff, field representatives, or training team. This support may include technical, sales, or operational guidance by phone, email, or other communication methods. If we provide additional training or support at your request—or if we determine that your Business is not being operated according to our standards—you must reimburse our expenses and pay our then-current training fee. (Franchise Agreement § 6.3)
2. Periodically designate products and services as “Authorized Products and Services” and we will periodically designate certain products as “Designated Products” or “Ancillary Products” which you must stock and provide. (Franchise Agreement, §§ 7.3, 10.2 and 10.3)
3. Review and either approve or disapprove any local advertising, direct mail, promotional materials, or marketing programs you propose. (Franchise Agreement, § 8.1)
4. We will conduct ongoing training programs. You must attend these programs as required. You must also complete re-certification every three (3) years after completing the Initial Training Program. (Franchise Agreement, § 6.4)

Post-Opening Optional Assistance. During your operation of the Business, we may:

6. Manage the System’s presence on the Internet, including websites, e-commerce, and social media. We control the design and content of all websites and online platforms. If we include your Business on our website, we may list your contact information. However, we may remove your listing if you are not in compliance with the Franchise Agreement. We also control how you use social media in connection with the Marks. . We also have the right to control all use of social media sites by you that mentions or uses the Marks. (Franchise Agreement, § 9.1)
7. Designate certain National Accounts. We describe the National Accounts later in this Item. (Franchise Agreement § 7.12).
8. Conduct semi-annual owners only meetings. If you choose to attend one, we will charge you a fee between $150 and $350 per attendee.
9. Operate one or more toll-free telephone numbers (T-1 links) to refer potential clients to you and other franchisees. Details are provided later in this Item. (Franchise Agreement § 8.5).

10. Offer additional optional services, for example accounting support, for which we may charge a separate fee. (Franchise Agreement § 6.3)

11. If we have a Franchise Working Group (“FWG”), we may consult it on issues affecting the System. The FWG is made up of elected franchisees and serves in an advisory role only. We may change or dissolve the FWG at any time.

12. We operate an online store that provides all necessary equipment to franchisees. Franchisees will be provided with access to this online store following completion of their initial training programs. We provide suggestions as to items each franchisee may wish to purchase but only require the purchase of the SMS Collar. All items ordered through our online store will be shipped directly to franchisees by us.

13. We may offer monthly coaching sessions, either directly or through the FWG. These sessions are available through our online portal at no additional cost.

14. Provide you guidance in establishing prices for the products or services you sell. You will, however, be free to determine the price at which you sell products and services.

There is no specified date or period for us to complete our obligations stated above. Other than those mentioned above, we do not provide other supervision, guidance, or services during the operation of your Business.

National Accounts

National Accounts include any (i) Any potential or existing commercial customer with multiple locations, including sites inside and outside your Trade Area; or (ii) any pet store, veterinary clinic, service dog training organization, or similar business whose customers may purchase Authorized Products and Services.

To attract and serve National Accounts effectively, we may create policies that govern how these accounts are approached and managed. This may include giving us, our affiliates, or other franchisees the exclusive right to solicit, enter into, and service contracts with National Accounts. You may not contact or solicit National Accounts without our prior written approval. If we choose, we may offer you a subcontract to provide Authorized Products and Services to a National Account located in your Trade Area. This is subject to the customer’s approval and our terms. You are not required to accept a subcontract. If you do accept, you must sign our standard subcontract agreement. If you decline the subcontract, or if the National Account is dissatisfied with your performance, or if we believe it is necessary to protect the account or our reputation, we may assign the subcontract to another franchisee or service the account ourselves. (Franchise Agreement § 7.12)

Advertising

We do not operate a central advertising fund and are not obligated to spend any amount on advertising in your Trade Area, or in the trade area of any other franchisee. We do not have an advertising council composed of franchisees, and we do not require participation in local or regional advertising cooperatives.

Local Advertising (Franchise Agreement §§8.2, 8.5)

You must spend at least 1% of your Gross Sales each quarter on local advertising for your Business. You may use your own marketing materials if they: use the Marks correctly; comply with System Standards and Applicable Laws, and are approved by us in writing before use. All advertising must be clear, factual, not misleading, and meet our ethical and brand standards. You must submit all new advertising materials to us or our designated agency for approval. If we do not respond within 15 days, the materials are considered disapproved. You may not use any materials we have not approved.

Unless you are an existing franchisee signing a renewal or purchasing an additional franchise, you may not create or use any independent website, domain name, or online account that includes our Marks or intellectual property. If we allow you to have an online presence, it must follow our policies, and you must give us full administrator-level access.

At our request, your advertising must include a phone number we designate.

Computer System

You must purchase and maintain a Computer System that meets our current specifications, which are outlined in the Manual. The system must include a Macintosh or Windows-based computer (no more than three years old) capable of sending and receiving email and reports. You may purchase the system from any supplier, as long as it meets our requirements. You are not required to use an electronic cash register.

You must also use the CRM system that we designate for your Franchised Business. The CRM system must be used for customer management, lead tracking, scheduling, sales reporting, and other functions that we specify in the Manual. You must pay the fees described in Item 6, including a one-time setup fee (currently $1,000) and a recurring monthly fee (currently $800 per Franchised Business). We may modify the required CRM system, its functionality, or its provider at any time upon reasonable notice.

Your Computer System must be connected to the Internet and include any required software and hardware, such as digital still and video cameras. These tools must allow you to send and receive digital photos, videos, and audio in the format we specify. The system will store your business records, including sales and customer data. We have the right to access all information stored or collected through your Computer System or our Proprietary Software at any time, without notice. There are no contractual limits on our access.

You must purchase any upgrades or replacements we require. There are no limits on how often or how much these upgrades may cost. The estimated initial cost is $0 to $3,000. We estimate annual upgrade costs to be under $500, and full system replacement every three years at a cost of $500 to $4,800. We recommend budgeting for this expense.

We do not currently require you to purchase a maintenance or support contract, but we may in the future. If required, we estimate the annual cost to be about $1,500.

If we require you to use our Proprietary Software, you may need to sign a license agreement. We (or our designee) will provide support for the software at our then-current rates. You must implement any updates we provide within 30 days. (Franchise Agreement § 7.5.2)

Digital Marketing and Online Presence (Franchise Agreement, Article 9)

We provide digital marketing services through a third-party vendor. You must use this vendor for all website and online marketing activities. You may not create or manage your own website, register domain names, or operate any online platforms that use our trademarks or branding. We own and control all digital assets, including: our main website and all subdomains, all social media accounts using our trademarks, and all content, code, and data on our websites.

You must also use our approved SEO provider and follow all instructions we or the provider give you. You are responsible for giving the provider access to necessary information and paying for the services directly. We may require you to submit regular SEO performance reports. We may give you a dedicated page on our website for your Business. You may only customize this page as allowed by our policies and through our approved vendor. We may change or remove your page at any time.

Training (Franchise Agreement, Article 6)

Before you begin operating your Business, we will provide our Initial Training Program to one individual at no charge. (Franchise Agreement § 6.1.1) You must have at least one Authorized Trainer who has successfully completed our Initial Training Program to our satisfaction before you open your Business. This individual must also maintain all required certifications throughout the term of your franchise.

After the first trainee, our current fee is $2,500 per person that attends the Initial Training Program, plus $150 for a criminal background. If you bring people to our apprentice program (5 days during the Initial Training Program), you must pay a fee of $1,000 per person. You must bear all travel, food, lodging, incidental, and other expenses incurred by you and your personnel in connection with the Initial Training Program.

The Initial Training Program is held at a Sit Means Sit® franchisee-owned training facility that we designate. We offer the Initial Training Program twice per year. One training program will occur during the fall (August through November) and the other training program will occur during the spring (March through May).

If we determine that your or your employee's performance during the Initial Training Program is unsatisfactory, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement without refunding any fees. Although you may send employees to the Initial Training Program, you are solely responsible for hiring, training, supervising, and managing your employees and independent contractors in the day-to-day operation of your Business.

We may waive the Initial Training Program if you or your Authorized Trainer has already completed the program for another Sit Means Sit® Business, or you are signing a Successor Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement § 6.1.6)

The Initial Training Program consists of approximately 147 hours of training over roughly a 21-day period. The following table describes our Initial Training Program:

TRAINING PROGRAM
Subject	Hours of Classroom Training	Hours of On-The-Job Training	Location
Dog Training	48 hrs.	41 hrs.
Business/Marketing	9 hrs.	3 hrs.
Business Office	3 hrs.	0

Miscellaneous Dog Training (specific problem issues)	3 hrs.	0	A Sit Means Sit® franchisee-owned training facility we select
Personal Dog Training	0	40 hrs.
Total	63 hrs.	84 hrs.

We will hold training as frequently as we determine necessary, but at least twice a year at the times described above. Training is presently conducted by our Chief Executive Officer, Fred Hassen, our President, Alfredo Rivera, and our Director of Training, Scott Sanchez, who all have more than ten years of experience in the Sit Means Sit System. Training may also be conducted by other instructors who have at least one year experience in the Sit Means Sit System. Training materials will include our Manual.

We require you (or your Authorized Trainer(s)) to be re-certified by us by attending our re-certification training, at our semi-annual training school once every three (3) years during the term of your franchise. We will not require you to pay a fee to attend these re-certification programs, but you will be responsible for paying the travel, lodging, and living expenses of each person who attends on your behalf. Currently, our re-certification training program lasts for ten (10) hours. If you fail to be re-certified within three (3) years of the day you completed the Initial Training Program or the last re-certification course, we will (in addition to all other rights and remedies given to us under the Franchise Agreement) charge you a $2,500 missed recertification fee.

We will not charge a fee for Additional Training that we require you and/or your personnel to attend; however, we may establish charges for optional Additional Training courses that we make available to you. Our current fee for optional Additional Training courses is $150 per attendee, per day. Regardless of whether the Additional Training course is mandatory or optional, you will bear all expenses for you and your personnel while attending Additional Training, regardless of whether the Additional Training is required or optional. If you send a person or people to our apprentice program (which takes place for a 5-day period during our Initial Training Program), you must pay us a fee of $1,000 per person. (Franchise Agreement § 6.4)

We will conduct two (2) owners-only meetings each year. You are not required to attend an owners-only meeting, but if you do we will charge you a fee that will range from $150 to $350 per attendee. You must pay all travel expenses that you incur in connection with attending these meetings. (Franchise Agreement §§ 5.6 and 6.5)

You must train each of your employees who will conduct dog training to our satisfaction in accordance with the Manual. Before you begin operation of your Business, and always during the Term of your license, you must employ the number of trained employees and dog trainers necessary, in our judgment, to adequately operate the Business. (Franchise Agreement § 6.2)

Item 12 Territory

You will receive an exclusive territory (your “Trade Area”) in which to operate a single Sit Means Sit® Business. The Trade Area will be a specific geographic region mutually agreed upon by you and us before you sign the Franchise Agreement. It will be described in Exhibit A to your Franchise Agreement and may be defined by reference to streets, natural boundaries, ZIP codes, cities, counties, states, or other geographic markers as they exist on the effective date of the Franchise Agreement. Once established, your Trade Area may not be relocated. If a boundary of your Trade Area is defined by a street (including where a ZIP code boundary is defined by a street), the centerline of that street will serve as the boundary.

Your Trade Area will include a minimum estimated “dog population” of 50,000. We calculate dog population using U.S. Census data for humans, applying the following formula:

- (1) Divide the total population by 2.5 to estimate the number of households;
- (2) Multiply the household population by 0.372 to estimate the number of dog-owning households;
- (3) Multiply the number of dog-owning households by 1.7 to estimate the dog population.

The specific boundaries of your Trade Area will be determined based on factors such as population density, estimated dog population, demand for dog training services, and the territorial rights previously granted to other franchisees.

Except as described below, during the term of your Franchise Agreement, neither we nor our affiliates will operate or license others to operate a Sit Means Sit Business or conduct dog training classes within your Trade Area.

However, we expressly reserve all other rights, including the unrestricted right to engage in the following activities, either directly or through our affiliates or other franchisees:

- (a) Operate Sit Means Sit Businesses outside your Trade Area, and operate businesses that are similar to Sit Means Sit but do not use our Marks, within or outside your Trade Area, even if they use elements of the Sit Means Sit System;
- (b) Manufacture, license, distribute, and sell products (whether or not under our Marks) that are the same as, similar to, or different from those you are authorized to sell, through any channel of distribution, including retail outlets, specialty stores, online platforms, mail order, and direct marketing;
- (c) Acquire or be acquired by, and operate or license others to operate, non-Sit Means Sit businesses that may offer similar or competitive goods and services, at any location;
- (d) Solicit, sell to, and service National Accounts, including those located within your Trade Area;
- (e) Respond to customer complaints or service issues within your Trade Area, either directly or through third parties; or
- (f) Advertise within your Trade Area.

You will not receive any compensation if we exercise any of these reserved rights.

We may terminate or reduce the size of your Trade Area if you materially breach the Franchise Agreement—such as by failing to meet our standards or pay required fees—and fail to cure the breach after notice (if curable). Otherwise, your exclusive rights in the Trade Area are not contingent on achieving specific sales volumes or market penetration, and your Trade Area will not be altered during the term of your Franchise Agreement.

Upon renewal, transfer, or acquisition of a successor franchise, your Trade Area may be modified. If your existing Trade Area exceeds our then-current standard size, we may require you or your transferee to accept a smaller Trade Area.

You are not required to operate from a formal Training Facility. If you choose to do so, the facility must be located within your Trade Area and approved by us in advance. You may not establish, maintain, or operate any physical office, training center, or sales facility outside your Trade Area. Relocation of your Training Facility requires our prior written consent, which we will grant if the new location remains within your Trade Area. If relocation is approved, you must de-identify the former facility in accordance with the Franchise Agreement.

Operating Outside of Your Trade Area

You may not conduct dog training classes, solicit or accept business, or otherwise provide Authorized Products or Services outside your Trade Area without our prior express written consent and, where applicable, the consent of the affected franchisee. Any such consent may be granted, denied, or conditioned in our or the other franchisee's sole discretion, and approval for one customer, location, or circumstance does not apply to any other.

We may, in our discretion, permit you and other franchisees to operate in areas not assigned to another franchisee ("Unassigned Areas") on a limited, non-exclusive basis. Any such permission may be revoked at any time, and you will have no right to establish a physical presence in any Unassigned Area or to acquire any rights in that area. Upon revocation, you may complete previously scheduled appointments for up to 15 days unless we direct otherwise.

Except as expressly permitted by us in writing, you may not use any alternative distribution channels—including the Internet, catalogs, telemarketing, or direct mail—to make sales or provide services within or outside your Trade Area.

Trade Area Reservation Agreement

We do not customarily grant options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. However, we reserve the right to grant such rights at our sole discretion. At our discretion, we may allow you to reserve a specific Trade Area for a period of one (1) year under a Trade Area Reservation Agreement ("TARA"), attached as Exhibit K to this Disclosure Document. To reserve a Trade Area under a TARA, you must pay a nonrefundable deposit of $5,000 for each Trade Area you wish to reserve.

To activate the reserved Trade Area, you must sign our then-current form of Franchise Agreement and pay our then-current initial franchise fee within one (1) year of executing the TARA. Your $5,000 deposit will be credited toward the initial franchise fee at the time of signing. If you do not begin operating a Business within the reserved Trade Area by the original deadline, you may extend the reservation period once, for an additional one (1) year, by paying an additional deposit equal to 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee applicable to you. If you fail to open a Business within the reserved Trade Area by the original or extended deadline, your rights under the TARA will automatically terminate, and we may offer the Trade Area, or any portion of it, to other prospective franchisees.

As of the date of this Disclosure Document, neither we nor our affiliates operate or franchise any business under a different trademark or service mark, and we have no current plans to do so.

Item 13 Trademarks

We and SMSI have signed a Trademark and Intellectual Property License Agreement under which SMSI has licensed us to use and sublicense the use of the Marks, for a period of 50 years commencing January 1, 2009 and continuing from year to year after that unless either of us elects not to renew at the end of the initial 50-year term or any 1-year renewal term. There are no circumstances when the agreement may be cancelled or modified. No affidavits have been required to be filed. Other than the license agreement referred to above, no agreements presently limit our right to use or license the use of these trademarks.

There are no currently effective material determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any state trademark administrator or court; or any pending infringement, opposition, or cancellation proceeding, or any pending material federal or state court litigation involving the trademarks. We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks.

You must notify us immediately in writing of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of our trademarks. We have the sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate. We are not obligated by the Franchise Agreement or other agreement to participate in your defense or to indemnify you if you are a party to any administrative or judicial proceeding involving our Marks, but if we do defend you we will control any litigation or proceeding.

You may not, without our written consent, in our sole discretion, commence or prosecute, or seek leave to intervene in any litigation or other proceeding, including any arbitration proceeding, in which you purport to enforce any right or recover any element of damage arising from the use or infringement of any of the Marks or unfair competition resulting from that use.

If it becomes advisable at any time, in our sole discretion, to modify or discontinue use of any Marks, and/or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, you must comply with our directions for such modification, discontinuance, or substitution within a reasonable time after you receive notice from us. You, in connection with the use of a new or modified mark, may be required, at your own expense, to change your existing branding, and to purchase new Mark-bearing items. We do not have to reimburse you for the costs you incur for making these changes.

Item 14

Patents, Copyrights, and Proprietary Information

Patents and Copyrights

There are no patents material to the operation of your franchise. We and/or our affiliate, Sit Means Sit, Inc. ("SMSI"), own or claim rights in the Manual, related training materials, and certain brand, marketing, advertising, and promotional content. These materials are proprietary and constitute our intellectual property, whether or not registered with the U.S. Copyright Office. You may use these materials only as permitted under the Franchise Agreement.

SMSI has granted us the right to use and sublicense certain copyrighted materials under a Trademark and Intellectual Property License Agreement. We may register our intellectual property at any time.

As of the date of this Disclosure Document, there are no effective determinations by any court or the U.S. Copyright Office materially affecting these materials. There are no agreements that materially limit our ability to use or license them, and we are not aware of any infringing uses that would materially affect your use of them. We are not obligated to protect or defend any patent, trademark, or copyright.

Confidential Information

Our confidential and proprietary information includes, among other things, our policies, the contents of the Manual, marketing strategies, customer lists and data, and operational methods and techniques (collectively, the "Confidential Materials and Practices").

You do not acquire any ownership interest in the Confidential Materials and Practices. Your right to use them is limited to developing and operating your Business during the term of the Franchise Agreement. Any unauthorized use, duplication, or disclosure may constitute unfair competition and a violation of law.

You must take reasonable steps to protect the Confidential Materials and Practices from unauthorized use or disclosure, including informing your personnel of their obligations and, if we require, obtaining signed confidentiality agreements. A current form of confidentiality agreement is attached as Exhibit D-2. You must promptly notify us of any unauthorized use or disclosure. We may, but are not obligated to, take action in response. We are not required to indemnify you for any third-party claims arising from your use of these materials, and we have the right to control any related litigation.

Improvements

If you develop or acquire any enhancements, modifications, derivative works, or other improvements related to the operation of the Business or the System (“Improvements”), you assign to us all rights in those Improvements without additional compensation. We may use, modify, and incorporate Improvements into the System or our intellectual property for use by us, our affiliates, and other franchisees. If we elect to seek intellectual property protection for any Improvement, we will do so at our expense.

Item 15

Obligation to Participate in the Actual Operation of the Franchise Business

You are not required to personally participate in the day-to-day operation of your Business. However, you must designate an individual who is acceptable to us and who will be primarily responsible for supervising the Business and communicating with us on operational and business matters. This individual does not need to have an ownership interest in the Business but must: (a) devote full-time efforts (at least 4 days and 40 hours per week) exclusively to the operation of the Business; (b) meet our reasonable qualifications regarding education, experience, and financial responsibility; and (c) unless we agree otherwise, successfully complete our Initial Training Program.

If you are a business entity, all individuals who directly or indirectly own or control voting rights in the entity—including shareholders, members, partners, or trustees—must sign our Owner Agreement (attached as Exhibit C), agreeing to be bound by the Franchise Agreement. In addition, the spouses of these individuals must also sign the Owner Agreement.

You must inform all employees who have access to our Confidential Materials and Practices of their obligation to maintain confidentiality. We may require such employees to sign a non-disclosure agreement or acknowledgment. A copy of our current form of Employee Confidentiality Agreement is attached as Exhibit D-2.

Restrictions on What the Franchisee May Sell

You may sell and offer only those products and services that we approve (“Authorized Products and Services”) in connection with your Business. You may not offer for sale any products or services not specifically approved by us in writing, and you may not use your Business Vehicle(s) or premises (if you have a Training Facility) for any other purpose than the operation of a Sit Means Sit Business and the sale of products or services approved by us. You must offer any products and/or services that we designate as required products and/or required services in the Manual (or otherwise in writing). Except for products you sell to National Accounts, you may only sell products at retail, and not for resale. There are no limits on our ability to make changes to the products or services we require you to sell.

We may establish and maintain a warranty program as we deem appropriate. If we establish a warranty program, you must deliver the warranties to your customers on the forms, terms, and conditions we specify. You must perform promptly all required terms and conditions of all warranty programs.

You may not sell products through other channels of distribution such as wholesale, Internet or mail order sales. You may not sell products or services, or advertise products or services, within another franchisee’s Trade Area. You may not establish an account or participate in any social networking sites or mention or discuss the franchise, us, or any of our affiliates, without our prior written consent and as subject to our on-line policy, which may completely prohibit you from any use of the Marks in online. You may not sell products or services, or conduct training classes, outside of your Trade Area.

If multiple events occurred affecting an outlet, this table shows the event that occurred last in time.

* A franchisee has a Trade Area that includes ZIP codes in both North and South Carolina. To avoid double-counting, we list that franchise in South Carolina only.

 In 2024, a franchisee who had 3 Trade Areas in Virginia transferred her franchise agreements to Texas. As a result, we reduced the number of franchises in Virginia at the end of 2024 by 3, and added 3 to the number of franchisees in Texas at the end of 2024.

A. We own the right to franchise certain proprietary and other property rights and interests in the “Sit Means Sit” trademark and such other trademarks and commercial symbols we may authorize or direct you to use in connection with the operation of the Business (“Marks”).

B. We have the right to sublicense, a system for the operation of businesses providing dog training services and the sale of dog care products, dog training products, dog toys, leashes, collars, apparel, and other goods and services, which includes various operating methods, techniques, Policies, products, distinctive signs, Trade Secrets, record-keeping and marketing techniques (the “System”).

C. You want the right to operate a Business in strict accordance with the System and Policies, and we are willing to grant you such right under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

You and we therefore agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS & APPLICABLE INFORMATION

The terms “Authorized Trainer,” “Initial Fee,” and “Business Address” are each defined and identified on Addendum “A” to this Agreement. All other terms are defined in Appendix 1.

ARTICLE 2 GRANT

2.1 Grant. We award, and you accept, the right and obligation during the Term to use and display the Marks, and to use the System to operate one (1) Business solely within the Trade Area, in strict compliance with the terms of this Agreement. You are not permitted to operate the Business anywhere outside of the Trade Area unless you have our written permission for the limited purposes stated in Section 2.4.

2.2 No Sublicensing Rights. You do not have the right to subdivide, sublicense, subfranchise, subcontract, or enter into any management agreement providing to a third party the right to operate the Business, or to use the Marks or System.

2.3 Territorial Rights.

2.3.1 Except as stated in Section 2.3.2, during the Term neither we nor any of our Affiliates will conduct, franchise, or license others to conduct dog training classes within the Trade Area using the Marks.

2.3.2 You agree that we and/or our Affiliates may engage in any business activity whatsoever in or outside the Trade Area except as we are restricted by Section 2.3.1, and that this Agreement does not give you any right to participate in or benefit from any such other business activity. We reserve all other rights, including, the exclusive, unrestricted rights, to ourselves and through our employees, Affiliates, representatives, franchisees, assigns, agents and others to directly and indirectly:

(a) own or operate: (1) “Sit Means Sit” Businesses at any location outside the Trade Area and without regard to their proximity to the boundaries of the Trade Area; and (2) businesses, including those that may be the same as or similar to a Business, which operate under names other than the Marks, at any location, and of any type whatsoever, without regard to their proximity to the Trade Area and whether or not such businesses use any portion of the System;

(b) offer and sell within and outside your Trade Area, and under the Marks, all products or services and/or their components (including those used or sold by the Business), whether or not a part of the System, through any method of distribution other than a Business situated within the Trade Area. These rights include, without limitation, the right to offer and sell services within such alternative channels of distribution as the Internet; “800” or similar toll-free telephone numbers; supermarkets, specialty stores, pet stores, grocery stores and convenience stores; mail order; catalogs; television sales (including infomercials); direct mail advertising, or any other channel of distribution whatsoever, except for a “Sit Means Sit” Business;

(c) purchase, merge, acquire, be acquired by or affiliate with an existing competitive or non-competitive franchise or non-franchise network or any other business regardless of the location of that other business’s facilities. Following that we may operate, franchise or license those other businesses and/or facilities under any names or marks other than the Marks, regardless of whether those businesses and/or facilities are within or immediately proximate to the Trade Area;

(d) solicit, sell to and service National Accounts wherever located, including in the Trade Area, provided that we may, in our discretion, establish and modify or withdraw, from time to time, the terms and conditions upon which you may solicit or service National Accounts subject to Section 7.12. Only we will have the right to enter into contracts with National Accounts (which may include facilities within the Trade Area);

(e) Service a customer within the Trade Area (either directly or through a third party) in response to a customer complaint or other customer service issue, as discussed below in Section 2.5; and

(f) advertise within the Trade Area.

2.4 Operation Outside of the Trade Area.

2.4.1 You will be permitted to operate the Business in areas contiguous to the Trade Area which have not been assigned to any another franchisee (each an “Unassigned Area”). You acknowledge that other franchisees in your area will have similar opportunities to provide services within the Unassigned Area. These rights may continue until a franchisee purchases from us the exclusive right to operate in the Unassigned Area. You may not establish, construct, maintain or operate a physical office, training center, or any type of sales or training facility outside of the Trade Area. You will not receive any right of first refusal or any other type of rights to an Unassigned Area because you operate or operated there. We may sell any Unassigned Area territory at any time, without giving you advance notice. After we give you notice to cease operating in the Unassigned Area, you may (for a maximum of 15 days) provide Authorized Products and Services for which appointments or orders were received before we gave you notice to cease operating in the Unassigned Area. You must, if asked to do so (and without compensation), orderly transition your customers in the applicable Unassigned Area to our designee.

2.4.2 You may not serve any customers or operate within any other franchisee’s trade area without that franchisee’s and our express written permission. That written permission may be conditional, granted, or withheld for any reason or no reason. If you obtain such written permission on a conditional basis, you must comply with all such conditions, and under no circumstances will the permission to serve one customer or operate at any location within that trade area be interpreted, assumed, or treated as permission to serve any other customer or operate at any other location.

2.5 Customer Service and Complaint Resolution. If you fail to adequately service a customer, or if a customer complains about your services, to address the customer’s complaint and preserve the goodwill of the franchise system, we reserve the right to service the customer directly or engage another party (including another franchisee) to do so, even if the customer is within your Trade Area. You must promptly notify us of any customer complaints and cooperate fully with us in resolving the issue. This includes providing us (or the servicing party) any necessary information and access to facilitate the resolution process. You must reimburse us (or the servicing party) for any costs incurred by us or the third party in servicing the customer. These rights are in addition to all other rights we have under the Agreement, including and up to termination.

ARTICLE 3 TERM

3.1 Term. The “Term” of this Agreement begins on the Effective Date and will continue for a period of 10 years, unless sooner terminated in accordance with this Agreement.

3.2 Successor Agreement. You will have the right at the expiration of the Term (the “Successor Agreement Right”) to enter into a new franchise agreement in the form we are then generally offering to prospective new franchisees (the “Successor Franchise Agreement”). The Successor Franchise Agreement may be substantially different from this Agreement in all material respects, including without limitation a smaller Trade Area, and will be for a 10-year period (the “Successor Term”). The term of the Successor Franchise Agreement will commence upon the date of expiration of the Term; provided, however, that: (a) you will not be required to pay an initial fee upon execution of the Successor Franchise Agreement; (b) except for adjustments as set forth in Section 5.12, you will not be required to pay a higher Continuing Royalty than the one you are paying us under this Agreement at the end of the Term; and (c) your available rights to obtain successor terms will be modified to conform to the Successor Agreement Right.

3.3 Form and Manner of Exercising Successor Agreement Right. You must exercise the Successor Agreement Right, if at all, strictly in the following manner:

3.3.1 Between 9 months and 12 months before the expiration of the Term, you must notify us in writing (“Notice of Election”) that you intend to exercise the Successor Agreement Right. No sooner than immediately after the expiration of any waiting period(s) required by Applicable law and no more than 30 days after you receive our franchise disclosure document (if applicable), you must execute the copies of the Successor Franchise Agreement and return them to us.

3.3.2 If you exercise the Successor Agreement Right in accordance with Section 3.3.1 and satisfy all of the conditions contained in Section 3.4, we will execute the Successor Franchise Agreement and deliver one fully executed copy to you. Your failure to timely to perform any of the acts, or timely deliver any of the notices required pursuant to the provisions of Sections 3.3 or 3.4, will automatically cause your Successor Agreement Right to lapse and expire.

3.4 Conditions Precedent to Entering into a Successor Franchise Agreement. Your Successor Agreement Right is conditioned upon your fulfilling each of the following conditions:

3.4.1 At the time you deliver your Notice of Election to us, and always until the commencement of the Successor Term, you must have fully performed all of your material obligations under this Agreement, the Manual and all other agreements then in effect between you and us or our Affiliates, and all agreements between you and Suppliers.

3.4.2 You must not have been convicted of any felony or have pled guilty or nolo contendere to any crime or trespass against a human being or an animal.

3.4.3 If we have permitted you to offer boarding services, you must demonstrate to us that you have operated and maintained your boarding facility or area in a clean, sanitary, and safe condition, and that you have not during the Term received more than three complaints within any twelve-month period regarding the safety, welfare, or care of any of the animals being boarded.

3.4.4 The person(s) designated by you as a trainer(s) will each possess a valid driver’s license for the state in which the Trade Area is located.

3.4.5 Without limiting the generality of Section 3.4.1, you must not have received from us 3 or more notices of material default of this Agreement during any period of 36 consecutive months during the Term, regardless of whether such defaults were cured.

3.4.6 At the time you sign the Successor Franchise Agreement, you and your Affiliates must execute and deliver to us a general release on the form required by us, of any and all known and unknown claims against us and our Affiliates and our Owners, officers, directors, agents, and employees. Our current required form is attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit B.

3.4.7 You must comply with our then-current qualification, certification, re-certification, and training requirements and pay all Travel Expenses you incur.

3.5 Holdover Franchise. If for any reason, you continue to operate the Business beyond the Term of this Agreement or any subsequent renewal period, it shall be deemed to be on a month-to-month basis under the terms of this Agreement (except that you will no longer have the right to obtain a Successor Franchise Agreement pursuant to Section 3.3) and subject to termination upon 30 days' notice or as required by law. If the hold-over period exceeds 90 days, this Agreement is subject to immediate termination unless Applicable Law requires a longer period. Upon termination after any hold-over period, you and those in active concert with you, including Owners, family members, officers, directors, partners and managing agents, are subject to the terms of Agreement including post-termination obligations contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 LICENSED BUSINESS

4.1 Required Equipment; Vehicles.

4.1.1 We will provide you with copies of the Policies for required equipment (including computer equipment), inventory, supplies, materials, and signs. You must, at your sole expense, promptly obtain those items in accordance with the Policies, unless we otherwise agree in writing.

4.1.2 You must have one or more trucks or sport-utility vehicles (each a “Vehicle” and more than one “Vehicles”) to sell and perform Authorized Products and Services within the Trade Area. Each Vehicle must meet our then-current Policies, including, among other things, specifications relating to the required quantity, make, model, year, color, and body wrap or other advertising. You must, promptly following the purchase or lease of a Vehicle and prior to using a Vehicle for the Business, make such modifications and additions to the Vehicle as we require, including applying and installing all decals, logos, wraps and racks as we specify.

4.2 Maintaining Vehicles. You must maintain the condition and appearance of all Vehicles in first class condition and repair and in a level of cosmetic appearance that is consistent with the image of Businesses as clean, efficient and well-operated. If at any time in our reasonable judgment, the state of repair, appearance (including logos, decals and/or signs) or cleanliness your Vehicles fail to meet the Policies, you must immediately upon receiving notice from us correct such deficiency, modify, repair, refurbish, and/ or replace the Vehicles as applicable.

4.3 Training Facility. You are not required to operate the Business at a formal training facility (a “Training Facility”). If you intend to operate from such a facility, you must obtain our advance consent and approval of any site which you propose to use as your Training Facility. Any Training Facility must be located within the Trade Area and you may not establish, construct, maintain or operate a physical office, or any type of sales or training facility outside of the Trade Area. The location of the Training Facility must meet the Policies. You must always maintain, at your sole expense, the interior and exterior of the Training Facility in first class condition and repair, and in compliance with all Applicable Laws, rules, regulations and the Manual. Prior to purchasing or obtaining a lease for any real property, you must submit to us such information regarding the proposed site(s) and neighboring areas as we require, in the form(s) we prescribe. We may accept or reject a proposed site in our sole discretion.

4.3.1 You may not relocate the Training Facility without our prior written consent. If we consent to any relocation, you must de-identify the former Training Facility in the manner described in this Agreement with respect to your obligations upon termination and expiration, and must reimburse and indemnify us from any direct and indirect losses, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out your failure to do so.

4.3.2 If the Training Facility is leased or subleased: (i) the Lease for the Training Facility must name you as the sole lessee and may not be assigned or sublet without our prior written consent; and (ii) we will have the right to review and accept or reject the Lease, a true and correct copy of which shall be delivered to us prior to your signing it. The covenants contained in this Section 4.3.2 survive the termination of this Agreement. Our review and acceptance of the Lease is solely for our benefit and is solely an indication the Lease meets our Policies at the time of acceptance for the Lease (which may be different than the requirements of this Agreement).

4.4 Commencement of Business and Continuous Operation. Before you start operating the Business, you must provide photographs, video images, and other information we request by us to confirm that the Vehicle(s) and, if applicable, the Training Facility, conform(s) to the Policies. We may, before you commence operating the Business, inspect the Vehicle(s) and, if applicable, the Training Facility, to ensure that they conform to the Policies. You may not start operating the Business until you have received our written permission, which may be conditional and subject to our receipt of further information and/or inspection. Unless we otherwise agree in writing, you must begin operating the Business within 60 days after you complete the Initial Training Program. You must operate the Business not less than 4 days and 40 hours per week.

ARTICLE 5 PAYMENTS

5.1 Initial Fee. Upon execution of this Agreement, you must pay us the nonrefundable Initial Fee in the amount specified in Addendum A. The Initial Fee is fully earned by us upon signing this Agreement and is not refundable under any circumstances.

5.2 Continuing Royalty. Beginning in the month you complete the Initial Training Program, you must pay us a monthly royalty fee (the “Continuing Royalty”) in the amount specified in Addendum A. The monthly minimum portion of the Continuing Royalty is subject to adjustment as described in Section 5.12.

5.3 Timing of Payment. No later than the 5th day of each month, you must calculate and ensure we receive the Continuing Royalty. You must timely pay us all other amounts you owe us and our Affiliates in accordance with the terms, conditions, and Policies in effect from time to time. Any Continuing Royalty payment we do not receive by the 5th day of the month is late.

5.4 CRM System. You must subscribe to and use the Customer Relationship Management (“CRM”) system that we designate for your Franchised Business and use it in accordance with the Manual and our written standards. You must pay (a) a one-time, nonrefundable setup fee (currently $1,000) upon onboarding, and (b) a monthly CRM fee (currently $800), payable in accordance with our payment policies.

5.5 EFT. You must instruct your bank to make all payments due under this Agreement directly to us from your account, by electronic funds transfer or such other automatic payment mechanism which we may designate (“EFT”). You must execute or re-execute and deliver to us the current form of our EFT authorization form, attached hereto as Addendum “B”, as well as all pre-authorized check forms and other instruments or drafts required by our bank to enable us to draw all sums payable under the terms of this Agreement. You must also maintain a single bank account for such payments and maintain the minimum balance we reasonably specify. You may not alter or close the account without our prior written approval.

5.6 Convention Attendance; Fees. We may require you, and such of your personnel as we designate, to attend certain meetings. We may charge you a reasonable attendance fee per person for each mandatory meeting. You will bear all Travel Expenses and other costs of attendance.

5.7 Non-Compliance Assessment. Upon the occurrence of an event of default by you, we have the right, upon written notice to you, to impose a separate default fee equal to one hundred dollars ($100) per breach, per week (“Default Fee”). The Default Fee is in addition to any other rights and/or remedies that we may have including, without limitation, our right to terminate this Agreement.

5.8 Failure to Attend Re-Certification Training. If it has been three (3) or more years since you completed the Initial Training Program or your last re-certification training and you fail for any reason to attend a scheduled re-certification training, we will charge you a fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). If you miss more than one consecutive re-certification training, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement.

5.9 Other Payments.

5.9.1 You must pay to us, our Affiliates and designees, as applicable, promptly when due:

(a) Amounts we incur to perform and update periodic background checks on you and your trainers;

(b) All amounts advanced by us or which we have paid, or for which we have become obligated to pay on behalf your for any reason whatsoever;

(c) The amount of all sales, use, personal property and similar taxes, which may be imposed upon you, but required to be collected or paid by us on account of fees that we collect from you (but excluding our ordinary income taxes). We may collect the taxes in the same way we collect Continuing Royalties and promptly pay the tax collections to the appropriate Governmental Authorities; provided, however, that unless we so elect, it is your responsibility to pay all sales, use, income, or other taxes imposed now or in the future by any Governmental Authorities on fees paid by you to us; and

(d) All amounts due for any reason, including on account of purchases of goods, supplies or services relating to the Business.

5.9.2 You must remain current and fully comply and perform each of your obligations to your landlord, vendors and Suppliers.

5.10 Application of Funds. If you become delinquent in the payment of any obligation to us or our Affiliate under this Agreement or any other agreement, we will have the absolute right to apply any payments received from you to any obligation you owe us or our Affiliate, notwithstanding any contrary designation by you.

5.11 Interest and Charges for Late Payments. If you fail to pay to us all sums owed to us or our Affiliates promptly when due, you must pay interest on the unpaid amounts from the date due, at 10% per annum, or the highest rate allowable under Applicable Law, whichever is less. If any check, draft or electronic transfer is unpaid because of insufficient funds or otherwise, you must pay our expenses arising from such non-payment, including bank fees in the amount of at least $50.00.

5.12 Annual Increases. We have the right to increase our flat fees by a maximum of 10% per year, calculated cumulatively over the term of the Franchise Agreement. Additionally, we may also increase these fees by the amount of any increases in fees from third parties for the underlying products or services which will be added to the capped fee increase.

ARTICLE 6 TRAINING

6.1 Initial Training Program.

6.1.1 You must employ at least one Authorized Trainer. Your initial Authorized Trainer must successfully complete, to our satisfaction, our “Initial Training Program,” which covers our System, dog training techniques, operations, Policies, philosophy, culture, marketing, and other topics we deem necessary (excluding topics typically known by a licensed contractor). We may modify the content and delivery of the Initial Training Program at any time. We currently offer the program twice per year—once in the spring and once in the fall—at a Sit Means Sit® franchisee-owned location we designate. The program consists of approximately 150 hours over about 21 days. One individual you select (the “Initial Attendee”) may attend at no additional charge. You may not begin operating under the Marks or System until the Initial Attendee completes the program to our satisfaction. All attendees must sign our required confidentiality agreement.

6.1.2 If we determine that your Initial Attendee’s performance is unsatisfactory, we may terminate this Agreement without refund. We have sole discretion to determine whether the program has been successfully completed.

6.1.3 Upon your reasonable request and payment of the applicable Initial Training Fee, we may allow additional employees to attend the Initial Training Program.

6.1.4 You are responsible for all Travel Expenses for anyone attending the Initial Training Program or any other training we offer.

6.1.5 We will not compensate any trainee for services performed during training, including services provided to us, our Affiliates, or other franchisees.

6.1.6 We may choose not to provide the Initial Training Program if, as of the Effective Date, you or your Authorized Trainer have previously completed it in connection with another Business, or if this Agreement is a Successor Franchise Agreement.

6.1.7 Our acceptance of an Authorized Trainer does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee of performance. We may later disapprove or challenge the qualifications or performance of any Authorized Trainer.

6.2 Staff. You must ensure that all employees conducting dog training are trained in accordance with the Manual and to our satisfaction. The Business must be supervised by an Authorized Trainer. We may require any person conducting dog training to complete the Initial Training Program. Before opening, and at all times during the Term, you must employ a sufficient number of trained staff and dog trainers to operate the Business, as we determine. If you send any employee to the Initial Training Program or any other training, you must ensure they sign our required acknowledgment confirming that they are your employee only and not ours.

6.3 On-going Advice and Assistance.

6.3.1 You may request technical support, sales support, and general operational advice from us at no additional charge. We will use reasonable efforts to respond promptly. This does not create any obligation for us to pay you or defer your payment obligations. We may offer optional services (such as accounting support) for a separate fee.

6.3.2 If we provide support in your Trade Area at your request or because you are not operating in compliance with this Agreement or our Policies, we may charge you our then-current fees and require reimbursement of our travel and related expenses.

6.4 Additional Training. We may require you or your employees to attend additional training programs (“Additional Training”) during the Term. We may also offer optional Additional Training. These programs may be held nationally or regionally at locations and times we choose and will cover new procedures or programs we consider important. We will not charge a fee for required Additional Training, but we may charge for optional programs. You are responsible for all travel and related expenses for any Additional Training. We will not compensate trainees for services performed during training. If you send anyone to our apprentice program, you must pay a fee of $1,000 per person. You and your Authorized Trainer(s) must maintain all required certifications, including completing our re-certification program at least once every three years during the Term.

6.5 Periodic Meetings. We may from time to time schedule a system-wide or regional meeting at a time and location we choose. If we schedule such convention or meeting, you and your personnel we designate must attend such convention or meeting, unless we otherwise excuse you upon a showing of good cause, but we will not require your attendance more than once per calendar year. You must pay all Travel Expenses you and your personnel incur in connection with attending such convention or meeting, and must pay us our then-current fee for conducting the meeting or convention, as published in the Manual. You and your personnel must pay for and stay at the host hotel facility for the convention or meeting.

ARTICLE 7 STANDARDS OF OPERATOR QUALITY AND SERVICE

7.1 Compliance with Applicable Law. You represent, warrant, and covenant that you will obtain and maintain all licenses, permits, bonds, and approvals required to operate the Business. You must operate the Business in a clean, lawful, and professional manner, in full compliance with all Applicable Law and our Policies. You must ensure that all Vehicles are operated by properly licensed and insured drivers and that neither the Vehicles nor the Training Facility are used for any illegal or unethical purpose. You must conduct all dealings with customers, suppliers, and public officials with honesty, integrity, and professionalism. You must not engage in any conduct—or fail to act in a way—that, in our sole judgment, could harm the reputation of the Business, the System, the Marks, or the Sit Means Sit® brand. You must take all necessary steps to protect the health and safety of animals in your care and ensure they are not harmed or placed at risk.

7.2 Responsible Person. You must designate an individual (which may be you, if you are an individual) who will serve as the primary contact with us and be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Business. This individual must devote full time and best efforts to the Business, meet our qualifications as outlined in the Manual or otherwise in writing, and complete all required training under Article 6. Our acceptance of this individual does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee of performance.

7.3 Product Line and Service.

7.3.1 You must advertise, sell and provide all and only Authorized Products and Services at, from, or in connection with the Business. You acknowledge that Authorized Products and Services may differ at other Businesses, and may vary depending on the geographic location of the Trade Area or other factors. You must not provide, produce, advertise for sale, sell or give away any goods or services unless the product has been approved by us in the Manual as part of the Authorized Products and Services and has not been thereafter disapproved in writing by us. All Authorized Products and Services must be provided and sold under the specific name we designate. You may not cease offering any of the Authorized Products or Services, except as you may be notified or instructed by us in writing. You must, upon receipt of notice from us, sell and provide additional Authorized Products and Services according to the instructions and within the time specified in the notice. You must cease selling and providing any previously approved or discontinued Authorized Product or Service within 30 days after receiving notice from us that the product is no longer approved.

7.3.2 All products, services, and materials you sell or provide you must be of the highest quality, and conform strictly with Applicable Law, the Manual, and with our further requirements as they are communicated to you from time to time.

7.3.3 You will give your best efforts to aggressively market and sell Authorized Products and Services in the Trade Area.

7.3.4 You agree to cooperate with us and our other franchisees by actively participating in all sales, public relations, advertising, cooperative advertising and purchasing programs or promotional programs (including, without limitation, product give-away promotions) which we may develop or implement. Participation may include loyalty programs, prize promotions, and other marketing campaigns and programs.

7.4 Sale at Retail; Containers Fixtures and Other Goods. You agree that all packaging and like articles you use in connection with the Business will conform to the Policies, must be imprinted (if required by us) with the Marks and must be purchased by you from us, or a distributor or manufacturer approved in writing by us, as provided in Article 10. No item of merchandise, products, signs, supplies, or equipment may be used in connection with the Business or the sale or provision of Authorized Products and Services unless you have first obtained our written approval.

7.5 Computer System; Data Privacy.

7.5.1 You must purchase, use, and maintain a personal computer system that meets our current specifications, as outlined in the Manual or as otherwise provided by us in writing (the “Computer System”). Your Computer System must be connected to the Internet at all times through a reliable service provider, include an active email account and any communication tools we specify, and be capable of sending and receiving digital photos, video, and audio files in the format we require. You must obtain and maintain all required hardware and software, including digital still and video cameras, as we may designate, and ensure that only adequately trained personnel use the Computer System to conduct business transactions. You must purchase any upgrades, enhancements, or replacements to the Computer System, hardware, or software that we require. You must also ensure that we and our representatives have full and unrestricted access to your Computer System and its files at all times, including through remote electronic access.

7.5.2 You must subscribe to and use the CRM system that we designate for your Franchised Business. You must use the CRM system in accordance with the Manual and our written standards, including for customer data, scheduling, sales tracking, and reporting. Your use of the CRM system is a material obligation under this Agreement. We may require you to adopt a different CRM system or provider upon reasonable notice, and you must comply with any transition requirements.

7.5.3 At our request, you must license or sublicense from us or our designee any proprietary software we designate (“Proprietary Software”), including the CRM system. You must sign our then-current software license agreement and install any updates, enhancements, or modifications we require within 30 days of receiving notice, unless we specify a longer period.

7.5.4 You must maintain relationships with the credit card processors, payment platforms, and other non-cash payment vendors we designate (“Credit Card Vendors”), including companies that provide services for electronic payments such as near-field communication (NFC) vendors. You may not use any vendor we have not approved or whose approval we have revoked. You are responsible for acquiring all necessary hardware and software to support these systems. We may change our requirements at any time, including adding or removing approved vendors or payment methods.

7.5.5 You must comply with the current Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards (PCI DSS) as issued by the PCI Security Standards Council (www.pcisecuritystandards.org), or any successor standards we designate. This includes implementing all required security measures and updates, demonstrating compliance upon request (which may include undergoing a third-party audit by a Qualified Security Assessor), and engaging an approved vendor for ongoing compliance support if you are unable to meet PCI DSS requirements. You must also comply with any other data security standards or compliance programs required by the banking or payment processing industry, and you are responsible for all related costs.

7.5.6 You must protect all Customer Information and use it only during the term of your Agreement and solely for operating your Business, subject to Applicable Law.

7.5.7 You must take all necessary actions to independently learn and comply with all applicable Privacy Laws, learn and comply with the Brand Standards as they relate to Privacy Laws and the privacy and security of Customer Information, and learn and comply with any posted privacy policy and other representations made to the individual identified by Customer Information that you process. You must communicate any limitations required by such policies to any authorized receiving party in compliance with all Privacy Laws, and refrain from any action or inaction that could cause us or our affiliates to breach any Privacy Laws. You must maintain, and ensure that your personnel adhere to, all reasonable physical, technical, and administrative safeguards and related policies for Customer Information in your possession or control to protect it from unauthorized processing, destruction, modification, or use that would violate this Agreement, the Brand Standards, or any Privacy Law. You must do and execute, or arrange to be done and executed, each act, document, and thing we deem necessary in our business judgment to keep us and our affiliates in compliance with Privacy Laws.

7.5.8 You must immediately report to us any breach of the requirements in this Agreement or the Brand Standards regarding Customer Information or any Privacy Law, or any theft or loss (or any apparent or alleged theft or loss) of Customer Information, excluding Customer Information of your own officers, directors, shareholders, employees, or service providers. Upon request, you must provide us with information, reports, and the results of any audits performed regarding your data security policies, procedures, or technical controls related to Customer Information. You must also provide us or our representatives with access to your technology systems, records, processes, and practices that involve processing of Customer Information in order to mitigate a security incident or to allow an audit to be conducted.

7.5.9 You will indemnify, defend, and hold us and our affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, managers, partners, employees, contractors, attorneys, representatives, agents, and associates harmless in connection with any claim or action arising out of or relating to any theft, loss, or misuse (including any apparent or alleged theft, loss, or misuse) of Customer Information, and any breach of the terms, conditions, or obligations relating to data security, Privacy Laws, or Customer Information set forth in this Agreement.

7.6 Manual. You must operate the Business in strict compliance with the Manual and our Policies, as we may amend them from time to time. The Manual is designed to protect the integrity of the System and the goodwill of the Marks, not to control your day-to-day operations.

7.6.1 We may modify the Manual at any time, including by adding, deleting, or revising content. These modifications may include emergency procedures in response to a Crisis Management Event, which may require you to temporarily suspend operations. We may disclose certain of its Trade Secrets to Restricted Persons or Trainers in the Manual, bulletins, supplements, confidential correspondence, or other communications, and through our training programs and other guidance and management assistance. "Trade Secrets" will not include information which: (a) has entered the public domain or was known to you prior to our disclosing such information to you, other than by the breach of an obligation of confidentiality owed (by anyone) to us or our Affiliates; (b) becomes known to the Restricted Persons from a source other than us or our Affiliates and other than by the breach of an obligation of confidentiality owed (by anyone) to us or our Affiliates; or (c) was independently developed by you using or benefitting any of our Trade Secrets. The burden of proving that information you received from us does not constitute a Trade Secret will be yours alone.

13.2.2 No Restricted Person or Trainer will acquire any interest in the Trade Secrets or Customer Information other than the right to use them in developing and operating the Business during the Term. A Restricted Person's or Trainer's duplication or use of the Trade Secrets or Customer Information in any other endeavor or business will constitute unfair competition. Each Restricted Person and Trainer will: (i) not use the Trade Secrets or Customer Information in any business or other endeavor other than in connection with the Business; (ii) maintain absolute confidentiality of the Trade Secrets and Customer Information during and after the Term; and (iii) make no unauthorized copy of any portion of the Trade Secrets or Customer Information, including the Manual, bulletins, supplements, confidential correspondence, or other confidential communications, whether written or oral. You will operate the Business and implement all reasonable procedures we prescribe to prevent unauthorized use and disclosure of the Trade Secrets. If you have any reason to believe that any Restricted Person or Trainer has violated the provisions of any confidentiality agreement, you must promptly notify us and will cooperate with us to protect us against infringement or other unlawful use as we deem necessary.

13.2.3 In view of the importance of the Marks and the Trade Secrets and the incalculable and irreparable harm that would result to the parties in the event of a default of the covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree that each party will have the right to obtain specific performance, temporary restraining orders and temporary or preliminary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the covenants and agreements in this Agreement, in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled at law or in equity. Each party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Nevada and the U.S. federal courts sitting in Las Vegas, Nevada for these purposes. The parties agree that venue for those proceeding will be the state and federal courts located in Las Vegas, Nevada. You agree that we may obtain temporary or preliminary injunctive relief without bond, but upon due notice, and that your sole remedy in the event of the entry of such injunctive relief will be the dissolution of the injunctive relief, if warranted, upon hearing. You expressly waive all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of any injunction.

13.2.4 You must obtain covenants like those in Sections 13.1 and 13.2 from Restricted Persons and such other personnel we specify. You must obtain covenants like those in Section 13.2 from Trainers and such other personnel we specify. We do not require (but you may in your own discretion require) your Trainers to sign a non-competition agreement with you. We may regulate the form of agreements you use, and we may require that you name us an express third-party beneficiary with the right to enforce such agreements. Our current required form of Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement, for use with Restricted Persons, is attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit D. Our current required form of Confidentiality Agreement, for use with Trainers, is attached to the Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit E. Promptly upon our request, you must deliver to us executed copies of such agreements.

13.3 Effect of Applicable Law; Tolling. The parties agree that each covenant in this Article 13 must be construed to be independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. In the event any portion of the covenants in this Article violates laws affecting you or is held invalid or unenforceable in a final judgment to which we and you are parties, then the maximum legally allowable restriction permitted by law will control and bind you. We may at any time unilaterally reduce the scope of any part of the above covenants, and you must comply with any such reduced covenant upon receipt of written notice. The provisions of this Article shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other confidentiality obligation your, or any other person, whether pursuant to another agreement or pursuant to Applicable Law. Any period specified in this Article 13 will be tolled and suspended for any period during which any party is in violation of any restrictive covenant.

13.4 Business Practices. You represent, warrant and covenant to us that, as of the Effective Date, you and each of your Owners (if you are an Business Entity) will be and will remain in full compliance with all Applicable Laws in each jurisdiction in which you or any of your Owners, conducts business that prohibit unfair, fraudulent or corrupt business practices in the performance of your obligations under this Agreement and related activities. You certify that neither you, nor your Owners, principals, employees or anyone associated with you are listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224. (The Annex is available at <http://www.treasury.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sanctions/terrorism.html>.) You agree not to hire or have any dealings with a person listed in the Annex. You certify that you have no knowledge or information that, if generally known, would result in you, your Owners, principals, employees, or anyone associated with you being listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224. You agree to comply with and/or fully assist us in our efforts to comply with Anti-Terrorism Laws. You certify, represent, and warrant that none your property or interests are subject to being “blocked” under any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws and that you and your Owners or principals are not otherwise in violation of any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws. You are solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by you to comply with all Anti-Terrorism Laws.

13.5 Survival. This Article 13 will not limit, restrain or otherwise affect any right or cause of action which we may have for any infringement of, violation of, or interference with, this Agreement, or the Marks, System, Trade Secrets, our trade dress, or any other proprietary aspects of our business.

ARTICLE 14 ASSIGNMENT

14.1 Assignment by us. You acknowledge that we maintain a staff to manage and operate the System and that staff members can change as our owners, directors, officers, and employees come and go. You represent that you have not signed this Agreement in reliance on any shareholder, director, officer, or employee remaining with us in that capacity. We may change our ownership or form and/or assign this Agreement and any other agreement to a third party without restriction. If we do so, we will no longer have any performance or other obligations under this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement requires Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. to remain in the dog training business or to offer the same products and services, whether bearing the Marks, if we exercise our right to assign this Agreement.

14.2 Assignment by you.

14.2.1 The rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to you. We have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon and in consideration of your individual or your Owners' collective character, reputation, skill attitude, business ability, and financial capacity. Neither you nor any Owner (other than us, if applicable) will, without our prior written consent, cause or permit any Assignment. If we grant our consent, we may impose any condition upon our consent, including some or all of the following (any of which may be waived by us):

(a) that you provide a detailed description of the price and all material terms and conditions of the proposed Assignment and the identity of the proposed assignee and such other information as we may reasonably request.

(b) that your right to receive payments in connection with the Assignment is subordinated to our rights to receive any outstanding monetary obligations or other outstanding obligations due from you or your assignee under any agreement with us or any Affiliate, whether arising before or after the Assignment;

(c) that you provide us a list of all Owners having an interest in this Agreement or in you, the percentage interest of Owner, and a list of all officers and directors, in any form we require;

(d) that you comply with Section 14.3 and we have not exercised the ROFR;

(e) that you are not in default under the terms of this Agreement (or any other related agreement), all agreements with our Affiliates, the Manual or any other obligations you owe us;

(f) that all obligations to third parties in connection with the Business (including but not limited to prepaid services) have been satisfied or assumed by the assignee;

(g) that you and your Owners (if you are an Business Entity) execute a general release in a form we prescribe (the current form of which is attached as "Exhibit B" to the Franchise Disclosure Document), of any and all known and unknown claims against us and our Affiliates and our and their owners, officers, directors, agents, and employees;

(h) that your assignee has demonstrated to our satisfaction that it, he or she meets all of our then-current Policies for new Business operators or for holders of an interest in a franchise, including possession of good moral character and reputation, satisfactory credit ratings, acceptable business qualifications, the ability to obtain or acquire the license(s) and permit(s) necessary for the operation of the Business, and the ability to fully comply with the terms of this Agreement;

(i) that the assignee has agreed, under a written assumption agreement approved by us, that at closing, the assignee will, at our option, either (a) assume this Agreement; provided however, that such assumption will not relieve you (as transferor/assignor) of any continuing obligations; or (b) execute a replacement franchise or license agreement on then-current standard form of franchise agreement used by us, provided, however, that the term of the replacement franchise agreement will be, at our option, the remaining term of this Agreement;

(j) that you or your assignee agrees to refurbish or replace, as applicable, all Vehicles and the Training Facility used in the Business as needed (in our discretion) to match our then-current design, trade dress, color scheme and Policies;

(k) that there is not any suit, action, or proceeding pending, or any suit, action, or proceeding threatened, against you with respect to the Business;

(l) that upon submitting your request for our consent to any proposed Assignment, you pay us a non-refundable fee equal to the greater of: (i) the amount of our actual out-of-pocket expenses associated with evaluating and documenting the proposed Assignment; (ii) $5,000; or (iii) 10% of the total consideration received by you and your Owners.

(m) that you (or your assignee) pay our then-current training fees and, if applicable, Travel Expenses, if we determine that your assignee and/or any one or more of its employees must successfully complete the Initial Training Program;

(n) that you and your Owners agree with your assignee not to compete with your assignee after the Assignment in accordance with restrictions acceptable to us and substantially similar to those provided in this Agreement to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law, and we will be named as a third party beneficiary of such agreement; and

(o) that your assignee, or its anticipated Authorized Trainer(s), have satisfactorily completed our Initial Training Program.

14.2.2 Any purported Assignment (occurring by operation of law or otherwise) without our prior written consent will constitute your material default of this Agreement, and will be null and void. Except when you advertise to sell the Business and assign this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, you must not, without our prior written consent, offer for sale or transfer at public or private auction or advertise publicly for sale or transfer, the supplies, fixtures, or equipment. You may not make any Assignment to a public Business Entity, or to any Business Entity whose direct or indirect parent's securities are publicly traded.

14.2.3 If you are a Business Entity, you must promptly provide us with written notice of each and every issuance of Equity by you and every transfer, assignment and encumbrance by any Owner of any direct or indirect Equity or voting rights in you, regardless of whether it constitutes an "Assignment."

14.2.4 Our consent to an Assignment will not: (a) constitute a waiver of any claims we have against you arising out of this Agreement or otherwise, including: (i) any payment or other duty owed by you to us before such Assignment; or (ii) your duty of indemnification and defense, whether before or after such Assignment, or (iii) the obligation to obtain our consent to any subsequent transfer; or (b) be an indication as to the likelihood of success or economic viability of the assignee.

14.3 Right of First Refusal. If you or any Owner (other than us, if applicable) want to cause or permit any Assignment, then you and/or such Owner must notify us in writing. You must provide us the information and documentation we require. You grant us a right of first refusal (the “ROFR”) for 60 days following our receiving your written notice of the proposed Assignment and copies of all required documentation (the “ROFR Period”) to purchase the interest which you or such Owner proposes to transfer, on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party; provided that we may substitute cash for any non-cash consideration in an amount we determine in good faith as the approximate equivalent value of the non-cash consideration. Notwithstanding the terms and conditions offered by the third party, you must make representations and warranties to us that are customary for transactions of the type proposed, including: (1) your power, authority and legal capacity to sell, transfer and assign the property or interests, (2) valid right, title and interest in the property or interests, (3) the absence of all liens, encumbrances and liabilities on the property or interests, and (4) the absence of any violation, in any material respect, or default under, or acceleration of any material agreement or instrument pursuant to which the property or interests to be transferred are encumbered or bound as the result of the sale. If we elect to exercise the ROFR, we or our nominee will notify you in writing, and the closing of the transaction will occur within 60 days after delivery of our notice, subject to the satisfaction of all conditions to closing. If we do not exercise the ROFR, any material change in the terms of an offer prior to closing, or the failure to close the transaction within 60 days after the ROFR Period, will cause it to be deemed a new offer, subject to the same ROFR as in the case of the initial offer. Our choice not to exercise the ROFR is not consent to the Assignment or a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement.

14.4 Business Entity. If you are a Business Entity, the following provisions will apply:

14.4.1 You represent, warrant and covenant that: (a) you have the authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and all related agreements and are duly organized or formed and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the state of your incorporation or formation; and (b) the information set forth in Addendum “A”, is accurate and complete in all material respects. If you wish to make any change to the ownership of your Business Entity, you must first obtain our consent in the manner stated in Section 14.2.

14.4.2 All of your organizational documents (including articles of partnership, partnership agreements, articles of incorporation, articles of organization, bylaws, shareholders agreements, trust instruments, or their equivalent) must provide that the issuance and transfer of any interest in you are restricted by the terms of this Agreement, and that sole purpose for which you are formed (and your sole activity) is the development and operation of the Business. Upon our request, you must submit a resolution of your (or your governing body) confirming that you are following this provision. All certificates and other documents representing Equity in you must bear a legend in a form we prescribe referring to this Agreement’s restrictions.

14.4.3 All your present and future Owners must execute a written guaranty in a form we prescribe (currently, Exhibit C to our franchise disclosure document), personally, irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteeing, jointly and severally, with all other guarantors, the full payment and performance your obligations to us and to our Affiliates. Upon each transfer or assignment of an interest in you, or other change in ownership interests in you, and at any other time upon our request, said holders must re-execute a written guaranty in a form we prescribe.

14.5 Non-Waiver of Claims. Our consent to an Assignment will not constitute a waiver of any claims we may have against the Assigning party and cannot be deemed a waiver of our right to demand strict compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement.

ARTICLE 15 DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

15.1 General. We will have the right to terminate this Agreement only for “Cause.” “Cause” is defined as a default of this Agreement. We may exercise our right to terminate this Agreement upon notice to you upon the circumstances outlined in this Article 15.

15.2 Automatic Termination Without Notice. Subject only to Applicable Laws of the jurisdiction in which Trade Area is located, you will be deemed to be in material breach under this Agreement, and all rights granted herein will automatically terminate without notice to you if: (i) you are adjudicated bankrupt or judicially determined to be insolvent (subject to any contrary provisions of any applicable state or federal laws), admit to an inability to meet your financial obligations as they become due, or make a disposition for the benefit of your creditors; (ii) you allow a judgment against you in the amount of more than $5,000 to remain unsatisfied for a period of more than 30 days (unless a supersedeas or other appeal bond has been filed); (iii) the Business or your assets are seized, taken over or foreclosed by a Governmental Authority, or seized, taken over, or foreclosed by a creditor or lienholder, provided that a final judgment against you remains unsatisfied for 30 days (unless a supersedeas or other appeal bond has been filed); (iv) a levy of execution or attachment is made upon this Agreement or upon any property used in connection with the Business, and is not discharged within 5 days of such levy or attachment; (v) you allow or permit any judgment to be entered against us or our Affiliates, arising out of or relating to the operation of the Business; or (vi) you are convicted of any felony, or any criminal misconduct relevant to the operation of the Business.

15.3 Option to Terminate Immediately With Notice. You are in default under this Agreement, and we may at our option terminate this Agreement and all of your rights without affording you any opportunity to cure the default upon the occurrence of any of the events listed in this Section 15.3. Such termination will be effective immediately upon your receiving notice from us.

15.3.1 Abandonment. You abandon the Business. For purposes of this Agreement, “abandon” means your failure to: (i) operate the Business for a period of 5 consecutive days, except as provided in the Manual, (ii) keep the Business operating for any period after which it is not unreasonable under the facts and circumstances for us to conclude that you do not intend to continue to operate the franchise, (iii) actively and continuously maintain and answer your telephone; or (iv) open the Business and begin operating it before the deadline stated in Section 4.4.

15.3.2 Assignment, Death or Incapacity. You purport to make any Assignment without our prior written consent; provided, however, that if the Business continues to be operated in conformity with this Agreement: (i) upon prompt written request and upon the death or legal incapacity of you (if you are an individual,) we will allow up to 6 months after such death or legal incapacity for your heirs, personal representatives, or conservators (the “Heirs”) to either: (i) to assume this Agreement or, at our discretion, execute our then-current form of franchise agreement (except that no initial fee or transfer fee will be charged), if we are subjectively satisfied that the Heirs meet our Policies and qualifications; or (ii) if not so satisfied, to allow the Heirs to sell the Business to a person approved by us; or (iii) upon prompt written request and upon the death or legal incapacity of an Owner owning 25% or more of your Equity, voting power, or Partnership Rights, we will allow a period of up to 6 months after such death or legal incapacity for the Heirs to seek and obtain our consent to the transfer or Assignment of such stock, membership interests or Partnership Rights to the Heirs or to another person acceptable to us. If, within that 6-month period, the Heirs fail either to enter into a new franchise agreement or to sell the Business to a person approved by us, or fail to receive our consent to the Assignment to another person acceptable by us, this Agreement will automatically terminate;

15.3.3 Repeated Defaults. If you receive from us more than 2 written notices of default stating a material breach within any 12-month period, or more than 3 such notices within any 24-months;

15.3.4 Misrepresentation. If you make any material misrepresentation relating to your acquisition of the Business;

15.3.5 Violation of Law. If you fail, for 10 days after having received notification of noncompliance from us or any Governmental Authority, to comply with any Applicable Law;

15.3.6 Health or Safety Violations. Your conduct of the Business is so contrary to this Agreement, the System and the Manual as to constitute an imminent danger to the health, safety or welfare of your customers or the dogs you train, or you sell recalled or other unauthorized products after notice of default and continue to sell such products whether or not you have cured the default after one or more notices;

15.3.7 Injury or Danger to Animals in Your Care. You injure, cause injury to, or operate your Business in a way that is (in our sole opinion) reasonably likely to result in injury to any animal that is in your care. This provision will not apply if an injury is the result of an accident not caused by your neglect, recklessness, or lack of care on your part and you have promptly communicated with us and your customer about the accident;

15.3.8 Crisis Management Event. You fail to: (a) communicate with us about a Crisis Management Event within the time required by Section 7.7.1; or (b) take such remedial action in response to a Crisis Management Event as we reasonably direct;

15.3.9 Unfair Competition. Any violation by you of Section 13.1; your intentional disclosure or use in violation of this Agreement of the contents of the Manual, Trade Secrets or confidential or proprietary information provided to you by us, excluding independent acts of employees or others if you have exercised your best efforts to prevent such disclosures or use;

15.3.10 Certain Conduct. If you, the Authorized Trainer, or any other trainer is convicted of or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to: a) a felony; b) a crime involving harm done to humans or animals; c) any crime or offense relating to the operation of a motor vehicle that could result in a sentence of incarceration for more than one (1) year; or d) an offense that is reasonably related to the business and is likely to adversely affect our reputation, the System, the Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or our interest therein;

15.3.11 Care of Animals. If we have permitted you to offer boarding services, you receive: (a) any citation from any Governmental Authority relating to the cleanliness, sanitation, or safety of the boarding area or services you provide; or (b) two or more complaints within any month regarding the safety, welfare, or care of any of the animals being boarded.

15.3.12 Intellectual Property Misuse; Harm to the Marks or System. If you materially misuse or make any unauthorized use of the Marks or otherwise materially impair the goodwill associated with them or our rights in them, or take any action which reflects materially and unfavorably upon the operation and reputation of the Business, or the “Sit Means Sit” franchise generally, or your unauthorized use, disclosure, or duplication of the Trade Secrets or Customer Information, excluding independent acts of employees if you exercised your best efforts to prevent such disclosures or use.

15.3.13 Failure to Attend Consecutive Re-Certification Training. You fail to obtain re-certification within three (3) years of your completing the Initial Training Program and you: (a) fail to pay the $2,500 amount stated in Section 5.7; or (b) have missed more than one (1) consecutive re-certification training program.

15.4 Termination With Notice and Opportunity To Cure. Except for any breach or default by you under Sections 15.2 or 15.3, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, following written notice from us, you will have 10 days (5 days in the case of any default in the timely payment of sums due to us or our Affiliates), within which to completely remedy any default and provide us evidence of such remedy. If any such default is not cured within that time (or such longer period as required by Applicable Law or as we may specify in the notice), then at our option this Agreement and all your rights will terminate without further notice or opportunity to cure. You will be in default under this Article for any failure to comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement. Such defaults include, but are not limited to, the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

15.4.1 You fail, refuse or neglect to promptly pay any amounts owed to us under any promissory note;

15.4.2 You fail, refuse or neglect to promptly pay when due any monies owed to us, our subsidiaries or Affiliates, or to submit the financial or other information we require;

15.4.3 You fail to maintain the Policies we specify in the Manual or otherwise;

15.4.4 You fail, refuse or neglect to obtain our prior written approval or consent as required by this Agreement;

15.4.5 You commence or conduct any business operation, or market any product or services, under a name or mark which, in our reasonable opinion, is confusingly similar to our Marks;

15.4.6 You fail to cooperate with us in connection with inspections of the Business or its operations;

15.4.7 You fail to procure or maintain the insurance required by this Agreement or in the Manual;

15.4.8 You do not comply with the customer relations requirements stated in Section 7.14, or the requirements stated in the Manual.

15.5 Reimbursement of our Costs. In the event of your default, you must reimburse us for all of our costs and expenses arising from such default, including reasonable legal fees and reasonable hourly charges of our administrative employees within 5 days after your cure.

15.6 Cross-Default. Any default by you under the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other agreement between us (or our Affiliate) and you (or any Affiliate of yours), will also be a default of each and every such agreement. Further, in the event we terminate this Agreement or any other such agreement for cause, we may, at our option, terminate any or all said agreements.

15.7 Notice Required By Law. In the event Applicable Law limits our rights of termination or requires longer notice periods than those set forth above, this Agreement will be considered amended to conform to the minimum notice periods or restrictions upon termination required by such law. We will not, however, be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of such laws or regulations in any action, hearing or dispute relating to this Agreement or its termination.

15.8 Our Default. You may terminate this Agreement due to our material default of our obligations under this Agreement, which default is not cured by us within 60 days after our receipt of written notice by you detailing the alleged default with reasonable specificity; provided, that if the default is such that it cannot be reasonably cured within such 60 day period, we will not be in default if we commence a cure for such default within 60 days and diligently continue to prosecute the cure to completion. If you terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section, you must comply with all of the terms and conditions of Article 16. No court, arbitrator or referee will have the power or authority to modify, change, amend, or waive this Section.

ARTICLE 16

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION

16.1 General. Upon the expiration, termination, or your Assignment (as applicable) of this Agreement:

16.1.1 You must immediately cease to use all Trade Secrets, the Marks, the Customer Information, and any confusingly similar trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype or other commercial symbol or insignia, and cease using all photographs, images, videos, testimonials and Advertisements. You must immediately return the Manual, all training materials, video recordings, records, customer lists, files, advertising and promotional materials, and all other written materials incorporating or containing Trade Secrets. 16.1.2 We may retain all fees you have paid us under this Agreement. You must immediately pay us all amounts owing to us and our Affiliates. You will also remain responsible for paying us the Liquidated Damages specified in Section 16.2.

16.1.3 All obligations we have to you under this Agreement will immediately cease and terminate. All rights you have under this Agreement will immediately cease and terminate, and you must immediately cease and refrain from representing yourself as then being, or formerly having been, our franchisee.

16.1.4 You must deliver all goods and materials in your possession that contain the Marks to us, and we will have the sole and exclusive right to use any such items. You are not entitled to any compensation from us if we exercise this option.

16.1.5 If you have collected advance payments for services, including through prepaid packages, you must, at our option: (a) refund all prepaid amounts for any unfulfilled services to the customers; (b) assign the customers to us or to another franchisee designated by us; or (c) reimburse us for all costs and expenses we incur for either fulfilling the prepaid service obligation or refunding amounts to the customer. Within five (5) days of termination or expiration of this Agreement, you must notify provide us with a detailed list of all customers with outstanding prepaid services, including the amounts prepaid and the services yet to be fulfilled. You must also cooperate with us in communicating with customers regarding the transition of their prepaid services. This provision must not be construed as granting permission to you for collecting advance payment or selling prepaid packages, which we may prohibit completely.

16.1.6 You must, at our option, cancel or assign to us or our designee all your right, title and interest in any telephone numbers (and associated listings); Internet websites or web pages; e-mail addresses; social media identities; domain name listings and registrations which contain the Marks; or any of them, in whole or in part. You must, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, notify telephone listing agencies, Verisign (Network Solutions), register.com, or other applicable domain name registrar and all listing agencies, of the termination your right to use any domain name, web page and other Internet device associated with us or the Business, and authorize and instruct their cancellation or transfer to us, as we direct. You are not entitled to any compensation from us if we exercise these rights or options. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section permits you to use any of the Marks in connection with the Internet, except with our prior written consent as provided in this Agreement. You must not use any testimonials, images, video, or photographs on any web site or in any other advertising or promotional materials services performed for customers, or which contain, depict or display any Authorized Product or Service. In connection with your execution of this Agreement, you must execute our current form Collateral Assignment of Contact Information and Online Identities, attached to this Agreement as Addendum “C.”

16.2 Liquidated Damages. The parties agree that, if we or you terminate this Agreement prior to the end of the Term for anything other than our uncured material default per Section 15.8, our damages will be difficult or impossible to ascertain. As a result, the parties agree in such event you must pay us, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, the greater of: (a) the combined monthly average Continuing Royalty you paid during the previous twelve (12) months; or (b) the minimum Continuing Royalty specified in Section C of Addendum A (without any reduction for paying on the first day of the month), multiplied by the lesser of: (y) 36 (the number of months in three full years); or (z) if less than 36 months remain in the Term, the number of months remaining in the Term. You acknowledge and agree our damages and lost opportunities upon termination of the Agreement will be difficult to ascertain, and that the formula in this Section 16.2 is a reasonable estimate of those damages and lost opportunities and does not constitute a penalty or forfeiture.

INSURANCE

17.1 Insurance. You must obtain and maintain, at your sole expense, insurance coverage from a carrier approved by us (approval will not be unreasonably withheld). The types, amounts, deductibles, and policy limits of insurance must meet the minimum standards set forth in the Manual, as updated from time to time. Required coverage may include, but is not limited to: workers’ compensation (as required by Applicable Law); errors and omissions; automobile liability; comprehensive general liability (including cyber liability coverage). Each insurance policy must:

17.1.1 Name us and our designated Affiliates (including our members, officers, directors, and employees) as additional insureds, using an “Additional Insured – Designated Person or Organization” endorsement (or equivalent), without limiting or qualifying language.

17.1.2 Be primary and non-contributory to any insurance we carry.

17.2 Use of Proceeds. In the event of damage to the Business or its assets, any insurance proceeds must be used to restore the business and its assets to their original condition as soon as reasonably possible, unless such restoration is prohibited by law.

ARTICLE 18 RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

18.1 Your Relationship to Us. This Agreement creates a franchisor-franchisee relationship only. You are an independent contractor and not our agent, employee, partner, or joint venturer. You may not represent otherwise or bind us in any way. You must clearly identify your Business as independently owned and operated in all public records and communications. All individuals you hire or engage are your sole responsibility. They are not, and will not be considered, our employees under any circumstances. You are solely responsible for all employment decisions and obligations, including hiring, firing, training, compensation, benefits, scheduling, supervision, discipline, and compliance with employment laws. You agree to indemnify us against any claims related to your employment practices.

18.1.1 We do not have the authority to hire, fire, supervise, or control your employees. Any training or certification we provide is for System compliance only and does not create an employment relationship. You are responsible for implementing your own employment policies, and any guidance we provide is non-binding and should be reviewed with your legal counsel.

18.1.2 You must inform your employees that you are their sole employer and explain the franchisor-franchisee relationship. Upon request, you must obtain signed acknowledgments from your employees confirming this understanding.

18.1.3 We and you are not joint employers. We do not share or codetermine any essential terms or conditions of your employees’ employment, including wages, benefits, hours, duties, supervision, discipline, hiring, firing, or workplace safety.

This includes any claim that we are a joint employer of your personnel. You must notify us immediately of any claim subject to indemnification. We may, at your expense, assume control of the defense or settlement of any such claim. We may also take corrective action or settle claims without notice if we believe it necessary to protect persons, property, or our reputation. All losses and expenses will be your responsibility regardless of our involvement in the defense. You and your Owners must indemnify the Indemnified Parties for all acts, errors, or omissions by you, your Affiliates, or third parties you engage, regardless of cause, including negligence or strict liability, in connection with the establishment or operation of the Business.

ARTICLE 21 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

21.1 Our Right To Cure Defaults. In addition to all other remedies herein granted, if you default in the performance of any of your obligations or breach any term or condition of this Agreement or any related agreement, we may, at our election, immediately or at any time thereafter (and without waiving any claim for breach) and without notice to you, cure such default on your behalf. You must immediately reimburse us for our costs of such a cure.

21.2 Waiver and Delay. No waiver by us of any default or series of defaults in performance by you, and no failure, refusal or neglect of us to exercise any right, power or option given to us under this or any other agreement between us and you, whether entered into before, after or contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement (and whether or not related to the Business) or to insist upon strict compliance with or performance your obligations under this Agreement, any other franchise agreement between us and you, whether entered into before, after or contemporaneously with the Effective Date (and whether or not related to the Business), will constitute a waiver of the provisions of this Agreement or the Policies with respect to any subsequent default, or a waiver by us of our right at any time thereafter to require exact and strict compliance. We will consider written requests by you for our consent to a waiver of any obligation imposed by this Agreement. You agree, however, that we are not required to act uniformly with respect to waivers, requests and consents as we will consider each request on a case-by-case basis, and we will not be obligated to grant any such request. Any waiver granted by us will be without prejudice to any other rights we may have, will be subject to continuing review by us, and may be revoked, in our discretion, at any time and for any reason, effective upon our giving you 10 days' prior written notice. We make no warranties or guarantees and assume no liability or obligation to you by providing any waiver, approval, acceptance, consent, assistance, or suggestion to you in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request.

21.3 Survival of Obligations. Termination or expiration will be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that we or you have in law or in equity, including the right to recover benefit of the bargain damages. In no event will a termination or expiration of this Agreement affect your obligations to take or abstain from taking any action in accordance with this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement which by their nature or expressly constitute post-termination (or post-expiration) covenants and agreements will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

21.4 Successors and Assigns; Benefit. This Agreement is binding upon, and will inure to the benefit of, your and our the successors and assigns, subject to the restrictions on Assignment contained in this Agreement. This Agreement is for the benefit of you, us, and our Affiliates only, and, except as expressly provided in this Agreement, is not intended to and will not confer any rights or benefits upon any person who is not a party to this Agreement.

21.5 Joint and Several Liability. If you are more than one person and/or Business Entity, such person(s) and/or Business Entities are jointly and severally liable for all “your” obligations and liabilities.

21.6 Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by and must be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, without giving effect to any conflict of laws principles. By agreeing to the application of Nevada law, the parties do not intend to make this Agreement or their relationship subject to any franchise, dealership, distributorship, business opportunity, or similar statute, rule, or regulation of the State of Nevada to which this Agreement or the parties’ relationship would not otherwise be subject. We and you each acknowledge and agree that this choice of applicable state law provides each of the parties with the mutual benefit of uniform interpretation of this Agreement. This Agreement may be deemed to be amended from time to time as may be necessary to bring any of its provisions into conformity with valid Applicable Laws or regulations.

21.7 Titles For Convenience. Article and Section titles used in this Agreement are for convenience only and may not be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

21.8 Gender and Construction. The terms of the Recitals, Appendixes and all Exhibits to this Agreement are incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full. All terms used in any one number or gender will extend to mean and include any other number and gender as the facts, context, or sense of this Agreement or any Article or Section may require. As used in this Agreement, the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in a non-exclusive sense. When this Agreement refers to an Article, a Section or Exhibit, the reference is to an Article, Section of, or an Exhibit to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement to the contrary, any consent, acceptance, approval or authorization of ours which you are required to obtain may be given or withheld by us in our sole discretion. On any occasion where we are required or permitted to make any judgment, determination or use our discretion, including any decision as to whether any condition or circumstance meets the Policies, standards or satisfaction, we may do so in our sole subjective judgment and discretion. No provision in this Agreement expressly identifying any particular breach of this Agreement as material can be construed to imply that any other breach that is not so identified is not material. Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity in this Agreement can be construed or resolved against the drafter, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been reviewed by all parties and must be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used. If any provision of this Agreement is susceptible to two or more constructions, one of which would render the provision enforceable and the other or others of which would render the provision unenforceable, then the provision must be given the meaning that renders it enforceable.

21.9 Severability. Nothing contained in this Agreement may be construed as requiring the commission of any act contrary to Applicable Law. Whenever there is any conflict between any provisions of this Agreement or the Manual and any Applicable Law, the latter will prevail, but in such event the provisions of this Agreement or the Manual thus affected must be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of Applicable Law. If any part, article, section, sentence or clause of this Agreement or the Manual is held to be indefinite, invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the indefinite, invalid or unenforceable provision will be deemed deleted, and the remaining part of this Agreement or the Manual will continue in full force.

21.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original and all of which together are one and the same instrument.

21.11 Fees and Expenses. If any party to this Agreement brings any action or proceeding for any relief against the other arising out of this Agreement, the losing party must pay to the prevailing party its reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in bringing or defending such action or proceeding and/or enforcing any judgment, all of which will be deemed to have accrued upon the commencement of such action or proceeding and must be paid whether or not such action or proceeding is prosecuted to final judgment. Any judgment or order entered in such action or proceeding must contain a specific provision providing for the recovery of attorney fees and costs, separate from the judgment, incurred in enforcing such judgment. The prevailing party will be determined by the referee or Court based upon an assessment of which party's major arguments or positions taken in the proceedings could fairly be said to have prevailed over the other party's major arguments or positions on major disputed issues. This Section is intended to be expressly severable from the other provisions of this Agreement, is intended to survive any judgment and cannot be merged into the judgment.

Releasor, therefore, gives this Release Agreement as consideration for receiving the agreement of Sit Means Sit to an anticipated change or expansion of the relationship between the parties. This Release Agreement is intended to wipe the slate clean.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises set forth above, and for other good and valuable consideration the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, Releasor and Sit Means Sit hereby agree as follows:

3. Waiver of California Civil Code Section 1542.

3.1 Releasor, for itself and its Constituents, acknowledges that it is familiar with Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

3.2 With respect to those Claims being released pursuant to Section 2, Releasor, for itself and its Constituents, acknowledges that it is releasing unknown claims and waives all rights it has or may have under California Civil Code Section 1542 or any other statute or common law principle of similar effect. For purposes of this Section 3, Releasor shall be considered to be a creditor of the Sit Means Sit Released Parties, and each of them.

3.3 Releasor acknowledges that this general release extends to claims which Releasor does not know or suspect to exist in favor of Releasor at the time of executing this Release Agreement, which if known by Releasor may have materially affected its decision to enter into this Release Agreement. It is understood by Releasor that the facts in respect of which this Release Agreement is given may hereafter turn out to be other than or different from the facts in that connection known or believed to be true. Releasor therefore, expressly assumes the risk of the facts turning out to be so different and agrees that this Release Agreement shall be in all respects effective and not subject to termination or rescission by any such difference in facts.

4. Representations and Warranties. 5. Covenants Not to Sue. Releasor irrevocably covenants to refrain and cause each of its Constituents to refrain from asserting any Claim, or commencing, initiating or causing to be commenced, any proceeding of any kind against any Sit Means Sit Released Party, based upon any matter purported to be released pursuant to this Release Agreement.

6. Indemnity. Without in any way limiting any of the rights and remedies otherwise available to any Sit Means Sit Released Party, Releasor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each Sit Means Sit Released Party from and against all Claims whether or not involving third party Claims, arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with (i) the assertion by or on behalf of Releasor or its Constituents of any Claim or other matter purported to be released pursuant to this Release Agreement, (ii) the assertion by any third party of any Claim against any Sit Means Sit Released Party which Claim arises from, or in connection with, any Claim or other matter purported to be released pursuant to this Release Agreement; and (iii) any breach of representations, warranties or covenants by Releasor.

7. Miscellaneous.

7.1 This Release Agreement cannot be modified, altered or otherwise amended except by an agreement in writing signed by all of the parties hereto.

7.2 This Release Agreement, together with the agreements referenced in this Release Agreement, constitute the entire understanding between and among the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Release Agreement. This Release Agreement supersedes any prior negotiations and agreements, oral or written, with respect to its subject matter. No representations, warranties, agreements or covenants have been made with respect to this Release Agreement, and in executing this Release Agreement, none of the parties is relying upon any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant not set forth in this Release Agreement.

7.4 This Release Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties to this Release Agreement and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

7.5 All terms used in any one number or gender shall extend to mean and include any other number and gender as the facts, context, or sense of this Release Agreement may require. Neither this Release Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity in this Release Agreement shall be construed or resolved against the drafter, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Release Agreement has been reviewed by all parties and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of the parties. If any provision of this Release Agreement is susceptible to two or more constructions, one of which would render the provision enforceable and the other or others of which would render the provision unenforceable, then the provision shall be given the meaning that renders it enforceable.

7.6 Any provision of this Release Agreement which is prohibited, unenforceable or not authorized in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition, unenforceability or non-authorization without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof or affecting the validity, enforceability or legality of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

7.7 Each of the parties acknowledges that it had the right and opportunity to seek independent legal counsel of its own choosing in connection with the execution of this Release Agreement, and each of the parties represents that it has either done so or that it has voluntarily declined to do so, free from coercion, duress or fraud.

Owner Agreement

FRANCHISE OWNER AGREEMENT

This Franchise Owner Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into by: (i) each of the undersigned Owners of Franchisee (defined below); and (ii) the spouse of each such Owner, in favor of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc., and its successors and assigns (“us”), upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. Each signatory to this Agreement is referred to as “you.”

1. Acknowledgments.

a. Franchise Agreement; Franchisee. The term “Franchisee,” as used in this Agreement, is the party that entered, or is entering, into a Franchise Agreement with effective as of _____ (“Franchise Agreement”). Capitalized words not defined in this Agreement will have the same meanings given to them in the Franchise Agreement.

b. Owners’ Role. Owners are the beneficial Owners of all of the equity interest in Franchisee. Franchisee’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement, including the confidentiality and non-compete obligations, would be of little value to us if Franchisee’s Owners were not bound by the same requirements. Under the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, Owners are required to enter into this Owners Agreement as a condition to our entering into the Franchise Agreement with Franchisee. Owners will be jointly and severally liable for any breach of this Agreement.

c. Your Access to Our Trade Secrets. In your capacity as an Owner of the Business, or the spouse of an Owner of the Business, you may gain knowledge of our System and Trade Secrets (collectively, the “Know-how”). You understand that protecting the Trade Secrets is vital to our success and that of our Businesses and that you could seriously jeopardize our entire System if you were to unfairly compete with us. In addition, you understand that certain terms of the Franchise Agreement apply to “Owners” and not just Franchisee. You agree to comply with the terms of this Agreement in order to: (i) avoid damaging our System by engaging in unfair competition; and (ii) bind yourself to the terms of the Franchise Agreement applicable to Owners.

2. System Protection Covenants. In light of your above acknowledgements, you covenant and agree to the following:

a. Intellectual Property. You agree: (i) you will not use the Know-how in any business or capacity other than operating the Business; (ii) you will maintain the confidentiality of the Know-how at all times; (iii) you will not make unauthorized copies of documents containing any Know-how; (iv) you will take such reasonable steps as we may ask of you from time to time to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Know-how; and (v) you will stop using the Know-how immediately if you or your spouse are no longer an Owner of Franchisee, as applicable. You further agree that you will not use the Know-how for any purpose other than the development and operation of Franchisee’s Sit Means Sit® Business under the terms of the Franchise Agreement and Operations Manual. You agree to assign to us or our designee, without charge, all rights to any Improvements developed by you, including the right to grant sublicenses. If any Legal Requirement precludes you from assigning ownership of any Improvement to us, then you covenant, promise and agree that you will perpetually license that Improvement to us free of charge, with full rights to use, commercialize, and sublicense the Improvement.

b. Unfair Competition During Relationship. You agree not to unfairly compete with us at any time while you are an Owner of the Business, or while your spouse is an Owner of the Business, as applicable, by engaging in any of the following (collectively, the “Prohibited Activities”): (i) owning, operating or having any other interest (as an owner, partner, director, officer, employee, manager, consultant, shareholder, creditor, representative, agent or in any similar capacity) in a Competitive Business (other than owning an interest of five percent (5%) or less in a publicly traded company that is a Competitive Business); (ii) diverting or attempting to divert any business from us (or one of our Affiliates or other Sit Means Sit® franchisees); and/or (iii) inducing (a) any of our employees or managers (or one of our Affiliates or other Sit Means Sit® franchisees) to leave their position or (b) any customer of ours (or one of our Affiliates or other Sit Means Sit® franchisees) to transfer their business to you or to any other person that is not then a Franchisee of ours.

c. Unfair Competition After Relationship. You agree that, for a period of two (2) years after the termination of the Franchise Agreement or any successor to it (the “Restricted Period”) not to unfairly compete with us during the Restricted Period by engaging in any Prohibited Activities; provided, however, that the Prohibited Activity relating to having an interest in a Competitive Business will only apply with respect to a Competitive Business that is located within or provides competitive goods or services to customers who are located within: (i) the Trade Area; (ii) any other geographic areas wherein Franchisee has operated the Business (e.g., an Unassigned Area); or (iii) the designated trade area of other “Sit Means Sit” franchisees (the “Restricted Territory”). If you engage in any Prohibited Activities during the Restricted Period, then you agree that your Restricted Period will be extended by the period of time during which you were engaging in the Prohibited Activity (any such extension of time will not be construed as a waiver of your breach or otherwise impair any of our rights or remedies relating to your breach).

d. Immediate Family Members. You acknowledge that your disclosing Know-how to an immediate family member (i.e., parent, sibling, child, or grandchild) could potentially circumvent the purpose of this Agreement. You also acknowledge that it would be difficult for us to prove whether you disclosed the Know-how to family members. Therefore, you agree that you will be presumed to have violated the terms of this Agreement if any member of your immediate family: (i) engages in any Prohibited Activities during any period of time during which you are prohibited from engaging in the Prohibited Activities or (ii) uses or discloses the Know-how. However, you may rebut this presumption by furnishing evidence conclusively showing that you did not disclose the Know-how to the family member.

e. Covenants Reasonable. You acknowledge and agree that: (i) the terms of this Agreement are reasonable both in time and in scope of geographic area; and (ii) you have sufficient resources and business experience and opportunities to earn an adequate living while complying with the terms of this Agreement. YOU HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO CHALLENGE THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT AS BEING OVERLY BROAD, UNREASONABLE OR OTHERWISE UNENFORCEABLE. Although you and we both believe that the covenants in this Agreement are reasonable in terms of scope, duration and geographic are, we may at any time unilaterally modify the terms of the system protection covenants in Section 2 of this Agreement upon written notice to you, by limiting the scope of the Prohibited Activities, narrowing the definition of a Competitive Business, shortening the duration of the Restricted Period, reducing the geographic scope of the Restricted Territory and/or reducing the scope of any other covenant imposed upon you under Section 2 of this Agreement to ensure that the terms and covenants are enforceable under Applicable Law.

f. Breach. You agree that failure to comply with the covenants in this Section 3 will cause substantial and irreparable damage to us and/or other Businesses for which there is no adequate remedy at law. Therefore, you agree that any violation of these covenants will entitle us to injunctive relief. None of the remedies available to us under this Section are exclusive of any other, but may be combined with others under this Agreement, or at law or in equity, including injunctive relief, specific performance and recovery of monetary damages.

3. Transfer Restrictions. If you are an Owner of Franchisee, you acknowledge that we must approve all persons who hold a direct or indirect Ownership interest in Franchisee. Accordingly, you agree that you will not, directly or indirectly or by operation of law, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge or in any manner transfer any direct or indirect Ownership interest in Franchisee except in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in Article 15 of the Franchise Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that any attempted Transfer of an interest in Franchisee requiring our consent under the Franchise Agreement for which our express written consent is not first obtained will be a material breach of this Agreement and the Franchise Agreement.

4. Personal Guarantee. In order to secure Franchisee's financial obligations under the Franchise Agreement and all ancillary agreements executed by Franchisee in connection with the Franchise Agreement, including, but not limited to, any agreement for the purchase of goods or services from us or an Affiliate of ours and any promissory note related to payments owed to us (collectively, the "Secured Agreements"), you agree to personally guarantee all of Franchisee's financial obligations under the Secured Agreements.

a. Payment. Each of you, jointly and severally, personally and unconditionally: (a) guarantee to us and our successor and assigns, that Franchisee will punctually fulfill all of its payment and other financial obligations under the Secured Agreements; and (b) agree to be personally bound by, and personally liable for, each and every monetary provision in the Secured Agreements.

b. Waiver of Notice. You waive: (1) acceptance and notice of acceptance by us of the foregoing undertakings; (2) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness guaranteed; (3) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness guaranteed; (4) any right you may have to require that an action be brought against Franchisee or any other person as a condition of liability; and (5) the defense of the statute of limitations in any action hereunder or for the collection of any indebtedness hereby guaranteed.

c. Liability is Joint and Several. You agree that: (1) your direct and immediate liability under this guarantee will be joint and several with Franchisee and all other persons who sign this Agreement; (2) you will render any payment required under the Secured Agreements upon demand if Franchisee fails or refuses punctually to do so; (3) your liability will not be contingent or conditioned upon pursuit by us of any remedies against Franchisee or any other person; and (4) liability will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by any extension of time, credit or other indulgence that we may grant to Franchisee or to any other person, including the acceptance of any partial payment or performance, or the compromise or release of any claims, none of which will in any way modify or amend this guarantee, which will be continuing and irrevocable during the term of each of the Secured Agreements and following the termination, expiration or transfer of each of the Secured Agreements to the extent any financial obligations under any such Secured Agreements survive such termination, expiration or transfer.

d. Bankruptcy Filing. This guarantee will continue unchanged by the occurrence of any bankruptcy with respect to Franchisee or any assignee or successor of Franchisee or by any abandonment of one or more of the Secured Agreements by a trustee of Franchisee. Independent Auditor's Report

To the Stockholders and Management of
Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. (a Nevada S Corporation), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of income and retained earnings (accumulated deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

The Company’s receivables are primarily generated from ongoing business relationships with franchisees as a result of franchise agreements.

Accounts receivable are reported net of an allowance for credit losses. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Stockholders and Management of
Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. (a Nevada S Corporation), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of income and retained earnings (accumulated deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

State-Specific Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement, Compliance Questionnaire, and Related Agreements

SIT MEANS SIT FRANCHISE, INC.

MULTI-STATE ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, COMPLIANCE QUESTIONNAIRE, AND RELATED AGREEMENTS

The following modifications are made to the Sit Means Sit Franchise, Inc. (“Sit Means Sit,” “us,” “we,” or “our”) Franchise Disclosure Document (“FDD”) given to Franchisee (“Franchisee,” “you,” or “your”) and may supersede, to the extent then required by valid applicable state law, certain portions of the Franchise Agreement between you and us dated _____.

Depending on the law in your state, the provisions of this State-Specific Addendum (“State Addendum”) may apply to modify the Franchise Disclosure Document that was given to you, as well as the Franchise Agreement, and any applicable Addenda, Exhibits, Appendices, or mutually-agreed modifications thereto. For purposes of the State Addendum, the “Sit Means Sit’s Choice of Law State” is Nevada and “Supplemental Documents” mean: (1) the Compliance Questionnaire (Addendum D to the Franchise Agreement); (2) the Franchise Deposit Acknowledgment (Addendum E to the Franchise Agreement); and (3) the Trade Area Reservation Agreement (Exhibit K). In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, FDD, or Supplemental Documents and this Addendum, the terms of this State Addendum shall control.

CALIFORNIA

See California addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document, which is attached as Exhibit J-2.

The California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the Franchise Disclosure Document.

Neither Sit Means Sit nor any other person listed in Item 2 of the Franchise Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Documents contain a provision that is inconsistent with the California Franchise Investment Law, the California Franchise Investment Law will control.

The Franchise Agreement and Supplemental Documents may provide for termination upon bankruptcy. Any such provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. SEC. 101 et seq.).

YOU MUST SIGN A GENERAL RELEASE IF YOU RENEW OR TRANSFER YOUR FRANCHISE. CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE SECTION 31512 VOIDS A WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW (CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE SECTIONS 31000 THROUGH 31505). BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE SECTION 20010 VOIDS A WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FRANCHISE RELATIONS ACT (BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE SECTIONS 20000 THROUGH 20043).

California Corporations Code section 31125 requires the Sit Means Sit to give the Franchisee a disclosure document, approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation, prior to a solicitation of a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.

Neither Sit Means Sit, nor any person in Item 2 of the disclosure document, is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78(a) et seq., suspending or expelling these persons from membership in this association or exchange.

The Franchise Agreement contains, and if applicable, the Supplemental Documents may contain, a covenant not to compete provision which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. Such provisions may not be enforceable under California law.

Under California civil code section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable. Any such provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Documents may not be enforceable.

The Franchise Agreement contains, and if applicable, the Supplemental Documents may contain, provisions requiring binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur at Sit Means Sit's Choice of Law State. Prospective Franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as business and professions code section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Documents restricting venue to a form outside the State Of California.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 Voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043).

The General Release contained in the Supplemental Documents is hereby modified as follows:

With respect to those claims being released pursuant to this Release, Franchisee, for itself and themselves, and on behalf of each of the constituents identified in this Release, acknowledge that it is releasing unknown claims and waives all rights it has or may have under California Civil Code Section 1542 or any other statute or common law principle of similar effect. Franchisee acknowledges that this general release extends to claims which Franchisee does not know or suspect to exist in favor of Franchisee at the time of executing this Release Agreement, which if known by Franchisee may have materially affected its or their decision to enter into this Release. It is understood by Franchisee that the facts in respect of which this Release is given may hereafter turn out to be other than or different from the facts in that connection known or believed to be true. Franchisee, therefore, expressly assumes the risk of the facts turning out to be so different and agrees that this Release shall be in all respects effective and not subject to termination or rescission by any such difference in facts.

Franchisee, for itself and themselves, and on behalf of its Constituents, acknowledge that it is familiar with Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The Franchise Agreement requires mediation. The mediation will occur at Las Vegas, Nevada. The fees and expenses of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties.

For the purposes of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code Section 20022, the parties agree as follows:

The parties agree that they will use the declining-balance depreciation method to calculate the value of your inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings (the “Assets”) for the purposes of a purchase by Sit Means Sit under Section 20022. The purchase price by Sit Means Sit for the Assets will not include the cost of removal and transportation of those assets, which will be your responsibility.

The parties agree that for the purposes of Section 20022, Franchisee is not able to provide to Sit Means Sit “clear title and possession” to your Assets if those Assets are subject to liens or encumbrances including: a) purchase money security interest; b) blanket security interest; c) right of first refusal; d) lien by franchisee’s landlord; or e) tax lien.

The parties agree that for the purposes of Section 20022(h), Sit Means Sit’s right of offset will include the following amounts owed by Franchisee to Sit Means Sit or its Affiliates: a) Royalty Fees; b) Liquidated Damages; c) Transfer Fees; d) fees owed for the purchase of products; and e) any other type of fee owed by Franchisee to Sit Means Sit or its Affiliates.

For the purposes of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code Section 20035, the parties agree as follows:

“Fair market value of the franchise assets” means the value of your Assets, valued according to the declining-balance method of depreciation. The purchase price by Sit Means Sit for the Assets will not include the cost of removal and transportation of those assets, which will be your responsibility.

“Fair market value of the franchised business” means the “fair market value of the franchise assets” as defined above, plus goodwill. The parties agree that the value of goodwill is the amount of Royalty Fees paid by Franchisee to Sit Means Sit within the 12-month period immediately before Sit Means Sit’s termination or failure to renew Franchisee in violation of the California Franchise Relations Act.

Item 5 of the Franchise Disclosure Document and Section 5.1 of the Franchise Agreement are amended as follows: the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation requires that the franchisor defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until the franchisor has completed all its pre-opening obligations and franchisee is open for business.”

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on your right to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that you assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives you of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude you, after entering into a Franchise Agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits us to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include your failure to comply with any lawful provision of the Franchise Agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits us to refuse to renew your Franchise without fairly compensating you by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of your inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to us and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) you are prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or you do not receive at least 6 months advance notice of our intent not to renew the franchise.

 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of us or our subfranchisor.

 - (iv) Your or proposed transferee's failure to pay any sums owing to us or to cure any default in the Franchise Agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

MINNESOTA

Despite anything to the contrary in the Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of Minnesota:

1. Any provision in the Agreement which would require you to assent to a release, assignment, novation or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22 will be void to the extent that such contractual provision violates such law.
2. Minnesota Statute Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or Agreement can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of Minnesota.
3. Minn. Rule Part 2860.4400J. prohibits a franchisee from waiving his rights to a jury trial or waiving his rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction, or consenting to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. Any provision in the Agreement which would require you to waive your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota is deleted from any Agreement relating to franchises offered and sold in the State of Minnesota; provided, however, that this paragraph will not affect the obligation in the Agreement relating to arbitration.
4. With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, we will comply with Minnesota Statute Section 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4 and 5, which require, except in certain specified cases, that you be given 90 days notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days notice for non-renewal of the Agreement; and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
5. Item 13 of the FDD is hereby amended to state that we will protect your rights under this Agreement to use the Marks, or indemnify you from any loss, costs, or expenses arising out of any third-party claim, suit or demand regarding your use of the Marks, if your use of the Marks is in compliance with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and our System standards.

6. Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release. As a result, the Franchise Disclosure Document and the Franchise Agreement, which require you to sign a general release prior to renewing or transferring your franchise, are hereby deleted from the Franchise and Area Development Agreement, to the extent required by Minnesota law.

7. The following language will appear as a new paragraph of the Franchise Agreement:

No Abrogation. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21, nothing in the dispute resolution section of this Agreement will in any way abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80.C.

8. Minnesota Statute Section 80C.17 states that no action for a violation of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22 may be commenced more than three years after the cause of action accrues. To the extent that the Franchise Agreement conflicts with Minnesota law, Minnesota law will prevail.
9. Insufficient funds (NSF) checks are governed by Minnesota Statute 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges. Item 6 of the FDD and Section 5.10 of the Agreement are amended accordingly.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

However, to the extent required by Applicable Law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the “Summary” section of Item 17(d), titled “Termination by franchisee”:

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(v), titled “Choice of forum”, and Item 17(w), titled “Choice of law”:

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

6. Franchise Questionnaires and Acknowledgments – No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

7. Receipts – Any sale must be made in compliance with §638(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. §680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

You must begin operating your Business for each Trade Area no later than one (1) year from the Effective Date (the “Commencement Deadline”). You are not required under this Agreement to develop any Businesses before the Commencement Deadline, but if you do not meet the Commencement Deadline for any reason (and you do not extend the Commencement Deadline as described in Section 6 below), then this Agreement (including but not limited to the provisions of Section 5 below) will terminate, as described below.

Trade Area Number	Trade Area Description

3. Trade Area Reservation Deposit. At the time of signing this Agreement, you must pay us a non-refundable Trade Area Reservation Deposit of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each Trade Area that you reserve. This amount is fully-earned by us when we sign this Agreement. This Trade Area Reservation Deposit will be applied towards the initial franchise fee that you must pay us under each Franchise Agreement.

4. Term. The term of this Agreement starts on the date when we sign it below (the “Effective Date”) and ends on the day after the Commencement Deadline (the “Term”), unless this Agreement is sooner terminated.

5. Our Promise Concerning the Trade Area. During the Term, so long as you satisfy the Commencement Deadline, we will not conduct, or license others the right to conduct, dog training classes under the Sit Means Sit® trademarks (the “Marks”) within each of the Trade Areas identified in this Agreement. You acknowledge, however, that we may, directly or indirectly, engage in any of the activities defined in Section 2.3.2 of the Franchise Agreement. Our current Franchise Agreement is attached as Exhibit B. We may conduct (or license to others the right to conduct) dog training classes under the Marks at locations within an area abutting the Trade Area border.

6. Extension of Commencement Deadline. If you have not yet begun operating a Business in an applicable Trade Area at the end of the Commencement Deadline, we will permit you to extend the Commencement Deadline for that Trade Area once, and only once, for a period of one (1) year.

a. To exercise this option, you must pay us fifty percent (50%) of the initial franchise fee that is due and owing for the applicable Trade Area before the Commencement Deadline. That amount will be credited towards the initial franchise fee you owe for that Trade Area.

b. If you have reserved multiple Trade Areas under this Agreement, you must pay the amount stated in Section 6.a for each such Trade Area for which you wish to extend the Commencement Deadline.

c. Our written acknowledgement that we have received your payment of the amount stated in Section 6.a will serve to automatically extend the Commencement Deadline for one (1) additional year, making the new Commencement Deadline two (2) years from the Effective Date.

If you fail to exercise this option to extend the Commencement Deadline by paying us the applicable fee before the Commencement Deadline that you want to extend, then this Agreement will automatically terminate as described in Section 4.

7. Provisions from the Franchise Agreement that Also Apply Here. You and we agree that the provisions of the following sections of our current form of Franchise Agreement (attached as Exhibit B) are incorporated by reference into this Agreement and also apply to this Agreement, except that reference to the “Franchisee” in those provisions will refer to you under this Agreement, and any reference to “Sit Means Sit” in those provisions will refer to us:

Article 13	Covenants Regarding Other Business Interests
Article 15	Default and Termination
Article 18	Relationship of Parties
Article 20	Mediation; Waiver of Jury Trial; Venue
Article 21	Miscellaneous Provisions

8. No Transfers. We may transfer this Agreement to anyone without your consent. You understand and acknowledge that the rights and duties contained in this Agreement are personal to you, and that we have provided to you this Trade Area Reservation Agreement in reliance on your business skill and experience, financial capacity, and personal character (or, if you are a legal entity, on that of your owners). Accordingly, you understand and agree that: (a) this Trade Area Reservation Agreement is not transferable (including but not limited to sales, assignments, pledges, or other encumbrances); and (b) if you are an entity, you also may not transfer, sell, pledge or otherwise assign (or permit the assignment of) any direct or indirect ownership in you.

9. Defaults. In addition to the provisions cross-referenced in Section 7 above and otherwise in this Agreement, you will be in default under this Agreement if any other agreement between you (and/or your affiliates) and us (and/or our affiliates) is terminated. If you are in default under this Agreement or if you do not meet the Commencement Deadline, we will have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving you written notice of termination, which will take effect immediately (unless otherwise required under Applicable Law).

10. Entire Agreement and Amendment. This Agreement, together with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement that are referenced in this Agreement and/or incorporated by reference in this Agreement, together, constitute the entire fully integrated agreement between you and us, and supersede all other negotiations, agreements, representations, and covenants, oral or written. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement will disclaim or require you to waive reliance on any representation that we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document (including its exhibits and amendments) that we delivered to you in connection with this franchise offering. Except for those changes permitted to be made unilaterally by us, no amendment, change or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to in writing by you and us, and executed by your and our authorized officers or agents.

11. Indemnity for Violations of this Agreement. You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless us, our affiliates, and our and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees, reasonable costs of investigation, court costs, and arbitration fees and expenses) resulting from, consisting of, or arising out of or in connection with any failure by you to perform and obligation under this Agreement. Franchisees have no obligation to indemnify or hold harmless an indemnified party for losses to the extent that they are determined to have been caused solely and directly by the indemnified party's gross negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.

12. The Franchise Agreement. You acknowledge that you have read the Franchise Agreement attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B, including but not limited to the provisions of the Franchise Agreement that are referenced (and/or incorporated by reference) into this Agreement.

If you are in agreement with the terms of this letter agreement, then please sign below where indicated, and initial on the bottom of the exhibit pages as indicated, and return it to us. This Agreement will be automatically withdrawn if not signed and returned to us within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter.
