What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in New Jersey. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in New Jersey than in your own state.
2. Short Operating History. The Franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
3. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if the franchise fails.
4. General Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition, as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21), calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
5. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum advertising, and other payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

The Franchise Offered:

We offer franchises for the right to establish and operate Small Town Play Café business using the Principal Trademarks (defined below) and System (the “Franchised Business”). Items on the menu will be purchased from approved suppliers as provided for in the Confidential Operations Manual. You may also purchase menu items from local businesses, subject to our prior written approval.

If you are interested in purchasing a Franchised Business, we will require you to sign a franchise agreement, a form of which is attached as Exhibit B (“Franchise Agreement”). We will offer single unit franchises to those who are interested in opening a single Small Town Play Café business to be operated within an area designated by us, in our sole discretion (the “Territory”). The Territory will typically be the smaller of (a) a radius of five (5) miles surrounding your Small Town Play Café business or (b) an area with 75,000 population surrounding the business. However, the Territory may be located within specific zip codes, counties or other natural boundaries (such as rivers, lakes, mountain ranges, etc.) or man-made boundaries such as highways or streets. When determining your Territory, we may consider the population density, number of children’s play space and café businesses within the Territory, current and projected market demand, potential customer base, access and visibility, traffic patterns and other economic, demographic and geographic factors determined by us in our sole discretion. We will assign you a Territory as we deem appropriate for your Franchised Business in our sole discretion.

You will be required to open and operate an agreed number of locations (but no less than two (2) locations) during an agreed period-of-time based upon a precise opening schedule within a specific geographic protected area (the “Area”). All Area Development franchises must be owned and operated by the Area Developer, no sub-franchising is permitted. You must sign a Franchise Agreement for your first Franchised Business when you sign an ADA. Unless otherwise stated, any reference in this disclosure document to “you” includes you both as an Area Developer under an ADA and as Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

We may provide Area Developers with different services than those provided to single-unit franchisees and we may require Area Developers to have in place an infrastructure support team sufficient to support their multiple-unit business.

Market Conditions:

The market for educational and recreational children's play spaces that also provide café products and services offered by the Franchised Business is highly competitive. Notwithstanding our positive assessment of the market for our children's play space and café, there are many risks and uncertainties associated with this or any new business. The market for children's play spaces with café services in particular is very competitive and fragmented. Franchisees will compete with national, regional and local competition including company owned and franchised chains as well as independently owned children's play space businesses and cafés. Some competitors may be larger and have better financial resources than Small Town Play Café. Some competitors may have better name recognition than Small Town Play Café. Some may be privately held or publicly held entities. The market for children's play spaces is somewhat seasonal and you may experience less demand during temperate weather months. Additionally, your children's play space and café business may be impacted by many factors including the local economic and market conditions, your experience and business knowledge, the geographic location of your business, your market competition, the sales level you reach and your ability to retain customers.

Industry Regulations:

In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally, your Franchised Business is subject to federal, state and local occupational health and safety regulations, as well as licensing requirements for health permits. Serving food is highly regulated with local health codes governing many aspects of food service operations including certain requirements for transportation, storage, preparation and production of food products.

You will be required to comply with all federal, state and local laws and regulations that generally apply to food service businesses, including children's play space and café business. These include, but are not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act; the Fair Labor Standards Act; Equal Employment Opportunities Commission; Occupational Safety and Health Administration; Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act; The Patriot Act; Truth in Lending Act and other laws dealing with credit transactions and collections; Digital Millennium Copyright Act; regulations governing MMS, SMS, emails and telemarketing; the payment of license fees; general café rules and regulations; and, any advertising or content related rules and regulations, etc.

All trainees must hold a ServSafe Certification (or locally approved equivalent food handler's certification).

You should also be aware of federal, state and local labor regulations including minimum age and minimum wage laws. These requirements may apply to your business. The details of these restrictions may vary from state to state and from locality to locality.

Other than the above, we are unaware of any other specific industry regulations or licensing requirements governing the operation of a Small Town Play Café business.

It is the sole responsibility of the franchisee to independently determine if there are any legal requirements that must be complied with or business issues that might impact their location and/or their possibility of generating a profit or a loss. Small Town Play Café or its affiliates will not be responsible to ascertain the franchisee's initial and continuing legal responsibilities.

Except as otherwise indicated, fees and expenses paid to us will be paid via ACH or another method we select.

2) Royalty payments are paid weekly via ACH or another method we select, on Wednesdays for the sales week ending on the immediately preceding Sunday. Gross Revenues are defined in the Franchise Agreement to include all income of any type or nature and from any source that you derive or receive directly or indirectly from, through, by or on account of the operation of the Franchised Business at any time after the signing of your Franchise Agreement, in whatever form and from whatever source, including but not limited to cash, services, in kind from barter and/or exchange, on credit or otherwise as well as business interruption insurance proceeds, all without deduction for expenses including marketing expenses and taxes. Gross Revenues are not reduced by the amount of any discounts to employees, family members or other business owned or controlled by Franchisee. However, the definition of Gross Revenues does not include sales tax that is collected from customers and actually transmitted to the appropriate taxing authorities.

3) Currently, we require you to contribute one percent (1%) of your Gross Revenues to the Brand Fund ("Brand Fund Contribution"). We reserve the right to increase the Brand Fund Contribution to up to three percent (3%) of Gross Revenues. Brand Fund Contributions will be paid directly to the Brand Fund and not to us. We may choose to allocate all or a portion of the Brand Fund Contribution to a Regional Advertising Program if one is established in your Territory.

4) You are currently required to spend the greater of one-half percent (0.5%) of your Gross Revenues for the previous month or $500 per month on local advertising, marketing and promotional programs ("Local Advertising"). Any discrepancy between the amount spent month and the amount equal to the greater of one-half percent (0.5%) of Gross Revenues for that month or $500, must be spent during the following month.

There are currently no advertising cooperatives in our System. We may create a regional advertising cooperative, in our sole discretion. Contributions to any advertising cooperative will be established by the cooperative members. Any financial contributions made by you to the advertising cooperative may be credited against your required expenditures for Local Advertising. Company-owned units may be active members of any cooperative and may possess voting power in accordance with the rules of the cooperative as we may determine in our sole discretion.

In addition to your Local Advertising expenditures, you may wish to use Social Media Platforms (defined as web based platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, X, LinkedIn, blogs and other networking and sharing sites) or use Social Media Materials (defined as any material on any Social Media Platform that makes use of our Principal Trademarks, name, brand, products or your Franchised Business whether created by us, you or a third-party). Notes

1) In general, none of the expenses listed in the above chart are refundable, except any security deposits you must make may be refundable. We do not finance any portion of your initial investment. All of our estimates assume that you will purchase the required items. Your costs may be lower if you choose to lease some items.

2) The initial franchise fee is the same for all similarly situated franchisees. The initial franchise fee is paid in a lump sum, is fully earned when paid and is non-refundable. See Item 5 for more information.

3) This estimate is for the costs for the development of a Franchised Business with between 2,000 and 3,000 square feet of space with ceiling height of 14 feet or more. We have based our estimates on the historical experience of our affiliates and our founders with developing company-owned Small Town Play Café business, as well as on information obtained from architects and contractors. The difference in the low and the high improvement cost estimates is due to the difference in size and geography of the location. These estimates are applicable to a site which has been obtained in the “vanilla box” stage, which refers to the interior condition of either a new or existing building in which the improvements generally consist of heating/cooling with delivery systems, essential lighting, electrical switches and outlets, lavatories, a finished ceiling, walls that are prepped for painting and a concrete slab floor. These numbers are inclusive of any contractor fees or other fees charged by licensed professionals (other than general contractors), to perform installation of electrical, plumbing, and HVAC (heating, ventilation, air conditioning) suitable to the requirements of this concept and do not include any financial contributions by a landlord. The figures listed here are indicative of standard commercial pricing within Westfield, New Jersey as well as other information that we have obtained. There are many variables that may impact your overall costs including landlord contribution, the size of your location, rates for construction, personnel, freight, vendor pricing and taxes, overall costs and efficiencies in your market. Your cost for developing your location may be higher or lower than the estimates provided. Third-party financing may be available for qualified candidates for some of the leasehold improvement costs, however with such financing comes associated costs and fees which will cause the cost to exceed what is indicated in this chart. We anticipate that you will lease rather than build your location. We therefore have not included any costs for land, building construction or related costs in our estimates.

4) These figures represent the cost of purchasing furniture and fixtures, such as stools, chairs, changing tables, dining tables, art tables, lighting and décor. The difference in the high and low costs will depend on the material quality and the size and geography of your franchised business. The costs listed here do not include any transportation or set up costs. Third-party financing may be available for qualified candidates for some of the leasehold improvement costs, however, with such financing comes associated costs and fees which will cause the cost to exceed what is indicated in this chart.

5) They also represent the purchase of equipment from suppliers to produce the entire menu, such as ovens, refrigerators, ice machine, espresso and coffee machines, a reverse osmosis system, espresso grinders, coffee grinders, brewers, airports and other equipment.

6) The estimate is for the purchase of signage for your Franchised Business, which may vary due to size and the location of your Small Town Play Café business. Signage will typically include wall signage for the exterior of the building as well as interior signage such as wall signage, wall graphics and logo graphics for windows.

7) The estimate is for the purchase of your computer hardware, software (including accounting software and marketing software), and point of sale (“POS”) system, which may vary based on the number of screens and stations that a franchisee may install for its location, depending upon the square footage allocated to the front counter. POS Software currently ranges between $9,000 and $12,000 per year. The cost for the first year is included in this estimate. See Item 6 for annual recurring costs.

8) This estimate is for the cost of the initial inventory of retail items, play items, food and beverage ingredients, party supplies and packaging, based upon a typical sales week, additionally recognizing that many items will be initially purchased in greater quantities, such as in case lots, plus allocations for training and waste, as well as allowing for the potential to achieve a higher level of sales.

9) This estimate represents a three (3) month deposit of rent. The low estimate indicates a 2,000 square foot facility with a price of $44.80 per square foot while the high estimate indicates a location with 3,000 square feet within a price of $72.80 per square foot. Both estimates represent a site in a suburban location. Pricing in an urban area may be more expensive and we recommend that you speak with an experienced real estate broker to confirm rents in your area. Pre-paid rent is generally non-refundable while security or other deposits may be refundable either in full or in part depending upon your lease or rental contract.

10) A credit check may be required by the issuing company prior to the initiation of services, or a higher deposit required for first-time customers. These costs will vary depending on the type of services required for the facility, the municipality from which they are being contracted and the utility vendor. These estimates are based on the historical experience of our affiliate for electric, gas and water utilities.

11) The low end of the estimate is for the cost of the monthly premiums and the high end of the estimate includes premiums that require annual, rather than monthly, payments. You should check with your insurance agent or broker for actual premium quotes and costs, as well as the actual cost of the deposit. The cost of coverage will vary based upon the area in which your Franchised Business will be located, your experience with insurance carriers, the loss experience of the carrier and other factors beyond our control. You should also check with your insurance agent or broker regarding any additional insurance that you may want to carry.

12) This estimate is for the cost for you or your Operating Principal (defined as the managing shareholder, member or partner of Franchisee if Franchisee is an entity), plus a manager to attend the initial training program held in Westfield, New Jersey. We do not charge tuition for training up to three (3) people (at least one owner and one manager), but you will be responsible for all costs associated with attending the initial training program for you and your staff. Your costs will depend on the number of people attending training, their point of origin, method of travel, class of accommodation and living expenses (food, transportation, etc.). The duration of the training program is two (2) weeks. The estimate does not include labor costs for any salaries to be paid to your employees while attending the training program.

13) Franchisees are required to spend between $1,000 and $5,000 for their Grand Opening Marketing. This is a program presenting their Small Town Play Café business to the community through execution of a plan of scheduled advertising, marketing and promotional activities. The Grand Opening Marketing will occur ninety (90) days prior to opening and continue for sixty (60) days after the opening of your Franchised Business, at our discretion. after the opening of your Franchised Business, at our discretion.

14) These fees are representative of the costs for engagement of professionals such as attorneys, accountants, and architects for the initial review and advisories consistent with the start-up of a Franchised Business. We strongly recommend that you seek the assistance of professional advisors when evaluating this franchise opportunity, this disclosure document and the Franchise Agreement. It is also advisable to consult these professionals to review any lease or other contracts that you will enter into as part of starting your Franchised Business. The estimated rates in this chart are based upon professional fees in the New Jersey area.

These estimates also include the costs associated with the layout and design services provided by a licensed architect, as well as the subsequent production of blueprints and their registration with local municipalities. The low estimate is in consideration of a site of 2,000 square feet of area, while the high estimate is for a 3,000 square foot model. You are responsible for engaging the services of a professional, licensed architect to produce the blueprint drawings for your café. Prior to submitting plans to the local municipality for review and approval, we will review and approve them for conformity to our requirements and could potentially return them to you or your architect for modification. Any modifications may require additional hours to be logged by your architect or necessitate further services of an engineer. Such services will likely push the cost estimates beyond what is indicated in the chart. The amount shown on the chart is an estimate for architectural fees and your exact costs will depend on the architect you select and requirements of the municipality in which they are to be registered.

15) You are responsible for applying for, obtaining and maintaining all required permits and licenses necessary to operate your Franchised Business, including any food service and/or health permits and licenses. The figures represented here reflect the range of expenditures for licenses and permits to open a Small Town Play Café business in the New Jersey area.

16) This figure is primarily for printing menus as well as producing a start-up order of stationery and business cards bearing the Principal Trademarks and a supply of office materials. These estimates also include the cost of uniforms to be worn by your employees.

17) This is an estimate of the amount of additional operating capital that you may need to operate your Franchised Business during the first three (3) months after commencing operations. We cannot guarantee that you will not incur additional expenses in starting the business that may exceed this estimate. This estimate also includes such items as initial payroll taxes (including payroll to cover the pre-opening training period for some of your staff), additional advertising, marketing and/or promotional activities, health and workers' compensation insurance, rent and utilities, insurance premiums, the Technology Fee, repairs and maintenance, bank charges, miscellaneous supplies and equipment, initial staff recruiting expenses, state tax and license fees, deposits and prepaid expenses (if applicable) and other miscellaneous items as offset by the revenue you take into the Franchised Business. These items are by no means all-inclusive of the extent of the expense categorization. The expenses you incur during the initial start-up period will depend on factors such as the time of the year that you open, both local economic and market conditions, as well as whether your Franchised Business is located in a new or mature market and your business experience.

18) This total amount is based upon on the historical experience of our affiliates and our in developing affiliate-owned Small Town Play Café business as well as on information obtained from architects and contractors. Your costs may vary based on a number of factors including but not limited to the geographic area in which you open, local market conditions, the location selected, the time it takes to build sales of the establishment and your skills at operating a business. We strongly recommend that you use these categories and estimates as a guide to develop your own business plan and budget and investigate specific costs in your area. This figure does not include the expenditures (discussed in note 1) required in connection with execution of an ADA.

The Area Development Fee is fully earned at the time you make the payment to us and is not refundable regardless of whether you open any or all of your Franchised Businesses. The Area Development Fee will be credited against initial franchise fees at the time initial franchise fees become due for each Franchised Business to be developed. This estimate assumes the purchase of an Area Development franchise for two (2) Franchised Businesses.
2. These are the estimates to develop and open your first Franchised Business including the initial franchise fee for the first Franchised Business. Costs associated with developing and opening additional Small Town Play Café business in the future, if not developed simultaneously with your first franchised business, are subject to factors that we cannot estimate or control, such as inflation, increased labor costs or increased materials costs.
3. Because there is no maximum number of Small Town Play Café franchised businesses that you can purchase, we have not included the Area Development Fee for the third Franchised Business and each subsequent Franchised Business. However, for each Franchised Business that you will develop, the Area Development Fee will be increases by $35,000.

We reserve the right to have items sourced exclusively from our Suppliers including a single Supplier (which may be us or one of our affiliates) or a limited number of Suppliers, in order to achieve uniformity or better pricing, simplify inventory and purchasing or for other legitimate business reasons. This is discussed in greater detail below.

If you want to independently source any items from someone other than one of our Suppliers, you must obtain our prior approval. We do not promise to evaluate or approve proposed suppliers, vendors, manufacturers, printers, contractors and/or distributors (“Proposed Suppliers”) on your request and we may decline to do so. However, if we elect to evaluate a Proposed Supplier at your request, you must provide us with adequate information and product samples to evaluate the Proposed Supplier. We will consider the following factors in our evaluation: (1) whether the products and customer service provided by the Proposed Supplier meet our specifications and standards; (2) the reputation of the Proposed Supplier for quality and reliability; (3) the frequency and method of delivery; (4) competitiveness of pricing offered; and (5) whether the products add anything to the range of products offered or are redundant of existing approved products. Certain products may be exclusively supplied by us or our affiliates. Since our formation in April 2025, neither we nor our affiliates have received money from or on account of the sale of goods or services to franchisees, but we reserve the right for us and our affiliates to do so in the future.

We have already or may negotiate purchasing terms for franchisees from certain Suppliers. We cannot guaranty that any Supplier will offer or continue any particular pricing, warranty or other terms of sale. We will attempt to negotiate a continued supply of products from various Suppliers, but cannot guaranty a continuing supply from any particular Supplier. We are not under any obligation to you with respect to the terms negotiated or the terms of any Supplier. We cannot guarantee that Suppliers will offer or continue to offer you any trade credit terms as that is solely up to the Supplier and their credit standards.

We may in our sole discretion, institute, maintain and administer a separate fund for advertising, marketing, promotional or public relations programs and for using Social Media Platforms as we in our sole discretion may deem necessary or appropriate to enhance, promote and protect the goodwill and public image of the System, the Small Town Play Café brand and the intellectual property (“Brand Fund”). There is currently no Brand Fund in place. In the event a Brand Fund is instituted, the following requirements will apply. We may contribute or loan additional funds to the Brand Fund on any terms we deem reasonable.

We will direct all such programs with sole discretion over all operational and advertising decisions, including: (1) the creative concepts, materials, endorsements and media used in connection with such programs (which may include television, radio, print and Internet advertising, maintenance of a website as well as the use of Social Media Platforms, as funds permit); (2) the source of the advertising, marketing, promotional or public relations efforts (which may be in-house or through an outside agency located locally, regionally or nationally); (3) the placement and allocation of such programs (which will be local, regional or national); and (4) the composition of all geographic territories and market areas for the development and implementation of such programs.

The Brand Fund may be used in any of the following ways:

1. to create and implement Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials, in any form that we may, in our sole discretion, determine;
2. to assist franchisees in developing Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials and using Social Media Platforms;
3. in connection with radio, television, print, Internet advertising, sports and cable programs, other forms of production and media as well as Social Media Platforms;
4. to review any and all locally produced Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials;
5. for website design and maintenance and to conduct search engine optimization;
6. to use Social Media Platforms and develop Social Media Materials;
7. to conduct market research;
8. to undertake sponsorships;
9. to pay related retainers;
10. to conduct customer surveys, customer interviews and to retain mystery businesspers to conduct inspections of the System as well as competitors;
11. to retain celebrities for endorsement purposes;
12. to pay for membership dues to associations, including but not limited to the International Franchise Association, National Café Association and state café associations; and
13. to establish a third-party facility to customize Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials.

Once established, all franchisees will make the same Brand Fund Contribution. We are responsible for administering the Brand Fund. Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials, if developed, may be sold to franchisees at a reasonable cost. We may receive payment for providing goods or services to the Brand Fund. We are not required to spend any amount on advertising, marketing or promotional programs or Social Media Platforms directly in the Territory or to spend pro rata with your individual Brand Fund Contribution. Any unused portion of the Brand Fund in any calendar year or earnings on sales of Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials will be applied to the following year's Brand Fund. The Brand Fund may periodically be used to assist franchisees to maintain high quality standards through customer surveys, interviews, mystery shoppers, etc. As indicated in Item 6 above, you will be required to contribute one percent (1%) of Gross Revenues to the Brand Fund. We may increase the required contribution to the Brand Fund to three percent (3%) of Gross Revenues upon written notice to you. There is no requirement for the Brand Fund to be independently audited. Once established, we will make an unaudited annual account available to you once a year upon request within one hundred twenty (120) days after our fiscal year ends. Brand Fund proceeds may be used to (i) assist franchisees in developing Local Advertising and (ii) reimburse us or our affiliates for salaries, overhead and administrative expenses relating to advertising and marketing programs intended to benefit the System.

Company and/or affiliate-owned units opened at any point in time in the future may, but are not required to, contribute to the Brand Fund. If the Brand Fund Contribution percentage for the System is reduced at any time, we will have the right to reduce Brand Fund Contributions from company-owned locations to the rate specified for franchised businesses. We reserve the right to discontinue the Brand Fund but will not do so until all the monies in the Brand Fund have been expended. We will have no fiduciary duty with respect to Brand Fund proceeds and are administering these funds as an accommodation to franchisees and the System only.

We do not use any monies from the Brand Fund to principally solicit new franchise sales. However, we may advertise on the website that unit franchises are available or make other similar statements on the website.

We may establish a franchisee advisory council or subcommittee to participate in the Brand Fund management and advertising decisions. However, we will have sole discretion over the operation of the Brand Fund and all advertising decisions.

Local Marketing and Advertising:

You are currently required to spend the greater of one-half percent (0.5%) of your Gross Revenues for the previous month or $500 per month on Local Advertising. Any discrepancy between the amount spent month and the amount equal to the greater of one percent (0.5%) of Gross Revenues for that month or $500, must be spent during the following month. Local Advertising expenditures may be based upon an annual plan submitted to us for approval, and may not necessarily have a mandated expenditure per each month of the year. Upon request, you must submit an itemized report documenting proof of expenditures to us, in a form we may in our sole discretion, require. Upon discovery of your non-compliance with your Local Advertising requirements, we may require you to expend those funds as we require which may include contributing to the Brand Fund any amount required but not spent by you on Local Advertising programs. All marketing will be conducted as set forth in the Confidential Operating Manual and in an approved annual marketing plan. Costs and expenditures you may incur for any of the following do not count towards your Local Advertising expenditures:

(i) Salaries and expenses of your employees, including salaries or expenses for attendance at advertising meetings or activities;

- (ii) In-store materials consisting of fixtures or equipment; and
- (iii) Seminar and educational costs and expenses of your employees.

You are required at your expense, to obtain and maintain at the location of your Franchised Business Advertising Materials of the kind and size as we may, from time to time, require for comparable Small Town Play Café business.

All Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and other items we designate must bear the Principal Trademarks in the form, color, location and manner we prescribe and must meet all of our standards and requirements. All Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and Social Media Platforms used by you must be conducted in a dignified manner and must conform to the standards and requirements that we state in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise.

You must obtain our prior approval before: (i) you use any Advertising materials or Social Media Materials if we have not prepared or approved such Advertising Materials or Social Media Materials within the previous twelve (12) months; and (ii) before you initially use any Social Media Platform. You must submit all unapproved Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and requests to use Social Media Platforms to us via certified or electronic mail. We will approve or disapprove such request within ten (10) days after submission. If you do not receive written approval within ten (10) days after submission of your request for approval, your request is deemed denied. We may withhold our approval of your use of any Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials or Social Media Platform for any reason or no reason at all. You may not use any unapproved Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials or Social Media Platforms. You must promptly discontinue use of any Advertising Material, Social Media Material and/or Social Media Platform, whether or not previously approved, on notice from us. We have the right to require you to stop, revise, delete or remove any objectionable Social Media Material from any Social Media Platform, as determined by us in our sole discretion, including but not limited to any previously approved Social Media Material. We have the right to access your Social Media Platform accounts to stop, revise, delete or remove any objectionable Social Media Material from any Social Media Platform, as determined by us in our sole discretion, including but not limited to any previously approved Social Media Material. You are required to give us your usernames, passwords, account information and all other information we may require to access your Social Media Platforms accounts upon your initial use of a Social Media Platform and immediately upon our request.

All Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and use of Social Media Platforms must indicate that you operate the Franchised Business as an independent franchisee of us. You will not employ any person to act as your representative in connection with local promotion of the Franchised Business in any public media without our prior written approval.

In addition to the advertising requirements, you are required to spend between $1,000 and $5,000 for your Grand Opening Marketing. The Grand Opening Marketing requires you to present your Franchised Business to the community through the execution of a plan of scheduled advertising, marketing and public relations. The Grand Opening Marketing will be instituted thirty (30) days prior to opening and continue through sixty (60) days after the opening of your Franchised Business, in our discretion. We may assist you in developing your Grand Opening Marketing. The Grand Opening Marketing may include advertising requirements, product sampling, public relations plans, community involvement activities, premium or promotional item giveaways, brand awareness programs, Social Media Platforms and Social Media Materials, “guerilla” or “four walls” marketing programs and direct mail.

There are currently no advertising cooperatives in our System.

Opening and Site Selection:

We will assign you a Territory as we determine appropriate for your Franchised Business in our sole discretion. You must select the site for the Franchised Business subject to our consent within the Territory we assign to you. You must obtain our approval for an acceptable site within one hundred twenty (120) days of executing the Franchise Agreement. You may not relocate your Franchised Business without our prior consent. Before leasing or purchasing the site for your Franchised Business, you must submit to us in the form we specify, a description of the site together with other evidence that confirms your favorable prospects for obtaining the site. You must submit the information and materials for the proposed site to us no later than ninety (90) days of executing the Franchise Agreement. We will have thirty (30) days after we receive this information and materials to evaluate the proposed site. If the proposed site is not approved by us in writing within thirty (30) days of our receipt of all required information, the proposed site is disapproved. If approved, you must lease or purchase at your expense, the site for the Franchised Business within sixty (60) days after our approval. You must submit for review any sale or lease contract before you sign it.

We will consult with you on our current site selection guidelines and provide other site selection counseling as we deem advisable. We anticipate that Small Town Play Café businesses will be between 2,000 and 3,000 sq ft. Currently, site approval will consider the following factors among other factors: potential customer base, lease costs, competition, population density and composition, visibility and proximity to other Small Town Play Café business.

Once we have received all necessary information about your proposed site(s) as described above, we or a designee may in our sole discretion, conduct one (1) on-site evaluation for each proposed site. If we or our designee determine, in our sole discretion, that a further on-site evaluation is still necessary or if you request further on-site evaluations, we or our designee may in our sole discretion, conduct an additional on-site evaluation. We will review and approve your architectural drawings, prior to their submission to the local government for the purpose of layout and design compliance only. If we do not disapprove of your architectural drawings within thirty (30) days of our receipt, your architectural drawings are deemed approved. Our review and approval is not a guarantee that your architectural drawings comply with any codes, laws or regulations including for example, zoning codes and the Americans with Disabilities Act or that they are competently drafted. You are responsible for such compliance. You will be required to reimburse us for all costs and expenses incurred in connection with reviewing your architectural drawings.

Although we will consult with you on your site and your site is subject to our evaluation, you have the ultimate responsibility in choosing, obtaining and developing the site for your Franchised Business. Our consultation is not a promise or guarantee that the Franchised Business operated at your site will be successful. Our review and approval of the site is limited to verification that the site is within the Territory and that it meets our requirements. We recommend that you seek the advice of your own independent advisors in determining if the site meets our standards and your standards.

We estimate that the time from the signing of the Franchise Agreement to the opening of the Franchised Business will be approximately nine (9) to twelve (12) months after lease signing. This time may be significantly shorter or longer depending upon the time necessary to obtain a site, to obtain financing and to obtain the permits and licenses necessary for the construction and operation of the Franchised Business. Additional time may be needed to complete construction or remodeling as it may be affected by adverse weather conditions, shortages, delivery schedules and other similar factors, to complete the interior and exterior of the Franchised Business including decorating, purchasing and installing fixtures, equipment and signs and to complete preparation for operating the Franchised Business including purchasing inventory and supplies. The Franchise Agreement requires you to open the Franchised Business and begin business no later than twelve (12) months after signing the Franchise Agreement, unless you obtain a written extension of this time period from us. If you do not obtain a site within the time period required, or if you fail to open within twelve (12) months, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

If you develop more than one (1) Franchised Business, we will provide training to one (1) manager for each such Franchised Business at no additional charge. However, we may in our sole discretion, offer and/or require that you or your Operating Principal and/or previously trained employees attend and complete additional training courses in connection with your Franchised Business and/or any Franchised Business you develop after your first Franchised Business that we either periodically choose to provide or otherwise may require for you and/or your Operating Principal and/or previously trained employees at the times and locations that we designate.

Initial training will be held at one of our affiliate-owned business located in Westfield, New Jersey or another facility designated by us. We may hold a portion of the initial training on-site at your Franchised Business in our discretion and based upon staff availability. Failure to complete training to our satisfaction is an event of default enabling us to terminate the Franchise Agreement. Our pre-opening training program is typically conducted four (4) to six (6) times per year and is held every eight (8) to twelve (12) weeks.

ITEM 12. TERRITORY

Your Franchise Agreement will grant you certain limited rights with respect to a specific Territory. That Territory will be identified on an attachment to the Franchise Agreement. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

The Territory will be identified on an attachment to the Franchise Agreement. We will agree not to grant another franchise, open a company and/or affiliate-owned business or permit any Small Town Play Café business, whether owned by a franchisee, us or an affiliate to solicit sales within your Territory during the term of your Franchise Agreement, except to the extent that an advertisement, marketing promotion or web promotion may include publication within your Territory.

Typically, a Territory will consist of either (a) a five (5) mile radius surrounding the franchisee's business location, or (b) a population of 75,000 people, whichever is smaller. The Territory may be located within specific zip codes, counties or other natural boundaries (such as rivers, lakes, mountain ranges, etc.) or man-made boundaries such as highways or streets. Your Territory may be based in part on population density, number of cafés within the Territory, current and projected market demand, potential customer base, access and visibility, traffic patterns and other economic, demographic and geographic factors determined by us in our sole discretion. We will assign you a Territory as we deem appropriate for your Franchised Business in our sole discretion.

If the Territory has not been designated when you sign the Franchise Agreement, we will designate a Territory shortly thereafter and a Territory Attachment will be attached at that time. We may also designate a search area, which is intended to describe the area where you may look for a site for your Franchised Business. You will not have any rights to any search area, if one is designated for you.

Other than the right to develop a franchised business in the Territory, you will not be granted any other right with respect to the Territory, including but not limited to the right to sell products through alternative channels of distribution or develop franchised businesses in non-traditional locations (defined below). If we develop alternative channels of distribution, we do not guarantee that those alternative channels of distribution will be offered as franchises and we are not obligated to offer to you the right to sell products or services through any alternative channels of distribution.

Notwithstanding the grant above and without limiting our retention of all other rights not specifically granted to Franchisee, we reserve the right (without any compensation to you) for us, our company-owned stores and our affiliates to:

(a) Accept in any Small Town Play Café business located outside the Territory, orders made from within the Territory for products or services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) and to deliver such products or services within the Territory;

(b) Accept orders for products or services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) from within the Territory generated through the Internet and to deliver such products or services within the Territory;

(c) Conduct marketing, solicit business, advertise and accept orders anywhere, without limitation;

(d) Sell products and services and enfranchise others to sell products and services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) in the Territory through any alternative channel of distribution;

(e) Sell products and services enfranchise others to sell products and services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) in non-traditional locations, including any non-traditional locations situated in the Territory, through the establishment of Small Town Play Café business, kiosks, mobile units, concessions or “business in business.” “Non-traditional locations” include venues for mass gathering such as airports, sports arenas, theatres, resorts, malls and mall food courts, schools and universities, healthcare facilities, guest lodging facilities, day care facilities of any type, government facilities, as well as the premises of any third-party retailer (including supermarkets, grocery stores and convenience stores) which is not a café (including business, stores and department stores) and any other location or venue to which access to the general public is restricted such as military bases and installations, higher security headquarters of corporations, airlines, railroads and other modes of mass transportation; and

(f) Develop, implement and participate in a co-branding program located within or outside of your Territory regardless of whether any co-branded business is franchised or company-owned and regardless of which trade names, trademarks, or service marks are used in connection with the co-branded business, including but not limited to the Principal Trademarks.

We also reserve for ourselves, our affiliates all rights not exclusively granted to you.

Other franchisees are permitted to solicit business and advertise and accept orders from outside of their territories with our approval but not within your Territory, except that other franchisees may accept business within your Territory if that business is unsolicited or comes in response to advertising, promotion, marketing or web promotion that is not specific to your Territory (i.e., advertising in a newspaper with circulation encompassing the Territory; such general advertisements require Franchisor's prior written approval).

Without our written approval, franchisees will not participate in direct delivery services. Instead, we may approve or require franchisees to use third-party delivery services, such as DoorDash, Uber Eats, Grubhub or such other third-party delivery services we approve. We will not expressly permit other franchisees to solicit business and accept café orders within your Territory, however, we do not have control over third-party delivery services. There are no restrictions on third-party delivery orders. If franchisee solicits business or accepts café orders outside of their territories, including within the territory of another franchisee, we may take any action or no action at all, based upon our evaluation of the situation. You will not be permitted to solicit sales from outside of your Territory within a Territory whose rights have been granted to another franchisee. You may solicit sales outside of your Territory in areas that are not subject to another franchise agreement, with our advanced written approval. We reserve the right to grant a franchisee territory rights or the right to solicit sales in any area outside of your Territory. You will be permitted to accept business from another franchisee's Territory if it is unsolicited or comes in response to advertising, promotion, marketing or web promotion that is not specific to that other franchisee's Territory (i.e., advertising in a newspaper with circulation encompassing your Territory. When advertising in a medium that has distribution in another franchisee's Territory and where that franchisee has chosen to participate, you must include in the written advertising, marketing, promotion or web promotion or oral script utilized, the locations of that franchisee. When that franchisee chooses not to participate in the advertising, marketing, promotion or web promotion, the written or oral advertisement must include only the locations of the participating franchisee(s) whose Territory falls into the distribution area of advertising medium employed and must also include the disclaimer "at participating locations only," as well as to eliminate any reference to menu pricing if there is a difference in pricing between franchised owned locations or between your pricing and that of corporate or licensee owned locations.

You may not relocate the Franchised Business without our prior written consent. We consider the following factors in approving your relocation: if you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement; you have paid all monies to us and our affiliates; the proposed location meets our site selection criteria; and you comply with our lease requirements. Unless we agree to in writing, you will be required to occupy and open for business the Franchised Business at the new location before closing the old location.

To maintain your Territory you must continue to meet the requirements of the Franchise Agreement. There are no specific financial performance requirements imposed upon you to maintain your Territory. We and/or our affiliates may establish any business within your Territory that does not utilize the Principal Trademarks.

In the event we acquire a competing children's play center system and such is an established non-franchised business that contains operations within your Territory:

- (a) we may offer you the business within your Territory at a cost equal to the fully allocated costs associated with the business;
- (b) you will have thirty (30) days to decide whether or not to acquire the business as a Small Town Play Café franchise under the then-current franchise agreement;
- (c) you will not be charged a franchise fee for that acquisition;
- (d) you will have six (6) months to bring the business up to our then-current standards for a Small Town Play Café franchise;
- (e) if you acquire the business, your royalties for the acquired unit will be reduced by twenty percent (20%) for a period of two (2) years from the date you acquired the business, but no other fees will be reduced; and
- (f) if you decide not to acquire the business, we or our affiliates may operate the business ourselves or offer the business to someone else whether with or without the Principal Trademarks, without compensation to you.

Area Development Franchise:

If you enter into an ADA, it will define the Area in which the franchised businesses are to be developed. The Area will be described in Exhibit 1 to your ADA. We intend to grant ADAs for Areas that are contiguous and that will provide for metes and bounds or shopping areas, rather than zip codes. The size of the Area will vary depending on the number of franchised businesses to be developed, as well as the market area the franchised businesses will be developed in. Other than the right to develop franchised businesses in the Area, you will not be granted any other right with respect to the Area, including but not limited to the right to sell products through alternative channels of distribution or develop franchised businesses in non-traditional locations. Provided that you are not in default, Small Town Play Café will not open any company owned or franchisee owned restaurants in your Area during the term of the ADA.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control. However, we will not grant to other franchisees the right to develop within the Area throughout the term of the ADA.

The Development Schedule (defined in Exhibit 2 to the ADA) will require you to develop at least two (2) franchised businesses. The Development Schedule is determined based on our market studies of the Area and our discussions with you. The shortest Development Schedule will call for the development of at least two (2) Franchised Businesses within two (2) years from the date you sign the ADA. You do not receive the right to acquire additional Areas or to develop franchised businesses outside of your Area unless you enter into another ADA with us. However, you may develop more franchised businesses within your Area than required by the Development Schedule, if you and we agree that the market can bear additional units.

In order for you to maintain your rights in the Area you must adhere to the Development Schedule and comply with all of your obligations under all agreements with us and our affiliates. You maintain rights to your protected Area during the term of your ADA even if the population increases. Any failure to adhere to the Development Schedule will constitute a material event of default under the ADA for which we may, among other things: (i) terminate the ADA; (ii) modify your Area rights including but not limited to terminating any protection right or granting protection to the Area to another party; (iii) re-designate the boundaries of the Area; (iv) reduce the number of franchised businesses you may establish; (v) permit you to extend the Development Schedule; (vi) terminate or modify any right of first refusal we grant you; or (vii) pursue any other remedy we may have at law or in equity including but not limited to a suit for non-performance.

If you sign an Area Development Agreement, the process for approving sites for your Franchised Businesses (after the first Franchised Business) will be done in accordance with our then-current site criteria.

In the event that we acquire an established franchised system that uses different brands: (a) we will have the unrestricted right, but not the obligation, to convert the existing business to the System; (b) if the business is converted to the System, you will receive a royalty of twenty percent (20%) of the royalties received by us from the converting franchisee's operations in your Territory for a period of two (2) years from the date the business was converted to the System; and (c) if the business is not converted to the System, we reserve the right to allow it to operate without any compensation to you and receive the services provided to franchisees hereunder.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties, in consideration of the mutual undertakings and commitments set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, agree as follows:

I. GRANT OF FRANCHISE AND LICENSE

1.1 Grant

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Franchisor grants to Franchisee the right and license, and Franchisee accepts the right and obligation, to operate a Franchised Business under the Principal Trademarks (identified on Exhibit 1), in accordance with the System and the provisions of this Agreement within the geographic area specified in the Territory Attachment in Exhibit 2 (the "Territory"). Franchisee shall have no right or license to operate the Franchised Business or to use the System or the Principal Trademarks to offer or sell any products or services through any channel of distribution except within the Territory and in accordance with this Agreement.

1.2 Limitation of Grant

Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that this Agreement does not grant Franchisee any area, market, territory, franchise or other rights except as provided herein and Franchisor shall retain and may convey to any other any right not expressly granted to Franchisee herein.

1.3 Grant of License to Principal Trademarks

Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee a limited and non-exclusive license to use the Principal Trademarks during the term of this Agreement subject to the terms, limitations and conditions of this Agreement and all quality control standards and requirements of Franchisor.

1.4 Services Offered by the Franchisee

(a) General Requirements

Except to the extent otherwise provided in this Section, Franchisee agrees to offer, sell and furnish all current and future Services, Ancillary Services and Ancillary Products (as these terms are defined in subsections (b) and (c) below), and other programs and products which are part of the System and which Franchisor designates as mandatory in this Agreement and in the Confidential Operating Manual. Franchisee may not use the Small Town Play Café name or the Principal Trademarks for the benefit of any business other than the Franchised Business. Franchisee is prohibited from offering or selling any services, programs or products which are not a part of the System or which Franchisor deletes from the System, without Franchisor's prior written approval. Franchisee may not conduct (or permit anyone else to conduct) any business other than the business contemplated by this Agreement at or from the Franchised Business location without first obtaining Franchisor's written consent, which Franchisor is under no obligation to grant and which Franchisor may in Franchisor's sole discretion subsequently withdraw. If Franchisor permits Franchisee to furnish, offer or sell any service, program or product which is not a part of the System, then Franchisor has the right to set conditions for this approval, including without limitation: (i) requirements that Franchisee inform the public (in the manner that Franchisor requires) that such services, programs or products are not associated with the Principal Trademarks and/or are not endorsed or offered by Franchisor, its affiliates, or Small Town Play Café franchisees; (ii) the right to withdraw consent to the services, programs or products, in which event Franchisee shall immediately cease and desist all activities with respect to these services, programs or products; (iii) that any such services, programs or products may, in Franchisor's sole discretion, be incorporated into the System and be used by Franchisor as Franchisor's property without restriction or compensation to Franchisee; and (iv) Franchisee's waiver and release of any proprietary rights Franchisee may have to the services, programs and products. Franchisor may periodically eliminate certain products and/or services, or add additional products and/or services, in either case in its sole discretion and without the necessity of further notice to Franchisee.

(b) The Services

This Agreement authorizes Franchisee to offer, sell and perform the Services which is defined as the service of offering an educational and recreational children's play space and café featuring a custom-designed play space with imaginative and gross-motor play opportunities, which offers open play, birthday parties, classes and events, memberships and a full-service café offering gourmet coffee, hot and iced specialty beverages, and a selection of baked goods, breakfast and lunch items, children's meals and other food items according to our specified procedures.

(c) Ancillary Services and Ancillary Products

Franchisor reserves the right to extend the System into other areas of business. Franchisor is under no obligation to offer to Franchisee those services or additional products if and when they are established ("Ancillary Services" and "Ancillary Products.") If Franchisor notifies Franchisee of new Ancillary Services or Ancillary Products to be included in the Franchised Business by separate notice or by revised Confidential Operating Manual, Franchisee agrees to offer such Ancillary Services or Ancillary Products if Franchisor describes them as mandatory and Franchisee may choose to offer such Ancillary Services or Ancillary Products if Franchisor describes them as optional. If mandatory, Franchisee agrees at its expense to: (i) obtain all necessary products, services, promotional materials, training and if required, licensed personnel or equipment which Franchisor advises Franchisee is necessary to offer the Ancillary Services or Ancillary Products; and (ii) begin offering, selling, using and furnishing the Ancillary Services or Ancillary Products as soon as is possible in a commercially reasonable manner after receipt of notice to that effect.

II. TERRITORY

2.1 Territory

(a) Franchisee's Territory shall be as defined in Exhibit 2 attached hereto or as determined by the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee may market, advertise and solicit customers for the Franchised Business within the Territory in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. In the event the Territory has not been designated at the time of the signing of this Agreement, Franchisor shall designate a Territory within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date and Franchisee agrees to accept that Territory without condition. Additionally, if the Territory has not been designated at the time of signing of this Agreement, Franchisor may also designate a search area, which is intended to describe the area in which Franchisee may look for a site for the Franchised Business (the "Search Area"). Franchisee shall not have any rights to any Search Area, if one is designated; it is merely intended to guide Franchisee's site selection efforts.

(b) During the term of this Agreement, subject to full compliance by Franchisee and its Owners (defined herein) with this Agreement and any other agreement between Franchisee or any of its Owners and Franchisor, Franchisor shall not (i) grant a franchise or open a company or affiliate-owned unit within the Territory; or (ii) permit any Small Town Play Café business to solicit sales within the Territory except to the extent that any advertisement, promotion or web promotion may include publication within any part of the Territory.

(c) Without Franchisor's prior written approval, which Franchisor may withhold for any reason or no reason at all, Franchisee shall not participate in direct delivery services. Instead, Franchisor may, but is not obligated to, approve or require Franchisee to use one or more third-party delivery services, such as DoorDash, Uber Eats, Grubhub or such other third-party delivery services as Franchisor may approve. Subjection to Section 2.2(d) below, Franchisor shall not expressly permit other franchisees to solicit business and accept café orders within the Territory, however, Franchisor does not have control over third-party delivery services. Accordingly, there are no restrictions on third-party delivery orders.

2.2 Limitations on Territory Rights

(a) Franchisor may, at any time and in its sole discretion, designate any geographic area outside the Territory as the territory for a franchisee or licensee.

(b) Notwithstanding the territorial grant above and without limiting Franchisor's retention of all other rights not specifically granted to Franchisee, Franchisor reserves the right for itself, company-owned stores, and its affiliates to:

(i) accept in any Small Town Play Café business located outside of Franchisee's Territory, orders made from within Franchisee's Territory for products or services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) and to deliver such products or services within Franchisee's Territory;

(ii) accept orders for products or services sold under any trade name, trademark, service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) from within Franchisee's Territory generated through the Internet and to deliver such products or services within Franchisee's Territory;

(iii) conduct marketing, solicit business, advertise and accept orders anywhere, without limitation;

(iv) sell products and services and enfranchise others to sell products and services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) in the Territory through any alternative channel of distribution;

(v) sell products and services and enfranchise others to sell products and services sold under any trade name, trademark or service mark (including the Principal Trademarks) in non-traditional locations, including any non-traditional locations situated in Franchisee's Territory, through the establishment of Small Town Play Café business, kiosks, mobile units, concessions or "business in business." Non-traditional locations include venues for mass gathering such as airports, sports arenas, theatres, resorts, malls and mall food courts, schools and universities, healthcare facilities, guest lodging facilities, day care facilities of any type, government facilities, as well as the premises of any third-party retailer or food retailers (including supermarkets, grocery stores and convenience stores) which is not a café (including business, stores and department stores) and any other location or venue to which access to the general public is restricted such as military bases and installations, higher security headquarters of corporations, airlines, railroads and other modes of mass transportation; and

(vi) develop, implement and participate in a co-branding program located within or outside Franchisee's Territory regardless of whether any co-branded business is franchised or company-owned and regardless of which trade names, trademarks or service marks are used in connection with the co-branded business, including but not limited to the Principal Trademarks.

(d) Other franchisees are permitted to advertise, solicit sales and accept business from outside of their territories, with Franchisor's prior written approval, but not within Franchisee's Territory, except that other franchisees may accept business within Franchisee's Territory if that business is unsolicited or comes in response to advertising, marketing, promotions or web promotions that are not specific to Franchisee's Territory (i.e., advertising in a newspaper with circulation encompassing the Territory). Franchisor will take any action or no action at all, based on Franchisor's evaluation of the situation if other franchisees advertise, solicit sales and/or accept business from Franchisee's Territory. Franchisee may not advertise, solicit sales or accept business outside the Territory within a territory whose rights have been granted to another franchisee. Franchisee may solicit sales outside the Territory in areas that are not subject to another franchise agreement (an "unassigned" territory), with Franchisor's written approval. Franchisor reserves the right to grant a franchisee territory rights or the right to advertise in, solicit sales and accept business from any area outside of Franchisee's Territory. Soliciting sales in an unassigned territory does not grant any right of first refusal or any other right to Franchisee for another franchise in an unassigned territory. Franchisee will be permitted to accept business from another franchisee's territory, if it is unsolicited or comes in response to advertising, marketing, promotions or web promotions that are not specific to that franchisee's territory (i.e., advertising in a newspaper with circulation encompassing the Territory). When advertising in a medium that is distributed in another franchisee's territory or in a distribution area encompassing a company-owned, affiliate-owned or licensee-owned business, for promotion or otherwise and when that franchisee, company-owned, affiliate-owned or licensee-owned business has chosen to participate, Franchisee must include as part of that written advertisement or in the oral script utilized, the location of any such business. When that franchisee, company-owned, affiliate-owned or licensee-owned business has chosen not to participate in the advertising, marketing, promotion or web promotion the written or oral advertising, marketing, promotion or web promotion must include the disclaimer "at participating locations only," as well as eliminate any reference to menu pricing when there is a difference between franchise pricing (Franchisee's pricing compared to other franchisees' pricing) or other business pricing (Franchisee's pricing compared to company-owned, affiliate-owned or licensee-owned business's pricing).

(e) Franchisor or its affiliates may establish any business within Franchisee's Territory that does not utilize the Principal Trademarks.

(f) In order to maintain the Territory, Franchisee must meet its obligations under this Agreement. In addition to the termination provisions set forth in Article XIV herein, Franchisee's failure to comply with the provisions of this Agreement may result in Franchisor reducing the size and scope of Franchisee's Territory or eliminating Franchisee's Territory altogether, in Franchisor's sole discretion.

(g) Franchisor, may, at any time and in its sole discretion, designate any outside the Territory as the territory of a franchisee.

2.3 Introduction of Other Systems within the Territory

(a) In the event Franchisor acquires a competing business system during the term of this Agreement and such competing system is an established non-franchise business that contains operations within the Territory, then the following shall apply:

(i) Franchisor may, but is not required to, offer Franchisee the business within the Territory at a cost equal to the fully allocated costs associated with the business;

(ii) Franchisee will then have thirty (30) days to decide whether or not to acquire the business as a Small Town Play Café franchise under the then-current franchise agreement;

(iii) Franchisor will not charge Franchisee a franchise fee for the acquisition of the business;

(iv) upon the effective date of the purchase, Franchisee will have six (6) months to bring the business up to Franchisor's then-current standards for a Small Town Play Café franchise as provided for in the then-current franchise agreement, Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise in writing by Franchisor;

(v) if Franchisee decides to acquire the business, Franchisee's royalties for the acquired business will be reduced by twenty percent (20%) for a period of two (2) years from the effective date of Franchisee's purchase of the business, but no other fees shall be reduced; and

(vi) if Franchisee decides not to acquire the business, then Franchisor or its affiliates may operate the business within the Territory or offer the business to a third-party, whether or not under the Principal Trademarks, without compensation to Franchisee.

(b) Notwithstanding the territorial grant above and without limiting Franchisor's retention of all other rights not specifically granted to Franchisee, in the event that Franchisor acquires an established franchised system that uses different brands: (i) Franchisor will have the unrestricted right but not the obligation to convert the existing business to the System; (ii) if the business is converted to the System, Franchisee will receive a payment of twenty percent (20%) of the royalties received by Franchisor from the operation of the converting franchise in the Territory for a period of two (2) years from the effective date the business was converted to the System; and (iii) if the business is not converted to the System, Franchisor reserves the right to allow it to operate without compensation to Franchisee and to receive the services provided to franchisees hereunder.

(a) Franchisee shall have the right to enter into a successor agreement for this franchise at the expiration of the initial term for one (1) successive term of ten (10) years, commencing immediately upon the expiration (but not the termination) of this Agreement, provided that at the time the successor agreement is to be executed, all of the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(c) If applicable, the Successor Notice will:

(i) describe the remodeling, expansion, improvements and/or modifications required to bring the Franchised Business into compliance with then applicable specifications and standards for a new Franchised Business; and

(ii) state the actions Franchisee must take to correct operating deficiencies and the time period in which Franchisee must correct these deficiencies.

(d) If Franchisor elects to grant a successor franchise, Franchisee's right to acquire the successor franchise is subject to Franchisee's full compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement through the date of its expiration, in addition to its compliance with the obligations described in the Successor Notice.

(e) If the Successor Notice states that Franchisee must cure certain deficiencies of the Franchised Business or its operation as a condition to Franchisor's granting Franchisee a successor franchise, Franchisor will give Franchisee written notice of its decision not to grant a successor franchise, based upon Franchisee's failure to cure those deficiencies not less than thirty (30) days before this Agreement expires. However, Franchisor need not give Franchisee this thirty (30) days' notice if Franchisor decides not to grant Franchisee a successor franchise due to Franchisee's breach of this Agreement during the thirty (30) day period before this Agreement expires.

(f) At its option, Franchisor may extend this Agreement's term for the time period necessary to give Franchisee either a reasonable time to correct deficiencies, execute a successor agreement, or to provide Franchisee with thirty (30) days' notice of Franchisor's refusal to grant a successor franchise.

"Gross Revenues" shall mean all revenues and income of any type or nature and from any source, including but not limited to business interruption insurance proceeds, that Franchisee derives or receives directly or indirectly from, through, by or on account of the operation of the Franchised Business at any time after the Effective Date whether received in cash, in services, in kind, from barter and/or exchange, on credit or otherwise, without any deduction for expenses including advertising, marketing or promotional expenses and taxes, unless specifically exempted herein or otherwise by Franchisor. Franchisee assumes all cost, liability, expense and responsibility for: (i) locating; (ii) presenting for Franchisor's review; (iii) obtaining; and (iv) developing a site for the Franchised Business within the Territory and for constructing and equipping the Franchised Business location. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the location, selection procurement and development of the Franchised Business location is Franchisee's responsibility and that in discharging such responsibility Franchisee must consult with real estate and other professionals of Franchisee's choosing. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, provide Franchisee with site criteria which may define the physical, demographic and geographic characteristics of a Franchised Business location. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, provide Franchisee with a list of locations for the Franchised Business which may be suitable. This information is gathered from third parties and Franchisor does not guarantee the accuracy of such information. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, provide Franchisee with information about preliminary plans and layouts for the Franchised Business location, sources of signage, equipment and/or furnishings, standards and specifications for all fixtures, improvements, other products and services and other related items used in a typical Franchised Business location.

5.2 Site Selection Guidelines

(a) Franchisee shall locate a site that satisfies Franchisor's site selection guidelines. Prior to making a binding commitment to secure the Franchised Business location by lease or purchase, Franchisee shall submit to Franchisor in the form Franchisor specifies, the information and materials that Franchisor may reasonably require regarding the proposed Franchised Business location. Franchisee may submit to Franchisor information and materials relating to more than one proposed Franchised Business location for Franchisor's review. Franchisee shall submit such information and materials to Franchisor for its review no later than ninety (90) days after the Effective Date. Franchisor will within thirty (30) days after receipt of all necessary information and materials, evaluate the proposed site as the Franchised Business location and Franchisor will approve or disapprove the location. If the location for the Franchised Business is not approved in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of the above information, the location is deemed disapproved. By no later than one hundred twenty (120) days from the Effective Date, Franchisee must have obtained Franchisor's approval of a site.

(b) In reviewing the location for the Franchised Business, Franchisor may consider any factor Franchisor determines relevant, including but not limited to the following: potential customer base, lease costs, competition, population density and composition, visibility and proximity to other Small Town Play Café business.

(c) Once Franchisor has received information relating to the proposed Franchised Business location as described above, Franchisor or its designee may, in Franchisor's sole discretion, conduct an on-site evaluation for the proposed location. If Franchisor determines, in its sole discretion, that further on-site evaluation is necessary or if Franchisee requests further on-site evaluations, Franchisor or its designee, may, in Franchisor's sole discretion, conduct additional on-site evaluations.

5.3 Site Acquisition

(a) Within sixty (60) days after Franchisor has approved the Franchised Business location, Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, acquire the Franchised Business location by purchase or lease. Franchisee hereby grants Franchisor an irrevocable power of attorney to amend this Agreement to include the legal description of the Franchised Business location in Exhibit 2.

(b) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's evaluation and approval of a prospective location for the Franchised Business and Franchisor's rendering of assistance, if applicable, in the selection of a prospective location is not a representation, promise, warranty, indication or guaranty, express or implied, by Franchisor that the Franchised Business will be profitable or successful as a Small Town Play Café franchise. Franchisee further agrees and acknowledges that Franchisor's evaluation and approval of the Franchised Business location is solely for Franchisor's benefit and is only provided to ensure that the Franchised Business location meets Franchisor's standards as indicated herein, the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise by Franchisor in writing.

5.4 Lease Requirements

(a) In the event Franchisee leases the Franchised Business location, Franchisee shall submit a copy of the proposed lease to Franchisor thirty (30) days prior to execution of the lease and furnish to Franchisor a copy of the executed lease within ten (10) days after execution. The lease shall have an initial term of no less duration than the term of this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that as a material condition of Franchisor's approval of Franchisee entering into any lease, the lease shall provide that:

(i) the premises shall be used exclusively for the operation of the Franchised Business;

(ii) the lessor consents to the use of the Principal Trademarks, signs, décor, color scheme and related components of the System as Franchisor may prescribe;

(iii) the lessor agrees to furnish Franchisor with copies of all notices under the lease and at such time that such notices are made;

(iv) Franchisor has the right to enter the premises to, among other things, monitor the use of the Principal Trademarks, make any modification necessary to protect the Principal Trademarks and cure defaults under the lease, this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor or its affiliates;

(v) Franchisee shall not sublease or assign all or any part of its rights under the lease or extend the term of or renew the lease without Franchisor's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(vi) the lessor consents to the Collateral Assignment and Assumption of Lease defined in Section 5.5 hereof;

(vii) the lease shall not be materially amended or otherwise modified to affect Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement without Franchisor's prior written consent; and

(viii) the lessor acknowledges and agrees that any furniture, fixture, equipment or personal property maintained by Franchisee on the leased premises, including but not limited to the Operating Assets (defined below), whether leased or owned by Franchisee are: (1) not the property of lessor; (2) shall be subject to Franchisor's security interest and a purchase option provided for in Section 14.7 herein in the event of Franchisee's default under the lease, this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor or its affiliates; and (3) may be removed upon expiration or termination of the lease, so long as such removal is accomplished without damage to the leased facility.

(b) Franchisor may require Franchisee to ensure that any lease for the Franchised Business has a rider attached to it in a form approved by Franchisor which reflects Franchisor's requirements. Franchisee shall not enter into a lease without the prior written authorization of Franchisor. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's review of the lease does not constitute an approval of the lease or the terms contained therein, including, but not limited to any legal, economic and rental terms. Franchisee agrees to hold Franchisor harmless from any claim arising from the lease.

5.5 Collateral Assignment of Lease

Simultaneously with the execution of a lease, Franchisee shall enter into a Collateral Assignment and Assumption of Lease Agreement with Franchisor, in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 5 and Franchisee shall cause its lessor to execute the same. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that upon a default by Franchisee under its lease for the Franchised Business location or upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Collateral Assignment and Assumption of Lease Agreement shall provide Franchisor with the right but not the obligation to take possession of the Franchised Business location and assume all of Franchisee's rights, title and interest in the lease. In that event, lessor shall have no right to impose any conditions on such assignment and assumption or to obtain payment from Franchisee or Franchisor, including but not limited to any payment for past due rent or additional rent, replenishment of the security deposit or any other payment. Franchisee authorizes Franchisor and its affiliates to record a copy of the Collateral Assignment and Assumption of Lease (or a memorandum concerning the Collateral Assignment and Assumption of Lease) and any other documents required by Franchisor. Franchisee shall execute all such documents necessary to record the same and shall cooperate with Franchisor in all respects with the recording of the same. Franchisee explicitly affirms and recognizes the value of the lease for the Franchised Business location and Franchisee agrees that any non-compliance by Franchisee with Franchisor's right (but not obligation) to take possession of the Franchised Business location and assume all of Franchisee's rights, title and interest in the lease will cause irreparable damage to Franchisor, the System and other Small Town Play Café franchisees for which no adequate remedy at law will be available.

5.6 Compliance with Laws

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee is solely responsible for complying with all laws. Franchisee is also responsible for obtaining all zoning classifications and clearances that may be required by state or local laws, ordinances or regulations or that may be necessary as a result of any restrictive covenants relating to the Franchised Business location. Prior to beginning construction of the Franchised Business location, Franchisee shall obtain: (i) all permits, licenses and certifications required for the lawful construction or remodeling and operation of the Franchised Business; and (ii) insurance coverage at least in the amounts specified in this Agreement and otherwise required under its lease. Franchisee shall name Franchisor, its affiliates and the respective officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, representatives, independent contractors, servants and employees of Franchisor and its affiliates as additional insureds on any insurance policy. Franchisee shall provide to Franchisor, at Franchisor's request, copies of insurance policies (inclusive of any riders), certificates of insurance, approvals, clearances, permits, certifications and proof of compliance with applicable law.

5.7 Franchised Business Location Design

Franchisee shall obtain, at its own expense, architectural, engineering and design services necessary for the construction of the Franchised Business location from a licensed architectural design firm which has been either mandated or approved by the Franchisor. Currently, Franchisee is required to hire the Franchisor's approved architectural design firm to create Franchisee's architectural drawings. Although Franchisee shall remit payment for the architectural drawings, Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that Franchisor shall own all intellectual property rights arising from the architectural drawings. Franchisor may provide Franchisee with standards and specifications for construction of the Franchised Business location. If such standards and specifications are provided by Franchisor, then Franchisee at its expense and in cooperation with the architectural design firm, shall adapt the standards and specifications for construction of the Franchised Business location provided by Franchisor to the extent necessary to be consistent with local building codes and Franchisee shall submit such plans to Franchisor for prior review. Franchisor may communicate with the architectural design firm retained by Franchisee. In the event Franchisor determines in its sole discretion that the architect, architectural design firm and/or the Franchised Business location plans do not satisfy Franchisor's architectural or design standards and specifications or are not consistent with the best interests of the System, Franchisor, within thirty (30) days after receiving such plans, shall provide Franchisee with a list of changes necessary. If Franchisor does not disapprove of Franchisee's architectural drawings within thirty (30) days its receipt, Franchisee's architectural drawings are deemed approved. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's review, approval and proposed changes of the plans are meant to determine Franchisee's compliance with Franchisor's design specifications and shall not constitute an approval of the plans. Franchisor's review and approval of the plans in no way guarantees that Franchisee shall be in compliance with any architectural and/or legal requirement including but not limited to, zoning codes and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that Franchisee shall have no recourse against Franchisor based on the plans or Franchisor's review thereof. Franchisee shall be required to reimburse Franchisor for all costs and expenses incurred by Franchisor, its designee, in connection with reviewing Franchisee's architectural drawings.

5.8 Franchised Business Location Construction or Remodeling

(a) Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with periodic reports regarding the progress of the construction or remodeling of the Franchised Business location as may be requested by Franchisor. In the event Franchisor identifies instances where Franchisee's construction or remodeling is inconsistent with, or does not meet Franchisor's standards, Franchisor may notify Franchisee in writing of such deficiencies, in which case Franchisee shall correct such deficiencies prior to opening. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of the scheduled date for completion of construction or remodeling no later than thirty (30) days prior to such date. Franchisee shall not commence operating the Franchised Business location without the prior written authorization of Franchisor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor's authorization to commence operating the Franchised Business location is not any indication of performance or guarantee of Franchisee's success.

(b) Franchisor may in its sole discretion visit the Franchised Business location prior its opening and conduct an inspection without notice to Franchisee. Franchisor shall have the right to visit the Franchised Business location and conduct an inspection subsequent to its opening without notice to Franchisee if Franchisor deems in its sole discretion, such a visit is necessary.

(a) Franchisee shall not relocate the Franchised Business location except with the prior written consent of Franchisor. In the event Franchisor grants Franchisee permission to relocate the Franchised Business location, Franchisee shall comply with the then-current site selection and construction procedures applicable to new franchisees at the time of the relocation.

(b) In the event that Franchisee's right to occupy the Franchised Business location terminates during the term of this Agreement through no fault of Franchisee and for a reason other than the expiration of a lease, Franchisee may relocate the Franchised Business location to another location approved by Franchisor within the Territory, provided: (i) Franchisee notifies Franchisor within ten (10) days after receiving notice that Franchisee's right to occupy the Franchised Business location will terminate; (ii) Franchisee complies with the then-current site selection and construction procedures applicable to new franchisees at the time of the relocation; (iii) upon such relocation, Franchisor and Franchisee execute an amendment to the Territory Attachment setting forth the new location which shall thereafter be the Franchised Business location; (iv) Franchisor, Franchisee and Franchisee's landlord execute a collateral assignment and assumption of lease agreement pertaining to the new location; and (v) Franchisee and its Owners execute a General Release in a form attached as Exhibit 3 hereto in favor of the Released Parties.

(l) Franchisor may provide supplemental training, at times Franchisor may require, from to time. Franchisor may charge a fee for such supplemental training, as per Section 6.2(d) above.

6.6 Small Town Play Café Brand Fund

(a) Franchisor may in its sole discretion establish a Brand Fund for the purpose of enhancing and promoting the good will and public image of the System. Franchisee agrees to contribute to the Brand Fund as specified in Section 4.3. All franchisees will be required to make Brand Fund Contributions in an amount of one percent (1%) of their Gross Revenues, however, Franchisor reserves the right to increase the Brand Fund Contributions up to three percent (3%) of Gross Revenues. Company and/or affiliate-owned business may, but are not required to, contribute to the Brand Fund. If the Brand Fund Contribution rate is subsequently reduced, then the Brand Fund Contribution rate required of company and/or affiliate-owned business will be reduced corresponding to the Brand Fund Contribution rate required of franchisees which opened within the same calendar year.

(b) The Brand Fund will be administered by Franchisor or by its designee. Any unused funds in any fiscal year will be applied to the following fiscal year's Brand Fund, and Franchisor reserves the right to contribute or loan additional funds to the Brand Fund on any terms it deems reasonable. Since the Brand Fund is not audited, Franchisor will not make audited financial statements available to Franchisee. Franchisor will, upon Franchisee's written request, provide once a year within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the fiscal year, an un-audited accounting for the Brand Fund that shows how the Brand Fund proceeds have been spent for the previous year. Franchisor shall not be required to provide any other periodic accounting of how the Brand Fund is spent.

(c) Franchisor or its designee will administer the Brand Fund with sole discretion over all operational and advertising decisions including: (i) the creative concepts, materials, endorsements and media used in connection with such programs (which may include television, radio, print and Internet advertising, maintenance of a website and use of Social Media Platforms as funds permit); (ii) the source of the advertising, marketing, promotional or public relations efforts (which may be in-house or through an outside agency located locally, regionally or nationally); (iii) the placement and allocation of such programs (which will be local, regional or national); and (iv) the composition of all geographic territories and market areas for the development and implementation of such programs.

(d) The Brand Fund may be used:

(i) to create and implement Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials, in any form that Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, determine;

(ii) to assist franchisees in developing Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials and using Social Media Platforms;

(iii) in connection with radio, television, print, Internet advertising, sports and cable programs, or other forms of production and media as well as Social Media Platforms;

(iv) to review any and all locally produced Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials;

(v) for purposes of website design and maintenance and for search engine optimization;

(vi) to use Social Media Platforms and develop Social Media Materials;

(vii) to conduct market research;

(viii) to undertake sponsorships;

(ix) to pay related retainers;

(x) to conduct customer surveys, customer interviews and mystery shopper inspections of the System as well as competitors;

(xi) to retain celebrities for endorsement purposes;

(xii) to pay for membership dues to associations such as the International Franchise Association, National Association and state restaurant associations; and (xiii) to establish a third-party facility to customize Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials.

(e) The Brand Fund will not be used primarily by Franchisor to advertise and promote the sale of franchises. Franchisor intends the Brand Fund to maximize recognition of the Principal Trademarks and patronage of the System in any manner Franchisor determines will be effective, including to expenditures related to the development and maintenance of the Small Town Play Café website and direct mail programs. Franchisor may structure the organization and administration of the Brand Fund in any way it determines best benefits the System. Franchisor will attempt to spend monies in the Brand Fund in such a way as to provide benefits to all participating franchisees, but there is no guaranty that Franchisee will benefit pro rata or at all from its Brand Fund Contributions. Franchisor need not ensure that Brand Fund expenditures in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to Brand Fund Contributions by Small Town Play Café franchisees operating in that geographic area. The Brand Fund will not be used to advertise and promote any individual Franchised Business, except to benefit the System as determined in Franchisor's sole discretion.

(f) Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that the Brand Fund may be used to duplicate, print and purchase logo items, including but not limited to Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials to be resold to Small Town Play Café franchisees and any profits from such sales shall be paid to the Brand Fund.

(g) Franchisor will account for the Brand Fund separately from its other funds and not use the Brand Fund for any of its general operating expenses. However, the Brand Fund may be used to pay the reasonable salaries and benefits of personnel who manage and administer the Brand Fund, the Brand Fund's other administrative costs, travel expenses of personnel while they are on Brand Fund business, meeting costs, overhead relating to the Brand Fund business, costs related to maintaining the Franchisor website and other expenses incurred in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Brand Fund and its programs including without limitation, conducting market research, public relations, preparing Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials and collecting and accounting for Brand Fund Contributions. Any Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials developed by use of the Brand Fund will be made available to Franchisee at cost.

(h) If established, the Brand Fund will not be Franchisor's asset. Although the Brand Fund is not a trust, Franchisor will hold all Brand Fund Contributions for the benefit of the contributors and use the Brand Fund Contributions only for the purposes described in this Section 6.6. Franchisor does not owe any fiduciary obligation to Franchisee for administering the Brand Fund or for any other reason. The Brand Fund may spend in any fiscal year more or less than the total Brand Fund Contributions in that year, borrow from Franchisor or others (paying reasonable interest) to cover deficits, or invest any surplus for future use. The Brand Fund will use all interest earned on Brand Fund Contributions to pay costs before using the Brand Fund's other assets. Franchisor reserves the right to establish an advisory council or subcommittee for advertising, which if established would only have advisory responsibilities and authority.

(i) Franchisor has the right, but not the obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings to collect Brand Fund Contributions at the Brand Fund's expense. Franchisor also may forgive, waive, settle or compromise all claims by or against the Brand Fund. Except as expressly provided in this subsection, Franchisor assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to Franchisee for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing or administering the Brand Fund.

(j) Franchisor may at any time defer or reduce Franchisee's Brand Fund Contribution rate. Franchisor may terminate (and if terminated, reinstate) the Brand Fund. If Franchisor terminates the Brand Fund, Franchisor will distribute all unspent monies to its Franchisees and affiliates in proportion to their respective Brand Fund Contributions during the preceding twelve (12) month period.

7.2 Compliance with the Confidential Operating Manual

(a) Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that the Confidential Operating Manual shall be deemed to have been incorporated by reference into this Agreement. To protect the reputation and goodwill of Franchisor and to maintain high standards of operation for the System, Franchisee expressly agrees to conduct the Franchised Business in accordance with the Confidential Operating Manual, other written directives that Franchisor may issue from time to time and any other manuals and materials created or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business.

Franchisee expressly agrees to comply with each new or modified standard. Franchisee shall at all times ensure that the Confidential Operating Manual is kept current and up-to-date. In the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Confidential Operating Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Confidential Operating Manual maintained by Franchisor at Franchisor's corporate office will control.

(c) If Franchisee's copy of the Confidential Operating Manual is lost, destroyed or significantly damaged, Franchisee shall obtain a replacement copy of the Confidential Operating Manual from Franchisor and shall pay Franchisor its then-current fee for the replacement copy.

(d) Franchisee shall at all times treat the Confidential Operating Manual, any written directives of Franchisor and any other manuals and materials and the information contained therein, as confidential and shall maintain such information as a trade secret and confidential in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition Agreement. The Franchised Business shall at all times be under the direct, on-premises supervision of Franchisee, its Operating Principal or a manager previously approved by Franchisor in writing and not thereafter disapproved and who has completed all training required herein to Franchisor's satisfaction. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee, its Operating Principal and any manager are prohibited from actively participating in any other business during the required hours of operation of the Franchised Business without the prior approval of the Franchisor, which may be given or denied in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee agrees that it will at all times faithfully, honestly and diligently perform its obligations hereunder and that it will not engage in any business or other activities that will conflict with its obligations hereunder. Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, trained staff who are of the highest caliber in a manner which shall be detailed in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise in writing by Franchisor.

7.4 Refurbishing and Remodeling Requirements

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may require Franchisee remodel the Franchised Business location, as a condition for entering into a successor franchise agreement, to the then-current design of a Small Town Play Café business as described in the Confidential Operating Manual. Nothing herein shall prohibit Franchisee from electing to refurbish or remodel the Franchised Business more frequently than as stated above, if Franchisee elects to do so. Franchisee shall remodel the Franchised Business location within ninety (90) days from notice to comply with modified System Standards. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that additional investment will be required to remodel the Franchised Business location. Franchisee further agrees and acknowledges that maintenance and repairs of the Franchised Business location will be necessary from time to time to meet the then current System Standards and that compliance with such System Standards shall not be considered to be a remodel of the Franchised Business location, regardless of the cost of such compliance. To that end, Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may require Franchisee to refurbish the Franchised Business location at a cost of at least $2,500 per year, but not to exceed the sum of $7,500 per year, to maintain and/or make repairs to the Franchised Business location to ensure that the same complies with the then-current System Standards.

7.5 System Standards

(a) Franchisee agrees to maintain the condition and appearance of the Franchised Business location consistent with the System Standards. Franchisee agrees to effectuate such reasonable maintenance of the Franchised Business location as Franchisor from time to time requires, to maintain equipment or improve the appearance and efficient operation of the Franchised Business location. If at any time in Franchisor's judgment the general state of repair or appearance of the Franchised Business location, uniforms of service personnel or décor does not meet Franchisor's standards, Franchisor shall so notify Franchisee, specifying the action to be taken by Franchisee to correct such deficiency. If Franchisee fails or refuses to initiate and complete within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice a bona fide program to complete any required maintenance, Franchisor shall have the right, in addition to all other remedies, to enter upon the premises of the Franchised Business location and effectuate such maintenance on behalf of Franchisee and Franchisee shall pay all costs thereof on demand.

(b) Franchisor periodically may modify its System Standards, which may accommodate regional or local variations, and these modifications may obligate Franchisee to invest additional capital in the Franchised Business location and/or incur higher operating costs. Franchisee agrees to implement any changes in mandatory System Standards within the time period Franchisor requests as if the same were a part of this Agreement.

(c) Under no circumstances may Franchisee operate any business from the Franchised Business location other than the Franchised Business. Under no circumstances may Franchisee place any signage other than System signage at, in or on the Franchised Business location.

7.6 Franchisor's Right to Inspect and Audit the Franchised Business

7.7 Local Marketing and Advertising

(a) Franchisee shall be required to spend the greater of one-half percent (0.5%) of Gross Revenues or $500 per month (the "Local Advertising Requirement") toward local advertising, marketing and promotional programs ("Local Advertising"). Any discrepancy between the amount of the Local Advertising Requirement for the previous month and the amount actually spent during such month shall added to the amount to be the spent during the following month. Local Advertising expenditures, if based upon an annual plan submitted to Franchisor for approval, will not necessarily have a mandated expenditure per each month of the year. Upon request, Franchisee must submit an itemized report documenting proof of expenditures to Franchisor, in a form Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, require. Upon discovery of Franchisee's non-compliance with its Local Advertising requirements, Franchisor reserves the right to require Franchisee to contribute to the Brand Fund any amount required but not spent by

Franchisee on Local Advertising. All marketing will be conducted as set forth in the Confidential Operating Manual and in an approved annual marketing plan. Costs and expenditures Franchisee incurs for any of the following are excluded from Franchisee's required Local Advertising:

- (i) salaries and expenses of Franchisee's employees, including salaries or expenses for attendance at advertising meetings or activities;

(c) If required, all Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and other items Franchisor designates must bear the Principal Trademarks in the form, color, location and manner Franchisor prescribes and must meet all of Franchisor's standards and requirements. Franchisee's Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials must be conducted in a dignified manner and conform to Franchisor's standards as stated in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise.

(d) Franchisee must obtain Franchisor's written approval (i) before Franchisee uses any Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials if Franchisor has not prepared or approved such materials within the previous twelve (12) months; and (ii) before Franchisee initially uses any Social Media Platform. Franchisee must submit all unapproved Advertising materials, Social Media Materials and requests to use Social Media Platforms to Franchisor via certified mail or electronic mail. Franchisor will approve or disapprove such request within ten (10) days after submission. If Franchisee does not receive written approval within ten (10) days after submission, the request shall be deemed denied. Franchisor may withhold its approval of any Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials or Social Media Platform for any reason and no reason at all. Franchisee may not use any unapproved Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials or Social Media Platform. Franchisor has the right to revoke its prior approval of any Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and Social Media Platform. Franchisee must promptly discontinue use of any Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials or Social Media Platform whether or not previously approved, on notice from Franchisor. (e) Franchisee may request permission to use a Social Media Platform on an ongoing basis on a specified theme or topic related to the Franchised Business. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, grant such consent, which remains subject to Franchisor's unconditional right to withdraw consent and require removal and deletion of any objectionable Social Media Material. In the event Franchisor grants such consent, individual entries of Social Media Material on that topic alone would not require pre-approval to be made until such time as that consent is withdrawn.

(f) All Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and Social Media Platforms must indicate that Franchisee is operating the Franchised Business as an independent franchisee of Franchisor.

(g) Franchisee shall not employ any person to act as a representative of Franchisee in connection with local promotion of the Franchised Business in any public media without the prior written approval of Franchisor.

(h) In addition to the Local Advertising requirements, Franchisee is required to spend between $1,000 and $5,000 for its Grand Opening Marketing. The Grand Opening Marketing requires Franchisee to present its Franchised Business to the community through the execution of a plan of scheduled advertising, marketing and public relations. The Grand Opening Marketing expenditures will commence ninety (90) days prior to opening and continue through sixty (60) days after the opening of the Franchised Business. Franchisor may assist Franchisee in developing a plan for Market Introduction.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, Franchisor reserves the right to require Franchisee to make specific Local Advertising expenditures in the event that Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determines that Franchisee's Local Advertising efforts are inadequate.

reasonably request for purposes of evaluating or promoting the System in general.

(b) Franchisee shall insure that Franchisor shall have access to Franchisee's daily and to-the-minute financial reports, statements and accounts through Franchisee's point of sale ("POS") system. Franchisee shall be required to process all of its sales through the POS system. If Franchisee's POS system has inventory data management and control functions, Franchisee shall also be required to enter and/or record all inventory purchases through its POS system.

(c) Franchisor shall have the right to disclose the data contained within and any data derived from Franchisee's reports, in Franchisor's sole discretion. All such information derived from or pertaining to the Franchised Business shall be the property of Franchisor and Franchisor shall have the right to use such information in any manner that it deems appropriate without compensation to Franchisee.

7.11 Computer Software, Hardware and Point of Sale System

(a) Franchisee must obtain and maintain a computer that will host the POS system required by Franchisor. Franchisor may in its sole discretion, require Franchisee to lease only a Franchisor approved POS system and only from a Supplier. Franchisee must obtain and maintain computer equipment and software, including administrative software and accounting software that meets Franchisor's specifications and is compatible with and acceptable by Franchisor's central accounting system. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, specify the make, model and/or type of the computer equipment, software and POS system, including back office and point of sale systems, data, voice, audio and video storage, retrieval and transmission systems, cash register

If Franchisor elects to gain access to Franchisee's records via the Internet, Franchisee must allow Franchisor to establish and maintain communication with Franchisee's Computer System via a dedicated data transmission line such as a high-speed internet connection to retrieve information, including but not limited to sales data and financial data. All such information derived from or pertaining to the Franchised Business shall be the property of Franchisor and Franchisor shall have the right to use such information in any manner that it deems appropriate without compensation to Franchisee. 10.2 By Franchisee

(a) Franchisee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties this Agreement creates are personal to Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is an entity, to Franchisee's Owners) and that Franchisor has granted to Franchisee the franchise in reliance upon its perceptions of Franchisee's (or its Owners') individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability and financial capacity. Accordingly, neither this Agreement (nor any interest in this Agreement), the Franchised Business or substantially all of its assets, nor any ownership interest in Franchisee (regardless of its size), nor any ownership interest in any of Franchisee's Owners (if any Owner is a legal entity) may be transferred without Franchisor's prior written approval, which may be withheld for any reason in its sole discretion, subject to the provisions herein. A transfer of the ownership, possession, control, or substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business may be made only with an appropriate assignment of this Agreement. Any transfer without Franchisor's consent is a breach of this Agreement and shall be considered void and of no effect.

(b) Neither Franchisee nor any Owner shall be permitted or have the power without the prior written consent of Franchisor, to convey, give away, sell, assign, pledge, lease, sublease, devise or otherwise transfer, either directly or by operation of law or in any other manner, including by reason of death, any interest or shares of stock of any kind or nature in Franchisee. In order to assure compliance by Franchisee with the transfer restrictions contained in this Section 10.2, all shares or stock certificates of Franchisee or Franchisee's operating agreement, if Franchisee is a limited liability company, shall at all times contain a legend sufficient under applicable law to constitute notice of the restrictions contained in this Agreement and to allow such restrictions to be enforceable. Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with a copy of its shares or stock certificates, if a corporation, or its operating agreement, if a limited liability company, so that Franchisor may ensure that such share, stock certificate or operating agreement contains the required legend. Such legend shall appear in substantially the following form:

"The sale, transfer, pledge or hypothecation of this stock is restricted pursuant to the terms of Article X of a Franchise Agreement dated _____ between Small Town Play Café Franchising LLC and _____."

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, Franchisee may grant a security interest (including a purchase money security interest) in the assets of the Franchised Business (not including this Agreement) to a lender that finances its acquisition, development and/or operation of the Franchised Business without having to obtain Franchisor's prior written approval as long as Franchisee gives Franchisor thirty (30) days prior written notice and provided that the security interest is subordinate to Franchisor's rights hereunder or under any other agreement by and between Franchisee and Franchisor.

(d) The term "transfer" means to sell, assign, gift, pledge, mortgage or encumber either voluntarily or by operation of law any interest in: (i) this Agreement or the rights created thereunder; (ii) all or substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business; and/or (iii) any direct or indirect interest in the ownership of Franchisee.

10.3 Conditions for Approval of Transfer by Franchisee

(a) If Franchisee (and its Owners) has fully complied with this Agreement and any and all other agreements with Franchisor and its affiliates, then subject to the other provisions of this Article X, Franchisor may in its discretion approve a transfer that meets the requirements of this Section 10.3. To effectuate any proposed transfer, Franchisee must comply with all of the following conditions either before or concurrently with the effective date of the transfer:

(i) Franchisee shall first notify Franchisor in writing of the proposed transfer and set forth a complete description of the terms of the proposed transfer including the prospective transferee's name, address, telephone number, financial qualifications and previous five (5) years' business experience. Franchisor or its assignees may within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, exercise a right of first refusal to purchase the interest being offered by Franchisee pursuant to the provisions of Article XI herein;

(ii) transferee (and its owners if transferee is an entity) has sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to operate the Franchised Business, must meet all of Franchisor's then-current standards and requirements for becoming a Small Town Play Café franchisee (which standards and requirements need not be in writing), and otherwise possesses the character and capabilities, including business reputation and credit rating, as Franchisor may require to demonstrate ability to conduct the Franchised Business;

(iii) Franchisee has: (i) paid all Royalty, Brand Fund Contributions and other amounts owed to Franchisor, its affiliates and any Suppliers; (ii) submitted all required reports and statements; (iii) cured all other breaches of this Agreement and any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor and/or its affiliates and any Suppliers; and (iv) satisfied all its obligations under this Agreement and any other agreement with Franchisor, its affiliates or any Suppliers;

(iv) neither the transferee nor its owners (if the transferee is an entity) or affiliates have an ownership interest (direct or indirect) in or perform services for a Competitive Business;

(v) transferee (or its operating principal) and any other personnel required by Franchisor completes Franchisor's training program to Franchisor's satisfaction at transferee's own expense, including payment to Franchisor of the then-current training fee, which as of the date of this Franchise Agreement is $500 per person per day;

(vi) Franchisee's landlord(s) permits Franchisee to assign or sublease the Franchised Business location(s) to the transferee;

(vii) transferee shall (if the transfer is of this Agreement) or Franchisee shall (if the transfer is of a controlling ownership interest in Franchisee or one of its Owners), execute Franchisor's then-current form of franchise agreement and related documents, the provisions of which may differ materially from those contained in this Agreement for a term equal to the remaining term of this Agreement or in Franchisor's sole discretion, the then-current term offered to new franchisees. If the latter, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor the then-current franchise fee and agree to comply in all respects with all of Franchisor's requirements;

(viii) transferee shall upgrade the Franchised Business to meet Franchisor's then-current standards for a Small Town Play Café business;

(ix) transferee (and its owners if transferee is an entity) agree and acknowledge that Franchisor is not responsible for any representations not included in the disclosure document or this Franchise Agreement;

(x) Franchisee or the transferee pays Franchisor the transfer fee. The transfer fee is as follows:

(1) No fee for a transfer to the surviving spouse, parent or child of Franchisee or an Owner upon the death or disability of Franchisee or an Owner;

(2) No fee for a transfer to an entity in which Franchisee: (i) maintains management control; and (ii) owns and controls one hundred percent (100%) of the equity and voting power of all issued and outstanding ownership interests, provided that (a) such entity conducts no other business other than the Franchised Business; (b) all of the assets of the Franchised Business are owned by that single entity; and (c) the Franchised Business is conducted only by that single entity. Further, the transferee entity must expressly assume all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement and Franchisee must agree to remain personally liable under this Agreement as if the transfer to this entity did not occur; or

(3) 50% of the then-current initial franchise fee, for all other types of transfers;

(xi) Franchisee (and its Owners) signs a General Release in the form attached as Exhibit 3, of any and all claims against the Released Parties;

(xii) Franchisor, in its sole discretion, has determined that the terms of the transfer, including but not limited to price, method and the extent of financing will not adversely affect the transferee's operation of the Franchised Business;

(xiii) if Franchisee or its Owners finance any part of the purchase price, Franchisee and/or its Owners agree that all of the transferee's obligations under promissory notes, agreements or security interests reserved in the Franchised Business are subordinate to the transferee's obligation to pay the Royalty, Brand Fund Contributions and other amounts due to Franchisor, its affiliates, Suppliers and otherwise comply with this Agreement;

(xiv) Franchisee and its Owners will not for two (2) years beginning on the effective date of the transfer, engage in any of the activities prohibited in Article IX of this Agreement;

(xv) Franchisee and its Owners will not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner (except with respect to other Small Town Play Café franchises they own and operate) identify themselves or any business as a current or former Small Town Play Café franchise or as one of Franchisor's franchisees; use of any of the Principal Trademarks, any colorable imitation of a Principal Trademark or other indicia of the Small Town Play Café System in any manner or for any purpose; or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trademark or service mark, or other commercial symbol that suggests or indicates a connection or association with Franchisor;

(xvi) Franchisee shall comply with all other applicable transfer requirements as designated in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise in writing;

(xvii) Franchisor in its sole discretion determines that the terms of the transfer are substantially the same as those offered to Franchisor pursuant to Franchisor's right of first refusal in accordance with Article XI herein;

(xviii) Franchisor may require any transferee of any interest or shares of stock of any kind or nature in Franchisee to guarantee the obligations of Franchisee under this Agreement or under any new franchise agreement entered into pursuant to Section 10.3 (vii) above;

(xix) transferee (and its owners if transferee is an entity) passes a credit and criminal background check; and

(xx) transferee (and its owners if transferee is an entity) execute a personal guaranty in the form attached as Exhibit 9 guaranteeing the obligations of Franchisee.

(b) Franchisor may review all information regarding the Franchised Business that Franchisee gives the transferee, correct any information that it believes is inaccurate and give the transferee copies of any reports that Franchisee has given Franchisor or Franchisor has made regarding the Franchised Business.

10.4 Death or Disability of Franchisee

(a) Transfer Upon Death or Disability.

Upon the death or disability of Franchisee or its Operating Principal, the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative of Franchisee or its Operating Principal must transfer Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or the Operating Principal's ownership interest in Franchisee to a third-party (which may be the heirs, beneficiaries or devisees of Franchisee or the Operating Principal). That transfer must be completed within a reasonable time not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or disability and is subject to all of the terms and conditions in this Article X. A failure to transfer Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or the Operating Principal's ownership interest in Franchisee within this time period is a breach of this Agreement. The term "disability" means a mental or physical disability, impairment or condition that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent Franchisee or the Operating Principal from supervising the management and operation of the Franchised Business.

(b) Operation Upon Death or Disability.

If upon the death or disability of Franchisee or the Operating Principal, a manager trained by Franchisor or Franchisee is not managing the Franchised Business, the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative of the Franchisee or the Operating Principal must within a reasonable time not to exceed fifteen (15) days from the date of death or disability, appoint a manager. The replacement manager must complete Franchisor's standard training program at Franchisee's sole expense. A new Operating Principal acceptable to Franchisor also must be appointed within thirty (30) days. If in Franchisor's judgment, the Franchised Business is not being managed properly any time after the death or disability of Franchisee or the Operating Principal, Franchisor, an affiliate or a third party designated by the Franchisor may but need not assume the management of the Franchised Business. All funds from the operation of the Franchised Business while under the management of the Franchisor, an affiliate or a third-party will be kept in a separate account and all expenses will be charged to this account. Franchisor may charge Franchisee (in addition to the Royalty, Brand Fund Contributions and other amounts due under this Agreement) a per diem fee, plus direct out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Franchisor, an affiliate or a third-party, if Franchisor, an affiliate or a third-party assumes the management of the Franchised Business under this subsection. Franchisor, an affiliate or a third-party, as applicable, has a duty to utilize only reasonable efforts and will not be liable to Franchisee or its Owners for any debts, losses or obligations incurred by the Franchised Business, or to any of Franchisee's creditors for any products, other assets, or services the Franchised Business purchases while under the management of Franchisor, an affiliate or a third-party.

10.5 Effect of Consent to Transfer

Franchisor's consent to a transfer of this Agreement, the Franchised Business or any interest in Franchisee or its Owners is not (i) a representation of the fairness of the terms of any contract between Franchisee and the transferee; (ii) a guarantee of the prospects of success of the Franchised Business or transferee; nor (iii) a waiver of any claims Franchisor has against Franchisee (or its Operating Principals) or of Franchisor's right to demand the transferee's full compliance with this Agreement. In the event of a transfer, Franchisee and/or its Owners shall continue to remain obligated to Franchisor in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

10.6 Proposed Assignment as a Result of Franchisee's Bankruptcy

(a) Franchisee again acknowledges that the rights and duties along with the Franchise granted in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee (or any of its Owners), and Franchisor has entered into this Agreement in reliance on the representations given by Franchisee to secure the Franchise, Franchisee's and its Owners, as applicable, personal and/or collective skills and Franchisee's financial ability. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that because of the personal nature of the rights and duties associated with the Franchise, this Agreement is not freely assignable by its nature and therefore it would not be appropriate to assign the rights and obligations to any assignee other than in accordance with this Section 10 (and each other applicable provision of this Section 10). In the event that Franchisee shall become a debtor under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 USC Section 101, et seq., (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and the trustee or Franchisee shall elect to assume this Agreement for the purpose of assigning the same or otherwise, such election and assignment may only be made if all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement are satisfied. No election by the trustee or Franchisee to assume this Agreement, whether under Chapter 7, 11 or 13 of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be effective unless each of the following conditions, and as applicable, any other conditions required in this Section 10, which Franchisor and Franchisee each acknowledge is commercially reasonable in the context of such proceeding, has been satisfied, and Franchisor has so acknowledged in writing:

(i) the trustee or Franchisee has cured, or has provided Franchisor adequate assurance (as provided below) that: (i) within ten (10) days from the date of such assumption, the trustee will cure all monetary defaults under this Agreement; and (ii) within thirty (30) days from the date of such assumption, the trustee will cure all non-monetary defaults under this Agreement;

(ii) the Franchised Business remains at all times under the primary management of an Owner or a manager trained by Franchisor or Franchisee or who otherwise meets Franchisor's qualifications and has completed, to Franchisor's satisfaction, a training program in substance similar to the initial training program described in Section 6.2;

(iii) the trustee or Franchisee has and will continue to have sufficient unencumbered assets after the payment of all secured obligations and administrative expenses to assure Franchisor that the trustee or Franchisee will have sufficient funds to fulfill the obligations of Franchisee under this Agreement, and to keep the Franchised Business open and operating fully stocked and properly staffed with sufficient employees to conduct a fully-operational Franchised Business, and that the assumption or assignment will not disrupt business operations at the Franchised Business; and

(iv) that assumption or assignment of this Agreement will not breach any term or condition of, or constitute a default under, any term or condition of any contract, agreement, arrangement, or other commitment to which the trustee or Franchisee is a party or by which the trustee or Franchisee is bound (including any agreement not to compete), or constitute an event which, with notice, lapse of time or both, would result in such a breach or event of default nor to the trustee's or Franchisee's knowledge, result in the violation by the trustee or Franchisee of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, code, judgment, order, injunction or decree.

(b) If a trustee or Franchisee, pursuant to this Agreement, proposes to assign this Agreement or any right in the Franchise pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Agreement on terms acceptable to the trustee or Franchisee, then, notice of the proposed assignment setting forth (i) the name and address of such person; and (ii) all of the terms and conditions of such offer shall be given to the Franchisor by the Franchisee no later than twenty (20) days after receipt of such offer by the trustee or Franchisee, but in any event no later than ten (10) days prior to the date that the trustee Franchisee shall make application to a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assignment and assumption.

(c) If the trustee or Franchisee, pursuant to this Agreement, proposes to assign this Agreement or any right in the Franchise pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, to any person or entity who shall have made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Agreement on terms acceptable to the trustee or Franchisee, Franchisor shall thereupon have the prior right and option, to be exercised by notice to the trustee or Franchisee given at any time prior to the effective date of such proposed assignment, to accept an assignment of this Agreement upon the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration, if any, as the bona fide offer made by such person.

(d) Any person or entity to which the trustee's or Franchisee's interest in this Agreement is assigned pursuant to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed without further act or deed to have assumed all of the obligations arising under this Agreement on or after the date of such assignment. As part of providing adequate assurance to Franchisor, any such assignee shall, upon demand, execute and deliver to Franchisor an instrument confirming such assumption.

(e) The following factors may be considered by Franchisor as necessary in order to determine whether or not the proposed assignee has furnished Franchisor with adequate assurances of its ability to perform the obligations of this Agreement, in accordance with Section 10.6(a)(i) above:

(i) the assignee (and its owners if assignee is an entity) has satisfied Franchisor that it meets Franchisor's management, business experience and aptitude, and financial standards for franchisees, has met all of Franchisor's then-current standards and requirements for becoming a Small Town Play Café franchisee (which standards and requirements need not be in writing) and otherwise possesses the character and capabilities, including business reputation and credit rating, as Franchisor may require to demonstrate ability to conduct the Franchised Business;

(ii) that assumption or assignment of this Agreement is subject to all the provisions hereof, including provisions such as location, use, and the restrictive covenants set forth in Articles 8 and 9, and will not breach any term or condition of, or constitute a default under, any term or condition of any contract, agreement, arrangement, or other commitment to which the assignee or any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in assignee is a party or by which assignee or such holder of a legal or beneficial interest in assignee is bound (including any agreement not to compete), or constitute an event which, with notice, lapse of time or both, would result in such a breach or event of default nor to assignee's knowledge, result in the violation by assignee or any such holder of a legal or beneficial interest in assignee of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, code, judgment, order, injunction or decree; and

(iii) demonstration that the assumption or assignment will not disrupt business operations of the Franchised Business.

(f) In the event Franchisor rejects the proposed assignee, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall continue to be governed by the terms of this Agreement, and Franchisee shall have all the rights of a franchisee under applicable law.

XI. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL TO ACQUIRE FRANCHISEE'S BUSINESS

11.1 Franchisor's Right of First Refusal

(a) Franchisor shall have the right, exercisable within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice set forth in Section 10.3(a)(i) and the details of the proposed transfer and bona fide offer, to send written notice to Franchisee that Franchisor intends to purchase the interest in this Agreement, the Franchised Business or an ownership interest in Franchisee proposed to be transferred. Franchisor may assign this right of first refusal to a third-party either before or after Franchisor exercises such right. However, this right of first refusal shall not apply to transfers among Franchisee's current Owners or to a legal entity wholly owned by Franchisee.

(b) Notice of the bona fide offer must include a description of the interest in the Franchisee or this Agreement and the Franchised Business to be sold, the proposed payment terms, including amount of the contract deposit, the sources and terms of any financing for the proposed purchase price and a description of any conditions to closing which have been requested by the prospective transferee. To be a valid bona fide offer, the proposed purchase price must be stated in U.S. dollars and the prospective transferee must submit with its offer an earnest money deposit equal to five percent (5%) or more of the offering price. The right of first refusal process will not be triggered by a proposed transfer that would not be permitted under Article X. Franchisor may require Franchisee (or its Owners) to send Franchisor copies of any materials or information sent to the proposed prospective transferee regarding the possible transaction.

(c) Franchisor may by written notice delivered to Franchisee or its selling Owner(s) within thirty (30) days after it receives an exact copy of the bona fide offer and all other information Franchisor requests, elect to purchase the interest offered under the same terms or conditions contained in the bona fide offer provided that:

(i) Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, substitute cash, notes payable monthly in no less than five (5) years, or some combination of each for any form of payment proposed in the bona fide offer (such as ownership interests in a privately-held entity) and Franchisor's credit shall be deemed equal to the credit of any prospective transferee (meaning that if the proposed consideration includes a promissory note, Franchisor may provide a promissory note with the same terms as those offered by the prospective transferee);

(ii) Franchisor will have an additional thirty (30) days to prepare for closing after notifying Franchisee of its election to purchase; and

(iii) Franchisor must receive, and Franchisee and its Owners agree to make, all customary representations and warranties given by the seller of the assets of a business or the ownership interests in a legal entity, as applicable, including without limitation representations and warranties regarding:

(1) ownership and condition of and title to ownership interests and/or assets; liens and encumbrances relating to ownership interests and/or assets; and

(2) validity of contracts and the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of the entity whose assets or ownership interests are being purchased.

(d) If Franchisor exercises its right of first refusal, Franchisee and its selling Owners agree that for two (2) years beginning on the closing date, they will be bound by the covenants contained in subsection 9.1(d) of this Agreement.

(e) If Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisor shall, within thirty (30) days after the right of first refusal has expired, notify Franchisee (and/or any of its Owners) in writing of its approval or disapproval of the prospective transferee. Franchisee or its Owners may complete the sale to the prospective transferee on the terms and conditions stated within the bona fide offer provided to Franchisor pursuant to Paragraph 11.1(a), but only if Franchisor otherwise approves the transfer in accordance with Section 10.3 and Franchisee (and its Owners) and the transferee comply with the conditions of that Section. This means that even if Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal (whether or not it is properly triggered as provided above), if the proposed transfer otherwise would not be allowed under Section 10.3, then Franchisee (or its Owners) may not complete the transfer.

(f) If Franchisee (or its Owners) does not complete the transfer to the prospective transferee within sixty (60) days after Franchisor notifies Franchisee (and/or any of its Owners) that Franchisor does not intend to exercise its right of first refusal, or if there is a material change in the terms of the transfer (which Franchisee and/or its Owners agree to promptly advise Franchisor), then Franchisor or its designee will have an additional right of first refusal during the thirty (30) day period following either the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or Franchisor's receipt of notice of the material change(s) in the sale's terms. This additional right of first refusal shall be to purchase on the terms originally offered or the modified terms, at the option of Franchisor or its designee.

11.2 Public Offerings

Despite any other provisions in this Agreement, Franchisee (and its Owners) may not attempt to raise or secure funds by selling or offering to sell any ownership interest in Franchisee (including without limitation common or preferred stock, bonds, debentures, membership interests or general or limited partnership interests) in a public offering for which a registration statement must be filed with the Securities Exchange Commission or with any similar state regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the sale of securities where registration is required as a condition of the sale of securities in that state.

XII. PRINCIPAL TRADEMARKS AND COPYRIGHTED INFORMATION

12.1 Ownership of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor and/or its affiliates are the owners of the Principal Trademarks and that Franchisor and/or its affiliates claim copyright protection in certain material used in the System and in the development and operation of Small Town Play Café business, including the Confidential Operating Manual, Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and similar materials whether created by Franchisor, any franchisee of Franchisor and/or any third-party (“Copyrighted Information”). Franchisor is authorized to license to Franchisee the limited right to use the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information. Franchisee's right to use the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to the conduct of business by Franchisee pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement and all System Standards prescribed by Franchisor from time to time during the term of this Agreement. Franchisee agrees not to represent in any manner that Franchisee has acquired any ownership rights in the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information. Any unauthorized use of the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information by Franchisee is a breach of this Agreement and an infringement of the rights of Franchisor in and to the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that all usage of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information by Franchisee and any goodwill established by Franchisee's use of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information shall inure to the exclusive benefit of Franchisor and its affiliates; that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information upon Franchisee; and that upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, no monetary amount shall be assigned to Franchisee as attributable to any goodwill associated with Franchisee's use of the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information. Further, in the event Franchisee develops or causes to be developed for its behalf, marketing materials or campaigns, then Franchisee hereby grants an unlimited, royalty-free license to Franchisor to use and to sublicense to other franchisees the right to use such marketing materials or campaigns, and upon written request by Franchisor, Franchisee shall take all actions, including but not limited to executing any and all agreements or documents, to assign to Franchisor or one of its affiliates, all intellectual property rights in and to such marketing materials and campaigns developed by or on behalf of Franchisee, including but not limited to moral rights. Franchisee shall not, at any time during the term of this Agreement or after its termination or expiration, contest the validity or ownership, or assist another person in contesting the validity or ownership, of any of the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information apply to any additional trademarks, service marks, commercial symbols and proprietary information authorized for use by and licensed to Franchisee by Franchisor after the Effective Date.

12.2 Use of Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information

Franchisee shall not use any Principal Trademark or Copyrighted Information: (a) as part of any corporate or trade name; (b) with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs, symbols or in any modified form; (c) in connection with the sale of any unauthorized product or service; (d) as part of any domain name, homepage, electronic address or otherwise in connection with a website (unless in connection with Franchisor's approved System website); or (e) in any other manner not expressly authorized in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise in writing by Franchisor. Franchisee agrees to give such notices of trademark and service mark registrations as Franchisor specifies and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations required under applicable law. Franchisee agrees that this Agreement does not convey any right or property interest in the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information licensed hereunder. Franchisee agrees to display the Principal Trademarks prominently as Franchisor prescribes at the Franchised Business location and on all Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and other materials Franchisor designates.

12.3 Unauthorized Use of Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information

(a) Franchisee shall immediately notify Franchisor in writing of any apparent infringement or challenge to Franchisee's use of the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information and of any claim by any person of any right in the Principal Trademarks or any similar trade name, trademark or service mark or Copyrighted Information of which Franchisee becomes aware. Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly communicate with any person other than Franchisor, its affiliates and their counsel, in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. Franchisor and its affiliates shall have the right to take such action as they deem appropriate (including no action) and the right to control exclusively any litigation, United States Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other administrative proceeding arising out of such infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information. Franchisee agrees to execute any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance and do such acts and things as may, in the opinion of Franchisor, its affiliates and their counsel, be necessary or advisable to protect and maintain the interests of Franchisor and its affiliates in any such litigation, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office proceeding or other administrative proceeding or otherwise to protect and maintain the interests of Franchisor and its affiliates in the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information, but shall take no action nor incur any expenses on behalf of Franchisor and its affiliates without Franchisor's prior written consent.

(b) In the event that any third-party makes a claim against Franchisee alleging that Franchisee's use of the Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information infringes upon the rights of such third-party, Franchisor and/or its affiliates agree to defend such claim and indemnify and hold Franchisee harmless therefrom, provided Franchisee has used the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information only as expressly authorized in this Agreement, the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise in writing by Franchisor and provided further that Franchisee cooperates with Franchisor and its affiliates in the defense of such claim as set forth in this Section and in any other manner reasonably requested by Franchisor. The obligation of Franchisor and/or its affiliates to defend and indemnify with respect to such claim shall not extend to other claims made by the same third-party against Franchisor, its affiliates and/or Franchisee arising from matters for which Franchisee is responsible under applicable law or this Agreement; as to such other claims, if any, Franchisee agrees to defend the same and indemnify and hold Franchisor and its affiliates harmless therefrom.

(c) In addition to the other restrictions set forth herein regarding the use of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information:

- (i) Franchisee shall use only approved signage as designated by Franchisor;
- (ii) Franchisee's use of the Principal Trademarks, Copyrighted Information and other proprietary material is limited to use in conjunction with the Franchised Business;
- (iii) Franchisee shall use the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information as designated by Franchisor;
- (iv) Franchisee shall display notice of independent ownership of the Franchised Business in signage and on all forms and marketing material as designated by Franchisor;
- (v) Franchisee shall acknowledge that any of its customers are customers of the Small Town Play Café System and upon request transmit to Franchisor any records maintained by Franchisee on such customers. Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that Franchisee shall only have transactional use of customer information, which is solely to be used for the purpose of managing and operating the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall abide by the privacy right as established by Franchisor from time to time; and
- (vi) Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee's rights to use the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information granted herein shall cease to exist upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

12.4 Franchisor's Right to Modify

(a) If it becomes advisable at any time in Franchisor's sole discretion for Franchisor and/or Franchisee to modify or discontinue use of the Principal Trademarks, and/or use one or more additional or substitute trade names, trademarks, service marks, other commercial symbols or Copyrighted Information, Franchisee agrees to comply with Franchisor's directions within a reasonable time after notice to Franchisee by Franchisor. Franchisor need not reimburse Franchisee for its direct expenses of changing the signs or other materials of the Franchised Business, for any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Principal Trademarks or Copyrighted Information or for Franchisee's expenses incurred in promoting a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

(b) Franchisor's rights in this subsection apply to any and all of the Principal Trademarks (and any portion of any Principal Trademark) and Copyrighted Information that Franchisor authorizes Franchisee to use in this Agreement. Franchisor may exercise these rights at any time and for any reason, business or otherwise, in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee acknowledges both Franchisor's right to take this action and Franchisee's obligation to comply with Franchisor's directions.

12.5 Reservation of Rights

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the license granted to Franchisee to use the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information is non-exclusive and Franchisor and its affiliates reserve any right not specifically granted to Franchisee under this Agreement, including but not limited to the right to: (a) grant other licenses for use of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information; (b) develop and establish other systems using the Principal Trademarks and/or Copyrighted Information or other names or marks and to grant licenses thereto without providing any rights to Franchisee; and (c) engage directly or indirectly through its employees, representatives, licensees, assigns, agents and others at wholesale, retail or otherwise, in (i) the production, distribution, license and sale of products and services and (ii) the use of the Principal Trademarks and Copyrighted Information (and any and all trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, insignia, slogans, emblems, symbols, designs and other identifying characteristics as may be developed or used from time to time by Franchisor) in connection with the production, distribution, licensing and sale of such products and services.

XIII. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

13.1 Independent Contractors

Franchisee and Franchisor understand and agree that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between the parties, that Franchisee and Franchisor are and will be independent contractors and that nothing in this Agreement is intended to make either party a special agent, joint venture partner, partner or employee of the other for any purpose. No employee of Franchisee will be considered an employee of Franchisor. Franchisor will not have the power to hire or fire Franchisee's personnel. Franchisee agrees to identify itself conspicuously in all dealings with customers, suppliers, public officials, Franchised Business personnel and others as the owner of the Franchised Business under a franchise granted by Franchisor and to place notices of independent ownership on all forms, Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials and other materials Franchisor requires from time to time.

13.2 No Liability for Acts of Other Party

Franchisee and Franchisor may not make any express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations or incur any debt in the name or on behalf of the other or represent that their relationship is other than franchisor and franchise owner. Franchisor will not be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of the Franchised Business.

13.3 Taxes

Franchisor will have no liability for any sales, use, service, occupation, excise, gross receipts, income, property or other taxes, whether levied upon Franchisee or the Franchised Business, due to the business Franchisee conducts (except for Franchisor's income taxes). Franchisee is responsible for paying these taxes and must reimburse Franchisor for any taxes that Franchisor must pay to any state taxing authority on account of Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business or payments that Franchisee makes to Franchisor.

XIV. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

14.1 Termination by Franchisee

Franchisee may terminate this Agreement only upon written notice to and the written consent of Franchisor, which may be granted or withheld by Franchisor in its sole discretion, for any reason or no reason. In that event, Franchisee shall remain obligated to comply with all post-termination covenants and outstanding obligations, which may include but are not limited to the payment of liquidated damages to Franchisor as provided for herein.

14.2 Termination by Franchisor with Cause

Franchisor may terminate this Agreement if Franchisee defaults under the Agreement as provided herein or is in default under any other agreement with Franchisor, its affiliates or Suppliers. Franchisor's election to terminate this Agreement with Franchisee in no way constitutes a waiver of Franchisor's rights hereunder or any other rights available at law or in equity, including its rights to damages. Termination of this Agreement encompasses termination of any and all rights granted to Franchisee by Franchisor.

14.3 Automatic Termination without Notice

Franchisee will be in default under this Agreement and all rights granted by this Agreement to Franchisee will automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee immediately upon the happening of any of the following: (i) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or admits in writing its insolvency or inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; (ii) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or an involuntary petition in bankruptcy is filed against Franchisee and such petition is not withdrawn within thirty (30) days; (iii) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) consents to the appointment of a receiver, trustee or liquidator of all or the substantial part of its property; (iv) the Franchised Business location is attached, seized, subjected to a writ or distress warrant, or levied upon, unless the attachment, seizure, writ, warrant or levy is vacated within thirty (30) days; (v) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) fails to pay any financial obligation owed to any lending institution that provided financing to Franchisee under an arrangement with Franchisor within thirty (30) days of when due; or (vi) any order appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator of Franchisee (or any of its Owners) or the Franchised Business is not vacated within thirty (30) days following the order's entry.

14.4 Termination by Franchisor upon Notice

Franchisor may terminate this Agreement by written notice of termination to Franchisee without an opportunity to cure, effective immediately upon delivery of notice if any of the following occur:

(a) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) has made or makes any material misrepresentation or omission in acquiring the franchise or operating the Franchised Business;

(b) Franchisee underreports Gross Revenues by two percent (2%) or more in any report on three (3) or more occasions within a thirty-six (36) month period during the term of this Agreement, whether or not Franchisee subsequently rectifies such deficiency;

(c) Franchisee underreports Gross Revenues by more than five percent (5%) in any report during the term of this Agreement, whether or not Franchisee subsequently rectifies such deficiency;

(d) Franchisee engages in any business activity not approved by Franchisor, including the sale of goods or services not approved by Franchisor or fails to obtain the written approval of Franchisor as required;

(e) Franchisee fails to follow the recipes, use the required ingredients in preparation of approved products or obtain ingredients and goods from Suppliers as required for the preparation of approved products.

(f) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) is or has been convicted by a trial court of or pleads or has pleaded no contest to a felony, a crime of moral turpitude or any other crime or offense relating to the operation of the Franchised Business;

(g) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) engages in any dishonest or unethical conduct which in Franchisor's opinion adversely affects the reputation of the Franchised Business or the goodwill associated with the Principal Trademarks;

(h) Franchisee fails to pay when due any federal or state income, service, sales or other taxes due on the operation of the Franchised Business unless Franchisee is in good faith contesting its liability for these taxes;

(i) Franchisee (or any of its Owners): (i) fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any twelve (12) consecutive month period to comply with this Agreement, whether or not such failures are corrected after Franchisor's delivery of notice; or (ii) fails on two (2) or more separate occasions within any six (6) consecutive month period to comply with the same obligation under this Agreement, whether or not such failures are corrected after Franchisor's delivery of notice;

(j) Franchisee violates any health, safety or sanitation law, ordinance or regulation or operates the Franchised Business in an unsafe manner and does not begin to cure the violation immediately and correct the violation within seventy-two (72) hours after Franchisee receives notice from Franchisor or any other party;

(k) Franchisee and/or its Owners fail to comply with the restrictions on use of Confidential Information contained in Article VIII, the covenants contained within Article IX, and the Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition Agreement or otherwise fail to refrain from copying, duplicating, recording or reproducing the Confidential Operating Manual;

(l) Franchisee fails to comply with any of the requirements pertaining to Franchisor's proprietary information or Principal Trademarks;

(m) Franchisee (or any of its Owners) makes or attempts to make an unauthorized assignment of this Agreement, an ownership interest in Franchisee or the Franchised Business; or

(n) Franchisee relocates or attempts to relocate the Franchised Business without the prior written approval of Franchisor.

14.5 Termination by Franchisor after Notice and Opportunity to Cure

Franchisee will have ten (10) days or any greater number of days permitted by Franchisor or required by law, to cure any default for which Franchisor has given written notice of termination under this Section 14.5 and to provide Franchisor with satisfactory evidence of the cure. If the default is not cured within the prescribed period, this Agreement will terminate without the need for further notice effective immediately on the expiration date of the cure period. Franchisor shall have the sole and exclusive right to determine what actions must be taken by Franchisee to cure a default; if such right is exercised, Franchisor shall advise Franchisee in writing of such actions. These curable defaults are each of the following:

(a) Franchisee fails to maintain the insurance Franchisor requires;

(b) Franchisee fails to maintain any and all licenses required by law;

(c) Franchisee fails to pay Franchisor, its affiliates or any Suppliers any amounts due;

(d) Franchisee fails to provide any reports and information when due;

(e) Franchisee fails to comply with the transfer requirements under Section 10.4;

(f) Franchisee does not commence operating the Franchised Business within twelve (12) months after the Effective Date of this Agreement, unless such time is extended by Franchisor;

(g) Franchisee (or its Operating Principal) does not complete initial training to the satisfaction of Franchisor in its sole discretion;

(h) Franchisee abandons or fails actively and continuously to operate the Franchised Business. A failure to operate the Franchised Business for a period in excess of three (3) consecutive days shall be deemed such a default, whether or not as a result of the fault of Franchisee, except where closure is due to fire, riot, flood, acts of terrorism or natural disaster and Franchisee notifies Franchisor within five (5) days after the particular occurrence to obtain Franchisor's written approval to remain closed for an agreed upon amount of time as is necessary under the circumstances before Franchisee will be required to re-open;

(i) Franchisee fails to maintain or remodel the Franchised Business location as required by Section 7.4 herein;

(j) Franchisee fails to comply with laws as required by Sections 5.6 and 7.14 herein;

(k) Franchisee defaults under any mortgage, deed of trust or lease with any third-party covering the Franchised Business location; such party treats such act or omission as a default; and Franchisee fails to cure such default to the satisfaction of such third-party within any applicable cure period granted to Franchisee by such third-party;

(l) Franchisee loses the right to operate the Franchised Business from the Franchised Business location;

(m) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, Franchisee (or any of its Owners) fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement, any System Standard or as specified in the Confidential Operating Manual or otherwise by Franchisor in writing; or

(n) Franchisee, its affiliates or any guarantor(s) hereof default in any other agreement with Franchisor, its affiliates and/or any Supplier and such default is not cured in accordance with the terms of such other agreement.

14.6 Franchisee's Obligations on Termination or Expiration

Franchisee shall have the following obligations on termination or expiration of this Agreement unless as otherwise indicated:

(a) Franchisee shall pay to Franchisor, its affiliates and/or Suppliers within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement all sums owed (including all Royalties and Brand Fund Contributions) by Franchisee to Franchisor, its affiliates, or Suppliers which are then unpaid. Franchisee shall pay to any lender who had provided financing to Franchisee under an arrangement with Franchisor if applicable, all sums then unpaid. Upon termination for any default by Franchisee, Franchisee shall also pay all actual and consequential damages, costs and expenses including attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor as a result of the default;

(b) Franchisee shall immediately cease to be a Small Town Play Café franchisee and shall immediately cease operating the Franchised Business. Franchisee may not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner identify itself or in any business as a current or former Small Town Play Café franchisee or as one of Franchisor's current or former franchisees; use any Principal Trademark, any colorable imitation of a Principal Trademark or other indicia of the Franchised Business in any manner or for any purpose; use in any advertising, marketing or promotion any methods, procedures or techniques associated with the System including any Advertising Materials and Social Media Materials; use for any purpose any trade name, trademark or service mark or other commercial symbol that indicates or suggests a connection or association with Franchisor; or use any proprietary software used in the System;

(c) Franchisee agrees to take the action required to cancel all fictitious or assumed names or equivalent registrations relating to its use of any of the Principal Trademarks within fifteen (15) days of termination or expiration;

(d) If Franchisor does not exercise its option to purchase the Franchised Business pursuant to Section 14.7, Franchisee must de-identify the Franchised Business by making all physical changes necessary, including but not limited to removing any and all trade dress, décor, physical characteristics, color combination, signage and uniforms indicative of the Small Town Play Café System. Franchisee agrees to return to Franchisor (at no charge or cost to Franchisor) within thirty (30) days all sign-faces, sign-cabinets, Advertising Materials, Social Media Materials, forms and other materials containing any of the Principal Trademarks or otherwise identifying or relating to the Franchised Business that Franchisor requests and to allow Franchisor, without liability to Franchisor or third-parties, to enter the Franchised Business location and to make any change Franchisor deems appropriate and to remove any of the aforementioned items from the Franchised Business location;

(e) Franchisee shall immediately cease using the Copyrighted Information and related information and/or items which bear the Principal Trademarks, all trade secrets and any Confidential Information and any copies, equipment or other property owned by Franchisor or its affiliates. Franchisee shall transfer such materials, property and data in the form maintained by Franchisee to Franchisor (at no charge or cost to Franchisor) within thirty (30) days of termination or expiration of this Agreement. Franchisee shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing; provided however, Franchisee may retain its copy of this Agreement, any correspondence between the parties and any other document which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any applicable provision of law;

(f) Franchisee and its Owners and employees shall comply with all post-term covenants as set forth in Article IX of this Agreement and the Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition provisions of Exhibits 6 and 7, all of which shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

(g) Franchisee shall notify the telephone company, all telephone directory publishers, Internet and website listing services and directories, websites, URLs, domain name registers, email hosts and providers and any and all other web based platforms or programs or other media, including but not limited to all Social Media Platforms in which the Franchised Business is listed or Principal Trademarks displayed of the termination or expiration of its right to use any telephone, facsimile or other numbers, telephone directory listings, email addresses, domain names, website addresses, URLs, Internet and website directory listings, web based platform and program accounts, including but not limited to Social Media Platform accounts and other media in which the Franchised Business is listed or the Principal Trademarks is displayed;

(h) Franchisee shall allow Franchisor to utilize the Internet Advertising and Telephone Listing Agreement attached as Exhibit 8 hereto;

(i) Franchisee shall authorize and not interfere with the transfer of Franchisee's telephone, facsimile and other numbers, telephone directory listings, email addresses, domain names, website addresses, URLs, Internet and website directory listings, Social Media Platform accounts and other media in which the Franchised Business is listed or the Principal Trademarks displayed to Franchisor;

(j) Franchisor shall instruct the telephone company, all websites, URLs and any other advertising entities or websites to forward all calls made to Franchisee's telephone, facsimile or other numbers as well as Internet and website searches made for Franchisee's websites and URLs, to those telephone number(s) and website(s) and URL(s) that Franchisor specifies and Franchisee shall take all actions necessary to effectuate the forwarding of such calls and Internet and website searches to telephone number(s), website(s) and/or URL(s) Franchisor specifies;

(k) Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with a complete list of a list of employees, clients and customers of the Franchised Business, together with their respective telephone numbers and addresses and a complete list of any outstanding obligations Franchisee may have to any third parties;

(l) Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Franchisor and its affiliates may be entitled, Franchisor and its affiliates may enforce any rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC as enacted in the state where the Territory is located, pursuant to the security interest granted in Section 7.15 herein, including but not limited to the right to enter the Franchised Business location to remove and repossess any equipment, products and goods in which Franchisor and its affiliates have been granted a security interest, without notice to Franchisee. Franchisee hereby waives and releases the Released Parties from any and all claims in connection therewith and arising therefrom. At the request of Franchisor or its affiliates following an event of default, Franchisee shall assemble and make available to Franchisor and its affiliates all equipment, products and goods in which Franchisor and its affiliates have been granted a security interest, at a place to be designated by Franchisor or its affiliates which is reasonably convenient to both parties; and

(m) Franchisee shall give to Franchisor, within thirty (30) days after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, evidence satisfactory to Franchisor of Franchisee's compliance with these obligations.

14.7 Right to Purchase Franchised Business

Providing Franchisor has not exercised its rights under the security interest defined in Section 7.15 hereof, upon termination of this Agreement (except where Franchisee enters into a successor agreement), then Franchisor shall have the option of acquiring the assets of the Franchised Business, including but not limited to the Operating Assets as Franchisor may determine, at the book value of such assets with no value attributable to goodwill, which the parties hereby agree and acknowledge belongs solely to Franchisor. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, deliver cash, notes payable monthly in no less than five (5) years or some combination of each as payment for the assets of the Franchised Business.

14.8 Notice Required By Law

If any valid, applicable law or regulation of a competent governmental authority with jurisdiction over this Agreement or the parties to this Agreement limits Franchisor's rights of termination under this Agreement or requires longer notice or cure periods than those set forth above, then this Agreement will be considered modified to conform to the minimum notice, cure periods or restrictions upon termination required by applicable laws and regulations. However, Franchisor will not be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of the laws or regulations in any action, proceeding, hearing or dispute relating to this Agreement or the termination of this Agreement.

14.9 Liquidated Damages - Lost Future Profits

(a) The parties recognize the difficulty of ascertaining damages to Franchisor resulting from premature termination of this Agreement before its expiration. For this reason, Franchisor and Franchisee have provided for liquidated damages for the lost benefits of the bargain for Franchisor. Such liquidated damages represent Franchisor's and Franchisee's best estimate as to the damages arising from the circumstances in which they are provided; are only damages for the future profits lost to Franchisor due to the termination of this Agreement before its expiration; are not a penalty or as damages for breaching this Agreement; and are not in lieu of any other payment or remedy.

(b) If at any time, Franchisee terminates this Agreement without Franchisor's written consent or this Agreement is terminated by Franchisor for cause, then Franchisee agrees to pay Franchisor within ten (10) days of termination an amount equal to the actual number of months remaining in the term of this Agreement times the monthly average amount of the Royalties, Brand Fund Contributions and other fees owed by Franchisee under the relevant sections of this Agreement for the twelve (12) month period prior to termination (or the entire term prior to termination if less than twelve (12) months) based on Franchisee's actual Gross Revenues, and reduced by a discount of eight percent (8%) to produce the present value of Franchisor's lost profits.

(c) Franchisee will be entitled to a credit against the sums calculated according to subsection (b) for all amounts paid to Franchisor in advance for that period.

(d) These damages are in addition to any monies due to Franchisor for past due payments or any other actual or consequential damages.

14.10 Assumption of Management: Step-In Rights.

(a) In order to prevent any interruption of operations which would cause harm to the Franchised Business, thereby depreciating the value thereof, Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation, to step-in and designate an individual of Franchisor's choosing (an "Interim Manager") for so long as Franchisor deems necessary and practical to temporarily manage the Franchised Business: (i) if Franchisee fails to comply with any System Standard or provision of this Agreement and does not cure the failure within the time period specified by this Agreement or Franchisor; (ii) if Franchisor determines, in its sole judgment, that the operation of the Franchised Business is in jeopardy; (iii) if Franchisor determines, in its sole discretion that operational problems require that Franchisor operates the Franchised Business; (iv) if Franchisee abandons or fails to actively operate the Franchised Business; (v) upon Franchisee or its Operating Principal's absence, termination, serious or chronic illness, death, incapacity, or disability (death, incapacity or disability being subject to Section 10.4 above); or (vi) if Franchisor deems Franchisee or its Operating Principal incapable of operating the Franchised Business ("Step-in Rights"). If Franchisor exercises the Step-In Rights:

(i) Franchisee agrees to pay Franchisor, in addition to all other amounts due under this Agreement, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the Gross Revenues per day that the Interim Manager manages the Franchised Business, plus the Interim Manager's direct out-of-pocket costs and expenses;

(ii) all monies from the operation of the Franchised Business during such period of operation by Franchisor shall be kept in a separate account, and the expenses of the Franchised Business, including fees, compensation and direct out-of-pocket costs and expenses for the Interim Manager, shall be charged to said account;

(iii) Franchisee acknowledges that the Interim Manager will have a duty to utilize only reasonable efforts and will not be liable to Franchisee or your owners for any debts, losses, or obligations the Franchised Business incurs, or to any of your creditors for any supplies, products, or other assets or services the Franchised Business purchases, while Interim Manager manages it;

(iv) the Interim Manager will have no liability to you except to the extent directly caused by its gross negligence or willful misconduct. Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee for the activities of an Interim Manager unless Franchisor is grossly negligent in appointing the Interim Manager, and Franchisee will indemnify and hold Franchisor harmless for and against any of the Interim Manager's acts or omissions, as regards to the interests of Franchisee or any third parties; and

(v) Franchisee agrees to pay all of Franchisor's reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a consequence of Franchisor's exercise of the Step-In Rights.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall prevent Franchisor from exercising any other right which Franchisor may have under this Agreement, including, without limitation, termination.

XV. UNAVOIDABLE DELAY OR FAILURE TO PERFORM (FORCE MAJEURE)

(a) Any delay in the performance by Franchisor or Franchisee of any duties under this Agreement or any non-performance of such duties that is not the fault of Franchisor or Franchisee (as applicable) or within Franchisee's or Franchisor's reasonable control, including but not limited to: fire; floods; natural disasters; Acts of God; war; riots or other civil disturbances; acts by public enemies; compliance with governmental acts, laws, rules or regulations which were not in effect and could not be reasonably anticipated as of the date of this Agreement; inability to secure necessary governmental priorities for materials; any delays or defaults in deliveries by common carriers and/or postal services and/or overnight couriers; computer network outages; strikes or other labor disturbances; interference by civil or military authorities; and any other similar event beyond such party's control without its fault or negligence will not constitute a breach or cause a default under this Agreement, provided, however, that Franchisor or Franchisee (as applicable) will take all steps reasonably possible to mitigate damages caused by such failure or delay.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any such failure or delay continues for more than one hundred eighty (180) days, then Franchisor will have the right at any time thereafter during the continuance of such failure or delay to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days advance written notice to Franchisee.

XVI. WAIVER AND DELAY

No waiver or delay in either party's enforcement of any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement which has been breached will be construed as a waiver by that party of any preceding or succeeding breach, or any other term, covenant or condition of this Agreement. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the acceptance of payment of any amounts will not be, nor be construed to be, payment in full or satisfaction of all amounts due and owing or any amounts to become due and shall not be, nor construed to be a waiver of any breach of any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement.

XVII. FRANCHISOR'S WITHHOLDING OF CONSENT: EXCLUSIVE REMEDY

In no event may Franchisee make any claim for money damages based on any claim or assertion that Franchisor has unreasonably withheld or delayed any consent or approval to a proposed act by Franchisee under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee waives any such claim for damages. Franchisee may not claim any such damages by way of set-off, counterclaim or defense. Franchisee's sole remedy for the claim will be an action or proceeding to enforce the Agreement provisions, for specific performance or for declaratory judgment.

XVIII. NOTICE OF FRANCHISOR'S ALLEGED BREACH AND RIGHT TO CURE AND PERIOD TO BRING CLAIM

18.1 Notice

Franchisee agrees to give Franchisor immediate written notice of any alleged breach or violation of this Agreement after Franchisee has constructive or actual knowledge of same, or has reason to know, should reasonably know, believes, determines or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged breach of this Agreement by Franchisor including any acts of misfeasance or nonfeasance, whether or not Franchisee believes, determines or is of the opinion that provision of such notice would be futile. Franchisor shall have ninety (90) days from Franchisor's receipt of Franchisee's notice to cure such alleged breach. If Franchisee does not give written notice to Franchisor of any alleged breach of this Agreement within ninety (90) days from the date that Franchisee has constructive or actual knowledge of, or has reason to know, should reasonably know, believes, determines or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged breach by Franchisor then Franchisor's alleged breach will be considered to be condoned, approved, waived and ratified by Franchisee; there will not be considered to be a breach of this Agreement by Franchisor; and Franchisee will be permanently barred from commencing any action against Franchisor for Franchisor's alleged breach or violation or defending any claim brought by Franchisor or its affiliates against Franchisee based on Franchisor's alleged breach or violation. Franchisee agrees that the purported futility of providing Franchisor with notice of an alleged breach shall not excuse the obligation to provide notice, as required hereunder, and such notice and cure period shall be deemed a condition precedent to any claim made by Franchisee.

18.2 Right to Cure

In addition to all other remedies granted pursuant to this Agreement, if Franchisee defaults in the performance of any of its obligations or breaches any term or condition of this Agreement or any related agreement, then Franchisor may, at its election, immediately or at any time thereafter, without waiving any claim for breach under this Agreement and without notice to Franchisee, cure the default on Franchisee's behalf. Franchisor's costs and expenses associated with curing the default and all related expenses will be due and payable by Franchisee on demand.

18.3 Periods in which to Make Claims

(a) Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement brought by any party against the other or any affiliate, must be commenced within one (1) year from when the party knew or should have known in the exercise of reasonable diligence of such claim or action.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, where any federal, state or local law provides for a shorter limitation period than above described, whether upon notice or otherwise, such shorter period will govern.

(c) The foregoing limitations may, where brought into effect by Franchisor's failure to commence an action within the time periods specified, operate to exclude Franchisor's right to sue for damages but will in no case, even upon expiration or lapse of the periods specified or referenced above, operate to prevent Franchisor from terminating Franchisee's rights and Franchisor's obligations under this Agreement as provided herein and under applicable law nor prevent Franchisor from obtaining any appropriate court judgment, order or otherwise which enforces and/or is otherwise consistent with such termination.

(d) The foregoing limitations shall not apply to Franchisor's claims arising from or relating to: (1) Franchisee's under-payment or non-payment of any amounts owed to Franchisor or any affiliate or otherwise related entity; (2) indemnification by Franchisee; (3) Franchisee's confidentiality, non-use, non-competition or other exclusive relationship obligations; and/or (4) Franchisee's unauthorized use of the Principal Trademarks

XIX. INJUNCTION

Franchisee explicitly affirms and recognizes the unique value and secondary meaning attached to the Small Town Play Café System and the Principal Trademarks. Accordingly, Franchisee agrees that any non-compliance by Franchisee with the terms of this Agreement, or any unauthorized or improper use of the Small Town Play Café System or the Principal Trademarks by Franchisee, will cause irreparable damage to Franchisor and other Small Town Play Café franchisees. Franchisee therefore agrees that if it engages in this non-compliance or unauthorized and/or improper use of the Small Town Play Café System or Principal Trademarks, during or after the period of this Agreement, Franchisor will be entitled to a declaration, temporary injunctive relief and permanent injunctive relief, without the need of a bond, against Franchisee from any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to all other remedies which Franchisor may have at law. Franchisee consents to the entry of these temporary and permanent injunctions.

XX. INTEGRATION OF AGREEMENT

20.1 Integration of Agreement

(a) This Agreement and all ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with reference to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede any and all prior negotiations, understandings, representations and agreements; provided, however, that nothing in this sentence is intended to disclaim the representations Franchisor made in the franchise disclosure document that Franchisor provided to Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges that it is entering into this Agreement and all ancillary agreements executed contemporaneously with this Agreement, as a result of its own independent investigation of the Franchised Business and not as a result of any representations about Franchisor made by Franchisor, Franchisor's shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, independent contractors or franchisees which are contrary to the terms set forth in this Agreement or of any offering circular, prospectus, disclosure document or other similar document required or permitted to be given to Franchisee pursuant to applicable law.

(b) The Confidential Operating Manual and the terms contained therein are incorporated by reference in this Agreement, form a part of this Agreement and are enforceable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

20.2 No Oral Modification

This Agreement may not be amended orally, but may be amended only by a written instrument signed by the parties. Franchisee expressly acknowledges that no oral promises or declarations were made to it and that Franchisor's obligations are confined exclusively to the terms in this Agreement. Franchisee understands and assumes the business risks inherent in this enterprise.

XXII. MISCELLANEOUS

22.1 Execution, Construction and Interpretation

(a) This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which will be considered an original and all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. Facsimile or other electronic execution signatures will be considered as binding and conclusive as if original, provided that any party so executing must use all commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to the other party(ies) the originally executed document at the earliest opportunity.

(b) The titles and subtitles of the various Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience and will not affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms, provisions, covenants and conditions of this Agreement. The terms used in this Agreement, regardless of the number and gender in which they are used shall be construed to include the other number (singular or plural), and other genders (masculine, feminine, or neuter), as the context or sense of this Agreement or any Articles, Sections or subsections may require. The language of this Agreement will be in all cases construed simply according to its fair and plain meaning and not strictly for or against Franchisor or Franchisee.

(c) It is agreed that if any provision of this Agreement is capable of two (2) constructions, one of which would render the provision void and the other of which would render the provision valid, then the provision will have the meaning which renders it valid.

(d) The parties agree to execute all other documents and perform all further acts necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Each reference in this Agreement to a corporation or partnership will also refer to a limited liability company, general or limited partnership and any other entity or similar organization. Each reference to the organizational documents, shareholders, directors, officers and stock of a corporation in this Agreement will also refer to the functional equivalents of the organizational documents, shareholders, directors, officers and voting and/or equity rights, as applicable, in the case of a limited liability company, general partnership, limited partnership or any other entity or similar organization (this specifically includes members and managers, general and limited partners, membership interests and general and limited partnership interests).

22.2 Severability

Nothing contained in this Agreement may be construed as requiring the commission of any act contrary to law. Whenever there is any conflict between any provision of this Agreement and any present or future statute, law, ordinance or regulation required to be made applicable to this Agreement, the latter will prevail, but the affected provision of this Agreement will be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirement of the law. If any Article, Section, subsection, sentence or clause of this Agreement is held to be indefinite, invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the entire Agreement will not fail for this reason and the balance of the Agreement will continue in full force and effect. If any court of competent jurisdiction deems any provision of this Agreement (other than for the payment of money) so unreasonable as to be unenforceable as a matter of law, the court may declare a reasonable modification of this Agreement and this Agreement will be valid and enforceable and the parties agree to be bound by and perform this Agreement as so modified.

22.3 Similar Agreements

Franchisor makes no warranty or representation that anything contained in this Agreement may be construed as requiring that all Small Town Play Café franchise agreements heretofore or hereafter issued by Franchisor to contain terms substantially similar to those contained in this Agreement. Further, Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that Franchisor may, in its reasonable business judgment, due to local business conditions or otherwise, waive or modify comparable provisions of other franchise agreements heretofore or hereafter granted to other Small Town Play Café franchisees in a non-uniform manner, subject to those provisions of this Agreement which require Franchisor to act toward its franchisees on a reasonably non-discriminatory basis.

XXIII. COSTS OF ENFORCEMENT; ATTORNEYS' FEES; GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION AND VENUE; CONSEQUENTIAL AND PUNITIVE DAMAGES; AND JURY WAIVER

23.1 Costs of Enforcement

Franchisor will be entitled to recover from Franchisee all costs and expenses including attorneys' fees for any failure to pay any amounts when due or any other failure to comply with this Agreement, including but not limited to collection costs and expenses, commissions paid to collection agencies, attorneys and third parties. Franchisor will also be entitled to recover from Franchisee attorneys' fees, experts' fees, court costs and all other expenses of litigation if Franchisor prevails in any action instituted against Franchisee to secure or protect Franchisor's rights under this Agreement; to enforce the terms of this Agreement or any agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor; or in any action commenced or joined in by Franchisee against Franchisor.

23.2 Attorneys' Fees

If Franchisor becomes a party to any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any and all related agreements, as a result of any claimed or actual act, error or omission of Franchisee (and/or any of Franchisee's Owners, officers, directors, management, employees, contractors and/or representatives) or the Franchised Business; by virtue of statutory, "vicarious," "principal/agent" or other liabilities imposed on Franchisor as a result of Franchisor's status as Franchisor; or if Franchisor becomes a party to any litigation or any insolvency proceeding involving Franchisee pursuant to any bankruptcy or insolvency code (including any adversary proceedings in conjunction with bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings), then Franchisee will be liable to Franchisor and must promptly reimburse Franchisor for the attorneys' fees, experts' fees, court costs, travel and lodging costs and all other expenses Franchisor incurs in such action or proceeding regardless of whether such action or proceeding proceeds to judgment. In addition, Franchisor will be entitled to add all costs of collection, interest, attorneys' fees and experts' fees to Franchisor's proof of claim in any insolvency or bankruptcy proceeding which Franchisee files.

23.3 Governing Law

This Agreement, all relations between the parties and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, are to be exclusively construed in accordance with and/or governed by (as applicable) the law of the State of New Jersey without recourse to New Jersey (or any other) choice of law or conflicts of law principles. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of New Jersey, and if the Franchised Business is located outside of New Jersey and the provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which the Franchised Business is located, then the provision (and only that provision) will be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state. Nothing in this Section 23.3 is intended to invoke the application of any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust, "implied covenant," unfair competition, fiduciary or any other doctrine of law of the state of New Jersey or any other state, which would not otherwise apply.

23.4 Jurisdiction and Venue

(a) Franchisee agrees to institute any litigation that Franchisee may commence arising out of or related to this Agreement; any breach of this Agreement; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction which is either a New Jersey state court in Union County, New Jersey or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. Franchisee agrees that any dispute as to the venue for any litigation Franchisee institutes will be submitted to and resolved exclusively by either a New Jersey state court in Union County, New Jersey or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. Franchisee hereby waives and covenants never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). All depositions in connection with any litigation between the parties shall be held in the jurisdiction and venue indicated above.

(b) Franchisee further agrees that Franchisor may institute any litigation that Franchisor commences arising out of or related to this Agreement; any breach of this Agreement; the relations between the parties; and, any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, in any court of competent jurisdiction wherever situated that Franchisor selects. Franchisee agrees that any dispute as to the venue for the litigation Franchisor institutes will be submitted to and be resolved exclusively by the court of competent jurisdiction in which Franchisor commenced the litigation. Franchisee hereby waives and covenants never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate, (including any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens).

23.5 Consequential or Punitive Damages

IN NO EVENT WILL FRANCHISOR BE LIABLE TO FRANCHISEE FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT; ANY BREACH, TERMINATION, CANCELLATION OR NON-RENEWAL OF THIS AGREEMENT; OR IN ANY OTHER ACTION OR PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT AND/OR ANY OF THEIR AFFILIATES. FRANCHISEE HEREBY WAIVES AND COVENANTS NEVER TO ADVANCE ANY SUCH CLAIM FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

23.6 Waiver of Trial by Jury

TO THE EXTENT THAT EACH MAY LAWFULLY DO SO, FRANCHISEE AND FRANCHISOR BOTH WAIVE THEIR RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION THAT MAY BE BROUGHT ON OR WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HERewith.

23.7 Waiver of Class Actions.

Each of the parties hereby irrevocably waive the right to litigate on a class action basis (including, but not limited to, on behalf of or in connection with an association of Small Town Play Café franchisees, or any other trade association), in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by any party.

XXIV. GUARANTEE

(a) If Franchisee is a partnership, corporation or a limited liability company, personal guarantees shall be required from all Owners. Such personal guarantees must be executed on Franchisor's standard form Guarantee (Exhibit 9) concurrently with the execution of this Agreement.

(b) If Franchisee is in breach or default under this Agreement, Franchisor may proceed directly against each such individual and/or entity without first proceeding against Franchisee and without proceeding against or naming in the suit any other such individuals and/or entities. Franchisee's obligations and those of each such individual and/or entity will be joint and several. Notice to or demand upon one such individual and/or entity will be considered notice to or demand upon Franchisee and all such individuals and/or entities and no notice or demand need be made to or upon all such individuals and/or entities. The cessation of or release from liability of Franchisee or any such individual and/or entity will not relieve any other individual and/or entity from liability under this Agreement, except to the extent that the breach or default has been remedied or money owed has been paid.

XXV. SURVIVAL

Any provision of this Agreement which imposes an obligation following the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive the termination or expiration and will continue to be binding upon the parties to this Agreement. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties, their heirs, successors and assigns.

XXVI. FRANCHISEE'S REPRESENTATIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

26.1 Franchisee's Representations

Franchisee represents and warrants to Franchisor with the intention that Franchisor is relying thereon in entering into this Agreement that:

(a) If Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company, general partnership, partnership or limited partnership, then Franchisee is organized under the laws of the state of its principal place of business (or another state which Franchisee has identified to Franchisor) and is in good standing with and qualified to do business in each state and political/governmental subdivision having jurisdiction over the Franchised Business.

(b) If Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company, general partnership, partnership or limited partnership, Franchisee has all corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, consummate and perform this Agreement and it will be binding upon Franchisee and its successors and assigns when executed.

(c) Franchisee does not have any material liabilities, adverse claims, commitments or obligations of any nature as of the date of execution of this Agreement, whether accrued, unliquidated, absolute, contingent or otherwise which are not reflected as liabilities on the balance sheets of Franchisee's current financial statements which Franchisee has furnished to Franchisor before the execution of this Agreement.

(d) As of the date of execution of this Agreement, there are no actions, suits, proceedings or investigations pending, nor to Franchisee's knowledge or the knowledge (after due inquiry) of any of its officers, directors, Owners or Operating Principals (as applicable), threatened in any court or arbitral forum or before any governmental agency or instrumentality. Nor to the best of Franchisee's knowledge or the knowledge of any such persons or entities (after due inquiry) is there any basis for any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation which affects or could affect, directly or indirectly, any of Franchisee's assets, properties, rights or business; Franchisee's right to operate and use its assets, properties or rights to carry on its business; and/or which affects or could affect Franchisee's right to assume and carry out in all respects the duties, obligations and responsibilities specified in this Agreement.

(e) Neither Franchisee nor any of its Owners is a party to any contract, agreement, covenant not to compete or other restriction of any type which may conflict with or be breached by the execution, delivery, consummation and/or performance of this Agreement.

(f) All Franchisee's representations and warranties contained in this Agreement are complete, correct and accurate as of the date of execution of this Agreement and will survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

26.2 Franchisee's Acknowledgments

(f) Franchisee affirms that all information set forth in all applications, financial statements and submissions to Franchisor are true, complete and accurate in all respects and Franchisee expressly acknowledges that Franchisor is relying on the truthfulness, completeness and accuracy of this information.

Initials

(g) Franchisee understands and agrees that Franchisor may operate and change the System and Franchisor's business in any manner that is not expressly prohibited by this Agreement. Whenever Franchisor has the right within this Agreement to take or withhold action or to grant or decline to Franchisee the right to take or withhold action, Franchisor may make such a decision on the basis of Franchisor's best interests and those of the Small Town Play Café System and the franchise network, without regard to whether other reasonable alternative decisions exist or whether Franchisor's decision adversely affects Franchisee. Absent applicable statute, Franchisor shall have no liability for such a decision and Franchisee agrees that Franchisor's decision will not be subject to limitation or review. If applicable law implies a covenant of good faith and fair dealing in this Agreement, then Franchisee agrees that such a covenant shall not imply any rights or obligations that are inconsistent with a fair construction of the terms of this Agreement and that this Agreement grants to Franchisor the right to make decisions, take actions and/or refrain from taking actions that are inconsistent with Franchisee's rights and obligations hereunder.

Initials

(h) Franchisee understands and agrees that nothing herein shall obligate Franchisor to sell Small Town Play Café franchises or otherwise develop, grow and/or expand the Small Town Play Café franchised system. Franchisor makes no guaranty, warranty or representation regarding the continued sale of Small Town Play Café franchises, the Franchisor's ability to make sales of Small Town Play Café franchises, the Franchisor's prospects for making sales of Small Town Play Café franchises or any development, growth or expansion of the Small Town Play Café franchised system. Further, Franchisee understands and agrees that the failure or inability of Franchisor to sell Small Town Play Café franchises or develop, grow and/or expand the Small Town Play Café franchised system does not excuse Franchisee's performance of its obligations under this Agreement and Franchisee further understands and agrees that it shall be obligated, at all times, to perform its obligations hereunder.

COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF LEASE AGREEMENT

THIS COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE is made as of the last date below written by and among _____ ("Tenant" or "Franchisee"), Small Town Play Café Franchising LLC ("Franchisor"), and _____ ("Landlord").

WHEREAS, Tenant is the tenant under a certain lease (or sublease), dated ____ (the "Lease"), wherein Landlord leased to Tenant certain premises at _____ (the "Premises"); and

WHEREAS, Tenant and Franchisor have, or will, enter into a Franchise Agreement (the "Franchise Agreement"), whereby Franchisor will grant to Tenant the right to open and operate a franchised business under Franchisor's system at the Premises; and

WHEREAS, as a condition to Franchisor entering into the Franchise Agreement, Franchisor has required that Tenant collaterally assign its right, title and interest in the Lease, with the right to reassign (as provided therein), as security for Tenant's obligations and Franchisor's rights under the Franchise Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce Franchisor to enter into the Franchise Agreement, Tenant has agreed to collaterally assign its right, title and interest in the Lease, with the right to reassign (as provided therein), as security for Tenant's obligations and Franchisor's rights under the Franchise Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration for the foregoing premises and the mutual promises contained herein and in the Franchise Agreement, and in order to secure Tenant's obligations and Franchisor's rights under the Franchise Agreement, Tenant does hereby collaterally assign, transfer and set over unto Franchisor, with the right to reassign (as provided herein), all of its right, title and interest in and to the Lease and in and to the Premises; it being nevertheless expressly understood and agreed that this collateral assignment is made and is consented to by the Landlord contingent upon the following terms, covenants, limitations and conditions:

1. Tenant's Right to Possession. Tenant shall retain the right to possession of the Premises in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Lease until the occurrence of an Assignment Event (as defined in paragraph 2 of this Agreement).

2. Assignment Events.

2.1 Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation, to exercise either of the options set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) below upon: (a) a default by Tenant under the Franchise Agreement beyond the expiration of all applicable notice and cure periods; (b) the expiration or earlier termination of the Franchise Agreement, including but not limited to, a termination of the Franchise Agreement by the Franchisee; (c) an expression by Tenant of its desire to terminate the Lease; (d) a default by Tenant under the

Lease, as defined in the Lease, beyond the expiration of all applicable notice and cure periods; or (e) non-renewal of the Lease (each an "Assignment Event"). Upon the occurrence of an Assignment Event, Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation to either:

(i) assume and occupy the Premises upon written notice to Landlord and Tenant, in which event Franchisor shall be deemed to be substituted as the tenant under the Lease in the place and stead of Tenant and shall be deemed to have assumed expressly all of the terms, covenants and obligations of the Lease theretofore applicable to Tenant and shall likewise be entitled to enjoy all of the rights and privileges granted to Tenant under the terms and conditions of the Lease; or

(ii) assign the Lease to an affiliate of the Franchisor, a franchisee of Franchisor or a prospective franchisee of the Franchisor, without obtaining Landlord's prior written consent, provided that, in the event of an assignment to a franchisee or prospective franchisee of the Franchisor, such party has satisfied the Franchisor's criteria for operating a Small Town Play Café business.

2.2 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above, Franchisor may expel Franchisee from the Premises and Franchisor shall have all other remedies described herein or in the Franchise Agreement, or at law or in equity, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of Franchisor under any other agreement or under other applicable laws or equities. In such event, Franchisee shall have no further right, title or interest in the Lease or possession of the Premises, but shall remain liable for all unpaid rents and fees owed under the Lease to Landlord as of the date of the Franchisor's assumption of the Lease. Franchisor may exercise self-help to obtain possession and Landlord shall cooperate and provide whatever legal action is necessary (at no cost to Landlord) to obtain possession.

2.3 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above, Tenant shall remain obligated under the Lease for all unpaid rents and fees owed under the Lease to Landlord as of the date of the Franchisor's assumption of the Lease. In no event shall Franchisor be responsible for any past due or other defaulted amounts due to Landlord or any other third party incurred by Franchisee prior to Franchisor's assumption of the Lease. In the event that Franchisor pays any past due or other defaulted amounts to Landlord or any other third party on behalf of an obligation, debt or liability incurred by Franchisee prior to the Franchisor's assumption of the Lease, Franchisee agrees to reimburse Franchisor for Franchisor's payments within five (5) calendar days after receipt of Franchisor's written notice of the same. The Franchisee agrees and acknowledges that such payments, whether due to Landlord, a third-party or the Franchisor, are reasonable expenses of foreclosure.

2.4 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above, Landlord shall not terminate or accelerate the rent owed under the Lease in connection with any such assignment. Nothing in this Paragraph 2.4 shall serve to extend the term of the Lease or provide Franchisor with occupancy rights, options to renew or other rights not expressly set forth to Tenant in the Lease.

2.5 If Franchisor exercises either of the rights set forth in paragraphs 2.1(i) or 2.1(ii) above and assumed the Lease directly or assigned the Lease to an affiliate of the Franchisor, then such party (either the Franchisor or the affiliate) shall have the right, during the remaining term of the Lease and any extension thereof, to further assign the Lease to a franchisee of Franchisor or a prospective franchisee of the Franchisor upon not less than ten (10) day written notice to Landlord, without obtaining Landlord's prior written consent, provided that, such franchisee or prospective franchisee of the Franchisor has satisfied the Franchisor's criteria for operating a Small Town Play Café business.

3. Agreement of Landlord.

3.1 Landlord agrees to furnish Franchisor with copies of any and all letters and notices to Tenant pertaining to the Lease and the Premises at the same time that such letters and notices are sent to Tenant.

3.2 Landlord further agrees that, if it intends to terminate the Lease, Landlord will give Franchisor the same advance written notice of such intent as provided to Tenant, specifying in such notice all defaults that are the cause of any proposed termination. Franchisor shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure any such default within the time periods granted to Tenant under the Lease. In the event that Franchisor cures such default, Franchisee agrees to reimburse Franchisor for all costs and expenses incurred by the Franchisor, within five (5) calendar days after receipt of Franchisor's written notice of the same.

Landlord and Tenant agree that Franchisor shall not be liable for trespass or any other crimes or tort.

(e) Recipient further covenants and agrees that for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or termination of Recipient's relationship with Franchisee, Recipient will not either directly or indirectly for itself or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, sell, assign, lease or transfer the Franchisee's Franchised Business location to any person, firm, partnership corporation or other entity that Recipient knows or has reason to know intends to operate a Competitive Business at the Franchisee's Franchised Business location.

Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, require any or all of the following conditions for its consent:

(i) Transferee (and its Owners if transferee is an entity) has sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to satisfy its obligations under this ADA, to operate the Franchised Businesses and must meet all of Franchisor's then-current standards and requirements for becoming a Small Town Play Café area developer (which standards and requirements need not be in writing);

(ii) Area Developer has paid all amounts owed to Franchisor, its affiliates and Suppliers (as defined in the Franchise Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 3); has submitted all required reports and statements; has cured all other breaches of this ADA and any other agreement between Area Developer and Franchisor, its affiliates or any Supplier; and has satisfied all of its obligations under this ADA and any other agreement with Franchisor, its affiliates and Suppliers;

(iii) Neither transferee, its Owners (if the transferee is an entity) nor its affiliates have any ownership interest (direct or indirect) in or perform services for a Competitive Business;

(iv) Transferee shall (as directed by Franchisor) execute the form of area development agreement then being offered to new System area developers or a revised form of this ADA as Franchisor deems appropriate and such other ancillary agreements as Franchisor may require, the provisions of which may differ materially from those contained in this ADA;

(v) Transferee (or its Operating Principal) must complete Franchisor's training program to Franchisor's satisfaction at transferee's expense, including but not limited to payment to Franchisor of the then-current training fee;

(vi) Area Developer's landlord(s) permits an assignment or sublease of the Franchised Business locations to the transferee if applicable;

(vii) Transferee must pass a credit and background check;

(viii) Transferor and its Owners shall have executed a general release in a form satisfactory to Franchisor of any and all claims against Franchisor, its affiliates and all respective officers, directors, agents, and employees of Franchisor and its affiliates, including without limitation claims arising under this ADA, any Franchise Agreement and any other agreement between Area Developer and Franchisor or any of their affiliates or under federal, state or local laws, rules and regulations or orders.

(ix) Transferor and transferee execute all necessary documents to provide that all payments and obligations that become due and owing to Franchisor or its affiliates from the assignee following the effective date of the transfer shall have a first priority and be superior to the payment of any obligations owed to Area Developer by transferee.

(x) Area Developer shall pay, at the time of the request for transfer or assignment, a fee of $1,000 multiplied by the number of unopened Franchised Businesses remaining on the Development Schedule.

(xi) Transferor or transferee shall pay Franchisor the transfer fees required by the Franchise Agreements for the Franchised Businesses.

(xii) Area Developer shall be and remain liable under all assigned agreements to the extent required by the other agreements.

E. Assignment by Area Developer to a Controlled Corporation or Limited Liability Company

If Area Developer is an individual, individuals or a partnership, Franchisor shall consent to the assignment of this ADA to a corporation or limited liability company formed and owned by Area Developer for the sole purpose of developing and operating the Franchised Businesses provided however, that the other conditions of this Article 8 are met (to the extent required by Franchisor in its sole discretion) and that Area Developer remain together with said corporation jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this ADA and for all breaches thereof. Further, Area Developer must continue to supervise the operation and development of each of the Franchised Businesses. Area Developer shall immediately notify Franchisor of any such assignment and shall complete all appropriate agreements required by Franchisor as a result thereof. No transfer fee shall be charged by Franchisor in connection with a transfer pursuant to this paragraph 8(E).

F. Death or Disability of Area Developer

Upon the death or permanent disability of Area Developer or its Operating Principal, the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative of Area Developer or its Operating Principal must transfer Area Developer's interest in this ADA, or the Operating Principal's ownership interest in Area Developer to a third-party (which may be the heirs, beneficiaries or devisees of Area Developer or its Operating Principal). That transfer must be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or disability and is subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Article 8. Failure to transfer Area Developer's interest in this ADA or the Operating Principal's ownership interest in Area Developer within this time period is a breach of this Agreement. The term "disability" means a mental or physical disability, impairment or condition that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent Area Developer or the Operating Principal from supervising the management and operation of the Franchised Businesses.

G. Franchised Businesses.

Area Developer may assign to a corporation or limited liability company the right to enter into a Franchise Agreement for the operation of a Franchised Business, provided that the entity is wholly owned and controlled by Area Developer.

H. Franchisor's consent to any transfer of interest in Area Developer or this ADA shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this ADA by the transferee.

I. Any purported transfer or assignment of this ADA or of any ownership interests in Area Developer without the written consent of Franchisor shall be void and any such attempt to transfer or assign this ADA or any ownership interests in Area Developer without the written consent of Franchisor shall be a breach of this ADA.

9. FRANCHISOR'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

A. If Area Developer (or its Owners) shall at any time determine to sell or to transfer for consideration (i) this ADA (or any interest in this ADA), (ii) the area development franchise operated under this ADA (or any interest therein), the Franchised Businesses operated by Area Developer or its affiliates, or all or substantially all of Area Developer's assets, (iii) any part or all of the ownership of Area Developer (regardless of size), or (iv) an ownership interest in any the Area Developer's Owners (if any Owner is a legal entity), Area Developer (or its Owners) shall obtain a bona fide, executed written offer from a responsible and fully disclosed purchaser and shall submit an exact copy of such offer to Franchisor.

B. Notice of the bona fide offer must include details of the payment terms of the proposed sale and the sources and terms of any financing for the proposed purchase price. To be a valid bona fide offer, the proposed purchase price must be in a dollar amount and the proposed transferee must submit with its offer an earnest money deposit equal to five percent (5%) or more of the offering price. The right of first refusal process will not be triggered by a proposed transfer that would not be permitted under Article 8. Franchisor may require Area Developer (or its Owners) to send Franchisor copies of any materials or information sent to the proposed buyer or transferee regarding the possible transaction.

C. Franchisor may by written notice delivered to Area Developer or its selling Owner(s) within thirty (30) days after it receives both an exact copy of the offer and all other information Franchisor requests, elect to purchase the interest offered under the same terms or conditions contained in the offer provided that:

(i) Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, substitute cash, notes payable monthly in no less than five (5) years, or some combination of each for any form of payment proposed in the offer (such as ownership interests in a privately-held entity) and Franchisor's credit shall be deemed equal to the credit of any proposed buyer or transferee;

(ii) Franchisor will have an additional thirty (30) days to prepare for closing after notifying Area Developer of its election to purchase; and

(iii) Franchisor must receive, and Area Developer and its Owners agree to make, all customary representations and warranties given by the seller of the assets of a business or the ownership interests in a legal entity, as applicable, including without limitation representations and warranties regarding:

(a) ownership and condition of and title to ownership interests and/or assets; liens and encumbrances relating to ownership interests and/or assets; and

(b) validity of contracts and the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of the entity whose assets or ownership interests are being purchased.

D. If Franchisor exercises its right of first refusal, Area Developer and its selling Owners agree that for two (2) years beginning on the closing date, they will be bound by the covenants contained in Section 6 of this ADA as if the ADA had terminated or expired.

E. If Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal, Franchisor shall, within thirty (30) days after the right of first refusal has expired, notify Area Developer (and/or any of its Owners) in writing of its approval or disapproval of the prospective transferee. Area Developer or its Owners may complete the sale to the proposed transferee on the terms of the original offer, but only if Franchisor otherwise approves the transfer in accordance with Section 8 and Area Developer (and its Owners) and the transferee comply with the conditions of that Section. This means that even if Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal (whether or not it is properly triggered as provided above), if the proposed transfer otherwise would not be allowed under Section 8, then Area Developer (or its Owners) may not complete the transfer.

F. If Area Developer (or its Owners) does not complete the transfer to the proposed transferee within sixty (60) days after Franchisor notifies Area Developer (and/or any of its Owners) that Franchisor does not intend to exercise its right of first refusal, or if there is a material change in the terms of the transfer (which Area Developer and/or its Owners agree to promptly advise Franchisor), then Franchisor or its designee will have an additional right of first refusal during the thirty (30) day period following either the expiration of the sixty (60) day period or Franchisor's receipt of notice of the material change(s) in the sale's terms. This additional right of first refusal shall be to purchase on the terms originally offered or the modified terms, at the option of Franchisor or its designee.

10. DEFAULT, TERMINATION AND DISQUALIFICATION

A. Termination by Area Developer

Except as may be required by applicable law, Area Developer shall have no right to terminate this ADA.

B. Termination by Franchisor

Franchisor may terminate this ADA if Area Developer defaults under the ADA as provided herein or is in default under any other agreement with Franchisor, its affiliates or third parties. Franchisor's election to terminate this ADA with Area Developer in no way constitutes a waiver of any of Franchisor's rights hereunder or any other right available at law or in equity, including its rights to damages. Termination of this ADA encompasses termination of any and all rights granted onto Area Developer by Franchisor hereunder, except as may be otherwise provided herein. Area Developer agrees and acknowledges that upon termination of this ADA, Franchisor shall have the option, exercised in Franchisor's sole discretion to terminate any agreement entered into with Area Developer including but not limited to any Franchise Agreement.

(b) Area Developer or any of its Owners is or has been convicted or pleads or has plead no contest to a felony, a crime of moral turpitude or any offense directly related to the business conducted pursuant to this ADA or any offense which may tend to adversely affect the goodwill or reputation of Area Developer, Franchisor or the System.

(c) Area Developer is dissolved.

(d) Area Developer (i) fails on three (3) or more separate occasions within any twelve (12) consecutive month period to comply with this ADA, whether or not Franchisor notifies Area Developer of the failures and if Franchisor does notify Area Developer of the failures, whether or not Area Developer corrects the failures after delivery of notice; or (ii) fails on two (2) or more separate occasions within any six (6) consecutive month period to comply with the same obligation under this ADA, whether or not Franchisor notifies Area Developer of the failures and if Franchisor does notify Area Developer of the failures, whether or not Area Developer corrects the failures after delivery of notice.

(e) Area Developer or any of its Owners engages in any business activity not approved by Franchisor from any Franchised Business, including but not limited to the sale of goods or services not approved by Franchisor or fails to obtain the written permission of Franchisor as may be required.

(g) Area Developer or any of its Owners engages in any activity which constitutes grounds for the immediate termination of any Franchise Agreement or other agreement entered into between Area Developer and Franchisor.

(h) Area Developer or any of its Owners engages in any dishonest or unethical conduct which in Franchisor's sole opinion, adversely affects the reputation of Franchisor, the Principal Trademarks and/or the System.

(i) Area Developer fails to comply with any of the requirements pertaining to Franchisor's proprietary information or Principal Trademarks.

(j) Area Developer or any of its Owners makes or attempts to make an assignment, transfer or subfranchise of this ADA or any right hereunder without the prior written consent of Franchisor.

(iii) Curable Defaults

Franchisor may terminate this ADA effective upon delivery of written notice of termination to Area Developer after written notice to cure has been provided to Area Developer and Area Developer fails to cure the default as stated below:

(a) Area Developer fails to pay Franchisor, its affiliates or any third-party any amounts due under this Agreement and fails to cure such default within ten (10) days after written notice.

(e) Area Developer has voluntarily abandoned any Franchised Business or the development relationship for a period of three (3) consecutive days and fails to cure said default immediately upon receipt of written notice.

C. Effect of Area Developer's Failure to Comply with Development Schedule

Upon Area Developer's failure to adhere to any date set forth in the Development Schedule, in addition to Franchisor's right to terminate this ADA, Franchisor shall have the following rights:

(i) to modify Area Developer's Area rights including but not limited to terminating any exclusive rights granted to Area Developer in the Area or granting exclusive rights to another party with respect to the Area;

(ii) to re-designate the boundaries of the Area;

(iii) to reduce the number of Franchised Businesses to be established by Area Developer under this ADA;

(iv) to permit Area Developer to extend the Development Schedule;

(v) to terminate or modify any right of first refusal Area Developer may have been granted; or

(vi) to pursue any other remedy Franchisor may have at law or in equity. Notwithstanding the above, Area Developer's failure to comply with the Development Schedule hereunder shall not act to automatically terminate any Franchise Agreement entered into by and between Franchisor and Area Developer.

D. Disqualification

If at any time during the term of this ADA, Franchisor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that Area Developer is no longer qualified to be a Small Town Play Café Area Developer, Franchisor shall disqualify Area Developer by written notice to that effect. Upon Area Developer's disqualification, this ADA shall be terminated. Area Developer's disqualification hereunder shall not act to terminate any Franchise Agreement entered into by and between Franchisor and Area Developer. Franchisor and Area Developer agree and acknowledge that upon signing of a Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of that Franchise Agreement shall govern the franchise relationship between Franchisor and Area Developer with respect to the Franchised Business that is the subject of such Franchise Agreement.

E. Retention of Development Fee

Area Developer hereby agrees and acknowledges that Franchisor shall be entitled to retain the Area Development Fee for each Franchised Business to be developed hereunder as consideration of Franchisor's expenses and administrative costs incurred in connection with this ADA and as compensation for its lost or deferred opportunities to grant the development rights as contained herein to others.

11. OBLIGATIONS FOLLOWING TERMINATION

A. Obligations of Area Developer

Following the termination of this ADA, Area Developer shall:

(i) cease to operate or do business under any name or in any manner that might tend to give the general public, employees, Suppliers (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) or business associates the impression that this ADA is still in force or that Area Developer is connected in any way with Franchisor or has any right to use the System or the Principal Trademarks, except to the extent that Area Developer or its affiliates operates a Franchised Business under a franchise agreement with Franchisor;

(ii) not develop any Franchised Business for which a Franchise Agreement has not been entered into by and between Franchisor and Area Developer; and

(iii) comply with the Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition provisions contained in Article 6 herein.

B. Obligations of Franchisor

Upon termination of this ADA, all obligations of Franchisor to Area Developer and all rights of Area Developer under this Agreement shall automatically terminate. Area Developer shall have no further right to construct, equip, own, open or operate additional Franchised Businesses which are not at the time of termination the subject of a then existing Franchise Agreement between Franchisor and Area Developer in full force and effect. Following termination of this ADA, Franchisor and its affiliates may construct, equip, open, operate and license others the rights to construct, equip, open and operate additional Small Town Play Café businesses at any location within the Area without restriction, subject to any exclusive territorial rights granted for any then existing Franchised Business under the applicable Franchise Agreement executed for that Franchised Business.

C. Continuing Obligations of Area Developer

Any obligations of Area Developer to take or abstain from taking any action upon termination pursuant to this ADA shall not be affected by termination of this ADA including without limitation, the payment to Franchisor of all sums due from Area Developer at the time of termination and the obligations contained in Article 6 of this ADA.

12. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

In all matters pertaining to the development and operation of the Franchised Businesses, Area Developer is and shall be an independent contractor. No employee of Area Developer shall be deemed to be an employee of Franchisor nor shall Franchisor have any responsibility whatsoever for the acts or omissions to act (intentional, negligent or otherwise) of the employees of Area Developer. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture or agency relationship between Area Developer and Franchisor. Neither party shall be liable for the debts or obligations of the other unless expressly assumed in writing. Area Developer shall have no right to bind Franchisor, transact business in Franchisor's name or in any manner make any promises or representations on behalf of Franchisor, nor contract any debts or obligations on behalf of Franchisor or its affiliates.

13. INDEMNIFICATION

A. Area Developer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Franchisor, its affiliates and the respective shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assignees of Franchisor and its affiliates (the “Indemnified Parties”) against and reimburse any one or more of the Indemnified Parties for all claims, obligations and damages arising directly or indirectly from the operation of the Franchised Businesses developed and operated pursuant to this ADA or Area Developer’s breach of this ADA, including without limitation those alleged to be or found to have been caused by the Indemnified Party’s negligence or willful misconduct, unless (and then only to the extent that) the claims, obligations or damages are determined to be caused solely by Franchisor’s gross negligence or willful misconduct in a final, unappealable ruling issued by a court or arbitrator with competent jurisdiction. This provision shall survive termination (regardless of the cause for termination) or expiration of this ADA.

B. For purposes of this Section and Area Developer’s indemnification, “claims” include all obligations, damages (actual, consequential or otherwise) and costs that any Indemnified Party incurs in defending any claim against it, including without limitation reasonable fees incurred for accountants, arbitrators, attorneys and experts witnesses, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, travel and living expenses and other expenses of litigation, arbitration or alternative dispute resolution. Each Indemnified Party may defend any claim against it at the expense of the Area Developer and agree to settlements or take any other remedial, corrective or other actions. This indemnity will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this ADA. An Indemnified Party need not seek recovery from any insurer or other third-party or otherwise mitigate its losses and expenses, in order to maintain and recover fully a claim against Area Developer under this subsection. Area Developer agrees that a failure to pursue a recovery or mitigate a loss will not reduce or alter the amounts that an Indemnified Party may recover from Area Developer under this subsection.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Injunction

Area Developer recognizes the unique value and secondary meaning attached to the System and Principal Trademarks and agrees that any noncompliance with the terms of this ADA or any unauthorized or improper use of the System will cause irreparable damage to Franchisor and its franchisees. Area Developer therefore agrees that if Area Developer (or any of its Owners) should engage in any such unauthorized or improper use during or after the term of this ADA, Franchisor shall be entitled to both permanent and temporary injunctive relief without the need of a bond or undertaking from any court of competent jurisdiction in addition to any other remedies provided for under this ADA and/or prescribed by law.

B. Further Acts

The parties hereby agree to execute such other documents and perform such further acts as may be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this ADA.

This ADA, the Exhibits to this ADA and any documents incorporated herein by reference, represent the entire understanding between the parties regarding the subject matter of this ADA and supersede all other negotiations, agreements, representations and covenants, oral or written, except any other agreement executed by Franchisor or its affiliates and Area Developer in connection herewith. This ADA may not be modified except by a written instrument signed by the party to be charged. The parties intend this ADA to be the entire integration of all their agreements of any nature regarding the subject matter of this ADA. No other agreements, representations, promises, commitments or the like of any nature exist between the parties except as expressly set forth herein.

E. No Warranties

Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has made no promises, representatives or warranties to Area Developer that are inconsistent or in conflict with the terms of this ADA or Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document concerning the profitability or likelihood of success of the Franchised Businesses or the extent to which Area Developer may benefit from or participate as a member of the System; that Area Developer and its Owners have been informed by Franchisor that there can be no guarantee of success in the Franchised Businesses and that Area Developer's business ability and aptitude is primary in determining Area Developer's success.

F. Waiver

Failure by either party to enforce any rights under this ADA shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights. Any waiver including a waiver of default in any one instance shall not constitute a continuing waiver or a waiver in any other instance. Any acceptance by Franchisor of money or other performance from Area Developer shall not constitute a waiver of any default except as to the payment of the particular payment or performance so received.

G. No Uniformity

Franchisor has made no warranty or representation that all agreements previously issued or issued after this ADA by Franchisor do or will contain terms substantially similar to those contained in this ADA. Franchisor may, in its reasonable business judgment and its sole and absolute discretion waive or modify comparable provisions of other agreements previously executed or executed after the date of this ADA with other Small Town Play Café franchisees or area developers in a non-uniform manner.

H. Interest

Any monies past due to Franchisor from Area Developer shall bear interest at a rate equal to the lesser of the daily equivalent of one and a half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest rate of interest allowed by law on all past due amounts. Interest shall be due on any and all overdue amounts, fees, charges and payments due to the Franchisor under this Agreement.

I. Validity

Any invalidity of any portion of this ADA shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions and unless substantial performance of this ADA is frustrated by any such invalidity, this ADA shall continue in full force and effect.

J. Headings, Table of Contents and Gender

K. Effectiveness

The submission of this ADA does not constitute an offer to franchise and this ADA shall become effective only upon execution thereof by Franchisor and Area Developer.

L. Execution by Franchisor

This ADA shall not be binding on Franchisor unless and until it shall have been accepted and signed by an authorized officer of Franchisor.

M. Assignment by Franchisor

Except as otherwise restricted by applicable law, this ADA may be assigned in whole or in part by Franchisor without prior approval of Area Developer and such assignment shall not modify or diminish Area Developer's obligations hereunder.

N. Third Parties

The parties intend to confer no benefit or right on any person or entity not a party to this ADA and no third-party shall have the right to claim the benefit of any provisions hereof as a third-party beneficiary of any such provision.

O. Attorneys' Fees

If Franchisor becomes a party to any legal proceedings concerning this ADA by reason of any claims of any act or omission of Area Developer or its authorized representatives, Area Developer shall be liable to Franchisor for attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by Franchisor in the legal proceedings. If either party commences an action against the other party arising out of or in connection with this ADA, the prevailing party shall be entitled to have and recover from the other party its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

P. Responsibility

The term Area Developer as used in this ADA shall refer to each person executing this ADA as Area Developer, whether such person is one of the spouses, partners, shareholders, trustees, trustors or beneficiaries of persons named as included in Area Developer, and shall apply to each such person as if he were the only named Area Developer in this ADA.

(i) If Area Developer is a married couple, both spouses executing this ADA shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Area Developer hereunder as if such spouse were the sole Area Developer hereunder.

(ii) If Area Developer is a partnership or if more than one person executes this ADA as Area Developer, each partner or person executing this ADA shall be liable for all the obligations and duties of Area Developer hereunder.

(iii) If Area Developer is a trust, each trustee, trustor and beneficiary signing this ADA shall be liable for all of the obligations and duties of Area Developer hereunder.

(iv) If Area Developer is a corporation, all shareholders executing this ADA shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Area Developer hereunder as if each such shareholder were the sole Area Developer hereunder.

(v) If Area Developer is in breach or default under this ADA, Franchisor may proceed directly against each such spouse, partner, signatory to this ADA, shareholder, trustee, trustor or beneficiary without first proceeding against Area Developer and without proceeding against or naming in such suit any other Area Developer, partner, signatory to this ADA, shareholder, trustee, trustor or beneficiary. The obligations of Area Developer and each such spouse, partner, person executing this ADA, shareholder, trustee, trustor and beneficiary shall be joint and several.

Q. Cumulative Remedies and Offsets

Any specific right or remedy set forth in this ADA, legal, equitable or otherwise, shall not be exclusive but shall be cumulative with all other rights or remedies set forth herein or allowed or allowable by law. Franchisor may apply any funds of Area Developer which come within its possession or control to any debts then due and unpaid by Area Developer to Franchisor or its affiliates.

S. Governing Law and Venue

(i) This ADA, all relations between the parties and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, are to be exclusively construed in accordance with and/or governed by (as applicable) the law of the State of New Jersey without recourse to New Jersey (or any other) choice of law or conflicts of law principles. If, however, any provision of this ADA would not be enforceable under the laws of New Jersey, and if any Franchised Business is located outside of New Jersey and the provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which the Area Developer is located, then the provision (and only that provision) will be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state. Nothing in this Article 14 is intended to invoke the application of any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust, "implied covenant," unfair competition, fiduciary or any other doctrine of law of the state of New Jersey or any other state, which would not otherwise apply.

(ii) Area Developer agrees to institute any litigation that Area Developer may commence arising out of or related to this Agreement; any breach of this Agreement; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction which is either a New Jersey state court in Union County, New Jersey or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. Area Developer agrees that any dispute as to the venue for any litigation Area Developer institutes will be submitted to and resolved exclusively by either a New Jersey state court or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. Area Developer hereby waives and covenants never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). All depositions in connection with any litigation between the parties shall be held in the jurisdiction and venue indicated above.

(iii) Area Developer further agrees that Franchisor may institute any litigation that Franchisor commences arising out of or related to this Agreement; any breach of this Agreement; the relations between the parties; and, any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, in any court of competent jurisdiction wherever situated that Franchisor selects. Area Developer agrees that any dispute as to the venue for the litigation Franchisor institutes will be submitted to and be resolved exclusively by the court of competent jurisdiction in which Franchisor commenced the litigation. Area Developer hereby waives and covenants never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate, (including any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens).

(iv) Area Developer explicitly affirms and recognizes the unique value and secondary meaning attached to the System, the Principal Trademarks, any intellectual property and the Confidential Information. Accordingly, Area Developer agrees that any non-compliance by Area Developer with the terms of this Agreement and/or the terms of any Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition Agreement, Area Developer's operation of the franchise post-termination or any unauthorized or improper use of the System, the Principal Trademarks, any intellectual property, or Confidential Information by Area Developer, will cause irreparable damage to the Franchisor, its affiliates and other Small Town Play Café franchisees. Area Developer therefore agrees that if it engages in any non-compliant, post-termination operation of the franchise or unauthorized and/or improper use of the System, Principal Trademarks or Confidential Information during or after the period of this Agreement, Franchisor will be entitled to a declaration, temporary injunctive relief and permanent injunctive relief, without the need of a bond, against Area Developer from any court of competent jurisdiction, wherever situated, as Franchisor may select, in addition to all other remedies which the Franchisor may have at law.

(v) The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories (including without limitation Area Developer's Owners and guarantors) and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

T. Notice of Franchisor's Alleged Breach.

Area Developer agrees to give Franchisor immediate written notice of any alleged breach or violation of this ADA after Area Developer has constructive or actual knowledge of same, or has reason to know, should reasonably know, believes, determines or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged breach of this ADA by Franchisor including any acts of misfeasance or nonfeasance, whether or not Area Developer believes, determines or is of the opinion that provision of such notice would be futile. Franchisor shall have one hundred twenty (120) days from Franchisor's receipt of Area Developer's notice to cure such alleged breach. If Area Developer does not give written notice to Franchisor of any alleged breach of this ADA within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date that Area Developer has constructive or actual knowledge of, or has reason to know, should reasonably know, believes, determines or is of the opinion that there has been an alleged breach by Franchisor then Franchisor's alleged breach will be considered to be condoned, approved, waived and ratified by Area Developer; there will not be considered to be a breach of this ADA by Franchisor; and Area Developer will be permanently barred from commencing any action against Franchisor for Franchisor's alleged breach or violation or defending any claim brought by Franchisor or its affiliates against Area Developer based on Franchisor's alleged breach or violation. Area Developer agrees that the purported futility of providing Franchisor with notice of an alleged breach shall not excuse the obligation to provide notice, as required hereunder, and such notice and cure period shall be deemed a condition precedent to any claim made by Area Developer.

U. Right to Cure.

In addition to all other remedies granted pursuant to this ADA, if Area Developer defaults in the performance of any of its obligations or breaches any term or condition of this ADA or any related agreement, then Franchisor may, at its election, immediately or at any time thereafter, without waiving any claim for breach under this ADA and without notice to Area Developer, cure the default on Area Developer's behalf. Franchisor's costs and expenses associated with curing the default and all related expenses will be due and payable by Area Developer on demand.

V. Periods in which to Make Claims.

(i) Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this ADA brought by any party against the other or any affiliate, must be commenced the earlier of: (a) six (6) months after the date of discovery of the facts resulting in such alleged liability or obligation, or if earlier, the date such facts should or could have been discovered with reasonable diligence; or (b) one (1) year after the date of the first act or omission giving rise to such alleged liability or obligation. Actions and claims brought or asserted after expiration of the applicable limitations period shall be barred.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, where any federal, state or local law provides for a shorter limitation period than above described, whether upon notice or otherwise, such shorter period will govern.

(iii) The foregoing limitations may, where brought into effect by Franchisor's failure to commence an action within the time periods specified, operate to exclude Franchisor's right to sue for damages but will in no case, even upon expiration or lapse of the periods specified or referenced above, operate to prevent Franchisor from terminating Area Developer's rights and Franchisor's obligations under this ADA as provided herein and under applicable law nor prevent Franchisor from obtaining any appropriate court judgment, order or otherwise which enforces and/or is otherwise consistent with such termination.

(iv) The foregoing limitations shall not apply to Franchisor's claims arising from or relating to: (a) Area Developer's under-payment or non-payment of any amounts owed to Franchisor or any affiliate or otherwise related entity; (b) indemnification by Area Developer; (c) Area Developer's confidentiality, non-use, non-competition or other exclusive relationship obligations; and/or (d) Area Developer's unauthorized use of the Marks and/or Copyrighted Information.

W. CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

IN NO EVENT WILL FRANCHISOR BE LIABLE TO AREA DEVELOPER (OR ITS OWNERS) FOR CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, PENAL, MULTIPLE, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT OR SPECIAL DAMAGES IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS ADA; ANY BREACH, TERMINATION OR CANCELLATION OF THIS ADA; OR IN ANY OTHER ACTION OR PROCEEDING WHATSOEVER BETWEEN THE PARTIES TO THIS ADA AND/OR ANY OF THEIR AFFILIATES. AREA DEVELOPER HEREBY WAIVES AND COVENANTS NEVER TO ADVANCE ANY SUCH CLAIM FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this ADA on the date first shown above.

(iv) Own, maintain, develop, operate, engage in, franchise or license, make loans or gifts to or have any direct or indirect interest in or render services as a director, officer, manager, employee, consultant, representative, or agent or give advice to any Competitive Business (except that equity ownership of less than five percent (5%) of a Competitive Business whose stock or other forms of ownership interest are publicly traded on a recognized United States stock exchange will not be deemed to violate this subsection).

(d) During the term of the Recipient's relationship with Area Developer, there is no geographical limitation on these restrictions, meaning that Recipient shall not engage in the conduct referred to in subsection 3(c) at any location. During the two (2) year period following the later of: termination (regardless of the cause of termination) or expiration of the Recipient's relationship with Area Developer; or the date of a final non-appealable judgment, order or award of any court, arbitrator, panel of arbitrators or tribunal that enforces this Article 3, these restrictions shall apply:

(i) at the location of the Area Developer's Small Town Play Café businesses;

(ii) within the Area assigned to Area Developer and within ten (10) miles of the outer boundaries of the Area assigned to Area Developer;

(iii) within ten (10) miles of the location of any other Small Town Play Café business; and

(iv) within the territory assigned to any Small Town Play Café business and within ten (10) miles of the outer boundaries of any territory assigned to any Small Town Play Café business;

(v) within the area assigned to any other Small Town Play Café area developer and within ten (10) miles of the outer boundaries of any area assigned to any other Small Town Play Café area developer; owned, in operation, under development or to be developed by Franchisor, its affiliates, Area Developer or franchisees of Franchisor and/or its affiliates (1) as of the date of this Agreement; (2) as of the date of termination (regardless of the cause of the termination) or expiration of Recipient's employment or contractual relationship with Area Developer; or (3) as of the date of entry of any final non-appealable judgment, order or award of any court, arbitrator, panel of arbitrators or tribunal that enforces this Article 3.

(e) Recipient further covenants and agrees that for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or termination of Recipient's relationship with Area Developer,

Recipient will not either directly or indirectly for itself or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, sell, assign, lease or transfer any of Area Developer's Franchised Business locations to any person, firm, partnership corporation or other entity that Recipient knows or has reason to know intends to operate a Competitive Business at that Franchised Business location.

(f) Recipient covenants not to engage in any activity which might injure the goodwill of the Principal Trademarks or the System at any time. This provision shall survive termination of the Recipient's relationship with Area Developer.

(g) Recipient expressly acknowledges that his or her skills and abilities are of a general nature and Recipient has other opportunities for exploiting these skills and abilities. Consequently, the enforcement of the covenants made in this Article 3 will not deprive Recipient of his or her personal goodwill or ability to earn a living.

(h) Recipient agrees and acknowledges that each of the covenants contained herein are reasonable limitations as to time, geographical area and scope of activity to be restrained and do not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect the know-how, reputation, goodwill and other legitimate business interests of Franchisor, its affiliates and Area Developer. Recipient also agrees and acknowledges that the reputation, goodwill and foregoing are legitimate business interests of Franchisor, its affiliates and Area Developer and they require the protection of the covenants contained herein. The legitimate business interests of Franchisor, its affiliates and Area Developer also include but are not limited to: (i) maintaining the confidential nature of the Confidential Information; (ii) preserving the Franchisor's ability to develop franchises at or near the Area Developer's Franchised Business locations, within the Area assigned to Area Developer and within the territorial boundaries of the restrictive covenant described above in subsection 3(d); (iii) preserving the Area Developer's ability to develop franchises within the area assigned to the Area Developer; (iv) preventing potential customer confusion; (v) protecting Area Developer and other franchisees and area developers from competition from Recipient; and (v) protecting the System as a whole including the area developer and franchisee networks. If any provision of this Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition Agreement Form (including any sentences, clauses, or any part thereof) shall be held contrary to law or incomplete or unenforceable in any respect, the remaining provisions shall not be affected but shall remain in full force and effect; any invalidated provisions shall be severed and this Agreement modified to the extent necessary to render it valid and enforceable.

(i) Franchisor, its affiliates and Area Developer shall have the right, in its sole discretion to reduce the scope of any covenant contained in this Article 3 effective immediately upon Recipient's receipt of written notice and Recipient agrees to comply forthwith with any covenants as so modified which will be enforceable notwithstanding the provisions of Article 6.

4. Enforcement

Recipient acknowledges that violation of the covenants contained in this Agreement would result in immediate and irreparable injury to Area Developer, Franchisor and its affiliates for which no adequate remedy at law will be available. Accordingly, Recipient hereby consents to the entry of an injunction procured by Area Developer, Franchisor and/or its affiliates prohibiting any conduct by Recipient in violation of the terms, covenants and/or restrictions of this Agreement without the need of a bond. Recipient expressly agrees that it may conclusively be presumed in any legal action that any violation of the terms of these terms, covenants and/or restrictions was accomplished by and through my unlawful utilization of the Confidential Information. Further, Recipient expressly agrees that any claims Recipient may have against Area Developer, Franchisor and/or its affiliates will not constitute a defense to the enforcement of the terms, covenants and/or restrictions set forth in this Agreement by Area Developer, Franchisor and/or its affiliates. Recipient further agrees to pay all costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees, experts' fees, court costs and all other expenses of litigation) incurred by Area Developer, Franchisor and/or its affiliates in connection with the enforcement of the terms, covenants and/or restrictions of this Agreement.

5. Definitions

(a) The term "affiliates" (with respect to Recipient) means any and all corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, trusts or other entities controlling, controlled by or under common control with Franchisee, including but not limited to subsidiaries, parents and sibling entities.

(b) The term "control" shall mean the control or ownership of ten percent (10%) or more of the beneficial interest in the person or entity referred to.

(c) The term "Competitive Business" means: (i) any retail children's play space and café business which is the same or substantially similar to the Franchised Business or any business which offers to sell or sells any products or services which are the same or substantially similar to any of the products or services offered by the Franchised Business, or (ii) any business granting franchises or licenses to others to operate such a business (other than a franchised business operated under a franchise agreement with Franchisor).

(d) The term "Owner" means any individual or entity (including all spouses, partners, members or shareholders of such individual or entity) that has any direct or indirect ownership interest of five percent (5%) or more in Recipient (or at such later time as they assume such status), whether or not such interest is of record, beneficially or otherwise. The term "Owners" shall also include individuals, partners, members and shareholders and (spouses of such individuals, partners, members and shareholders) with an ownership interest of five percent (5%) or more in any partnership, corporation or limited liability company that holds a controlling interest in the Recipient entity.

(e) Any capitalized term that is not defined in this Agreement shall have the meaning given to it in the ADA or a franchise agreement entered into by the parties.

6. Miscellaneous.

(a) Area Developer, Franchisor and its affiliates make no representations or warranties as to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information provided to Recipient and shall not be liable, directly or indirectly, to Recipient or any of Recipient's affiliates as a result of any use of the Confidential Information by or on behalf of Recipient and/or its affiliates. Recipient specifically waives any and all claims for any loss or damage suffered by it due to its use of the Confidential Information and agrees to indemnify and hold Area Developer, Franchisor and its affiliates harmless for any claims made against Area Developer, Franchisor and/or its affiliates based upon Recipient's provision of the Confidential Information to third parties.

(b) If all or any portion of the covenants not to compete set forth in this Agreement are held unreasonable, void, vague or illegal by any court or agency with competent jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter, the court, arbitrator or agency will be empowered to revise and/or construe the covenants to fall within permissible legal limits, and should not by necessity invalidate the entire covenants. Recipient acknowledges and agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of this Agreement as if the resulting covenants were separately stated in and made a part of this Agreement.

(c) This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of Area Developer and Recipient and their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns.

(d) This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey without recourse to New Jersey (or any other) choice of law or conflicts of law principles.

(f) This Agreement contains the complete understanding of Recipient and Franchisee with respect to the Confidential Information and this Agreement shall not be amended without the prior written consent of the parties.

(g) Recipient acknowledges that Franchisor, its affiliates, successors and assigns, are third-party beneficiaries under this Agreement and may enforce this Agreement. Recipient further acknowledges that: (i) a copy of this Agreement is being delivered to Franchisor; (ii) Franchisor is relying on the parties' compliance with this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement may not be amended, or terminated nor any rights or obligations of Recipient waived hereunder without the prior written consent of the Franchisor.

(h) This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and each copy so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original.

7. Choice of Law and Venue

(a) This Agreement is to be exclusively construed in accordance with and/or governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey without recourse to New Jersey (or any other) choice of law or conflicts of law principles. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of New Jersey, and if the Area is located outside of New Jersey and the provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which the Area is located, then that provision (and only that provision) will be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to invoke the application of any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust, "implied covenant," unfair competition, fiduciary or any other doctrine of law of the State of New Jersey or any other state, which would not otherwise apply.

(b) Recipient and Area Developer agree to institute any litigation that the undersigned may commence arising out of or related to this Agreement or the ADA; any breach of the ADA; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction which is either a New Jersey state court in Union County, New Jersey or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. The undersigned hereby waive and covenant never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including, without limitation, any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). The undersigned further agree that Franchisor may institute any litigation that it commences arising out of or related to this Agreement or the ADA; any breach of this Agreement or the ADA; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, in any court of competent jurisdiction, wherever situated, that Franchisor selects. The undersigned agree that any dispute as to the venue for the litigation Franchisor institutes will be submitted to and resolved exclusively by the court of competent jurisdiction in which Franchisor commenced the litigation. The undersigned hereby waive and covenant never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including, without limitation, any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). All depositions in connection with any litigation between the parties shall be held in the jurisdiction and venue where any such litigation is commenced.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

GUARANTEE

In consideration of the execution by Franchisor of the Area Development Agreement (the "ADA") dated the ___ day of _____, 20____, between Small Town Play Café Franchising LLC ("Franchisor") and _____ ("Area Developer") and for other good and valuable consideration, each of the undersigned, for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, do jointly, individually and severally hereby absolutely and unconditionally guarantee the payment of all amounts and the performance of all covenants, terms, conditions, agreements and undertakings contained and set forth in said ADA and in any other agreement(s) by and between Area Developer and Franchisor.

1. If more than one person has executed this guarantee ("Guarantee"), the term "the undersigned", as used herein, shall refer to each such person, and the liability of each of the undersigned hereunder shall be joint and several and primary as sureties.

2. The undersigned, individually and jointly, hereby agree to be personally bound by each and every covenant, term, condition, agreement and undertaking contained and set forth in said ADA and any other agreement(s) by and between Area Developer and Franchisor, and agree that this Guarantee shall be construed as though the undersigned and each of them executed agreement(s) containing the identical terms and conditions of the ADA and any other agreement(s) by and between Area Developer and Franchisor.

3. The undersigned hereby agree that without the consent of or notice to any of the undersigned and without affecting any of the obligations of the undersigned hereunder (a) any term, covenant or condition of the ADA may be amended, compromised, released or otherwise altered by Franchisor and Area Developer, and the undersigned do guarantee and promise to perform all the obligations of Area Developer under the ADA as so amended, compromised, released or altered; (b) any guarantor of or party to the ADA may be released, substituted or added; (c) any right or remedy under the ADA, this Guarantee or any other instrument or agreement between Franchisor and Area Developer may be exercised, not exercised, impaired, modified, limited, destroyed or suspended; and (d) Franchisor or any other person may deal in any manner with Area Developer, any of the undersigned, any party to the ADA or any other person.

4. Should Area Developer be in breach or default under the ADA or any other agreement(s) by and between Area Developer and Franchisor, Franchisor may proceed directly against any or each of the undersigned without first proceeding against Area Developer and without proceeding against or naming in such suit any other Area Developer, signatory to the ADA or any others of the undersigned.

5. Notice to or demand upon Area Developer or any of the undersigned shall be deemed notice to or demand upon Area Developer and all of the undersigned, and no notice or demand need be made to or upon any or all of the undersigned. The cessation of or release from liability of Area Developer or any of the undersigned shall not relieve any other guarantor from liability pursuant to this Guarantee, under the ADA, or under any other agreement(s) between Franchisor and Area Developer, except to the extent that the breach or default has been remedied or moneys owed have been paid.

6. Any waiver, extension of time or other indulgence granted by Franchisor or its agents, successors or assigns, with respect to the ADA or any other agreement(s) by and between Area Developer and Franchisor, shall in no way modify or amend this Guarantee, which shall be continuing, absolute, unconditional and irrevocable.

7. It is understood and agreed by the undersigned that the provisions, covenants and conditions of this Guarantee shall inure to the benefit of the Franchisor, its successors and assigns. This Guarantee may be assigned by Franchisor voluntarily or by operation of law without reducing or modifying the liability of the undersigned hereunder.

8. Governing Law/Consent to Jurisdiction

a. This Guarantee, all relations between the parties and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, are to be exclusively construed in accordance with and/or governed by (as applicable) the law of the State of New Jersey without recourse to New Jersey (or any other) choice of law or conflicts of law principles. If, however, any provision of this Guarantee would not be enforceable under the laws of New Jersey, and if any Franchised Business is located outside of New Jersey and the provision would be enforceable under the laws of that state, then the provision (and only that provision) will be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state. Nothing in this Article 8 is intended to invoke the application of any franchise, business opportunity, antitrust, "implied covenant," unfair competition, fiduciary or any other doctrine of law of the state of New Jersey or any other state, which would not otherwise apply.

b. The Guarantors and Franchisor agree to institute any litigation that the undersigned may commence arising out of or related to this Guarantee or the ADA; any breach of this Guarantee or the ADA; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction which is either a New Jersey state court in Union County, New Jersey or the United States District Court for the State of New Jersey. The undersigned hereby waive and covenant never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including, without limitation, any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). The undersigned further agree that Franchisor may institute any litigation that it commences arising out of or related to this Guarantee or the ADA; any breach of this Guarantee or the ADA; the relations between the parties; and any and all disputes between the parties, whether sounding in contract, tort, or otherwise, in any court of competent jurisdiction, wherever situated, that Franchisor selects. The undersigned hereby irrevocably submits itself and its guarantors to the jurisdiction and venue of such court as Franchisor may select. The undersigned agree that any dispute as to the venue for the litigation Franchisor institutes will be submitted to and resolved exclusively by the court of competent jurisdiction in which Franchisor commenced the litigation. The undersigned hereby waives and covenants never to assert or claim that this venue is for any reason improper, inconvenient, prejudicial or otherwise inappropriate (including, without limitation, any claim under the judicial doctrine of forum non conveniens). All depositions in connection with any litigation between the parties shall be held in the jurisdiction and venue where any such litigation is commenced.

c. Franchisor and the undersigned hereby agree and acknowledge that this Section 8 shall bind the undersigned's guarantors, whether or not such guarantors were named parties to the litigation.

d. The undersigned explicitly affirms and recognizes the unique value and secondary meaning attached to the System, the Principal Trademarks, any intellectual property and the Confidential Information. Accordingly, the undersigned agrees that any non-compliance by the undersigned with the terms of this Guarantee, the ADA and/or the terms of any Confidentiality, Non-Use and Non-Competition Agreement, the undersigned's operation of the franchise post-termination or any unauthorized or improper use of the System, the Principal Trademarks, any intellectual property, or Confidential Information by the undersigned, will cause irreparable damage to the Franchisor, its affiliates and other Small Town Play Café area developers and franchisees. The undersigned therefore agrees that if it engages in any non-compliant, post-termination operation of the area development business or unauthorized and/or improper use of the System, Principal Trademarks or Confidential Information during or after the period of this Guarantee, Franchisor will be entitled to a declaration, temporary injunctive relief and permanent injunctive relief, without the need of a bond, against the undersigned from any court of competent jurisdiction, wherever situated, as Franchisor may select, in addition to all other remedies which the Franchisor may have at law.

e. The provisions of this Section are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories (including without limitation the undersigned's Owners and guarantors) and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Guarantee.

9. Should any one or more provisions of this Guarantee be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, all other provisions shall nevertheless be effective.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Guarantee effective as of the date of the ADA.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the members of
Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC (the Company) as of June 02, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statement.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC as of June 02, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statement section of our report. We are required to be independent of Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statement that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statement, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statement is available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statement.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statement.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC
Notes to Financial Statement
June 02, 2025

1. COMPANY AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Small Town Play Cafe Franchising, LLC (the Company) was established in the state of New Jersey on April 28, 2025, for the purpose of offering franchise opportunities to entrepreneurs who want to own and operate their business as a franchise. The Company provide the qualified individual the rights to operate an educational and recreational children's play space and café under the name "Small Town Play Café" featuring a custom-designed play space with imaginative and gross-motor play opportunities, which offers open play, birthday parties, classes and events, memberships and a full-service café offering gourmet coffee, hot and iced specialty beverages, and a selection of baked goods, breakfast and lunch items, children's meals and other food items. The Company offers individual unit franchises and area development franchises for the development of multiple units within a designated territory.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist the reader in understanding and evaluating the Company's financial statement. The financial statement and notes are representations of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to generally accepted accounting principles and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statement.

A. Basis of Accounting

The financial statement was prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

B. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

C. Federal Income Taxes

As a limited liability company, the Company's taxable income or loss is allocated to members in accordance with their respective percentage ownership. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

D. Use of Estimates

The preparation of our Company's financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of our financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues, costs, and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates. It is at least reasonably possible that a change in the estimates will occur in the near term.

E. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash and cash equivalents with major financial institutions. At various times during the period, the total amount on deposit might exceed the $250,000 limit insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Company believes that it mitigates credit risk by depositing cash with financial institutions having high credit ratings.

F. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized in accordance with ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The Company adopted ASU 2021-02 Franchisors - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Subtopic 952-606) effective with the application of ASC Topic 606. The ASU provides a practical expedient to ASU2014-09 Revenue from contracts with Customers (Topic 606). The new guidance allows franchisors to simplify the application of the guidance about identifying performance obligations for franchisors that perform pre-opening services by allowing a franchisor to account for pre-opening services as distinct if they are consistent with those included in a predefined list of pre-opening services.

Franchise Fees

The franchise arrangement between the Company and each franchise owner is documented in the form of a franchise agreement and, in select cases, a development agreement. The franchise arrangement requires the Company as franchisor to perform various activities to support the brand and does not involve the direct transfer of goods and services to the franchise owner as a customer. Activities performed by the Company before opening are distinguished from the franchise license. Therefore, the Company recognizes franchise fees as two performance obligations. The nature of the Company's promise in granting the franchise license is to provide the franchise owner with access to the brand's intellectual property over the term of the franchise arrangement.

The transaction price in a standard franchise arrangement consists of (a) franchise/development fees; (b) Marketing, brand development and royalties fees and (c) IT fees; (d) Annual Conference fees. The Company utilize ASC 606 five-steps revenue recognition model as follows:

- Identify the contract with the customer.
- Identify the performance obligation in the contract.
- Determine the transaction price.
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations.
- Recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied.

The terms of the Company's franchise agreement will be as follows:

- The Company will grant the right to use the Company name, trademark, and system in the franchisee's franchise development business.
- The franchisee is obligated to pay a non-refundable initial franchise fee.
- The franchisee is obligated to pay weekly royalties, marketing, IT, and annual conference fees. Certain other fees are also outlined in the agreement.

Franchise revenues are recognized by the Company from the following different sources: The Company recognizes franchise fees as two (2) performance obligations. The first, pre-opening services, including access to manuals, assistance in site selection, and initial training, have been determined to be distinct services offered to franchisees. Pre-opening services are earned over a period using an input method of completion based on costs incurred for each franchisee at the end of each year.

The second, access to the franchise license, has been determined to be distinct. The amount allocated to the franchise license is earned over time as performance obligations are satisfied due to the continuous transfer of control to the franchisee. Franchise and development fees are paid in advance of the franchise opening, typically when entering into a new franchise or development agreement. Fees allocated to the franchise license are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of each respective franchise agreement. Initial franchise agreement terms are typically 10 years, while successive agreement terms are typically 10 years.

Variable Considerations

Franchise agreements contain variable considerations in the form of royalty fees and brand development (advertising). These fees are based on franchisee sales and are recorded as revenue and recognized as these services are delivered because the variable payment relates specifically to the performance obligation of using the license.

Contracts Assets and Liabilities Balances

The Company incurs costs that are directly attributable to obtaining a contract, for example, commission fees, broker fees, and referral fees. Under ASC 606, costs that are directly associated with obtaining a contract are to be capitalized and recognized over the term of the agreement. Capitalized costs are included in deferred expenses on the accompanying balance sheet. As such, direct franchise license costs are recognized over the franchise and renewal term, which is the performance obligation, and is typically the franchise agreement's term. If a customer is terminated, the remaining deferred expense will be recognized to expenses.

Deferred revenue consists of the remaining initial franchise fees to be amortized over the life of the franchise agreements. Deferred revenue is a result of the collection of the initial franchise fee at the time of the signing of the franchise agreement and will fluctuate each year based on the number of franchise agreements signed.

The Company didn't generate any revenue as of the balance sheet date but will be implementing ASC 606 to recognize its revenue once a sale has been made.

G. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

FASB ASU No. 2016-02 – Leases (Topic 842) is effective for the calendar year 2022. The standard requires lessees to recognize right-of-use assets and liabilities for most leases with terms longer than twelve months. The Company has evaluated the impact of this standard on its financial statements and determined that it doesn't have any lease that meets the requirement to recognize a right-of-use asset and liability because the Company doesn't have any long-term leases.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurements of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments. ASU 2016-13, along with subsequent clarifications and improvements (collectively, ASC 326), replaces the incurred loss impairment methodology in prior U.S. GAAP with a methodology that instead reflects a current estimate of all expected credit losses on financial assets, including receivables. ASC 326 requires that the Company measure and recognize expected credit losses at the time the asset is recorded, while considering a broader range of information to estimate credit losses including country specific macroeconomic conditions that correlate with historical loss experience, delinquency trends, and aging behavior of receivables, among others. ASC 326 is effective for the Company since inception. There was no impact on the Company's financial statements as a result of the implementation of this standard.

3. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company maintains its cash balance in U.S. non-interest-bearing transaction accounts which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. On June 02, 2025, the Company's cash balance didn't exceed the FDIC insurance limits.

The Company considers all cash in the bank and investments in highly liquid debt instruments with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of June 02, 2025, the Company has approximately $5,000 in cash in their operating bank account.

4. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through June 26, 2025, which is the date the financial statement was available to be issued. The Company did not have any material recognizable subsequent events that would require adjustment to, or disclosure in, the financial statement.
